CHAP. XXIX.

Moſes exhorteth them to obedience, by the memory of the works they have ſeen. 10 All are preſented before the Lord to enter into his covenant. 18 The great wrath on him that flattereth himſelf in his wickedneſs. 29 Secret things belong unto God.

THeſe are the [a] words of the covenant which the LORD commanded Moſes to make with the children of Iſrael, in the land of Moab, a That is, the ticles or co tions.

Moab, beſide the covenant which he made with them in [b] Horeb.

[b] At the firſt giving of the law which was fourty years before. * Exod. 19. 4.

2 ¶ And Moſes called unto all Iſrael, and ſaid unto them, * Ye have ſeen all that the LORD did before your eyes in the land of Egypt, unto Pharaoh, and unto all his ſervants, and unto all his land;

3 The [c] great temptations which thine eyes have ſeen, the ſigns and thoſe great miracles:

[c] The proofs of my power.

4 Yet the LORD hath [d] not given you an heart to perceive, and eyes to ſee, and ears to hear, unto this day.

[d] He ſheweth that it is not in mans power to underſtand the myſteries of God, if it be not given him from above.

5 And I have led you fourty years in the wilderneſs: your clothes are not waxen old upon you, and thy ſhoe is not waxen old upon thy foot.

[e] Made by mans art, but Manna, which is called the bread of Angels.

6 Ye have not eaten [e] bread, neither have you drunk wine, or ſtrong drink: that ye might know that I am the LORD your God.

7 And when ye came unto this place, Sihon the king of Heſhbon, and Og the king of Baſhan, came out againſt us unto battel, and we ſmote them.

8 And we took their land, and gave it for an inheritance unto the Reubenite, and to the Gadite, and to the half-tribe of Manaſſeh.

* Chap. 4. 6. 1 Kings 2. 3. Joſh. 1. 7.

9 * Keep therefore the words of this covenant and do them, that ye may proſper in all that ye do.

[f] who knoweth your hearts, and therefore ye may not think to diſſemble with him.

10 ¶ Ye ſtand this day all of you before the [f] LORD your God; your capitains of your tribes, your elders, and your officers, with all the men of Iſrael,

11 Your little ones, your wives, and thy ſtranger that is in thy camp, from the hewer of thy wood, unto the drawer of thy water:

† Heb. paſs [g] Alluding to them, that when they made a ſure covenant, divided a beaſt in twain, and paſt between the parts divided. Gen. 15. 10.

14 Neither with you onely do I make this covenant, and this oath;

15 But with him that ſtandeth here with us this day before the LORD our God, and alſo with him that is not [h] here with us this day:

29 The [m] ſecret things belong unto the LORD our God: but thoſe things which are revealed belong unto us, and to our children for ever, that we may do all the words of this law.

m Moſes hereby reproveth their curioſity, which ſeek thoſe things that are onely known to God, and their negligence that regard not that which God hath revealed unto them, as the law.

CHAP. XXX.

1 Great mercies promiſed unto the repentant. 11 The commandment is manifeſt. 15 Death and life are ſet before them.

AND it ſhall come to paſs when all theſe things are come upon thee, the bleſſing and the curſe, which I have ſet before thee, and thou ſhalt call them to [a] * mind among all the nations whither the LORD thy God hath driven thee, a Both his mercies and his plagues.

2 And ſhalt return unto the LORD thy God, and ſhalt obey his voice according to all that I command thee this day, thou and thy children, with [b] all thine heart, and with all thy ſoul:

b In true repentance is no hypocriſie.

3 That then the LORD thy God will turn thy captivity, and have compaſſion upon thee, and will return and gather thee from all the nations whither the LORD thy God hath ſcattered thee.

4 * If any of thine be driven out unto the utmoſt parts of [c] heaven, from thence will the LORD thy God gather thee, and from thence will he [d] fetch thee.

5 And the LORD thy God will bring thee into the land which thy fathers poſſeſſed, and thou ſhalt poſſeſs it: and he will do thee good, and multiply thee above thy fathers.

6 And the LORD thy God will [e] circumciſe thine heart, and the heart of thy ſeed, to love the LORD thy God with all thine heart and with all thy ſoul, that thou mayeſt live.

7 And the LORD thy God will put all theſe curſes upon thine enemies, and on them that hate thee, which perſecuted thee.

8 And thou ſhalt [f] return and obey the voice of the LORD, and do all his commandments which I command thee this day.

9 * And the LORD thy God will make thee plenteous in every work of thine hand, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattel, and in the fruit of thy land for good: for the LORD will again [g] rejoyce over thee for good, as he rejoyced over thy fathers:

10 If thou ſhalt hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep his commandments, and his ſtatutes which are written in this book of the law, and if thou turn unto the LORD thy God with all thine heart and with all thy ſoul.

11 ¶ For this commandment which I command thee this day, it is not [h] hidden from thee, neither is it far off.

12 * It is not in heaven, that thou ſhouldſt ſay, Who ſhall go up for us to heaven, & bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it?

13 Neither is it beyond the [i] ſea, that thou ſhouldſt ſay, Who ſhall go over the ſea for us, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it?

14 But the [k] word is very nigh unto thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart, that thou mayſt [l] do it.

15 ¶ See, I have ſet before thee this day life and good, and death and evil:

16 In that I command thee this day to [m] love the LORD thy God, to walk in his ways, and to keep his commandments, and his ſtatutes, and his judgements, that thou mayeſt [n] live and multiply: and the LORD thy God ſhall bleſs thee in the land whither thou goeſt to poſſeſs it.

17 But if thine heart turn away, ſo that thou wilt not hear, but ſhalt be drawn away, and worſhip other, gods and ſerve them:

18 I denounce unto you this day, that ye ſhall ſurely periſh and that ye ſhall not prolong your days upon the land, whither thou paſſeſt over Jordan, to go to poſſeſs it.

19 * I call heaven and earth to record this day againſt you, that I have ſet before you life and death, bleſſing and curſing: therefore [o] chooſe life, that both thou and thy ſeed may live:

20 That thou mayeſt love the LORD thy God, and that thou mayeſt obey his voice, and that thou mayeſt cleave unto him (for he is thy life, and the length of thy days) that thou mayeſt dwell in the land which the LORD ſware unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Iſaac, and to Jacob, to give them.

CHAP. XXXI.

1 Moſes encourageth the people. 7 He encourageth Joſhua. 9 He delivereth the law unto the prieſt, to read it in the ſeventh year to the people. 14 God giveth a charge to Joſhua, 19 and a ſong to teſtify againſt the people. 24 Moſes delivereth the book of the law to the Levites to keep. 28 He maketh a proteſtation to the elders.

AND Moſes went and ſpake theſe words unto all Iſrael.

2 And he ſaid unto them, I am an hundred and twenty years old this day; [a] I can no more go out and come in: alſo the LORD hath ſaid unto me, * Thou ſhalt not go over this Jordan.

3 The LORD thy God, he will go over before thee, and he will deſtroy theſe nations from before thee, and thou ſhalt poſſeſs them: and Joſhua, he ſhall go over before thee, * as the LORD hath ſaid.

4 And the LORD ſhall do unto them as he did to Sihon, and to Og, kings of the Amorites, and unto the land of them whom he deſtroyed.

5 And * the LORD ſhall give them up [b] before your face, that ye may do unto them according unto all the commandments which I have commanded you.

6 Be ſtrong and of a good courage; fear not, nor be afraid of them: for the LORD thy God, he it is that doth go with thee, he will not fail thee, nor forſake thee.

7 ¶ And Moſes called unto Joſhua, and ſaid unto him in the ſight of all Iſrael, [c] Be ſtrong and of a good courage: for thou muſt go with this people unto the land which the LORD hath ſworn unto their fathers to give them; and thou ſhalt cauſe them to inherit it.

8 And the LORD, he it is that doth [d] go before thee, he will be with thee, he will not fail thee neither forſake thee: fear not neither be diſmayed.

9 ¶ And Moſes wrote this law, and delivered it unto the prieſts the ſons of Levi, which bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and unto all the elders of Iſrael.

10 And Moſes commanded them, ſaying, At the end of every ſeven years, in the ſolemnity of the * year of releaſe, in the feaſt of tabernacles, 11 When all Iſrael is come to appear before the [e] LORD thy God, in the place which he ſhall chooſe: thou ſhalt read this law before all Iſrael, in their hearing.

12 Gather the people together, men, and women, and children, and thy ſtranger that is within thy gates, that they may hear, and that they may learn, and fear the LORD your God, and obſerve to do all the words of this law.

THE BOOK OF JOSHUA.

THE ARGUMENT.

IN this book the holy Ghoſt ſetteth moſt lively before our eyes the accompliſhment of Gods promiſe, who as he promiſed by the mouth of Moſes, that a prophet ſhould be raiſed up unto the people like unto him, whom he willeth to obey, Deut. 18. 15. ſo he ſheweth himſelf here true in his promiſe, as at all other times, and after the death of Moſes his faithfull ſervant, he raiſeth up Joſhua to be ruler and governour over his people, that neither they ſhould be diſcouraged for lack of a captain, nor have occaſion to diſtruſt Gods promiſes hereafter. And becauſe that Joſhua might be confirmed in his vocation, and the people alſo might have no occaſion to grudge, as though he were not approved of God: he is adorned with moſt excellent gifts and graces of God, both to govern the people with counſell, and to defend them with ſtrength, that he lacked nothing which either belonged to a valiant captain, or a faithfull miniſter. So he overcometh all difficulties, and bringeth them into the land of Canaan: the which according to Gods ordinance he divideth among the people, and appointeth their borders: he eſtabliſheth laws and ordinances, and putteth them in remembrance of Gods manifold benefits, aſſuring them of his grace and favour, if they obey God, and contrariwiſe of his plagues and vengeance, if they diſobey him. This hiſtory doth repreſent Jeſus Chriſt the true Joſhua, who leadeth us into eternall felicity, which is ſignified unto us by this land of Canaan. From the beginning of Geneſis to the end of this book are contained 2576. years. For from Adam unto the floud are 1656, from the floud unto the departure of Abraham out of Caldea 423, and from thence to the death of Joſeph 290; So that Geneſis containeth 2369, Exodus 140, the other three books of Moſes 40, Joſhua 27; ſo the whole maketh 2576 years.

5 And Joshua said unto them, Pass over before the ark of the LORD your God into the midst of Jordan, and take ye up every man of you a stone upon his shoulder, according unto the number of the tribes of the children of Israel:

6 That this may be a sign among you, that when your [c] children ask their fathers † in time to come, saying, What mean you by these stones?

7 Then ye shall answer them, That the waters of Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the LORD, when it passed over Jordan, the waters of Jordan were cut off: and these stones shall be for a memoriall unto the children of Israel for ever.

8 And the children of Israel did so as Joshua commanded, and took up twelve stones out of the midst of Jordan, as the LORD spake unto Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel, and carried them over with them unto the place where they lodged, and laid them down there.

9 And Joshua set up [d] twelve stones in the midst of Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests which bare the ark of the covenant stood: and they are there unto this day.

10 ¶ For the priests which bare the ark, stood in the midst of Jordan, untill every thing was finished that the LORD commanded Joshua to speak unto the people, according to all that Moses commanded Joshua: and the people hasted and passed over.

11 And it came to pass when all the people were clean passed over, that the ark of the LORD passed over, and the priests in the [e] presence of the people.

12 And * the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh, passed over armed before the children of Israel, as Moses spake unto them:

13 About fortie thousand ‡ prepared for war, passed over before the [f] LORD unto battel, to the plains of Jericho.

14 ¶ On that day the LORD magnified Joshua in the sight of all Israel, and they feared him, as they feared Moses, all the days of his life.

15 And the LORD spake unto Joshua, saying,

16 Command the priests that bear the ark of the [g] testimonie, that they come up out of Jordan.

17 Joshua therefore commanded the priests, saying, Come ye up out of Jordan.

18 And it came to pass when the priests that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, were come up out of the midst of Jordan, and the soles of the priests feet were † lift up unto the dry-land, that the waters of Jordan returned unto their place, and † flowed over all his banks, as they did before.

19 ¶ And the people came up out of Jordan on the tenth day of the [h] first moneth, and encamped in Gilgal, in the east-border of Jericho.

20 ¶ And those twelve stones which they took out of Jordan, did Joshua pitch in Gilgal.

21 And he spake unto the children of Israel, saying, When your children shall ask their fathers † in time to come, saying, What mean these stones.

22 Then ye shall let your children know, saying, Israel came over this Jordan on dry-land.

23 For the LORD your God dried up the waters of Jordan from before you, untill ye were passed over, as the LORD your God did to the Red-sea, * which he dried up from before us, untill we were gon over.

24 That all the people of the [i] earth might know the hand of the LORD, that it is mighty: that ye might fear the LORD your God † for ever.

AND it came to pass when all the kings of the [a] Amorites, which were on the side of Jordan west-ward, and all the kings of the Canaanites, which were by the sea, heard that the LORD had dried up the waters of Jordan from before the children of Israel untill we were passed over, that their heart melted; neither was there spirit in them any more, because of the children of Israel.

5 Now all the people that came out, were circumcised: but all the people that were born in the wilderness by the way, as they came forth out of Egypt, them they had not [d] circumcised.

7 And their children, whom he raised up in their stead, them Joshua circumcised: for they were uncircumcised, because they had not circumcised them by the way.

1 Jericho is ſhut up. 2 God inſtructeth Joſhua how to beſiege it. 12 The city is compaſſed. 17 It muſt be accurſed. 20 The walls fall down. 22 Rahab is ſaved. 26 The builder of Jericho is curſed.

4 And ſeven prieſts ſhall bear before the ark ſeven trumpets of [e] rams horns: & the ſeventh day ye ſhall compaſs the city ſeven times, and the prieſts ſhall blow with the trumpets.

e That the conqueſt might not be aſſigned to mans power, but to the mercie of God, which with moſt weak things can overcome that which ſeemeth moſt ſtrong.

5 And it ſhall come to paſs that when they make a long blaſt with the rams horn, and when ye hear the ſound of the trumpet, all the people ſhall ſhout with a great ſhout: and the wall of the city ſhall fall down † flat, and the people ſhall aſcend up every man ſtraight before him.

f This is chiefly meant by the Reubenites, Gadites, and half the tribe of Manaſſeh.

8 ¶ And it came to paſs when Joſhua had ſpoken unto the people, that the ſeven prieſts bearing the ſeven trumpets of rams horns paſſed on before the LORD, and blew with the trumpets: and the ark of the covenant of the LORD followed them.

12 ¶ And Joſhua roſe early in the morning, and the prieſts took up the ark of the LORD.

13 And ſeven prieſts bearing ſeven trumpets of rams horns before the ark of the LORD, went on continually, and blew with the trumpets: and the armed men went before them, but the [i] rereward came after the ark of the LORD, the prieſts going on, and blowing with the trumpets.

i The tribe of Dan was ſo called, becauſe it marched laſt, and gathered up whatſoever was left of others.

25 And Joshua saved Rahab the harlot alive, and her fathers household, and all that she had; and she [p] dwelleth in Israel even unto this day: because she hid the messengers which Joshua sent to spie out Jericho.

p For she was married to Salmon prince of the tribe of Judah, Matth. 1. 5.

17 And there was not a man left in Ai, or Beth-el, that went not out after Iſrael: and they left the city open, and purſued after Iſrael.

18 And the LORD ſaid unto Joſhua, [h] Stretch out the ſpear that is in thy hand toward Ai; for I will give it into thine hand. And Joſhua ſtretched out the ſpear that he had in his hand, toward the city.

19 And the ambuſh aroſe quickly out of their place, and they ran as ſoon as he had ſtretched out his hand; and they entred into the city, and took it; and haſted, and ſet the city on fire.

* Chap. 7. 26.

30 ¶ Then Joſhua built an altar unto the LORD God of Iſrael in mount Ebal, 31 As Moſes the ſervant of the LORD commanded the children of Iſrael, as it is written in the * book of the law of Moſes, an altar of whole ſtones, over which no man hath lift up any iron: and they offered thereon burnt-offerings unto the LORD, and ſacrificed peace-offerings.

* Exod. 20. 25. Deut. 27. 5.

32 And he wrote there upon the ſtones a copy of the [n] law of Moſes, which he wrote in the preſence of the children of Iſrael.

n Meaning, the ten commandments, which are the ſum of the whole law.

33 And all Iſrael, and their elders, and officers, and their judges, ſtood on this ſide the ark, and on that ſide, before the prieſts the Levites, which bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, as well the ſtranger, as he that was born among them; half of them over againſt mount Gerizzim, and half of them over againſt mount Ebal: * as Moſes the ſervant of the LORD had commanded before, that they ſhould bleſs the people of Iſrael.

* Deut. 11. 29. and 27. 12.

34 And afterward he read all the words of the law, the bleſſings and curſings, according to all that is written in the book of the law.

35 There was not a word of all that Moſes commanded, which Joſhua read not before all the congregation of Iſrael, * with the [o] women, and the little ones, and the ſtrangers that † were converſant among them.

* Deut. 31. 12.

o So neither young nor old, man nor woman, were exempted from hearing the word of the Lord.

1 The kings combine againſt Iſrael. 3 The Gibeonites by craft obtain a league, 16 for which they are condemned to perpetuall bondage.

AND it came to paſs, when all the kings which were on [a] this ſide Jordan, in the hills, and in the valleys, and in all the coaſts of the [b] great ſea over againſt Lebanon, the Hittite, and the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebuſite heard thereof;

b The main ſea called Mediterraneum.

2 That they gathered themſelvs together to fight with Joſhua, and with Iſrael, with one † accord.

† Heb. mouth.

3 ¶ And when the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joſhua had don unto Jericho and to Ai:

4 They did work wilily, and went and made as if they had been embaſſadours, and took old ſacks upon their aſſes, and wine-bottles, old, and rent, and [c] bound up.

c Becauſe they were all worn.

5 And old ſhoes and clouted upon their feet, and old garments upon them, and all the bread of their proviſion was dry and mouldie.

6 And they went to Joſhua unto the camp at Gilgal, and ſaid unto him, and to the men of Iſrael, We be come from a far countrey: now therefore make ye a league with us.

7 And the men of Iſrael ſaid unto the [d] Hivites, Peradventure ye dwell among us, and how ſhall we make a league with you?

d For the Gibeonites and the Hivites were all one people.

8 And they ſaid unto Joſhua, We are thy ſervants. And Joſhua ſaid unto them, Who are ye? and from whence come ye?

9 And they ſaid unto him, From a very far countrey thy ſervants are come, becauſe of the [e] name of the LORD thy God: for we have heard the fame of him, and all that he did in Egypt:

e Even the idolaters for fear of death will pretend to honour the true God, and receive his religion.

10 And all that he did to the two kings of the Amorites, that were beyond Jordan, to Sihon king of Heſhbon, and to Og king of Baſhan, which was at Aſhtaroth.

11 Wherefore our elders and all the inhabitants of our countrey, ſpake to us, ſaying, Take victuals † with you for the journey, and go to meet them, and ſay unto them, We are your ſervants: therefore now make ye a league with us.

12 This our [f] bread we took hot for our proviſion out of our houſes, on the day we came forth to go unto you; but now behold, it is drie, and it is mouldie:

f The wicked lack no art, nor ſpare no lies to ſet forth their policy, when they will deceive the ſervants of God.

13 And theſe bottles of wine which we filled, were new, and behold, they be rent: and theſe our garments and our ſhoes are become old, by reaſon of the very long journey.

14 And ‡ the men [g] took of their victuals, and asked not counſel at the mouth of the LORD.

‡ Or, they received the men by reaſon of their victuals, g Some think, that the Iſraelites ate of their victuals, and ſo made a league with them.

15 And Joſhua made peace with them, and made a league with them, to let them live: and the princes of the congregation ſware unto them.

16 And it came to paſs at the end of three days, after they had made a league with them, that they heard that they were their neighbours, and that they dwelt among them.

17 And the children of Iſrael [h] journeyed, and came unto their cities on the third day: now their cities were Gibeon, and Clephirah, and Beeroth, and Kirjath-jearim.

h From Gilgal.

18 And the children of Iſrael ſmote them not, becauſe the princes of the congregation had ſworn unto them by the LORD God of Iſrael: and all the congregation [i] murmured againſt the princes.

i Fearing leaſt for their fault the plague of God ſhould have light upon them all.

19 But all the princes ſaid unto all the congregation, We have ſworn unto them by the LORD God of Iſrael: now therefore we may not touch them.

20 This we will do to them; we will even let them live, leaſt wrath be upon us, becauſe of the [k] oath which we ſware unto them.

k This doth not eſtabliſh raſh oaths, but ſheweth Gods mercy toward his, which would not puniſh them for this fault.

21 And the princes ſaid unto them, Let them live, (but let them be hewers of wood, and drawers of water unto all the congregation) as the princes had * promiſed them.

* Verſe 15.

22 ¶ And Joſhua called for them, and he ſpake unto them, ſaying, Wherefore have ye beguiled us, ſaying, We are very far from you; when ye dwell among us?

23 Now therefore ye are curſed, and there ſhall † none of you be freed from being bondmen, and hewers of wood, and drawers of water for the [l] houſe of my God.

† Heb. not be cut off from you.

24 And they anſwered Joſhua, and ſaid, Becauſe it was certainly told thy ſervants, how that the LORD thy God * commanded his ſervant Moſes to give you all the land, and to deſtroy all the inhabitants of the land from before you, therefore we were ſore afraid of our lives becauſe of you, and have don this thing.

* Deut. 7. 1, 2.

25 And now behold, we are in thine hand: as it ſeemeth good and right unto thee to do unto us, do.

26 And ſo did he unto them, and delivered them out of the [m] hand of the children of Iſrael, that they ſlew them not.

m who were minded to put them to death for fear of Gods wrath.

27 And Joſhua made them that day hewers of wood, and drawers of water for the congregation, and for the [n] altar of the LORD, even unto this day, in the place which he ſhould chooſe.

CHAP. X.

1 Five kings war againſt Gibeon. 6 Joſhua reſcueth it. 10 God fighteth againſt them with hailſtones. 12 The ſun and moon ſtand ſtill at the word of Joſhua. 16 The five kings are mured in a cave. 22 They are brought forth, 24 ſcornfully uſed, 26 and hanged. 28 Seven kings more are conquered. 43 Joſhua returneth to Gilgal.

NOw it came to paſs, when Adoni-zedek king of Jeruſalem had heard how Joſhua had taken Ai, and had utterly deſtroyed it, (* as he had don to Jericho and her king, ſo he had don to * Ai and her king) and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Iſrael, and were among them;

* Chap. 6. 15.

* Chap. 8. 3.

2 That they feared greatly, becauſe Gibeon was a great citie, as one of the † royal cities, and becauſe it was greater than Ai, and all the men thereof were mighty.

† Heb. cities of the kingdom,

3 Wherefore [a] Adoni-zedek king of Jeruſalem, ſent unto Hoham king of Hebron, and unto Piram king of Jarmuth, and unto Japhia king of Lachiſh, and unto Debir king of Eglon, ſaying, a That is, Lord of juſtice: ſo tyrants take to themſelvs glorious names, when indeed, they be very enemies againſt God and all juſtice.

4 Come up unto me, and help me, that we may ſmite Gibeon: for it hath made peace with Joſhua, and with the children of Iſrael.

5 Therefore the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jeruſalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachiſh, the king of Eglon, gathered themſelvs together, & went up, they and all their hoſts, and encamped before Gibeon, and made [b] war againſt it.

b So envious the wicked are, when any depart from their band.

6 ¶ And the men of Gibeon ſent unto Joſhua to the camp to Gilgal, ſaying, Slack not thy hand from thy ſervants; come up to us quickly, and ſave us, and help us: for all the kings of the Amorites that dwell in the mountain are gathered together againſt us.

7 So Joſhua aſcended from Gilgal, he and all the people of war with him, and all the mighty men of valour.

8 ¶ And the LORD ſaid unto Joſhua, [c] Fear them not: for I have delivered them into thine hand; there ſhall not a man of them ſtand before thee.

c Leaſt Joſhua ſhould have thought that God had ſent this great power againſt him, for his unlawful league with the Gibeonites, the Lord here ſtrengtheneth him.

9 Joſhua therefore came unto them ſuddenly, and went up from Gilgal all night.

10 And the LORD diſcomfited them before Iſrael, and ſlew them with a great ſlaughter at Gibeon, and chaſed them along the way that goeth up to Beth-horon, and ſmote them to Azekah, and unto Makkedah.

11 And it came to paſs as they fled from before Iſrael, and were in the going down to Beth-horon, that the LORD caſt down great ſtones from heaven upon them unto Azekah, and they died: they were more which died with [d] hailſtones, than they whom the children of Iſrael ſlew with the ſword.

d So we ſee that all things ſerve to execute Gods vengeance againſt the wicked.

12 ¶ Then ſpake Joſhua to the LORD in the day when the LORD delivered up the Amorites before the children of Iſrael, and he ſaid in the ſight of Iſrael, * Sun, † ſtand thou ſtill upon Gibeon, and thou moon, in the valley of Ajalon.

* Iſa. 28. 21. Eccles. 46. 4.

13 And the ſun ſtood ſtill, and the moon ſtayed, untill the people had avenged themſelvs upon their enemies. Is not this written in the book of [e] ‡ Jaſher? ſo the ſun ſtood ſtill in the midſt of heaven, and haſted not to go down about a whole day.

e Some read, The book of the righteous, meaning Moſes: the Chaldee text readeth, In the book of the laws: but it is like that it was a book thus named, which is now loſt.

‡ Or, the upright?

14 And there was no day like that before it or after it, that the LORD hearkened unto the voice of a man: for the LORD [f] fought for Iſrael.

f By taking away the enemies harms, and deſtroying them with hail ſtones.

15 ¶ And Joſhua returned, and all Iſrael with him, unto the camp to Gilgal.

16 But theſe five kings fled, and hid themſelvs in a cave at Makkedah.

17 And it was told Joſhua, ſaying, The five kings are found hid in a cave at Makkedah.

18 And Joſhua ſaid, Roll great ſtones upon the mouth of the cave, and ſet men by it for to keep them.

19 And ſtay you not, but purſue after your enemies, and † ſmite the hindmoſt of them, ſuffer them not to enter into their cities: for the LORD your God hath delivered them into your hand.

† Heb. cut off the tail,

20 And it came to paſs when Joſhua and the children of Iſrael had made an end of ſlaying them with a very great ſlaughter till they were conſumed, that the reſt which remained of them, entred into fenced cities.

21 And all the people returned to the camp to Joſhua at Makkedah in [g] peace: none moved his tongue againſt any of the children of Iſrael.

g Or, in ſafety, ſo that none gave them ſo much as an evil word.

22 Then ſaid Joſhua, Open the mouth of the cave, and bring out thoſe five kings unto me out of the cave.

23 And they did ſo, and brought forth thoſe five kings unto him out of the cave, the king of of Jeruſalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachiſh, and the king Eglon.

24 And it came to paſs when they brought out thoſe kings unto Joſhua, that Joſhua called for all the men of Iſrael, and ſaid unto the captains of the men of war, which went with him, Come near, put your feet upon the [h] necks of theſe kings. And they came near, and put their feet upon the necks of them.

[h] Signifying what ſhould become of the reſt of Gods enemies, ſeeing that kings themſelvs were not ſpared.

25 And Joſhua ſaid unto them, Fear not, nor be diſmayed, be ſtrong and of good courage: for thus ſhall the LORD do to all your enemies againſt whom ye fight.

26 And afterward Joſhua ſmote them, and ſlew them, and hanged them on five trees: and they were hanging upon the trees untill the evening.

27 And it came to paſs at the time of the going down of the ſun, that Joſhua commanded, and they * took them down off the trees, and caſt them into the cave wherein they had been hid, and laid great ſtones in the caves mouth, which remain untill this very day.

* Deut. 21. 23. Chap. 8. 29.

28 ¶ And that day Joſhua took Makkedah, and ſmote it with the edge of the ſword, and the king thereof he utterly deſtroyed, them, and all the ſouls that were therein, he let none remain: and he did to the king of Makkedah, * as he did unto the king of Jericho.

* Chap. 6. 21.

29 Then Joſhua paſſed from Makkedah, and all Iſrael with him, unto Libnah, and fought againſt Libnah.

30 And the LORD delivered it alſo, and the king thereof, into the hand of Iſrael, and he ſmote it with the edge of the ſword, and all the ſouls that were therein: he let none remain in it, but did unto the king thereof, as he did unto the king of Jericho.

31 ¶ And Joſhua paſſed from Libnah, and all Iſrael with him, unto Lachiſh, and encamped againſt it, and fought againſt it.

32 And the LORD delivered Lachiſh into the hand of Iſrael, which took it on the ſecond day, and ſmote it with the edge of the ſword, and all the ſouls that were therein, according to all that he had don to Libnah.

33 ¶ Then Horam king of Gezer, came up to help Lachiſh; and Joſhua ſmote him and his people, untill he had left him none remaining.

34 ¶ And from Lachiſh, Joſhua paſſed unto Eglon, and all Iſrael with him, and they encamped againſt it, and fought againſt it.

35 And they took it on that day, and ſmote it with the edge of the ſword, & all the ſouls that were therein he utterly deſtroyed that day, according to all that he had don to Lachiſh.

36 And Joſhua went up from Eglon, and all Iſrael with him, unto Hebron, and they fought againſt it.

37 And they took it, and ſmote it with the edge of the ſword, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof, and all the ſouls that were therein: he left none remaining (according to all that he had don to Eglon) but deſtroyed it utterly, and all the ſouls that were therein.

38 ¶ And Joſhua returned, and all Iſrael with him to Debir, and fought againſt it.

39 And he took it, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof, and they ſmote them with the edge of the ſword, and utterly deſtroyed all the ſouls that were therein, he left none remaining: as he had don to Hebron, ſo he did to Debir, and to the king thereof, as he had don alſo to Libnah, and to her king.

40 ¶ So Joſhua ſmote all the countrey of the [i] hill, and of the ſouth, and of the vale, and of the ſprings, and all their kings: he left none remaining, but utterly deſtroyed all that breathed, as the LORD God of Iſrael * commanded.

41 And Joſhua ſmote them from Kadeſh-barnea, even unto Gaza, and all the countrey of Goſhen, even unto Gibeon.

42 And all theſe kings, and their land did Joſhua take at [k] one time: becauſe the LORD God of Iſrael fought for Iſrael.

[k] In one battel.

43 And Joſhua returned, and all Iſrael with him, unto the camp to [l] Gilgal.

CHAP. XI.

1 Divers kings overcome at the waters of Merom. 10 Hazor is taken and burnt. 16 All the countrey taken by Joſhua. 21 The Anakims cut off.

AND it came to paſs, when Jabin king of Hazor had heard thoſe things, that he ſent to [a] Jobab king of Madon, and to the king of Shimron, and to the king of Achſhaph,

[a] The more that Gods power appeareth, the more the wicked rage againſt it.

2 And to the kings that were on the north of the mountain, and of the plain, ſouth of [b] Cinneroth, and in the valley, and in the borders of Dor, on the weſt;

[b] which the Evangeliſts call the lake of Genezereth, or Tiberias.

3 And to the Canaanite on the eaſt, and on the weſt, and to the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Jebuſite in the mountain, and to the Hivite under [c] Hermon in the land of Mizpah.

[c] which was mount Sihon, as Deut. 4. 48.

4 And they went out, they and all their hoſts with them, much people, even as the ſand that is upon the ſea-ſhore in multitude, with horſes and chariots very many.

5 And when all theſe kings were † met together, they came and pitched together at the waters of Merom, to fight againſt Iſrael.

† Heb. aſſembled by appointment,

6 ¶ And the LORD ſaid unto Joſhua, Be not afraid becauſe of them: for to morrow about this time will I deliver them up all ſlain before Iſrael: thou ſhalt [d] hough their horſes, and burn their chariots with fire.

[d] That neither they ſhould ſerve to the uſe of war, nor the Iſraelites ſhould put their truſt in them.

7 So Joſhua came, and all the people of war with him againſt them, by the waters of Merom ſuddenly, and they fell upon them.

8 And the LORD delivered them into the hand of Iſrael, who ſmote them, and chaſed them unto ‡ great Zidon, and unto ‡ † [e] Miſrephoth-maim, and unto the valley of Mizpeh eaſt-ward, and they ſmote them, untill they left them none remaining.

e which ſignifieth Hot waters, or according to ſome, brine pits.

9 And Joſhua did unto them as the LORD bad him: he houghed their horſes, and burnt their chariots with fire.

10 ¶ And Joſhua at that time turned back,

188 and took Hazor, and smote the king thereof with the sword: for Hazor before time was the head of all those kingdoms.

11 And they smote [f] all the souls that were therein with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying them: there was not † any left to breathe: and he burnt Hazor with fire.

12 And all the cities of those kings, and all the kings of them did Joshua take, and smote them with the edge of the sword, and he utterly destroyed them, * as Moses the servant of the LORD commanded.

13 But as for the cities that stood still † in their [g] strength, Israel burned none of them, save Hazor onely, that did Joshua burn.

14 And all the spoil of these cities, and the cattel, the children of Israel took for a prey unto themselvs: but every [h] man they smote with the edge of the sword, untill they had destroyed them, neither left they any to breathe.

15 ¶ * As the LORD commanded Moses his servant, so * did Moses command Joshua, and so did Joshua: † he left nothing undon of all that the LORD commanded Moses.

16 So Joshua took all that land, the hills, and all the south-country, and all the land of Goshen, and the valley, and the plain, and the [i] mountain of Israel, and the valley of the same:

17 Even from ‡ the mount [k] Halak, that goeth up to Seir, unto Baal-gad, in the valley of Lebanon, under mount Hermon: and all their kings he took, and smote them and slew them.

18 Joshua made war a long time with all those kings.

19 There was not a city that made peace with the children of Israel, save * the Hivites the inhabitants of Gibeon; all other they took in battel.

20 For it was of the LORD to [l] harden their hearts, that they should come against Israel in battel, that he might destroy them utterly, and that they might have no favour, but that he might destroy them, as the LORD commanded Moses.

21 ¶ And at that time came Joshua and cut off the Anakims from the mountains, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, and from all the mountains of Judah, and from all the mountains of Israel: Joshua destroyed them utterly with their cities.

22 There was none of the Anakims left in the land of the children of Israel: onely in Gaza, in [m] Gath, & in Ashdod, there remained.

23 So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that the LORD said unto Moses, and Joshua gave it for an inheritance unto Israel, * according to their divisions by their tribes: and the land rested from war.

6 All the inhabitants of the hill-country from Lebanon unto [c] Misrephoth-maim, and all the Sidonians, them will I drive out from before the children of Israel: onely divide thou it by lot unto the Israelites for an inheritance, as I have commanded thee.

c Read Chap. 11. 8.

7 Now therefore, divide this land for an inheritance unto the nine tribes, and the half-tribe of Manasseh:

8 With whom the Reubenites, and the Gadites have received their inheritance, * which Moses gave them, beyond Jordan east-ward, even as Moses the servant of the LORD gave them:

* Num. 32. 33. Deut. 3. 12, 13. Chap. 22. 4.

9 From Aroer that is upon the bank of the river Arnon, and the citie that is in the midst of the river, and all the plain of Medeba unto Dibon:

10 And all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites, which reigned in Heshbon, unto the border of the children of Ammon:

11 And Gilead, and the border of the Geshurites, and Maachathites, and all mount Hermon, and all Bashan unto Salcah:

12 All the kingdom of Og in Bashan, which reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei, who remained of * the remnant of the giants: for these did Moses smite, and cast them out.

* Deut. 3. 11. Chap. 12. 4.

13 Nevertheless, the children of Israel [d] expelled not the Geshurites, nor the Maachathites: but the Geshurites and the Maachathites dwell among the Israelites untill this day.

d Because they destroyed not all, as God had commanded, they that remained were snares and pricks to hurt them, Num. 33 55. Chap. 23. 13. Judg. 2. 3.

14 Onely unto the tribe of Levi he gave none inheritance; the sacrifices of the LORD God of Israel made by fire, are their [e] inheritance, as he said unto them.

e Levi shall live by the sacrifices, Num. 18. 21.

15 ¶ And Moses gave unto the tribe of the children of Reuben, inheritance according to their families:

16 And their coast was from Aroer that is on the bank of the river Arnon, and the citie that is in the midst of the river, and all the plain by Medeba:

17 Heshbon and all her cities that are in the plain; Dibon, and ‡ Bamoth-baal, and Beth-baal-meon,

‡ Or, the high places of Baal, and house of Baalmeon.

18 And Jahazah, and Kedemoth, and Mephaath,

19 And Kirjathaim, and Sibmah, and Zareth-shahar, in the mount of the valley,

20 And Beth-peor, and * ‡ Ashdoth-pisgah, and Beth-jeshimoth,

* Deut. 3. 17. ‡ Or, springs of Pisgah, or, the hill.

21 And all the cities of the plain, and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, which reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses smote * with the princes of Midian, Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, which were dukes of Sihon, dwelling in the country.

* Num. 31. 8.

22 ¶ [f] Balaam also the son of Beor the † sooth-sayer, did the children of Israel slay with the sword, among them that were slain by them.

f So that both they which obeyed wicked counsel, and the wicked counseller perished by the judgement of God.

23 And the border of the children of Reuben, was Jordan and the border thereof. This was the inheritance of the children of Reuben after their families, the cities, and the villages thereof.

24 And Moses gave inheritance unto the tribe of Gad, even unto the children of Gad according to their families:

25 And their coast was Jazer, and all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the children of Ammon, unto Aroer that is before Rabbah:

26 And from Heshbon unto Ramath-mizpeh, and Betonim: and from Mahanaim unto the border of Debir:

27 And in the valley, Beth-aram, and Beth-nimrah, and Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon, Jordan and his border, even unto the edge of the sea of Cinnereth, on the [g] other side Jordan east-ward.

g That is, in the land of Moab.

28 This is the inheritance of the children of Gad after their families, the cities and their villages.

29 ¶ And Moses gave inheritance unto the half-tribe of Manasseh: and this was the possession of the half-tribe of the children of Manasseh, by their families.

30 And their coast was from Mahanaim, all Bashan, all the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and all the towns of Jair, which are in Bashan, threescore cities:

31 And half Gilead, and Ashtaroth, and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, were pertaining unto the [h] children of Machir the son of Manasseh, even to the one half of the * children of Machir by their families.

h Meaning, his nephews and posterity.
* Num. 32. 39.

* Chap 18.7. 33 * But unto the tribe of Levi Moses gave not any inheritance: the LORD God of Israel was their inheritance, * as he said unto them.

* Num. 18.20.

CHAP. XIV.

1 The nine tribes and a half are to have their inheritance by lot. 6 Caleb by privilege obtaineth Hebron.

AND these are the countreys which the children of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, * which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel distributed for inheritance unto them.

* Num. 34.17.

2 * By lot was their inheritance, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses, for the nine tribes, and for the half-tribe.

* Num. 26.55. and 33.54.

3 For Moses had given the inheritance of [a] two tribes, and an half-tribe, on the other side Jordan: but unto the Levites he gave none inheritance among them.

a As Reuben and Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh, Num. 32.33.

4 For the children of Joseph were [b] two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim: therefore they gave no part unto the Levites in the land, save cities to dwell in, with their suburbs for their cattel, and for their substance.

b So though Levi lacked, yet were there still twelve tribes by this means.

5 * As the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did and they divided the land.

* Num. 35.2. Chap. 21.2.

6 ¶ Then the children of Judah came unto Joshua in Gilgal: and Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite, said unto him, Thou knowest the thing that the LORD said unto Moses the man of God, concerning [c] me and thee, in Kadesh-barnea.

c which was, that they two onely should enter into the land, Num. 14.24.

7 Fourtie years old was I when Moses the servant of the LORD sent me from Kadesh-barnea, to espie out the land; and I brought him word again, as it was in mine heart.

8 Nevertheless, my [d] brethren that went up with me, made the heart of the people melt: but I wholly * followed the LORD my God.

d which were the ten other spies.

* Num. 14.24.

9 And Moses sware on that day, saying, Surely the land whereon thy feet have troden, shall be thine inheritance, and thy childrens for ever: because thou hast wholly followed the LORD my God.

10 And now behold, the LORD hath kept me alive, as he said, these fourty and five years, even since the LORD spake this word unto Moses, while the children of Israel † wandered in the wilderness: and now lo, I am this day fourscore and five years old.

11 * As yet I am as strong this day, as I was in the day that Moses sent me: as my strength was then, even so is my strength now, for war, both to go out and to come in.

* Exod. 46.9.

12 Now therefore give me this mountain, whereof the LORD spake in that day, (for thou heardest in that day how the Anakims were there, and that the cities were great and fenced) [e] if so be the LORD will be with me, then I shall be able to drive them out, as the LORD said.

e This he spake of modestie, and not of doubting.

13 And Joshua blessed him, and gave unto Caleb the son of Jephunneh, Hebron for an inheritance.

14 * Hebron therefore became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite, unto this day: because that he wholly followed the LORD God of Israel.

* Chap. 21.12, 1 Sam. 2.56.

15 And * the name of Hebron before, was Kirjath-arba, which Arba was a [f] great man among the Anakims. And the land had rest from war.

CHAP. XV.

1 The borders of the lot of Judah. 13 Calebs portion and conquest. 16 Othniel for his valour, hath Achsah Calebs daughter to wife. 18 She obtaineth a blessing of her father. 21 The cities of Judah. 63 The Jebusites not conquered.

THIS then was the lot of the tribe of the children of Judah by their families, * even to the border of Edom; the * wilderness of Zin south-ward, was the uttermost part of the south-coast.

* Num. 34.3. * Num. 33.36.

2 And their south-border was from the shore of the salt-sea, from the † [a] bay that looketh south-ward.

a The Hebrew word signifieth tongue, whereby is meant either the arm of the sea that cometh into the land, or a rocky cape that goeth into the sea.

3 And it went out to the south-side to ‡ Maaleh-acrabbim, and passed along to Zin, and ascended up on the south-side unto Kadesh-barnea: and passed along to Hezron, and went up to Adar, and fetched a compass to Karkaah.

‡ Or, rising to Acrabbim.

4 From thence it passed toward Azmon, and went out unto the river of Egypt, and the goings out of that coast were at the sea: this shall be your south-coast,

5 And the east-border was the salt-sea, even unto the [b] end of Jordan: and their border in the north-quarter was from the bay of the sea, at the uttermost part of Jordan.

b Meaning, the mouth of the river where it runneth into the salt-Sea.

6 And the border went up to Beth-hoglah, and passed along by the north of Beth-arabah, and the border went up to the [c] stone of Bohan the son of Reuben.

c which was a mark to part their countreys.

7 And the border went up toward Debir, from the valley of Achor, and so north-ward looking toward Gilgal, that is before the going up to Adummim, which is on the south-side of the river: and the border passed towards the waters of Enshemesh, and the goings out thereof were at * En-rogel.

* 1 King 1.9

8 And the border went up by the valley of the son of Hinnom, unto the south-side of the Jebusite, the same is Jerusalem: and the border went up to the top of the mountain, that lieth before the valley of Hinnom, west-ward, which is at the end of the valley of the giants north-ward.

9 And the border was drawn from the top of the hill unto the fountain of the water of Nephtoah, and went out to the cities of mount Ephron, and the border was drawn to Balaah which is Kirjath-jearim.

10 And the border compassed from Balaah west-ward unto mount Seir, and passed along unto the side of mount Jearim (which is Chesalon) on the north-side, and went down to Beth-shemesh, and passed on to Timnah.

11 And

11 And the border went out unto the ſide of Ekron north-ward: and the border was drawn to Shicron, and paſſed along to mount Baalah, and went out unto Jebneel; and the goings out of the border were at the [d] ſea.

d Meaning, toward Syria.

12 And the weſt-border was to the great ſea, and the coaſt thereof: this is the coaſt of the children of Judah round about, according to their families.

13 ¶ And unto Caleb the ſon of Jephunneh, he gave a part among the children of Judah, according to the commandment of the LORD to Joſhua, even * ‡ the citie of Arba the father of Anak, which citie is Hebron.

* Chap. 14 15.
‡ Or, Kirjatharba,

14 And Caleb [e] drove thence the three ſons of Anak, Sheſhai, and Ahiman, and Talmai, the children of Anak.

e This was don after the death of Joſhua, Judg. 1. 10, 20.

15 And he went up thence to the inhabitants of Debir; and the name of Debir before was Kirjath-ſepher.

16 ¶ And Caleb ſaid, He that ſmiteth Kirjath-ſepher, and taketh it, to him will I give Achſah my daughter to wife.

17 And Othniel the ſon of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, took it: and he gave him Achſah his daughter to wife.

18 And it came to paſs, as ſhe came unto him, that ſhe moved him to aſk of her father a field, and [f] ſhe lighted off her aſs; and Caleb ſaid unto her, What wouldeſt thou?

f Becauſe her husband tarried too long.

19 Who anſwered, Give me a bleſſing; for thou haſt given me a ſouth-land, give me alſo [g] ſprings of water: and he gave her the upper ſprings, and the nether ſprings.

g Becauſe her country was barren, ſhe deſired of her father a field that had ſprings, Judg. 1. 14, 15.

20 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Judah according to their families.

21 And the uttermoſt cities of the tribe of the children of Judah, toward the coaſt of Edom ſouth-ward, were Kabzeel, and Eder, and Jagur.

22 And Kinah, and Dimonah, and Adadah,

23 And Kedeſh, and Hazor, and Ithnan,

1 The generall borders of the ſons of Joſeph. 5 The border of the inheritance of Ephraim. 10 The Canaanites not conquered.

AND the lot of the children of [a] Joſeph † fell from Jordan by Jericho, unto the water of Jericho on the eaſt, to the wilderneſs that goeth up from Jericho throughout mount Beth-el;

b Of their inheritance,

4 So the children of Joſeph, Manaſſeh and Ephraim, [c] took their inheritance.

c Severally, firſt Ephraim, and then Manaſſeh.

5 ¶ And the border of the children of Ephraim, according to their families, was thus: even the border of their inheritance on the eaſt-ſide, was Ataroth-addar, unto Beth-horon the upper.

6 And the border went out toward the ſea, to Michmethah on the north-ſide, and the border went about eaſt-ward unto Taanath-ſhiloh, and paſſed by it on the eaſt to Janohah:

7 And it went down from Janohah, to Ataroth and to Naarath, and came to Jericho, and went out at [d] Jordan.

d For ſo far the coaſts reach.

8 The border went out from Tappuah weſt-ward unto the river Kanah: and the goings out thereof were at the ſea. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ephraim by their families.

9 And [e] the ſeparate cities for the children of Ephraim were among the inheritance of the children of Manaſſeh, all the cities with their villages.

e Becauſe Ephraims tribe was far greater than Manaſſehs, therefore he had more cities.

10 And they drave not out the Canaanites that dwelt in Gezer: but the Canaanites dwell among the Ephraimites unto this day, and ſerve under tribute.

Chap. XVII.

1 The lot of Manaſſeh. 7 His coaſt. 12 The Canaanites not driven out. 14 The children of Joſeph obtain another lot.

THere was alſo a lot for the tribe of Manaſſeh; (for he was the * firſt-born of Joſeph) to wit, for * Machir the firſt-born of Manaſſeh the father of Gilead: becauſe he was a man of war therefore he had Gilead and Baſhan.

* Gen. 41. 51. & 46. 20.
* Gen. 50. 23. Num. 32. 39.

2 There was alſo a lot for *[a] the reſt of the children of Manaſſeh by their families; for the children of Abiezer, and for the children of Helek, and for the children Aſriel, and for the children of Shechem, and for the children of Hepher, and for the children of Shemida: theſe were the male-children of Manaſſeh the ſon of Joſeph by their families.

* Num. 26. 29.
a For the other half-tribe had their portion beyond Jordan.

3 ¶ But * Zelophehad the ſon of Hepher, the ſon of Gilead, the ſon of Machir, the ſon of Manaſſeh, had no ſons, but daughters: and theſe are the names of his daughters, Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

* Num. 26. 33. & 27. 1. & 36. 2.

4 And they came near before Eleazar the prieſt, and before Joſhua the ſon of Nun, and before the princes, ſaying, The LORD commanded Moſes to give us an inheritance among our [b] brethren: therefore according to the commandment of the LORD, he gave them an inheritance among the brethren of their father.

b Among them of our tribe.

5 And there fell ten portions to [c] Manaſſeh, beſide the land of Gilead and Baſhan, which were on the other ſide Jordan:

c In the land of Canaan: five to the males, and other five to the daughters of Zelophehad.

6 Becauſe the daughters of Manaſſeh had an inheritance among his ſons: and the reſt of Manaſſehs ſons had the land of Gilead.

7 ¶ And the coaſt of Manaſſeh was from Aſher to Michmethah, that lieth before Shechem, and the border went along on the right hand, unto the inhabitants of En-tappuah.

8 Now Manaſſeh had the land of [d] Tappuah: but Tappuah on the border of Manaſſeh belonged to the children of Ephraim.

d Meaning, the citie it ſelf.

9 And the coaſt deſcended unto the ‡ river Kanah, ſouth-ward of the river: theſe cities of Ephraim are among the cities of Manaſſeh: the coaſt of Manaſſeh alſo was on the north-ſide of the river, and the out-goings of it were at the [e] ſea.

e That is, toward the main Sea.

10 South-ward it was Ephraims, and north-ward it was Manaſſehs, and the ſea is his border, and they met together in [f] Aſher on the north, and in Iſſachar on the eaſt.

f In the tribe of Aſher, and tribe of Iſſachar.

11 And Manaſſeh had in Iſſachar and in Aſher, Beth-ſhean and her towns, and Ibleam and her towns, and the inhabitants of Dor and her towns, and the inhabitants of En-dor and her towns, and the inhabitants of Taanach and her towns, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and her towns, even three countreys.

12 Yet the children of Manaſſeh [g] could not drive out the inhabitants of thoſe cities, but the Canaanites would dwell in that land.

g For at the firſt they lacked courage, and after, agreed with them on condition, contrary to Gods commandment.

13 Yet it came to paſs when the children of Iſrael were waxen ſtrong, that they put the Canaanites to tribute; but did not utterly drive them out.

14 And the childeren of Ioſeph ſpake unto Joſhua, ſaying, Why haſt thou given me but one lot and one portion to inherit, ſeeing I am a great people, foraſmuch as the LORD hath [h] bleſſed me hitherto?

h According to my father Jacobs propheſie. Gen. 48. 19.

15 And Joſhua anſwered them, If thou be a great people, then get thee up to the wood-country, and cut down for thy ſelf there in the land of the Perizzites, and of the ‡ giants, [i] if mount Ephraim be too narrow for thee.

‡ Or, Rephaims
i If this mountie not large enough, why doſt not thou get more by deſtroying Gods enemies, as he hath commanded?

16 And the children of Joſeph ſaid, The hill is not enough for us: and all the Canaanites that dwell in the land of the valley, have chariots of iron, both they who are of Beth-ſhean and her towns, and they who are of the valley of Jezreel.

17 And Joſhua ſpake unto the houſe of Joſeph, even to Ephraim, and to Manaſſeh, ſaying, Thou art a great people, and haſt great power: thou ſhalt not have one lot onely.

18 But the mountain ſhall be thine, for it is a wood: and thou ſhalt cut it down: and the out-goings of it ſhall be thine: for [k] thou ſhalt drive out the Canaanites, though they have iron-chariots, and though they be ſtrong.

k So that thou ſhalt enlarge thy portion thereby.

Chap. XVIII.

1 The tabernacle is ſet up at Shiloh. 2 The remainder of the land is deſcribed, and divided into ſeven parts. 10 Joſhua divideth it by lot. 11 The lot and border of Benjamin. 21 Their cities.

AND the whole congregation of the children of Iſrael aſſembled togethet at Shiloh, and ſet up the [a] tabernacle of the congregation there, and the land was ſubdued before them.

a For they had now removed it from Gilgal, and ſet it up in Shiloh.

2 And there remained among the children of of Iſrael ſeven tribes, which [b] had not yet received their inheritance.

[b] As Eleazar, Joſhua, and the heads of the tribes had don to Judah, & half of Manaſſeh.

3 And Joſhua ſaid unto the children of Iſrael, How long are you ſlack to go to poſſeſs the land which the LORD God of your fathers hath given you?

4 Give out from among you three men, for each tribe: and I will ſend them, and they ſhall riſe, and go through the land, and deſcribe it according to the [c] inheritance of them, and they ſhall come again to me.

[c] That is, into ſeven portions, to every tribe one.

5 And they ſhall divide it into ſeven parts: Judah ſhall abide in their coaſt on the ſouth, and the houſe of Joſeph ſhall [d] abide in their coaſt on the north.

[d] For theſe had their inheritance already appointed.

6 Ye ſhall therefore deſcribe the land into ſeven parts, and bring the deſcription hither to me, that I may caſt lots for you here before the [e] LORD our God.

[e] Before the ark of the Lord.

7 But the Levites have no part among you, for the [f] prieſthood of the LORD is their inheritance: and Gad and Reuben, and half the tribe of Manaſſeh, have received their inheritance beyond Jordan on the eaſt, which Moſes the ſervant of the LORD gave them.

[f] That is, the ſacrifices and offerings, Chap. 13. 14.

8 ¶ And the men aroſe, and went away: and Joſhua charged them that went to deſcribe the land, ſaying, Go, and walk through the land, and [g] deſcribe it, and come again to me, that I may here caſt lots for you before the LORD in Shiloh.

[g g] By writing the names of every countrey and city.

9 And the men went, and paſſed through the land, and deſcribed it by cities, into ſeven parts, in a book, and came again to Joſhua to the hoſt at Shiloh.

10 ¶ And Joſhua [h] caſt lots for them in Shiloh, before the LORD: and there Joſhua divided the land unto the children of Iſrael according to their diviſions.

[h] That every one ſhould be content with Gods appointment.

11 ¶ And the lot of the tribe of the children of Benjamin came up according to their families: and the coaſt of their lot came forth [i] between the children of Judah, and the children of Joſeph.

[i] Their inheritance bordered upon Judah and Joſeph.

12 And their border on the north-ſide was from Jordan, and the border went up to the ſide of Jericho, on the north-ſide, and went up through the mountain weſt-ward, and the goings out thereof were at the wilderneſs of Beth-aven.

13 And the border went over from thence toward Luz, to the ſide of Luz (which is [k] Beth-el) ſouth-ward, & the border deſcended to Ataroth-addar, near the hill that lieth on the ſouth-ſide of the nether Beth-horon.

[k] which was in the tribe of Ephraim: another Beth-el was in the tribe of Benjamin.

14 And the border was drawn thence, and compaſſed the corner of the ſea ſouth-ward, from the hill that lieth before Beth-horon ſouth-ward: and the goings out thereof were at Kirjath-baal) which is Kirjath-jearim) a city of the children of Judah: This was the weſt-quarter.

15 And the ſouth-quarter was from the end of Kirjath-jearim, and the border went out on the weſt, and went out to the well of waters of Nephtoah.

16 And the border came down to the end of the mountain that lieth before the valley of the ſon of Hinnom, and which is in the valley of the giants on the north, and deſcended to the valley of Hinnom, to the ſide of Jebuſi on the ſouth, and deſcended to En-rogel,

17 And was drawn from the north, and went forth to [l] En-ſhemeſh, and went forth toward Geliloth, which is over againſt the going up of Adummim, and deſcended to * the ſtone of Bohan the ſon of Reuben, [l] which is the tribe of Ephraim.

18 And paſſed along toward the ſide over againſt ‡ Arabah north-ward, and went down unto Arabah.

21 Now the cities of the tribe of the children of Benjamin according to their families, were Jericho, and Beth-hoglah, and the valley of Keziz.

22 And Beth-arabah, and Zemaraim, and Beth-el,

23 And Avim, and Parah, and Ophrah,

24 And Chephar-haammonai, and Ophni, and Gaba: twelve cities with their villages.

25 Gibeon, and Ramah, and Beeroth,

26 And Mizpeh, and Chephirah, & Mozah,

27 And Rekem, and Irpeel, and Taralah,

28 And Zelah, Eleph, and Jebuſi, (which is [n] Jeruſalem) Gibeath, and Kirjath: fourteen cities with their villages. This is the inheritance of the children of Benjamin according to their families.

1 The lot of Simeon, 10 of Zebulon, 17 of Iſſachar. 24 of Aſher, 32 of Naphtali, 40 of Dan. 49 The children of Iſrael give an inheritance to Joſhua.

AND the ſecond lot came forth to Simeon, even for the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families: and their inheritance was [a] within the inheritance of the children of Judah.

[a] According to Jacobs propheſie, that he ſhould be ſcattered among the other tribes Gen. 49, 7.

2 And they had in their inheritance, Beerſheba; and Sheba, and Moladah,

3 And Hazar-ſhual and Balah, and Azem,

4 And Ziklag, and Bethul, and Hormah,

5 And Ziklag, and Beth-marcaboth, and Aazar-ſuſah,

6 And Beth-lebaoth, and Sharuhen: thirteen cities and their villages.

7 Ain, Remmon, and Ether, and Aſhan: four cities and their villages.

the children of Simeon according to their families,

9 Out of the portion of the children of Judah was the inheritance of the children of Simeon: for the part of the children of Judah was too [b] much for them: therefore the children of Simeon had their inheritance within the inheritance of them.

b But this large portion was given them by Gods providence to declare their increase in time to come.

10 ¶ And the third lot came up for the children of Zebulun, according to their families: and the border of their inheritance was unto Sarid.

11 And their border went up toward the sea, and Maralah, and reached to Dabbasheth, and reached to the river that is before Jokneam.

c Heaving, Toward the great Sea.

12 And turned from Sarid [c] east-ward, toward the sun-rising, unto the border of Chisloth-tabor, and then goeth out to Deberath, and goeth up to Japhia;

15 And Kattath, and Nahallal, and Shimron, and Idalah, and [d] Beth-lehem: twelve cities with their villages.

d There was another Beth-lehem in the tribe of Judah.

16 This is the inheritance of the children of Zebulun according to their families, these cities with their villages.

17 ¶ And the fourth lot came out to Issachar, for the children of Issachar, according to their families.

18 And their border was toward Jezreel, and Chesulloth, and Shunem.

19 And Hapharaim, and Sihon, and Anaharath.

20 And Rabbith, and Kishion, and Abez,

21 And Remeth, and [e] En-gannim, and En-haddah, and Beth-pazzez.

e There was another city of this name in the tribe of Judah: for under divers tribes certain cities had all one name, and were distinguished by the tribe onely.

22 And the coast reacheth to Tabor, and Shahanimah, and Beth-shemesh, and the outgoings of their border were at Jordan: sixteen cities with their villages, 23 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Issachar according to their families, the cities and their villages.

24 ¶ And the fifth lot came out for the tribe of the children of Asher, according to their families, 25 And their border was Helkath; and Hali, and Bethen, and Achshaph.

26 And Alammelech, and Amad, and Misheal; and reacheth to Carmel west-ward, and to Shihor-libnath, 27 And turneth toward the sun-rising to Beth-dagon, and reacheth to [f] Zebulun, and to the valley of Jiphthah-el, toward the north-side of Beth-emek, and Neiel, and goeth out to Cabul on the left hand.

f Joineth to the tribe of Zebulun, which lay more east-ward.

28 And Hebron, and Rehob, and Hammon, and Kanah, even unto great Zidon:

† Heb. Tzor, g which was Tyrus, a strong citie in the sea,

29 And then the coast turneth to Ramah, and to the strong citie †[g] Tyre, and the coast turneth to Hosah: and the out-goings thereof are at the sea from the coast to Achzib.

30 Ummah also and Aphek, and Rehob: twentie and two cities with their villages.

31 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families: these cities with their villages.

32 ¶ The sixth lot came out to the children of Naphtali: even for the children of Naphtali according to their families.

33 And their coast was from [h] Heleph, from Allon to Zaanannim, and Adami, Nekeb, and Jabneel unto Lakum, and the out-goings thereof were at Jordan.

h These cities were in the confines of Zaanannim.

34 And then the coast turneth west-ward to Aznoth-tabor, and goeth out from thence to Hukkok, and reacheth to Zebulun on the south-side, and reacheth to Asher on the west-side, and to Judah upon Jordan toward the sun-rising.

35 And the fenced cities are Ziddim, Zer, and Hammath, Rakkath, and [i] Cinnereth, i Of the which the lake of Gennezareth had his name.

36 And Adamah, and Ramah, and Hazor,

37 And Kedesh, and Edrei, and En-hazor,

38 And Iron, and Mihdal-el, Horem, and Beth-anath, and Beth-shemesh: nineteen cities with their villages.

39 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Naphtali according to their families, the cities and their villages.

40 ¶ And the seventh lot came out for the tribe of the children of Dan, according to their families.

41 And the coast of their inheritance was Zorah, and Eshtaol, and Ir-shemesh.

42 And Shaalabbin, and Ajalon, and Jethlah,

43 And Elon, and Thimnathah, and Ekron,

44 And Elteked, and Gibbethon, and Baalath,

47 And the coast of the children of Dan went out too little for them; therefore the children of Dan went up to [l] fight against Leshem, and took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and possessed it, and dwelt therein, and called Leshem, * Dan, after the name of Dan their father.

l According as Jacob had prophesied, Gen. 49 17.

* Judg. 18. 29.

48 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families, these cities with their villages.

49 ¶ When they had made an end of dividing the land for inheritance by their coasts, the children of Israel gave an inheritance to Joshua the son of Nun, among them:

50 According to the word of the LORD, they gave him the citie which he asked, even * Timnath-serah, in mount Ephraim: and he built the citie, and dwelt therein.

CHAP. XX.

1 God commandeth, 7 and the children of Iſrael appoint the ſix cities of refuge.

THE LORD alſo ſpake unto Joſhua, ſaying,
2 Speak to the children of Iſrael, ſaying, * Appoint out for you cities of refuge, whereof I ſpake unto you by the hand of Moſes:

* Exod. 21. 13. Num. 35. 6, 11 14. Deut 19 2.

3 That the ſlayer that killeth any perſon [a] unawares and unwittingly, may flee thither: and they ſhall be your refuge from the avenger of blood.

a At unawares, and bearing him no grudge.

4 And when he that doth flee unto one of thoſe cities, ſhall ſtand at the entring of the gate of the citie, and ſhall declare his cauſe in the ears of the elders of that citie; they ſhall take him into the city unto them, and give him a place that he may dwell among them.

5 And if the [b] avenger of blood purſue after him, then they ſhall not deliver the ſlayer up into his hand: becauſe he ſmote his neighbour unwittingly, and hated him not before-time.

b That is, the neereſt kinſman of him that is ſlain.

6 And he ſhall dwell in that city, until he ſtand before the congregation for [c] judgement, and * until the death of the high prieſt that ſhall be in thoſe days: then ſhall the ſlayer return and come unto his own citie, and unto his own houſe, unto the citie from whence he fled.

CHAP. XXI.

1 Eight and forty cities given by lot out of the other tribes unto the Levites. 43 God gave the land, and reſt to the Iſraelites, according to his promiſe.

THEN came near the heads of the fathers of the Levites unto Eleazar the prieſt, and unto Joſhua the ſon of Nun, and unto the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Iſrael.

2 And they ſpake unto them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, ſaying, * The LORD commanded [a] by the hand of Moſes, to give us cities to dwell in, with the ſuburbs thereof for our cattel.

* Num. 35. 2.

a By Moſes, by whoſe miniſtery God ſhewed his power.

3 And the children of Iſrael gave unto the Levites out of their inheritance at the commandment of the LORD, theſe cities and their ſuburbs.

4 And the lot came out for the families of the [b] Kohathites: and the children of Aaron the prieſt, which were of the Levites, had by lot out of the tribe of Judah, and out of the tribe of Simeon, and out of the tribe of Benjamin, [c] thirteen cities.

b He meaneth them that were Prieſts: for ſome were but Levites.

c Every tribe gave mo or fewer cities according as their inheritance was great or little, Num. 35. 8.

5 And the reſt of the children of Kohath had by lot, out of the families of the tribe of Ephraim, and out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the half-tribe of Manaſſeh, ten cities.

6 And the children of Gerſhon had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Iſſachar, and out of the tribe of Aſher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the half-tribe of Manaſſeh in Baſhan, thirteen cities.

7 The children of Merari by their families, had out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities.

8 And the children of Iſrael gave by lot unto the Levites theſe cities with their ſuburbs, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moſes.

9 ¶ And they gave out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, theſe cities which are here † mentioned by name,

10 Which the children of [d] Aaron being of the families of the Kohathites, who were of the children of Levi, had: (for theirs was the firſt lot)

d For Aaron came of Kohath, and therefore the prieſts office remained in that family.

11 And they gave them ‡ the city of Arbah the father of Anak (which city is Hebron) in the hill-countrey of Judah, with the ſuburbs thereof round about it.

‡ Or, Kirjath-arbah

12 But * the fields of the city, and the villages thereof, gave they to Caleb the ſon of Jephunneh, for his poſſeſſion.

* Chap. 14. 14. 1 Chron. 6. 56.

13 ¶ Thus they gave to the [e] children of Aaron the prieſt, Hebron with her ſuburbs, to be a citie of refuge for the ſlayer, and Libnah with her ſuburbs, e That is, The Prieſt of the family of the Kohathites; of whom Aaron was chief.

14 And Jattir with her ſuburbs, and Eſhtemoa with her ſuburbs,

15 And Holon with her ſuburbs, and Debir with her ſuburbs, 16 And Ain with her ſuburbs, and Juttah with her ſuburbs, and Beth-ſhemeſh with her ſuburbs: nine cities out of thoſe two tribes.

17 And out of the tribe of Benjamin, Gibeon with her [f] ſuburbs, Geba with her ſuburbs, f The ſuburbs were a thouſand cubits from the wall of the cities round about, Num. 35. 4.

19 All the cities of the children of Aaron, the prieſts, were thirteen cities with their ſuburbs.

20 ¶ And the families of the children of Kohath the Levites, [g] which remained of the children of Kohath, even they had the cities of their lot out of the tribe of Ephraim.

g That were no prieſts.

21 For they gave them [h] Shechem with her ſuburbs in mount Ephraim, to be a citie of refuge for the ſlayer: & Gezer with her ſuburbs, h Hebron and Shechem were the two cities of refuge under the Kohathites.

22 And Kibzaim with her ſuburbs, and Beth-horon with her ſuburbs, four cities.

i which dwelt in Canaan.

25 And out of the [i] half-tribe of Manaſſeh, Taanach with her ſuburbs, and Gath-rimmon with her ſuburbs: two cities.

26 All the cities were ten with their ſuburbs, for the families of the children of Kohath that remained.

27 ¶ And unto the children of Gerſhon of the families of the Levites, out of the other half-tribe of Manaſſeh, they gave [k] Golan in Baſhan with her ſuburbs, to be a citie of refuge for the ſlayer: and Beeſhterah with her ſuburbs: two cities.

k Golan and Kedeſh were the cities of refuge under the Gerſhonites.

28 And out of the tribe of Iſſachar, Kiſhon with her ſuburbs, Dabareh with her ſuburbs, 29 Jarmuth with her ſuburbs, En-gannim with her ſuburbs: four cities.

32 And out of the tribe of Naphtali, Kedeſh in Galilee with her ſuburbs, to be a citie of refuge for the ſlayer: and Hammoth-dor with her ſuburbs, and Kartan with her ſuburbs: three cities.

33 All the cities of the Gerſhonites, according to their families, were thirteen cities with their ſuburbs.

l They are here called the reſt, becauſe they are laſt numbred, and Merari was the youngeſt brother, Gen. 46.11.

36 And out of the tribe of Reuben, [m] Bezer with her ſuburbs, and Jahazah with her ſuburbs, m Bezer and Ramoth were the cities of refuge under the Merarites, and beyond Jordan, chap. 20. 8.

37 Kedemoth with her ſuburbs, and Mephaath with her ſuburbs: four cities.

38 And out of the tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead with her ſuburbs, to be a city of refuge for the ſlayer: and Mahanaim with her ſuburbs, 39 Heſhbon with her ſuburbs, Jazer with her ſuburbs: four cities in all.

40 So all the cities for the children of Merari by their families, which were remaining of the families of the Levites, were by their lot, twelve cities.

41 All the cities of the Levites, within the poſſeſſion of the [n] children of Iſrael, were fortie and eight cities with their ſuburbs.

n Thus according to Jacobs propheſie, they were ſcattered throughout the countrey, which God uſed to this end, that his people might be inſtructed in the true religion by them.

42 Theſe cities were every one with their ſuburbs round about them: thus were all theſe cities.

43 ¶ And the LORD gave unto Iſrael all the land which he ſware to give unto their fathers: and they poſſeſſed it, and dwelt therein.

44 And the LORD gave them reſt round about, according to all that he ſware unto their fathers: and there ſtood not a man of all their enemies before them; the LORD delivered their enemies into their hand.

45 * There failed not ought of any good thing which the LORD had ſpoken unto the houſe of Iſrael: all came to paſs.

* Chap. 23.14,15.

CHAP. XXII.

1 The two tribes and half with a bleſſing are ſent home. 10 They build the altar of teſtimonie, in their journey. 11 The Iſraelites are offended thereat. 21 They give them good ſatisfaction.

THen [a] Joſhua called the Reubenites, & the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manaſſeh, a After that the Iſraelites enjoyed the land of Canaan.

2 And ſaid unto them, Ye have kept all that Moſes the ſervant of the LORD [b] commanded you, and have obeyed my voice in all that I commanded you.

b which was to go armed before their brethren, Num. 32.29.

3 Ye have not left your brethren theſe many days unto this day, but have kept the charge of the commandment of the LORD your God.

4 And now the LORD your God hath given reſt unto your brethren, as he promiſed them: therefore now return ye, and get ye unto your tents, and unto the land of your poſſeſſion, * which Moſes the ſervant of the LORD gave you on the other ſide Jordan.

* Num. 32.33. Chap. 13.8.

5 But take diligent heed to do the commandment and the law, which Moſes the ſervant of the LORD charged you, * to [c] love the LORD your God, and to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and to cleave unto him, and to ſerve him with all your heart, and with all your ſoul.

* Deut. 10.12.

c He ſheweth wherein conſiſted the fulfilling of the law.

6 So Joſhua [d] bleſſed them, and ſent them away: and they went unto their tents.

d He commended them to God, and prayed for them.

7 ¶ Now to the one half of the tribe of Manaſſeh Moſes had given poſſeſſion in Baſhan: but unto the other half thereof gave Joſhua among their brethren on this ſide Jordan weſtward. And when Joſhua ſent them away alſo unto their tents, then he bleſſed them.

8 And he ſpake unto them, ſaying, Return with much riches unto your tents, and with very much cattel, with ſilver and with gold, and with braſs, and with iron, and with very much raiment: divide the ſpoil of your enemies with your [e] brethren.

e which remained at home and went not to the war, Num. 31 27. 1 Sam. 30.24.

9 ¶ And the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half-tribe of Manaſſeh returned, and departed from the children of Iſrael out of Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan, to go unto the countrey of Gilead, to the land of their poſſeſſion, whereof they were poſſeſſed, according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moſes.

10 ¶ And when they came unto the borders of Jordan, that are in the land of Canaan, the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, & the half-tribe of Manaſſeh built [f] there an altar by Jordan, a great altar to ſee to.

f That is, beyond Jordan: for ſometimes the whole countrey on both ſides of Jordan is meant by Canaan.

11 ¶ And the children of Iſrael heard ſay, Behold, the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half-tribe of Manaſſeh, have built an altar over againſt the land of Canaan, in the borders of Jordan, at the paſſage of the children of Iſrael.

12 And when the children of Iſrael heard of it, the whole congregation of the children of Iſrael gathered themſelvs together at Shiloh, to go up to [g] war againſt them, [g] Such now was their zeal, that they would rather loſe their lives, than ſuffer the true religion to be changed or corrupted.

13 And the children of Iſrael ſent unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half-tribe of Manaſſeh into the land of Gilead, Phinehas the ſon of Eleazar the prieſt:

† Heb. houſe of the father.

14 And with him ten princes, of each † chief houſe a prince, throughout all the tribes of Iſrael, and each one was an head of the houſe of their fathers, among the thouſands of Iſrael.

15 And they came unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half-tribe of Manaſſeh unto the land of Gilead, and they ſpake with them, ſaying.

[h] Not onely of the princes, but alſo of the common people.

16 Thus ſaith the [h] whole congregation of the LORD, What trepaſs is this that ye have commited againſt the God of Iſrael, to turn away this day from following the LORD, in that ye have built you an altar, that ye might rebell this day againſt the LORD?

* Num. 25. 4.

17 Is the iniquitie * of Peor too little for us, from which we are not [i] cleanſed until this day, (although there was a plague in the congregation of the LORD)

[i] Meaning, God is not fully pacified, forasmuch as no puniſhment can be ſufficient for ſuch wickedneſs and idolatry.

18 But that ye muſt turn away this day from following the LORD? and it will be, ſeeing ye rebell to day againſt the LORD, that to morrow he will be wroth with the whole congregation of Iſrael.

[k] In your judgement.

19 Notwithſtanding, if the land of your poſſeſſion be [k] unclean, then paſs ye over unto the land of the poſſeſſion of the LORD, wherein the LORDS tabernacle dwelleth, and take poſſeſſion among us: but rebell not againſt the LORD, nor [l] rebell againſt us, in building you an altar, beſide the altar of the LORD our God.

[l] To uſe any other ſervice than God hath appointed, is to rebell againſt God, 1 Sam. 15. 23.

* Chap. 7. 1. 5.

20 * Did not Achan the ſon of Zerah commit a treſpaſs in the accurſed thing, and wrath fell on all the congregation of Iſrael? and that man periſhed not [m] alone in his iniquitie.

[m] Signifying, that if many ſuffered for one mans fault, for the fault of many all ſhould ſuffer.

21 ¶ Then the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half-tribe of Manaſſeh, anſwered and ſaid unto the heads of the thouſands of Iſrael,

22 The LORD God of gods, the LORD God of gods, he knoweth, and Iſrael he ſhall know, if it be in rebellion, or if in transgreſſion againſt the LORD, (ſave us not this day)

23 That we have built us an altar to turn from following the LORD, or if to offer thereon burnt-offering, or meat-offering, or if to offer peace-offerings thereon, let the LORD [n] himſelf require it;

[n] Let him puniſh us.

24 And if we have not rather don it for fear of this thing, ſaying, † In time to come your children might ſpeak unto our children, ſaying, What have you to do with the LORD God of Iſrael?

25 For the LORD hath made Jordan a border between us and you; ye children of Reuben, and children of Gad, ye have no part in the LORD: ſo ſhall your children make our [o] children ceaſe from fearing the LORD.

[o] Or, to turn back from the true God.

26 Therefore we ſaid, Let us now prepare to build us an altar, not for burnt-offering, nor for ſacrifice:

* Gen. 31. 48. Chap. 24. 27. verſ. 34.

27 But that it may be * a witneſs between us and you, and our generations after us, that we might do the ſervice of the LORD before him with our burnt-offerings, and with our ſacrifices, and with our peace-offerings, that your children may not ſay to our children in time to come, Ye have no part in the LORD.

[p] They ſignifie a wonderfull care that they bare toward their poſterity, that they might live in the true ſervice of God.

28 Therefore ſaid we, that it ſhall be when they ſhould ſo ſay to us, or to our [p] generations in time to come, that we may ſay again, Behold the patern of the altar of the LORD, which our fathers made, not for burnt-offerings, nor for ſacrifices, but it is a witneſs between us and you.

29 God forbid that we ſhould rebell againſt the LORD, and turn this day from following the LORD, to build an altar for burnt-offerings, for meat-offerings, or for ſacrifices, beſides the altar of the LORD our God that is before his tabernacle.

30 ¶ And when Phinehas the prieſt, and the princes of the congregation, and heads of the thouſands of Iſrael which were with him, heard the words that the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the children of Manaſſeh ſpake, † it pleaſed them.

CHAP. XXIV.

1 Joshua assembleth the tribes at Shechem. 2 A brief history of Gods benefits from Terah. 14. He reneweth a covenant between them and God. 36 A stone the witness of the covenant. 29 Joshua's age, death and burial. 32 Josephs bones are buried. 34 Eleazar dieth.

AND Joshua gathered all the [a] tribes of Israel to Shechem, and called for the elders of Israel, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers, and they presented themselvs before [b] God.

a That is, the nine tribes and the half.
b Before the ark, which was brought to Shechem, when they went to bury Josephs bones.

2 And Joshua said unto all the people, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, * Your fathers dwelt on the other side of the [c] flood in old time, even Terah the fathers of Abraham, and the father of Nachor: and they served other gods.

* Gen. 11. 13, Judith 5. 6. 7.
c Euphrates in Mesopotamia, Gen. 11. 26.

3 And I took your father Abraham from the other side of the flood, and led him throughout all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his seed, and * gave him Isaac.

* Gen. 21. 2.

4 And gave unto Isaac, * Jacob and Esau: and I gave unto * Esau mount Seir, to possess it: * but Jacob and his children went down into Egypt.

* Gen. 25. 26.
* Gen. 36 8.
* Gen. 46. 6.

5 * I sent Moses also and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt, according to that which I did amongst them: and afterward I brought you out.

* Exod. 3. 10.

6 And I * brought your fathers out of Egypt: and you came unto the sea, and the Egyptians pursued after your fathers with chariots and horsmen unto * the Red-sea.

* Exod. 12. 37.
* Exod. 14. 9.

7 And when they cried unto the LORD, he put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and brought the sea upon them, and covered them; and your eyes have seen what I have don in Egypt: and ye dwelt in the wilderness [d] a long season, d Even forte yeares.

8 And I brought you into the land of the Amorites, which dwelt on the other side Jordan; * and they fought with you: I gave them into your hand, that ye might possess their land, and destroyed them from before you.

* Num. 21. 33.

9 Then Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose & warred against Israel, & * sent, & called Balaam the son of Beor to curse you:

* Num. 22. 5. Deut. 23. 4

10 But I would not hearken unto Balaam, therefore he blessed you still: so I delivered you out of his hand.

11 And ye went over Jordan, and came unto Jericho: and the * men of Jericho fought against you, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Girgashites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, and I delivered them into your hand.

e Because it was the chief city, under it contained all the countrey: els they of the city fought not, chap. 6. 1. 2.

12 And * I sent the hornet before you, which drave them out from before you, even the two kings of the Amorites: but not with thy sword, nor with thy bow.

* Exod. 23. 28. Deut. 7. 20.

13 And I have given you a land for which ye did not labour, & cities which ye built not, and ye dwell in them: of the vineyards and olive-yards which ye planted not, do ye eat.

f This is the true use of Gods benefits, to learn thereby to fear and serve him with an upright conscience.

14 ¶ Now therefore [f] fear the LORD, and serve serve him in sincerity and in truth, and put away the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the flood, and in Egypt: and serve ye the LORD.

15 And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom you will serve, whether the gods which your fathers served, that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.

g This teacheth us that if all the world would go from God, yet every one of us particularly is bound to cleave unto him.

16 And the people answered and said, God forbid that we should forsake the LORD, to serve other gods.

17 For the LORD our God, he it is that brought us up, & our fathers out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, & which did those great signs in our sight, and preserved us in all the way wherein we went, and among all the people through whom we passed.

18 And the LORD drave out from before us all the people, even the Amorites which dwelt in the land: therefore will we also serve the LORD, h for he is our God.

h How much more are we bound to serve God in Christ, by whom we have received the redemption of our souls?

19 And Joshua said unto the people, Ye cannot serve the LORD; for he is an holy God: he is a jealous God, he will not forgive your transgressions nor your sins.

20 If ye forsake the LORD, and serve strange gods, * then he will turn and do you hurt, and consume you, after that he hath don you good.

* Chap. 23. 15.

21 And the people said unto Joshua, Nay, but we will serve the LORD.

22 And Joshua said unto the people, Ye are witnesses i against your selvs, that ye have chosen you the LORD, to serve him. And they said, we are witnesses.

i If you do the contrary, your own mouths shall condemn you.

23 Now therefore put away, said he, the strange k gods which are among you, and encline your heart unto the LORD God of Israel.

k Out of your hearts, and otherwise.

24 And the people said unto Joshua, The LORD our God will we serve, and his voice will we obey.

25 So Joshua made a l covenant with the people that day, and set them a statute, and an ordinance in Shechem.

l By joyning God and the people together: also he repeated the promise and threatnings out of the law.

26 ¶ And Joshua wrote these words in the book of the law of God, and took a great stone, and set it up there under an oak, that was by the sanctuary of the LORD.

27 And Joshua said unto all the people, Behold, this stone shall be a witness unto us; for m it hath heard all the words of the LORD which he spake unto us: it shall be therefore a witness unto you, least ye deny your God.

m Rather than mans dissimulation should not be punished, the dumb creatures shall cry for vengeance.

28 So Joshua let the people depart, every man unto his inheritance.

29 ¶ And it came to pass after these things, that Joshua the son of Nun the servant of the LORD died, being an hundred & ten years old.

30 And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in * Timnath-serah, which is in mount Ephraim, on the north-side of the hill of Gaash.

* Chap. 19. 50. Judg. 2. 9.

31 And Israel n served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders that † overlived Joshua, and which had known all the works of the LORD, that he had don for Israel.

n Such are the people commonly as their rulers are.

† Heb. prolonged their days after Joshua,

32 ¶ And * the bones of Joseph, which the children of Israel brought up out of Egypt, buried they in Shechem, in a parcel of ground which Jacob bought of * the sons of Hamor the father of Shechem, for an hundred ‡ pieces of silver; and it became the inheritance of the children of Joseph.

* Gen. 50. 25. Exod. 13. 19.

‡ Or. lambs.

33 And Eleazar the son of Aaron died, and they buried him in a hill that pertained to Phinehas his son, which was given him in mount Ephraim.

THE BOOK OF JUDGES.

THE ARGUMENT.

Albeit there is nothing that more provoketh Gods wrath than mans ingratitude, yet is there nothing so displeasant and hainous that can turn back Gods love from his Church. For now when the Israelites were entred into the land of Canaan, and saw the truth of Gods promise performed, in stead of acknowledging his great benefits, and giving thanks for the same, they fell to most horrible oblivion of Gods graces, contrary to their solemn promise made unto Joshua, and so provoked his vengeance (as much as in them stood) to their utter destruction. Whereof as they had most evident signs by the mutability of their state: (for he suffered them to be most cruelly vexed and tormented by tyrants, he pulled them from liberty, and cast them into slavery, to the intent they might feel their own miseries, and so call unto him and be delivered) So to shew that his mercies endure for ever, he raised up from time to time such as should deliver them, and assure them of his favour and grace, if they would turn to him by true repentance. And these deliverers the scripture calleth Judges, because they were executers of Gods judgements, not chosen of the people, nor by succession, but raised up as it seemed best to God for the governance of his people. They were fourteen in number, beside Joshua, and governed from Joshua unto Saul the first king of Israel, Joshua and these unto the time of Saul ruled 377 years. In this book are many notable points declared, but two especially: First,

200 the battel that the Church of God hath for the maintenance of true religion againſt idolatry and ſuperſtition: next, what great danger that Common-wealth is in, when as God giveth not a magiſtrate to retain his people to the pureneſs of Religion and his true ſervice.

5 ¶ And the children of Iſrael dwelt among the Canaanites, Hittites, and Amorites, and Perizzites, and Hivites, and Jebuſites:

6 And they took their [c] daughters to be their wives, and gave their daughters to their ſons, and ſerved their gods.

7 And the children of Iſrael did evil in the ſight of the LORD, and forgat the LORD their God, and ſerved Baalim, and the [d] groves.

8 ¶ Therefore the anger of the LORD was hot againſt Iſrael, and he ſold them into the hand of Chuſhan-riſhathaim king of † Meſopotamia: and the children of Iſrael ſerved Chuſhan-riſhathaim eight years.

9 And when the children of Iſrael cried unto the LORD, the LORD raiſed up a † deliverer to the children of Iſrael, who delivered them, even Othniel the ſon of Kenaz, Calebs younger brother.

10 And the [e] ſpirit of the LORD † came upon him, and he judged Iſrael, and went out to war; and the LORD delivered Cuſhan-riſhathaim king of † Meſopotamia into his hand: and his hand prevailed againſt Cuſhan-riſhathaim.

11 And the land had reſt [f] forty years: and Othniel the ſon of Kenaz died.

12 ¶ And the children of Iſrael did evil again in the ſight of the LORD: and the LORD [g] ſtrengthened Eglon the king of Moab againſt Iſrael, becauſe they had don evil in the ſight of the LORD.

13 And he gathered unto him the children of Ammon, and Amalek, and went and ſmote Iſrael, and poſſeſſed the citie of palm-trees.

14 So the children of Iſrael ſerved Eglon the king of Moab eighteen years.

15 But when the children of Iſrael cried unto the LORD, the LORD raiſed them up a deliverer, Ehud the ſon of Gera, a ‡ Benjamite, a man † left-handed: and by him the children of Iſrael ſent a preſent unto Eglon the king of Moab.

16 But Ehud made him a dagger (which had two edges) of a cubit length, and he did gird it under his raiment, upon his right thigh.

17 And he brought the preſent unto Eglon king of Moab: and Eglon was a very fat man.

18 And when he had made an end to offer the preſent, he ſent away the people that bare the preſent.

19 But he himſelf turned again [h] from the ‡ quarries that were by Gilgal, and ſaid, I have a ſecret errand unto thee, O king: who ſaid, [i] Keep ſilence. And all that ſtood by him, went out from him.

20 And Ehud came unto him, and he was ſitting in † a ſummer-parlour, which he had for himſelf alone: and Ehud ſaid, I have a meſſage from God unto thee. And he aroſe out of his ſeat.

21 And Ehud put forth his left hand, and took the dagger from his right thigh, and thruſt it into his belly.

22 And the haft alſo went in after the blade: and the fat cloſed upon the blade, ſo that he could not draw the dagger out of his belly, and ‡ the dirt came out.

23 Then Ehud went forth through the porch, and ſhut the doors of the parlour upon him, and locked them.

24 When he was gon out, his ſervants came; and when they ſaw, that behold, the doors of the parlour were locked, they ſaid, Surely he † covereth his feet in his ſummer-chamber.

25 And they tarried till they were aſhamed: and behold, he opened not the doors of the parlour, therefore they took a key, and opened them: and behold, their lord was fallen down dead on the earth.

26 And Ehud eſcaped while they tarried: and paſſed beyond the quarries, and eſcaped unto Seirath.

27 And it came to paſs when he was come, that he ‡ blew a trumpet in the mountain of Ephraim, and the children of Iſrael went down with him from the mount, and he before them.

28 And he ſaid unto them, Follow after me: for the LORD hath delivered your enemies the Moabites into your hand. And they went down after him, and took the foords of Jordan toward Moab, and ſuffered not a man to paſs over.

29 ¶ And they ſlew of Moab at that time about ten thouſand men, all † luſtie, and all men of valour; and there eſcaped not a man.

30 So Moab was ſubdued that day under the hand of Iſrael: and the [k] land had reſt fourſcore years.

31 ¶ And after him was Shamgar the ſon of Anath, which ſlew of the Philiſtins ſix hundred men with an [l] ox-goad, and he alſo delivered Iſrael.

LORD: for he had nine hundred chariots of iron; and twenty years he mightily oppressed the children of Israel.

4 ¶ And Deborah a prophetess, the wife of Lapidoth, she [c] judged Israel at that time.

[c] By the Spirit of prophesie, resolving of controversies, and declaring the will of God.

5 And she dwelt under the palm-tree of Deborah, betwen Ramah and Beth-el in mount Ephraim: and the children of Israel came to her for judgement.

6 And she sent and called Barak the son of Abinoam, out of Kedesh-naphtali, and said unto him, Hath not the LORD God of Israel [d] commanded, saying, Go, and draw toward mount Tabor, and take with thee ten thousand men, of the children of Naphtali and of the children of Zebulun?

[d] And revealed unto me by the spirit of prophetie.

7 And I will draw unto thee, to the * river Kishon, Sisera the captain of Jabins army, with his chariots and his multitude; and I will deliver him into thine hand.

* Psal. 83. 9. 10.

8 And Barak said unto her, [e] If thou wilt go with me, then I will go: but if thou wilt not go with me, then I will not go.

[e] Fearing his own weakeness and his enemies power, he desireth the Prophetess to go with him to assure him of Gods will for time to time.

9 And she said, I will surely go with thee: notwithstanding the journey that thou takest, shal not be for thine honour: for the LORD shall sell Sisera into the hand of a woman. And Deborah arose, and went with Barak to Kedesh,

10 ¶ And Barak called Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh, and he went up with ten thousand men at his feet: and Deborah went up with him.

11 Now Heber the Kenite, which was of the children of * Hobab the father in law of Moses, had severed himself from the Kenites, and pitched his tent unto the [f] plain of Zaanaim, which is by Kedesh.

† Heb. gathered by cry, or proclamation.

14 And Deborah said unto Barak, [g] Up; for this is the day in which the LORD hath delivered Sisera into thine hand: is not the LORD gon out before thee? So Barak went down from mount Tabor, and ten thousand men after him.

[g] She still incourageth him to this enterprise, by assuring him of Gods favour and aid.

15 And * the LORD discomfited Sisera, and all his chariots, and all his host with the edge of the sword, before Barak; so that Sisera lighted down off his chariot, and fled away on his feet.

* Psal. 83. 9. 10.

16 But Barak pursued after the chariots, and after the host unto Harosheth of the Gentiles: and all the host of Sisera fell upon the edge of the sword, and there was not † a man left.

20 Again he said unto her, Stand in the door of the tent, and it shall be when any man doth come and enquire of thee and say, Is there [i] any man here? that thou shalt say, No.

21 Then Jael Hebers wife, took a [k] nail of the tent, and † took an hammer in her hand, and went softly unto him, and smote the nail into his temples, and fastened it into the gound: (for he was fast asleep and weary) so he died.

1 The Iſraelites for their ſin are oppreſſed by Midian. 8 A prophet rebuketh them. 11 An angel ſendeth Gideon for their deliverance. 17 Gideons preſent is conſumed with fire. 24 Gideon deſtroyeth Baals altar, and offereth a ſacrifice upon the altar Jehovah-ſhalom. 28 Joaſh defendeth his ſon, and calleth him Jerubbaal. 33 Gideons army. 26 Gideons ſigns.

c This is the end of Gods puniſhments, to call his to repentance, that they may ſeek for help of him.

7 ¶ And it came to paſs when the children of Iſrael cried unto the LORD, becauſe of the Midianites; unto him; and ſaid unto him, the LORD is with thee, thou mighty man of valour.

13 And Gideon ſaid unto him.[d] Oh my lord, if the LORD be with us, why then is all this befallen us? and where be all his miracles which our fathers told us of, ſaying, Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt? but now the LORD hath forſaken us: and delivered us into the hand of the Midianite.

14 And the[e] LORD looked upon him, and ſaid, Go in this[f] thy might, and thou ſhalt ſave Iſrael from the hand of the Midianites: have not I ſent thee?

15 And he ſaid unto him, Oh, my lord, wherewith ſhall I ſave Iſrael? behold, † my family is poor in Manaſſeh, and I am the leſt in my fathers houſe.

16 And the LORD ſaid unto him, Surely I will be with thee, and thou ſhalt ſmite the Midianites, as one man.

17 And he ſaid unto him, If now I have found grace in thy ſight, then ſhew me a [g] ſign that thou talkeſt with me.

18 Depart not hence, I pray thee, until I come unto thee, and bring forth my ‡ preſent, and ſet it before thee. And he ſaid, I will tarry until thou come again.

19 And Gideon went in, and made ready †a kid, and unleavened cakes of an [h] ephah of flour: the fleſh he put in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot, and brought it out unto him under the oak, and preſented it.

20 And the angel of God ſaid unto him, Take the fleſh, and the unleavened cakes, and lay them upon this rock, and pour out the broth. And he did ſo.

21 ¶ Then the angel of the LORD put forth the end of the ſtaff that was in his hand, and touched the fleſh, and the unleavened cakes: and there roſe up [i] fire out of the rock, and conſumed the fleſh and the unleavened cakes: then the angel of the LORD departed out of his ſight.

22 And when Gideon perceived that he was an angel of the LORD, Gideon ſaid Alas, O Lord GOD:* for becauſe I have ſeen an angel of the LORD face to face.

23 And the LORD ſaid unto him. Peace be unto thee, fear not, thou ſhalt not die.

24 Then Gideon built an altar there unto the LORD, and called it † Jehovah-ſhalom: unto this day it is yet in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

25 ¶ And it came to paſs the ſame night, that the LORD ſaid unto him, Take thy fathers young bullock, ‡ even the ſecond bullock of [k] ſeven years old, and throw down the altar of Baal that thy father hath, and cut down the grove that is by it:

26 And build an altar unto the LORD thy God upon the top of this † rock, ‡ in the ordered place, and take the ſecond bullock, and offer a burnt-ſacrifice with the wood of the [l] grove which thou ſhalt cut down.

27 Then Gideon took ten men of his ſervants and did as the LORD had ſaid unto him: and ſo it was, becauſe he feared his fathers houſhold, and the men of the city, that he could not do it by day, that he did it by night.

28 ¶ And when the men of the city aroſe early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was caſt down, and the grove was cut down that was by it, and the [m] ſecond bullock was offered upon the altar that was built.

29 And they ſaid one to another, Who hath done this thing? And when they enquired and asked, they ſaid, Gideon the ſon of Joaſh hath done this thing.

30 Then the men of the city ſaid unto Joaſh Bring out thy ſon, that he may die; becauſe he hath caſt down the altar of Baal, & becauſe he hath cut down the grove that was by it.

31 And Joaſh ſaid unto all that ſtood againſt him, Will ye plead for Baal? will ye ſave him? he that will plead for him, let him be put to [n] death, whileſt it is yet morning: if he be a god, let him plead for himſelf, becauſe one hath caſt down his altar.

32 Therefore on that day he called him Jerubbaal, ſaying, Let Baal plead againſt him, becauſe he hath thrown down his altar.

33 ¶ Then all the Midianites and the Amalekites, and the children of the eaſt were gathered together: and went over, and pitched in the valley of Jezreel.

34 But the ſpirit of the LORD † came upon Gideon, and he * blew a trumpet, and ° Abiezer † was gathered after him.

35 And he ſent meſſengers throughout all Manaſſeh, who alſo was gathered after him, and he ſent meſſengers unto Aſher, and unto Zebulun, and unto Naphtali, and they came up to meet them.

36 ¶ And Gideon ſaid unto God, [p] If thou wilt ſave Iſrael by mine hand, as thou haſt ſaid.

37 Behold, I will put a fleece of wool in the floor: and if the dew be on the fleece onely, and it be dry upon all the earth beſide, then ſhall I know that thou wilt ſave Iſrael by mine hand, as thou haſt ſaid.

38 And it was ſo: for he roſe up early on the morrow, and thruſt the fleece together, and wringed the dew out of the fleece, a bowl full of water.

39 And Gideon ſaid unto God, * Let not thine anger be hot againſt me, and I will ſpeak but this once: let me prove, I pray thee, but this once with the fleece; let it now be dry onely upon the fleece, and upon all the ground let there be dew.

40 And God did ſo that night: for it was [q] dry upon the fleece onely, and there was dew on all the ground.

4 And the LORD said unto Gideon, The people are yet too many: bring them down unto the water, and I will [b] trie them for thee there: and it shall be, that of whom I say unto thee, This shall go with thee, the same shall go with thee; and of whomsoever I say unto thee, This shall not go with thee, the same shall not go.

b I will give thee a proof to know them that shall go with thee.

5 So he brought down the people unto the water: and the LORD said unto Gideon, Every one that lappeth of the water with his tongue as a dog lappeth, him shalt thou set by himself; likewise every one that boweth down upon his [c] knees to drink.

c Let them depart as unmeet for this enterprise.

6 And the number of them that lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, were three hundred men: but all the rest of the people bowed down upon their knees to drink water.

7 And the LORD said unto Gideon, By the three hundred men that lapped, will I save you, and deliver the Midianites into thine hand: and let all the other [d] people go every man unto his place.

d That is, the one and thirty thousand and seven hundred, Look vers. 3. & 6.

8 So the people took victuals in their hand, and their trumpets: and he sent all the rest of Israel, every man unto his tent, and retained those three hundred men: and the host of Midian was beneath him in the valley.

9 ¶ And it came to pass the same night, that the LORD said unto him, [e] Arise, get thee down unto the host, for I have delivered it into thine hand e Thus the Lord by divers means doth strengthen him, that he faint not in so great an enterprise.

10 But if thou fear to go down, go thou with Phurah thy servant down to the host.

11 And thou shalt hear what they say, and afterward shall thine hands be strengthened to go down unto the host. Then went he down with Phurah his servant, unto the outside of the ‡ armed men that were in the host.

13 And when Gideon was come, behold, there was a man that told a dream unto his fellow, and said, Behold, I dreamed a dream, and lo, [f] a cake of barley bread tumbled into the host of Midian, and came unto a tent, and smote it that it fell, and overturned it, that the tent lay along.

f Some read, a trembling noise of barley bread: meaning, that one of no reputation should make their great army to tremble.

14 And his fellow answered, and said, This is nothing else save the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel: for into his hand hath God delivered Midian, and all the host.

15 ¶ And it was so, when Gideon heard the telling of the dream, and † the interpretation thereof, that he [g] worshipped, and returned into the host of Israel, and said, Arise, for the LORD hath delivered into your hand the host of Midian.

19 ¶ So Gideon and the hundred men that were with him, came unto the outside of the camp, in the beginning of the middle watch; and they had but newly set the watch, and they blew the trumpets, and brake the pitchers that were in their hands.

CHAP. IX.

1 Abimelech by conspiracy with the Shechemites, and murder of his brethren, is made king. 7 Jotham by a parable rebuketh them, and foretelleth their ruin. 22 Gaal conspireth with the Shechemites against him. 30 Zebul revealeth it. 34 Abimelech overcometh them, and soweth the city with salt. 46 He burneth the hold of the god Berith. 50 At Thebez he is slain by a piece of a milstone. 56 Jothams curse is fulfilled.

AND Abimelech the son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem, unto his [a] mothers brethren, and communed with them and with all the family of the house of his mothers father, saying,

[a] To practice with his kinsfolks for the attaining of the kingdom.

2 Speak, I pray you, in the ears of all the men of Shechem, † Whether is better for you? either that all the sons of Jerubbaal (which are threescore and ten persons) reign over you, or that one reign over you? remember also that I am your [b] bone and your flesh.

4 And they gave him threescore and ten pieces of silver, out of the house of Baal-berith, wherewith Abimelech hired vain and light persons, which followed him.

5 And he went unto his fathers house at Ophrah, and [c] slew his brethren the sons of Jerubbaal, being threescore and ten persons, upon one stone: notwithstanding, yet Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left; for he hid himself.

[e] By this parable he declareth that those that are not ambitious are most worthy of honour, and that the ambitious abuse their honour, both to their own destruction and others.

8 [e] The trees went forth on a time to anoint a king over them, and they said unto the olive-tree, Reign thou over us.

9 But the olive-tree said unto them, Should I leave my fatness, wherewith by me they honour God and man, and ‡ go to be promoted over the trees?

† Or, go up and down for other trees?

10 And the trees said unto the fig-tree, Come thou, and reign over us.

11 But the fig-tree said unto them, Should I forsake my sweetness, and my good fruit, and go to be promoted over the trees?

12 Then said the trees unto the vine, Come thou, and reign over us.

13 And the vine said unto them, Should I leave my wine, which cheareth God and man, and go to be promoted over the trees?

14 Then said all the trees unto the ‡ bramble, come thou, and reign over us.

‡ Or, thistle,

15 And the bramble said unto the trees, If in truth ye anoint me king over you, then come and put your trust in my shadow; and if not, let [f] fire come out of the bramble, and devour the cedars of Lebanon.

[f] Abimelech shall destroy the nobles of Shechem.

16 Now therefore, if ye have done truly and sincerely, in that ye have made Abimelech king, and if ye have dealt well with Jerubbaal and his house, and have done unto him according to the deserving of his hands:

17 (For my father fought for you, and † adventured his life far, and delivered you out of the hand of Midian:

† Heb. cast his life.

18 And ye are risen up against my fathers house this day, and have slain his sons, threescore and ten persons, upon one stone; and have made Abimelech the son of his maid-servant; king over the men of Shechem, because he is your brother)

19 If ye then have dealt truly and sincerely with Jerubbaal and with his house this day, then [g] rejoyce ye in Abimelech, and let him also rejoyce in you:

[g] That he is your king, and you his subjects.

20 But if not, let fire come out from Abimelech, and devour the men of Shechem, and the house of Millo: and let fire come out from the men of Shechem, and from the house of Millo, and devour Abimelech.

21 And Jotham ran away and fled, and went to Beer, and dwelt there, for fear of Abimelech his brother.

22 ¶ When Abimelech had reigned three years over Israel,

23 Then God [h] sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the men of Shechem: and the men of Shechem dealt treacherously with Abimelech:

[h] Because the people consented with the king in shedding innocent blood: therefore God destroyed both the one and the other.

24 That the cruelty done to the threescore and ten sons of Jerubbaal might come, and their blood be laid upon Abimelech their brother which slew them, and upon the men of Shechem which † aided him in the killing of his brethren.

† Heb. strengthened his hands to kill

25 And the men of Shechem set liers in wait for him in the top of the mountains, and they robbed all that came along that way by them: and it was told Abimelech.

26 And Gaal the son of Ebed came with his brethren, and went over to Shechem: and the men of Shechem put their confidence in him.

27 And they went out into the [i] fields, and gathered their vineyards, and trod the grapes, and made † merry, and went into the house of their god, and did eat and drink, and cursed Abimelech.

28 And Gaal the son of Ebed said, Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? is not he the son of Jerubbaal, and Zebul his officer? serve the men of Hamor the father of Shechem: for why should we serve him?

29 And would to God this people were under my hand; then would I remove Abimelech. And he [k] said to Abimelech, Increase thine army, and come out.

30 ¶ And when Zebul the ruler of the city heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, his anger was ‡ kindled.

31 And he sent messengers unto Abimelech † privily, saying, Behold, Gaal the son of Ebed, and his brethren be come to Shechem; and behold, they fortifie the city against thee.

32 Now therefore up by night, thou and the people that is with thee, and lie in wait in the field.

33 And it shall be, that in the morning assoon as the sun is up, thou shalt rise up early, and set upon the city: and behold, when he and the people that is with him come out against thee, then mayest thou do to them † as thou shalt find occasion.

34 ¶ And Abimelech rose up, and all the people that were with him, by night, and they laid wait against Shechem in four companies.

35 And Gaal the son of Ebed went out, and stood in the entring of the gate of the city: and Abimelech rose up, and the people that were with him from lying in wait.

36 And when Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, Behold, there come people down from the top of the mountains. And Zebul said unto him, Thou [l] seest the shadow of the mountains as if they were men.

37 And Gaal spake again, and said, See, there come people down by the † middle of the land, and another company come along by the plain of ‡ Meonenim.

38 Then said Zebul unto him, Where is now thy mouth, wherewith thou saidst, Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him? is not this the people that thou hast despised? go out, I pray now, and fight with them.

39 And Gaal [m] went out before the men of Shechem, and fought with Abimelech.

40 And Abimelech chased him, and he fled before him, and many were overthrown and wounded, even unto the entring of the gate.

41 And Abimelech dwelt at Arumnah: and Zebul thrust out Gaal and his brethren, that they should not dwell in Shechem.

42 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the people went out into the field, and they told Abimelech.

43 And he took the [n] people, and divided them into three companies, and lait wait in the field, and looked, and behold, the people were come forth out of the city, and rose up against them, and smote them.

44 And Abimelech, and the company that was with him rushed forward, and stood in the entring of the gate of the city: and the two other companies ran upon all the people that were in the fields, and slew them.

45 And Abimelech fought against the city all that day, and he took the city, and slew the people that was therein, and beat down the city, and [o] sowed it with salt.

46 ¶ And when all the men of the tower of Shechem heard that, they entred into an hold of the house of the god [p] Berith.

47 And it was told Abimelech, that all the men of the tower of Shechem were gathered together.

48 And Abimelech gat him up to mount Zalmon, he and all the people that were with him, and Abimelech took an ax in his hand, and cut down a bough from the trees, and took it, and laid it on his shoulder, and said unto the people that were with him, What ye have seen † me do, make haste, and do as I have done.

49 And all the people likewise cut down every man his bough: and followed Abimelech, and put them to the hold, and set the hold on fire upon them: so that all the men of the tower of Shechem [q] died also, about a thousand men and women.

50 ¶ Then went Abimelech to Thebez, and encamped against Thebez, and took it.

51 But there was a strong tower within the city, and thither fled all the men and women, and all they of the city, and shut it to them, and gat them up to the top of the tower.

52 And Abimelech came unto the tower, and fought against it, and went hard unto the door of the tower to burn it with fire.

53 And a certain woman * cast a piece of a milstone upon Abimelechs head, and all to brake his scull.

54 Then he called hastily unto the young man his armour-bearer, and said unto him, Draw thy sword, and slay me, that men say not of me, A woman slew him. And his young man [r] thrust him through, and he died.

55 And when the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they departed every man unto his place.

56 ¶ Thus God rendred the wickedness of Abimelech which he did unto his father, in slaying his seventy brethren.

57 And all the evil of the men of Shechem, did God render upon their heads: and upon them came the [s] curse of Jotham the son of Jerubbaal.

1 The covenant between Jephthah and the Gileadites, that he ſhould be their head. 12 The treaty of peace between him and the Ammonites is in vain. 29 Jephthahs vow. 32 His conqueſt of the Ammonites. 34 He performeth his vow on his daughter.

NOw * Jephthah the Gileadite was a mighty man of valour, and he was the ſon of † an harlot: and Gilead begat Jephthah.

2 And Gileads wife bare him ſons, and his wives ſons grew up, and they thruſt out Jephthah, and ſaid unto him, Thou ſhalt not inherit in our fathers houſe, for thou art the ſon of a [a] ſtrange woman.

3 Then Jephthah fled † from his brethren, and dwelt in the land of [b] Tob: and there were gathered vain men to Jephthah, and [c] went out with him.

4 ¶ And it came to paſs † in proceſs of time, that the children of Ammon made war againſt Iſrael.

5 And it was ſo, that when the children of Ammon made war againſt Iſrael, the [d] elders of Gilead went to fetch Jephthah out of the land of Tob:

6 And they ſaid unto Jephthah, [e] Come and be our captain, that we may fight with the children of Ammon.

7 And Jephthah ſaid unto the elders of Gilead, Did not ye hate me, and [f] expell me out of my fathers houſe? and why are ye come unto me now when ye are in diſtreſs?

8 And the elders of Gilead ſaid unto Jephthah, Therefore we turn again to thee now, that thou mayeſt go with us, and fight againſt the children of Ammon, and be our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

9 And Jephthah ſaid unto the elders of Gilead, if ye bring me home again to fight againſt the children of Ammon, and the LORD deliver them before me; ſhall I be your head?

10 And the elders of Gilead ſaid unto Jephthah, the LORD † be witneſs between us if we do not ſo according to thy words.

11 Then Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and captain over them: and Jephthah uttered all his words before the LORD in Mizpeh.

12 ¶ And Jephthah ſent meſſengers unto the king of the children of Ammon, ſaying, What haſt thou to do with me, that thou art come againſt me to fight in my land?

13 And the king of the children of Ammon anſwered unto the meſſengers of Jephthah, * Becauſe Iſrael took away my land when they came up out of Egypt, from Arnon even unto Jabbok, and unto Jordan: now therefore reſtore thoſe lands again peacebly.

14 And Jephthah ſent meſſengers again unto the king of the children of Ammon;

15 And ſaid unto him, Thus ſaith Jephthah, * Iſrael took not away the land of Moab, nor the land of the children of Ammon:

16 But when Iſrael came up from Egypt, and walked through the wilderneſs, unto the Red-ſea, and came to Kadeſh:

17 Then

17 Then * Iſrael ſent meſſengers unto the king of Edom, ſaying, Let me, I pray thee, paſs through thy land: but the king of Edom would not hearken thereto. And in like manner they ſent unto the king of Moab; but he would not conſent: and Iſrael abode in Kadeſh.

* Num. 20. 14.

18 Then they went along through the wilderneſs, and compaſſed the land of Edom, and the land of Moab, and came by the eaſt-ſide of the land of Moab, and pitched on the other ſide of Arnon, * but came not within the border of Moab: for Arnon was the border of Moab.

* Num. 21. 13. & 22. 36.

19 And * Iſrael ſent meſſengers unto Sihon king of the Amorite, the king of Heſhbon; and Iſrael ſaid unto him, Let us paſs, we pray thee, through thy land unto my place.

* Deut. 2. 26.

20 But Sihon [g] truſted not Iſrael to paſs through his coaſt: but Sihon gathered all his people together, and pitched in Jahaz, and fought with Iſrael.

g He truſted them not to go through his countrey.

21 And the LORD God of Iſrael delivered Sihon and all his people into the hand of Iſrael, and they ſmote them: ſo Iſrael poſſeſſed all the land of the Amorite, the inhabitant of that countrey.

22 And they poſſeſſed * all the coaſts of the Amorite, from Arnon even unto Jabbok, and from the wilderneſs even unto Jordan.

* Deut. 2. 36.

23 So now the LORD God of Iſrael hath diſpoſſeſſed the Amorite from before his people Iſrael, and ſhouldſt thou poſſeſs it?

24 Wilt not thou poſſeſs that which Chemoſh thy god giveth thee to poſſeſs? So whomſoever the [h] LORD our God ſhall drive out from before us, them will we poſſeſs.

h For we ought more to believe and obey God, than thou thine idols.

25 * And now art thou any thing better than Balak the ſon of Zippor king of Moab? did he ever ſtrive againſt Iſrael, or did he ever fight againſt them,

* Num. 22. 2. Deut. 23. 4. Joſh. 24. 9.

26 While Iſrael dwelt in Heſhbon and her towns, and in Aroer and her towns, and in all the cities that be along by the coaſts of Arnon, three hundred years? why therefore did ye not [i] recover them within that time?

i Meaning their towns.

27 Wherefore I have not ſinned againſt thee, but thou doeſt me wrong to war againſt me: the LORD the Judge, be [k] judge this day between the children of Iſrael and the children of Ammon.

k To puniſh the offender.

28 Howbeit, the king of the children of Ammon hearkened not unto the words of Jephthah which he ſent him.

29 ¶ Then the [l] ſpirit of the LORD came upon Jephthah, and he paſſed over Gilead, and Manaſſeh, and paſſed over Mizpeh of Gilead, and from Mizpeh of Gilead he paſſed over unto the children of Ammon.

l That is, the ſpirit of ſtrength and zeal.

30 And Jephthah [m] vowed a vow unto the LORD, and ſaid If thou ſhalt without fail deliver the children of Ammon into mine hand, m As the apoſtle commendeth Jephthah for his worthy enterpriſe in delivering the people, Heb. 11. 32. ſo by his raſh vow and wicked performance of the ſame, his victory was defaced: and here we ſee that the ſins of the godly do not utterly extinguiſh their faith.

31 Then it ſhall be, that † whatſoever cometh forth of the doors of my houſe to meet me, when I return in peace from the children of Ammon, ſhall ſurely be the LORDS, ‡ and I will offer it up for a burnt-offering.

† Heb. that which cometh forth, or, which ſhall come forth

‡ Or, I will offer &c.

32 ¶ So Jephthah paſſed over unto the children of Ammon to fight againſt them, and the LORD delivered them into his hands.

33 And he ſmote them from Aroer, even till thou come to Minnith, even twenty cities, and unto ‡ the plain of the vineyards, with a very great ſlaughter: thus the children of Ammon were ſubdued before the children of Iſrael.

o Being overcome with blind zeal, and not conſidering whether the vow was lawfull or no.

36 And ſhe ſaid unto him, My father, if thou haſt opened thy mouth unto the LORD, do to me according to that which hath proceeded out of thy mouth; foraſmuch as the LORD hath taken vengeance for thee of thine enemies, even of the children of Ammon.

37 And ſhe ſaid unto her father, Let this thing be done for me: Let me alone two moneths, that I may † go up and down upon the mountains, and [p] bewail my virginity, I and my fellows.

3 And when I ſaw that ye delivered me not, [c] I put my life in my hands, and paſſed over againſt the children of Ammon, and the LORD delivered them inro my hand: wherefore then are ye come up unto me this day, to fight againſt me?

c That is, I ventured my life, and when mans help failed, I put my truſt onely in God.

4 Then Jephthah gathered together all the men of Gilead, and fought with Ephraim: and the the men of Gilead ſmote Ephraim, becauſe they ſaid, Ye Gileadites are fugitivs of Ephraim, [d] among the Ephraimites, and among the Manaſſites.

d Ye ran from us, and choſe Gilead and now in reſpect of us, ye are nothing.

5 And the Gileadites took the paſſages of Jordan before the Ephraimites: and it was ſo, that when thoſe Ephraimites which were eſcaped ſaid, Let me go over; that the men of Gilead ſaid unto him, Art thou an Ephraimite? If he ſaid, Nay:

e which ſignifieth, The fall of waters, or An ear of corn.

6 Then ſaid they unto him, Say now [e] Shibboleth: and he ſaid Sibboleth: for he could not frame to pronounce it right. Then they took him, and ſlew him at the paſſages of Jordan: and there fell at that time of the Ephraimites, forty and two thouſand.

7 And Jephthah judged Iſrael ſix years: then died Jephthah the Gileadite, and was buried in one of the cities of Gilead.

f Some think that this was Boaz the huſband of Ruth.

8 ¶ And after him [f] Ibzan of Beth-lehem judged Iſrael.

9 And he had thirty ſons, and thirty daughters whom he ſent abroad, and took in thirty daughters from abroad for his ſons. And he judged Iſrael ſeven years.

10 Then died Ibzan, and was buried at Beth-lehem.

11 ¶ And after him, Elon a Zebulonite judged Iſrael, and he judged Iſrael ten years.

12 And Elon the Zebulonite died, and was buried in Aijalon in the countrey of Zebulun.

13 ¶ And after him, Abdon the ſon of Hillel a Pirathonite judged Iſrael.

14 And he had forty ſons, and thirty † Heb. ſons ſons, † nephews, that rode on threeſcore and ten aſſs-colts: and he judged Iſrael eight years.

Chap. XXIII.

1 Iſrael is in the hand of the Philiſtins. 2 An angel appeareth to Manoahs wife. 8 The angel appeareth to Manoah. 15 Manoahs ſacrifice, whereby the angel is diſcovered. 24 Samſon is born.

* Chap. 2. 11. & 3. 7. & 4. 1. & 6. 1. & 10. 6.

AND the children of Iſrael † * did evil again in the ſight of the Lord, and the Lord delivered them into the hand of the Philiſtins forty years.

2 ¶ And there was a certain man of Zorah, of the family of the Danites, whoſe name was Manoah, and his wife was [a] barren and bare not.

a Signifying that their deliverance came onely of God, and not by mans power.

3 And the angel of the Lord appeared unto the woman: and ſaid unto her, Behold now, thou art barren and beareſt not: but thou ſhalt conceive and bear a ſon,

4 Now therefore beware, I pray thee, and * Num. 6. 2. 3. * drink not wine, nor ſtrong drink, and eat not any unclean thing.

5 For lo, thou ſhalt conceive and bear a ſon, and * no raſour ſhall come on his head: for the child ſhall be a [b] Nazarite unto God from the womb: and he ſhall begin to deliver Iſrael out of the hand of the Philiſtins.

* Num. 6. 5. 1 Sam. 1. 11.
b Meaning, He ſhould be ſeparate from the world, and dedicate to God.

6 ¶ Then the woman came and told her husband, ſaying. A man of God came unto me, and his countenance was like the countenance of an angel of God, very terrible: But I asked him not whence he was, neither told he me his name.

e If fleſh be not able to abide the ſight of an angel, how much leſs the preſence of God?

7 But he ſaid unto me, Behold, thou ſhalt conceive and bear a ſon; and now drink no wine nor ſtrong drink, neither eat any unclean thing: for the child ſhall be a Nazarite to God, from the womb to the day of his death.

8 ¶ Then Manoah [d] intreated the Lord, and ſaid, O my Lord, let the man of God which thou didſt ſend, come again unto us, and teach us what we ſhall do unto the child that ſhall be born.

d He ſheweth himſelf ready to obey Gods will, and therefore deſireth to know farther.

9 And God hearkened to the voice of Manoah; and the angel of God came again unto the woman as ſhe ſat in the field: but Manoah her husband was not with her.

10 And the woman made haſte, and ran, and ſhewed her husband, and ſaid unto him, behold, the man hath appeared unto me, that came unto me the [e] other day.

e Or to day, for it ſeemeth that the angel appeared unto her twice in one day.

11 And Manoah aroſe, and went after his wife, and came to the [f] man, and ſaid unto him, Art thou the man that ſpakeſt unto the woman? And he ſaid, I am.

f He calleth him man, becauſe he ſo ſeemed but he was Chriſt the eternall word, which at his time appointed became man.

12 And Manoah ſaid, Now let thy words come to paſs: † How ſhall we order the child, and ‡ † how ſhall we do unto him?

† Heb. What ſhall be the manner of the &c.

13 And the angel of the Lord ſaid unto Manoah, Of all that I ſaid unto the woman let her beware.

‡ Or, What ſhall he do?

† Heb what ſhall be his work.

14 She may not eat of any thing that cometh of the vine, neither let her drink wine or ſtrong drink, nor eat any [g] unclean thing; all that I commanded her, let her obſerve.

g Any thing forbidden by the law.

15 ¶ And Manoah, ſaid unto the angel of the Lord, I pray thee, let us detain thee, until we ſhall have made ready a kid † for thee.

† Heb. before thee.

16 And the angel of the Lord ſaid unto Manoah, Though thou detain me, I will not eat of thy bread: and if thou wilt offer a burnt-offering, thou muſt offer it unto the [h] Lord: for Manoah knew not that he was an angel of the Lord.

h Shewing that he ſought not his own honour, but Gods, whoſe meſſenger he was.

17 And Manoah ſaid unto the angel of the Lord, What is thy name, that when thy ſayings come to paſs, we may do thee honour?

18 And the angel of the Lord ſaid unto him, Why aſkeſt thou thus after my name, ſeeing it is ‡ ſecret?

‡ Or, wonderfull?

19 So Manoah took a kid, with a meat-offering, and offered it upon a rock unto the Lord: and the angel did [i] wonderouſly, and Manoah and his wife looked on.

i God ſent fire from heaven to conſume their ſacrifice, to confirm their faith in his promiſe.

20 For it came to paſs, when the flame went up toward heaven from off the altar, that the angel of the Lord aſcended in the flame of the altar: and Manoah and his wife looked on it, and fell on their faces to the ground.

21 (But the angel of the Lord did no more appear to Manoah and to his wife) then Manoah knew that he was an angel of the Lord.

22 And

22 And Manaoh ſaid unto his wife, * We ſhall ſurely die, becauſe we have ſeen God.

* Exod. 33. 20. Chap. 6. 22.

23 But his wife ſaid unto him, If the LORD were pleaſed to kill us, he would not have [k] received a burnt-offering and a meat-offering at our hands, neither would he have ſhewed us all theſe things, nor would as at this time have told us ſuch things as theſe.

k Theſe graces that we have received of God, and his accepting of our obedience, are ſure tokens of his love toward us, ſo that nothing can hurt us.

24 ¶ And the woman bare a ſon, and called his name Samſon: and the child grew, and the LORD bleſſed him.

25 And the ſpirit of the LORD began to move him at times in the camp of Dan, between Zorah and Eſhtaol.

CHAP. XIV.

1 Samſon deſireth a wife of the Philiſtins. 5 In his journey he killeth a lion. 8 In a ſecond journey he findeth honey in the carcaſe. 10 Samſons marriage-feaſt. 12 His ridale by his wife is made known. 19 He ſpoileth thirty Philiſtins. 20 His wife is married to another.

AND Samſon went down to Timnath, and ſaw a woman in Timnath, of the daughters of the Philiſtins.

2 And he came up and told his father and his mother, and ſaid, I have ſeen a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philiſtins: now therefore get her for me to wife.

3 Then his father and his mother ſaid unto him, Is there [a] never a woman among the daughters of thy brethren, or among all my people, that thou goeſt to take a wife of the uncircumciſed Philiſtins? And Samſon ſaid unto his father, Get her for me, for † ſhe pleaſeth me well.

a Though his parents did juſtly reprove him, yet it appeareth that this was the ſecret work of the Lord, verſ. 4.

4 But his father and his mother knew not that it was of the LORD, that he ſought an occaſion againſt the [b] Philiſtins: for at that time the Philiſtins had dominion over Iſrael.

b To fight againſt them for the deliverance of Iſrael.

5 Then went Samſon down, and his father and his mother, to Timnath, and came to the vineyards of Timnath: and behold, a young lion roared † againſt him.

† Heb. in meeting him.

6 And the ſpirit of the LORD [c] came mightily upon him, & he rent him as he would have rent a kid, & he had nothing in his hand, but he told not his father or his mother what he had done.

c whereby he had ſtrength and boldneſs.

7 And he went down, and talked with the woman, and ſhe pleaſed Samſon well.

8 ¶ And after a time, he returned to take her, and he turned aſide to ſee the carcaſe of the lion: and behold there was a ſwarm of bees, and honey in the carcaſe of the lion.

9 And he took thereof in his hands, and went on eating, and came to his father and mother, and he gave them, and they did eat: but he told not them that he had taken the honey out of the carcaſe of the lion.

10 ¶ So his father went down unto the woman, and Samſon made there a [d] feaſt: for ſo uſed the young men to do.

d Meaning, when he was married.

11 And it came to paſs when [e] they ſaw him, that they brought thirty companions to be with him.

e That is, her parents or friends.

12 ¶ And Samſon ſaid unto them, I will now put forth a riddle unto you: if you can certainly declare it me, within the ſeven days of the feaſt, and find it out, then I will give you thirty ‡ ſheets, and thirty [f] change of garments.

f To wear at the feaſts, or ſolem days.

13 But if ye cannot declare it me, then ſhall ye give me thirty ſheets, and thirty change of garments. And they ſaid unto him, Put forth thy riddle, that we may hear it.

14 And he ſaid unto them, Out of the eater came forth meat, and out of the ſtrong came forth ſweetneſs. And they could not in three days expound the riddle.

15 And it came to paſs on the ſeventh day, that they ſaid unto Samſon wife, [g] Entice thy husband, that he may declare unto us the riddle, leaſt we burn thee and thy fathers houſe with fire: have ye called us † to take that we have? is it not ſo?

g Thus wicked men uſe meanes to eſcape temporal puniſhment; but not eternal.

† Heb. to poſſeſs us, or to impoveriſh us?

16 And Samſons wife wept before him, and ſaid, Thou doſt but hate me, and loveſt me not: thou haſt put forth a riddle unto the children of [h] my people, and haſt not told it me. And he ſaid unto her, Behold, I have not told it my father nor my mother, and ſhall I tell it thee?

h Unto them which are of my nation.

17 And ſhe wept before him ‡ the [i] ſeven days, while the feaſt laſted: and it came to paſs on the ſeventh day, that he told her, becauſe ſhe lay ſore upon him: and ſhe told the riddle to the children of her people.

i Or, to the ſeventh day, beginning at the fourth.

18 And the men of the city ſaid unto him on the ſeventh day before the ſun went down, What is ſweeter than honey? and what is ſtronger than a lion? And he ſaid unto them, * If ye had not plowed with my heifer, ye had not found out my riddle.

k If ye had not uſed the help of my wife.

19 ¶ And the ſpirit of the LORD came upon him, and he went down to [l] Aſhkelon, and ſlew thirty men of them, and took their ‡ ſpoil, and gave change of garments unto them which expounded the riddle: and his anger was kindled, and he went up to his fathers houſe.

l which was one of the five chief cities of the Philiſtins.

‡ Or, apparel,

20 But Samſons wife was given to his companion, whom he had uſed as his friend.

CHAP. XV.

1 Samſon is denied his wife. 3 He burneth the Philiſtins corn with foxes and fire-brands. 6 His wife and her father are burnt by the Philiſtins. 7 Samſon ſmiteth them hip and thigh. 9 He is bound by the men of Judah, and delivered to the Philiſtins. 14 He killeth them with a jaw-bone. 18 God maketh the fountain En-hakkore for him in Lehi.

BUT it came to paſs within a while after, in the time of wheat-harveſt, that Samſon viſited his wife with a kid, and he ſaid, [a] I will go in to my wife into the chamber. But her father would not ſuffer him to go in, a That is, I will uſe her as my wife.

2 And her father ſaid, I verily thought that thou hadſt utterly hated her, therefore I gave her to thy companion: is not her younger ſiſter fairer than ſhe? † take her, I pray thee, in ſtead of her.

† Heb. let her be thine,

3 ¶ And Samſon ſaid concerning them, ‡ Now ſhall I be more [b] blameleſs than the Philiſtins, though I do them a diſpleaſure.

‡ Or, now ſhall I be blameleſs from the Philiſtins, &c.

b For through his father in laws occaſion, he was moved again to take vengeance of the Philiſtins.

4 And Samſon went and caught three hundred foxes, and took ‡ fire-brands, and turned tail tail to tail, and put a fire-brand in the midſt between two tails.

5 And when he had ſet the brands on fire, he let them go into the ſtanding-corn of the Philiſtins, and burnt up both the [c] ſhocks, and alſo the ſtanding-corn, with the vineyards and olives.

c Or, that which was reaped and gathered.

6 ¶ Then the Philiſtins ſaid, Who hath done this? And they anſwered, Samſon the ſon in law of the [d] Timnite, becauſe he had taken his wife, and given her to his companion. And the Philiſtins came up, and burnt [e] her and her father with fire.

d Or, the citizen of Timnath.

e So the wicked puniſh not vice for love of juſtice, but for fear of danger, which elſe might come to them.

7 ¶ And Samſon ſaid unto them, Though ye have done this, yet will I be avenged of you, and after that I will ceaſe.

8 And he ſmote them hip and thigh with a great ſlaughter; and he went down and dwelt in the top of the rock Etam.

9 ¶ Then the Philiſtins went up, and pitched in Judah, and ſpread themſelvs in Lehi.

10 And the men of Judah ſaid, Why are ye come up againſt us? And they anſwered, To [f] bind Samſon are we come up, to do to him, as he hath done to us.

f And ſo being our priſoner, to puniſh him.

11 Then three thouſand men of Judah † went to the top of the rock Etam, and ſaid to Samſon, Knoweſt thou not that the Philiſtins are rulers over us? [g] what is this that thou haſt done unto us? And he ſaid unto them, As they did unto me, ſo have I done unto them.

† Heb. went down

g Such was their groſs ignorance that they judged Gods great benefit to be a plague unto them.

12 And they ſaid unto him, We are come down to bind thee, that we may deliver thee into the hand of the Philiſtins. And Samſon ſaid unto them, Swear unto me, that ye will not fall upon me your ſelvs.

13 And they ſpake unto him, ſaying, [h] No: but we will bind thee faſt, and deliver thee into their hand: but ſurely we will not kill thee. And they bound him with two new cords, and brought him up from the rock.

h Thus they had rather betray their brother, than uſe the means that God had given for their deliverance.

14 ¶ And when he came unto Lehi, the Philiſtins ſhouted againſt him: and the ſpirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and the cords that were upon his arms, became as flax that was burnt with fire, and his bands † loſed from off his hands,

† Heb. were melted

15 And he found a † [i] new jaw-bone of an aſs, and put forth his hand and took it, and ſlew a thouſand men therewith.

† Heb. moiſt i That is, of an aſs lately ſlain.

16 And Samſon ſaid, With the jaw-bone of an aſs, † heaps upon heaps, with the jaw of an aſs have I ſlain a thouſand men.

† Heb. an heap, two heaps,

17 And it came to paſs when he had made an end of ſpeaking, that he caſt away the jaw-bone out of his hand, and called that place ‡ Ramath-lehi.

‡ That is, the liſting up of the jaw-bone, or caſting away of the jaw-bone.

18 ¶ And he was ſore athirſt, and [k] called on the LORD, and ſaid, Thou haſt given this great deliverance into the hand of thy ſervant, and now ſhall I die for thirſt, and fall into the hand of the uncircumciſed?

k whereby appeareth that he did theſe things in faith, and ſo with a true zeal to glorify God, and deliver his country.

19 But God clave an hollow place that was in ‡ the jaw, and there came water there out; and when he had drunk, his ſpirit came again, and he revived: wherefore he called the name thereof ‡ En-hakkore, which is in Lehi unto this day.

‡ Or, lehi,

‡ That is, the well of him that called or cried,

20 And he judged Iſrael in the days of the Philiſtins twenty years.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Samſon at Gaza eſcapeth, and carrieth away the gates of the city. 4 Delilah corrupted by the Philiſtins, enticeth Samſon. 6 Thrice ſhe is deceived. 15 At laſt ſhe overcometh him. 21 The Philiſtins take him, and put out his eyes. 22 His ſtrength renewing, he pulleth down the houſe upon the Philiſtins, and dieth.

THen went Samſon to [a] Gaza, and ſaw there † an harlot, and [b] went in unto her.

a One of the five chief cities of the Philiſtins.

† Heb. a woman an harlot,

b That is, he lodged with her.

2 And it was told the Gazites, ſaying, Samſon is come hither. And they compaſſed him in, and laid wait for him all night in the gate of the city, and were † quiet all the night, ſaying, In the morning when it is day, we ſhall kill him.

† Silent

3 And Samſon lay till midnight, and aroſe at midnight, and took the doors of the gate of the city, and the two poſts, and went away with them, † bar and all, and put them upon his ſhoulders, and carried them up to the top of an hill that is before Hebron.

† Heb. with the bar,

4 ¶ And it came to paſs afterward, that he loved a woman ‡ in the valley of Sorek, whoſe name was Delilah.

‡ Or, by the brook

5 And the Lords of the Philiſtins came up unto her, and ſaid unto her, Entice him, and ſee wherein his great ſtrength lieth, and by what means we may prevail againſt him, that we may bind him to ‡ afflict him: and we will give thee every one of us eleven hundred [c] pieces of ſilver.

c Of the value of a ſhekel, read Gen. 23.15.

6 And Delilah ſaid to Samſon, Tell me, I pray thee, wherein thy great ſtrength lieth, and wherewith thou mighteſt be bound to afflict thee.

7 And Samſon ſaid unto her, If they bind me with ſeven ‡ * green withs, that were never dried, then ſhall I be weak, and be as † another man.

† Heb. one

8 Then the lords of the Philiſtins brought up to her ſeven green withs, which had not been dried, and ſhe bound him with them.

9 (Now there were [d] men lying in wait abiding with her in the chamber) And ſhe ſaid unto him, The Philiſtins be upon thee, Samſon. And he brake the withs, as a threed of tow is broken when it † toucheth the [e] fire: ſo his ſtrength was not known.

d Certain Philiſtins in a ſecret chamber.

† Heb. ſmelleth e when fire cometh near it.

10 And Delilah ſaid unto Samſon, Behold, thou haſt mocked me, and told me lies: now [f] tell me I, pray thee, wherewith thou mighteſt be bound.

f Through her falſhood tendred to make him looſe his life, yet his affection ſo blinded him, that he could not beware.

11 And he ſaid unto her, If they bind me faſt with new ropes † that never were occupied, then ſhall I be weak, and be as another man.

† Heb. wherewith work hath not been done,

12 Delilah therefore took new ropes, and bound him therewith, and ſaid unto him, The Philiſtins be upon thee, Samſon. (And there were liers in wait abiding in the chamber) And he brake them from off his arms like a threed.

13 And

13 And Delilah ſaid unto Samſon, Hitherto thou haſt mocked me, and told me lies: tell me wherewith thou mighteſt be bound. And [g] he ſaid unto her, If thou weaveſt the ſeven locks of my head with the web.

g It is impoſſible, if we give place to our wicked affections, but at length we ſhall be deſtroyed.

14 And ſhe faſtened it with the pin, and ſaid unto him, The Philiſtins be upon thee, Samſon. And he awaked out of his ſleep, and went away with the pin of the beam, and with the web.

15 ¶ And ſhe ſaid unto him, How canſt thou ſay, [h] I love thee, when thine heart is not with me? Thou haſt mocked me theſe three times, and haſt not told me wherein thy great ſtrength lieth.

h For this Samſon uſed to ſay, I love thee.

16 And it came to paſs, when ſhe preſſed him daily with her words, and urged him, ſo that his ſoul was † vexed unto death;

17 That he told her all his [i] heart, and ſaid unto her, There hath not come a raſour upon mine head; for I have been a Nazarite unto God from my mothers womb: if I be ſhaven, then my ſtrength will go from me, and I ſhall become weak, and be like any other man.

i Thus his immoderate affections toward a wicked woman, cauſed him to looſe Gods excellent gifts, and become ſlave unto them whom he ſhould have ruled.

18 And when Delilah ſaw that he had told her all his heart, ſhe ſent and called for the lords of the Philiſtins, ſaying, Come up this once, for he hath ſhewed me all his heart. Then the lords of the Philiſtins came up unto her, and brought money in their hand.

19 And ſhe made him ſleep upon her knees, and ſhe called for a man, and ſhe cauſed him to ſhave of the ſeven locks of his head, and ſhe began to afflict him, and his ſtrength [k] went from him.

k Not for the loſs of his hair, but for the contempt of the ordinance of God, which was the cauſe that God departed from him.

20 And ſhe ſaid, The Philiſtins be upon thee, Samſon. And he awoke out of his ſleep, and ſaid, I will go out as at other times before, and ſhake my ſelf. And he wiſt not that the LORD was departed from him.

21 ¶ But the Philiſtins took him, and † put out his eyes, and brought him down to Gaza, and bound him with fetters of braſs, and he did grind in the priſon-houſe.

22 Howbeit the hair of his head began to [l] grow again, ‡ after he was ſhaven.

l Yet had he not his ſtrength again, till he had called upon God, and reconciled himſelf.
‡ Or, as when he was ſhaven.

23 Then the lords of the Philiſtins gathered them together, for to offer a great ſacrifice unto Dagon their god, and to rejoyce: for they ſaid, Our god hath delivered Samſon our enemy into our hand.

24 And when the people ſaw him, they praiſed their god: for they ſaid, Our god hath delivered into our hand our enemy, and the deſtroyer of our countrey, † which ſlew many of us.

† Heb. and who multiplied our ſlain.

25 And it came to paſs when their hearts were merry, that they ſaid, Call for Samſon, that he may make us [m] ſport. And they called for Samſon out of the priſon-houſe; and he made † them ſport: and they ſet him between the pillars.

m Thus by Gods judgements they are made ſlaves to infidels, which neglect their vocation in defending the faithfull.
† Heb before them

26 And Samſon ſaid unto the lad that held him by the hand, Suffer me that I may feel the pillars whereupon the houſe ſtandeth; that I may lean upon them.

27 Now the houſe was full of men and women; and all the Lords of the Philiſtins were there: and there were upon the roof about three thouſand men and women, that beheld while Samſon made ſport.

28 And Samſon called unto the LORD, and ſaid, O Lord God, remember me, I pray thee, and ſtrengthen me, I pray thee, onely this once, O God, that I may be at once [n] avenged of the Philiſtins for my two eyes.

n According to my vocation which is to execute Gods judgements upon the wicked.

29 And Samſon took hold of the two middle pillars, upon which the houſe ſtood, and † on which it was born up, of the one with his right hand, and of the other with his left.

† Or, he leaned on them,

30 And Samſon [o] ſaid, Let † me die with the Philiſtins; and he bowed himſelf with all his might; and the houſe fell upon the lords, and upon all the people that were therein: ſo the dead which he ſlew at his death, were more than they which he ſlew in his life.

o He ſpeaketh not this of deſpair but humbling himſelf for neglecting his office, and the offence thereby given.
† Heb. my ſoul

31 Then his brethren, and all the houſe of his father, came down and took him; and brought him up, and buried him between Zorah and Eſhtaol, in the burying-place of Manoah his father: and he judged Iſrael twenty years.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Of the money that Micah firſt ſtole, then reſtored, his mother maketh images, 5 and the ornaments for them. 7 He hireth a Levite to be his prieſt.

AND there was a [a] man of mount Ephraim, whoſe name was Micah.

a Some think this hiſtory was in the time of Othniel, or as Joſephus writeth, Immediatly after Joſhua.

2 And he ſaid unto his mother, The eleven hundred ſhekels of ſilver, that were taken from thee, about which thou curſedſt, and ſpakeſt of alſo in mine ears; behold, the ſilver is with me, I took it. And his mother ſaid, Bleſſed be thou of the LORD, my ſon.

3 And when he had reſtored the eleven hundred ſhekels of ſilver to his mother, his mother ſaid, I had wholy dedicated the ſilver unto the LORD, from my hand, for my ſon, to make a [b] graven image, and a molten image: now therefore I will reſtore it unto thee.

b Contrary to the commandment of God, and true religion, practiced under Joſhua, they forſook the Lord and fell to idolatry.
* Chap. 8. 27.

4 Yet he reſtored the money unto his mother, and his mother took two hundred ſhekels of ſilver, and gave them to the founder, who made thereof a graven image, and a molten image: and they were in the houſe of Micah.

c He would ſerve both God and idols.
* Gen. 31. 19. Hoſ. 3. 4.

5 And the man Micah had an houſe of gods, and made an *[c] ephod, and *[d] teraphim; and † conſecrated one of his ſons, who became his prieſt.

d By teraphim ſom underſtand certain idols having the likeneſs of a man, but others underſtand thereby all manner of things, and inſtruments belonging unto thoſe who ſought for any anſwer at Gods hands, as Chap. 18. 5, 6.
† Heb. filled the hand
* Chap. 18. 1. & 21. 25.

6 * In thoſe days there was no [e] king in Iſrael, but every man did that which was right in his own eyes.

e For where there is no Magiſtrate fearing God, there can be no true religion, nor order, chap. 21. 25.

7 ¶ And there was a young man out of Beth-lehem Judah, of the [i] family of Judah, who was a Levite, and he ſojourned there.

i which Beth lehem was in the tribe of Judah.

8 And the man departed out of the city from Beth-lehem Judah, to ſojourn where he could find a place: and he came to mount Ephraim to the houſe of Micah, † as he journeyed

216

9 And Micah said unto him, Whence comest thou? And he said unto him, I am a[g] Levite of Beth-lehem Judah, and I go to sojourn where I may find a place.

g For in these days, the service of God was corrupt in all estates, and the Levites were not looked unto.

10 And Micah said unto him, Dwell with me, and be unto me a father and a priest, and I will give thee ten shekels of silver by the year, and ‡ †a suit of apparel, and thy victuals. So the Levite went in.

‡ Or, a double suit, &c
† Heb an order of garments,

11 And the Levite was [h] content to dwell with the man, and the young man was unto him as one of his sons.

h Not considering that he forsook the true worshipping of God, for to maintain his own belly.

12 And Micah consecrated the Levite, and the young man became his priest, and was in the house of Micah.

13 Then said Micah, Now know I that the LORD will do me [i] good, seeing I have a Levite to my priest.

i Thus the idolaters perswade themselves of Gods favour, when indeed he doth detest them.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 The Danites send five men to seek out an inheritance. 3 At the house of Micah they consult with Jonathan, and are encouraged in their way. 7 They search Laish, & bring back news of good hope. 11 Six hundred men are sent to surprise it. 14 In the way they rob Micah of his priest and his consecrated things. 27 They win Laish, and call it Dan. 30 They set up idolatry, wherein Jonathan inherited the priesthood.

IN* those days there was no [a] king in Israel: and in those days the tribe of the Danites sought them an inheritance to dwell in: for unto that day all their inheritance had not fallen unto them among the tribes of Israel.

* Chap. 17. 6. & 21. 25.
a Meaning, no ordinary magistrate to punish vice according to Gods word.

2 And the children of Dan sent of their family, five men from their coasts, † men of valour, from Zorah, and from Eshtaol, to spie out the land, and to search it; and they said unto them, [b] Go, search the land: who when they came to mount Ephraim, to the house of Micah, they lodged there.

b For the portion which Joshua gave them, was not sufficient for all their tribe.

3 When they were by the house of Micah, they knew the [c] voice of the young man the Levite: and they turned in thither, and said unto him, Who brought thee hither? and what makest thou in this place? and what hast thou here?

c They knew him by his speech, that he was a stranger there.

4 And he said unto them, Thus and thus dealeth Micah with me, and hath hired me, and I am his priest.

5 And they said unto him, Ask counsel, we pray thee, of God, that we may know whether our way which we go shall be prosperous.

6 And the priest said unto them, [d] Go in peace: before the LORD is your way wherein ye go.

d Thus God granteth the idolaters sometime their request, to their destruction that delight in errours.

7 ¶ Then the five men departed, and came to Laish, and saw the people that were therein, how they dwelt careless, after the manner of the Zidonians, quiet and secure, and there was no † magistrate in the land, that might put them to shame in any thing: and they were far from the Zidonians, and had no business with any man.

† Heb. possessour. or heir of restraint

8 And they came unto their brethren to Zorah, and Eshtaol: and their brethren said unto them, What say ye?

9 And they said, Arise, that we may go up against them: for we have seen the land, and behold, it is very good: and are ye [e] still? be not slothfull to go, and to enter to possess the land.

e Loose ye this good occasion through your slothfulness?

10 When ye go, ye shall come unto a people secure, and to a large land: for God hath given it into your hand: a place where there is no want of any thing that is in the earth.

11 ¶ And there went from thence of the family of the Danites out of Zorah and out of Eshtaol, six hundred men, † appointed with weapons of war.

† Heb girded

12 And they went up, and pitched in Kirjath-jearim, in Judah: wherefore they called that place Mahaneh-dan, unto this day: behold, it is behind Kirjath-jearim.

13 And they passed thence unto mount Ephraim, and came unto the house of Micah.

14 ¶ Then answered the five men that went to spy out the countrey of Laish, and said unto their brethren, [f] Do ye know that there is in these houses an ephod, and teraphim, and a graven image, and a molten image? now therefore consider what ye have to do.

f Because they before had good success they would that their brethren should be encouraged by hearing the same tidings.

15 And they turned thitherward, and came to the house of the young man the Levite, even unto the house of Micah, and † saluted him.

† Heb. asked him of peace

16 And the six hundred men appointed with their weapons of war, which were of the children of Dan, stood by the entring of the gate.

17 And the five men that went to spy out the land, went up, and came in thither, and [g] took the graven image, and the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image: and the priest stood in the entring of the gate, with the six hundred men that were appointed with weapons of war.

g So superstition blinded them, that they thought Gods power was in these idols, and that they should have good success by them, though by violence and robbery they did take them away.

18 And these went into Micahs house, and fetched the carved image, the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image: then said the priest unto them, What do ye?

19 And they said unto him, Hold thy peace, lay thine hand upon thy mouth, and go with us, and be to us a father and a priest: is it better for thee to be a priest unto the house of one man, or that thou be a priest unto a tribe and a family in Israel?

20 And the priests heart was glad, and he took the ephod, and the teraphim, and the graven image, and went in the midst of the [h] people.

h with the six hundred men.

21 So they turned and departed, and put the little ones, and the cattel, and the carriage, [i] before them.

i Suspecting them that did pursue them.

22 ¶ And when they were a good way from the house of Micah, the men that were in the houses near to Micahs house, were gathered together, and overtook the children of Dan.

23 And they cried unto the children of Dan: and they turned their faces, and said unto Micah, What aileth thee, † that thou comest with such a company?

† Heb. that thou art gathered together?

24 And he said, Ye have taken away my [k] gods which I made, and the priest, and ye are gon away; and what have I more? and what is this that ye say unto me, What aileth thee?

k This declareth what opinion the idolaters have of their idols.

25 And the children of Dan said unto him, Let not thy voice be heard among us, least † angry fellows run upon thee, and thou loose thy life, with the lives of thy houshold.

26 And

26 And the children of Dan went their way: and when Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back unto his house.

27 And they took the [1] things which Micah had made, and the priest which he had, and came unto Laish, unto a people that were at quiet, & secure: and they smote them with the edge of the sword, and burnt the city with fire.

28 And there was no deliverer, [m] because it was far from Zidon, and they had no business with any man; and it was in the valley that lieth by Beth-rehob: and they built a city, and dwelt therein.

29 And they called the name of the * city Dan, after the name of Dan their father, who was born unto Israel: howbeit the name of the city was Laish at the first.

30 ¶ And the children of Dan set them up the [n] graven image: and Jonathan the son of Gershom, the son of Manasseh, he and his sons were priests to the tribe of Dan, until the day of the [o] captivity of the land.

31 And they set them up Micahs graven image, which he made, all the time that the house of God was in Siloh.

CHAP. XIX.

1 A Levite goeth to Beth-lehem to fetch home his wife. 16 An old man entertaineth him at Gibeah. 22 The Gibeathites abuse his concubine to death. 29 He divideth her into twelve pieces, to send them to the twelve tribes.

AND it came to pass in those days, * when there was no king in Israel, that there was a certain Levite sojourning on the side of mount Ephraim, who took to him † a concubine out of Beth-lehem-Judah.

2 And his concubine played the whore against him, and went away from him unto her fathers house to Beth-lehem-Judah, and was there ‡ † four whole moneths.

3 And her husband arose, and went after her to speak † friendly unto her, and to bring her again, having his servant with him, and a couple of asses: and she brought him into her fathers house, & when the father of the damsel saw him, he rejoyced to meet him.

4 And his father in law, the damsels father, retained him, and he abode with him three days: so they did eat and drink, and lodged there.

5 And it came to pass on the fourth day, when they arose early in the morning, that he rose up to depart: and the damsels father said unto his son in law, † Comfort thine heart with a morsel of bread, and afterward go your way.

6 And they sat down and did eat and drink both of them together: for the damsels [a] father had said unto the man, Be content, I pray thee, and tarry all night, and let thine heart be merry.

7 And when the man rose up to depart, his father in law urged him: therefore he lodged there again.

8 And he arose early in the morning on the fifth day to depart: and the damsels father said, † Comfort thine heart, I pray thee. And they tarried † until after noon, and they did eat both of them.

9 And when the man rose up to depart, he and his concubine, and his servant; his father in law, the damsels father, said unto him, Behold now the day † draweth towards evening, I pray you, tarry all night: behold, † the day groweth to an end, lodge here, that thine heart may be merry; and to morrow get ye early on your way, that thou mayest go † [c] home.

10 But the man would not tarry that night, but he rose up and departed, and came † over against Jebus, (which is Jerusalem) and there were with him two asses saddled, his concubine also was with him.

11 And when they were by Jebus, the day was far spent, and the servant said unto his master, Come, I pray thee, and let us turn in unto this city of the Jebusites, and lodge in it.

12 And his master said unto him, We will not turn aside hither into the city of a [d] stranger, that is not of the children of Israel, we will pass over to Gibeah.

13 And he said unto his servant, Come, and let us draw near to one of these places to lodge all night, in Gibeah, or in Ramah.

14 And they passed on and went their way, and the sun went down upon them when they were by Gibeah, which belongeth to Benjamin.

15 And they turned aside thither, to go in and to lodge in Gibeah: and when he went in, he sat him down in a street of the city: for there was no man that took them into his house to lodging.

16 ¶ And behold, there came an old man from his work out of the field at even, which was also of mount Ephraim; and he sojourned in Gibeah, but the men of the place were [e] Benjamites.

17 And when he had lift up his eyes, he saw a way-faring man in the street of the city: and the old man said, Whither goest thou? and whence comest thou?

18 And he said unto him, We are passing from Beth-lehem Judah, toward the side of mount Ephraim, from thence am I: and I went to Beth-lehem-Judah, but I am now going to the [f] house of the LORD, and there is no man that † receiveth me to house.

19 Yet there is both straw and provender for our asses, and there is bread and wine also for me and for thy handmaid, and for the young man which is with thy servants: there is no want of any thing.

20 And the old man said, Peace be with thee; howsoever, let all thy wants lie upon me; onely lodge not in the street.

21 So he brought him into his house, and gave provender unto the asses: and they washed their feet, and did eat and drink.

22 ¶ Now as they were making their hearts merry, behold, the men of the city, certain sons of Belial, beset the house round about,

25 But the men would not hearken to him: ſo the man took his concubine, & brought her forth unto them; and they knew her, and abuſed her all the night until the morning: and when the day began to ſpring they let her go.

26 Then came the woman in the dawning of the day, and [i] fell down at the door of the mans houſe, where her lord was, till it was light.

27 And her lord roſe up in the morning, and opened the doors of the houſe, and went out to go his way: and behold, the woman his concubine was fallen down at the door of the houſe, and her hands were upon the threſhold.

28 And he ſaid unto her, Up, and let us be going: but none anſwered. Then the man took her up upon an aſs, and the man roſe up, and gat him unto his [k] place.

29 ¶ And when he was come into his houſe, he took a knife, and laid hold on his concubine, and divided her, together with her bones, into twelve pieces, and ſent her into all the coaſts of Iſrael.

30 And it was ſo, that all that ſaw it, ſaid. There was no ſuch deed [l] done nor ſeen, from the day that the children of Iſrael came up out of the land of Egypt, unto this day: conſider of it, take advice, and ſpeak your minds.

4 And † the Levite the husband of the woman that was ſlain, anſwered and ſaid, I came into Gibeah that belongeth to Benjamin, I and my concubine, to lodge.

5 And the men of Gibeah aroſe againſt me, and beſet the houſe round about upon me by night, and thought to have ſlain me: and my concubine have they ‡ forced, that ſhe is dead.

6 And I took my concubine, and cut her in pieces, and ſent [e] her throughout all the countrey of the inheritance of Iſrael: for they have committed lewdneſs and folly in Iſrael.

[e] That is, but pieces, to every tribe a piece, Chap. 19. 29.

7 Behold, ye are all children of Iſrael, give here your advice and counſel.

8 ¶ And all the people aroſe as one man, ſaying, We will not any of us go to his tent, neither will we any of us turn into his [f] houſe.

[f] Before we have revenged this wickedneſs.

9 But now, this ſhall be the thing which we will do to Gibeath, we will go up by lot againſt it:

10 And we will take ten men of an hundred throughout all the tribes of Iſrael, and an hundred of a thouſand, and a thouſand out of ten thouſand, to fetch [g] victual for the people, that they may do, when they come to Gibeah of Benjamin, according to all the folly that they have wrought in Iſrael.

[g] Theſe only ſhould have the charge to provide for victual for the reſt.

11 So all the men of Iſrael were gathered againſt the city, † knit together as one man.

† Heb. felows

12 ¶ And the tribes of Iſrael ſent men through all the [h] tribe of Benjamin, ſaying, What wickedneſs is this that is done among you?

[h] That is, every family of the tribe.

13 Now therefore deliver us the men, the children of Belial, which are in Gibeath, that we may put them to death, and put away evil from Iſrael. But the [i] children of Benjamin would not hearken to the voice of their brethren the children of Iſrael:

[i] Becauſe they would not ſuffer the wicked to be punished, they declared themſelvs to maintain them in their evil, and therefore were all juſtly punished.

14 But the children of Benjamin gathered themſelvs together out of the cities, unto Gibeah, to go out to battel againſt the children of Iſrael.

15 And the children of Benjamin were numbred at that time out of the cities, twenty and ſix thouſand men that drew ſword, beſide the inhabitants of Gibeah, which were numbred ſeven hundred choſen men.

16 Among all this people there were ſeven hundred choſen men * left-handed, every one could ſling ſtones at an hair-breadth, and not miſs.

* Chap. 3. 15.

17 And the men of Iſrael, beſide Benjamin, were numbred four hundred thouſand men that drew ſword; all theſe were men of war.

18 ¶ And the children of Iſrael aroſe, and went up to the [k] houſe of God, and asked counſel of God, and ſaid, Which of us ſhall go up firſt to the battel againſt the children of Benjamin? And the LORD ſaid, Judah ſhall go up firſt.

[k] That is, with the ark, which was at Shiloh: ſome think in Mizpeh, as verſ. 1.

19 And the children of Iſrael roſe up in the morning, and encamped againſt Gibeah.

20 And the men of Iſrael went out to battel againſt Benjamin, and the men of Iſrael put themſelvs in aray to fight againſt them at Gibeah.

21 And the children of Benjamin came forth out of Gibeah, and deſtroyed down to the ground of the Iſraelites that day, [l] twenty and two thouſand men.

[l] This God permitted becauſe the Iſraelites partly truſted too much in their ſtrength, and partly God would by this means punish their ſins.

22 And the people the men of Iſrael encouraged couraged themſelvs, and ſet their battel again in aray in the place were they put themſelvs in aray the firſt day.

23 (And the children of Iſrael went up and wept before the LORD until even, and asked counſel of the LORD, ſaying, Shall I go up again to battel again the children of Benjamin my brother? And the LORD ſaid, Go up againſt him.)

24 And the children of Iſrael came near againſt the children of Benjamin the ſecond day.

25 And Benjamin went forth againſt them out of Gibeah the ſecond day, and deſtroyed down to the ground of the children of Iſrael again, eighteen thouſand men; all theſe drew the ſword.

26 ¶ Then all the children of Iſrael, and all the people went up, and came unto the houſe of God, and wept, and ſat there before the LORD, and faſted that day until even, and offered burnt-offerings, and peace-offerings before the LORD.

27 And the children of Iſrael enquired of the LORD, (for [m] the ark of the covenant of God was there in thoſe days, m To wit, in Shiloh

28 And Phinehas the ſon of Eleazar the ſon of Aaron, [n] ſtood before it in thoſe days) ſaying, Shall I yet again go out to battel againſt the children of Benjamin my brother, or ſhall I ceaſe? And the LORD ſaid, Go up; for to morrow I will deliver them into thine hand.

n Or, ſerved in the prieſts office at thoſe days, for the Jews write, that he lived three hundred years.

29 And Iſrael ſet liers in wait round about Gibeah.

30 And the children of Iſrael went up againſt the children of Benjamin on the third day, and put themſelvs in aray againſt Gibeah, as at other times.

31 And the children of Benjamin went out againſt the people, and were [o] drawn away from the city, and they began † to ſmite of the people, and kill as at other times, in the high-ways, of which one goeth up to ‡ the houſe of God, and the other to Gibeah in the field, about thirty men of Iſrael.

o By the policie of the children of Iſrael.
† Heb. to ſmote of the people wounded as at, &c.
‡ Or, Beth-el,

32 And the children of Benjamin ſaid, They are ſmitten down before us as at the firſt: but the children of Iſrael ſaid, Let us flee, and draw them from the city, unto the [p] high-ways.

p Meaning croſs-ways or paths to divers places.

33 And all the men of Iſrael roſe up out of their place, and put themſelvs in aray at Baal-tamar: and the liers in wait of Iſrael came forth out of their places, even out of the medows of Gibeah.

34 And there came againſt Gibeah ten thouſand choſen men out of all Iſrael, and the battel was ſore; but they [q] knew not that evil was near them.

q They knew not that Gods judgement was at hand to deſtroy them.

35 And the LORD ſmote Benjamin before Iſrael: and the children of Iſrael deſtroyed of the Benjamites that day twenty and five thouſand and an hundred men; all theſe drew the ſword.

36 So the children of Benjamin ſaw that they were ſmitten: for the men of Iſrael [r] gave place to the Benjamites, becauſe they truſted unto the liers in wait which they had ſet beſide Gibeah.

r Retired to draw them after.

37 And the liers in wait haſted, and ruſhed upon Gibeah, and the liers in wait ‡ drew themſelvs along, and ſmote all the city with the edge of the ſword.

‡ Or, made a long ſound with the trumpets, u For they were compaſſed in on every ſide.

CHAP. XXI.

1 The people bewail the deſolation of Benjamin. 8 By the deſtruction of Jabeſh-gilead, they provide them four hundred wives. 16 They adviſe them to ſurpriſe the virgins that danced at Shiloh.

NOw the men of Iſrael had [a] ſworn in Mizpeh, ſaying, There ſhall not any of us give his daughter unto Benjamin to wife.

a This oath came of raſhneſs, and not of judgement: for after they brake it, in ſhewing ſecretly the means to marry with certain of their daughters.

2 And the people came to the houſe of God, and abode there till even, before God, and lift up their voices, and wept ſore:

3 And ſaid, O LORD God of Iſrael, why is this come to paſs in Iſrael, that there ſhould be to day one tribe lacking in Iſrael?

4 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the people rose early, and built there an [b] altar, and offered burnt-offerings, and peace-offerings.

b According to their custome, when they would consult with the Lord.

5 And the children of Israel said, Who is there among all the tribes of Israel, that came not up with the congregation unto the LORD? for they had made a great oath concerning him that came not up to the LORD to Mizpeh, saying, He shall surely be put to death.

6 And the children of Israel [c] repented them for Benjamin their brother, and said, There is one tribe cut off from Israel this day:

c Or, repented that they had destroyed their brethren, as appeareth, verse 15.

7 How shall we do for wives for them that remain, seeing we have sworn by the LORD, that we will not give them of our daughters to wives?

8 ¶ And they said, What one is there of the tribes of Israel, that [d] came not up to Mizpeh to the LORD? and behold, there came none to the camp from Jabesh-gilead to the assembly.

d Condemning them to be fautors of vice, which would not put hand to punish it.

9 For the people were numbred, and behold, there were none of the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead there.

10 And the congregation sent thither twelve thousand men of the valiantest, and commanded them, saying, Go and smite the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead with the edge of the sword, with the women and the children.

11 And this is the thing that ye shall do, * Ye shall utterly destroy every male, and every woman that † hath lien by man.

* Num. 31.17.

† Heb. knoweth the lying with man.

12 And they found among the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead, four hundred † young virgins that had known no man by lying with any male: and they brought them unto the camp to Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan.

† Heb. young women virgins

13 And the whole congregation [e] sent some † to speak to the children of Benjamin that were in the rock Rimmon, and to ‡ call peaceably unto them.

e To wit, about four moneths after the discomfiture, Chap. 20. 47.
† Heb. and spake, and called
‡ Or, proclaim peace

14 And Benjamin came again at that time; and they gave them wives which they had saved alive of the women of Jabesh-gilead: yet so they [f] sufficed them not.

f For there lacked two hundred.

15 And the people repented them for Benjamin, because that the LORD had made a breach in the tribes of Israel.

16 ¶ Then the elders of the congregation said, How shall we do for wives for them that remain, seeing the women are destroyed out of Benjamin?

17 And they said, There must be an [g] inheritance for them that be escaped of Benjamin, that a tribe be not destroyed out of Israel.

g Benjamin must be reserved to have the twelfth portion in the inheritance of Jacob.

18 Howbeit, we may not give them wives of our daughters: For the children of Israel have sworn, saying, Cursed be he that giveth a wife to Benjamin.

19 Then they said, Behold, there is a feast of the LORD in Shiloh † yearly in a place which is on the [h] north-side of Beth-el, ‡ on the east-side of the high-way that goeth up from Beth-el to Shechem, and on the south of Lebonah.

h He describeth the place where the maids used yearly to dance, & the manner then was, and to sing psalms and songs of Gods works among them ‡ Or, Towards the sun-rising

20 Therefore they commanded the children of Benjamin, saying, Go and ly in wait in the vineyards:

21 And see, and behold, if the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in dances, then come ye out of the vineyards, and catch you every man his wife of the daughters of Shiloh, and go to the land of Benjamin.

‡ Or, on

22 And it shall be, when [i] their fathers or their brethren come unto us to complain, that we will say unto them, ‡ Be favourable unto them, for our sakes: because we reserved not to each man his wife in the war: for ye did not give unto them at this time, that ye should be guilty.

i Though they thought hereby to perswade men that they kept their oath, yet before God it was broken.
‡ Or, gratify them.

23 And the children of Benjamin did so, and took them wives according to their [k] number, of them that danced, whom they caught: and they went and returned unto their inheritance, and repaired the cities, and dwelt in them.

k Meaning, in number.

24 And the children of Israel departed thence at that time, every man to his tribe, and to his family, and they went out from thence every man to his inheritance.

25 * In those days there was no king in Israel: every man did that which was right in his own eyes.

THE BOOK OF RUTH.

THE ARGUMENT.

THis book is intituled after the name of Ruth: which is the principal person spoken of in this treatise. Wherein also figuratively is set forth the state of the church which is subject to manifold afflictions, and yet at length God giveth a good and joyfull issue: teaching us to abide with patience till God deliver us out of trouble. Herein also is described how Jesus Christ, who according to the flesh ought to come of David, proceeded of Ruth, of whom the Lord Jesus did vouchsafe to come, notwithstanding shee was a Moabitess of mean condition, and a stranger from the people of God: declaring unto us thereby that the Gentiles should be sanctified by him, and joyned with his people, and that there should be but one sheepfold, and one Shepherd. And it seemeth that this history appertaineth to the time of the Judges.

CHAP.

CHAP. I.

1 Elimelech, driven by famin into Moab, dieth there. 4 Mahlon and Chilion, having married wives of Moab, die also. 6 Naomi returning homeward, 8 Dissuadeth her two daughters in law from going with her. 14 Orpah leaveth her, but Ruth with great constancy accompanieth her. 19 They two come to Beth-lehem, where they are gladly received.

a In the land of Canaan.

b In the tribe of Judah, which was also called Bethlehem Ephrathah, because there was another city so called in the tribe of Zebulun.

NOw it came to pass in the days when the judges † ruled, that there was a famin in the [a] land: and a certain man of Bethlehem-judah [b] went to sojourn in the countrey of Moab, he and his wife, and his two sons.

2 And the name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wife Naomi, and the name of his two sons Mahlon and Chilion, Ephrathites of Beth-lehem-Judah; and they came into the countrey of Moab, and † continued there.

3 And Elimelech Naomi's husband died, and she was left, and her two sons:

4 And they took them wives of the women of [c] Moab: the name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the other Ruth: and they dwelled there about ten years.

c By this wonderfull providence of God, Ruth became one of Gods houshold, of whom Christ came.

5 And Mahlon and Chilion died also both of them: and the woman was left of her two sons, and her husband.

6 ¶ Then she arose with her daughters in law, that she might return from the countrey of Moab: for she had heard in the countrey of Moab, how that the LORD had [d] visited his people, in giving them bread.

d By sending them plenty again.

7 Wherefore she went forth out of the place where she was, and her two daughters in law with her: and they went on the way to return unto the land of Judah.

8 And Naomi said unto her two daughters in law, Go, return each to her mothers house: the LORD deal kindly with you, as ye have dealt with the dead, and with me.

9 The LORD grant you that ye may find [e] rest, each of you in the house of her husband. Then she kissed them: and they lift up their voice and wept.

e Hereby it appeareth that Naomi by dwelling among idolaters, was waxen cold in the true zeal of God, which rather hath respect to the ease of the body, then to the comfort of the soul.

10 And they said unto her, Surely we will return with thee unto thy people.

11 And Naomi said, Turn again, my daughters: why will ye go with me? are there yet any mo sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands?

12 Turn again, my daughters, go your way, for I am too old to have an husband: If I should say, I have hope, ‡ if I should have a husband also to night, and should also bear sons:

‡ Or, if I were with an husband

† Heb. hope

13 Would ye † tarry for them till they were grown? would ye stay for them from having husbands? nay, my daughters: for † it grieveth me much for your sakes, that the hand of the LORD is gone out against me.

† Heb. I have much bitterness

14 And they lift up their voice, and wept again: and Orpah [f] kissed her mother in law, but Ruth clave unto her.

f when she took leave and departed.

15 And she said, Behold, thy sister in law is gon back unto her people, and unto her gods: return thou after thy sister in law.

16 And Ruth said, ‡ Intreat me not to leave thee, or to return from following after thee: for whither thou goest, [g] I will go; and where thou lodgest, I will lodge: thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God:

g No perswasions can prevail to turn them back from God, whom he had chosen to be his.

17 Where thou diest, will I die, and there will I be buried: the LORD do so to me, and more also, if ought but death part thee and me.

18 When she saw that she † was stedfastly minded to go with her, then she left speaking unto her.

19 ¶ So they two went until they came to Beth-lehem: And it came to pass when they were come to Beth-lehem, that all the city [h] was moved about them, and they said, Is this Naomi?

h whereby appeareth that she was of a great family, and of good reputation.

20 And she said unto them, Call me not * Naomi, call me † Mara: for the Almighty hath dealt very bitterly with me.

* That is, pleasant,

† That is, bitter.

21 I went out full, and the LORD hath brought me home again empty: why then call ye me Naomi, seeing the LORD hath testified against me, & the Almighty hath afflicted me?

22 So Naomi returned and Ruth the Moabitess her daughter in law with her, which returned out of the countrey of Moab: and they came to Beth-lehem in the beginning of [i] barley-harvest.

i which was in the moneth Nisan, that containeth part of March and part of April.

CHAP. II.

1 Ruth gleaneth in the fields of Boaz. 4 Boaz taking knowledge of her, 8 sheweth her great favour. 18 That which she got, she carrieth to Naomi.

AND Naomi had a kinsman of her husbands, a mighty man of [a] wealth, of the family of Elimelech; and his name was Boaz.

a Here goodness and greatness was in one man.

2 And Ruth the Moabitess said unto Naomi, [b] Let me now go to the field, and glean ears of corn after him, in whose sight I shall find grace. And she said unto her, Go, my daughter.

b This her humility declareth her great affection toward her mother in law, forasmuch as she spareth no painfull diligence to get both their livings.

3 And she went, and came, and gleaned in the field after the reapers: and her † hap was to light on a part of the field belonging unto * Boaz, who was of the kindred of Elimelech.

† Heb. hap happed

* Called Mat. 1. 5. Booz.

4 ¶ And behold, Boaz came from Bethlehem, and said unto the reapers, The LORD be with you: and they answered him, The LORD bless thee.

5 Then said Boaz unto his servant that was set over the reapers, Whose damsel is this?

6 And the servant that was set over the reapers, answered and said, It is the Moabitish damsel that came back with Naomi out of the countrey of Moab:

7 And she said, I pray you, let me glean, and gather after the reapers amongst the sheavs: so she came, and hath continued even from the morning until now, that she tarried a little in the house.

8 Then said Boaz unto Ruth, Hearest thou not, my daughter? Go not to glean in another field, neither go from hence, but abide here faſt by my maidens.

9 [c] Let thine eyes be on the field that they do reap, and go thou after them: have I not charged the young men, that they ſhall not touch thee? and when thou art athirſt, go unto the veſſels, and drink of that which the young men have drawn.

c That is, take heed in what field they do reap.

10 Then ſhe fell on her face, and bowed her ſelf to the ground, and ſaid unto him, Why have I found grace in thine eyes, that thou ſhouldeſt take knowledge of me, ſeeing I am a [d] ſtranger?

d Even of the Moabites, which are enemies to Gods people.

11 And Boaz anſwered and ſaid unto her, It hath fully been ſhewed me, all that thou haſt done unto thy mother in law ſince the death of thine husband: and how thou haſt left thy father and thy mother, and the land of thy nativity, and art come unto a people which thou kneweſt not heretofore.

12 The LORD recompenſe thy work, and a full reward be given thee of the LORD God of Iſrael, under whoſe [e] wings thou art come to truſt.

e Signifying, that ſhe ſhall never want any thing, if ſhe put her truſt in God, and live under his protection.

13 Then ſhe ſaid ‡ Let me find favour in thy ſight, my lord, for that thou haſt comforted me, and for that thou haſt ſpoken † friendly unto thine hand-maid, though I be not like unto one of thine hand-maidens.

‡ Or, I find favour

† Heb. to the heart.

14 And Boaz ſaid unto her, At meal-time come thou hither, and eat of the bread, and dip thy morſel in the vineger. And ſhe ſat beſide the reapers: and he reached her parched corn, and ſhe did eat and was ſufficed, and [f] left.

f which ſhe brought home to her mother in law.

15 And when ſhe was riſen up to glean, Boaz commanded his young men, ſaying, Let her glean even among the ſheavs, and † reproach her not.

† Heb ſhame her not.

16 And let fall alſo ſome of the hand-fuls of purpoſe for her, and leave them that ſhe may glean them, and rebuke her not.

17 So ſhe gleaned in the field until even, and beat out that ſhe had gleaned: and it was about an ephah of barley.

g To wit, of her bag, as is in the Chalde text.

18 ¶ And [g] ſhe took it up, and went into the city: and her mother in law ſaw what ſhe had gleaned: and ſhe brought forth, and gave to her that ſhe had reſerved, after ſhe was ſufficed.

19 And her mother in law ſaid unto her, Where haſt thou gleaned to day? and where wroughteſt thou? bleſſed be he that did take knowledge of thee. And ſhe ſhewed her mother in law with whom ſhe had wrought, and ſaid, The mans name with whom I wrought to day, is Boaz.

20 And Naomi ſaid unto her daughter in law, Bleſſed be he of the LORD, who hath not left off his kindneſs to the living and to the [h] dead. And Naomi ſaid unto her, The man is near of kin unto us, ‡ one of our next kinſmen.

h To my husband and children, when they were alive, and now to us.

‡ Or, one that hath right to redeem.

21 And Ruth the Moabiteſs ſaid, He ſaid unto me alſo, Thou ſhalt keep faſt by my young men, until they have ended all my harveſt.

22 And Naomi ſaid unto Ruth her daughter in law, It is good, my daughter, that thou go out with his maidens, that they ‡ meet thee not in any other field.

‡ Or, fall upon thee

23 So ſhe kept faſt by the maidens of Boaz to glean, unto the end of barley-harveſt, and of wheat-harveſt; and dwelt with her mother in law.

CHAP. III.

1 By Naomi her inſtruction, 5 Ruth lieth at Boaz his feet. 8 Boaz acknowledgeth the right of a kinſman. 14 He ſendeth her away with ſix meaſures of barley.

THen Naomi her mother in law ſaid unto her, My daughter, ſhall I not ſeek [a] reſt for thee, that it may be well with thee?

a Meaning, that ſhe would provide her of an husband, with whom ſhe might live quietly.

2 And now is not Boaz of our kindred, with whoſe maidens thou waſt? behold, he winnoweth barley to night in the threſhing-floor.

3 Waſh thy ſelf therefore, and anoint thee, and put thy raiment upon thee, and get thee down to the floor: but make not thy ſelf known unto the [b] man, until he ſhall have don eating and drinking.

b Boaz, not yet any other.

4 And it ſhall be when he lieth down, that thou ſhalt mark the place where he ſhall lie, and thou ſhalt go in, and ‡ uncover his feet, and lay thee down; and he will tell thee what thou ſhalt do.

‡ Or, lift up the clothes that are on his feet,

5 And ſhe ſaid unto her, All that thou ſayeſt unto me, I will do.

6 ¶ And ſhe went down unto the floor, and did according to all that her mother in law bad her.

7 And when Boaz had eaten and drunk, and his heart was [c] merry, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of corn: and ſhe came ſoftly, and uncovered his feet, and laid her down.

c That is, had refreſhed himſelf among his ſervants.

8 ¶ And it came to paſs at midnight, that the man was afraid, and ‡ turned himſelf: and behold, a woman lay at his feet.

‡ Or, took holdon.

9 And he ſaid, Who art thou? And ſhe anſwered, I am Ruth thine hand-maid; ſpread therefore thy skirt over thine hand-maid, for thou art ‡ a near kinſman.

‡ Or, one that hath right to redeem.

10 And he ſaid, Bleſſed be thou of the LORD my daughter; for thou haſt ſhewed [d] more kindneſs in the latter end, than at the beginning, inaſmuch as thou followedſt not young men, whether poor or rich.

d Thou ſheweſt thy ſelf from time to time more vertuous.

11 And now my daughter, fear not, I will do to thee all that thou requireſt: for all the † city of my people doth know, that thou art a vertuous woman.

† Heb. gate

12 And now it is true, that I am thy near kinſman: howbeit there is a kinſman nearer than I.

13 Tarry this night, and it ſhall be in the morning, that if he will [e] perform unto thee the part of a kinſman, well, let him do the kinſmans part; but if he will not do the part of a kinſman to thee, then will I do the part of a kinſman to thee, as the LORD liveth: lie down until the morning.

e If he will take thee to be his wife by the title of affinity, according to Gods law. Deut. 25. 5.

14 ¶ And ſhe lay at his feet until the morning: and ſhe roſe up before one could know another another. And he said, Let it not be known that a woman came into the floor.

‡ Or, sheet, or, apron.

15 Also he said, Bring the ‡ vail that thou hast upon thee, and hold it. And when she held it, he measured six measures of barley, and laid it on her: and she went into the city.

16 And when she came to her mother in law, she said, [f] Who art thou, my daughter? and she told her all that the man had don unto her.

[f] Perceiving by her coming home, that he had not taken her to his wife, she was astonied, 17 And she said, These six measures of barley gave he me; for he said to me, Go not empty unto thy mother in law.

18 Then said she, Sit still, my daughter, untill thou know how the matter will fall: for the man will not be in rest, untill he have finished the thing this day.

Chap. IV.

1 Boaz calleth into judgement the next kinsman. 6 He refuseth the redemption according to the manner in Israel. 9 Boaz buyeth the inheritance. 10 He marrieth Ruth. 13 She beareth Obed the grandfather of David 18 The generation of Pharez,

THen went Boaz up to the [a] gate, and sat him down there: and behold, the kinsman of whom Boaz spake, came by; unto whom he said, [b] Ho, such a one, turn aside, sit down here. And he turned aside, & sat down.

[a] which was the place of judgement.

[b] The Hebrews here use two words which have no proper signification, but serve to note a certain person: as we say, ho, sirrah, or ho, such an one.

2 And he took ten men of the elders of the city, and said, Sit ye down here. And they sat down.

3 And he said unto the kinsman, Noami that is come again out of the countrey of Moab selleth a parcel of land, which was our brother Elimelechs.

† Heb. I said, I will reveal in thine ear,

4 And † I thought to advertise thee, saying, Buy it before the inhabitans, and before the elders of my people. If thou wilt redeem it, redeem it; but if thou wilt not redeem it, then tell me, that I may know: for there is [c] none to redeem it besides thee, and I am after thee. And he said, I will redeem it.

[c] For thou art the next of the kin.

5 Then said Boaz, What day thou buyest the field of the hand of Naomi, thou must buy it also of Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of the dead, to raise up the name of the dead upon his [d] inheritance.

[d] That his inheritance might bear his name that is dead.

6 ¶ And the kinsman said, I cannot redeem it for my self, least I mar mine own inheritance: redeem thou my right to thy self, for I cannot redeem it.

[e] Deut. 25. 7, 9.

7 * Now this was the manner in former time in Israel, concerning redeeming, and concerning changing, for to confirm all things: a man plucked off his shoe, and gave it to his neighbour: and this was [e] a testimony in Israel.

[e] That he had resigned his right, * Deut. 25. 9.

8 Therefore the kinsman said unto Boaz, Buy it for thee; so he drew off his shoe.

9 ¶ And Boaz said unto the elders, and unto all the people, Ye are witnesses this day, that I have bought all that was Elimelechs, and all that was Chilions, and Mahlons, of the hand of Naomi.

10 Moreover, Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon, have I purchased to be my wife, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance, that the name of the dead be not cut off from among his brethren, and from the gate of his [f] place: ye are witnesses this day.

[f] Or, of the city where he remained.

11 And all the people that were in the gate, & the elders said, We are witnesses: The LORD make the woman that is come into thine house, like Rachel and like Leah, which two did build the house of Israel: and ‡ do thou worthily in [g] Ephratah, and † be famous in Beth-lehem.

‡ Or, get thee riches, or power

[g] Ephratah and Bethlehem are both one.

† Heb. proclaim thy name

12 And let thy house be like the house of Pharez, (* whom Tamar bare unto Judah) of the seed which the LORD shall give thee of this young woman.

* Gen. 38. 29. 1 Chron. 2. 4. 1 Mat. 1. 3.

13 ¶ So Boaz took Ruth, and she was his wife: and when he went in unto her, the LORD gave her conception, and she bare a son.

14 And the women said unto Naomi, Blessed be the LORD which hath not † left thee this day without a ‡ kinsman, that his [h] name may be famous in Israel.

† Heb. caused to cease unto thee

‡ Or, redeemer,

[h] He shall leave a continual posterity.

15 And he shall be unto thee a restorer of thy life, and † a nourisher of † thine old age: for thy daughter in law which loveth thee, which is better to thee than [i] seven sons, hath born him.

† Heb. thy gray hairs.

[i] Meaning, many sons.

16 And Naomi took the child, and laid it in her bosom, and became nurse unto it.

17 And the women her neighbours gave it a name, saying, there is a son born to Naomi, and they called his name Obed: he is the father of Jesse, the father of David.

18 ¶ Now these are the generations of [k] Pharez: * Pharez begat Hezron, [k] This genealogy is brought in, to prove that David by succession came of the house of Judah.

19 And Hezron begat Ram, and Ram begat Amminadab,

20 And Amminadab begat Nahshon, and Nahshon begat † Salmon,

* 1 Chron. 2. 4. Matt. 1. 3.

† Or, Salmah,

21 And Salmon begat Boaz, and Boaz begat Obed, 22 And Obed begat Jesse, and Jesse begat David.

THE FIRST BOOK OF SAMUEL, otherwiſe called,

The firſt book of the KINGS.

THE ARGUMENT.

ACcording as God hath ordained, Deut. 17. 14. that when the Iſraelites ſhould be in the land of Canaan, he would appoint them a king: ſo here in this firſt book of Samuel is declared the ſtate of this people under their firſt king Saul, who not content with that order which God had for a time appointed for the government of his church, demanded a king, to the intent they might be as other nations, and in a greater aſſurance as they thought: not becauſe they might the better thereby ſerve God, as being under the ſafegard of him, which did repreſent Jeſus Chriſt the true deliverer: therefore he gave them a tyrant and an hypocrite to rule over them, that they might learn, that the perſon of a king is not ſufficient to defend them, except God by his power preſerve and keep them. And therefore he puniſheth the ingratitude of his people, and ſendeth them continuall wars both at home and abroad. And becauſe Saul, whom of nothing God had preferred to the honour of a king, did not acknowledge Gods mercy toward him, but rather diſobeyed the word of God and was not zealous of his glory, he was by the voice of God put down from his eſtate, and David the true figure of Meſſia placed in his ſtead, whoſe patience, modeſty, conſtancy, perſecution by open enemies fained friends, and diſſembling flatterers, are left to the church and to every member of the ſame, as u patern and example to behold their ſtate and vocation.

CHAP. I.

1 Elkanah a Levite, having two wives, worſhippeth yearly at Shiloh. 4 He cheriſheth Hannah, though barren, and provoked by Peninnah. 9 Hannah in grief prayeth for a child. 12 Eli firſt rebuking her, afterwards bleſſeth her, 19 Hannah having born Samuel, ſtayeth at home till he be weaned. 24 She preſenteth him, according to her vow, to the LORD.

NOw there was a certain man of [a] Ramathaim-zophim, of mount Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah, the ſon of Jeroham, the ſon of Elihu, the ſon of Tohu, the ſon of Zuph, an Ephrathite:

a There were two Ramaths, ſo that in this city in mount Ephraim were Zophim that is, the learned men and prophets.

2 And he had two wives, the name of the one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah: and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children.

3 And this man went up out of his city * † yearly to worſhip and to ſacrifice unto the LORD of hoſts in [b] Shiloh; and the two ſons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, the prieſts of the LORD, were there.

* Deut. 16. 1-6.
† Heb. from year to year.
b For the ark was there at that time.

4 ¶ And when the time was that Elkanah offered, he gave to Peninnah his wife, and to all her ſons and her daughters portions.

5 But unto Hannah he gave [c] ‡ a worthy portion: for he loved Hannah, but the LORD had ſhut up her womb;

c Some read, a portion with an heavy cheer.
‡ Or, a double portion:
† Heb. angred her

6 And her adverſary alſo † provoked her ſore, for to make her fret, becauſe the LORD had ſhut up her womb.

7 And as he did ſo year by year, ‡† when ſhe went up to the houſe of the LORD, ſo ſhe provoked her; therefore ſhe wept, and did not eat,

‡ Or, from the time that ſhe, &c.
† Heb. from her going up.

8 Then ſaid Elkanah her husband to her, Hannah, why weepeſt thou? and why eateſt thou not? and why is thy heart grieved? am not I better to thee than [d] ten ſons?

d Let this ſuffice thee that I love thee no leſs, than if thou hadſt many children.

9 ¶ So Hannah roſe up after they had eaten in Shiloh, and after they had drunk: (now Eli the prieſt ſat upon a ſeat by a poſt, of the [e] temple of the LORD) e That is, of the houſe where the ark was.

10 And ſhe was † in bitterneſs of ſoul, and prayed unto the LORD, and wept ſore.

† Heb. bitter of ſoul,

11 And ſhe vowed a vow, and ſaid, O LORD of hoſts, if thou wilt indeed look on the affliction of thine hand-maid, and remember me, and not forget thine hand-maid, but wilt give unto thine hand-maid † a man-child, then I will give him unto the LORD all the days of his life, and * there ſhall no raſour come upon his head.

† Heb. ſeed of men,
* Numb. 6. 5. Judg. 13. 5.

12 And it came to paſs as ſhe † continued praying before the LORD, that Eli marked her mouth.

† Heb. multiplied to pray.

13 Now Hannah, ſhe ſpake in her heart, onely her lips moved, but her voice was not heard: therefore Eli thought ſhe had been drunken.

14 And Eli ſaid unto her, How long wilt thou be drunken? put away thy wine from thee.

15 And Hannah anſwered, and ſaid, No, my lord, I am a woman † of a ſorrowfull ſpirit: I have drunk neither wine nor ſtrong drink, but have poured out my ſoul before the LORD.

† Heb. hard of ſpirit;

16 Count not thine hand-maid for a daughter of Belial: for out of the abundance of my ‡ complaint and grief have I ſpoken hitherto.

‡ Or, Meditation.

17 Then Eli anſwered, and ſaid, Go in peace: and the God of Iſrael grant thee thy petition that thou haſt asked of him.

18 And

18 And she said, Let thine handmaid find [f] grace in thy sight. So the woman went her way, and did eat, and her countenance was no more sad.

[f] That is, pray unto the Lord for me.

19 ¶ And they rose up in the morning early, and worshipped before the LORD, and returned, and came to their house to Ramah: and Elkanah knew Hannah his wife, and the LORD [g] remembred her.

[g] According to her petition
† Heb. revolution of days,

20 Wherefore it came to pass, † when the time was come about, after Hannah had conceived, that she bare a son, and called his name ‡ Samuel, saying, Because I have asked him of the LORD.

‡ That is, asked of God,

21 And the man [h] Elkanah, and all his house, went up to offer unto the LORD the yearly sacrifice, and his vow.

[h] This Elkanah was a Levite, 1 Chron. 6. 27. and as some write, Once a year they accustomed to appear before the Lord with their families.

22 But Hannah went not up; for she said unto her husband, I will not go up untill the child be weaned, and then I will bring him, that he may appear before the LORD, and there abide for ever.

23 And Elkanah her husband said unto her, Do what seemeth thee good, tarry untill thou have weaned him, onely the LORD establish [i] his word: so the woman abode, and gave her son suck untill she weaned him.

[i] Because her prayer took effect, therefore it was called the Lords promises.

24 ¶ And when she had weaned him, she took him up with her, with three bullocks, and one ephah of flour, and a bottle of wine, and brought him unto the house of the LORD in Shiloh: and the child was young.

25 And they slew a bullock, andbrought the child to Eli.

[k] That is, most certainly.

26 And she said, Oh my lord as [k] thy soul liveth, my lord, I am the woman that stood by thee here, praying unto the LORD.

27 For this child I prayed; and the LORD hath given me my petition which I asked of him:

‡ Or, returned him, whom I have obtained by petition to the LORD.

28 Therefore also I have ‡ lent him to the LORD as long as he liveth, ‡ he shall be lent to the LORD. And he [l] worshipped the LORD there.

‡ Or, be whom I have obtained by petition shall be returned.
[l] Meaning, Eli gave thanks to God for her.

CHAP. II.

1 Hannahs song in thankfulness. 12 The sin of Eli's sons. 18 Samuels ministery. 20 By Eli's blessing, Hannah is more fruitfull. 22 Eli reproveth his sons. 27 A propheſy against Eli's house.

[a] After that she had obtained a son by prayer, she gave thanks.
[b] I have recovered strength and glory by the benefit of the Lord.
[c] I can answer them, that reprove my barrenness.

AND Hannah [a] prayed, and said, My heart rejoyceth in the LORD: mine [b] horn is exalted in the LORD: my mouth is [c] inlarged over mine enemies: because I rejoyce in thy salvation.

2 There is none holy as the LORD: for there is none beside thee: neither is there any rock like our God.

[d] In that ye condemn my barrenness, ye shew your pride against God.
† Heb. hard

3 [d] Talk no more so exceeding proudly, let not † arrogancy come out of your mouth: for the LORD is a God of knowledge, and by him actions are weighed.

4 The bows of the mighty men are broken, and they that stumbled are girt with strength.

[e] They sell their labours for necessary food.

5 They that were full, have hired out themselvs for [e] bread, and they that were hungry, ceased: so that the barren hath born seven, and she that hath many children, is waxed feeble.

6 * The LORD killeth, and maketh alive: he bringeth down to the grave, and bringeth up.

* Deut. 32. 39. Job 13. 2. Wisd. 16. 13.

7 The LORD maketh poor, and maketh rich: he bringeth low, and lifteth up.

8 He * raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lifteth up the begger from the dunghill, to set them among [f] princes, and to make them inherit the throne of glory: for the pillars of the earth are the [g] LORDS, and he hath set the world upon them.

* Psal. 113. 7.
[f] He preferreth to honour, and putteth down according to his own will, though mans judgement be contrary.
[g] Therefore he may dispose all things according to his will.

9 He will keep the feet of his saints, and the wicked shall be silent in darkness; for by strength shall no man prevail.

10 The adversaries of the LORD shall be broken to pieces: * out of heaven shall he thunder upon them: the LORD shall judge the ends of the earth, and he shall give strength unto his [h] king, and exalt the horn of his anointed.

* Chap. 7. 10.
[h] She grounded her prayer on Jesus Christ which was to come.

11 And Elkanah went to Ramah to his house: and the child did minister unto the LORD before Eli [i] the priest.

[i] In all that Eli commanded him.

12 ¶ Now the sons of Eli were sons of Belial, they [k] knew not the LORD.

[k] That is, they neglected his ordinance.

13 And the priests custome with the people was, that when any man offered sacrifice, the priests servant came, while the flesh was in seething, with a flesh-hook of three teeth in his hand,

14 And he strook it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot; all that the [l] flesh-hook brought up, the priest took for himself: so they did in Shiloh, unto all the Israelites that came thither.

[l] Transgressing the order appointed in the law, Levit. 7. 31. for their bellies sake.

15 Also before they burnt the [m] fat, the priests servant came, and said to the man that sacrificed, Give flesh to roast for the priests; for he will not have sodden flesh of thee, but raw.

[m] which was commanded first to have been offered God.

16 And if any man said unto him, Let them not fail to burn the fat † presently, and then take as much as thy soul [n] desireth: then he would answer him, Nay, but thou shalt give it me now; and if not, I will take it by force.

† Heb. as on the day,
[n] Not passing for their own profit, so that God might be served aright.

17 Wherefore the sin of the young men was very great before the LORD: for men [o] abhorred the offering of the LORD.

[o] Seeing the horrible abuse thereof.

18 ¶ But Samuel ministred before the LORD, being a child, * girded with a linnen ephod.

* Exod. 28. 4.

19 Moreover, his mother made him a little coat, and brought it to him from year to year, when she came up with her husband, to offer the yearly sacrifice.

20 ¶ And Eli blessed Elkanah, and his wife, and said, The LORD give thee seed of this woman, for the ‡ loan which is lent to the LORD. And they went unto their own home.

‡ Or, petition which she asked, &c.

21 And the LORD visited Hannah, so that she conceived and bare three sons, and two daughters: and the child Samuel grew before the LORD.

22 ¶ Now Eli was very old, and heard all that 23 And he said unto them, Why do ye such things? for ‡ I hear of your evil dealings, by all this people.

24 Nay, my sons: for it is no good report that I hear; ye q make the LORDS people ‡ to transgress.

25 If one man sin against another, the judge shall judge him: but if a man sin against the LORD, who shall intreat for him? Notwithstanding they hearkened not unto the voice of their father, r because the LORD would slay them.

r So that to obey good admonitions, is Gods mercy, and to disobey them is his just judgement for sin.

29 Wherefore t kick ye at my sacrifice, and at mine offering which I have commanded in my habitation, and honourest thy sons above me, to make your selvs fat with the chiefest of all the offerings of Israel my people?

30 Wherefore the LORD God of Israel saith, I said indeed, that thy house, and the house of thy father should walk before me for ever: but now the LORD saith, u Be it far from me; for them that honour me, I will honour, and they that despise me, shall be lightly esteemed.

1 How the word of the Lord was first revealed to Samuel. 11 God telleth Samuel the destruction of Eli's house. 15 Samuel, though loth, telleth Eli the vision. 19 Samuel groweth in credit.

AND the child Samuel ministred unto the b Because there were very few prophets to declare it.

2 And it came to pass at that time, when Eli was laid down in his c place, and his eyes began to wax dim, that he could not see;

3 And ere the d lamp of God went out in the temple of the LORD, where the ark of God was, and Samuel was laid down to sleep:

4 That the LORD e called, Samuel, and he answered, Here am I.
e Josephus writeth that Samuel was twelve years old, when the Lord appeared to him.

5 And he ran unto Eli, and said, Here am I, for thou calledst me. And he said, I called not; lie down again. And he went and lay down.

6 And the LORD called yet again, Samuel. And Samuel arose and went to Eli, and said, Here am I, for thou didst call me. And he answered, I called not, my son; lie down again.

8 And the LORD called Samuel again the third time. And he arose, and went to Eli, and said, Here am I, for thou didst call me. And Eli g perceived that the LORD had called the child.
g Such was the corruption of those times, that the chief priest was become dull and negligent to understand the Lords appearing.

9 Therefore Eli said unto Samuel, Go, lie down, and it shall be, if he call thee, that thou shalt say, Speak LORD, for thy servant heareth. So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

10 And the LORD came, and stood, and called as at other times, Samuel, Samuel. Then Samuel answered, Speak, for thy servant heareth.

† Heb. beginning and ending.

15 ¶ And Samuel lay untill the morning, and opened the doors of the house of the LORD: and Samuel feared to shew Eli the vision.

16 Then Eli called Samuel, and said, Samuel my son. And he answered, Here am I.

17 And he said, What is the thing that the LORD hath said unto thee? I pray thee hide it not from me: k God do so to thee, and † more also, if thou hide any ‡ thing from me, of all the things that he said unto thee.

19 ¶ And Samuel grew, and the LORD was with him, and did let none of his words [1] fall to the ground.

1 The Lord accomplished whatsoever he had said.

20 And all Israel, from Dan even to Beersheba, knew that Samuel was ‡ established to be a prophet of the LORD.

CHAP. IV.

1 The Israelites are overcome by the Philistins at Ebenezer; 3 They fetch the ark to the terrour of the Philistins: 10 They are smitten again, the ark taken, Hophni and Phinehas are slain. 12 Eli at the news, falling backward, breaketh his neck. 19 Phinehas wife discouraged in her travail with I-chabod, dieth.

AND the word of ‡ Samuel † came to all Israel. Now Israel went out against the Philistins to battel, and pitched beside Ebenezer: and the Philistins pitched in Aphek.

3 ¶ And when the people were come into the camp, the elders of Israel said, [a] Wherefore hath the LORD smitten us to day before the Philistins? Let us † fetch the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of Shiloh unto us, that when it cometh among us, it may save us out of the hand of our enemies.

a For it may seem that this war was undertaken by Samuels commandment.

5 And when the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel shouted with a great shout, so that the earth rang again.

6 And when the Philistins heard the noise of the shout, they said, What meaneth the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews? And they understood that the ark of the LORD was come into the camp.

7 And the Philistins were afraid, for they said, God is come into the camp. And they said [c] Wo unto us; for there hath not been such a thing † heretofore.

8 Wo unto us: who shall deliver us out of the hand of these mighty Gods? these are the Gods that smote the Egyptians with all the plagues in the [d] wilderness.

d For in the red Sea in the wilderness, the Egyptians were destroyed, which was the last of all his plagues.

9 Be strong, and quit your selvs like men, O ye Philistins, that ye be not servants unto the Hebrews, * as they have been to you: † quit your selvs like men, and fight.

* Judg. 13. 1.

† Heb. be men,

10 ¶ And the Philistins fought, and Israel was smitten, and they fled every man into his tent: and there was a very great slaughter, for there fell of Israel [e] thirty thousand footmen.

e David alluding to this place, Psal. 78. 63. saith, they were consumed with fire: meaning, they were suddenly destroyed.

11 And the ark of God was taken; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, † were slain.

† Heb. died.

12 ¶ And there ran a man of Benjamin out of the army, and came to Shiloh the same day with his [f] clothes rent, and with earth upon his head.

f In token of sorrow and mourning.

13 And when he came, lo, Eli sat upon a seat by the way-side, watching: for his heart trembled for the [g] ark of God. And when the man came into the city and told it, all the city cried out.

g Least it should be taken of the enemies.

14 And when Eli heard the noise of the crying, he said, What meaneth the noise of this tumult? And the man came in hastily, and told Eli.

15 Now Eli was ninety and eight years old; and * his eyes † were dim, that he could not see.

* Chap. 3. 2.

† Heb. stood,

16 And the man said unto Eli, I am he that came out of the army, and I fled to day out of the army. And he said, What † is there done, my son?

† Heb is the thing,

17 And the messenger answered and said, Israel is fled before the Philistins, and there hath been also a great slaughter among the people, and thy two sons also, Hophni and Phinehas, are [h] dead, & the ark of God is taken.

h According as God had aforesaid.

18 And it came to pass when he made mention of the ark of God, that he fell from off the seat backward by the side of the gate, and his neck brake, and he died: for he was an old man, and heavy. And he had judged Israel forty years.

19 ¶ And his daughter in law Phinehas wife was with child near ‡ to be delivered: and when she heard the tidings that the ark of God was taken, and that her father in law, and her husband were dead, she [i] bowed her self and travailed; for her pains † came upon her.

‡ Or, to cry out;

i And settled her body toward her travell.

† Heb. were turned.

20 And about the time of her death, the women that stood by her, said unto her, Fear not, for thou hast born a son. But she answered not, † neither did she regard it.

† Heb. set not her heart.

21 And she named the child ‡ I-chabod, saying, The [k] glory is departed from Israel: (because the ark of God was taken, and because of her father in law and her husband.)

‡ That is, where is the glory? or there is no glory.

k She uttered her great sorrow by repeating her words.

22 And she said, The glory is departed from Israel: for the ark of God is taken.

CHAP. V.

1 The Philistins having brought the ark into Ashdod, set it in the house of Dagon. 3 Dagon is smitten down and cut in pieces, and they of Ashdod smitten with emerods. 8 So God dealeth with them of Gath, when it was brought thither, 10 and so with them of Ekron, when it was brought thither.

AND the Philistins took the ark of God, & brought it from Eben-ezer unto [a] Ashdod.

a which was one of the five principall cities of the Philistins.

2 When the Philistins took the ark of God, they brought it into the house of [b] Dagon, and set it by Dagon.

b which was their chief idol and as some write, from the navel downward was like a fish, and upward like a man.

3 ¶ And when they of Ashdod arose early on the morrow, behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the earth, before the ark of the LORD: and they took Dagon, and set him in his place again.

228

4 And when they aroſe early on the morrow morning, behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the ground, before the ark of the LORD: and the head of Dagon, and both the palms of his hands were cut off upon the threſhold, onely † the ſtump of Dagon was left to him.

‡ Or, the fiſhy part.

5 Therefore neither the prieſts of Dagon, nor any that come into Dagons houſe, [c] tread on the threſhold of Dagon in Aſhdod, unto this day.

c Thus inſtead of acknowledging of the true God by this miracle, they fall to a fur ther ſuperſtition.

6 But the hand of the LORD was heavy upon them of Aſhdod, and he deſtroyed them, and ſmote them with * emerods, even Aſhdod and the coaſt thereof.

* Pſal. 78. 66.

7 And when the men of Aſhdod ſaw that it was ſo, they ſaid, The ark of the God of Iſrael ſhall not abide with us: for his hand is ſore upon us, and upon Dagon our god.

8 They ſent therefore, and gathered all the lords of the Philiſtins unto them, and ſaid, [d] What ſhall we do with the ark of the God of Iſrael? And they anſwered, Let the ark of the God of Iſrael be carried about unto Gath. And they carried the ark of the God of Iſrael about thither.

d Though they had felt Gods power and were afraid thereof, yet they would further trie him, which thing God turned to their deſtruction and his glory.

9 And it was ſo, that after they had carried it abour, the hand of the LORD was againſt the city with a very great deſtruction: and he ſmote the men of the city both ſmall and great, and they had emerods in their ſecret parts.

10 ¶ Therefore they ſent the ark of God to Ekron; and it came to paſs as the ark of God came to Ekron, that the Ekronites cried out, ſaying, They have brought about the ark of the God of Iſrael to us, to ſlay us and our people.

11 So they ſent and gathered together all the lords of the Philiſtins, and ſaid, [e] Send away the ark of the God of Iſrael, and let it go again to his own place, that it ſlay us not, and our people: for there was a deadly deſtruction throughout all the city; the hand of God was very heavy there.

e The wicked when they feel the hand of God, grudge and reject him, where the godly humble themſelvs, and cry for mercy.

12 And the men that died not, were ſmitten with the emerods: and the cry of the city went up to heaven.

CHAP. VI.

1 After ſeven moneths the Philiſtins take counſel how to ſend back the ark. 10 They bring it on a new cart with an offering into Beth-ſhemeſh. 19 The people are ſmitten for looking into the ark. 21 They ſend to them of Kirjath-jearim to fetch it.

AND the ark of the LORD was in the country of the Philiſtins [a] ſeven moneths.

a They thought by continuance of time the plague would have ceaſed and ſo would have kept the ark ſtill.

2 And the Philiſtins called for the prieſts and the diviners, ſaying, What ſhall we do to the ark of the LORD? tell us wherewith we ſhall ſend it to his place.

3 And they ſaid, If ye ſent away the ark of the God of Iſrael, ſend it not empty; but in any wiſe return him a [b] treſpaſs-offering: then ye ſhall be healed, and it ſhall be known to you, why his hand is not removed from you.

b The idolaters confeſs there is a true God, who puniſheth ſin juſtly.

4 Then ſaid they, What ſhall be the treſpaſs-offering which we ſhall return to him? They anſwered, Five golden emerods, and five golden mice, according to the number of the lords of the Philiſtins: for one plague was on † you all, and on your lords.

5 Wherefore ye ſhall make images of your emerods, and images of your mice that mar the land, and ye ſhall give glory unto the God of Iſrael: peradventure he will lighten his hand from off you, and from off your [c] gods, and from off your land.

c This is Gods judgement upon the idolaters. thus knowing the true God, they worſhip him not aright.

6 Wherefore then do ye harden your hearts as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? when he had wrought ‡ wonderfully among them, * did they not let † the people go, and they departed?

* Exod. 12. 31.

7 Now therefore make a new cart, and take two milch-kine, on which there hath come no yoke, and tie the kine to the cart, and bring their calvs home from them:

8 And take the ark of the LORD, and lay it upon the cart, and put the [d] jewels of gold which ye return him for a treſpaſs-offering, in a coffer by the ſide thereof, and ſend it away, that it may go.

d Meaning, the golden emerods and the golden mice.

9 And ſee, if it goeth up by the way of his own coaſt to Beth-ſhemeſh, then ‡ [e] he hath done us this great evil: but if not, then we ſhall know that it is not his hand that ſmote us; it was a [f] chance that happened to us.

‡ Or, it.
e The God of Iſrael.
f The wicked attribute almoſt all things to fortune & chance, whereas indeed there is nothing done without Gods providence and decree.

10 ¶ And the men did ſo: and took two milch-kine, and tied them to the cart, and ſhut up their calvs at home:

11 And they laid the ark of the LORD upon the cart, and the coffer with the mice of gold, and the images of their emerods.

12 And the kine took the ſtraight way to the way of Beth-ſhemeſh, and went along the high-way, lowing as they went, and turned not aſide to the right hand or to the left; and the lords of the Philiſtins went [g] after them unto the border of Beth-ſhemeſh.

g For the triall of the matter.

13 And they of Beth-ſhemeſh were reaping their wheat-harveſt in the valley: and they liſted up their eyes, and ſaw the ark, and rejoyced to ſee it.

14 And the cart came into the field of Joſhua a Beth-ſhemite, and ſtood there, where there was a great ſtone: and [h] they clave the wood of the cart, and offered the kine a burnt-offering unto the LORD.

h To wit, the men of Beth-ſhemeſh, which were Levites.

15 And the Levites took down the ark of the LORD, and the coffer that was with it, wherein the jewels of gold were, and put them on the great ſtone: and the men of Beth-ſhemeſh offered burnt-offerings, and ſacrificed ſacrifices the ſame day unto the LORD.

16 And when the five lords of the Philiſtins had ſeen it, they returned to Ekron the ſame day.

17 And theſe are the golden emerods which the Philiſtins returned for a treſpaſs-offering unto the LORD; for [i] Aſhdod one, for Gaza one, for Askelon one, for Gath one, for Ekron one.

i Theſe were the five principall cities of the Philiſtins, which were not all conquered unto the time of David.

18 And the golden mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Philiſtins, belonging longing to the five lords, both of fenced cities, and of countrey villages, even unto the ‡ great stone of Abel, whereon they set down the ark of the LORD: which stone remaineth unto this day, in the field of Joshua the Beth-shemite.

19 ¶ And he smote the men of Beth-shemesh, because they had [i] looked into the ark of the LORD, even he smote of the people fifty thousand and threescore and ten men: and the people lamented, because the LORD had smitten many of the people with a great slaughter.

[i] For it was not lawful to any, either to touch or to see it, save onely to Aaron, and his sons, Num 4.15, 20.

20 And the men of Beth-shemesh said, Who is able to stand before this holy LORD God? and to whom shall he go up from us?

21 ¶ And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kirjath-jearim, saying, The Philistins have brought again the ark of the LORD; come ye down, and fetch it up to you.

CHAP. VII.

1 They of Kirjath-jearim bring the ark into the house of Abinadab, and sanctify Eleazar his son to keep it. 2 After twenty years, 3 The Israelites by Samuels means, solemnly repent at Mizpeh. 9 While Samuel prayeth and sacrificeth, the Lord discomfiteth the Philistins by thunder, at Ebenezer. 13 The Philistins are subdued. 15 Samuel peaceably and religiously judgeth Israel.

AND the men of [a] Kirjath-jearim came, and fetcht up the ark of the LORD, and brought it into the house of Abinadab in the hill, and sanctified Eleazar his son, to keep the ark of the LORD.

[a] A city in the tribe of Judah called also Kiriath-baal; Josh. 15.60.

2 And it came to pass while the ark abode in Kirjath-jearim, that the time was long; for it was twenty years: and all the house of Israel [b] lamented after the LORD.

[b] Lamented for their sins and followed the Lord.

3 ¶ And Samuel spake unto all the house of Israel, saying, If ye do return unto the LORD with all your hearts, then * put away the strange gods, and * Ashtaroth from among you, and prepare your hearts unto the LORD, and * serve him onely: and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistins.

[j] Josh. 24.[14], 23. * Judg. 2.13.

4 Then the children of Israel did put away * Baalim, and Ashtaroth, and served the LORD onely.

* Deut. 6.13. Mat 4.10. Luk. 4.8.

* Judg. 2.11.

5 And Samuel said, Gather all Israel to [c] Mizpeh, & I will pray for you unto the LORD.

[c] For Shiloh was now desolate because the Philistins had taken thence the ark.

6 And they gathered together to Mizpeh, and [d] drew water, and poured it out before the LORD, and fasted on that day, and said there, We have sinned against the LORD. And Samuel judged the children of Israel in Mizpeh.

[d] The Chalde text hath, That they drew water out of their hearts: That is, wept abundantly for their sins.

7 And when the Philistins heard that the children of Israel were gathered together to Mizpeh, the lords of the Philistins went up against Israel: and when the children of Israel heard it, they were afraid of the Philistins.

8 And the children of Israel said to Samuel, †[e] Cease not to cry unto the LORD our God for us, that he will save us out of the hand of the Philistins.

† Heb. be not silent from us from crying,

[e] Signifying that in the prayers of the godly, there ought to be a vehement zeal.

9 ¶ And Samuel took a sucking lamb, and offered it for a burnt-offering wholly unto the LORD; and Samuel cried unto the LORD for Israel, and the LORD ‡ heard him.

‡ Or, answered

10 And as Samuel was offering up the burnt-offering, the Philistins drew near to battel against Israel: but the LORD [f] thundred with a great thunder on that day upon the Philistins, and discomfited them, and they were smitten before Israel.

[f] According to the prophesy of Hannah, Samuels mother, chap. 2. 10.

11 And the men of Israel went out of Mizpeh, and pursued the Philistins, and smote them, until they came under Beth-car.

12 Then Samuel took a stone, and set it between Mizpeh and [g] Shen, and called the name of it ‡ Eben-ezer, saying, Hitherto hath the LORD helped us.

[g] which was a great rock over against Mizpeh.
‡ That is, the stone of help.

13 ¶ So the Philistins were subdued, and they came no more into the coast of Israel: and the hand of the LORD was against the Philistins, all the days of Samuel.

14 And the cities which the Philistins had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron even unto Gath, and the coasts thereof did Israel deliver out of the hand of the Philistins: and there was peace between Israel and the [h] Amorite.

[h] Meaning; the Philistins.

15 And Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life.

16 And he went from year to year † in circuit to Beth-el, and Gilgal, and Mizpeh, and judged Israel in all those places.

† Heb. and he circuited

17 And his return was to Ramah; for there was his house: and there he judged Israel, and there he built an [i] altar unto the LORD.

[i] which was not contrary to the law: for as yet a certain place was not appointed.

CHAP. VIII.

1 By occasion of the ill government of Samuels sons, the Israelites ask a king. 6 Samuel praying in grief, is comforted by God. 10 He telleth the manner of a king. 19 God willeth Samuel to yield unto the importunity of the people.

AND it came to pass when Samuel was old, that he made his [a] sons judges over Israel.

[a] Because he was not able to bear the charge.

2 Now the name of his first-born was [b] Joel, and the name of his second, Abiah: they were judges in Beer-sheba.

[b] who was also called Vashni; 1 Chron. 6.28.

3 And his sons walked not in his ways, but turned aside after lucre, and * took bribes, and perverted judgement.

* Deut. 16.19.

4 Then all the elders of Israel gathered themselves together, and came to Samuel unto [c] Ramah,

[c] For there his house was chap. 7.17.

5 And said unto him, Behold, thou art old and thy sons walk not in thy ways: now * make us a king to judge us like all the nations.

* Hosea 13.10. Acts 13.21.

6 ¶ But the thing † [d] displeased Samuel, when they said, Give us a king to judge us: and Samuel prayed unto the LORD.

† Heb. was evil in the eyes of Samuel;
[d] Because they were not content with the order that God had appointed, but would be governed as were the Gentiles.

7 And the LORD said unto Samuel, Hearken unto the voice of the people in all that they say unto thee: for they have not rejected thee, but they have rejected me, that I should not reign over them.

8 According to all the works which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt even unto this day, wherewith they have forsaken me, and served other gods: so do they also unto thee.

‡ Or, obey
† Or, notwithstanding when thou hast solemnly protested against them, then thou shalt shew, &c.

9 Now therefore ‡ hearken unto their voice: ‡ howbeit, yet [e] protest solemnly unto them, & shew

[e] To prove if they will forsake their wicked purpose.

230 shew them the manner of the king that shall reign over them.

10 ¶ And Samuel told all the words of the LORD unto the people, that asked of him a king

11 And he said, This will be the [f] manner of the king that shall reign over you: He will take your sons, and appoint them for himself, for his chariots, and to be his horsmen, and some shall run before his chariots.

f Not that kings have this authority by their office, but that such as reign in Gods wrath should usurp this over their brethren, contrary to the law, Deut. 17. 20.

12 And he will appoint him captains over thousands, and captain over fifties; and will set them to ear his ground, and to reap his harvest, and to make his instruments of war, and instruments of his chariots.

13 And he will take your daughters to be confectionaries, and to be cooks, and to be bakers.

14 And he will take your fields, and your vineyards, and your olive-yards, even the best of them, and give them to his servants.

15 And he will take the tenth of your seed, and of your vineyards, and give to his † officers, and to his servants.

† Heb. eunuchs,

16 And he will take your men-servants, and your maid-servants, and your goodliest young men, and your asses, and put them to his work.

17 He will take the tenth of your sheep, and and ye shall be his servants.

18 And ye shall cry out in that day, because of your king which ye shall have chosen you: and the LORD will [g] not hear you in that day.

g Because ye repent not for your sins, but because ye smart for your afflictions, whereinto ye cast your selves willingly.

19 ¶ Nevertheless, the people refused to obey the voice of Samuel; and they said, Nay, but there shall be a king over us:

20 That we also may be like all the nations, and that our king may judge us, and go out before us, and fight our battels.

21 And Samuel heard all the words of the people, and he rehearsed them in the ears of the LORD.

22 And the LORD said to Samuel, Hearken unto their voice, and make them a king. And Samuel said unto the men of Israel, Go ye every man unto his city.

CHAP. IX.

1 Saul despairing to find his fathers asses, 6 by the counsel of his servant, 11 and direction of young maidens, 15 according to Gods revelation, 18 cometh to Samuel. 19 Samuel entertaineth Saul at the feast. 25 Samuel after secret communication, bringeth Saul on his way.

NOw there was a man of Benjamin, whose name was * Kish, the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Bechorath, the son of Aphiah, ‡ a Benjamite, a mighty man of [a] power.

‡ Or, the son of a man of Jemini, ‡ Or, substance. a That is, both valiant and rich.

2 And he had a son, whose name was Saul, [b] a choice young man, and a goodly: and there was not among the children of Israel a goodlier person than he: from his shoulders and upward, he was higher than any of the people.

b So that it might seem that God approved the request in appointing out such a person.

3 And the asses of Kish, Sauls father, were lost; and Kish said to Saul his son, Take now one of the servants with thee; and arise, go [c] seek the asses.

c All these circumstances were means to serve unto Gods providence, whereby Saul (though not approved of God) was made king.

4 And he passed through mount Ephraim, and passed through the land of Shalisha, but they found them not: then they passed through the land of Shalim, and there they were not: and he passed through the land of the Benjamites, but they found them not.

5 And when they were come to the land of [d] Zuph, Saul said to his servant that was with him, Come, and let us return; least my father leave caring for the asses, and take thought for us.

d where was Ramath Zophim the city of Samuel.

6 And he said unto him, behold now, there is in this city a man of God, and he is an honourable man; all that he saith, cometh surely to pass: now let us go thither, peradventure he can shew us our way that we should go.

7 Then said Saul to his servant, But behold, if we go, what shall we bring the man? for the bread † is spent in our vessels, and there is not a present to bring to the man of God: what † have we?

f So called, because he foretells things to come.

10 Then said Saul to his servant, Well said, † come, let us go: so they went unto the city where the man of God was.

† Heb. thy word is good,

11 ¶ And as they went up † the hill to the city, they found young maidens going out to draw water, and said unto them, Is the Seer here?

12 And they answered them, and said, He is; behold, he is before you: make haste now, for he came to day to the city; for there is [g] a sacrifice of the people to day in the high place.

g That is, a feast after the offering, which should be kept in an high place of the city appointed for that use.

13 Assoon as ye be come into the city, ye shall straightway find him, before he go up to the high place to eat: for the people will not eat until he come, because he doth [h] bless the sacrifice, and afterwards they eat that be bidden. Now therefore get you up, for about † this time ye shall find him.

h That is, give thanks and distribute the meat according to their custome.

14 And they went up into the city: and when they were come into the city, behold, Samuel came out against them, for to go up to the high place.

15 ¶ * Now the LORD had † told Samuel in his ear a day before Saul came, saying, b Samuel confirmeth him by theſe ſigns, that God hath appointed him king.

† Heb. the buſineſs

3 Then ſhalt thou go on forwar from thence, and thou ſhalt come to the plain of Tabor, and there ſhall meet thee three men going up to God to Beth-el, one carrying three kids, and another carrying three loavs of bread, and another carrying a bottle of wine.

4 And they will †ſalute thee, and give thee two loaws of bread, which thou ſhalt receive of their hands.

† Heb. aſk the welfare,

5 After that thou ſhalt come to the [c] hill of God, where is the garriſon of the Philiſtins: and it ſhall come to paſs, when thou art come thither to the city, that thou ſhalt meet a company of prophets coming down from the high place, with a pſaltery, and a tabret, and a pipe, and a harp before them, and they ſhall propheſie.

c which was an high place in the city of Kirjath jearim, where the ark was, Chap. 7. 1.

6 And the ſpirit of the LORD will come upon thee, and thou ſhalt propheſie with them, and ſhalt be turned into another man.

7 And †let it be when theſe ſigns are come unto thee, †that thou do as occaſion ſhall ſerve thee, for God is with thee.

d He gave him ſuch vertues as were meet for a king.

10 And when they came thither to the hill, behold, a company of prophets met him, and the ſpirit of God came upon him, and he propheſied among them.

11 And it came to paſs when all that knew him before time, ſaw, that behold, he propheſied among the prophets, then the people ſaid †one to another, What is this that is come unto the ſon of Kiſh? * Is Saul alſo among the prophets?

† Heb. a man to his neighbour,
* Chap. 19. 24.

12 And one †of the ſame place anſwered and ſaid, But who is [e] their father? therefore it became a proverb, Is Saul alſo among the [f] prophets?

† Heb. from thence
e Meaning, that propheſie cometh not by ſucceſſion, but is given to whom it pleaſeth God.
f Noting thereby him that from low degree cometh ſuddenly to honour.

13 And when he had made an end of propheſying, he came to the high place.

14 ¶ And Sauls uncle ſaid unto him, and to his ſervant, Whither went ye? And he ſaid, To ſeek the aſſes: and when we ſaw that they were no where, we came to Samuel.

15 And Sauls uncle ſaid, Tell me, I pray thee, what Samuel ſaid unto you.

16 And Saul ſaid unto his uncle, He told us plainly that the aſſes were found. But of the matter of the kingdom, whereof Samuel ſpake, he told him not.

17 ¶ And Samuel [g] called the people together unto the LORD to Mizpeh;

g Both to declare unto them their fault in asking a king, and alſo to ſhew Gods ſentence therein.

18 And ſaid unto the children of Iſrael, Thus ſaith the LORD God of Iſrael, I brought up Iſrael out of Egypt, and delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all kingdoms, and of them that oppreſſed you.

19 And ye have this day, rejected your God, who himſelf ſaved you out of all your adverſities and your tribulations: and ye have ſaid unto him, Nay, but ſet a king over us. Now there-

232 fore preſent your ſelvs before the LORD by your tribes, and by your thouſands.

20 And when Samuel had cauſed all the tribes of Iſrael to come near, the tribe of Benjamin was [h] taken.

h That is, by caſting of lot.

21 When he had cauſed the tribe of Benjamin to come near by their families, the family of Matri was taken, and Saul the ſon of Kiſh was taken: and when they ſought him, he could not be found.

22 Therefore they enquired of the LORD further, if the man ſhould yet come thither: and the LORD anſwered, Behold, he hath [i] hid himſelf among the ſtuff.

i As though he were unworthy and unwilling.

23 And they ran and fetched him thence: and when he ſtood among the people, he was higher than any of the people, from the ſhoulders and upward.

24 And Samuel ſaid to all the people, See ye him whom the LORD hath choſen, that there is none like him among all the people? And all the people ſhouted, and ſaid, † God ſave the king.

k As it is written in Deut. 17. 15. &c.

25 Then Samuel told the people the [k] manner of the kingdom, and wrote it in a book, and laid it up before the LORD: and Samuel ſent all the people away, every man to his houſe.

26 ¶ And Saul alſo went home to Gibeah, and there went with him a band of men whoſe hearts God had touched.

27 But the children of Belial ſaid, How ſhall this man ſave us? and they deſpiſed him, and brought him no preſents: but ‡ he held his [l] peace.

‡ Or, he was as though he had been deaf.

l Both to avoid ſedition, and alſo to win them by patience.

CHAP. XI.

1 Nahaſh offereth them of Jabeſh-gilead a reproachfull condition. 4 They ſend meſſengers, and are delivered by Saul. 12 Saul there by is confirmed, and his kingdom renewed.

THEN Nahaſh the Ammonite [a] came up, and encamped againſt Jabeſh-gilead: and all the men of Jabeſh ſaid unto Nahaſh, Make a covenant with us, and we will ſerve thee.

a After that Saul was choſen king: for fear of whom they asked a king, as chap. 12 32.

2 And Nahaſh the Ammonite anſwered them, On this condition will I make a covenant with you, that I may thruſt out all your [b] right eyes, and lay it for a reproach upon all Iſrael.

b This declareth that the more near that tyrants are to their deſtruction, the more cruel they are.

3 And the elders of Jabeſh ſaid unto him, † Give us ſeven days reſpite, that we may ſend meſſengers unto all the coaſts of Iſrael: and then if there be no man to ſave us, we will come out to thee.

† Heb. forbear us,

4 ¶ Then came the meſſengers to Gibeah of Saul, and told the tidings in the ears of the people: and all the people lift up their voices, and wept.

5 And behold, Saul came after the herd out of the field, and Saul ſaid, What aileth the people that they weep? and they told him the tidings of the men of Jabeſh.

c God gave him the ſpirit of ſtrength and courage to go againſt this tyrant.

6 And the [c] ſpirit of God came upon Saul, when he heard thoſe tidings, and his anger was kindled greatly.

7 And he took a yoke of oxen, and hewed them in pieces, and ſent them throughout all the coaſts of Iſrael by the hand of meſſengers, ſaying, Whoſoever cometh not forth after Saul and after [d] Samuel, ſo ſhall it be done unto his oxen: and the fear of the LORD fell on the people, and they came out † with one conſent.

d He addeth Samuel, becauſe Saul was not yet approved of all.

† Heb. as one man.

8 And when he numbred them in Bezek, the children of Iſrael were three hundred thouſand, and the men of Judah thirty thouſand.

9 And [e] they ſaid unto the meſſengers that came, Thus ſhall ye ſay unto the men of Jabeſh-gilead, To morrow by that time the ſun be hot, ye ſhall have ‡ help. And the meſſengers came and ſhewed it to the men of Jabeſh, and they were glad, e Meaning, Saul and Samuel.

‡ Or, deliverance.

10 Therefore the men of Jabeſh ſaid, To morrow we will come out unto [f] you, and ye ſhall do with us all that ſeemeth good unto you.

f That is, to the Ammonites, diſſembling that they had hope of aid.

11 And it was ſo on the morrow, that Saul put the people in three companies, and they came into the midſt of the hoſt in the morning watch, and ſlew the Ammonites, until the heat of the day: and it came to paſs, that they which remained were ſcattered, ſo that two of them were not left together.

12 ¶ And the people ſaid unto Samuel, [g] Who is he that ſaid, Shall Saul reign over us? bring the men, that we may put them to death

g By this victory the Lord won the hearts of the people to Saul.

13 And Saul ſaid, There ſhall [h] not a man be put to death this day: for to day the LORD hath wrought ſalvation in Iſrael.

h By ſhewing mercy, he thought to overcome this malice.

14 Then ſaid Samuel to the people, Come, and let us go to Gilgal, and renew the kingdom there.

15 And all the people went to Gilgal, and there they made Saul king before the LORD in Gilgal: and there they [i] ſacrificed ſacrifices of peace-offerings before the LORD: and there Saul and all the men of Iſrael rejoyced greatly.

i In ſign of thankſgiving for the victory.

CHAP. XII.

1 Samuel teſtifieth his integrity. 6 He reproveth the people of ingratitude. 16 He terrifieth them with thunder in harveſt-time. 20 He comforteth them in Gods mercy.

AND Samuel ſaid unto all Iſrael, Behold, I have [a] hearkened unto your voice in all that ye ſaid unto me, and have made a king over you.

a I have granted your petition.

2 And now behold, the king walketh [b] before you: and I am old, and gray-headed, & behold, my ſons are with you: and I have walked before you from my childhood unto this day.

b To govern you in peace and war.

3 Behold, * here I am, witneſs againſt me before the LORD, and before his anointed: whoſe [c] ox have I taken? or whoſe aſs have I taken? or whom have I defrauded? whom have I oppreſſed? or of whoſe hand have I received any † bribe ‡ to blind mine eyes therewith? and I will reſtore it you.

* Eccl. 46. 19.

‡ Or, that I ſhould hide mine eyes at him?

4 And they ſaid, Thou haſt not defrauded us, nor oppreſſed us, neither haſt thou taken ought of any mans hand.

6 ¶ And Samuel ſaid unto the people, It is the LORD that ‡ advanced Moſes and Aaron, and that brought your fathers up out of the land of Egypt.

10 And they cried unto the LORD, and ſaid, We have ſinned, becauſe we have forſaken the LORD, and have ſerved Baalim and Aſhteroth: but now deliver us out of the hand of our enemies, and we will ſerve thee.

11 And the LORD ſent Jerubbaal, and f Bedan, and * Jephthah, and Samuel, and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies on every ſide, and ye dwelled ſafe.

g Leaving God, to ſeek the help of man, *Chap.*2.5.

13 Now therefore, behold, the king whom ye have choſen, and whom ye have deſired: & behold, the LORD hath ſet a king over you.

14 If ye will fear the LORD, and ſerve him, and obey his voice, and not rebell againſt the † commandment of the LORD, then ſhall both ye, and alſo the h king that reigneth over you, † continue following the LORD your God.

† Heb. mouth

† Heb. be after

15 But if ye will not obey the voice of the LORD, but rebell againſt the commandment of the LORD, then ſhall the hand of the LORD be againſt you, as it was againſt your i fathers.

i Meaning, the governours.

16 ¶ Now therefore ſtand and ſee this great thing which the LORD will do before your eyes.

17 It is not wheat-harveſt to day? I will call unto the LORD, and he ſhall ſend thunder and rain: that ye may perceive and ſee that your wickedneſs is k great, which ye have done in the ſight of the LORD, in asking you a king.

k In that ye have forſaken him, who hath all power in his hand, for a mortal man.

18 So Samuel called unto the LORD, and the LORD ſent thunder and rain that day: & all the people greatly feared the LORD and Samuel.

19 And all the people ſaid unto Samuel, Pray for thy ſervants unto the LORD thy God, that we die not: for we have l added unto all our ſins, this evil, to ask us a king.

l Not onely at other times, but not chiefly.

20 ¶ And Samuel ſaid unto the people, Fear not: (ye have done all this wickedneſs, m yet turn not aſide from following the LORD, but ſerve the LORD with all your heart:

m He ſheweth that there is no ſin ſo great, but it ſhall be forgiven, if the ſinner turn again to God.

21 And turn ye not aſide, for then ſhould ye go after vain things, which cannot profit nor deliver, for they are vain)

22 For the LORD will not forſake his people, for his great names ſake: becauſe it hath pleaſed the LORD to make you n his people.

n Of his free mercy, and not of your merits, and therefore he will not forſake you 23 Moreover, as for me, God forbid that I ſhould ſin againſt the LORD † in ceaſing to pray for you: but I will teach you the good and the right way.

25 But if ye ſhall ſtill do wickedly, ye ſhall be conſumed, both ye and your king.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Sauls ſelected band. 2 He calleth the Hebrews to Gilgal againſt the Philiſtins, whoſe garriſon Jonathan had ſmitten. 5 The Philiſtins great hoſt. 6 The diſtreſs of the Iſraelites. 8 Saul, weary of ſtaying for Samuel, ſacrificeth. 11 Samuel reproveth him. 17 The three ſpoiling bands of the Philiſtins. 19 The policie of the Philiſtins, to ſuffer no ſmith in Iſrael.

SAul † reigned a one year, and when he had reigned b two years over Iſrael.

† Heb the ſon of one year in his reigning, a whiles theſe things were done.
b Before he took upon him the ſtate of a king.

2 Saul choſe him three thouſand men of Iſrael; whereof two thouſand were with Saul in Michmaſh, and in mount Beth-el, and a thouſand were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin: and the reſt of the people he ſent every man to his tent.

3 And Jonathan ſmote the garriſon of the Philiſtins that was in ‡ c Geba, and the Philiſtins heard of it: & Saul blew the d trumpet throughout all the land, ſaying, Let the Hebrews hear.

‡ Or, the hill,
c Or Kirjath-jearim, where the ark was, Chap. 10 5.
d That every one ſhould prepare themſelvs to war.

4 And all Iſrael heard ſay, that Saul had ſmitten a garriſon of the Philiſtins, and that Iſrael alſo † was had in abomination with the Philiſtins: and the people were called together after Saul to Gilgal.

† Heb. did ſtink

5 ¶ And the Philiſtins gathered themſelvs together, to fight with Iſrael, thirty thouſand chariots, and ſix thouſand horſmen, and people as the ſand which is on the ſea-ſhore in multitude: and they came up, and pitched in Michmaſh, eaſt-ward from e Beth-aven.

e which was alſo called Beth-el, in the tribe of Benjamin.

6 When the men of Iſrael ſaw that they were in a ſtrait, (for the people were diſtreſſed) then the people did hide themſelvs in caves, and in thickets, and in rocks, and in high places, and in pits.

7 And ſome of the Hebrews went over Jordan to the land of f Gad and Gilead: as for Saul, he was yet in Gilgal, and all the people † followed him trembling.

g Thinking that the abſence of the prophet was a ſign, that they ſhould loſe the victory.

9 And Saul ſaid, Bring hither a Burnt-offering to me, and peace-offerings. And he offered the burnt-offering.

10 And it came to paſs, that aſſoon as he had made an end of offering the burnt-offering, behold, Samuel came, and Saul went out to meet him, that he might † ſalute him.

h Though theſe cauſes ſeem ſufficient in mans judgement yet becauſe they hid not the word of God, they turned to his deſtruction.

12 Therefore ſaid I, The Philiſtins will come down now upon me to Gilgal, and I have not † made ſupplication unto the LORD: I forced my ſelf therefore, and offered a burnt-offering.

† Heb. intreated the face

13 And Samuel ſaid to Saul, Thou haſt don fooliſhly: thou haſt [i] not kept the commandment of the LORD thy God, which he commanded thee: for now would the LORD have eſtabliſhed thy kingdom upon Iſrael for ever.

i who willed thee to obey him, and reſt upon the words ſpoken by his prophet.

14 But now thy kingdom ſhall not continue: the LORD hath ſought him a man after [k] his own heart, and the LORD hath commanded him to be captain over his people, becauſe thou haſt not kept that which the LORD commanded thee.

k That is, David.

15 And Samuel aroſe, and gat him up from Gilgal, unto [l] Gibeah of Benjamin: and Saul numbred the people that were † preſent with him, about ſix hundred men.

l And went to his city Ramah.
† Heb found

16 And Saul and Jonathan his ſon, and the people that were preſent with them, abode in Gibeah of Benjamin: but the Philiſtins encamped in Michmaſh.

17 ¶ And the ſpoilers came out of the camp of the Philiſtins in three companies: one company turned unto the way that leadeth to Ophrah, unto the land of Shual:

18 And another company turned the way to Beth-horon: and [m] another company turned to the way of the border, that looketh to the valley of Zeboim toward the wilderneſs.

m So that to mans judgement theſe three armies would have overrun the whole countrey.

19 ¶ Now there was no ſmith found throughout all the land of Iſrael: (for the Philiſtins ſaid, Leſt the Hebrews make them ſwords or ſpears)

20 But all the Iſraelites went down to the Philiſtins, to ſharpen every man his ſhare, and his coulter, and his ax, and his mattock.

† Heb. a file with mouths

21 Yet they had † a file for the mattocks, and for the coulters, and for the forks, and for the axes, and † to ſharpen the goads.

22 So it came to paſs in the day of battel, that there was neither [n] ſword not ſpear found in the hand of any of the people that were with Saul and Jonathan: but with Saul and with Jonathan his ſon was there found.

23 And the ‡ garriſon of the Philiſtins went out to the paſſage of Mickmaſh.

CHAP. XIV.

1 Jonathan, unwitting to his father, the prieſt, or the people, goeth and miraculouſly ſmiteth the Philiſtins garriſon. 15 A divine terrour maketh them beat themſelvs. 17 Saul, not ſtaying the prieſts anſwer, ſetteth on them. 21 The captivated Hebrews, and the hidden Iſraelites joyn againſt them. 24 Sauls unadviſed adjuration hindereth the victory. 32 He reſtraineth the people from eating blood. 35 He buildeth an altar. 36 Jonathan taken by lot, is ſaved by the people. 47 Sauls ſtrength and family.

‡ Or, there was a day,

NOw it ‡ came to paſs upon a day, that Jonathan the ſon of Saul ſaid unto the young man that bare his armour, [a] Come, and let us go over to the Philiſtins garriſon, that is on the other ſide: but he told not his father.

a By this example God would declare to Iſrael that the victory did not conſiſt in multitude, or armour, but onely came of his grace.

2 And Saul tarried in the uttermoſt part of Gibeah, under a pomegranate-tree, which is in Migron: and the people that were with him, were about ſix hundred men.

3 And Ahiah the ſon of Ahitub,* I-chabods brother, the ſon of Phinehas, the ſon of Eli, the LORDS prieſt in Shiloh, wearing an ephod: and the people knew not that Jonathan was gone.

* Chap. 4. 21.

4 ¶ And between the paſſages, by which Jonathan ſought to go over unto the Philiſtins garriſon, there was a ſharp rock on the one ſide, and a ſharp rock on the other ſide: and the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh.

5 The † forefront of the one was ſituate north-ward over againſt Michmaſh, and the other ſouth-ward over againſt Gibeah.

† Heb, tooth

6 And Jonathan ſaid to the young man that bare his armour, Come, and let us go over unto the garriſon of theſe [b] uncircumciſed; it may be that the LORD will work for us: for there is no reſtraint to the LORD,* to ſave by many or by few.

b To wit, the Philiſtins.

* 2 Chron. 14. 11.

7 And his armour-bearer ſaid unto him, Do all that is in thine heart: turn thee, behold, [c] I am with thee according to thy heart.

c I will follow thee whitherſoever thou goeſt.

8 Then ſaid Jonathan, Behold, we will paſs over unto theſe men, and we will diſcover our ſelvs unto them.

9 [d] If they ſay thus unto us, † Tarry until we come to you: then we will ſtand ſtill in our place, and will not go up unto them.

d This he ſpake by the ſpirit of propheſie, and ſo much as hereby God gave him aſſurance of the victory.

10 But if they ſay thus, Come up unto us; then we will go up: for * the LORD hath delivered them into our hand; and this ſhall be a ſign unto us.

† Heb. be ſtill
* 1 Mac. 4. 30.

11 And both of them diſcovered themſelvs unto the garriſon of the Philiſtins: and the Philiſtins ſaid, Behold, the Hebrews come forth out of the [e] holes, where they had hid themſelvs.

e Thus they ſpake contemptuouſly, and by deriſion.

12 And the men of the garriſon anſwered Jonathan and his armour-bearer, and ſaid, Come up to us, and we will ſhew you a thing. And Jonathan ſaid unto his armour-bearer, Come up after me; for the LORD hath delivered them into the hand of Iſrael.

13 And Jonathan climbed up upon his [f] hands, and upon his feet, and his armour-bearer after him: and they fell before Jonathan; and his armour-bearer ſlew after him.

f That is, he crept up, or went up with all haſte.

14 And that [g] firſt ſlaughter which Jonathan and his armour-bearer made, was about twenty men, within as it were ‡ an half-acre of land, which a yoke of oxen might plow.

g The ſecond was when they ſlew one another, and the third, when the Iſraelites chaſed them.
‡ Or, half a forrow of an acre of land.

15 And there was trembling in the hoſt, in the field, and among all the people: the garriſon, and the ſpoilers, they alſo trembled, and the [h] earth quaked: ſo it was † a very great trembling.

h In that the inſenſible creatures tremble for fear of Gods judgement, it declareth how terrible his vengeance ſhall be againſt his enemies.
† Heb. a trembling of God.

16 And the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of of Benjamin looked; and behold, the multitude melted away, and they went on beating down one another.

17 Then ſaid Saul unto the people that were with him, Number now, and ſee who is gone from us. And when they had numbred, behold, Jonathan & his armour-bearer were not there.

18 And Saul ſaid unto Ahiah, Bring hither the ark of God: (for the ark of God was at that time with the children of Iſrael)

19 ¶ And it came to paſs while Saul talked unto the prieſt, that the ‡ noiſe that was in the hoſt of the Philiſtins went on, and increaſed: and Saul ſaid unto the prieſt, [i] Withdraw thine hand.

20 And Saul and all the people that were with him, ‡ aſſembled themſelvs, and they came to the battel: and behold, * every mans ſword was againſt his fellow, and there was a very great diſcomfiture.

21 Moreover, the Hebrews that were with the Philiſtins before that time, which went up with them into the camp from the countrey round about, even they alſo turned to be with the [k] Iſraelites, that were with Saul and Jonathan.

22 Likewiſe all the men of Iſrael which had hid themſelvs in mount Ephraim, when they heard that the Philiſtins fled, even they alſo followed hard after them in the battel.

23 So the LORD ſaved Iſrael that day: and the battel paſſed over unto Beth-aven.

24 ¶ And the men of Iſrael were diſtreſſed that day: for Saul had adjured the people, ſaying, [l] Curſed be the man that eateth any food untill evening, that I may be avenged on mine enemies: ſo none of the people taſted any food.

25 And all they of the land came to a wood, and there was honey upon the ground.

26 And when the people were come into the wood, behold, the honey dropped, but no man put his hand to his mouth: for the people [m] feared the oath.

27 But Jonathan heard not when his father charged the people with the oath: wherefore he put forth the end of the rod that was in his hand, and dipt it in an honey-comb, and put his hand to his mouth; and his eyes were [n] enlightened.

28 Then anſwered one of the people, and ſaid, Thy father ſtraitly charged the people with an oath, ſaying, Curſed be the man that eateth any food this day. And the people were ‡ faint.

29 Then ſaid Jonathan, My father hath [o] troubled the land, ſee, I pray you, how mine eyes have been enlightened, becauſe I taſted a little of this honey:

30 How much more, if haply the people had eaten freely to day of the ſpoil of their enemies which they found? for had there not been now a much greater ſlaughter among the Philiſtins?

31 And they ſmote the Philiſtins that day from Michmaſh to Aijalon: and the people were very faint.

32 And the people flew upon the ſpoil, and took ſheep, and oxen, and calvs, and ſlew them on the ground: and the people did eat them * with the blood.

33 ¶ Then they told Saul, ſaying, Behold, the people ſin againſt the LORD, in that they eat with the blood. And he ſaid, Ye have ‡ tranſgreſſed: [p] roll a great ſtone unto me this day.

34 And Saul ſaid, Diſperſe your ſelvs among the people, and ſaid unto them, Bring me hither every man his ox, and every man his ſheep, and ſlay them here, and eat; and ſin not againſt the LORD in eating with the blood. And all the people brought every man his ox † with him that night, and ſlew them there.

35 And Saul built an altar unto the LORD: † the ſame was the firſt altar that he built unto the LORD.

36 ¶ And Saul ſaid, Let us go down after the Philiſtins by night, and ſpoil them untill the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them. And they ſaid, Do whatſoever ſeemeth good unto thee. Then ſaid the prieſt, Let us [q] draw near hither unto God.

37 And Saul asked counſel of God, Shall I go down after the Philiſtins? wilt thou deliver them into the hand of Iſrael? But he anſwered him not that day.

38 And Saul ſaid, Draw ye near hither, all the * † chief of the people: and know and ſee wherein this ſin hath been this day.

39 For as the LORD liveth, which ſaveth Iſrael, though it be in Jonathan my ſon, he ſhall ſurely die. But there was not a man among all the people that anſwered him.

40 Then ſaid he unto all Iſrael, Be ye on one ſide, and I and Jonathan my ſon will be on the other ſide. And the people ſaid unto Saul, Do what ſeemeth good unto thee.

41 Therefore Saul ſaid unto the LORD God of Iſrael, ‡ [r] Give a perfect lot. And Saul & Jonathan were taken: but the people † eſcaped.

42 And Saul ſaid, Caſt lots between me and Jonathan my ſon: and Jonathan was taken:

43 Then Saul ſaid to Jonathan, Tell me what thou haſt done. And Jonathan told him, and ſaid, I did but taſte a little honey with the end of the rod that was in mine hand, and lo, I muſt die.

44 And Saul anſwered, God do ſo, and more alſo: for thou ſhalt ſurely die, Jonathan.

45 And the people ſaid unto Saul, Shall Jonathan die, who hath wrought this great ſalvation in Iſrael? God forbid: as the LORD liveth, there ſhall [s] not one hair of his head fall to the ground: for he hath wrought with God this day. So the people reſcued Jonathan, that he died not.

46 Then Saul went up from following the Philiſtins: and the Philiſtins went to their own place.

7 And Saul ſmote the Amalekites from Havilah, until thou comeſt to Shur, that is over againſt Egypt.

10 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Samuel, ſaying, 11 It e repenteth me that I have ſet up Saul to be king: for he is turned back from following me and hath not performed my commandments. And it grieved Samuel; and he cried unto the LORD all night.

e God in his eternal counſel never changeth nor repenteth, as verſ. 29. though he ſeemeth to us to repent, when any thing goeth contrary to his temporal election.

12 And when Samuel roſe early to meet Saul in the morning, it was told Samuel, ſaying, Saul came to Carmel, and behold, he ſet him up a place, and is gone about, and paſſed on, and gone down to Gilgal.

13 And Samuel came to Saul, and Saul ſaid unto him, Bleſſed be thou of the LORD: I have performed the f commandment of the LORD.

f This is the nature of hypocrites to be impudent againſt the truth, to condemn others, and juſtifie themſelves.

14 And Samuel ſaid, What meaneth then this bleating of the ſheep in mine ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?

15 And Saul ſaid, They have brought them from the Amalekites: for the people ſpared the beſt of the ſheep and of the oxen, to ſacrifice unto the LORD thy God, and the reſt we have utterly deſtroyed.

16 Then Samuel ſaid unto Saul, Stay, and I will tell thee what the LORD hath ſaid to me this night. And he ſaid unto him, Say on.

17 And Samuel ſaid, When thou waſt g little in thine own ſight, waſt thou not made the head of the tribes of Iſrael, and the LORD anointed thee king over Iſrael?

g Meaning, of baſe condition, as Chap. 9. 21.

18 And the LORD ſent thee on a journey, and ſaid, Go, and utterly deſtroy the ſinners, the Amalekites, and fight againſt them untill † they be conſumed.

† Heb. they be conſumed them.

19 Wherefore then didſt thou not obey the voice of the LORD, but didſt fly upon the ſpoil, and didſt evil in the ſight of the LORD?

20 And Saul ſaid unto Samuel, Yea, I have h obeyed the voice of the LORD, and have gone the way which the LORD ſent me, and have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and have utterly deſtroyed the Amalekites.

h He ſtandeth moſt impudently in his own defence both againſt God and his own conſcience.

21 But the people took of the ſpoil, ſheep and oxen, the chief of the things which ſhould have been utterly deſtroyed, to ſacrifice unto the LORD thy God in Gilgal.

22 And Samuel ſaid, Hath the LORD as great delight in burnt-offerings and ſacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, * to obey is better than ſacrifice: and to hearken, than the fat of rams.

* Eccleſ. 5. 1. Hoſ 6. 6. Matth. 9. 13. & 12. 7.

23 For i rebellion is as the ſin of † witchcraft, and ſtubbornneſs is as iniquity and idolatry: becauſe thou haſt rejected the word of the LORD, he hath alſo rejected thee from being king.

i God hateth nothing more than the diſobedience of his commandment, though the intent ſeem never ſo good to man.
† Heb divination,

24 And Saul ſaid unto Samuel, I have ſinned: for I have tranſgreſſed the commandment of the LORD, and thy words: becauſe I feared the people, and obeyed their voice.

25 Now therefore, I pray thee, pardon my k ſin; and turn again with me, that I may worſhip the LORD.

k This was not true repentance, but diſſimulation, fearing the loſs of his kingdom.

26 And Samuel ſaid unto Saul, I will not return with thee: for thou haſt rejected the word word of the LORD, and the LORD hath rejected thee from being king over Israel.

27 And as Samuel turned about to go away, he laid hold upon the skirt of his mantle, and it rent.

28 And Samuel said unto him, The LORD hath rent the kingdom of Israel from thee this day, and hath given it to a[l] neighbour of thine, that is better than thou.

[l] That is, to David.

29 And also the ‡[m] strength of Israel will not lie, nor repent: for he is not a man that he should repent.

30 Then he said, I have sinned; yet honour me now, I pray thee, before the elders of my people, and before Israel, and turn again with me, that I may worship the LORD thy God.

31 So Samuel turned again after Saul, And Saul worshipped the LORD.

32 ¶ Then said Samuel, Bring you hither to me Agag the king of the Amalekites: and Agag came unto him delicately. And Agag said, Surely the bitterness of death is[n] past.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Samuel, sent by God under pretence of a sacrifice, cometh to Beth-lehem. 6 His humane judgement is reproved. 11 He anointeth David. 19 Saul sendeth for David to quiet his evil spirit.

AND the LORD said unto Samuel, How long wilt thou mourn for Saul, [a] seeing I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? fill thine horn with oyl, and go, I will send thee to Jesse the Beth-lehemite: for I have provided me a king among his sons.

[a] Signifying, that we ought not to shew our selvs more pitifull than God, nor to lament them whom he casteth out.

2 And Samuel said, How can I go? if Saul heare it, he will kill me. And the LORD said, Take an heifer † with thee, and say, I am come to [b] sacrifice to the LORD.

4 And Samuel did that which the LORD spake, and came to Beth-lehem: and the elders of the town [c] trembled at his † coming, and said, Comest thou peaceably?

5 And he said, Peaceably: I am come to sacrifice unto the LORD: sanctifie your selvs, and come with me to the sacrifice: and he sanctified Jesse and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice.

6 ¶ And it came to pass when they were come, that he looked on Eliab, and said, Surely the LORDS [d] anointed is before him.

[d] Thinking, that Eliab had been appointed of God to be made King.

7 But the LORD said unto Samuel, Look not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have refused him: for the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the † outward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the * heart.

10 Again, Jesse made seven of his sons to pass before Samuel: and Samuel said unto Jesse, The LORD hath not chosen these.

11 And Samuel said unto Jesse, Are here all thy children? And he said, There remaineth yet the youngest, and behold, he keepeth the sheep. And Samuel said unto Jesse, * Send and fetch him; for we will not sit † down till he come hither.

† Heb. fair of eyes.

13 Then Samuel took the horn of oyl, and anointed him in the midst of his brethren: and the spirit of the LORD came upon David, from that day forward: so Samuel rose up and went to Ramah.

14 ¶ But the spirit of the LORD departed from Saul, and an evil [e] spirit from the LORD ‡ troubled him.

[e] The wicked spirits are at Gods commandment to execute his will against the wicked.
‡ Or, terrified

15 And Sauls servants said unto him, Behold now, an evil spirit from God troubleth thee.

16 Let our lord now command thy servants which are before thee, to seek out a man who is a cunning player on an harp: and it shall come to pass when the evil spirit from God is upon thee, that he shall play with his hand, and thou shalt be well.

17 And Saul said unto his servants, Provide me now a man that can play well, and bring him to me.

18 Then answered one of the servants, and said, Behold, I have seen a [f] son of Jesse the Beth-lehemite, that is cunning in playing, and a mighty valiant man, and a man of war, and prudent in ‡ matters, and a comely person, and the LORD is with him.

[f] Though David was now anointed king by the prophet, yet God would exercise him in sundry sorts before he had the use of his kingdom.
‡ Or, speech,

19 ¶ Wherefore Saul sent messengers unto Jesse, and said, Send me David thy son, which is with the sheep.

20 And Jesse took an ass laden with bread, and a bottle of wine, and a kid, and sent them by David his son unto Saul.

21 And David came to Saul, and stood before him; and he loved him greatly, and he became his armour-bearer.

22 And Saul sent to Jesse, saying, Let David, I pray thee, stand before me: for he hath found favour in my sight.

23 And it came to pass, when the evil spirit from God was upon Saul, that David took an harp, and played with his hand: so Saul was [g] refreshed, and was well, and the evil spirit de parted from him.

[g] God would that Saul should receive this benefit as at Davids hand, that his condemnation might be the more evident, for his cruel hatred toward him.

CHAP. XVII.

1 The armies of the Iſraelites and Philiſtins being ready to battel, 4 Goliah cometh proudly forth to challenge a combat. 12 David ſent by his father to viſit his brethren, taketh the callenge. 28 Eliab chideth him. 30 He is brought to Saul. 32 He ſheweth the reaſon of his confidence. 38 Without armour, armed by faith, he ſlayeth the giant. 55 Saul taketh notice of David.

NOw the Philiſtins gathered together their armies to battel, and were gathered together at Shochoh, which belongeth to Judah, and pitched between Shochoh and Azekah, in ‡ Ephes-dammim.

‡ Or, the coaſt of Dammim.

2 And Saul and the men of Iſrael were gathered together, and pitched by the valley of Elah, and † ſet the battel in aray againſt the Philiſtins.

† Heb. ranged the battel.

3 And the Philiſtins ſtood on a mountain on the one ſide, and Iſrael ſtood on a mountain on the other ſide: and there was a valley between them.

4 ¶ And there went out a champion [a] out of the camp of the Philiſtins, named Goliath, of Gath, whoſe height was ſix cubits and a ſpan.

a Between the two camps.

5 And he had an helmet of braſs upon his head, and he was † armed with a coat of mail: and the weight of the coat was five thouſand [b] ſhekels of braſs.

† Heb. clothed

6 And he had greaves of braſs upon his legs, and a ‡ target of braſs between his ſhoulders.

‡ Or, gorget

7 And the ſtaff of his ſpear was like a weavers bean, and his ſpears head weighed ſix hundred ſhekels of iron: and one bearing a ſhield, went before him.

8 And he ſtood and cried unto the armies of Iſrael, and ſaid unto them, Why are ye come out to ſet your battel in aray? am not I a Philiſtin, and you ſervants to Saul? chooſe you a man for you, and let him come down to me.

9 If he be able to fight with me, and to kill me, then will we be your ſervants: but if I prevail, againſt him, and kill him, then ſhall ye be our ſervants, and ſerve us.

10 And the Philiſtin ſaid, I defie the armies of Iſrael this day: give me a man, that we may fight together.

11 When Saul and all Iſrael heard thoſe words of the Philiſtin, they were diſmaied, and greatly afraid.

* Chap. 16. 1.

12 ¶ Now David was * the ſon of that Ephrathite of Beth-lehem-judah, whoſe name was Jeſſe, and he had eight ſons: and the man went among men for an old man in the days of Saul.

13 And the three eldeſt ſons of Jeſſe went, and followed Saul to the battel: and the names of his three ſons that went to the battel, were Eliab the firſt-born, and next unto him Abinadab, and the third Shammah.

14 And David was the youngeſt: and the three eldeſt followed Saul.

‡ To ſerve Saul, as Chap. 16. 19.

15 But David [c] went, and returned from Saul, to feed his fathers ſheep at Beth-lehem.

16 And the Philiſtin drew near, morning and evening, and preſented himſelf forty days.

17 And Jeſſe ſaid unto David his ſon, [d] Take now for thy brethren an ephah of this parched corn, and theſe ten loavs, and run to the camp to thy brethren.

d Though Jeſſe meant one thing, yet Gods providence directed David to another end.

18 And carry theſe then † cheeſes unto the † captain of their thouſand, and look how thy brethren fare, and take their [e] pledge.

19 Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Iſrael were in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philiſtins.

20 ¶ And David roſe up early in the morning, and left the ſheep with a keeper, and took, and went as Jeſſe had commanded him; and he came to the ‡ trench, as the hoſt was going forth to the ‡ fight, and ſhouted for the battel.

f As are above rehearſed, verſ. 1. & 9.

24 And all the men of Iſrael, when they ſaw the man, fled † from him, and were ſore afraid.

26 And David ſpake to the men that ſtood by him, ſaying, What ſhall be done to the man that killeth this Philiſtin, and taketh away the [h] reproach from Iſrael? for who is this uncircumciſed Philiſtin, that he ſhould defie the armies of the living God?

h This diſhonor that he doth to Iſrael.

27 And the people anſwered him after this manner, ſaying, So ſhall it be done to the man that killeth him.

28 ¶ And Eliab his eldeſt brother heard when he ſpake unto the men, and Eliabs anger was kindled againſt David, and he ſaid, Why cameſt thou down hither? and with whom haſt thou left thoſe few ſheep in the wilderneſs? I know thy pride, and the naughtineſs of thine heart; for thou art come down, that thou mighteſt ſee the battel.

29 And David ſaid, What have I now done? Is there not a [i] cauſe?

i For his fathers ſending was a juſt occaſion, and alſo he felt himſelf inwardly moved by Gods Spirit.

30 ¶ And he turned from him towards another, and ſpake after the ſame † manner: and the people anſwered him again after the former manner.

† Heb. word:

31 And when the words were heard which David ſpake, they rehearſed them before Saul: and he † ſent for him.

32 ¶ And David ſaid to Saul, Let no mans heart fail becauſe of him; thy ſervant will go and fight with this Philiſtin.

33 And Saul ſaid to David, Thou art [k] not able to go againſt this Philiſtin, to fight with him:

k Here Satan proveth Davids faith, by the infidelity of Saul.

him : for thou art but a youth, and he a man of war from his youth.

34 And David said unto Saul, Thy servant kept his fathers sheep, and there came a lion, and a bear, and took a ‡ lamb out of the flock:

l David by the experience that he hath had in time past of Gods help, nothing doubteth to overcome this danger, seeing he was zealous for Gods honour.
‡ Or, kid

35 And I went out after him, and smote him, and delivered it out of his mouth : and when he arose against me, I caught him by his beard, and smote him, and slew him.

36 Thy servant slew both the lion and the bear : and this uncircumcised Philistin shall be as one of them, seeing he hath defied the armies of the living God.

37 David said moreover, The LORD that delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, he will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistin. And Saul said unto David, [m] Go, and the LORD be with thee.

m For by these examples, he saw that the power of God was with him.

38 ¶ And Saul † armed David with his armour, and he put an helmet of brass upon his head, also he armed him with a coat of mail.
† Heb. clothed, &c. with his clothes,

39 And David girded his sword upon his armour, and he assayed to go, for he had not proved it: and David said unto Saul, I cannot go with these : for I have not proved them. And David put them off him.

n To the intent that by these weak means, God might onely be known to be the author of this victory.

40 And he took his [n] staff in his hand, and chose him five smooth stones out of the ‡ brook, and put them in a shepherds † bag which he had, even in a scrip, and his sling was in his hand, and he drew near to the Philistin.
‡ Or, valley,
† Heb vessel.

41 And the Philistin came on and drew near unto David, and the man that bare the shield went before him.

42 And when the Philistin looked about and saw David, he disdained him : for he was but a youth, and ruddy, and of a fair countenance.

43 And the Philistin said unto David, Am I a dog, that thou comest to me with staves? and the Philistin [o] cursed David by his gods.

o He sware by his gods that he would destroy him

44 And the Philistin said to David, Come to me, and I will give thy flesh unto the fowls of the air, and to the beasts of the field.

45 Then said David to the Philistin, Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a shield; but I come to thee in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom thou hast defied.

p David being assured both of his cause and of his calling, prophesieth of the destruction of the Philistins.
† Heb. shut thee up

46 This [p] day will the LORD † deliver thee into mine hand, and I will smite thee, and take thine head from thee, and I will give the carcases of the host of the Philistins this day unto the fowls of the air, and to the wilde beasts of the earth; that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel.

47 And all this assembly shall know that the LORD saveth not with sword and spear: for the battel is the LORDS, and he will give you into our hands.

p Being moved with a fervent zeal to be revenged upon this blasphemer of Gods name.

48 And it came to pass when the Philistin arose, and came, and drew nigh to meet David, that David [q] hasted, and ran toward the army to meet the Philistin.

49 And David put his hand in his bag, and took thence a stone, and slang it, and smote the Philistin in his forehead, that the stone sunk into his forehead, and he fell upon his face to the earth.

50 So * David prevailed over the Philistin with a sling and with a stone, and smote the Philistin, and slew him; but there was no sword in the hand of David.
* Eccles. 47. 4.

51 Therefore David ran and stood upon the Philistin, and took his sword, and drew it out of the sheath thereof, and slew him, and cut off his head therewith. And when the Philistins saw their champion was dead, they fled.

52 And the men of Israel and of Judah arose, and shouted, and pursued the Philistins, untill thou come to the valley, and to the gates of Ekron : and the wounded of the Philistins fell down by the way to Shaaraim, even unto Gath, and unto Ekron.

53 And the children of Israel returned from chasing after the Philistins, and they spoiled their tents.

54 And David took the head of the Philistin, and brought it to Jerusalem; but he put his armour in his tent.

55 ¶ And when Saul saw David go forth against the Philistin, he said unto Abner the captain of the host, Abner, whose [r] son is this youth? And Abner said, As thy soul liveth, O king, I cannot tell.

r That is, of what family and tribe is he? or else he had forgotten David, albeit he had received so great a benefit by him.

56 And the king said, Enquire thou whose son the stripling is.

57 And as David returned from the slaughter of the Philistin, Abner took him and brought him before Saul, with the head of the Philistin in his hand.

58 And Saul said unto him, Whose son art thou, thou young man? And David answered, I am the son of thy servant Jesse the Bethlehemite.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 Jonathan loveth David. 5 Saul envieth his praise, 10 seeketh to kill him in his fury, 12 feareth him for his good success, 17 offereth him his daughter for a snare. 22 David perswaded to be the kings son in law, giveth two hundred fore-skins of the Philistins for Michals dowry. 28 Sauls hatred, and Davids glory increaseth.

AND it came to pass when he had made an end of speaking unto Saul, that the [a] soul of Jonathan was knit with the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as his own soul.
a His affection was fully bent toward him.

2 And Saul took him that day, and would let him go no more home to his fathers house.

3 Then Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul.

4 And Jonathan stript himself of the robe that was upon him, and gave it to David, and his garments, even to his sword, and to his bow, and to his girdle.

5 ¶ And David went out whithersoever Saul sent him, and ‡ behaved himself [b] wisely : and Saul set him over the men of war, and he was accepted in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Sauls servants.
‡ Or, prospered
b That is, he prospered in all his doings.

6 And

6 And it came to pass, as they came when David was returned from the slaughter of the ‡ [c] Philistin, that the women came out of all the cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet king Saul, with tabrets, with joy, and with † instruments of musick.

‡ Or, Philistins, [c] To wit, Goliath,

† Heb. three-stringed instruments.

7 And the women answered one another as they played, and said, * Saul hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands.

* Chap. 12. 11. & 29. 5. Eccles. 47. 6.

8 And Saul was very wroth, and the saying † displeased him; and he said, They have ascribed unto David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed but thousands; and what can he have more but the kingdom?

† Heb. was evil in his eyes;

9 And Saul [d] eyed David from that day and forward.

[d] Because he bare him envie and hatred.

10 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow that the evil spirit from God came upon Saul, and he [e] prophesied in the midst of the house, and David played with his hand, as at other times: and there was a javelin in Sauls hand.

[e] That is, spake as a man beside himself: for so the people abused this word, when they could not understand.

11 And Saul cast the javelin; for he said, I will smite David even to the wall with it: and David avoided out of his presence twice.

12 ¶ And Saul was afraid of David, because the LORD was with him, and was departed from Saul.

13 Therefore Saul removed him from him, and made him his captain over a thousand; & he [f] went out and came in before the people.

[f] Meaning, he was captain over the people.

14 And David ‡ behaved himself wisely in all his ways; and the LORD was with him.

‡ Or, prospered

15 Wherefore when Saul saw that he behaved himself very wisely, he was afraid of him.

16 But all Israel and Judah loved David, because he went out and came in before them.

17 ¶ And Saul said to David, Behold, my elder daughter Merab, her will I give thee to wife: onely be thou † valiant for me, and [g] fight the LORDS battels: for Saul said, Let not mine hand be upon him, but let the hand of the Philistins be upon him.

† Heb. a son of valour.

[g] Fight against them that was against Gods people.

18 And David said unto Saul, Who am I? and what is my life, or my fathers family in Israel, that I should be son in law to the king?

19 But it came to pass at the time when Merab Sauls daughter should have been given to David, that [h] she was given unto Adriel the Meholathite to wife.

[h] By whom he had five sons, which David put to death at the request of the Gibeonites, 2 Sam. 21. 8.

20 And Michal Sauls daughter loved David: and they told Saul, and the thing ‡ pleased him.

† Heb. was right in his eyes.

21 And Saul said, I will give him her, that she may be a [i] snare to him, and that the hand of the Philistins may be against him. Wherefore Saul said to David, Thou shalt this day be my son in law, in the one of the twain.

[i] So his hypocrisie appeareth: for under pretence of favour he sought his destruction.

22 ¶ And Saul commanded his servants, saying, Commune with David secretly, and say, Behold, the king hath delight in thee, and all his servants love thee: now therefore be the kings son in law.

23 And Sauls servants spake those words in the ears of David: and David said, [k] Seemeth it to you a light thing to be a kings son in law, seeing that I am a poor man, and lightly esteemed?

[k] Meaning, that he was not able to endow his wife with riches.

24 And the servants of Saul told him, saying, † On this manner spake David.

† Heb. according to these words.

25 And Saul said, Thus shall ye say to David, The king desireth not any dowry; but an hundred foreskins of the Philistins, to be avenged of the kings enemies. But Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistins.

26 And when his servants told David these words, it pleased David well to be the [l] kings son in law: and the days were not † expired.

† Heb. fulfilled.

27 Wherefore David arose and went, he and his men, and slew of the Philistins two hundred men; and David brought their foreskins, and [m] they gave them in full tale to the king, that he might be the kings son in law: and Saul gave him Michal his daughter to wife.

[m] Meaning David and his souldiers.

28 ¶ And Saul saw and knew that the LORD was with David, and that Michal Sauls daughter loved him.

29 And Saul was yet the more [n] afraid of David; and Saul became Davids enemy continually.

[n] To be deprived of his kingdom.

30 Then the princes of the Philistins went forth: and it came to pass after they went forth, that David behaved himself [o] more wisely than all the servants of Saul, so that his name was much † set by.

[o] That is, David had better success against the Philistins than Sauls men.

CHAP. XIX.

1 Jonathan discloseth his fathers purpose to kill David. 4 He perswadeth his father to reconciliation. 8 By reason of Davids good success in a new war, Sauls malitious rage breaketh out against him. 12 Michal deceiveth her father with an image in Davids bed. 18 David cometh to Samuel in Naioth. 20 Sauls messengers sent to take David, 22 and Saul himself, prophesy.

AND Saul spake to Jonathan his son, and to all his servants, that they should [a] kill David.

[a] Before Saul sought Davids life secretly, but now his hypocrisy bursteth forth to open cruelty.

2 But Jonathan Sauls son delighted much in David: and Jonathan told David, saying, Saul my father seeketh to kill thee: now therefore, I pray thee, take heed to thy self until the morning, and abide in a secret place, and hide thy self.

3 And I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where thou [b] art, and I will commune with my father of thee; and what I see, that I will tell thee.

[b] That I may give thee warning what to do.

4 ¶ And Jonathan spake good of David unto Saul his father, and said unto him, Let not the king sin against his servant, against David: because he hath not sinned against thee, and because his works have been to thee-ward very good.

5 For he did put his * life in his hand, and slew the Philistin, and the LORD wrought a great salvation for all Israel: thou sawest it, and didst rejoyce; wherefore then wilt thou sin against innocent blood, to slay David without a cause?

* Judges 9. 17. & 12. 3. Chap. 28. 21. ‖ Psal. 119. 109.

6 And Saul hearkened unto the voice of Jonathan: and Saul [c] sware, As the LORD liveth he shall not be slain.

[c] whatsoever he pretended outwardly, yet his heart was full of malice.

7 And Jonathan called David, and Jonathan than ſhewed him all thoſe things: and Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his preſence, as † in times paſt.

† Heb. yeſterday third day.

8 And there was war again: and David went out, and fought with the Philiſtines, and ſlew them with a great ſlaughter; and they fled from † him.

9 And the evil ſpirit from the LORD was upon Saul, as he ſat in his houſe with his javelin in his hand: and David [d] played with his hand.

d He played on his harp to mitigate the rage of the evil ſpirit, as Chap. 16. 23.

10 And Saul ſought to ſmite David even to the wall with the javelin; but he ſlipt away out of Sauls preſence, and he ſmote the javelin into the wall: and David fled, and eſcaped that night.

11 Saul alſo ſent meſſengers unto Davids houſe, to watch him, and to ſlay him in the morning: and Michal Davids wife told him, ſaying, If thou ſave not thy life to night, to morrow thou ſhalt be ſlain.

e Thus God moved both the ſon and daughter of this tyrant to favour David againſt their father.

12 ¶ So Michal [e] let David down through a window: and he went and fled, and eſcaped.

13 And Michal took an image, and laid it in the bed, and put a pillow of goats hair for his bolſter, and covered it with a cloth.

14 And when Saul ſent meſſengers to take David, ſhe ſaid, He is ſick.

15 And Saul ſent the meſſengers again to ſee David, ſaying, Bring him up to me in the [f] bed, that I may ſlay him.

f Behold, how the tyrants to accompliſh their rage, neither regard oath nor friendſhip, God nor man.

16 And when the meſſengers were come in, behold, there was an image in the bed, with a pillow of goats hair for his bolſter.

17 And Saul ſaid unto Michal, Why haſt thou deceived me ſo, and ſent away mine enemy, that he is eſcaped? And Michal anſwered Saul, He ſaid unto me, Let me go; why ſhould I kill thee?

18 ¶ So David fled, and eſcaped, and came to Samuel to Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him: and he and Samuel went and dwelt in [g] Naioth.

g Naioth was a ſchool where the word of God was ſtudied, near to Ramah.

19 And it was told Saul, ſaying, Behold, David is at Naioth in Ramah.

20 And Saul ſent Meſſengers to take David: and when they ſaw the company of the prophets propheſying, and Samuel ſtanding [h] as appointed over them, the ſpirit of God was upon the meſſengers of Saul, and they alſo [i] propheſied.

h Being their chief inſtructer.

i Changed their minds and prayſed God.

21 And when it was told Saul, he ſent other meſſengers, and they propheſied likewiſe: and Saul ſent meſſengers again the third time, and they propheſied alſo.

22 Then went he alſo to Ramah, and came to a great well that is in Sechu: and he asked and ſaid, Where are Samuel and David? And one ſaid, Behold, they be at Naioth in Ramah.

k with a mind to perſecute them.

23 And he [k] went thither to Naioth in Ramah: and the ſpirit of God was upon him alſo, and he went on and propheſied, until he came to Naioth in Ramah:

l His kingly apparel.
m He humbled himſelf as others did.

24 And he ſtript off his [l] clothes alſo, and propheſied before Samuel in like manner, and † [m] lay down naked all that day, and all that night. Wherefore they ſay, * Is Saul alſo among the prophets? 241 Chap. 10. 11.

CHAP. XX.

1 David conſulteth with Jonathan for his ſafety. 11 Jonathan and David renew their covenant by oath 18 Jonathans token to David. 24 Saul miſſing David, ſeeketh to kill Jonathan. 35 Jonathan lovingly taketh his leave of David.

AND David [a] fled from Naioth in Ramah, and came and ſaid before Jonathan, What have I done? what is mine iniquity? and what is my ſin before thy father, that he ſeeketh my life?

a For Saul was ſtayed, and propheſied a day and a night, by Gods providence that David might have time to eſcape.

2 And he ſaid unto him, God forbid; thou ſhalt not die: behold, my father will do nothing either great or ſmall, but that he will † ſhew it me: and why ſhould my father hide this thing from me? it is not ſo.

† Heb. uncover mine ear.

3 And David ſware moreover, and ſaid, Thy father certainly knoweth that I have found grace in thine eyes; and he ſaith, Let not Jonathan know this, leaſt he be grieved: but truly as the LORD liveth, and as thy ſoul liveth, there is but a [b] ſtep between me and death.

b I am in great danger of death.

4 Then ſaid Jonathan unto David, ‡ Whatſoever thy ſoul † deſireth, I will even do it for thee.

‡ Or, Say what is thy mind, and I will do, &c.
† Heb. ſpeaketh, or, thinketh.

5 And David ſaid unto Jonathan, Behold, to morrow is the [c] new-moon, and I ſhould not fail to ſit with the king at meat: but let me go, that I may hide my ſelf in the field unto the third day at even.

c At what time there ſhould be a ſolemn ſacrifice, Num. 28. 11. to the which they added peace-offerings and feaſts.

6 If thy father at all miſs me, then ſay, David earneſtly asked leave of me, that he might run to Beth-lehem his city: for there is a [d] yearly ‡ ſacrifice there for all the family.

d Read Chap. 1. 21.

7 If he ſay thus, It is well; thy ſervant ſhall have peace: but if he be very wroth, then be ſure that evil is determined by him.

8 Therefore thou ſhalt deal kindly with thy ſervant; for * thou haſt brought thy ſervant into a covenant of the LORD with thee: notwithſtanding, if there be in me iniquity, ſlay me thy ſelf; for why ſhouldſt thou bring me to thy father?

* Chap. 18. 3. & 23. 18.

9 And Jonathan ſaid, Far be it from thee: for if I knew certainly, that evil were [e] determined by my father to come upon thee, then would not I tell it thee?

e That he were fully determined.

10 Then ſaid David to Jonathan, [f] Who ſhall tell me? or what if thy father anſwer thee roughly?

f If thy father do favour me.

11 ¶ And Jonathan ſaid unto David, Come, and let us go out into the field. And they went out both of them into the field.

12 And Jonathan ſaid unto David, O LORD God of Iſrael, when I have † ſounded my father, about to morrow any time, or the third day, and behold, if there be good toward David, & I then ſend not unto thee, and † ſhew it thee;

† Heb. uncover thine ear.

13 The LORD [g] do ſo and much more to Jonathan: but if it pleaſe my father to do thee evil, then I will ſhew it thee, & ſend thee away, that thou mayeſt go in peace: and the LORD be with thee, as he hath been with my father.

g The Lord puniſh me moſt grievouſly.

14 And thou shalt not only, while yet [h] I live, shew me the kindness of the LORD, that I die not:

15 But also thou shalt not cut off thy kindness from my house for ever: no not when the LORD hath cut off the enemies of David, every one from the face of the earth.

16 So Jonathan † made a covenant with the house of David, saying, Let the LORD even require it at the hand of Davids enemies.

17 And Jonathan caused David to swear again, ‡ because he loved him: for he loved him as he loved his own soul.

18 Then Jonathan said to David, To morrow is the new-moon: and thou shalt be missed, because thy seat will be † empty.

19 And when thou hast stayed three days, then thou shalt go down ‡ † quickly, and come to the place where thou didst hide thy self, † when the business was in hand, and shalt remain by the stone ‡ Ezel.

20 And I will shoot three arrows on the side thereof, as though I shot at a mark.

21 And behold, I will send a lad, saying, Go; find out the arrows. If I expressly say unto the lad, Behold, the arrows are on this side of thee, take them; then come thou: for there is peace to thee, and † no hurt; as the LORD liveth.

22 But if I say thus unto the young man, Behold, the arrows are beyond thee: go thy way, for the [i] LORD hath sent thee away.

23 And as touching the matter which thou and I have spoken of, behold, the LORD be between thee and me for ever.

24 ¶ So David hid himself in the field: and when the new-moon was come, the king sat him down to eat meat.

25 And the king sat upon his seat, as at other times, even upon a seat by the wall: and Jonathan arose, and Abner sat by Sauls side, and Davids place was empty.

26 Nevertheless, Saul spake not any thing that day: for he thought, Some thing hath befallen him, he is [k] not clean; surely he is not clean.

27 And it came to pass on the morrow, which was the second day of the month, that Davids place was empty: and Saul said unto Jonathan his son, Wherefore cometh not the son of [l] Jesse to meat, neither yesterday nor to day?

28 And Jonathan answered Saul, David earnestly asked leave of me, to go to Bethlehem.

29 And he said, Let me go, I pray thee, for our family hath a [m] sacrifice in the city, and my brother, he hath commanded me to be there; and now if I have found favour in thine eyes, let me get away, I pray thee, and see my [n] brethren: Therefore he cometh not unto the kings table.

30 Then Sauls anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said unto him, ‡ † Thou [o] son of the perverse rebellious woman, do not I know that thou hast chosen the son of Jesse tothine own confusion, and unto the confusion of thy mothers nakedness?

31 For as long as the son of Jesse liveth upon the ground, thou shalt not be established, nor thy kingdom: wherefore now send and fetch him unto me, for he † shall surely die.

32 And Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said unto him, [p] Wherefore shall he be slain? what hath he done?

33 And Saul cast a javelin at him to smite him: whereby Jonathan knew that it was determined of his father to slay David.

34 So Jonathan arose from the table in fierce anger, and did eat no meat the second day of the month: for he was grieved for David, because his father had done him shame.

35 ¶ And it came to pass in the morning, that Jonathan went out into the field, [q] at the time appointed with David, and a little lad with him.

36 And he said unto his lad, Run, find out now the arrows which I shoot. And as the lad ran, he shot an arrow † beyond him.

37 And when the lad was come to the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried after the lad, and said, Is not the arrow beyond thee?

38 And Jonathan cried after the lad, [r] Make speed, haste, stay not. And Jonathans lad gathered up the arrows, and came to his master.

39 But the lad knew not any thing: onely Jonathan and David knew the matter.

40 And Jonathan gave his † artillery unto † his lad, and said unto him, Go, carry them to the city.

41 ¶ And assoon as the lad was gone, David arose out of a place toward the [s] south, and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed himself three times: and they kissed one another, and wept one with another, until David exceeded.

42 And Jonathan said to David, go in peace, ‡ forasmuch as we have [t] sworn both of us in the name of the LORD, saying, The LORD be between me and thee, and between my seed and thy seed for ever. And he arose and departed: and Jonathan went into the city.

h I know that if thou wast now preferred to the kingdom, thou wouldst not destroy me, but I pray thee shew thy self friendly to my posterity.

CHAP. XXI.

1 David at Nob obtaineth of Ahimelech hallowed bread.
7 Doeg was present. 8 David taketh Goliaths sword.
10 David at Gath feigneth himself mad.

THen came David to [a] Nob, to Ahimelech the priest: and Ahimelech was afraid at the meeting of David, and said unto him, Why art thou alone, and no man with thee?

2 And David said unto Ahimelech the priest, The [b] king hath commanded me a business, & hath said unto me, Let no man know any thing of the business whereabout I send thee, and what I have commanded thee: and I have appointed my servants to such and such a place.

3 Now therefore what is under thine hand? give me five loaves of bread in mine hand, or what there is † present.

a where the ark then was, to ask counsel of the Lord.

b These infirmities that we see in the saints of God, teach us, that none hath his justice in himself but receiveth it of Gods mercy.

4 And

4 And the priest answered David, and said There is no common bread under mine hand, but there is * hallowed bread; if the young men have kept themselves at least from [c] women.

* Exod. 25. 30. Lev. 24. 5. Mat. 12. 4. c If they have not companied with their wives.

5 And David answered the priest, and said unto him, Of a truth, women have been kept from us about these three days, since I came out, and the [d] vessels of the young men are holy, and the bread is in a manner common, ‡ yea, though it were [e] sanctified this day in the vessel.

d That is, Their bodies.
‡ Or, especially when this day there is other sanctified in the vessel.
e Shall be more careful to keep his vessel holy, when he shall have eaten of this holy food.

6 So the priest gave him hallowed bread; for there was no bread there, but the shewbread that was taken from before the LORD, to put hot bread in the day when it was taken away.

7 Now a certain man of the servants of Saul, was there that day, [f] detained before the LORD; and his name was Doeg an Edomite, the chiefest of the herd-men that belonged to Saul.

f Tarrying to worship before the ark.

8 ¶ And David said unto Ahimelech, And is there not here under thine hand spear or sword? for I have neither brought my sword, nor my weapons with me, because the kings business required haste.

9 And the priest said, The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom thou slewest in the valley of Elah, behold, it is here wrapt in a cloth behind the [g] ephod: if thou wilt take that, take it: for there is no other save that, here. And David said, There is none like that, give it me.

* Chap. 17. 2.
g Behind that place where the high priests garments lay.

10 ¶ And David arose, and [h] fled that day for fear of Saul, and went to Achish the king of Gath.

h That is, Out of Sauls dominion.

11 And the servants of Achish said unto him, Is not this David the king of the land? did they not sing one to another of him in dances, saying, * Saul hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands?

* Chap. 18. 7. & 29. 5.

12 And David laid up these words in his heart, and was sore afraid of Achish the king of Gath.

13 And he changed his behaviour before them, and feigned himself mad in their hands, and ‡ [i] scrabbled on the doors of the gate, and let his spittle fall down upon his beard.

14 Then said Achish unto his servants, Lo, you see the man ‡ is mad: wherefore then have ye brought him to me?

‡ Or, playeth the mad-man.

15 Have I need of mad-men, that ye have brought this fellow to play the mad-man in my presence? shall this fellow [k] come into my house?

CHAP. XXII.

1 Companies resort unto David at Adullam. 3 At Mizpeh he commendeth his parents unto the king of Moab. 5 Admonished by Gad, he cometh to Hareth. 6 Saul going to pursue him, complaineth of his servants unfaithfulness. 9 Doeg accuseth Ahimelech. 11 Saul commandeth to kill the priests. 17 The footmen refusing, Doeg executeth it. 20 Abiathar escaping, bringeth David the news.

DAvid therefore departed thence, and escaped to the cave [a] Adullam: and when his brethren, and all his fathers house heard it, they went down thither to him.

a which was in the tribe of Judah and neer to Bethlehem.

2 And every one that was in distress, and every one that † was in debt, and every one that was † discontented, gathered themselves unto him, and he became a captain over them: and there were with him about four hundred men.

† Heb. had a creditour.
† Heb. bitter of soul.

3 ¶ And David went thence to Mizpeh of [b] Moab: and he said unto the king of Moab, Let my father and my mother, I pray thee, come forth, and be with you, till I know what God will do for me.

b For there was another so called in Judah.

4 And he brought [c] them before the king of Moab: and they dwelt with him all the while that David was in the [d] hold.

c For he feared the rage of Saul against his house. d That is, In Mizpeh, which was a strong hold.

5 ¶ And the prophet Gad said unto David, Abide not in the hold, depart, and get thee into the land of Judah. Then David departed, and came into the forest of Hareth.

6 ¶ When Saul heard that David was [e] discovered, and the men that were with him, (now Saul abode in Gibeah under a ‡ tree in Ramah, having his spear in his hand, and all his servants were standing about him)

e That is, A great bruit went on him.
‡ Or, grove in a high place.

7 Then Saul said unto his servants that stood about him, Hear now, ye [f] Benjamites, Will the son of Jesse give every one of you fields, and vineyards, and make you all captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds:

f Ye that are of my tribe and linage.

8 That all of you have conspired against me, and there is none that † sheweth me that my son hath made a league with the son of Jesse, and there is none of you that is sory for me, or sheweth unto me that my [g] son hath stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?

g Hereby he would perswade them that this conspiracy was most horrible where the son conspired against the father, and the servant against his master.

9 ¶ Then answered Doeg the Edomite, (which was set over the servants of Saul) and said, I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub.

10 And he enquired of the LORD for him: and gave him victuals, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine.

11 Then the king sent to call Ahimelech the priest the son of Ahitub, and all his fathers house, the [h] priests that were in Nob: and they came all of them to the king.

h which were the remnant of the house of Eli, whose house God thereatned to punish.

12 And Saul said, Hear now, thou son of Ahitub: & he answered, † Here I am, my lord, † Heb. behold me.

13 And Saul said unto him, Why have ye conspired against me, thou and the son of Jesse, in that thou hast given him bread, and a sword, & hast enquired of God for him, that he should rise against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?

14 Then Ahimelech answered the king and said, And who is so faithful among all thy servants, as David, which is the kings son in law, and goeth at thy bidding, and is honourable in thine house?

15 Did I then [i] begin to enquire of God for him? be it far from me: let not the king impute any thing unto his servant, nor to all the house of my father: for thy servant knew nothing of all this, † less or more.

i Have I not at other times also, when he had great affairs, consulted with the Lord for him?

16 And the king said, Thou shalt surely die, Ahimelech, thou, and all thy fathers house.

‡ Or, guard. † Heb. runners.

17 ¶ And the king said unto the ‡† footmen that stood about him, Turn and slay the priests of the LORD; because their hand also is with David, and because they knew when he fled, and did not shew it to me. But the servants of the king would [k] not put forth their hand to fall upon the priests of the LORD.

k For they knew that they ought not to obey the wicked commandment of the king in slaying the innocent.

18 And the king said to Doeg, Turn thou and fall upon the priests. And Doeg the Edomite turned, and he fell upon the priests, and slew on that day fourescore and five persons that did wear a linen ephod.

19 And Nob, the city of the priests, smote he with the edge of the sword, both men and women, children and sucklings, and oxen and asses, and sheep, with the edge of the sword.

20 ¶ And one of the sons of Ahimelech, the son of Ahitub, named Abiathar, [l] escaped and fled after David.

l This was Gods providence, who according to his promise preserveth some of the house of Eli, Chap. 2. 33.

21 And Abiathar shewed David, that Saul had slain the LORDS priests.

22 And David said unto Abiathar, I knew it that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul; I have occasioned the death of all the persons of thy fathers house.

23 Abide thou with me, fear not: for he that seeketh my life, seeketh thy life: but with me thou shalt be in safeguard.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 David enquiring of the Lord by Abiathar, rescueth Keilah. 7 God shewing him the coming of Saul, and the treachery of the Keilites, he escapeth from Keilah. 14 In Ziph Jonathan cometh and comforteth him. 19 The Ziphites discover him to Saul. 25 At Maon he is rescued from Saul by the invasion of the Philistines. 29 He dwelleth at En-gedi.

THen they told David, saying, Behold, the Philistines fight against [a] Keilah, and they rob the treshing-floors.

a which was a city in the tribe of Judah, Josh. 15. 44.

2 Therefore David enquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go and smite these Philistines? And the LORD said unto David, Go, and smite the Philistines, and save Keilah.

3 And Davids men said unto him, Behold, we be afraid here in [b] Judah: how much more then if we come to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines?

b That is, In the midst of Judah, much more when we come to the borders against our enemies.

4 Then David enquired of the LORD yet again. And the LORD answered him and said, Arise, go down to Keilah; for I will deliver the Philistines into thine hand.

5 So David and his men went to Keilah, and fought with the Philistines, and brought away their cattel, and smote them with a great slaughter: so David saved the inhabitants of Keilah.

6 And it came to pass when Abiathar the son of Ahimelech * fled to David to Keilah, that he came down with an [c] ephod in his hand.

* Chap. 22. 20.

c By Gods providence the ephod was preserved and kept with David the true king.

7 ¶ And it was told Saul that David was come to Keilah: and Saul said, God hath delivered him into mine hand; for he is shut in by entring into a town that hath gates and bars.

8 And Saul called all the people together to war, to go down to Keilah, to besiege David and his men.

9 ¶ And David knew that Saul secretly practised mischief against him; and he said to Abiathar the priest, Bring hither the [d] ephod.

d To consult with the Lord by Urim and Thummim.

10 Then said David, O LORD God of Israel, thy servant hath certainly heard that Saul seeketh to come to Keilah, to destroy the city for my sake.

11 Will the men of Keilah deliver me up into his hand? will Saul come down as thy servant hath heard? O LORD God of Israel, I beseech thee tell thy servant. And the LORD said, he will come down.

12 Then said David, Will the men of Keilah † deliver me and my men into the hand of Saul? And the LORD said, They will deliver thee up.

† Heb. shut up.

13 ¶ Then David and his men, which were about six hundred, arose and departed out of Keilah, & went whithersoever they could go: and it was told Saul that David was escaped from Keilah, and he forbare to go forth.

14 And David abode in the wilderness in strong holds, and remained in a mountain in the wilderness of Ziph: and Saul sought him every day, but God [e] delivered him not into his hand.

e No power nor policy can prevail against Gods children, but when he appointeth the time.

15 And David saw, that Saul was come out to seek his life: and David was in the wilderness of Ziph in a wood.

16 And Jonathan Sauls son arose, and went to David into the wood, and strengthned his hand in God.

17 And he said unto him, Fear not: for the hand of Saul my father shall not find thee, and thou shalt be [f] king over Israel, and I shall be next unto thee; and that also Saul my father knoweth.

f Jonathan declareth David, that God will accomplish his promise, and that his father striveth against his own conscience.

18 And they two made a covenant before the LORD: and David abode in the wood, and Jonathan went to his house.

19 ¶ Then came up the Ziphites to Saul to Gibeah, saying, Doth not David hide himself with us in strong holds in the wood, in the hill of Hachilah, which is † on the south of ‡ Jeshimon?

† Heb. on the right hand. † Or, the wilderness.

20 Now therefore, O king, come down according to all the desire of thy soul to come down, and our part shall be to deliver him into the kings hand.

21 And Saul said, [g] Blessed be ye of the LORD; for ye have compassion on me.

g The Lord recompense this friendship.

22 Go, I pray you, prepare yet, and know and see his place where his † haunt is, and who hath seen him there: for it is told me that he dealeth very subtilly.

† Heb. foot shall be.

23 See therefore and take knowledge of all the lurking-places where he hideth himself, & come ye again to me with the certainty, and I will go with you: and it shall come to pass, if he be in the [h] land, that I will search him out throughout all the thousands of Judah.

h In your country of Ziph, which is in Judah.

24 And they arose, and went to Ziph before Saul:

Saul: but David and his men were in the wilderneſs of Maon, in the plain on the ſouth of Jeſhimon.

25 Saul alſo and his men went to ſeek him; and they told David: wherefore he came down into a rock, and abode in the wilderneſs of [i] Maon: and when Saul heard that, he purſued after David in the wilderneſs of Maon.

[i] which was alſo in the tribe of Judah, Joſh. 15. 55.

26 And Saul went on this ſide of the mountain, and David and his men on that ſide of the mountain: & David made haſte to get away for fear of Saul; for Saul and his men compaſſed David and his men round about to take them.

27 ¶ But there came a [k] meſſenger unto Saul, ſaying, Haſte thee, and come; for the Philiſtines have † invaded the land.

[k] Thus the Lord can pull back the bridle of the tyrants, and deliver his out of the lions mouth.

† Heb. ſpread themſelves upon, &c.

28 Wherefore Saul returned from purſuing after David, and went againſt the Philiſtines: therefore they called that place [l] Sela-hammah-lekoth.

[l] That is, The rock of diviſions, becauſe there they divided themſelves one from another.

29 ¶ And David went up from thence, and dwelt in ſtrong [m] holds at En-gedi.

[m] That is, In ſtrong places, which were defended by nature.

Chap. XXIV.

1 David in a cave at En-gedi, having cut off Sauls ſkirt, ſpareth his life. 8 He ſheweth thereby his innocency. 16 Saul acknowledging his fault, taketh an oath of David, and departeth.

AND it came to paſs when Saul was returned from † following the Philiſtines, that it was told him, ſaying, Behold, David is in the wilderneſs of [a] En-gedi.

[a] A city of Judah, Joſh. 15. 62.

2 Then Saul took three thouſand choſen men out of all Iſrael, and went to ſeek David and his men upon the rocks of the wild goats.

3 And he came to the ſheep-cotes by the way, where was a cave, and Saul went in to cover his feet: and David and his men remained in the ſides of the cave.

4 And the men of David ſaid unto him, Behold the [b] day of which the LORD ſaid unto thee, Behold, I will deliver thine enemy into thine hand, that thou mayeſt do to him as it ſhall ſeem good unto thee. Then David aroſe, and cut off the ſkirt of † Sauls robe privily.

[b] Here we ſee how ready we are to haſten Gods promiſe, if the occaſion ſerve never ſo little.

† Heb. the robe which was Sauls.

5 And it came to paſs afterward, that Davids heart [c] ſmote him, becauſe he had cut off Sauls skirt.

[c] For ſeeing it was his own private cauſe, he repented that he had touched his enemy.

6 And he ſaid unto his men, the LORD forbid, that I ſhould do this thing unto my maſter the LORDS anointed, to ſtretch forth mine hand againſt him, ſeeing he is the anointed of the LORD.

7 So David † ſtrayed his ſervants with theſe words, and ſuffered them not to riſe againſt Saul: but Saul roſe up out of the cave, and went on his way.

8 David alſo aroſe afterward, and went out of the cave, and cried after Saul, ſaying, My lord the king. And when Saul looked behind him, David ſtouped with his face to the earth, and bowed himſelf.

9 ¶ And David ſaid to Saul, Wherefore [d] heareſt thou mens words, ſaying, Behold, David ſeeketh thy hurt?

[d] Contray to the falſe report of them that ſaid, David was Sauls enemy, he proveth himſelf to be his friend.

10 Behold, this day thine eyes have ſeen, how that the LORD had delivered thee to day into mine hand in the cave: and ſome bade me kill thee, but mine eye ſpared thee, and I ſaid, I will not put forth mine hand againſt my lord; for he is the LORDS anointed.

11 Moreover, my father, ſee, yea ſee the skirt of thy robe in my hand: for in that I cut off the skirt of thy robe, & killed thee not; know thou and ſee, that there is neither evil nor tranſgreſſion in mine hand, & I have not ſinned againſt thee; yet thou hunteſt my ſoul, to take it.

12 The LORD judge between me and thee, and the LORD avenge me of thee: but mine hand ſhall not be upon thee.

13 As ſaith the proverb of the ancients, Wickedneſs proceedeth from the wicked: but mine hand ſhall not be upon thee.

14 After whom is the king of Iſrael come out? after whom doſt thou purſue? after a dead dog, after a flea.

15 The LORD therefore be judge, and judge between me and thee, and ſee, and plead my cauſe, and † deliver me out of thine hand.

† Heb. judge.

16 ¶ And it came to paſs when David had made an end of ſpeaking theſe words unto Saul, that Saul ſaid, [e] Is this thy voice, my ſon David? And Saul lift up his voice and wept.

[e] Though he was a moſt cruel enemy to David, yet by his great gentleneſs his conſcience compelled him to yeild.

17 And he ſaid to David, Thou art more righteous then I: for thou haſt rewarded me good, whereas I have rewarded thee evil.

18 And thou haſt ſhewed this day how that thou haſt dealt well with me: foraſmuch as when the LORD had † delivered me into thine hand, thou killedſt me not.

† Heb. ſhut up.

19 For if a man find his enemy, will he let him go well away? wherefore the LORD reward thee good, for that thou haſt done unto me this day.

20 And now behold, I [f] know well that thou ſhalt ſurely be king, and that the kingdom of Iſrael ſhall be eſtabliſhed in thine hand.

[f] Though this tyrant ſaw and confeſſed the favour of God toward David, yet he ceaſeth not to perſecute him againſt his own conſcience.

21 Swear now therefore unto me by the LORD, that thou wilt not cut off my ſeed after me, and that thou wilt not deſtroy my name out of my fathers houſe.

22 And David ſware unto Saul: and Saul went home; but David and his men gat them up unto the hold.

Chap. XXV.

1 Samuel dieth. 2 David in Paran ſendeth to Nabal, 10 Provoked by Nabals churliſhneſs, he mindeth to deſtroy him. 14 Abigail underſtanding thereof, 18 taketh a preſent, 32 and by her wiſdom 23 pacifieth David. 36 Nabal hearing thereof, dieth. 39 David taketh Abigail and Ahinoam to be his wives. 44 Michal is given to Phalti.

AND * Samuel died, and all the Iſraelites were gathered together and lamented him, and buried him in his [a] houſe at Ramah. And David aroſe and went down to the wilderneſs of Paran.

* Chap. 28. 3.

[a] That is, Among his own kinred.

2 And there was a man in [b] Maon, whoſe ‡poſſeſſions were in Carmel, and the man was very great, and he had three thouſand ſheep, and a thouſand goats: and he was ſhearing his ſheep in Carmel.

[b] Maon and Carmel were cities in the tribe of Judah, Carmel the mountain was in Galilee.

3 Now the name of the man was Nabal, and the name of his wife, Abigail: and ſhe was a woman of good underſtanding, and of a beautiful countenance; but the man was churliſh and evil in his doings, and he was of the houſe of Caleb.

4 ¶ And David heard in the wilderneſs, that Nabal did ſhear his ſheep.

5 And David ſent out ten young men, and David ſaid unto the young men, Get you up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and † greet him in my name.

† Heb. aſk him in my name, of peace.

6 And thus ſhall ye ſay to him that liveth in [c] proſperity, Peace be both to thee, and peace be to thine houſe, and peace be unto all that thou haſt.

c Some read, ſo mayſt thou live in proſperity the next year, both [t]hou, &c.

7 And now I have heard that thou haſt ſhearers: now thy ſhepherds which were with us, we † hurt them not, neither was there ought miſſing unto them, all the while they were in Carmel.

8 Ask thy young men, and they will ſhew thee: wherefore let the young men find favour in thine eyes: (for we come in a good day) give, I pray thee, whatſoever [d] cometh to thine hand, unto thy ſervants, and to thy ſon David.

d whatſoever thou haſt ready for us.

9 And when Davids young men came, they ſpake to Nabal according to all thoſe words in the name of David, and † ceaſed.

10 ¶ And Nabal anſwered Davids ſervants and ſaid, Who is David? and who is the ſon of [e] Jeſſe? there be many ſervants now a days that break away every man from his maſter.

e that the covetous wretches, in ſtead of relieving the neceſſity of Gods children, uſe to revile their perſons & condemn their cauſe.

11 Shall I then take my bread and my water, and my † fleſh that I have killed for my ſhearers, and give it unto men, whom I know not whence they be?

12 So Davids young men turned their way, and went again, and came and told him all thoſe ſayings.

13 And David ſaid unto his men, Gird you on every man his ſword. And they girded on every man his ſword, and David alſo girded on his ſword: and there went up after David about four hundred men, and two hundred abode by the ſtuff.

14 ¶ But one of the young men told Abigail Nabals wife, ſaying, Behold, David ſent meſſengers out of the wilderneſs to ſalute our maſter; and he † railed on them.

† Heb. flew upon them.

15 But the men were very [f] good unto us, and we were not † hurt, neither miſſed we any thing as long as we were converſant with them, when we were in the fields.

f when we kept out ſheep in the wilderneſs of Paran.

16 They were a wall unto us both by night and day, all the while we were with them keeping the ſheep.

17 Now therefore know and conſider what thou wilt do: for evil is determined againſt our maſter, and againſt all his houſhold: for he is ſuch a ſon of Belial, that a man cannot ſpeak to him.

18 ¶ Then Abigail made haſte, and took two hundred loaves, and two bottles of wine, and five ſheep ready dreſſed, and five meaſures of parched corn, and an hundred ‡ cluſters of raiſins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and laid them on aſſes.

‡ Or, lumps.

19 And ſhe ſaid unto her ſervants, Go on before me, behold, I come after you: but ſhe told [g] not her husband Nabal.

g Becauſe ſhe knew his crooked nature, that he would rather have periſhed, then conſented to her enterpriſe.

20 And it was ſo, as ſhe rode on the aſs, that ſhe came down by the covert of the hill, and behold, David and his men came down againſt her, and ſhe met them.

21 (Now David had ſaid, Surely in vain have I kept all that this fellow hath in the wilderneſs, ſo that nothing was miſſed of all that pertained unto him: and he hath requited me evil for good.

22 So and more alſo do God unto the enemies of David, If I leave of all that pertain to him by the morning light, any that [h] piſſeth againſt the wall)

h Meaning, By this proverb, that he would deſtroy both ſmall and great.

23 And when Abigail ſaw David, ſhe haſted, and lighted of the aſs, and fell before David on her face, and bowed her ſelf to the ground, 24 And fell at his feet, and ſaid, Upon me, my lord, upon me let this iniquity be, and let thine hand-maid, I pray thee, ſpeak in thine † audience, and hear the words of thine hand-maid.

25 Let not my lord, I pray thee, † regard this man of Belial, even Nabal: for as his name is, ſo is he; Nabal is his name, and folly is with him: but I thine hand-maid ſaw not the young men of my lord, whom thou didſt ſend.

† Heb. lay it to his heart.

26 Now therefore, my lord, as the LORD liveth, and as thy ſoul liveth, ſeeing the LORD hath withholden thee from coming to ſhed bloud, and from † avenging thy ſelf with [i] thine own hand: now let thine enemies, and they that ſeek evil to my lord, be as Nabal.

i That is, Therefore ſhouldeſt not be revenged of thine enemy.

27 And now this ‡ bleſſing which thine hand-maid hath brought unto my lord, let it even be given unto the young men that † follow my lord.

‡ Or, preſent.

28 I pray thee, forgive the treſpaſs of thine hand-maid: for the LORD will certainly make my lord a [k] ſure houſe: becauſe my lord fighteth the battels of the LORD, and evil hath not been found in thee all thy days.

k Confirm his kingdom to his poſterity.

29 Yet a [l] man is riſen to purſue thee, and to ſeek thy ſoul: but the ſoul of my lord ſhall be bound in the [m] bundle of life with the LORD thy God; & the ſouls of thine enemies, them ſhall he ſling out, † as out of the middle of a ſling.

l To wit, Saul.
m God ſhall preſerve thee long in his ſervice and deſtroy thine enemies.
† Heb. in the midſt of the bought of a ſling.

30 And it ſhall come to paſs when the LORD ſhall have done to my lord according to all the good that he hath ſpoken concerning thee, and ſhall have appointed thee ruler over Iſrael;

31 That this ſhall be † [n] no grief unto thee, nor offence of heart unto my lord, either that thou haſt ſhed bloud cauſeleſs, or that my lord hath avenged himſelf: but when the LORD ſhall have dealt well with my lord, then remember thine hand-maid.

† Heb. no ſtaggering or ſtumbling.
n That he hath not avenged himſelf which things would have tormented his conſcience.

32 ¶ And

32 ¶ And David ſaid to Abigail, Bleſſed be the LORD God of Iſrael, which ſent thee this day to meet me:

33 And bleſſed be thy advice, and bleſſed be thou, which haſt kept me this day from coming to ſhed bloud, and from [o] avenging my ſelf with mine own hand.

o Read verſe 26.

34 For in very deed; as the LORD God of Iſrael liveth, [p] which hath kept me back from hurting thee, except thou hadſt haſted and come to meet me, ſurely there had not been left unto Nabal, by the morning light, any that piſſeth againſt the wall.

p He attributeth it to the Lords mercy, and not to himſelf that he was ſtayed.

35 So David received of her hand that which ſhe had brought him, and ſaid unto her, Go up in peace to thine houſe; ſee, I have hearkned to thy voice, and have accepted thy perſon.

36 ¶ And Abigail came to Nabal; and behold, he held a feaſt in his houſe, like the feaſt of a king: and Nabals heart was merry within him, for he was very drunken: wherefore ſhe told him [q] nothing, leſs or more, until the morning light.

q For he had no reaſon either to conſider, or to give thanks for this great benefit of deliverance.

37 But it came to paſs in the morning, when the wine was gone out of Nabal, and his wife had told him theſe things, that his heart died within him, and he became as [r] a ſtone.

r For fear of the great danger.

38 And it came to paſs about ten days after, that the LORD ſmote Nabal, that he died.

39 ¶ And when David heard that Nabal was dead, he ſaid, Bleſſed be the LORD, that hath pleaded the cauſe of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and hath kept his ſervant from evil: for the LORD hath returned the wickedneſs of Nabal upon his own head. And David ſent and communed with Abigail, to take her to him to [s] wife.

s For he had experience of her great godlineſs, wiſedom, and humility.

40 And when the ſervants of David were come to Abigail to Carmel, they ſpake unto her, ſaying, David ſent us unto thee, to take thee to him to wife.

41 And ſhe aroſe, and bowed her ſelf on her face to the earth, and ſaid, Behold, let thine hand-maid be a ſervant to waſh the feet of the ſervants of my lord.

42 And Abigail haſted, and aroſe, and rode upon an aſs, with five damſels of hers that went † after her; and ſhe went after the meſſengers of David, and became his wife.

† Heb. at her feet.

43 David alſo took Ahinoam * of Jezreel, and they were alſo both of them his wives.

* Joſh. 15. 56.

44 ¶ But Saul had given * Michal his daughter, Davids wife, to Phalti the ſon of Laiſh, which was of [t] Gallim.

* 2 Sam. 3. 14, 15.

t which was a place bordering on the country of the Moabites.

CHAP. XXVI.

1 Saul by the diſcovery of the Ziphites, cometh to Hachilah againſt David. 4 David coming into the trench, ſtayeth Abiſhai from killing Saul, but taketh his ſpear & cruſe. 13 David reproveth Abner, 18 & exhorteth Saul. 21 Saul acknowledgeth his ſin.

AND the Ziphites came unto Saul to Gibeah, ſaying, * Doth not David hide himſelf in the hill of Hachilah which is before Jeſhimon?

* Chap. 23. 19.

2 Then Saul aroſe, and went down to the wilderneſs of Ziph, having three thouſand [a] choſen men of Iſrael with him, to ſeek David in the wilderneſs of Ziph.

a That is, Of the moſt skilful and valiant ſouldiers.

3 And Saul pitched in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Jeſhimon by the way: but David abode in the wilderneſs, and he ſaw that Saul came after him into the wilderneſs.

4 David therefore ſent out ſpies, and underſtood that Saul was come in very deed.

5 ¶ And David aroſe, and came to the place where Saul had pitched: and David beheld the place where Saul lay. and * Abner the ſon of Ner, the captain of his hoſt: and Saul lay in the ‡ trench, and the people pitched round about him.

* Chap. 14. 50. & 17. 55.

6 Then anſwered David and ſaid to Ahimelech the [b] Hittite, and to Abiſhai the ſon of Zeruiah brother to [c] Joab, ſaying, Who will go down with me to Saul to the camp? And Abiſhai ſaid, I will go down with thee.

b who was a ſtranger, and not an Iſraelite.
c who afterward was Davids chief captain.

7 So David and Abiſhai came to the people by night, and behold, Saul lay ſleeping within the trench, and his ſpear ſtuck in the ground at his bolſter: but Abner and the people lay round about him.

8 Then ſaid Abiſhai to David, God hath † delivered thine enemy into thine hand this day: now therefore let me ſmite him, I pray thee, with the ſpear, even to the earth at once, and I will not ſmite him the [d] ſecond time.

† Heb ſhut up.

d Meaning, He would make him ſure at one ſtroak.

9 And David ſaid to Abiſhai, Deſtroy him not: for [e] who can ſtretch forth his hand againſt the LORDS anointed, and be guiltleſs?

e To wit, In his own private cauſe: for Jehu ſlew two kings at Gods appointment, 2 Kings. 9. 24.

10 David ſaid furthermore, As the LORD liveth, the LORD ſhall ſmite him, or his day ſhall come to die, or he ſhall deſcend into battel, and periſh.

11 The LORD forbid that I ſhould ſtretch forth mine hand againſt the LORDS anointed: but, I pray thee, take thou now the ſpear that is at his bolſter, and the cruſe of water, and let us go.

12 So David took the ſpear and the cruſe of water from Sauls bolſter, and they gat them away, and no man ſaw it, nor knew it, neither awaked: for they were all aſleep, becauſe a deep ſleep from the LORD was fallen upon them.

13 ¶ Then David went over to the other ſide, and ſtood on the top of an hill a far off, (a great ſpace being between them)

14 And David cried to the people, and to Abner the ſon of Ner, ſaying, Anſwereſt thou not, Abner? Then Abner anſwered and ſaid, Who art thou that crieſt to the king?

15 And David ſaid to Abner, Art not thou a [f] valiant man? and who is like to thee in Iſrael? wherefore then haſt thou not kept thy lord the king? for there came one of the people in to deſtroy the king thy lord.

f Eſteemed moſt valiant, and meet to ſave the king?

16 This thing is not good that thou haſt done: as the LORD liveth, ye are † worthy to die, becauſe ye have not kept your maſter the LORDS anointed: and now ſee where the kings ſpear is, and the cruſe of water, that was at his bolſter.

† Heb. the ſons of death.

17 And Saul knew Davids voice, and said, Is this thy voice, my [g] son David? And David said, It is my voice, my lord, O king.

g Hereby it appeareth, that the hypocrite persecuted David against his own conscience, and contrary to his promise.

18 And he said, Wherefore doth my lord thus pursue after his servant? for what have I done? or what evil is in mine hand?

19 Now therefore, I pray thee, let my lord the king hear the words of his servant: If the LORD have stirred thee up against me, let him † [h] accept an offering: but if they be the children of men, cursed be they before the LORD; for they have driven me out this day from † abiding in the inheritance of the LORD, saying, Go serve other [i] gods.

i As much as lay in them, they compelled him to idolatry, because they forced him to flee to the idolaters.

20 Now therefore, let not my bloud fall to the earth before the face of the LORD: for the king of Israel is come out to seek a flea, as when one doth hunt a patridge in the mountains.

21 ¶ Then said Saul, I have sinned: return, my son David, for I will no more do thee harm; because my soul was [k] precious in thine eyes this day: behold, I have played the fool, and have erred exceedingly.

k Because thou savedst my life this day.

22 And David answered and said, Behold the kings spear, and let one of the young men come over and fetch it.

23 The LORD render to every man his [l] righteousness, and his faithfulness: for the LORD delivered thee into my hand to day, but I would not stretch forth mine hand against the LORDS anointed.

l This he protesteth his innocency toward Saul, not defending his injustice in the sight of God, in whose presence none is righteous, Psal. 14. 3. & 13. 3.

24 And behold, as thy life was much set by this day in mine eyes; so let my life be much set by in the eyes of the LORD, and let him deliver me out of all tribulation.

25 Then Saul said to David, Blessed be thou, my son David: thou shalt both do great things, & also shalt still prevail. So David went on his way, and Saul returned to his [m] place.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Saul hearing David to be in Gath, seeketh no more for him. 5 David beggeth Ziklag of Achish. 8 He invading other countreys, perswadeth Achish he fought against Judah.

AND David said in his heart, I shall now † perish [a] one day by the hand of Saul: there is nothing better for me, then that I should speedily escape into the land of the Philistines, and Saul shall despair of me, to seek me any more in any coast of Israel: so shall I escape out of his hand.

a David distrusteth Gods protection, and therefore fleeth unto the idolaters, who were enemies to Gods people.

2 And David arose, and he passed over with the six hundred men that were with him, unto Achish the son of Maoch king of Gath.

3 And David [b] dwelt with Achish at Gath, he and his men, every man with his household, even David with his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the Carmelitess Nabals wife.

b Thus God by his providence changeth the enemies hearts, and maketh them to favour his, in their necessity.

4 And it was told Saul that David was fled to Gath: and he sought no more again for him.

5 ¶ And David said unto Achish, If I have now found grace in thine eyes, [c] let them give me a place in some town in the country, that I may dwell there; for why should thy servant dwell in the the royal city with thee?

c Let thine officers appoint me a place.

6 Then Achish gave him Ziklag that day: wherefore Ziklag pertaineth unto the kings of Judah unto this day.

7 And † the time that David dwelt in the country of the Philistines, was † a full year and four months.

† Heb the number of days.

8 ¶ And David and his men went up and invaded the [d] Geshurites, and the ‡ Gezrites, and the Amalekites: for those nations were of old the inhabitants of the land, as thou goest to Shur, even unto the land of Egypt.

d These were the wicked Canaanites, whom God had appointed to be destroyed.

‡ Or, Gerzites.

9 And David smote the land, and left neither man nor woman alive, and took away the sheep, and the oxen, and the asses, and the camels, and the apparel, and returned, and came to Achish.

10 And Achish said, ‡ Whither have ye made a rode to day? And David said, Against the south of Judah, and against the south of the [e] Jerahmeelites, and against the south of the Kenites.

‡ Or, did you not make a rode, &c.

e Which were a family of the tribe of Judah, 1 Chron. 2. 9.

11 And David saved neither man nor woman alive, to bring tidings to Gath, saying, Lest they should tell on us, saying, So did David, and so will be his manner, all the while he dwelleth in the country of the Philistines.

12 And Achish believed David, saying, He hath made his people Israel † utterly to abhor him; therefore he shall be my servant for ever.

† Heb. to stink.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 Achish putteth confidence in David. 3 Saul having destroyed the witches, 4 and now in his fear forsaken of God. 7 seeketh to a witch. 9 The witch encouraged by Saul, raiseth up Samuel. 12 Saul hearing his ruine, fainteth. 21 The woman with his servants refresh him with meat.

AND it came to pass in those days, that the Philistines gathered their armies together for warfare, to fight with Israel: and Achish said unto David, Know thou assuredly, that thou shalt go out with me to battel, thou and thy men.

2 And David said to Achish, [a] Surely, thou shalt know what thy servant can do. And Achish said to David, Therefore will I make thee keeper of mine head for ever.

a Albeit it was a great grief to David to fight against the people of God, yet such was his infirmity, he durst not deny him.

3 ¶ Now * Samuel was dead, and all Israel had lamented him, and buried him in Ramah, even in his own city: and Saul had [b] put away those that had familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land.

* Chap. 25. 1.

b According to the commandment of God, Exod. 22. 18. Deut. 18. 10, 11.

4 ¶ And the Philistines gathered themselves together, and came and pitched in Shunem: and Saul gathered all Israel together, and they pitched in Gilboa.

5 And when Saul saw the host of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart greatly trembled.

6 And when Saul enquired of the LORD, the LORD answered him not, neither by dreams, nor by [c] Urim, nor by prophets.

c Meaning, The high Priest, Exod. 28. 30.

7 ¶ Then said Saul unto his servants, Seek me a woman that hath a familiar spirit, that I may go to her, and enquire of her. And his servants servants said to him, Behold, there is, a woman that hath a familiar spirit at En-dor.

d He seeketh not to God in his misery, but is led by Satan to unlawful means, which in his conscience he condemneth.

8 And Saul [d] disguised himself, and put on other raiment, and he went, and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night; and he said, I pray thee divine unto me by the familiar spirit, and bring me him up whom I shall name unto thee.

9 And the woman said unto him, Behold, thou knowest what Saul hath done, how he hath cut off those that have familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land: wherefore then layest thou a snare for my life, to cause me to die?

10 And Saul sware to her by the LORD, saying, As the LORD liveth, there shall no punishement happen to thee for this thing.

11 Then said the woman, Whom shall I bring up unto thee? And he said, Bring me up [e] Samuel.

e Speaketh according to his gross ignorance, not considering the state of the saints after this life, and how Satan hath no power of them.

12 And when the woman saw Samuel, she cried with a loud voice: and the woman spake to Saul, saying, Why hast thou deceived me? for thou art Saul.

13 And the king said unto her, Be not afraid: for what sawest thou? And the woman said unto Saul, I saw gods ascending out of the earth.

14 And he said unto her, † What form is he of? And she said, An old man cometh up; and he is covered with a mantle. And Saul perceived that it was [f] Samuel, and he stouped with his face to the ground, and bowed himself.

f To his imagination, albeit it was Satan, who to blind his eyes took upon him the form of Samuel; as he can do of an angel of light.

15 ¶ And Samuel said to Saul, Why hast thou disquieted me, to bring me up? And Saul answered, I am sore distressed; for the Philistines make war against me, and God is departed from me, and answereth me no more, neither ‡ by prophets, nor by dreams: therefore I have called thee, that thou mayest make known unto me what I shall do.

16 Then said Samuel, Wherefore then dost thou ask of me, seeing the LORD is departed from thee, and is become thine enemy?

‡ Or, for himself

17 And the LORD hath done ‡ [g] to him, * as he spake by † me: for the LORD hath rent the kingdom out of thine hand, and given it to thy neighbour, even to David:

g That is, To David.

* Chap. 15. 28.

† Heb. mine hand.

18 Because thou obeyedst not the voice of the LORD, nor executedst his fierce wrath upon Amalek, therefore hath the LORD done this thing unto thee this day.

19 Moreover, the LORD will also deliver Israel with thee, into the hand of the Philistines: and to morrow shalt thou and thy sons be with [h] me: the LORD also shall deliver the host of Israel into the hand of the Philistines.

h Ye shall be dead, Chap. 31. 6.

† Heb. made haste and fell with the fulness of his stature.

20 Then Saul † fell straightway all along on the earth, and was [i] sore afraid, because of the words of Samuel, & there was no strength in him: for he had eaten no bread all the day, nor all the night.

i The wicked when they hear Gods judgments tremble and despair, but cannot seek for mercy by repentance.

21 ¶ And the woman came unto Saul, and saw that he was sore troubled, and said unto him, Behold, thine hand-maid hath obeyed thy voice, and I have [k] put my life in my hand, and have hearkned unto thy words which thou spakest unto me.

k I have ventured my life.

22 Now therefore, I pray thee, hearken thou also unto the voice of thine hand-maid, and let me set a morsel of bread before thee; and eat, that thou mayst have strength, when thou goest on thy way?

23 But he refused, and said, I will not eat: but his servants, together with the woman, compelled him, and he hearkned unto their voice: so he arose from the earth, and sat upon the bed.

24 And the woman had a fat calf in the house, and she hasted, and killed it, and took flour, and kneaded it, and did bake [l] unleavened bread thereof.

l Because it required haste.

25 And she brought it before Saul, and before his servants, and they did eat: then they rose up, and went away that night.

CHAP. XXIX.

1 David marching with the Philistines. 3 Is disallowed by their princes. 6 Achish dimisseth him, with commendations of his fidelity.

NOw the Philistines gathered together all their armies to Aphek: and the Israelites pitched by a fountain which is in Jezreel.

2 And the lords of the Philistines passed on by [a] hundreds, and by thousands: but David and his men passed on in the rere-ward with Achish.

a According to their bands of ensigns.

3 Then said the princes of the Philistines, What do these Hebrews here? And Achish said unto the princes of the Philistines, Is not this David the servant of Saul the king of Israel, which hath been with me these [b] days or these years, and I have found no fault in him since he fell unto me, unto this day?

b Meaning, A long time, that is, four months and certain days, Chap. 27. 7.

4 And the princes of the Philistines were wroth with him, and the princes of the Philistines said unto him, *Make this fellow return, * 1 Chron 12. 19 that he may go again to his place which thou hast appointed him, and let him not go down with us to battel, lest in the battel he be an adversary to us: for wherewith should he reconcile himself unto his master? should it not be with the [c] heads of these men?

c would not Saul receive him to favour, if he could betray us.

5 Is not this David, of whom they sang one to another in dances, saying, * Saul slew his thousands, and David his ten thousands?

* Chap. 18. 7. & 21. 11.

6 ¶ Then Achish called David, and said unto him, Surely, as the LORD liveth, thou hast been upright, and thy [d] going out and thy coming in with me in the host, is good in my sight: for I have not found evil in thee, since the day of thy coming unto me unto this day: nevertheless † the lords favour thee not.

d That is, wast conversant with me.

† Heb. thou art not good in the eyes of the lords.

7 Wherefore now return, and go in peace, that thou † displease not the lords of the Philistines.

† Heb. do not evil in the eyes of the lords.

8 ¶ And David said unto Achish, But what have I done? and what hast thou found in thy servant, so long as I have been † with thee unto this day, that I may not go fight against the [e] enemies of my lord the king?

† Heb before thee.

e This dissimulation cannot be excused: for it grieved him to go against the people of God.

9 And Achish answered and said to David, I know that thou art good in my sight, as an angel of God: notwithstanding, the princes of the Philistines have said, He shall not go up with us to the battel.

10 Wherefore now rise up early in the morning, with thy [f] masters servants that are come with thee: and assoon as ye be up early in the morning, and have light, depart.

f with them that fled unto thee from Saul.

11 So David and his men rose up early to depart in the morning, to return into the land of the Philistines; and the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

CHAP. XXX.

1 The Amalekites spoil Ziklag. 7 David asking counsel, is encouraged by God to pursue them. 11 By the means of a revived Egyptian, he is brought to the enemies, and recovereth all the spoil. 22 Davids law to divide the spoil equally between them that fight, and them that keep the stuff, 26 He sendeth presents to his friends.

AND it came to pass when David and his men were come to Ziklag on the [a] third day, that the Amalekites had invaded the south and Ziklag, and [b] smitten Ziklag, and burnt it with fire:

a After that he departed from Achish.

b That is, Destroyed the city.

2 And had taken the women captives, that were therein; they slew not any, either great or small, but carried them away, and went on their way.

3 ¶ So David and his men came to the city, and behold, it was burnt with fire, and their [c] wives, and their sons, and their daughters were taken captives.

c For these only remained in the city, when the men were gone to war.

4 Then David and the people that were with him, lift up their voice and wept, until they had no more power to weep.

5 And Davids two wives were taken captives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite.

6 And David was greatly distressed; for the people [d] spake of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was † grieved, every man for his sons, and for his daughters: but David encouraged himself in the LORD his God.

d Thus wee see that in troubles and adversity we do not consider Gods providence, but like raging beasts forget both our own duty, and contemn Gods appointment over us.

7 And David said to Abiathar the priest Ahimelechs son, I pray thee, bring me hither the ephod: and Abiathar brought thither the ephod to David.

8 And David enquired at the LORD: saying, Shall I pursue after this troup? shall I overtake them? And he answered him, Pursue; for thou shalt surely overtake them, and without fail [e] recover all.

e Though God seem to leave us for a time, yet if we trust in him, we shall be sure to find comfort.

9 So David went, he & the six hundred men that were with him, & came to the brook Besor, where those that were left behind stayed.

10 But David pursued, he and four hundred men: (for two hundred abode behind, which were so faint, that they could not go over the brook Besor)

11 ¶ And they found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David, and gave him [f] bread, and he did eat, and they made him drink water.

f God by his providence both provided for the necessity of this poor stranger, and made him a guid to David to accomplish his enterprise.

12 And they gave him a piece of a cake of figs, and two clusters of raisons: and when he had eaten, his spirit came again to him: for he had eaten no bread, nor drunk any water, three days and three nights.

13 And David said unto him, To whom belongest thou? and whence art thou? And he said, I am a young man of Egypt, servant to an Amalekite, and my master left me, because three days agone I fell sick.

14 We made an invasion upon the south of the Cherethites, and upon the coast which belongeth to Judah, and upon the south of Caleb, and we burnt Ziklag with fire.

15 And David said to him, Canst thou bring me down to this company? and he said, [g] Swear unto me by God, that thou wilt neither kill me, nor deliver me into the hands of my master, and I will bring thee down to this company.

g For oaths were in all ages had in most reverence, even among the heathen.

16 ¶ And when he had brought him down, behold, they were spread abroad upon all the earth, [h] eating and drinking, and dancing, because of all the great spoil that they had taken out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Judah.

h The wicked in their pomp and pleasures consider not the judgment of God which is then at hand to smite them.

17 And David smote them from the twilight, even unto the [i] evening † of the next day: and there escaped not a man of them, save four hundred young men which rode upon camels, and fled.

i Some read, and unto the morrow of the two evenings: that is, three days.

† Heb. their morrow.

18 And David recovered all that the Amalekites had carried away: and David rescued his two wives.

19 And there was nothing lacking to them, neither small nor great, neither sons nor daughters, neither spoil, nor any thing that they had taken to them: David recovered all.

20 And David took all the flocks, and the herds: which they drave before those other cattel, and said, This is Davids [k] spoil.

k which the Amalekites had taken of others, and David from them, besides the goods Ziklag.

21 ¶ And David came to the two hundred men, which were so faint that they could not follow David, whom they had made also to abide at the brook Besor: and they went forth to meet David, and to meet the people that were with him; and when David came near to the people, he ‡ saluted them.

‡ Or, asked the how they did.

22 Then answered all the wicked men, and men of Belial, of † those that went with David, and said, Because they went not with us, we will not give them ought of the spoil that we have recovered, save to every man his [l] wife and his children, that they may lead them away, and depart.

† Heb. men.

l Under these are comprehended the cattel and goods which appertained to every man.

23 Then said David, Ye shall not do so, my brethren, with that which the LORD hath given us, who hath preserved us, and delivered the company that came against us, into our hand.

24 For who will hearken unto you in this matter? but as his part is that goeth down to the battel, so shall his part be that tarrieth by the stuff: they shall part alike.

m Some refer these words to David, that he alledged an old custom and law, as if it were written, it is both now and hath been ever.

† Heb. and forward.

25 [m] And it was so from that day † forward, that he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel, unto this day.

¶ THE SECOND BOOK OF SAMUEL,

OTHERWISE CALLED

The ſecond book of the KINGS.

THE ARGUMENT.

THis book and the former, beareth the title of Samuel, becauſe they contain the conception, nativity, and the whole courſe of his life, and alſo the lives and acts of two kings, to wit, of Saul and David, whom he anointed and conſecrated kings by the ordinance of God. And as the firſt book containeth thoſe things which God brought to paſs among this people under the government of Samuel and Saul: ſo this ſecond book declareth the noble acts of David, after the death of Saul, when he began to reign, unto the end of his kingdom: and how the ſame by him was wonderfully augmented: alſo his great troubles and dangers, which he ſuſtained both within his houſe and without: what horrible and dangerous inſurrections, uproars, and treaſons were wrought againſt him, partly by falſe counſellers, fained friends and flatterers, and partly by ſome of his own children and people: and how by Gods aſſiſtance he overcame all difficulties, and enjoyed his kingdom in reſt and peace. In the perſon of David the ſcripture ſetteth forth Chriſt Jeſus the chief King, who came of David according to the fleſh, and was perſecuted on every ſide with outward and inward enemies, aſwell in his own perſon, as in his members, but at length he overcometh all his enemies, and giveth his church victory againſt all power, both ſpiritual, and temporal: and ſo reigneth with them, King for evermore.

CHAP. I.

1 The Amalekite, who brought tidings of the overthrow, and accused himself of Sauls death, is slain.
17 David lamenteth Saul and Jonathan with a song.

NOw it came to pass after the death of Saul, when David was returned from*the slaughter of the Amalekites, and David had abode two days in Ziklag:

* 1 Sam. 30. 17.

2 It came even to pass on the third day, that behold, a man came out of the camp from Saul, with his [a] clothes rent, and earth upon his head: and so it was, when he came to David, that he fell to the earth, and did obeisance.

a Seeming to lament the overthrow of the people of Israel.

3 And David said unto him, From whence comest thou? And he said unto him, Out of the camp of Israel am I escaped.

4 And David said unto him, † How went the matter? I pray thee, tell me. And he answered, That the people are fled from the battel, and many of the people also are fallen and dead, and Saul and Jonathan his son are dead also.

† Heb. what was, &c.

5 And David said unto the young man that told him, How knowest thou that Saul and Jonathan his son be dead?

6 And the young man that told him, said, As I happened by [b] chance upon mount Gilboa, behold, Saul leaned upon his spear: and lo, the chariots and horsmen followed hard after him.

b As I fled in the chase.

7 And when he looked behind him, he saw me, and called unto me: and I answered, † Here am I.

† Heb. behold me.

8 And he said unto me, Who art thou? And I answered him, I am an [c] Amalekite.

c He was an Amalekite born, but renounced his country, and joyned with the Israelites.

9 He said unto me again, Stand, I pray thee, upon me, and slay me: for ‡ anguish is come upon me [d] because my life is yet whole in me.

‡ Or, my coat of mail (or, my embroidered coat) hindreth me, that my, &c. d I am sorry because I am yet alive.

10 So I stood upon him, and slew him, because I was sure that he could not live after that he was fallen: and I took the crown that was upon his head, and the bracelet that was on his arm, and have brought them hither unto my lord.

11 Then David took hold on his clothes, and* rent them, and likewise all the men that were with him.

* Chap. 3. 31. & 13. 31.

12 And they mourned and wept, and fasted until even, for Saul and for Jonathan his son, and for the people of the LORD, and for the house of Israel; because they were fallen by the sword.

13 ¶ [e] And David said unto the young man that told him, Whence art thou? And he answered, I am the son of a stranger, an Amalekite.

e After the lamentation, he examined him again.

* Psal. 105. 15.

14 And David said unto him, *How wast thou not afraid to stretch forth thine hand, to destroy the LORDS anointed?

15 And David called one of the young men, and said, Go near, and fall upon him. And he smote him that he died.

f Thou art justly punished for thy fault.

16 And David said unto him, [f] Thy bloud be upon thy head: for thy mouth hath testified against thee, saying, I have slain the LORDS anointed.

17 ¶ And David lamented with this lamentation over Saul, and over Jonathan his son,

18 (Also he bade them teach the children of Judah the use of the [g] bow: behold it is written* in the book † of Jasher)

g That they might be able to match their enemies the Philistines in that art.
* Josh. 10. 13.
‡ Or, of the upright.

19 The [h] beauty of Israel is slain upon thy high places: how are the mighty fallen!

h Meaning, Saul.

20 *Tell it not in Gath, publish it not in the streets of Askelon: least the daughters of the Philistines rejoyce, least the daughters of the uncircumcised triumph.

* Mic. 1. 10.

21 Ye mountains of Gilboa, let there be [i] no dew, neither let there be rain upon you, nor fields of offerings: for there the shield of the mighty is vilely cast away, the shield of Saul, as though he had not been anointed with oyl.

i Let their fertile fields be barren, and bring forth no fruit to offer to the Lord.

22 From the bloud of the slain, from the fat of the mighty, the bow of Jonathan turned not back, and the sword of Saul returned not empty.

23 Saul and Jonathan were lovely and ‡ pleasant in their lives, and in their death they were not [k] divided: they were swifter then eagles, they were stronger then lions.

‡ Or, sweet.
k They died both together in Gilboa.

24 Ye daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, who clothed you in [l] scarlet, with other delights, who put on ornaments of gold upon your apparel.

l As rich garments and costly jewels.

25 How are the mighty fallen in the midst of the battel! O Jonathan, thou wast slain in thine high places.

26 I am distressed for thee, my brother Jonathan: very pleasant hast thou been unto me: thy love to me was wonderful, passing the love of [m] women.

m Either towrd their husbands, or their children.

27 How are the mighty fallen, and the weapons of war perished!

CHAP. II.

1 David by Gods direction, with his company, goeth up to Hebron, where he is made king of Judah. 5 He commendeth them of Iabesh-gilead, for their kindness to Saul. 8 Abner maketh Ish-bosheth king of Israel. 12 A mortal skirmish between twelve of Abners, and twelve of Joabs men. 18 Asahel is slain. 25 At Abners motion Joab soundeth a retreat. 32 Asahels burial.

AND it came to pass after this, that David [a] enquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up into any of the cities of Judah? And the LORD said unto him. Go up. And David said Whither shall I go up? And he said, Unto [b] Hebron.

a By the means of the priest, as 1 Sam. 23. 2. & 2 Sam. 5. 19.
b Which city was also called Kiriatharba, Josh. 14. 15.

2 So David went up thither, and his two wives also, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail Nabals wife the Carmelite.

3 And his men that were [c] with him, did David bring up, every man with his household: and they dwelt in the cities of Hebron.

c In the time of his persecution.

4 And the men of Judah came, and there they anointed David king over the house of Judah: and they told David, saying, That * the men of Jabesh-gilead were they that buried Saul.

* 1 Sam. 31. 11.

5 ¶ And

5 ¶ And David ſent meſſengers unto the men of Jabeſh-gilead, and ſaid unto them, Bleſſed be ye of the LORD, that ye have ſhewed this kindneſs unto your lord, even unto Saul, and buried him.

6 And now the LORD ſhew kindneſs and [d] truth unto you: & I alſo will requite you this kindneſs, becauſe ye have done this thing, d According to his promiſe, which is to recompenſe them that are merciful.

7 Therefore now let your hands be ſtrengthned, and † be ye valiant: for your maſter Saul is dead, and alſo the houſe of Judah have anointed me king over them.

† Heb. be ye the ſons of valour.

e So that you ſhall not want a captain and a defender.

8 ¶ But Abner the ſon of Ner, captain of † Sauls hoſt, took Iſh-boſheth the ſon of Saul and brought him over to Mahanaim.

† Heb. the hoſt which was Sauls.

9 And he made him king over Gilead, and over the Aſhurites, and over Jezreel, and over Ephraim, and over Benjamin: and over [f] all Iſrael.

f Over the eleven tribes.

10 Iſh-boſheth Sauls ſon was fourty years old when he began to reign over Iſrael, and reigned two years: but the houſe of Judah followed David.

† Heb. number of days.

11 (And the † time that David was king in Hebron over the houſe of Judah, was ſeven years, and [g] ſix months)

g After this time was expired, he reigned over all the country 33 years, Chap. 5. 5.

12 ¶ And Abner the ſon of Ner, and the ſervants of Iſh-boſheth the ſon of Saul, went out from Mahaniam, to Gibeon.

† Heb. them together.

13 And Joab the ſon of Zuriah, and the ſervants of David went out, and met † together by the pool of Gibeon: and they ſat down, the one on the one ſide of the pool, and the other on the other ſide of the pool.

h Let us ſee how they can handle their weapons.

14 And Abner ſaid to Joab, Let the young men now ariſe, and [b] play before us. And Joab ſaid, Let them ariſe.

15 Then there aroſe and went over by number twelve of Benjamin, which pertained to Iſh-boſheth the ſon of Saul, and twelve of the ſervants of David.

i Meaning His adverſary.

16 And they caught every one his [f] fellow by the head: and thruſt his ſword in his fellows ſide; ſo they fell down together: wherefore that place was called ‡Helkath-hazzurim, which is in Gibeon.

‡ That is . the field of ſtrong men.

17 And there was a very ſore battel that day: and [k] Abner was beaten, aud the men of Iſrael, before the ſervants of David.

k After that theſe four and twenty were ſlain.

18 ¶ And there were three ſons of Zeruiah there, Joab, and Abiſhai, and Aſahel: and Aſahel was as light † of foot † as a wild roe.

19 And Aſahel purſued after Abner, and in going he turned not to the right hand nor to the left, † from following Abner.

† Heb. from after Abner.

20 Then Abner looked behind him, and ſaid, Art thou Aſahel? and he anſwered, I am.

21 And Abner ſaid to him, Turn thee aſide to thy right hand or to thy left, and lay thee hold on one of the young men, and take thee his ‡ armour, But Aſahel would not turn aſide ſtom following of him.

‡ Or, ſpoil.

22 And Abner ſaid again to Aſahel, Turn thee aſide from following me: [l] wherefore ſhould I ſmite thee to the ground? how then ſhould I hold up my face to Joab thy brother?

l why doſt thou provoke me to kill thee?

23 Howbeit he refuſed to turn aſide: wherefore Abner with the hinder end of the ſpear ſmote him under the [m] fifth rib, that the ſpear came out behind him; and he fell down there, and died in the ſame place: and it came to paſs, that as many as came to the place where Aſahel fell down and died, ſtood ſtill.

m Some read, In thoſe parts, where the lively parts lie, as the heart, the lungs, the liver, the milt and the gall.

24 Joab alſo and Abiſhai purſued after Abner: and the ſun went down when they were come to the hill of Ammah, that lieth before Giah by the way of the wilderneſs of Gibeon.

25 ¶ And the children of Benjamin gathered themſelves together after Abner, and became one troup, and ſtood on the top of an hill.

26 Then Abner called to Joab, and ſaid, Shall the [n] ſword devour for ever? knoweſt thou not that it will be bitterneſs in the latter end? how long ſhall it be then ere thou bid the people return from following their brethren?

n Shall we not make an end of murdering?

27 And Joab ſaid, As God liveth, unleſs thou hadſt [o] ſpoken, ſurely then † in the morning the people had ‡ gone up every one from following his brother.

o If thou hadſt not provoked them to battel, as verſe 14.
† Heb. from the morning.

28 So Joab blew a trumpet, and all the people ſtood ſtill, and purſued after Iſrael no more, neither fought they any more.

29 And Abner and his men walked all that night through the plain, and paſſed over Jordan, and went through all Bithron, and they came to Mahanaim.

30 And Joab returned from following Abner: and when he had gathered all the people together, there lacked of Davids ſervants nineteen men, and Aſahel.

31 But the ſervants of David had ſmitten of Benjamin and of Abners men, ſo that [p] three hundred and threeſcore men died.

p Thus God would confirm David in his kingdom, by the deſtruction of his adverſaries.

32 ¶ And they took up Aſahel, and buried him in the ſepulchre of his father, which was in Beth-lehem: and Joab and his men went all night, & they came to Hebron at break of day.

CHAP. III.

1 During the war David ſtill waxeth ſtronger. 2 Six ſons were born to him in Hebron. 6 Abner diſpleaſed with Iſh-boſheth, 12 revolteth to David. 15 David requireth a condition to bring him his wife Michal. 17 Abner having communed with the Iſraelites, is feaſted by David, and diſmiſſed. 22 Joab returning from battel, is diſpleaſed with the king, and killeth Abner. 28 David curſeth Joab, and mourneth for Abner.

NOw there was [a] long war between the houſe of Saul, and the houſe of David: but David waxed ſtronger and ſtronger, and the houſe of Saul waxed weaker and weaker.

a That is, without intermiſſion, induring two years, which was the whole reign af Iſh-boſheth.

2 ¶ And unto David were ſons born in Hebron: and his firſt-born was Amnon, of Ahinoam the Jezreelites:

3 And his ſecond, [b] Chileab, of Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite: and the third, Abſalom the ſon of Maacah, the daughter of Talmai king of Geſhur:

b who is called alſo Daniel, 1 Chron. 3. 1.

4 And the fourth, Adonijah the ſon of Haggith: & the fifth, Shephatiah the ſon of Abital:

5 And the ſixth, Ithream, by Eglah Davids wife: theſe were born to David in [e] Hebron.

e within ſeven years and ſix months

6 ¶ And it came to paſs while there was war between the houſe of Saul and the houſe of David, rhat Abner made himſelf ſtrong for the houſe of Saul.

7 And Saul had a concubine, whoſe name was * Rizpah, the daughter of Ajah; and Iſh-boſheth ſaid to Abner, Wherefore haſt thou gone in unto my fathers concubine?

* Chap. 21. 10.

8 Then was Abner very wroth for the words of Iſh-boſheth, and ſaid, Am [d] I a dogs head, which againſt Judah do ſhew kindneſs this day unto the houſe of Saul thy father, to his brethren, and to his friends, and have not delivered thee into the hand of David, that thou chargeſt me to day with a fault concerning this woman?

d Doſt thou eſteem me no more then a dog, for all my ſervice done to thy fathers houſe?

9 [e] So do God to Abner, and more alſo, except as the LORD hath ſworn to David, even ſo I do to him:

e wee ſee how the wicked cannot abide to be admoniſhed of their faults, but ſeek their diſpleaſure which go about to bring them from their wickedneſs.

10 To tranſlate the kingdom from the houſe of Saul, and to ſet up the throne of David over Iſrael, and over Judah, from Dan even to Beer-ſheba.

11 And he could not anſwer Abner a word again, becauſe he feared him.

12 ¶ And Abner ſent meſſengers to David on his behalf, ſaying, Whoſe is the land? ſaying alſo, Make thy league with me, and behold, my hand ſhall be with thee, to bring about all Iſrael unto thee.

13 ¶ And he ſaid, Well, I will make a league with thee: but one thing I require of thee, † that is, Thou ſhalt not ſee my face, except thou firſt bring Michal Sauls daughter, when thou comeſt to ſee my face.

14 And David ſent meſſengers to Iſh-boſheth Sauls ſon, ſaying, Deliver me my wife Michal, which I eſpouſed to me * for an hundred foreſkins of the Philiſtines.

* 1 Sam. 18. 25, 27.

15 And Iſh-boſheth ſent, and took her from her huſband, even from * Phaltiel the ſon of Laiſh.

* 1 Sam. 25. 44. Phalti.

16 And her huſband went with her † along weeping behind her to Bahurim: then ſaid Abner unto him, Go, return. And he returned.

† Heb. going and weeping.

17 ¶ And Abner had [f] communication with the elders of Iſrael, ſaying, Ye ſought for David † in times paſt to be king over you.

f Rather for malice that he bare toward Iſh-boſheth then for love he bare to David.
† Heb. both yeſterday and the third day.

18 Now then do it; for the LORD hath ſpoken of David, ſaying, By the hand of my ſervant David I will ſave my people Iſrael out of the hand of the Philiſtines, and out of the hand of all their enemies.

19 And Abner alſo ſpake in the ears of [g] Benjamin: and Abner went alſo to ſpeak in the ears of David in Hebron, all that ſeemed good to Iſrael, and that ſeemed good to the whole houſe of Benjamin.

g who challenged the kingdom becauſe of their father Saul.

20 So Abner came to David to Hebron, and twenty men with him; and David made Abner, and the men that were with him, a feaſt.

21 And Abner ſaid unto David, I will ariſe, and go, and will gather all Iſrael unto my lord the king, that they may make a league with thee, and that thou mayeſt reign over all that thine heart deſireth. And David ſent Abner away; and he went in peace.

22 ¶ And behold, the ſervants of David and Joab [h] came from purſuing a troup, and brought in a great ſpoil with them: (but Abner was not with David in Hebron, for he had ſent him away, and he was gone in peace)

h From war againſt the Philiſtines.

23 When Joab and all the hoſt that was with him, were come, they told Joab, ſaying, Abner the ſon of Ner came to the king, and he hath ſent him away, and he is gone in peace.

24 Then Joab came to the king, and ſaid, [i] What haſt thou done? behold, Abner came unto thee, why is it that thou haſt ſent him away, and he is quite gone?

i Here appeareth the malicious mind of Joab, who would have had the king to ſlay Abner for his private grudge.

25 Thou knoweſt Abner the ſon of Ner, that he came to deceive thee, and to know thy going out, and thy coming in, and to know all that thou doſt.

26 And when Joab was come out from David, he ſent meſſengers after Abner, which brought him again from the well of Sirah; but David knew it not.

27 And when Abner was returned to Hebron, Joab * took him aſide in the gate to ſpeak with him ‡ quietly: and ſmote him there under the fifth rib, that he died, for the bloud of * Aſahel his brother.

* 1 King. 2. 5.
‡ Or, peaceably.
* Chap. 2. 23.

28 ¶ And afterward when David heard it, he ſaid, I and my kingdom are [k] guiltleſs before the LORD for ever, from the † bloud of Abner the ſon of Ner:

k The Lord knoweth that I did not conſent to his death.

29 Let it reſt on the head of Joab, and on all his fathers houſe, and let there not † fail from the houſe of Joab one that hath an iſſue, or that is a leper, or that leaneth on a ſtaff, or that falleth on the ſword, or that lacketh bread.

† Heb. he cut off.

30 So Joab and [l] Abiſhai his brother ſlew Abner, becauſe he had ſlain their brother * Aſahel at Gibeon in the battel.

l Abiſhai is ſaid to ſlay him with Joab, becauſe he conſented to the murder.
* Chap. 2. 23.

31 ¶ And David ſaid to Joab, and to all the people that were with him, Rent your clothes, and gird you with ſackcloth, and mount before Abner. And king David himſelf followed the † bier, † Heb. bed.

32 And they buried Abner in Hebron: and the king lift up his voice, and wept at the grave of [m] Abner; and all the people wept.

m Meaning before the corps.

33 And the king lamented over Abner, and ſaid, Died Abner as a [n] fool dieth?

n He declareth that Abner died not as a wretch or vile perſon, but as a valiant man might do, being traiterouſly deceived by the wicked.

34 Thy hands were not bound, nor thy feet put into fetters: as a man falleth before † wicked men, ſo felleſt thou. And all the people wept again over him.

† Heb. children of iniquity.

35 And when all the people came to cauſe David to [o] eat meat while it was yet day, David ſware, ſaying, So do God to me, and more alſo, if I taſt bread or ought elſe, till the ſun be down.

o According to their cuſtom which was to banquet at burials.
† Heb. was good in their eyes.

36 And all the people took notice of it, and it † [p] pleaſed them. as whatſoever the king did, pleaſed all the people.

q It is expedient ſome time not only to conceive inward ſorrow, but alſo that it may appear to others, to the intent that they may be ſatisfied.

37 For

37 For all the people, and all Israel understood that day, that it was not of the king to slay Abner the son of Ner.

38 And the king said unto his servants, Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel?

39 And I am this day † weak, though anointed king; and these men the sons of Zeruiah be too hard for me: the LORD shall reward the doer of evil according to his wickedness.

CHAP. IV.

1 The Israelites being troubled at the death of Abner, 2 Baanah and Rachab slay Ish-bosheth, and bring his head to Hebron. 9 David causeth them to be slain, and Ish-bosheths head to be buried.

a That is, Ish-bosheth.
b Meaning, That he was discouraged.

AND when Sauls [a] son heard that Abner was dead in Hebron, his hands were [b] feeble, and all the Israelites were troubled.

† Heb. second.

2 And Sauls son had two men that were captains of bands: the name of the one was Baanah, and the name of the † other Rechab, the sons of Rimmon a Beerothite, of the children of Benjamin: (for [c] Beeroth also was reckoned to Benjamin;

c The city Beeroth was in the tribe of Benjamin, Josh. 18. 25.
d After the death of Saul, for fear of the Philistines.

3 And the Beerothites [d] fled to Gittaim, and were sojourners there until this day.)

4 And Jonathan, Sauls son, had a son that was lame of his feet, and was five years old when the tidings came of Saul and Jonathan out of Jezreel, and his nurse took him up, and fled: and it came to pass as she made haste to flee, that he fell, and became lame; and his name was Mephibosheth.

5 And the sons of Rimmon the Berothite, Rechab and Baanah, went, and came about the heat of the day to the house of Ish-bosheth, who lay on a bed at noon.

6 And they came thither into the midst of the house, as though they would have fetched [e] wheat; & they [f] smote him under the fifth rib, and Rechab and Baanah his brother escaped.

e They disguised themselves as merchants, which came to buy wheat.
f There is nothing so vile and dangerous, which the wicked will not enterprise in hope of lucre and favour.

7 For when they came into the house, he lay on his bed in his bed-chamber, and they smote him and slew him, and beheaded him, and took his head, and gat them away through the plain all night.

8 And they brought the head of Ish-bosheth unto David to Hebron, and said to the King, Behold the head of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, thine enemy, which sought thy life; and the LORD hath avenged my lord the king this day of Saul, and of his seed.

9 ¶ And David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said unto them, As the LORD liveth, who hath redeemed my soul out of all adversity,

* Chap. 1. 4, 15.
† Heb. he was in his own eyes as a bringer, &c.
‡ Or, which was the reward I gave him for his tidings.
g For as much as neither the example of him that slew Saul, nor duty to their master, nor the innocency of the person, nor reverence of the place, nor time did move them, they deserved most grievous punishment.

10 When * one told me, saying, Behold, Saul is dead, († thinking to have brought good tidings) I took hold of him, and slew him in Ziklag, ‡ who thought that I would have given him a reward for his tidings:

11 [g] How much more, when wicked men have slain a righteous person, in his own house, upon his bed? shall I not therefore now require his bloud of your hand, and take you away from the earth?

12 And David commanded his young men, and they slew them, and cut off their hands and their feet, and hanged them up over the pool in Hebron: but they took the head of Ish-bosheth, and buried it in the * sepulchre of Abner, in Hebron.

* Chap. 3. 32.

CHAP. V.

1 The tribes come to Hebron to anoint David over Israel. 4 Davids age. 6 He taking Zion from the Jebusites, dwelleth in it. 11 Hiram sendeth to David. 13 Eleven sons are born to him in Jerusalem. 17 David directed by God, smiteth the Philistines at Baalperazim, 22 and again, at the mulberry-trees.

THEN * came all the tribes of Israel to David unto Hebron, and spake, saying, Behold, we are thy [a] bone and thy flesh.

* 1 Chron. 11. 1.
a we are of thy kindred, and most neer joyned unto thee.

2 Also in time past when Saul was king over us, thou wast he that leddest out and broughtest in Israel: and the LORD said to thee, * Thou shalt feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be a captain over Israel.

* Psal. 78. 71.

3 So all the elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron, and king David made a league with them in Hebron [b] before the LORD: and they anointed David king over Israel.

b That is, Taking the Lord to witness: for the ark was as yet in Abinadabs house.

4 ¶ David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fourty years.

5 In Hebron he reigned over Judah * seven years, and six months: and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty and three years over all Israel and Judah.

* Chap. 2. 11.

6 ¶ And the king and his men went to Jerusalem, unto the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land: which spake unto David, saying, Except thou take away the [c] blind and the lame, thou shalt not come in hither: ‡ thinking, David cannot come in hither.

c The children of God called idols: Blind and lame guids: therefore the Jebusites meant that they should prove that their gods were neither blind nor lame.
‡ Or, saying, David shall not, &c.

7 Nevertheless, David took the strong hold of Zion: the same is the city of David.

8 And David said on that day, Whosoever getteth up to the gutter, and smiteth the Jebusites, and the lame, and the blind, that are hated of Davids soul, * he shall be chief and captain: ‡ wherefore they said, The blind and the [d] lame shall not come into the house.

* 1 Chron. 11. 6.
‡ Or, because the [9] had said, Even the blind and the lame [9] he shall not come into the house.
d The idols should enter no more into that place.

9 So David dwelt in the fort, and called it The city of David; and David built round about, from [e] Millo and inward.

e He built from the town-house round about to his own house, 1 Chron. 11. 8.

10 And David † went on, and grew great, and the LORD God of hosts was with him.

† Heb. went going and growing.

11 ¶ And *Hiram king of Tyre, sent messengers to David, and cedar-trees, and carpenters, and † masons: and they built David an house.

* 1 Chron. 14. 1.
† Heb. hewers of the stone of the wall.

12 And David perceived that the LORD had established him king over Israel, and that he had exalted his kingdom for his people Israels sake.

13 ¶ And *David took him mo concubines and wives out of Jerusalem, after he was come from Hebron: and there were yet sons and daughters born to David.

* 1 Chron. 3. 9.

14 And * these be the names of those that were born unto him in Jerusalem; Shammua, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Salomon,

* 1 Chron. 3. 5.

256

15 Ibhar also, and Elishua, and Nepheg, and Japhia,

16 And Elishama, and Eliada, and Eliphalet.

* 1 Chron. 11. 16. & 14. 8.

17 ¶ * But when the Philistines heard that they had anointed David king over Israel, all the Philistines came up to seek David; and David heard of it, and went down to the hold.

18 The Philistines also came and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim.

† By Abiathar the priest.

19 And David † enquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up to the Philistines? wilt thou deliver them into mine hand? And the LORD said unto David, Go up: for I will doubtless deliver the Philistines into thine hand.

* Isa. 28. 21.

20 And David came to * Baal-perazim, and David smote them there, and said, The LORD hath broken forth upon mine enemies before me, as the breach of waters. Therefore he called the name of that place, ‡ Baal-perazim.

‡ That is, The plain of breaches.

21 And there they left their images, and David and his men * ‡ burnt them.

* 1 Chron. 14. 12. ‡ Or, took them away.

22 ¶ And the Philistines came up yet again, and spread themselves in the valley of [g] Rephaim.

g Meaning, The valley of giants which David called Baal-perazim, because of his victory.

23 And when David enquired of the LORD, he said, Thou shalt not go up: but fetch a compass behind them, and come upon them over against the mulberry-trees.

24 And let it be when thou hearest the sound of a going in the tops of the mulberry-trees, that then thou shalt bestir thyself: for then shall the LORD go out before thee, to smite the host of the Philistines.

h which was in the tribe of Benjamin, but the Philistines did possess it.

25 And David did so, as the LORD had commanded him; and smote the Philistines from Geba, until thou come to [h] Gazer.

CHAP. VI.

1 David fetched the ark from Kirjath-jearim on a new cart. 6. Uzzah is smitten at Perez-uzzah. 11 God blesseth Obed-edom for the ark. 12 David bringing the ark into Zion with sacrifices, danceth before it, for which Michal despiseth him. 17 He placeth it in a tabernacle with great joy and feasting. 20 Michal reproving David for his religious joy, is childless to her death.

AGain, David gathered together all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand.

* 1 Chron. 13. 5, 6. ‖ This was a city in Judah, called also Kirjath-jearim Josh. 15. 9. ‡ Or, at which the name even the name of the LORD of hosts was called upon.

2 And * David arose, and went with all the people that were with him; from [a] Baale of Judah, to bring up from thence the ark of God, ‡ whose name is called by the name of the LORD of hosts, that dwelleth between the Cherubims.

‡ Heb. made to ride. ‡ Or, the hill. h which was an high place of the city of Baale.

3 And they † set the ark of God upon a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab that was in ‡ [b] Gibeah: & Uzzah & Ahio the sons of Abinadab, drave the new cart.

* 1 Sam. 7. 1. † Heb. with.

4 And they brought it out of * the house of Abinadab which was at Gibeah, † accompanying the ark of God; and Ahio went before the ark.

c Praised God and sang psalms.

5 And David, and all the house of Israel [c] played before the LORD on all manner of instruments made of fir-wood, even on harps, and on psalteries, and on timbrels, and on cornets, and on cymbals.

6 ¶ And * when they came to Nachons threshing-floor, Uzzah put forth his hand to the ark of God, and took hold of it, for the oxen ‡ shook it.

* 1 Chron. 13. 9. ‡ Or, stumbled.

7 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzzah, and God [d] smote him there for his ‡ errour, and there he died by the ark of God.

d Here we see what danger it is to follow good intentions, or to do any thing in Gods service without his express word. ‡ Or, rashness † Heb. broken. ‡ That is, the breach of Uzzah.

8 And David was displeased, because the LORD had † made a breach upon Uzzah: and he called the name of the place ‡ Perez-uzzah to this day.

9 And David was afraid of the LORD that day, and said, How shall ark the of the LORD come to me?

10 So David would not remove the ark of the LORD unto him into the city of David: but David carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the [e] Gittite.

e who was a Levite, and had dwelt in Gittaim, 1 Chron. 15. 21.

11 And the ark of the LORD continued in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite, three months: and the LORD blessed Obed-edom, and all his household.

12 ¶ And it was told king David, saying, The LORD hath blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that pertained unto him, because of the ark of God. * So David went & [f] brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom, into the city of David, with gladness.

* 1 Chron. 15. 15. f Meaning, He caused the Levites to bear it, according to the law.

13 And it was so, that when they that bare the ark of the LORD, had gone six paces, he sacrificed oxen and fatlings.

14 And David danced before the LORD with all his might, and David was girded with a linen [g] ephod.

g with a garment like to the priests garment.

15 So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet.

16 And as the ark of the LORD came into the city of David, Michal Sauls daughter looked through a window, and saw king David leaping and dancing before the LORD; and she [h] despised him in her heart.

h The wanderings are not able to comprehend the motions that move the children of God, to praise God by all manner of means. † Heb. straitned.

17 ¶ And they brought in the ark of the LORD, and set it in his place, in the midst of the tabernacle that David had † pitched for it: and David offered burnt-offerings, and peace-offerings before the LORD.

18 And assoon as David had made an end of offering burnt-offerings, and peace-offerings, * he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts.

* 2 Chron. 16. 2.

19 And he dealt among all the people, even among the whole multitude of Israel, as well to the women as men, to every one a cake of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine: so all the people departed, every one to his house.

20 ¶ Then David returned to [i] bless his household: and Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, How glorious was the king of Israel to day, who uncovered himself to day in the eyes of the hand-maids of his servants, as one of the vain fellows ‡ shamelessly uncovereth himself!

i That is, To pray for his house, as he had done for the people. * 1 King. ‡ Or, openly.

21 And

21 And David ſaid unto Michal, It was before the LORD, which choſe me [k] before thy father, and before all his houſe, to appoint me ruler over the people of the LORD, over Iſrael: therefore will I play before the LORD.

22 And I will yet be more vile then thus, and will be baſe in mine own ſight: and ‡ of the maid-ſervants which thou haſt ſpoken of, of them ſhall I be had in honour.

23 Therefore Michal the daughter of Saul had [l] no child until the day of her death.

k It was for no worldly affection, but onely for that zeal that I bare to Gods glory.

‡ Or, of the handmaids of my ſervants.

l which was a puniſhment, becauſe ſhe mocked the ſervant of God.

CHAP. VII.

1 Nathan firſt approving the purpoſe of David to build God an houſe, 4 after by the word of God forbiddeth him. 21 He promiſeth him benefits and bleſſings in his ſeed. 18 Davids prayer and thanksgiving.

AND it came to paſs, * when the king ſat in his houſe, and the LORD had given him reſt round about from all his enemies;

2 That the king ſaid unto Nathan the prophet, See now, I dwell in an houſe of cedar, but the ark of God dwelleth within [a] curtains.

3 And Nathan ſaid to the king, Go, do all that is in thine heart: for the LORD is with thee.

4 ¶ And it came to paſs that night, that the word of the LORD came unto Nathan, ſaying, 5 Go and tell † my ſervant David, Thus ſaith the LORD, [b] Shalt thou build me an houſe for me to dwell in?

6 Whereas I have not dwelt in any houſe, ſince the time that I brought up the children of Iſrael out of Egypt, even to this day, but have walked in a tent and in a tabernacle.

7 In all the places wherein I have walked with all the children of Iſrael, ſpake I a word with ‡ any of the [c] tribes of Iſrael, whom I commanded to feed my people Iſrael, ſaying, Why build ye not me an houſe of cedar?

8 Now therefore, ſo ſhalt thou ſay unto my ſervant David, Thus ſaith the LORD of hoſts, * I took thee from the ſheep-coat, † from following the ſheep, to be ruler over my people, over Iſrael.

9 And I was with thee whitherſoever thou wenteſt, and have cut off all thine enemies † out of thy ſight, and have made thee a great name, like unto the name of the [d] great men that are in the earth.

10 (Moreover, I will appoint a place for my people Iſrael, and will plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own, and move [e] no more: neither ſhall the children of wickedneſs afflict them any more, as before-time, 11 And as ſince the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Iſrael, and have cauſed thee to reſt from all thine enemies) Alſo the LORD telleth thee, that he will make thee an houſe.

12 ¶ And * when thy days be fulfilled, and thou ſhalt ſleep with thy fathers, I will ſet up thy ſeed after thee, which ſhall proceed out of thy bowels, and I will eſtabliſh his kingdom.

13 * He ſhall build an houſe for my name, and I will ſtabliſh the throne of his kingdom for ever.

14 * I will be his father, and he ſhall be my ſon: * if he commit iniquity, I will chaſten him with the [f] rod of men, and with the ſtripes of the children of men:

15 But my mercy ſhall not depart away from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I put away before thee.

16 And thine houſe, and thy kingdom ſhall be eſtabliſhed for ever before thee: thy throne ſhall be [g] eſtabliſhed for ever.

17 According to all theſe words, and according to all this viſion, ſo did Nathan ſpeak unto David.

18 ¶ Then went king David in, and ſat before the LORD, and he ſaid, Who am I, O LORD God? and what is my houſe, that thou haſt brought me hitherto?

19 And this was yet a ſmall thing in thy ſight, O LORD God; but thou haſt ſpoken alſo of thy ſervants houſe for a great while to come; and is this the † manner of [h] man, O LORD God?

20 And what can David ſay more unto thee? for thou, LORD God, knoweſt thy ſervant.

21 For thy words ſake, and according, to thine own heart haſt thou done all theſe great things, to make thy ſervant know them.

22 Wherefore thou art great, O LORD God: for there is none like thee, neither is there any God beſide thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

23 And * what one nation in the earth is like thy people, even like Iſrael, whom God went to redeem for a people to himſelf, and to make him a name, and to do for [i] you great things, and terrible, for thy [k] land, before thy people which thou redeemedſt to thee from Egypt, from the [l] nations and their gods?

24 For thou haſt [m] confirmed to thy ſelf thy people Iſrael to be a people unto thee for ever: and thou, LORD, art become their God.

25 And now, O LORD God, the word that thou haſt ſpoken concerning thy ſervant, and concerning his houſe, eſtabliſh it for ever, and do as thou haſt ſaid.

26 And let thy name be magnified for ever, ſaying, the LORD of hoſts is the God over Iſrael: and let the [n] houſe of thy ſervant David be eſtabliſhed before thee.

27 For thou, O LORD of hoſts, God of Iſrael, haſt † revealed to thy ſervant, ſaying, I will build thee an houſe: therefore hath thy ſervant found in his heart to pray this prayer unto thee.

28 And now, O LORD God, thou art that God, and * thy words be true, and thou haſt promiſed this goodneſs unto thy ſervant.

29 Therefore now † let it pleaſe thee to bleſs the houſe of thy ſervant, that it may continue for ever before thee: for thou, O LORD God, haſt [o] ſpoken it, and with thy bleſſing let the houſe of thy ſervant be bleſſed for ever.

1 David by Ziba ſendeth for Mephiboſheth. 7 For Jonathans ſake he entertaineth him at his table, and reſtoreth him all that was Sauls. 9 He maketh Ziba his farmer.

2 And there was of the houſe of Saul, a ſervant whoſe name was Ziba: & when they had called him unto David, the king ſaid unto him, Art thou Ziba? And he ſaid, Thy ſervant is he.

3 And the king ſaid, Is there not yet any of the houſe of Saul, that I may ſhew the [b] kindneſs of God unto him? And Ziba ſaid unto the king, Jonathan hath yet a ſon, which is * lame on his feet.

4 And the king ſaid unto him, Where is he? And Ziba ſaid unto the king, Behold, he is in the houſe of Machir, the ſon of Ammiel, in Lo-debar.

6 Now when Mephiboſheth, the ſon of Jonathan the ſon of Saul, was come unto David, he fell on his face, and did reverence. And David ſaid, Mephiboſheth. And he anſwered, Behold thy ſervant.

7 And David ſaid unto him, Fear not; for I will ſurely ſhew thee kindneſs, for Jonathan thy fathers ſake, and will reſtore thee all the land of Saul thy father, and thou ſhalt eat bread at my table continually.

CHAP. X.

1 Davids messengers sent to comfort Hanun the son of Nahash, are villanously intreated. 6 The Ammonites strengthned by the Syrians, are overcome by Joab and Abishai. 15 Shoback making a new supply of the Syrians at Helam, is slain by David.

1 AND it came to pass after this, that the * king of the children of Ammon died, and Hanun his son reigned in his stead.

* 1 Chron. 19. 1.

2 Then said David, I will shew kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father shewed [a] kindness unto me. And David sent to comfort him by the hand of his servants, for his father. And Davids servants came into the land of the children of Ammon.

a The children of God are not unmindful of benefits received.

3 And the princes of the children of Ammon said unto Hanun their lord, † Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? hath not David rather sent his servants unto thee, to [b] search the city, and to spy it out, and to overthrow it?

† Heb. in thine eyes doth David.

b Their arrogant malice would not suffer them to see the simplicity of Davids heart: therefore their counsel turned to the destruction of their country.

4 Wherefore Hanun took Davids servants, and shaved off the one half of their beards, and cut off their garments in the middle, even to their buttocks, and sent them away.

5 When they told it unto David, he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed: and the king said, Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.

6 ¶ And when the children of Ammon saw that they [c] stank before David, the children of Ammon sent and hired the Syrians of Beth-rehob, and the Syrians of Zoba, twenty thousand footmen, and of king Maacah a thousand men, and of Ish-tob twelve thousand men.

c That they had deserved Davids displeasure for the injury done to his ambassadours.

7 And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the host of the mighty men.

8 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battel in aray at the entring in of the gate: and the Syrians of [d] Zoba and of Rehob, and Ish-tob, and Maacah were by themselves in the field.

d These were divers parts of the country of Syria, whereby appeareth that the Syrians served, where they might have entertainment, as now the Syrians do.

9 When Joab saw that the front of the battel was against him before and behind, he chose of all the choice men of Israel, and put them in aray against the Syrians.

10 And the rest of the people he delivered into the hand of Abishai his brother, that he might put them in aray against the children of Ammon.

11 And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will come and help thee.

12 Be of good courage, and let us play the men for [e] our people, and for the cities of our God: and the LORD do that which seemeth him good.

e Here is declared wherefore war ought to be undertaken: for the defence of true religion and Gods people.

13 And Joab drew nigh, and the people that were with him, unto the battel against the Syrians: and they fled before him.

14 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, then fled they also before Abishai, and entred into the city; so Joab returned from the children of Ammon and came to Jerusalem.

15 ¶ And when the Syrians saw that they were smitten before Israel, they gathered themselves together.

16 And Hadarezer sent, & brought out the Syrians that were beyond the river, and they came to Helam; and Shobach the captain of the host of Hadarezer went before them.

17 And when it was told David, he gathered [f] all Israel together, and passed over Jordan, & came to Helam: & the Syrians set themselves in aray against David, and fought with him.

f Meaning; The greatest part.

18 And the Syrians fled before Israel, and David slew the men of [g] seven hundred chariots of the Syrians, and fourty thousand horsmen, and smote Shobach the captain of their host, who died there.

g which were the chiefest and most principal: for in all he destroyed 7000, as 1 Chron. 19. 11, or the souldiers which were in 700 chariots.

19 And when all the kings that were servants to Hadarezer saw that they were smitten before Israel, they made peace with Israel, and served them. So the Syrians feared to help the children of Ammon any more.

CHAP. XI.

1 While Joab besiegeth Rabbah, David committeth adultery with Bath-sheba. 6 Uriah sent for by David to cover the adultery, would not go home neither sober nor drunken. 14 He carrieth to Joab the letter of his death. 18 Joab sendeth the news thereof to David. 26 David taketh Bath-sheba to wife.

1 AND it came to pass, that † after the year was [a] expired, at the time when kings go forth to battel, that * David sent Joab and his servants with him, and all Israel; and they destroyed the children of Ammon, and besieged Rabbah: but David tarried still at Jerusalem.

† Heb. at the return of the year.

a The year following about the spring time.

* 1 Chron. 20. 1.

2 ¶ And it came to pass in an evening-tide, that David arose from off his [b] bed, & walked upon thee roof of the kings house: and from the roof he saw a woman washing her self, & the woman was very beautiful to look upon.

b whereupon he used to rest at afternoon, as was read of Ish-bosheth; Chap. 4. 7.

3 And David sent and enquired after the woman: and one said, Is not this Bath-sheba the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the [c] Hittite c who was not an Israelite born, but converted to the true religion.

4 And David sent messengers, & took her; and she came in unto him, and he lay with her, (‡ for she was * purified from her uncleanness) and she returned unto her house.

‡ Or, and when she had purified her self, &c, she returned.

* Lev. 15. 19. & 18. 19.

5 And the woman conceived, and sent and [d] told David, and said, I am with child.

d Fearing least she should be stoned according to the law.

6 ¶ And David sent to Joab, saying, Send me Uriah the Hittite. And Joab sent Uriah to David.

7 And when Uriah was come unto him, David demanded of him † how Joab did, and how the people did, and how the war prospered.

† Heb. of the peace of, &c.

8 And David said to Uriah, [e] Go down to thy house, and wash thy feet. And Uriah departed out of the kings house, and there † followed him a mess of meat from the king.

e David thought that if Uriah lay with his wife, his fault might be cloaked.

† Heb. went after him.

9 But Uriah slept at the door of the kings house, with all the servants of his lord, and went not down to his house.

10 And when they had told David, saying,

260 Uriah went not down unto his house, David said unto Uriah, Camest thou not from thy journey? why then didst thou not go down unto thine house?

f Hereby God would touch Davids conscience, that seeing the fidelity and religion of his servant, he would declare himself so forgetfull of God and injurious to his servant.

11 And Uriah said unto David, The [f] ark, and Israel, and Judah abide in tents, and my lord Joab, and the servants of my lord are encamped in the open fields; shall I then go into mine house, to eat and to drink, and to lie with, my wife? as thou livest, and as thy soul liveth, I will not do this thing.

12 And David said to Uriah, Tarry here to day also, and to morrow I will let thee depart. So Uriah abode in Jerusalem, that day and the morrow.

g He made him drink more liberally then he was wont to do, thinking thereby he would have lien by his wife.

13 And when David had called him, he did eat and [g] drink before him, and he made him drunk: and at even he went out to lie on his bed with the servants of his lord, but went not down to his house.

14 ¶ And it came to pass in the morning, that David wrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Uriah.

h Except God continually uphold us with his mighty spirit, the most perfect fall headlong into all vice and abomination.

15 And he wrote in the letter, saying, [h] Set ye Uriah in the fore-front of the † hottest battel, and retire ye † from him, that he may be smitten, and die.

16 And it came to pass when Joab observed the city, that he assigned Uriah unto a place where he knew that valiant men were.

17 And the men of the city went out, and fought with Joab: and there fell some of the people of the servants of David, and Uriah the Hittite died also.

18 ¶ Then Joab sent, and told David all the things concerning the war:

19 And charged the messenger, saying, When thou hast made an end of telling the matters of the war unto the king,

20 And if so be that the kings wrath arise, and he say unto thee, Wherefore approached ye so nigh unto the city when ye did fight? knew ye not that they would shoot from the wall?

i Meaning, Gideon, Judg. 9. 52, 53.

21 Who smote Abimelech the son of [i] Jerubbesheth? did not a woman cast a piece of a milstone upon him from the wall that he died in Thebez? why went ye nigh the wall? Then say thou, Thy servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.

22 ¶ So the messenger went, and came and shewed David all that Joab had sent him for.

23 And the messenger said unto David, Surely the man prevailed against us, and came out unto us into the field, and we were upon them even unto the entring of the gate.

24 And the shooters shot from off the wall upon thy servants, and some of the kings servants be dead, and thy servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.

k He dissembled with the messenger to the intent that neither his cruel commandment, nor Joabs wicked obedience might be espied.

25 Then David said unto the messenger, [k] Thus shalt thou say unto Joab, Let not this thing † displease thee: for the sword devoureth ‡ one as well as another: make thy battel more strong against the city, and overthrow it; and encourage thou him.

26 ¶ And when the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband was dead, she mourned for her husband.

27 And when the mourning was past, David sent, and fet her to his house, and she became his wife, and bare him a son: but the thing that David had done, † displeased the LORD.

1 Nathans parable of the ew-lamb, causeth David to be his own judge. 7 David, reproved by Nathan, confesseth his sin, and is pardoned. 15 David mourneth and prayeth for the child, while it lived. 24 Solomon is born, and named Jedidiah. 26 David taketh Rabbah, and tortureth the people thereof.

AND the LORD [a] sent Nathan unto David: and he came unto him, and said unto him, There were two men in one city; the one rich, and the other poor.

a Because David lay now drowned in sin, the loving mercy of GOD, which suffereth not his to perish, waketh his conscience by this similitude, and bringeth him to repentance.

2 The rich man had exceeding many flocks and herds:

3 But the poor man had nothing save one little ew-lamb, which he had bought and nourished up: and it grew up together with him, and with his children; it did eat of his own † meat, and drank of his own cup, and lay in his bosom, and was unto him as a daughter.

4 And there came a traveller unto the rich man, and he spared to take of his own flock, and of his own herd, to dress for the wayfaring man that was come unto him, but took the poor mans lamb, and dressed it for the man that was come to him.

5 And Davids anger was greatly kindled against the man, and he said to Nathan. As the LORD liveth, the man that hath done this thing, ‡ shall surely die.

‡ Or, is worthy to die.

6 And he shall restore the lamb * four-fold, because he did this thing, and because he had no pity.

* Exod. 22. 1.

7 ¶ And Nathan said to David, Thou art the man. Thus saith the LORD God of Israel I * anointed thee king over Israel, and I delivered thee out of the hand of Saul:

* 1 Sam. 16. 13.

8 And I gave thee thy [b] masters house, and thy masters [c] wives into thy bosom, and gave thee the house of Israel and of Judah; and if that had been too little, I would moreover have given unto thee [d] such and such things.

b For David succeeded Saul in his kingdom.
c The Jews understand this of Eglah and Michal, or of Rizpah and Michal.
d That is, Greater things then these: for Gods love and benefits increase toward his, if by their ingratitude they stay him not.

9 Wherefore hast thou despised the commandment of the LORD, to do evil in his sight? thou hast killed Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and hast taken his wife to be thy wife, and hast slain him with the sword of the [e] children of Ammon.

e Thou hast most cruelly given him into the hands of Gods enemies.

10 Now therefore the sword shall never depart from thine house; because thou hast despised me, and hast taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be thy wife

11 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will raise up evil against thee out of thine own house, and I will * take thy wives before thine eyes, and give them unto thy neighbour, and he shall lie with thy wives in the sight of this [f] sun.

* Deut. 28. 30. Chap. 16. 22.

f Meaning, Openly, as at noonday.

12 For thou didst it secretly: but I will do this thing thing before all Iſrael, and before the ſun.

13 And David ſaid unto Nathan, I have ſinned againſt the LORD. And Nathan ſaid unto David, * The LORD alſo hath [g] put away thy ſin; thou ſhalt not die, g Ecclus 47. 11. For the Lord ſeeketh but that the ſinner would turn to him.

14 Howbeit, becauſe by this deed thou haſt given great occaſion to the enemies of the LORD to [h] blaſpheme, the child alſo that is born unto thee, ſhall ſurely die.

h In ſaying, That the Lord hath appointed a wicked man to reign over his people.

15 ¶ And Nathan departed unto his houſe: and the LORD ſtrook the child that Uriahs wife bare unto David, and it was very ſick.

16 David therefore beſought God for the child, and David † faſted, and [i] went in, and lay all night upon the earth.

i To wit, to his priy chamber.

17 And the elders of his houſe aroſe, and went to him, to raiſe him up from the earth: but he would not, neither did he [k] eat bread with them.

k Thinking by his inſtant prayer, that God would have reſtored his child, but God had otherwiſe determined.

18 And it came to paſs on the ſeventh day, that the child died: and the ſervants of David feared to tell him that the child was dead: for they ſaid, Behold, while the child was yet alive, we ſpake unto him, and he would not hearken unto our voice: how will he then † vex himſelf, if we tell him that the child is dead?

† Heb. do hurt.

19 But when David ſaw that his ſervants whiſpered, David perceived that the child was dead: therefore David ſaid unto his ſervants, Is the child dead? And they ſaid, He is dead.

20 Then David [l] aroſe from the earth, and waſhed, and anointed himſelf, and changed his apparel, and came into the houſe of the LORD, and worſhipped; then he came to his own houſe, and when he required, they ſet bread before him, and he did eat.

l Shewing, That our lamentations ought not to be exceſſive, but moderate, and that we muſt praiſe God in all his doings.

21 Then ſaid his [m] ſervants unto him, What thing is this that thou haſt done? thou didſt faſt and weep for the child while it was alive, but when the child was dead, thou didſt riſe and eat bread.

m As they which conſider not that God granteth many things to the ſobs and tears of the faithfull.

22 And he ſaid, While the child was yet alive, I faſted and wept; for I ſaid, Who can tell whether God will be gracious to me, that the child may live?

23 But now he is dead, wherefore ſhould I faſt? [n] can I bring him back again? I ſhall go to him, but he ſhall not return to me.

n By this conſideration he appeaſed his ſorrow.

24 ¶ And David comforted Bath-ſheba his wife, and went in unto her, and lay with her: and * ſhe bare a ſon, and [o] he called his name Solomon; and the LORD loved him.

* Mat. 1. 6.
o To wit, The Lord, 1 Chron. 22. 9.

25 And he ſent by the hand of Nathan the [p] prophet; and [q] called his name ‡ Jedidiah, becauſe of the LORD.

p To call him Solomon.
q Meaning, David.
‡ That is, beloved of the Lord.

26 ¶ And Joab fought againſt Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and took the royal city.

27 And Joab ſent meſſengers to David, and ſaid, I have fought againſt Rabbah, and have taken the city of [r] waters, r That is, The chief city, and where all the conduits are, is as good as taken.

28 Now therefore, gather the reſt of the people together, and encamp againſt the city, and take it: leſt I take the city, and † it be called after my name.

† Heb. my name be called upon it.

29 And David gathered all the people together, and went to Rabbah, and fought againſt it, and took it.

30 * And he took their kings crown from off his head, (the weight whereof was a [s] talent of gold, with the precious ſtones) and it was ſet on Davids head: and he brought forth the ſpoil of the city † in great abundance.

* 1 Chron. 20 2.
s That is, Threeſcore pound after the weight of the common talent.
† Heb. very great.

31 And he brought forth the people that were therein, and put them under [t] ſaws, and under harrows of iron, and under axes of iron, and made them paſs through the brick-kiln: and thus did he unto all the cities of the children of Ammon. So David and all the people returned unto Jeruſalem.

t Signifying, That as they were malicious enemies of God, ſo he put them to cruel death.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Amnon loving Tamar, by Jonadabs counſel feigning himſelf ſick raviſheth her. 15 He hateth her, and ſhamefully turneth her away. 19 Abſalom entertaineth her, and concealeth his purpoſe. 24 At a ſheepſhearing, among all the kings ſons, he killeth Amnon. 30 David grieving at the news, is comforted by Jonadab, 37 Abſalom fleeth to Ialmai at Geſhur.

AND it came to paſs after this, that Abſalom the ſon of David had a fair ſiſter, whoſe name was [a] Tamar, and Amnon the ſon of David loved her.

a Tamar was Abſaloms ſiſter both by father and mother. and Amnons onely by father

2 And Amnon was ſo vexed, that he fell ſick for his ſiſter Tamar: for ſhe was a [b] virgin: and † Amnon thought it hard for him to do any thing to her.

b And therefore kept in her fathers houſe, as virgins were accuſtomed.
† Heb. it was marvellous; or; hidden in the eyes of Amnon.

3 But Amnon had a friend, whoſe name was Jonadab, the ſon of Shimeah, Davids brother: and Jonadab was a very ſubtil man.

4 And he ſaid unto him, Why art thou, being the kings ſon, † lean † from day to day? wilt thou not tell me? And Amnon ſaid unto him, I love Tamar, my brother Abſaloms ſiſter.

† Heb. morning by morning.

5 And Jonadab ſaid unto him, [c] Lay thee down on thy bed, and make thy ſelf ſick: and when thy father cometh to ſee thee, ſay unto him, I pray thee, let my ſiſter Tamar come, and give me meat, and dreſs the meat in my ſight, that I may ſee it, and eat it at her hand.

c Here we ſee that there is no enterpriſe ſo wicked, that can lack counſel to further it.

6 ¶ So Amnon lay down, and made himſelf ſick: and when the king was come to ſee him, Amnon ſaid unto the king, I pray thee, let Tamar my ſiſter come, and make me a couple of [d] cakes in my ſight, that I may eat at her hand.

d Meaning, ſome delicate and daintie meat.

7 Then David ſent home to Tamar, ſaying, Go now to thy brother Amnons houſe, and dreſs him meat.

8 So Tamar went to her brother Amnons houſe, (and he was laid down) and ſhe took ‡ flour, and kneaded it, and make cakes in his ſight, and did bake the cakes.

‡ Or, paſte.

9 And ſhe took a pan, and [e] poured them out before him, but he refuſed to eat: and Amnon ſaid, Have out all men from [f] me: and they went out every man from him.

e That is, She ſerved them on a diſh.
f For the wicked are aſhamed to do that before men, which they are not afraid to commit in the ſight of God.

10 And Amnon ſaid unto Tamar, Bring the meat into the chamber, that I may eat of thine hand. And Tamar took the cakes which ſhe had 262 had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amnon her brother.

11 And when ſhe had brought them unto him to eat, he took hold of her, and ſaid unto her, Come lie with me, my ſiſter.

12 And ſhe anſwered him, Nay, my brother, do not † force me: for * † no ſuch thing ought to be done in Iſrael; do not thou this folly.

† Heb. humble me.
* Lev. 18. 9.
† Heb it ought not ſo to be done.

13 And I, whither ſhall I cauſe my ſhame to go? and as for thee, thou ſhalt be as one of the [g] fools in Iſrael: now therefore, I pray thee, ſpeak unto the king; for he will not withhold me from thee.

g As a lewd and wicked perſon.

14 Howbeit, he would not hearken unto her voice: but being ſtronger then ſhe, forced her, and lay with her.

15 ¶ Then Amnon hated her † exceedingly, ſo that the hatred wherewith he hated her, was greater then the love wherewith he had loved her: and Amnon ſaid unto her, Ariſe, be gone.

† Heb with great hatred greatly.

16 And ſhe ſaid unto him, There is no cauſe; this evil in ſending me away, is greater then the other that thou didſt unto me: but he would not hearken unto her.

17 Then he called his ſervant that miniſtred unto him, and ſaid, Put now this woman out from me, and bolt the door after her.

18 And ſhe had a garment of [h] divers colours upon her: for with ſuch robes were the kings daughters that were virgins, apparelled. Then his ſervant brought her out, and bolted the door after her.

h For that which was of divers colours, or pieces, in thoſe days was had in great eſtimation, Gen. 37. 3. Judg. 5. 30.

19 ¶ And Tamar put aſhes on her head, and rent her garment of divers colours that was on her, and laid her hand on her head, and went on crying.

25 And Abſalom her brother ſaid unto her, Hath Amnon thy brother been with thee? but hold now thy [i] peace, my ſiſter: he is thy brother, † regard not this thing. So Tamar remained † deſolate in her brother Abſaloms houſe.

i For though he conceived ſudden vengeance in his heart, yet he diſſembled it till occaſion ſerved and comforted his ſiſter.
† Heb. ſet not thine heart.
† Heb. and deſolate.

21 ¶ But when king David heard of all theſe things, he was very wroth.

22 And Abſalom ſpake unto his brother Amnon neither good nor bad: for Abſalom hated Amnon, becauſe he had forced his ſiſter Tamar.

23 ¶ And it came to paſs after two full years, that Abſalom had ſheep-ſhearers in Baal-hazor, which is beſide Ephraim: and [k] Abſalom invited all the kings ſons.

k To wit, To a banket, thinking thereby to fulfil his wicked purpoſe.

24 And Abſalom came to the king, and ſaid, Behold now, thy ſervant hath ſheep-ſhearers, let the king, I beſeech thee, and his ſervants, go with thy ſervant.

25 And the king ſaid to Abſalom, Nay, my ſon, let us not all now go, leaſt we be chargeable unto thee. And he preſſed him: howbeit he would not go, but bleſſed him.

26 Then ſaid Abſalom, If not, I pray thee, let my brother [l] Amnon go with us. And the king ſaid unto him, Why ſhould he go with thee?

l Pretending to the king, that Amnon was moſt dear unto him.

27 But Abſalom preſſed him, that he let Amnon and all the kings ſons go with him.

28 ¶ Now Abſalom had commanded his ſervants, ſaying, Mark ye now when Amnons heart is merry with wine, and when I ſay unto you, Smite Amnon, then kill him, fear not: ‡ [m] have not I commanded you? be couragious, and be † valiant.

† Or, will you not, ſince I have commanded you?
m Such is the pride of the wicked maſters, that in all their wicked commandments they think to be obeyed.
† Heb. ſons of valour.

29 And the ſervants of Abſalom did unto Amnon, as Abſalom had commanded: then all the kings ſons aroſe, and every man † gat him up upon his mule, and fled.

† Heb. rode.

30 ¶ And it came to paſs while they were in the way, that tidings came to David, ſaying, Abſalom hath ſlain all the kings ſons, and there is not one of them left.

31 Then the king aroſe, and tare his [n] garments, and lay on the earth; and all his ſervants ſtood by with their clothes rent.

n Lamenting, as he that ſeeſ the wrath of God upon his houſe, Chap. 12. 20.

32 And Jonadab the ſon of Shimeah Davids brother, anſwered and ſaid, Let not my lord ſuppoſe that they have ſlain all the young men the kings ſons; for Amnon onely is dead: for by the † appointment of Abſalom this hath been ‡ determined, from the day that he forced his ſiſter Tamar.

† Heb mouth.
‡ Or, ſaid.

33 Now therefore let not my lord the king take the thing to his heart, to think that all the kings ſons are dead: for Ammon onely is dead.

34 But Abſalom fled. And the young man that kept the watch, lift up his eyes, and looked, and behold, there came much people by the way of the hill-ſide behind him.

35 And Jonadab ſaid unto the king, Behold, the kings ſons come: † as thy ſervant ſaid, ° ſo it is.

† Heb. according to the word of thy ſervant.
o That onely Amnon is dead.

36 And it came to paſs aſſoon as he had made an end of ſpeaking, that behold, the kings ſons came, and lift up their voice and wept: and the king alſo and all his ſervants wept † very ſore.

† Heb. with a great weeping greatly.

37 ¶ But Abſalom fled, and went to [p] Talmai the ſon of ‡ Ammihud king of Geſhur: and David mourned for his ſon every day.

p For Maachah his mother was the daughter of this Talmai. Chap. 3. 3.
‡ Or, Ammihur.

38 So Abſalom fled, and went to Geſhur, and was there three years.

39 And the ſoul of king David ‡ longed to go forth unto Abſalom: for he was comforted concerning Amnon, ſeeing he was dead.

‡ Or, was conſumed.

Chap. XIV.

1 Joab, ſuborning a widow of Tekoah, by a parable to incline the kings heart to fetch home Abſalom, bringeth him to Jeruſalem. 25 Abſaloms beauty, hair, and children. 28 After two years, Abſalom by Joab is brought into the kings preſence.

NOw Joab the ſon of Zeruiah perceived that the kings [a] heart was toward Abſalom.

a That the king favoured him.

2 And Joab ſent to Tekoah, and fetcht thence a wiſe woman, and ſaid unto her, I pray thee, feign thy ſelf to be a mourner, and put on now mourning-apparel, and [b] anoint not thy ſelf with oyl, but be as a woman that had a long time mourned for the dead:

b In token of mourning: for they uſed anointing to ſeem chearful.

3 And come to the king, and ſpeak on this manner manner unto him: ſo Joab put the words in her mouth.

4 ¶ And when the woman of Tekoah ſpake to the king, ſhe fell on her face to the ground, and did obeiſance, and ſaid, † Help, O king.

† Heb. ſave.

5 And the king ſaid unto her, What aileth thee? And ſhe anſwered, I am indeed a widow woman, and mine husband is dead, c Under this parable ſhe deſcribed the death of Amnon by Abſalom.

6 And thy hand-maid had [c] two ſons, and they two ſtrove together in the field, and there was ‡ none to part them, but the one ſmote the other, and ſlew him.

7 And behold, the whole family is riſen againſt thine hand-maid, and they ſaid, Deliver him that ſmote his brother, that we may kill him, for the [d] life of his brother whom he ſlew, and we will deſtroy the heir alſo: and ſo they ſhall quench my coal which is left, and ſhall not leave to my husband neither name nor remainder † upon the earth.

d Becauſe he hath ſlain his brother, he ought to be ſlain, according to the law, Gen. 9.6. Exod. 21.12.

† Heb. upon the face of the earth.

8 And the king ſaid unto the woman, Go to thine houſe, and I will give charge concerning thee.

9 And the woman of Tekoah ſaid unto the king, My lord, O king, the [e] iniquity be on me, and on my fathers houſe: and the king and his throne be guiltleſs.

e As touching the breach of that law which puniſheth the bloud, let me bear the blame.

10 And the king ſaid, Whoſoever ſaith ought unto thee, bring him to me, and he ſhall not touch thee any more.

11 Then ſaid ſhe, I pray thee, let the king [f] remember the LORD thy God, † that thou wouldeſt not ſuffer the revengers of bloud to deſtroy any more, leſt they deſtroy my ſon. And he ſaid, As the LORD liveth, there ſhall not one hair of thy ſon fall to the earth.

f Sweat that they ſhall not revenge the bloud, which are many in number.
† Heb. that the revenger of bloud do not multiply to deſtroy.

12 Then the woman ſaid, Let thine hand-maid, I pray thee, ſpeak one word unto my lord the king. And he ſaid, Say on,

13 And the woman ſaid, Wherefore then haſt thou [g] thought ſuch a thing againſt the people of God? for the king doth ſpeak this thing, as one which is faulty, in that the king doth not fetch home again his baniſhed.

g why doſt thou give contrary ſentence in thy ſon Abſalom?

14 For we muſt needs die, and are as water ſpilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again: ‡ neither doth God reſpect any perſon, yet doth he deviſe [h] means, that his baniſhed be not expelled from him.

‡ Or, becauſe God doth not taken away his life, he hath alſo deviſed means, &c. h God hath provided ways (as ſanctuaries) to ſave them oft-times, whom man judgeth worthy of death.

15 Now therefore that I am come to ſpeak of this thing unto my lord the king, it is becauſe the people have made me [i] afraid: and thy hand-maid ſaid, I will now ſpeak unto the king; it may be that the king will perform the requeſt of his hand-maid.

i For I thought they would kill this mine heir.

16 For the king will hear, to deliver his hand-maid out of the hand of the man that would deſtroy me and my ſon together out of the inheritance of God:

17 Then thine hand-maid ſaid, The word of my lord the king ſhall now be † comfortable: for as an [k] angel of God, ſo is my lord the king † to diſcern good and bad: therefore the LORD thy God will be with thee.

k Is of great wiſdom to diſcern right from wrong.
† Heb. to hear.

18 Then the king anſwered and ſaid unto the woman. Hide not from me, I pray thee, the thing that I ſhall ask thee. And the woman ſaid, Let my lord the king now ſpeak.

19 And the king ſaid, Is not the [l] hand of Joab with thee in all this? And the woman anſwered and ſaid, As thy ſoul liveth, my lord the king, none can turn to the right hand or to the left from ought that my lord the king hath ſpoken: for thy ſervant Joab he bade me, and he put all theſe words in the mouth of thine hand-maid:

l Haſt not thou done this by the counſel of Joab?

20 To [m] fetch about this form of ſpeech hath thy ſervant Joab done this thing: and my lord is wiſe, according to the wiſdom of an angel of God, to know all things that are in the earth.

m By ſpeaking rather in a parable then plainly.

21 ¶ And the king ſaid unto Joab, Behold now, I have [n] done this thing: go therefore, bring the young man Abſalom again.

n I have granted thy requeſt.

22 And Joab fell to the ground on his face, and bowed himſelf, and † thanked the king: and Joab ſaid, To day thy ſervant knoweth that I have found grace in thy ſight, my lord, O king, in that the king hath fulfilled the requeſt of ‡ his ſervant.

† Heb. bleſſed.
‡ Or, thy.

23 So Joab aroſe and went to Geſhur, and brought Abſalom to Jeruſalem.

24 And the king ſaid, Let him [o] turn to his own houſe, and let him not ſee my face. So Abſalom returned to his own houſe, and ſaw not the kings face.

o Covering hereby his affection, and ſhewing ſome part of juſtice to pleaſe the people.

25 ¶ †But in all Iſrael there was none to be ſo much praiſed as Abſalom, for his beauty: from the ſole of his foot even to the crown of his head, there was no blemiſh in him.

† Heb. And as Abſalom there was not a beautiful man in all Iſrael to praiſe greatly.

26 And when he polled his head, (for it was at every years end that he polled it: becauſe the hair was heavy on him, therefore he polled it) he weighed the hair of his head at [p] two hundred ſhekels after the kings weight.

p which weighed ſix pound and 4 ounces, after half an ounce the ſhekel.

27 And unto Abſalom there were born three ſons and one daughter, whoſe name was Tamar: ſhe was a woman of a fair countenance.

28 ¶ So Abſalom dwelt two full years in Jeruſalem, and ſaw not the kings face.

29 Therefore Abſalom ſent for Joab, to have ſent him to the king, but he would not come to him: and when he ſent again the ſecond time, he would not come.

30 Therefore he ſaid unto his ſervants, See Joabs field is † near mine, and he hath barley there; go and [p] ſet it on fire: and Abſaloms ſervants ſet the field on fire.

† Heb. near my place.
q The wicked are impatient in their affections, and ſpare no unlawfull means to compaſs them.

31 Then Joab aroſe and came to Abſalom unto his houſe, and ſaid unto him, Wherefore have thy ſervants ſet my field on fire?

32 And Abſalom anſwered Joab, Behold, I ſent unto thee, ſaying, Come hither, that I may ſend thee to the king, to ſay, Wherefore am I come from Geſhur? it had been good for me to have been there ſtill: now therefore let me ſee the kings face; and [r] if there be any iniquity in me, let him kill me.

r If I have offended by revenging my ſiſters diſhonour: thus the wicked juſtify themſelves in their evill.

33 So Joab came to the king, and told him: and when he had called for Abſalom, he came to the king, and bowed himſelf on his face to the 264 the ground before the king, and the king kissed Absalom.

CHAP. XV.

1 Absalom by fair speeches and courtesies, stealeth the hearts of Israel. 7 Under pretence of a vow, he obtaineth leave to go to Hebron. 10 He maketh there a great conspiracy. 13 David upon the news fleeth from Jerusalem. 19 Ittai would not leave him. 24 Zadok and Abiathar are sent back with the ark. 30 David and his company go up mount Olivet weeping. 31 He curseth Ahithophels counsel. 32 Hushai is sent back with instructions.

AND it came to pass after this, that Absalom prepared him chariots, and horses, and [a] fifty men to run before him.

a which were as a guard to set forth his estate.

2 And Absalom rose up early, & stood beside the way of the gate: & it was so, that when any man that had a controversy † came to the king for judgment, then Absalom called unto him, and said, Of what city art thou? And he said, Thy servant is of one of the [b] tribes of Israel.

† Heb. to come.

b That is, noting of what city or place he was.

3 And Absalom said unto him, See, thy matters are good and right, but there is ‡ no man deputed of the king to hear thee.

‡ Or, none will hear thee from the king downward.

4 Absalom said moreover, [c] Oh that I were made judge in the land, that every man which hath any suit or cause, might come unto me, and I would do him justice.

c Thus by slander flattery, and fair promises the wicked seek preferment.

5 And it was so, that when any man came nigh to him to do him obeisance, he put forth his hand, and took him and kissed him.

6 And on this manner did Absalom to all Israel that came to the king for judgment: so Absalom [d] stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

d By inciting them from his father to himself.

7 ¶ And it came to pass after [e] fourty years, that Absalom said unto the king, I pray thee let me go and pay my vow, which I have vowed unto the LORD, in Hebron.

e Counting from the time that the Israelites had asked a king of Samuel.

8 For thy servant vowed a vow while I abode at Geshur in Syria, saying, If the LORD shall bring me again indeed to [f] Jerusalem, then I will serve the LORD.

f By offering a peace-offering. which was lawfull to do in any place.

9 And the king said unto him, Go in peace. So he arose and went to Hebron.

10 ¶ But Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, Assoon as ye hear the sound of the trumpet, then ye shall say, Absalom reigneth in Hebron.

11 And with Absalom went two hundred men out of Jerusalem, that were [g] called, and they went in their simplicity, and they knew not any thing.

g And bid to his feasts in Hebron.

12 And Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, Davids counsellour, from his city, even from Giloh, while he offered sacrifices: and the conspiracy was strong; for the people increased continually with Absalom.

13 ¶ And there came a messenger to David, saying, The hearts of the men of Israel are after Absalom.

14 And David said unto all his servants that were with him at Jerusalem, Arise, and let us flee; for we shall not else escape from [h] Absalom: make speed to depart, lest he overtake us suddenly, and † bring evil upon us, and smite the city with the edge of the sword.

h whose heart he saw that Satan had so possessed, that he would leave no mischief unattemped.

† Heb. thrust.

15 And the kings servants said unto the king, Behold, thy servants are ready to do whatsoever my lord the king shall † appoint.

† Heb. choose.

16 And the king went forth, and all his household † after him: & the king left ten women, which were concubines, to keep the house.

† Heb. at his feet

17 And the king went forth, and all the people after him, and tarried in a place that was [i] far off.

i To wit, from Jerusalem.

18 And all his servants passed on beside him; and all the [k] Cherethites, and all the Pelethites, and all the Gittites, six hundred men which came after him from God, passed on before the king.

k These were as the kings guard, or, as some write, His counsellours.

19 ¶ Then said the king to [l] Ittai the Gittite, Wherefore goest thou also with us? return to thy place, and abide with the king: for thou art a stranger, and also an exile.

l who as some write, was the kings son of Gath.

20 Whereas thou camest but yesterday, should I this day † make thee go up and down with us? seeing I go whither I may, return thou, and take back thy [m] brethren: mercy and [n] truth be with thee.

† Heb made th wander in going.

m Meaning, Them of his family.

n God requite thee thy friendship and fidelity.

21 And Ittai answered the king, and said, As the LORD liveth, and as my lord the king liveth, surely in what place my lord the king shall be, whether in death, or life, even there also will thy servant be.

22 And David said to Ittai, Go, and pass over. And Ittai the Gittite passed over, and all his men, and all the little ones that were with him.

23 And all the country wept with a loud voice, and [o] all the people passed over: the king also himself passed over the brook ‡ Kidron, and all the people passed over, toward the way of the wilderness.

o To wit, The six hundred men.

‡ Called, John 18. 1, Cedron.

24 ¶ And lo, Zadok also, and all the Levites were with him, [p] bearing the ark of the covenant of God, and they set down the ark of God; and Abiathar went [q] up, untill all the people had done passing out of the city.

p which was the charge of the Kohathites Num. 4 4.

q To stand by the ark.

25 And the king said unto Zadok, Carry back the ark of God into the city: If I shall find favour in the eyes of the LORD, he will bring me again, and shew me both it, and his habitation.

26 But if he thus say, I have no delight in thee: behold, [r] here am I, let him do to me as seemeth good unto him.

r The faithfull in all their afflictions shew themselves obedient to Gods will.

27 The king said also unto Zadok the priest, Art not thou a * seer? return into the city in peace, & your two sons with you, Ahimaaz thy son, & Jonathan the son of Abiathar.

* 1 Sam. 9. 9.

28 See, I will tarry in the plain of the wilderness, until there come word from you to certify me.

29 Zadok therefore and Abiathar carried the ark of God again to Jerusalem; and they tarried there.

30 ¶ And David went up by the ascent of mount Olivet, † and wept as he went up, and had his head covered, and he went bare-foot: and all the people that was with him, [s] covered every man his head, and they went up, weeping as they went up.

† Heb. going up and weeping.

s with ashes, and dust in signe of sorrow.

31 ¶ And

31 ¶ And one told David, ſaying, Ahithophel is among the conſpiratours with Abſalom. And David ſaid, O LORD, I pray thee, turn the [r] counſel of Ahithophel into fooliſhneſs.

r The counſel of the crafty worldlings doth more harm, then the open force of the enemy.

32 ¶ And it came to paſs that when David was come to the top of the mount, where he worſhipped God, behold, Huſhai the Archite came to meet him, with his coat rent, and earth upon his head:

33 Unto whom David ſaid, If thou paſſeſt on with me, then thou ſhalt be a burden unto me.

34 But if thou return to the city, and ſay unto Abſalom, I will be thy [u] ſervant, O king; as I have been thy fathers ſervant hitherto, ſo will I now alſo be thy ſervant: then mayſt thou for me defeat the counſel of Ahithophel.

u Though Huſhai diſſembled here at the kings requeſt, yet may we not uſe this example to excuſe our diſſimulation.

35 And haſt thou not there with thee Zadok and Abiathar the prieſts? therefore it ſhall be, that what thing ſoever thou ſhalt hear out of the kings houſe, thou ſhalt tell it to Zadok and Abiathar the prieſts.

36 Behold, they have there with them their two ſons, Ahimaaz Zadoks ſon, and Jonathan Abiathars ſon: and by them ye ſhall ſend unto me every thing that ye can hear.

37 So Huſhai Davids friend came into the city, and Abſalom came into Jeruſalem.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Ziba by preſents and falſe ſuggeſtions, obtaineth his maſters inheritance. 5 At Bahurim Shimei curſeth David. 6 David with patience abſtaineth and reſtraineth others from revenge. 15 Huſhai inſinuateth himſelf into Abſaloms counſel. 20 Ahithophels counſel.

[a] which was the hill of Olives, Chap. 15. 33.

AND when David was a little paſt the [a] top of the hill, behold, Ziba the ſervant of Mephibоſheth met him with a couple of aſſes ſadled, and upon them two hundred loavs of bread, & an hundred bunches of raiſins, & an hundred of ſummer-fruits, and a bottle of wine.

2 And the king ſaid unto Ziba, What meaneſt thou by theſe? And Ziba ſaid, The [b] aſſes be for the kings houſhold to ride on, and the bread and ſummer-fruit for the young men to eat, and the wine, that ſuch as be faint in the wilderneſs may drink.

b Commonly there are no viler traitours then they, which under pretence of friendſhip accuſe.

3 And the king ſaid, And where is thy maſters ſon? And Ziba ſaid unto the king, Behold, he abideth at Jeruſalem: for he ſaid, To day ſhall the houſe of Iſrael reſtore me the kingdom of my father.

4 Then ſaid the king to Ziba, Behold, thine are all that pertained unto Mephibоſheth. And Ziba ſaid, † I humbly beſeech thee that I may find grace in thy ſight, my lord O king.

† Heb. I do obeyſance.

5 ¶ And when king David came to [c] Bahurim, behold, thence came out a man of the family of the houſe of Saul, whoſe name was Shimei the ſon of Gera: ‡ he came forth and curſed ſtill as he came.

c which was a city in the tribe of Benjamin.

‡ Or, he ſtill came forth and curſed.

6 And he caſt ſtones at David, and at all the ſervants of king David: and all the people, and all the mighty men were on his [d] right hand, and on his left.

d That is, Round about him.

7 And thus ſaid Shimei when he curſed, Come out, come out thou † bloudy man, and thou man of Belial:

† Heb. man of bloud.

8 The LORD hath returned upon thee all the [e] bloud of the houſe of Saul, in whoſe ſtead thou haſt reigned, and the LORD hath delivered the kingdom into the hand of Abſalom thy ſon: and † behold, thou art taken in thy miſchief, becauſe thou art a bloudy man.

e Reproaching him as though by his means Iſh-boſheth and Abner were ſlain.

† Heb. behold thee in thy evil.

9 ¶ Then ſaid Abiſhai the ſon of Zeruiah unto the king, Why ſhould this * dead dog curſe my lord the king? let me go over, I pray thee, and take off his head.

* 1 Sam. 24. 14. Chap. 9. 8.

10 And the king ſaid, What have I to do with you, ye ſons of Zeruiah? ſo let him curſe, becauſe the LORD hath [f] ſaid unto him, Curſe David. Who ſhall then ſay, Wherefore haſt thou done ſo?

f David felt that this was the judgment of God for his ſin, and therefore humbled himſelf to his rod.

11 And David ſaid to Abiſhai, and to all his ſervants, Behold, my ſon, which came forth of my bowels, ſeeketh my life: how much more now may this Benjamite do it? let him alone, and let him curſe: for the LORD hath bidden him.

12 It may be that the LORD will look on mine ‡† affliction, and that the LORD will [g] requite me good for his curſing this day.

g Meaning, That the Lord will ſend comfort to his when they are oppreſſed.

13 And as David and his men went by the way, Shimei went along on the hills ſide over againſt him, and curſed as he went, and threw ſtones at him, and † caſt duſt.

14 And the king, and all the people that were with him, came weary, and refreſhed themſelves [h] there.

h To wit, At Bahurim.

15 ¶ And Abſalom and all the people, the men of Iſrael, came to Jeruſalem, and Ahithophel with him, 16 And it came to paſs when Huſhai the Archite, Davids friend, was come unto Abſalom, that Huſhai ſaid unto Abſalom, † God ſave the king, God ſave the king.

† Heb. Let the king live.

17 And Abſalom ſaid to Huſhai, Is this thy kindneſs to thy [i] friend? why wenteſt thou not with thy friend?

i Meaning, David.

18 And Huſhai ſaid unto Abſalom, Nay, but whom the LORD and this people and all the men of Iſrael chooſe, his will I do, and with him will I abide.

19 And again, whom ſhould I ſerve? ſhould I not ſerve in the preſence of his ſon? as I have ſerved in thy fathers preſence, ſo will I be in thy preſence.

20 ¶ Then ſaid Abſalom to Ahitophel, Give counſel among you what we ſhall do.

21 And [k] Ahithophel ſaid unto Abſalom, Go in unto thy fathers concubines, which he hath left to keep the houſe, and all Iſrael ſhall hear that thou art abhorred of thy father, then ſhall the hands of all that are with thee be ſtrong.

k Suſpecting the change of the kingdom, and ſo his own overthrow, he giveth ſuch counſel as might moſt hinder his fathers reconciliation, and alſo declare to the people that Abſalom was in higheſt authority.

22 So they ſpread Abſalom a tent upon the top of the houſe, and Abſalom went in unto his fathers concubines, in the ſight of all Iſrael.

23 And the counſel of Ahithophel which he counſelled in theſe days, was as if a man had enquired at the † oracle of God: ſo was all the [l] counſel of Ahithophel, both with David and with Abſalom.

l It was ſo eſteemed for the ſucceſs thereof.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Ahithophels counsel is overthrown by Hushai's, according to Gods appointment. 15 Secret intelligence is sent unto David. 23 Ahithophel hangeth himself. 25 Amasa is made captain. 27. David at Mahanaim is furnished with provision.

MOreover, Ahithophel said unto Absalom, Let me now [a] choose out twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue after David this night.

a The wicked are so greedy to execute their malice, that they leave none occasion that may further the same.

2 And I will come upon him while he is weary and weak-handed, and will make him afraid: and all the people that are with him shall flee, and I will smite the king onely.

3 And I will bring back all the people unto thee: [b] the man whom thou seekest, is as if all returned: so all the people shall be in peace.

b Meaning, David.

4 And the saying † pleased Absalom well, and all the elders of Israel.

† Heb was right in the eyes of, &c.

5 Then said Absalom, Call now Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear likewise † what he saith.

† Heb. what is in his mouth.

6 And when Hushai was come to Absalom, Absalom spake unto him, saying, Ahithophel hath spoken after this manner: shall we do after his † saying? if not; speak thou.

† Heb. word.

7 And Hushai said unto Absalom, The † counsel that Ahithophel hath † given, is not [c] good at this time.

† Heb. counselled

c Hushai sheweth himself faithful to David, in that he reproveth this wicked counsel and purpose

† Heb. bitter, of soul.

8 For (said Hushai) thou knowest thy father and his men, that they be mighty men, and they be † chafed in their minds, as a bear robbed of her whelps in the field, and thy father is a man of war, and will not lodge with the people.

9 Behold, he is hid now in some pit, or in some other place: and it will come to pass, when some of them be † overthrown at the first, that whosoever heareth it will say, There is a slaughter among the people that follow Absalom.

† Heb. fallen.

10 And he also that is valiant, whose heart is as the heart of a lion, shall utterly melt: for all Israel knoweth that thy father is a mighty man, and they which be with him are valiant men.

11 Therefore I counsel, that all Israel be generally gathered unto thee, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, as the sand that is by the sea for multitude, and † that thou go to battel in thine own person.

† Heb. that thy face, or, presence go, &c.

12 So shall we come upon him in some place where he shall be found, and we will light upon him as the dew falleth on the ground: and of him, and of all the men that are with him, there shall not be left so much as one.

13 Moreover, if he be gotten into a city, then shall all Israel bring ropes to that city, and we will draw it into the river, until there be not one small stone found there.

† Heb. commanded.

14 And Absalom and all the men of Israel said, The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better then the counsel of Ahithophel: for the LORD had † apointed to defeat the [d] good counsel of Ahithophel, to the intent that the LORD might [e] bring evil upon Absalom.

d That counsel which seemed good at the first to Absalom, vers. 4.

e For by the counsel of Hushai he went to the attel where he as destroyed.

15 ¶ Then said Hushai unto Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, Thus and thus did Ahithophel counsel Absalom and the elders of Israel; and thus and thus have I counselled.

16 Now therefore send quickly, and tell David, saying, Lodge not this night in the plains of the wilderness, but speedily pass [f] over; lest the king be swallowed up, and all the people that are with him.

f That is, Over Jordan.

17 Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz stayed by En-rogel, (for they might not be seen to come into the city) and a wench went and told [g] them: and they went and told king David.

g Meaning, The message from their fathers.

18 Nevertheless, a lad saw them, and told Absalom: but they went both of them away quickly, and came to a mans house in Bahurim, which had a well in his court, whither they went down.

19 And the [h] woman took and spread a covering over the wells mouth, and spread ground corn thereon; and the thing was not known.

h Thus God sendeth succour to his in their greatest dangers.

20 And when Absaloms servants came to the woman to the house, they said, Where is Ahimaaz and Jonathan? And the woman said unto them, They be gone over the [i] brook of water. And when they had sought and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem.

i The Calder text readeth, how they have passed the Jordan

21 And it came to pass after they were departed, that they came up out of the well, and went and told king David, & said unto David, Arise, & pass quickly over the water: for [k] thus hath Ahithophel counselled against you.

k To wit, to pursue thee with all haste.

22 Then David arose, and all the people that were with him, and they passed over Jordan: by the [l] morning light there lacked not one of them that was not gone over Jordan.

l They travelled all night, and by morning had all their company passed over.

23 ¶ And when Ahitophel saw that his counsel was not † followed, he saddled his ass, and arose. and gat him home to his house, to his city, and † put his household in order, and [m] hanged himself, and died, and was buried in the sepulchre of his father.

† Heb. done.

m Gods just vengeance, even in this life, is poured on them which are enemies, traitours, or persecutors of his church.

24 Then David came to Mahaniam: and Absalom passed over Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him.

25 ¶ And Absalom made Amasa captain of the host in stead of Joab: which Amasa was a mans son, whose name was Ithra an Israelite, that went in to Abigail the daughter of [n] Nahash, sister to Zeruiah, Joabs mother.

n who was also called Ishai, Davids father.

26 So Israel and Absalom pitched in the land of Gilead.

27 ¶ And it came to pass when David was come to Mahanaim, that Shobi the son of Nabash of Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and Machir the son of Ammiel of Lo-debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite of Rogelim,

28 [o] Brought beds, and ‡ basons, and earthen vessels, and wheat, and barley, and flour, and parched corn, and beans, and lentils, and parched pulse,

o God sheweth himself most liberal to his, when they seem to be utterly destitute.

‡ Or, cups.

29 And hony, and butter, and sheep and cheese of kine for David, and for the people that were with him, to eat: for they said. The people people is hungry, and weary, and thirsty in the wilderness.

Chap. XVIII.

1. David viewing the armies in their march, giveth them charge of Absalom. 6. The Israelites are sore smitten in the wood of Ephraim. 9 Absalom hanging in an oak, is slain by Joab, and cast into a pit. 18 Absaloms place. 19 Ahimaaz and Cushi bring tidings to David. 33. David mourneth for Absalom.

AND David [a] numbred the people that were with him, and set captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds over them.

a For certain of the Reubenites, Gadites, and of half the tribe, could not bear the insolency of the son against the father, and therefore joyned with David.

2 And David sent forth a third part of the people under the hand of Joab, and a third part under the hand of Abishai the son of Zeruiah Joabs brother, and a third part under the hand of Ittai the Gittite: and the king said unto the people, I will surely go forth with you my self also.

3 But the people answered, Thou shalt not go forth: for if we flee away, they will not † care for us; neither if half of us die, will they care for us: but now [b] thou art † worth ten thousand of us: therefore now it is better that thou † succour us out of the city.

† Heb. set their heart on us.

b Signifying, That a good governour ought to be so dear unto his people, that they will rather loose their lives, then that ought should come unto him.

† Heb. as ten thousand of us.

† Heb. be to succour.

4 And the king said unto them, What seemeth you best, I will do. And the king stood by the gate-side, and all the people came out by hundreds, and by thousands.

5 And the king commanded Joab, and Abishai, and Ittai, saying, Deal gently for my sake with the young man, even with Absalom. And all the people heard when the king gave all the captains charge concerning Absalom.

6 ¶ So the people went out into the field against Israel: and the battel was in the [c] wood of Ephraim;

c So called, because the Ephraimites (as some say) fed their cattel beyond Jordan in this wood.

7 Where the people of Israel were slain before the servants of David, and there was there a great slaughter that day of twenty thousand men.

8 For the battel was there scattered over the face of all the country, and the wood † devoured more people that day, then the sword devoured.

9 ¶ And Absalom met the servants of David; and Absalom rode upon a mule, and the mule went under the thick boughs of a great oak, and his head caught hold of the oak, and he was taken up ‡ between the heaven and the earth, and the mule that was under him went away.

10 And a certain man saw it, & told Joab, & said, Behold. I saw Absalom hanged in an oak.

11 And Joab said unto the man that told him, And behold, thou sawest him, and why didst thou not smite him there to the ground, and I would have given thee ten shekels of silver, and a gridle?

12 And the man said unto Joab, Though I should † receive a thousand shekels of silver in mine hand, yet would I not put forth mine hand against the kings son: for in our hearing the king charged thee, and Abishai, and Ittai, saying, † Beware that none touch the young man Absalom, † Heb. weigh upon mine hand.

† Heb. be ware who soever ye be of, &c.

13 Otherwise, I should have wrought falsehood against mine own life; for there is no matter hid from the king, and thou thy self wouldst have set thy self against me.

14 Then said Joab, I may not tarry thus † with thee. And he took three darts in his hand, and thrust them through the heart of Absalom, while he was yet alive in the † midst of the oak.

† Heb. before thee

† Heb. Heart.

15 And ten young men that bare Joabs armour compassed about and smote Absalom, and slew him.

16 And Joab [d] blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel: for Joab held back the people.

d For he had pity of the people, which was seduced by Absaloms flattery.

17 And they took Absalom, and cast him into a great [e] pit in the wood, and laid a very great heap of stones upon him: and all Israel fled every one to his tent.

e Thus God turned his vain glory to shame.

18 ¶ Now Absalom in his life-time had taken and reared up for himself a pillar, which is in * the kings dale: for he said, I have [f] no son to keep my name in remembrance: and he called the pillar after his own name, and it is called unto this day, Absaloms place.

* Gen. 14. 17.

f It seemeth that God had punished him in taking away his children, Chap. 14. 17.

19 ¶ Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadok, Let me now run, and bear the king tidings, how that the LORD hath † avenged him of his enemies.

† Heb. judged him from the hand. &c.

20 And Joab said unto him, [g] Thou shalt not † bear tidings this day, but thou shalt bear tidings another day: but this day thou shalt bear no tidings, because the kings son is dead.

g For Joab bare a good affection to Ahimaaz, and doubted how David would take the report of Absaloms death.

† Heb. be a man of tidings.

21 Then said Joab to Cushi, Go tell the king what thou hast seen. And Cushi bowed himself unto Joab and ran.

22 Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadok yet again to Joab, But † howsoever, let me, I pray thee, also run after Cushi. And Joab said, Wherefore wilt thou run, my son, seeing, that thou hast no tidings ‡ ready?

† Heb. be what may

‡ Or, convenient

23 But howsoever (said he) let me run. And he said unto him, Run. Then Ahimaaz ran by the way of the plain, and over-ran Cushi.

24 And David sat between the two gates: and the watchman went up to the roof over the [h] gate unto the wall, and lift up his eyes, and looked, and behold, a man running alone.

h He sate in the gate of the city of Mahanaim.

25 And the watchman cried, and told the king, And the king said, If he be alone, there is tidings in his mouth. And he came apace, and drew near.

26 And the watchman saw another man running, and the warchman called unto the porter, and said, Behold, another man running alone. And the king said, He also bringeth tidings.

27 And the watchman said, † Me thinketh the running of the foremost, is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok. And the king said, He is a [i] good man, and cometh with good tidings.

‡ Heb. I see the running.

i He had had experience of his fidelity, Chap. 17. 21

28 And Ahimaaz called, and said unto the king, ‡ All is well. And he fell down to the earth upon his face before the king, and said,

‡ Or, peace be to thee.

268

Bleſſed be the LORD thy God, which hath † delivered up the men that lift up their hand againſt my lord the king.

† Heb. ſhut up.

29 And the king ſaid, † Is the young man Abſalom ſafe? And Ahimaaz anſwered, When Joab ſent the [k] kings ſervant, and me thy ſervant, I ſaw a great tumult, but I knew not what it was † Heb. Is there peace?

[k] To wit, Cuſhi, who was an Ethiopian.

30 And the king ſaid unto him, Turn aſide, & ſtand here. And he turned aſide, and ſtood ſtill.

31 And behold, Cuſhi came, and Cuſhi ſaid, † Tidings, my lord the king: for the LORD hath avenged thee this day of all them that roſe up againſt thee.

32 And the king ſaid unto Cuſhi, Is the young man Abſalom ſafe? And Cuſhi anſwered, The enemies of my lord the king, and all that riſe againſt thee to do thee hurt, be as that young man is.

† Becauſe he conſidered both the judgment of God againſt his ſin, and could not otherwiſe hide his fatherly affection toward his ſon.

33 ¶ And the king was [l] much moved, and went up to the chamber over the gate, and wept: and as he wept, thus he ſaid, O my ſon Abſalom, my ſon, my ſon Abſalom: would God I had died for thee, O Abſalom, my ſon, my ſon.

CHAP. XIX.

1 Joab cauſeth the king to ceaſe his mourning. 9 The Iſraelites are earneſt to bring the king back. 11 David ſendeth to the prieſts to incite them of Judah. 18 Shimei is pardoned. 24 Mephiboſheth excuſed. 32 Barzillai diſmiſſed, Chimham his ſon his taken into the kings family. 41 The Iſraelites expoſtulate with Judah for bringing home the king without them.

AND it was told Joab, Behold, the king weepeth and mourneth for Abſalom.

† Heb. ſalvation, or, deliverance.

2 And the † victory that day was turned into mourning unto all the people: for the people heard ſay that day, how the king was grieved for his ſon.

3 And the people gat them by ſtealth that day into the city, as people being aſhamed ſteal away when they flee in battel.

[a] At they do that mourn.

4 But the king [a] covered his face, and the king cried with a loud voice, O my ſon Abſalom, O Abſalom, my ſon, my ſon.

[b] At Mahanaim.

5 And Joab came into the [b] houſe to the king, and ſaid, Thou haſt ſhamed this day the faces of all thy ſervants, which this day have ſaved thy life, and the lives of thy ſons, and of thy daughters, and the lives of thy wives, and the lives of thy concubines:

† Heb. by loving &c.

6 † In that thou loveſt thine enemies, and hateſt thy friends; for thou haſt declared this day † that thou regardeſt neither princes, nor ſervants: for this day I perceive, that if Abſalom had lived, and all we had died this day, then it had pleaſed thee well.

† Heb. that princes or ſervants are not to thee.

7 Now therefore ariſe, go forth, and ſpeak † comfortably unto thy ſervants: for I ſwear by the LORD, if thou go not forth, there will not tarry one with thee this night; and that will be worſe unto thee then all the evil that befel thee from thy youth until now.

† Heb to the heart of thy ſervants.

where the moſt reſort of the people haunted.

8 Then the king roſe, and ſat in the [c] gate: and they told unto all the people, ſaying, Behold, the king doth ſit in the gate; and all the people came before the king; for Iſrael had fled every man to his tent.

9 ¶ And all the people were at [d] ſtrife throughout all the tribes of Iſrael, ſaying, The king ſaved us out of the hand of our enemies, and he delivered us out of the hand of the Philiſtines, and now he is fled out of the land for Abſalom.

[d] Every one blamed another, and ſtrove who ſhould firſt bring him home.

10 And Abſalom, whom we anointed over us, is dead in battel: now therefore why † ſpeak ye not a word of bringing the king back?

† Heb. are ye ſilent.

11 ¶ And king David ſent to Zadok and to Abiathar the [e] prieſt, ſaying, Speak unto the elders of Judah, ſaying, Why are ye the laſt to bring the king back to his houſe? (ſeeing the ſpeech of all Iſrael is come to the king, even to his houſe)

[e] That they ſhould reprove the negligence of the elders, ſeeing the people were ſo forward.

12 Ye are my brethren, ye are my bones and my fleſh: wherefore then are ye the laſt to bring back the king?

13 And ſay ye to Amaſa, Art thou not of my bone, and of my fleſh? God do ſo to me and more alſo, if thou be not captain of the hoſt before me continually in the [f] room of Joab.

[f] By this policy, David thought that by winning of the captain, he ſhould have the hearts of all the people.

14 And he bowed the heart of all the men of Judah, even as the heart of one man, ſo that they ſent this word unto the king, Return thou and all thy ſervants.

15 So the king returned, and came to Jordan: and Judah came to Gilgal, to go to meet the king; to conduct the king over Jordan.

16 ¶ And [g] * Shimei the ſon of Gera, a Benjaminte, which was of Baſhurim haſted and came down with the men of Judah to meet king David.

17 And there were a thouſand men of Benjamin with him, and * Ziba the ſervant of the houſe of Saul, and his fifteen ſons and his twenty ſervants with him, and they went over Jordan before the king.

* chap. 16. 1.

18 And there went over a ferry-boat to carry over the kings houſhould, and to do † what he thought good: and Shimei the ſon of Gera fell down before the king as he was come over Jordan;

† Heb. the good in his eyes.

19 And ſaid unto the king, Let not my lord impute iniquity unto me, neither do thou remember * that which thy ſervant did [h] perverſely the day that my lord the king went out of Jeruſalem, that the king ſhould take it to his heart.

* Chap. 16. 5.

[h] For in his adverſity he was his moſt cruel enemy, and now in his proſperity ſeeketh by flattery to creep into favour.

20 For thy ſervant doth know that I have ſinned: therefore behold, I am come the firſt this day of all the houſe of [i] Joſeph, to go down to meet my lord the king.

[i] By Joſeph he meaneth Ephraim, Manaſſeh and Benjamin (whereof he was) becauſe theſe three were under one ſtandard. Num. 2. 18.

21 But Abiſhai the ſon of Zeruiah anſwered and ſaid, Shall not Shimei be put to death for this, becauſe he curſed the LORDS anointed?

22 And David ſaid, What have I to do with you, ye ſons of Zeruiah, that ye ſhould this day be adverſaries unto me? ſhall there any man be put to death this day in Iſrael? for do not I know, that I am this day king over Iſrael?

23 There-

23 Therefore the king said unto Shimei, Thou shalt not [k] die: and the king sware unto him.

k By my hands, or during my life, as read. 1 King. 2. 8, 9.

24 ¶ And Mephibosheth the son of Saul came down to meet the king, and had neither dressed his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed, until the day he came again in peace.

25 And it came to pass when he was [l] come to Jerusalem to meet the king, that the king said unto him, Wherefore wentest not thou with me, Mephibosheth?

l when Mephibosheth being at Jerusalem had met the king.

26 And he answered, My lord, O king, my servant deceived me; for thy servant said, I will saddle me an ass, that I may ride thereon, and go to the king, because thy servant is lame.

27 And * he hath slandered thy servant unto my lord the king; but my lord the king is as an [m] angel of God: do therefore what is good in thine eyes.

29 And the king said unto him, Why speakest thou any more of thy matters? I have said, Thou and Ziba divide the [o] land.

o David did evil in taking his lands from him before the knew the cause, but much worse, that knowing the truth, he did not restore them.

30 And Mephibosheth said unto the king, Yea, let him take all, forasmuch as my lord the king is come again in peace unto his own house.

31 ¶ And Barzillai the Gileadite come down from Rogelim, and went over Jordan with the king, to conduct him over Jordan.

32 Now Barzillai was a very aged man, even fourescore years old, and * he had provided the king of sustenance while he lay at Mahanaim: for he was a very great man.

* Chap. 17. 27.

33 And the king said unto Barzillai, Come thou over with me, and I will feed thee with me in Jerusalem.

34 And Barzillai said unto the king, † How long have I to live, that I should go up with the king unto Jerusalem?

† Heb. how many days are the years of my life.

35 I am this day fourescore years old; and can I discern between good and evil? can thy servant taste what I eat or what I drink? can I hear any more the voice of singing-men and singing-women? wherefore then should thy servant be yet a [p] burden unto my lord the king?

p He thought it not meet to receive benefits of him, to whom he was not able to do service again.

36 Thy servant will go a little way over Jordan with the king: and why should the king recompense it me with such a reward?

37 Let thy servant, I pray thee, turn back again, that I may die in mine own city, and be buried by the grave of my father, and of my mother: but behold thy [q] servant Chimham, let him go over with my lord the king, and do to him what shall seem good unto thee.

q My son.

38 And the king answered, Chimham shall go over with me, and I will do to him that which shall seem good unto thee: and whatsoever thou shalt † require of me, that will I do for thee.

† Heb. choose.

39 And all the people went over Jordan: and when the king was come over, the king kissed Barzillai, and blessed him; and he returned unto his own place.

41 ¶ And behold, all the men of Israel come to the king, and said unto the king, Why have our brethren the men of Judah stolen thee away, and have brought the king and his household, and all Davids men with him over [t] Jordan?

t Toward Jerusalem.

42 And all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, Because the king is near of kin to us: wherefore then be ye angry for this matter? have we eaten at all of the kings cost? or hath he given us any gift?

43 And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah, and said, We have ten parts in the king, and we have also more right in David then ye: why then did ye † despise us, that our advise should not be first had in bringing back our king? And the words of the men of Judah were fiercer then the words of the men of Israel.

AND there happened to be [a] there a man of Belial, whose name was Sheba the son of Bichri, a Benjamite, and he blew a trumpet, and said, We have no part in [b] David, neither have we inheritance in the son of [c] Jesse: every man to his tents, O Israel.

a where the ten tribes contended against Judah.

b As they of Judah say.

c He thought by speaking contemptuously of the king, to stir the people either to sedition, or else by causing Israel to depart, thought that they of Judah would have less esteemed him.

2 So every man of Israel went up from after David, and followed Sheba the son of Bichri: but the men of Judah clave unto their king, from [d] Jordan even to Jerusalem.

d From Gilgal, which was neer Jordan.

3 ¶ And David came to his house at Jerusalem, & the king took the ten women his * concubines, whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in † ward, & fed them, but went not in unto them: so they were † shut up unto the day of their death, † living in widowhood.

9 And Joab said to Amasa, Art thou in health, my brother? And Joab took Amasa by the beard with the right hand to kiss him.

10 But Amasa took no heed to the sword that was in Joabs hand: so he smote him therewith in the fifth rib, and shed out his bowels

12 And Amasa wallowed in bloud in the midst of the high-way: and when the man saw that all the people stood still, he removed Amasa out of the high-way into the field, and cast a cloth upon him, when he saw that every one that came by him, stood still.

13 When he was removed out of the high-way, all the people went on after Joab, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

1 The three years famine for the Gibeonites, cease, by hanging seven of Sauls sons. 10 Rizpahs kindness unto the dead. 12 David burieth the bones of Saul and Jonathan in his fathers sepulchre. 15 Four battels against the Philistines, wherein four valiants of David slay four giants.

THen there was a famine in the days of David, three years, year after year; and David † enquired of the LORD. And the a Thinking to gratify the people because these were not of the seed of Abraham.

2 And the king called the Gibeonites, and said unto them, (now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but * of the remnant of the Amorites, and the children of Israel had sworn unto them: and Saul sought to slay them, in his zeal to the children of Israel and Judah.

* Josh. 9. 3; & 16. 17.
3 Wherefore David said unto the Gibeonites, [b] What shall I do for you? and wherewith shall I make the atonement, that ye may bless the inheritance of the LORD?

b wherewith may your wrath be appeased, that you may pray to God to remove this plague from his people?
4 And the Gibeonites said unto him, ‡ We will have no silver nor gold of Saul, nor of his house, neither for us shalt thou kill [c] any man in Israel. And he said, What you shall lay, that will I do for you.

‡ Or, It is not silver nor gold that we have to do with Saul or his house, neither pertains it to us to kill, &c.
c Save onely of Sauls stock.
5 And they answered the king, The man that consumed us, and that ‡ devised against us, that we should be destroyed from remaining in any of the coasts of Israel,

‡ Or, cut us off.

12 ¶ And David went and took the bones of Saul, and the bones of Jonathan his ſon, from the men of Jabeſh-gilead, which had ſtolen them from the ſtreet of Beth-ſhan, where the * Philiſtines had hanged them: when the Philiſtines had ſlain Saul in Gilboa.

* 1 Sam. 31. 10.

13 And he brought up from thence the bones of Saul, and the bones of Jonathan his ſon; and they gathered the bones of them that were hanged.

14 And the bones of Saul and Jonathan his ſon, buried they in the country of Benjamin in Zelah, in the ſepulchre of Kiſh his father; and they performed all that the king commanded: and after that, God [k] was intreated for the land.

k For where the magiſtrate ſuffereth faults unpuniſhed, there the plague of God lieth upon the land.

3 And Joab said unto the king, Now the LORD thy God add unto the people (how many soever they be) an hundred-fold, & that the eyes of my lord the king may see it: but why doth my lord the king delight in this thing?

4 Notwithstanding, the kings word prevailed against Joab, and against the captains of the host: and Joab and the captains of the host went out from the presence of the king, to number the people of Israel.

5 ¶ And they passed over Jordan, and pitched in Aroer, on the right side of the city that lieth in the midst of the ‡ river of Gad, and toward Jazar.

8 So when they had gone through all the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.

9 And Joab gave up the sum of the number of the people unto the king: and there were in Israel [d] eight hundred thousand valiant men that drew the sword; and the men of Judah were [e] five hundred thousand men.

10 ¶ And Davids heart smote him, after that he had numbred the people: and David said unto the LORD, I have sinned greatly in that I have done: and now I beseech thee, O LORD, take away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly.

11 For when David was up in the morning, the

the word of the LORD came unto the prophet Gad, Davids [f] ſeer, ſaying, 12 Go and ſay unto David, Thus ſaith the LORD, I offer thee three things; chuſe thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee.

13 So Gad came to David, and told him and ſaid unto him, Shall [g] ſeven years of famine come unto thee in thy land? or wilt thou flee three months before thine enemies, while they purſue thee? or that there be three days peſtilence in thy land? now adviſe, and ſee what anſwer I ſhall return to him that ſent me.

14 And David ſaid unto Gad, I am in a great ſtrait: let us fall now into the hand of the LORD, (for his mercies are ‡ great) and let me not fall unto the hand of man.

15 So the LORD ſent a peſtilence upon Iſrael, from the morning even to the time appointed: and there died of the people from [h] Dan even to Beer-ſheba, ſeventy thouſand men.

16 And when the angel ſtretched out his hand upon Jeruſalem to deſtroy it, * the LORD repented him of the evil, and ſaid to the angel that deſtroyed the people, It is enough: [i] ſtay now thine hand. And the angel of the LORD was by the threſhing-place of Araunah the Jebuſite.

17 And David ſpake unto the LORD when he ſaw the angel that ſmote the people, and ſaid, Lo, I have ſinned, and I have done wickedly: but theſe ſheep, [k] what have they done? let thine hand, I pray thee, be againſt me, and againſt my fathers houſe.

18 ¶ And Gad came that day to David, and ſaid unto him, Go up, rear an altar unto the LORD, in the threſhing-floor of Araunah the Jebuſite.

19 And David, according to the ſaying of Gad, went up as the LORD commanded.

20 And Araunah looked, and ſaw the king and his ſervants coming on toward him: and Araunah went out and bowed himſelf before the king on his face upon the ground.

21 And [l] Araunah ſaid, Wherefore is my lord the king come to his ſervant? And David ſaid, To buy the threſhing-floor of thee to build an altar unto the LORD, that the plague may be ſtayed from the people.

22 And Araunah ſaid unto David, Let my lord the king take and offer up what ſeemeth good unto him: behold, here be oxen for burnt-ſacrifice, and threſhing-inſtruments, and other inſtruments of the oxen for wood.

23 All theſe things did Araunah, [m] as a king, give unto the king: and Araunah ſaid unto the king, The LORD thy God accept thee.

24 And the king ſaid unto Araunah, Nay; but I will ſurely buy it of thee at a price: neither will I offer burnt-offerings unto the LORD my God, of that which doth coſt me nothing. So David bought the threſhing-floor and the oxen, for [n] fifty ſhekels of ſilver.

¶ THE FIRST BOOK OF THE KINGS, COMMONLY CALLED, The third book of the KINGS.

THE ARGUMENT.

BEcauſe the children of God ſhould look for no continual reſt and quietneſs in this world, the holy Ghoſt ſetteth before their eyes in this book the variety and change of things, which came to the people of Iſrael from the death of David, Salomon, and the reſt of the kings, unto the death of Ahab, declaring how that flouriſhing kingdoms, except they be preſerved by Gods protection, (who then favoureth them when his word is truely ſet forth, virtue eſteemed, vice puniſhed, and concord maintained) fall to decay and come to nonght: as appeareth by the dividing of the kingdom under Rehoboam, and Jeroboam, which before were but all one people, and now by the juſt puniſhment of God were made two, whereof Judah and Benjamin clave to Rehoboam, and this was called the kingdom of Judah: and the other ten tribes held with Jeroboam, and this was call'd the kingdom of Iſrael. The king of Judah had his throne in Jeruſalem, and the king of Iſrael in Samaria, after it was built by Omri Ahabs father. And becauſe our Saviour Chriſt according to the fleſh ſhould come of the ſtock David, the genealogy of the kings of Juaah is here deſcribed, from Solomon to Joram the ſon of Jehoſhaphai, who reigned over Judah in Jeruſalem, as Ahab did over Iſrael in Samaria.

Chap. I.

1 Abiſhag cheriſheth David in his extreme age. 5 Adonijah, Davids darling, uſurpeth the kingdom. 11 By the counſel of Nathan, 14 Bath-ſheba moveth the king, 22 and Nathan ſecondeth her. 29 David reneweth his oath to Bath-ſheba. 32 Solomon by Davids appointment, being anointed king by Zadok and Nathan, the people triumph. 41 Jonathan bringing theſe news, Adonijahs gueſts flee. 50 Adonijah fleeing to the horns of the altar; upon his good behaviour is diſmiſſed by Solomon.

NOw king David was [a] old, and † ſtricken in years; and they covered him with clothes, but he gat [b] no heat.

2 Wherefore his ſervants ſaid unto him, † Let there be ſought for my lord the king † a young virgin, and let her ſtand before the king, and let her † cheriſh him, and let her lie in thy boſom, that my lord the king may get heat.

3 So they ſought for a fair damſel throughout all the coaſts of Iſrael, and found Abiſhag a [c] Shunamite, and brought her to the king.

4 And the damſel was very fair, and cheriſhed the king, and miniſtred to him: but the king knew her not.

5 ¶ Then Adonijah the ſon of Haggith exalted himſelf, ſaying, I will † be king: and he prepared him chariots and hors-men; and [d] fifty men to run before him.

6 And his father had not diſpleaſed him † at any time, in ſaying, Why haſt thou done ſo? and he alſo was a very goodly man; and his mother bare him after Abſalom.

7 And † he conferred with Joab the ſon of Zeruiah, and with Abiathar the prieſt: and they † following Adonijah [e] helped him.

8 But Zadok the prieſt, and Banaiah the ſon of Jehoiada, and Nathan the prophet, and Shimei, and Rei, and the mighty men which belonged to David, were not with Adonijah, 9 And Adonijah ſlew ſheep and oxen and fat cattel, by the ſtone of Zoheleth, which is by ‡ En-rogel, and called all his brethren the kings ſons, and all the men of Judah the kings ſervants.

10 But Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah, and the [f] mighty men, and Solomon his brother he called not.

11 Wherefore Nathan ſpake unto Bath-ſheba the mother of Solomon, ſaying, Haſt thou not heard that Adonijah the ſon of * Haggith doth reign, and David our lord knoweth it not?

12 Now therefore come, let me, I pray thee, give thee counſel, that thou mayeſt ſave thine own life, and the [g] life of thy ſon Solomon.

13 Go, and get thee in unto king David, and ſay unto him, Didſt not thou, my lord, O king, ſwear unto thine hand-maid, ſaying, Aſſuredly Solomon thy ſon ſhall reign after me, and he ſhall ſit upon my throne? why then doth Adonijah reign?

14 Behold, while thou yet talkeſt there with the king, I will alſo come in after thee, and † confirm thy [h] words.

15 ¶ And Bath-ſheba went in unto the king, into the chamber: and the king was very old; and Abiſhag the Shunammite miniſtred unto the king.

16 And Bath-ſheba bowed, and did obeiſance unto the king: and the king ſaid, † What wouldſt thou?

17 And ſhe ſaid unto him, My lord, thou ſwareſt by the LORD thy God unto thine hand-maid, ſaying, Aſſuredly Solomon thy ſon ſhall reign after me, and he ſhall ſit upon my throne:

18 And now behold, Adonijah reigneth; and now my lord the king, thou knoweſt [i] it not.

19 And he hath ſlain oxen, and fat cattel, and ſheep in abundance, and hath called all the ſons of the king, and Abiathar the prieſt, and Joab the captain of the hoſt: but Solomon thy ſervant hath he not called.

20 And thou, my lord O king, the eyes of all Iſrael are upon thee, that thou ſhouldeſt tell them who ſhall ſit on the throne of my lord the king after him.

21 Otherwiſe it ſhall come to paſs, when my lord the king ſhall ſleep with his fathers, that I and my ſon Solomon ſhall be [k] counted † offenders.

22 ¶ And lo, while ſhe yet talked with the king, Nathan the prophet alſo came in.

23 And they told the king, ſaying, Behold, Nathan the prophet. And when he was come in before the king, he bowed himſelf before the king with his face the [l] ground, 24 And Nathan ſaid, My lord, O king, haſt thou ſaid, Adonijah ſhall reign after me, and he ſhall ſit upon my throne?

25 For he is gone down this day, and hath ſlain oxen, and fat cattel, and ſheep in abundance, and hath called all the kings ſons, and the captains of the hoſt, and Abiathar the prieſt; and behold, they eat and drink before him, and ſay, † God ſave king Adonijah.

26 But me, even me thy ſervant, and Zadok the prieſt, and Benaiah the ſon of Jehoiada, and thy ſervant Solomon hath he not called.

27 Is this thing done by my lord the king, and thou haſt not ſhewed it unto thy [m] ſervant, who ſhould ſit on the throne of my lord the king after him?

28 ¶ Then king David anſwered and ſaid, Call me Bath-ſheba: and ſhe came † into the kings preſence, and ſtood before the king.

29 And the king ſware, and ſaid, As the LORD liveth, that hath redeemed my ſoul out of all diſtreſs, 30 Even as I [n] ſware unto thee by the LORD God of Iſrael, ſaying, Aſſuredly Solomon thy ſon ſhall reign after me, and he ſhall ſit upon my throne in my ſtead; even ſo will I certainly do this day.

31 Then Bath-ſheba bowed with her face to the earth, and did reverence to the king, and ſaid, 42 And while he yet ſpake, behold, Jonathan the ſon of Abiathar the prieſt came, and Adonijah ſaid unto him. Come in, for thou art a valiant man, and bringeſt q good tidings.

q He praiſed Jonathan, thinking to have heard comfortable news, but God wrought things contrary to his expectation, and ſo did bear down his pride.

43 And Jonathan anſwered and ſaid to Adonijah, Verily our lord king David hath made Solomon king.

44 And the king hath ſent with him Zadok the prieſt, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the ſon of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and they have cauſed him to ride upon the kings mule.

45 And Zadok the prieſt, and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king in Gihon: and they are come up from thence rejoycing, ſo that the city rang again: this is the noiſe that ye have heard.

46 And alſo Solomon ſitteth on the throne of the kingdom.

47 And moreover, the kings ſervants came to r bleſs our lord king David, ſaying, God make the name of Solomon better then thy name, and make his throne greater then thy throne:

r To ſalute him, and to pray, and praiſe God for him.

and the king bowed himſelf upon the ſ bed.

ſ He gave God thanks for the good ſucceſs.

48 And alſo thus ſaid the king, Bleſſed be the LORD God of Iſrael, which hath given one to ſit on my throne this day, mine eyes even ſeeing it.

49 And all the gueſts that were with Adonijah, were afraid, and roſe up, and went every man his way.

50 ¶ And Adonijah feared becauſe of Solomon, and aroſe, and went, and caught hold on the horns of the t altar.

52 And Solomon ſaid, If he will ſhew himſelf a worthy man, there ſhall not an hair of him fall to the earth: but if wickedneſs ſhall be found in him, he ſhall die.

53 So king Solomon ſent, and they brought him down from the altar: and he came and bowed himſelf to king Solomon: and Solomon ſaid unto him, Go to thine houſe.

9 Now therefore hold him not guiltleſs: for that art a wiſe man, and knoweſt what thou oughteſt to do unto him; but his hoar head bring thou down to the grave with [g] blood.

10 So * David ſlept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David.

11 And the days that David * reigned over Iſrael, were fourty years: ſeven years reigned he in Hebron, and thirty and three years reigned he in Jeruſalem.

12 ¶ * Then ſat Solomon upon the throne of David his father, and his kingdom was eſtabliſhed greatly.

13 ¶ And Adonijah the ſon of Haggith came to Bath-ſheba the mother of Solomon, and ſhe ſaid, [h] Comeſt thou peaceably? And he ſaid, Peaceably.

14 He ſaid moreover, I have ſomewhat to ſay unto thee. And ſhe ſaid, Say on.

15 And he ſaid, Thou knoweſt that the kingdom was mine, and that all Iſrael ſet their [i] faces on me, that I ſhould reign: howbeit the kingdom is turned about, and is become my brothers: for it was his from the LORD.

16 And now I ask one petition of thee, † deny me not. And ſhe ſaid unto him, Say on.

17 And he ſaid, Speak, I pray thee, unto Solomon the king (for he will not ſay thee nay) that he give me Abiſhag the Shunammite to wife.

18 And Bath-ſheba ſaid, Well, I will ſpeak for thee unto the king.

19 ¶ Bath-ſheba therefore went unto king Solomon, to ſpeak unto him for Adonijah: and the king roſe up to meet her, and [k] bowed himſelf unto her, and ſat down on his throne, and cauſed a ſeat to be ſet for the kings mother; and ſhe ſat on his right hand.

20 Then ſhe ſaid, I deſire one ſmall petition of thee, I pray thee ſay me not nay. And the king ſaid unto her, Ask on, my mother, for I will not ſay thee nay.

21 And ſhe ſaid, Let Abiſhag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah thy brother to wife.

22 And king Solomon anſwered and ſaid unto his mother, And why doſt thou ask Abiſhag the Shunammite for Adonijah? ask for him the [l] kingdom alſo; (for he is mine elder brother) even for him, and for Abiathar the prieſt, and for Joab the ſon of Zeruiah.

23 Then king Solomon ſware by the LORD, ſaying, God do ſo to me, and more alſo, if Adonijah have not ſpoken this word againſt his own life.

24 Now therefore, as the LORD liveth, which hath eſtabliſhed me, and ſet me on the throne of David my father, and who hath made me an houſe, as he * promiſed, Adonijah ſhall be put to death this day.

25 And king Solomon ſent by the hand of Benaiah the ſon of Jehoiada, and he fell upon him that he died.

26 ¶ And unto Abiathar the prieſt ſaid the king, Get thee to Anathoth, unto thine own fields, for thou art † worthy of death: but I will not at this time put thee to death, becauſe thou [m] bareſt the ark of the Lord God before David my father, and becauſe thou haſt been afflicted in all wherein my father was afflicted.

27 So Solomon thruſt out Abiathar from being prieſt unto the LORD; that he might * fulfil the word of the LORD, which he ſpake concerning the houſe of Eli in Shiloh.

28 ¶ Then tidings came to Joab, (for Joab had [n] turned after Adonijah, though he turned not after Abſalom) and Joab fled unto the tabernacle of the LORD, and caught hold on the horns of the altar.

29 And it was told king Solomon that Joab was fled unto the tabernacle of the LORD, and behold, he is by the [o] altar: then Solomon ſent Benaiah the ſon of Jehoiada, ſaying, Go fall upon him.

30 And Benaiah came to the tabernacle of the LORD, and ſaid unto him, Thus ſaith the king, Come forth. And he ſaid, Nay, but I will die here. And Benaiah brought the king word again, ſaying, Thus ſaid Joab, and thus he anſwered me.

31 And the king ſaid unto him, Do as he hath ſaid, and [p] fall upon him, and bury him; that thou mayeſt take away the innocent blood which Joab ſhed, from me, and from the houſe of my father.

32 And the LORD ſhall return his blood upon his own head, who fell upon two men more righteous and better then he, and ſlew them with the ſword, my father David not knowing thereof, to wit, * Abner the ſon of Ner, captain of the hoſt of Iſrael, and * Amaſa the ſon of Jether, captain of the hoſt of Judah.

33 Their blood ſhall therefore return upon the head of Joab, and upon the [q] head of his ſeed for ever: but upon David, and upon his ſeed, and upon his houſe, and upon his throne ſhall there be peace for ever from the LORD.

34 So Benaiah the ſon of Jehoiada went up, and fell upon him, and ſlew him; and he was buried in his own houſe in the wilderneſs.

35 ¶ And the king put Benaiah the ſon of Jehoiada in his room over the hoſt; [r] and Zadok the prieſt did the king put in the room of Abiathar.

36 ¶ And the king ſent and called for Shimei, and ſaid unto him, Build thee an houſe in Jeruſalem, and dwell there, and go not forth thence any whither.

37 For it ſhall be, that on the day thou goeſt out, and paſſeſt over the brook Kidron, thou ſhalt know for certain, that thou ſhalt ſurely die: thy blood ſhall be upon thine own head.

38 And Shimei ſaid unto the king, The ſaying is good: as my lord the king hath ſaid, ſo will thy ſervant do. And Shimei dwelt in Jeruſalem many days.

39 And it came to paſs at the end of three years, that two of the [f] ſervants of Shimei ran away unto Achiſh ſon of Maachah king of Gath: and they told Shimei, ſaying, Behold, thy ſervants be in Gath.

40 And Shimei aroſe and ſadled his aſs, and went to Gath to Achiſh to ſeek his ſervants: and [t] Shimei went and brought his ſervants from Gath.

41 And it was told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jeruſalem to Gath, and was come again.

42 And the king ſent and called for Shimei, and ſaid unto him, Did I not make thee to ſwear by the LORD, and proteſted unto thee, ſaying, Know for a certain, that on the day thou goeſt out, and walkeſt abroad any whither, that thou ſhalt ſurely die? and thou ſaidſt unto me, The word that I have heard, is good.

CHAP. III.

1 Solomon marrieth Pharaohs daughter. 2 High places being in uſe, Solomon ſacrificeth at Gibeon. 5 Solomon at Gibeon, at the choice which God gave him, preferring wiſdom, obtaineth wiſdom, riches, and honour. 16 Solomons judgment between the two harlots, maketh him renowned.

AND * Solomon made affinity with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and took Pharaohs daughter and brought her into the [a] city of David, until he had made an end of building his own houſe, and the houſe of the LORD, and the wall of Jeruſalem round about.

2 Onely the people ſacrificed in [b] high places, becauſe there was no houſe built unto the name of the LORD, until thoſe days.

3 And Solomon loved the LORD, walking in the ſtatutes of David his [c] father: onely he ſacrificed and burnt incenſe in high places.

4 And the king went to [d] Gibeon to ſacrifice there; for that was the great high place: a thouſand burnt-offerings did Solomon offer upon the altar.

5 ¶ In Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream by night: and God ſaid, Ask what I ſhall give thee.

6 And Solomon ſaid, Thou haſt ſhewed unto thy ſervant David my father great ‡ mercy, according as he walked before thee in truth and in righteouſneſs, and in uprightneſs of heart with thee, and thou haſt [e] kept for him this great kindneſs, that thou haſt given him a ſon to ſit on his throne, as it is this day.

7 And now, O LORD my God, thou haſt made thy ſervant king in ſtead of David my father: and I am but a little child: I know not how to [f] go out or come in.

8 And thy ſervant is in the midſt of thy people which thou haſt choſen, a great people, that cannot be numbred nor counted for multitude.

9 * Give therefore thy ſervant an † underſtanding heart, to judge thy people, that I may diſcern between good and bad: for who is able to judge this thy ſo [g] great a people?

10 And the ſpeech pleaſed the Lord, that Solomon had asked this thing.

11 And God ſaid unto him, Becauſe thou haſt asked this thing, and haſt not asked for thy ſelf † long life, neither haſt asked riches for thy ſelf, nor haſt asked the life of thine [h] enemies, but haſt asked for thy ſelf underdanding † to diſcern judgment;

12 Behold, I have done according to thy words: lo, I have given thee a wiſe and an underſtanding heart, ſo that there was none like thee before thee, neither after thee ſhall any ariſe like unto thee.

13 And I have alſo * given thee that which thou haſt not asked, both riches, and honour: ſo that there ‡ ſhall not be any among the kings like unto thee, all thy days.

14 And if thou wilt walk in my ways, to keep my ſtatutes and my commandments, * as thy father David did walk, then I will lengthen thy days.

15 And Solomon awoke, and behold, it was a [i] dream: and he came to Jeruſalem, and ſtood before the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and offered up burnt-offerings, and offered peace-offerings, and made a feaſt to all his ſervants.

16 ¶ Then came there two women that were harlots, unto the king, and [k] ſtood before him.

17 And the one woman ſaid, O my lord, I and this woman dwell in one houſe, and I was delivered of a child, with her in the houſe.

18 And it came to paſs the third day after that I was delivered, that this woman was delivered alſo: and we were together; there was no ſtranger with us in the houſe, ſave we two in the houſe.

19 And this womans child died in the night; becauſe ſhe overlaid it.

20 And ſhe aroſe at midnight, and [l] took my ſon from beſide me, while thine hand-maid ſlept, and laid it in her boſom, and laid her dead child in my boſom.

21 And when I roſe in the morning to give my child ſuck, behold, it was dead: but when I had conſidered it in the morning, behold,

CHAP. V.

1 Hiram ſending to congratulate Solomon is certified of his purpoſe to build the temple, and deſired to furniſh him with timber thereto. 7 Hiram bleſſing God for Solomon, and requeſting food for his family, furniſheth him with trees. 13 The number of Solomons workmen and labourers.

AND Hiram king of Tyre ſent his ſervants unto Solomon; (for he had heard that they had anointed him king in the room of his father) for Hiram was ever a lover of David.

2 And * Solomon ſent to Hiram, ſaying,

3 Thou knoweſt how that David my father could not build an houſe unto the name of the LORD his God, for the wars which were about him on every ſide, until the LORD put them under the ſoles of his feet.

4 But now the LORD my God hath given me [a] reſt on every ſide, ſo that there is neither adverſary, nor evil occurrent.

5 And behold, I † purpoſe to build an houſe unto the name of the LORD my God, * as the LORD ſpake unto David my father, ſaying, Thy ſon, whom I will ſet upon thy throne in thy room, he ſhall build an houſe unto my name.

6 Now therefore command thou, that they hew me cedar-trees out of Lebanon, and my ſervants ſhall be with thy ſervants: and unto thee will I give [b] hire for thy ſervants, according to all that thou ſhalt † appoint: for thou knoweſt that there is not among us any that can skill to hew timber, like unto the Sidonians.

7 ¶ And it came to paſs, when [c] Hiram heard the words of Solomon, that he rejoyced greatly, and ſaid, Bleſſed be the LORD this day, which hath given unto David a wiſe ſon over this great people.

8 And Hiram ſent to Solomon, ſaying, I have † conſidered the things which thou ſenteſt to me for: and I will do all thy deſire concerning timber of cedar, and concerning timber of fir.

AND * it came to paſs in the four hundred and fourſcore year after the children of Iſrael were come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomons reign over Iſrael, in the month [a] Zif, which is the ſecond month, that he † began to build the [b] houſe of the LORD.

2 And the [c] houſe which king Solomon built for the LORD, the length thereof was threeſcore cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits.

3 And the porch before the temple of the houſe, twenty cubits was the length thereof, according to the breadth of the houſe; and ten cubits was the breadth thereof, before the houſe.

4 And for the houſe he made ‡ windows of narrow lights.

11 ¶ And the word of the LORD came to Solomon, ſaying,

13 And I will [g] dwell among the children of Iſrael, and will not forſake my people Iſrael.

14 So Solomon built the houſe, & finiſhed it.

15 And he built the walls of the houſe within with boards of cedar, ‡ both the floor of the houſe, and the [h] walls of the cieling: and he covered them on the inſide with wood, and covered the floor of the houſe with planks of fir.

16 And he built twenty cubits on the ſides of the houſe, both the floor, and the walls with boards of cedar: he even built them for it within, even for the oracle, even for the moſt holy place.

17 And the houſe, that is, the temple before it, was fourty [i] cubits long.

18 And the cedar of the houſe within was carved with ‡ knops, and † open flowers: all was cedar, there was no ſtone ſeen.

19 And the oracle he prepared in the [k] houſe within, to ſet there the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

20 And the oracle in the fore-part was twenty cubits in length, and twenty cubits in breadth, and twenty cubits in the height thereof: and he overlaid it with † pure gold, and ſo covered the altar which was of cedar.

21 So Solomon overlaid the houſe within with pure gold: and he made a partition, by the chains of gold before the oracle, and he overlaid it with gold.

22 And the whole houſe he overlaid with gold, until he had finiſhed all the houſe: alſo the whole [l] altar that was by the oracle he overlaid with gold.

23 ¶ And within the oracle he made two cherubims of ‡† olive-tree, each ten cubits high.

24 And five cubits was the one wing of the cherub, and five cubits the other wing of the cherub: from the uttermoſt part of the one wing unto the uttermoſt part of the other, were ten cubits.

25 And the other cherub was ten cubits: both he cherubims were of one meaſure, & one ſize.

26 The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and ſo was it of the other cherub.

27 And he ſet the cherubims within the inner houſe; and * ‡ they ſtretched forth the wings of the cherubims, ſo that the wing of the one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall: and their wings touched one another in the midſt of the houſe.

28 And he [m] overlaid the cherubims with gold.

29 And he carved all the walls of the houſe round about with carved figures of cherubims, and palm-trees, and † open flowers, within and without.

30 And the floor of the houſe he overlaid with gold, within and without.

31 ¶ And for the entring of the oracle he made doors of olive-tree: the lintel and ſide-poſts were ‡ a fifth part of the wall.

32 The ‡ two doors alſo were of olive-tree; and he carved upon them carvings of cherubims, and palm-trees, and † open flowers, and overlaid them with gold, and ſpread [n] gold upon the cherubims, and upon the palm-trees.

33 So alſo made he for the door of the temple, poſts of olive-tree ‡ a fourth part of the wall.

34 And the two doors were of fir-tree: the two leaves of the one door were folding, and the two leaves of the other door were folding.

35 And he carved thereon cherubims, and palm-trees, and open flowers: and covered them with gold, fitted upon the carved work.

36 ¶ And he built the [o] inner court with three rows of hewed ſtone, and a row of cedar-beams.

37 ¶ In the fourth year was the foundation of the houſe of the LORD laid, in the month Zif.

38 And in the eleventh year, in the month [p] Bul, (which is the eighth month) was the houſe finiſhed ‡ throughout all the parts thereof, and according to all the faſhion of it: So was he ſeven years in building it.

13 ¶ And king Solomon sent and fet Hiram out of Tyre.

† Heb. the son of a widow woman.

14 He was † a widows son of the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a worker in brass: and [i] he was filled with wisdom and understanding, and cunning to work all works in brass; and he came to king Solomon, and wrought all his work.

i Thus when God will have his glory set forth, he raiseth up men, and giveth them excellent gifts for the accomplishment of the same, Exod. 31. 2. 3.

15 For he † cast two pillars of brass, of eighteen cubits high apiece: and a line of twelve cubits did compass either of them about.

17 And nets of checker-work, and wreaths of chain-work, for the chapiters which were upon the top of the pillars; seven for the one chapiter, and seven for the other chapiter.

18 And he made the pillars, and two rows round about upon the one net-work, to cover the chapiters that were upon the top, with pomegranates: and so did he for the other chapiter.

19 And the chapiters that were upon the top of the pillars, were of [k] lily-work in the porch, four cubits.

k As was seen commonly, wrought in costly porches.

20 And the chapiters upon the two pillars had pomegranates also above, over against the belly which was by the net-work, and the pomegranates were two hundred, in rows round about upon the other chapiter.

22 And upon the top of the pillars was lily-work: so was the work of the pillars finished.

23 ¶ And he made a molten [o] sea, ten cubits † from the one brim to the other: it was round all about, and his height was five cubits: and a line of thirty cubits did compass it round about.

o So called, for the hugeness of the vessel.

24 And under the brim of it round about there were knops compassing it, ten in a cubit, * compassing the sea round about: the knops were cast in two rows, when it was cast.

* 2 Chron. 4. 3.

25 It stood upon twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea was set above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward.

26 And it was an hand-breadth thick, and the brim thereof was wrought like the brim of a cup, with flowers of lilies: it contained two thousand [p] baths.

p Bath and ephah seem to be both one measure, Ezek. 45. 11. every bath containing about ten pottels.

27 ¶ And he made ten bases of brass; four cubits was the length of one base, and four cubits the breadth thereof, and three cubits the height of it.

28 And the work of the bases was on this manner: They had borders, and the borders were between the ledges:

29 And on the borders that were between the ledges were lions, oxen, and cherubims: and upon the ledges, there was a base above: and beneath the lions and oxen were certain additions made of thin work.

30 And every base had four brasen wheels, and plates of brass: and the four corners thereof had undersetters: under the laver were undersetters molten, at the side of every addition,

31 And [q] the mouth of it within the chapiter and above was a cubit: but the mouth thereof was round after the work of the base, a cubit and an half: and also upon the mouth of it were gravings with their borders, four-square, not round.

q The mouth of the great base or frame entred into the chapiter or pillar that bare up the caldron.

32 And under the borders were four wheels: and the axle-trees of the wheels were † joyned to the base, and the height of a wheel was a cubit and half a cubit.

† Heb. in the base.

33 And the work of the wheels was like the work of a chariot-wheel: their axle-trees, and their naves, and their felloes, and their spokes were all molten.

34 And there were four undersetters to the four corners of one base: and the undersetters were of the very base it self.

35 And in the top of the base was there a [r] round compass of half a cubit high: and on the top of the base, the ledges thereof and the borders thereof were of the same.

r which was called the pillar, chapiter, or stand base, whereon the caldron stood.

36 For on the plates of the ledges thereof and on the borders thereof, he graved cherubims, lions, and palm-trees, according to the † proportion of every one, and additions round about.

37 After this manner he made the ten bases:

ſes: all of them had one caſting, one meaſure, and one ſize.

38 ¶ Then made he [f] ten lavers of braſs: one laver contained fourty baths: and every laver was four cubits: and upon every one of the ten baſes, one laver.

39 And he put five baſes on the right † ſide of the houſe, and five on the left ſide of the houſe: and he ſet the ſea on the right ſide of the [t] houſe eaſt-ward, over againſt the ſouth.

40 ¶ And Hiram made the lavers, and the ſhovels, and the baſons: ſo Hiram made an end of doing all the work that he made king Solomon for the houſe of the LORD.

41 The two pillars, and the two bowls of the chapiters that were on the top of the two pillars: and the two net-works, to cover the two bowls of the chapiters which were upon the top of the pillars:

42 And four hundred pomegranates for the two net-works, even two rows of pomegranates for one net-work, to cover the two bowls of the chapiters that were † upon the pillars:

43 And the ten baſes, and ten lavers on the baſes:

44 And one ſea, and twelve oxen under the ſea:

45 And the pots, and the ſhowels, and the baſons: and all theſe veſſels which [u] Hiram made to king Solomon, for the houſe of the LORD, were of † bright braſs.

46 In the plain of Jordan did the king caſt them † in the clay-ground, between Succoth and Zarthan.

47 And Solomon left all the veſſels unweighed, † becauſe they were exceeding many: neither was the weight of the braſs † found out.

48 And Solomon made all the veſſels that pertained unto the houſe of the LORD: the altar of [x] gold, and the table of gold, whereupon the ſhew-bread was,

49 And the candleſticks of pure gold, five on the right ſide, and five on the left, before the oracle, with the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs of gold,

50 And the bowls, and the [y] ſnuffers, and the baſons, and the ſpoons, and the † cenſers of pure gold; and the hinges of gold, both for the doors of the inner houſe, the moſt holy place, and for the doors of the houſe, to wit, of the temple.

51 So was ended all the work that king Solomon made for the houſe of the LORD: and Solomon brought in the † things, * which David his father had dedicated; even the ſilver, and the gold, and the veſſels did he put among the treaſures of the houſe of the LORD.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The feaſt of the dedication of the temple. 12, 54 Solomons bleſſing. 22 Solomons prayer. 62 His ſacrifice of peace-offerings.

THen * Solomon aſſembled the elders of Iſrael, and all the heads of the tribes, the † chief of the fathers of the children of Iſrael, unto king Solomon, in Jeruſalem, that they might [a] bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD, out of the city of David, which is Zion.

2 And all the men of Iſrael aſſembled themſelves unto king Solomon, at the feaſt in the month [b] Ethanim, which is the ſeventh month.

3 And all the elders of Iſrael came, and the prieſt took up the ark.

4 And they brought up the ark of the LORD, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy veſſels that were in the tabernacle, even thoſe did the prieſts and the Levites bring up.

5 And king Solomon, and all the congregation of Iſrael, that were aſſembled unto him, were with him before the ark, ſacrificing ſheep, and oxen, that could not be told nor numbred for multitude.

6 And the [c] prieſts brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD unto his place, into the oracle of the houſe to the moſt holy place, even under the wings of the cherubims.

7 For the cherubims [d] ſpread forth their two wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubims covered the ark, and the ſtaves thereof above.

8 And they drew out the ſtaves, that the † ends of the ſtaves were ſeen out in the ‡ holy place before the oracle, and they were not ſeen without: and there they are unto this day.

9 There was nothing in the ark * [e] ſave the two tables of ſtone, which Moſes put there at Horeb, ‡ when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Iſrael, when they came out of the land of Egypt.

13 I have ſurely built thee an houſe to dwell in, a ſettled place for thee to abide in for [f] ever.

14 And the king turned his face about, and bleſſed all the congregation of Iſrael: (and all the congregation of Iſrael ſtood)

15 And he ſaid, Bleſſed be the LORD God of Iſrael, which ſpake with his mouth unto David my father, and hath with his hand fulfilled it, ſaying, 16 Since the day that I brought forth my people Iſrael out of Egypt, I choſe no city out of all the tribes of Iſrael to build an houſe that my name might be therein; but I choſe * David to be over my people Iſrael.

17 And it was in the heart of David my father, to build an houſe for the name of the LORD God of Iſrael.

27 But will God [i] indeed dwell on the earth? behold, the heaven, and heaven of heavens cannot contain thee, how much leſs this houſe that I have builded?

28 Yet have thou reſpect unto the prayer of thy ſervant and to his ſupplication, O LORD my God, to hearken unto the cry and to the prayer, which thy ſervant prayeth before thee to day:

11 (Now Hiram the king of Tyre had furniſhed Solomon with cedar-trees, and fir-trees, and with gold, according to all his deſire) that then king Solomon gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee.

15 ¶ And this is the reaſon of the levy which king Solomon raiſed, for to build the houſe of the LORD, and his own houſe, and [f] Millo, and the wall of Jeruſalem, and Hazor, and Megiddo, and Gezer.

16 For Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up, and taken Gezer, and burnt it with fire, and ſlain the Canaanites that dwelt in the city, and given it for a preſent unto his daughter, Solomons wife.

17 And Solomon built Gezer, and Bethhoron the nether,

18 And Baalath, and Tadmor in the wilderneſs, in the land,

22 But of the children of Iſrael did Solomon * make no bond-men: but they were men of war, and his ſervants, and his princes, and his captains, and rulers of his chariots, and his horſ-men.

23 Theſe were the chief of the officers that were over Solomons work, [i] five hundred and fifty, which bare rule over the people that wrought in the work.

24 ¶ But * Pharaohs daughter came up out of the city of David, unto her houſe which Solomon had built for her: then did he build Millo.

d It is a chief ſign of Gods favour, when godly and wiſe rulers ſit in the throne of juſtice.

e This is the cauſe why kings are appointed.

10 And she gave the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of spices very great store, and precious stones: there came no more such abundance of spices, as these, which the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon.

11 And the navy also of Hiram that brought gold from Ophir, brought in from Ophir great plenty of almug-trees, and precious stones.

12 And the king made of the almug-trees, ‡† pillars for the house of the LORD, and for the kings house, harps also and psalteries for singers: there came no such * almug-trees, nor were seen unto this day.

13 And king Solomon gave unto the queen of Sheba, all her desire whatsoever she asked, besides that which Solomon gave her † of his royal bounty: so she turned and went to her own country, she and her servants.

14 ¶ Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year, was six hundred threescore and six talents of gold, 15 Besides that he had of the merchantmen, and of the traffick of the spice-merchants, and of all the kings of Arabia, and of the ‡ governours of the [f] country.

16 ¶ And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold: six hundred shekels of gold went to one target.

17 And he made three hundred shields of beaten gold; three pound of gold went to one shield: and the king put them in the * house of the forest of Lebanon.

18 ¶ Moreover, the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with the best gold.

19 The throne had six steps, and the top of the throne was round † behind: and there were †[g] stays on either side on the place of the seat, and two lions stood beside the stays.

20 And twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon the six steps: there was not † the like made in any kingdom.

21 ¶ And all king Solomons drinking-vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold, ‡ none were of silver; it was nothing accounted of in the days of Solomon.

22 For the king had at sea a navy of [h] Tharshish, with the navy of Hiram: once in three years came the navy of Tharshish, bringing gold and silver, ‡ ivory, and apes, and peacocks.

23 So king Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth, for riches and for wisdom.

24 ¶ And all the earth † sought to Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart.

25 And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and garments, and armour, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year.

26 ¶ * And Solomon gathered together chariots, and horse-men: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horse-men, whom he bestowed in the cities for chariots, and with the king at Jerusalem.

27 And the king † made silver to be in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars made he to be as the sycomore-trees, that are in the vale, for abundance.

28 ¶ * † And Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and linen yarn: the kings merchants received the linen yarn at a price.

29 And a chariot came up and went out of Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and an horse for an hundred and fifty: and so for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, did they bring them out † by their means.

BUt king Solomon loved * many [a] strange women, (‡ together with the daughter of Pharaoh) women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Zidonians and Hittites:

2 Of the nations concerning which the LORD said unto the children of Israel, * Ye shall not go in to them, neither shall they come in unto you, for surely they will turn away your heart after their gods: Solomon clave unto these in love.

3 And he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred [b] concubines: and his wives turned away his heart.

4 For it came to pass when Solomon was old, that his wives turned away his heart after other gods: and his heart was [c] not perfect with the LORD his God, as was the heart of David his father.

5 For Solomon went after * Ashtoreth the goddess of the Zidonians, and after [d] Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites.

14 ¶ And the LORD stirred up an adversary unto Solomon, Hadad the Edomite; he was of the kings [h] seed in Edom.

15 * For it came to pass when David was in Edom, and Joab the captain of the host was gone up to bury the slain, after he had smitten every male in Edom:

16 (For six months did Joab remain there with all Israel, until he had cut off every [i] male in Edom)

17 That Hadad [k] fled, he and certain Edomites of his fathers servants with him, to go into Egypt; Hadad being yet a little child.

18 And they arose out of Midian, and came to Paran, and they took men with them out of Paran, and they came to Egypt, unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, which gave him an house, and appointed him victuals, and gave him land.

19 And Hadad found [l] great favour in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him to wife the sister of his own wife, the sister of Taphenes the queen.

20 And the sister of Taphenes bare him Genubath his son, whom Taphenes weaned in Pharaohs house: and Genubath was in Pharaohs household among the sons of Pharaoh.

21 And when Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers, and that Joab the captain of the host was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, † Let me depart, that I may go to mine own country.

22 Then Pharaoh said unto him, But what hast thou lacked with me, that, behold, thou seekest to go to thine own country? And he answered, † Nothing: howbeit let me go in any wise.

23 ¶ And God stirred him up another adversary, Rezon, the son of Eliadah, which [m] fled from his lord Hadadezer king of Zodah.

24 And he gathered men unto him, and became captain over a band, * when David slew them of Zobah: and they went to Damascus and dwelt therein, and [n] reigned in Damascus.

25 And he was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon, beside the mischief that Hadad did: and he abhorred Israel, and reigned over Syria.

26 ¶ And * Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephrathite of Zereda, Solomons servant, (whose mothers name was Zeruah, a widow woman) even he lift up his hand against the king.

27 And this was the cause that he lift up his hand against the king: Solomon built Millo, and † repaired the breaches of the city of David his father.

28 And the man Jeroboam was a mighty man of valour: and Solomon seeing the young man that he † was industrious, he made him, [o] ruler over all the † charge of the house of Joseph.

29 And it came to pass at that time when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, that the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite found him in the way: and he had clad himself with a new garment; and they two were alone in the field.

30 And Ahijah caught the new garment that was on him, and [p] rent it in twelve pieces.

31 And he said to Jeroboam, Take thee ten pieces: for thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Behold, I will rend the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon, and will give ten tribes to thee:

32 (But he shall have one tribe for my servant Davids sake, and for Jerusalems sake, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel)

33 Because that they have forsaken me, and have worshipped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Zidonians, Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and Milcom the god of the children of Ammon, and have not walked in my ways, to do that which is right in mine eyes, and to keep my statutes and my judgments, as did David his father.

34 Howbeit, I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand: but I will make him prince all the days of his life, for David my servants sake, whom I chose, because he kept my commandments and my statutes:

35 But * I will take the kingdom out of his sons hand, and will give it unto thee, even ten tribes.

36 And unto his son will I give one tribe, that David my servant may have a † [q] light alway before me in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen me to put my name there.

37 And I will take thee, and thou shalt reign according to all that thy soul desireth, and shalt be king over Israel.

38 And it shall be, if thou wilt hearken unto all that I command thee, and wilt walk in my ways, and do that is right in my sight, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as David my servant did; that I will be with thee, and build thee a sure house, as I built for David, and will give Israel unto thee.

39 And I will for this [r] afflict the seed of David, but [s] not for ever.

40 Solomon sought therefore to kill Jeroboam: and Jeroboam arose, and fled into Egypt, unto Shishak king of Egypt, and was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

41 ¶ And the rest of the ‡ acts of Solomon, and all that he did, and his wisdom, are they not written in the [t] book of the acts of Solomon?

42 And the † time that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem, over all Israel, was * fourty years.

c There is nothing harder for them that are in authority, then to bridle their affections, and follow good counſel. 9 And he ſaid unto them, What [c] counſel give ye, that we may anſwer this people, who have ſpoken to me, ſaying, Make the yoke which thy father did put upon us, lighter?

10 And the young men that were grown up with him, ſpake unto him, ſaying, Thus ſhalt thou ſpeak unto this people that ſpake unto thee, ſaying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it lighter unto us; thus ſhalt thou ſay unto them, My little finger ſhall be d I am much more able to keep you in ſubjection then my father was. [d] thicker then my fathers loyns.

11 And now whereas my father did lade you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke: my father hath chaſtiſed you with whips, but I will chaſtiſe you with ſcorpions.

12 ¶ So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king had e The people declare their obedience in this, that they would attempt nothing before the king had given them juſt occaſion. † Heb. hardly. [e] appointed, ſaying, Come to me again the third day.

13 And the king anſwered the people † roughly, and forſook the old mens counſel that they gave him;

14 And ſpake to them after the counſel of the young men, ſaying, My father made your yoke heavy, and I will add to your yoke; my father alſo chaſtiſed you with whips, but I will chaſtiſe you with ſcorpions.

15 Wherefore the king hearkned not unto the people; for the cauſe was from the LORD, that he might perform his ſaying, which the LORD * ſpake by Ahijah the Shilonite unto Jeroboam the ſon of Nebat. 289

* Chap. 11. 31.

16 ¶ So when all Iſrael ſaw that the king hearkned not unto them, the people anſwered the king, ſaying, What portion have we in [f] David? neither have we inheritance in the ſon of Jeſſe: to your tents, O Iſrael: now ſee to thine own houſe, David. So Iſrael departed unto their tents.

f Though their cauſe were good, yet it is moſt hard for the people to bridle their affections, as theſe vile words declare.

17 But as for the children of Iſrael which dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

18 Then king Rehoboam ſent Adoram, who was over the tribute; and all Iſrael ſtoned him with ſtones, that he died: therefore king Rehoboam † made ſpeed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jeruſalem.

† Heb. ſtrengthned himſelf.

19 So Iſrael ‡ rebelled [g] againſt the houſe of David unto this day.

‡ Or, fell away. g By the juſt judgment of God, for Solomons ſins.

20 And it came to paſs when all Iſrael heard that Jeroboam was come again, that they ſent and called him unto the congregation, and made him king over all Iſrael: there was none that followed the houſe of David, but the tribe of Judah * onely.

* Chap. 11. 13.

21 ¶ And when Rehoboam was come to Jeruſalem, he [h] aſſembled all the houſe of Judah, with the tribe of Benjamin, an hundred and foureſcore thouſand choſen men, which were warriours, to fight againſt the houſe of Iſrael, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam the ſon of Solomon.

h For as yet he perceived not that the LORD had ſo appointed it.

* 2 Chron. 11. 2. 22 But * the word of God came unto Shemaiah the [i] man of God, ſaying, i That is, The prophet.

23 Speak unto Rehoboam the ſon of Solomon king of Judah, and unto all the houſe of Judah, and Benjamin, and to the remnant of the people, ſaying, k who of his juſt judgment will punish the treſpaſſer, and of his mercy ſpare the innocent people. 24 Thus ſaith the [k] LORD, Ye ſhall not go up, nor fight againſt your brethren the children of Iſrael: return every man to his houſe, for this thing is from me. They hearkned therefore to the word of the LORD, and returned to depart, according to the word of the LORD.

25 ¶ Then Jeroboam built Shechem in mount Ephraim, and dwelt therein, and went out from thence, and built Penuel.

26 And Jeroboam ſaid in his heart, Now ſhall the kingdom return to the houſe of David:

27 If this people go up to do ſacrifice in the houſe of the LORD at [l] Jeruſalem, then ſhall the heart of this people turn again unto their lord, even unto Rehoboam king of Judah, and they ſhall kill me, and go again to Rehoboam king of Judah.

l He feared leſt his people ſhould have by this means been enticed to rebel againſt him.

28 Whereupon the king took counſel, and made two calves of gold, and ſaid unto them, [m] It is too much for you to go up to Jeruſalem: * behold thy gods, O Iſrael, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

m So craftie are the carnal perſwaſions of princes, when they will make a religion to ſerve to their appetite. * Exod. 32. 8.

29 And he ſet the one in Beth-el, and the other put he in Dan.

290

30 And this thing became a ſin: for the people went to worſhip before the one, even unto Dan.

n That is, a temple, where altars were built for idolatry.

31 And he made an [n] houſe of high places, and made prieſts of the loweſt of the people, which were not of the ſons of Levi.

o Becauſe he would the more bind the peoples devotion to his idolatry, he made a new holy day, beſides thoſe that the Lord had appointed in the law.

32 And Jeroboam ordained a feaſt in the eight month, on the [o] fifteenth day of the month, like unto the feaſt that is in Judah, and he ‡ offered upon the altar, (ſo did he in Beth-el) ‡ ſacrificing unto the calves that he had made: and he placed in Beth-el the prieſts of the high places which he had made.

‡ Or, went up to the altar, &c.
‡ Or, to ſacrifice.
‡ Or, went up to the altar, &c.

33 So he ‡ offered upon the altar which he had made in Beth-el, the fifteenth day of the eight month, even in the month which he had deviſed of his own heart: and ordained a feaſt unto the children of Iſrael, and he offered upon the altar, † and burnt incenſe.

† Heb. to burn incenſe.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Jeroboams hand that offered violence to him that propheſied againſt his altar at Beth-el, withereth, 6 and at the prayer of the prophet is reſtored. 7 The prophet refuſing the kings entertainment, departeth from Beth-el. 11 An old prophet ſeducing him, bringeth him back. 20 He is reproved by God, 23 ſlain by a lion, 26 buried by the old prophet, 31 who confirmeth his propheſy. 33 Jeroboams obſtinacy.

a That is, A prophet.

AND behold, there came a [a] man of God out of Judah, by the word of the LORD unto [b] Beth-el: and Jeroboam ſtood by the altar ‡ to burn incenſe.

b Not that, that was called Luz in Benjamin, but another of that name.
‡ Or, to offer.

2 And he cried againſt the altar in the word of the LORD, and ſaid, O altar, altar, thus ſaith the LORD, Behold, a child ſhall be born unto the houſe of David, * Joſiah by name, and upon thee ſhall he offer the prieſts of the high places that burn incenſe upon thee, and mens bones ſhall be burnt upon thee.

* 2 King. 23 16

3 And he gave a ſign the ſame day, ſaying, This is the [c] ſign which the LORD hath ſpoken; Behold, the altar ſhall be rent, and the aſhes that are upon it ſhall be poured out.

c By this ſign ye ſhall know that the Lord hath ſent me.

4 And it came to paſs when king Jeroboam heard the ſaying of the man of God, which had cried againſt the altar in Beth-el, that he put forth his hand from the altar, ſaying, [d] Lay hold on him. And his hand which he put forth againſt him, dried up, ſo that he could not pull it in again to him.

d The wicked rage againſt the prophets of God, when they declare to them Gods judgments.

5 The altar alſo was rent, and the aſhes poured out from the altar, according to the ſign which the man of God had given by the word of the LORD.

6 And the king anſwered and ſaid unto the man of God, [e] Intreat now the face of the LORD thy God, and pray for me, that my hand may be reſtored me again. And the man of God beſought † the LORD, and the kings hand was reſtored again, and became as it was before.

e Though the wicked humble themſelves for a time, when they feel Gods judgements, yet after they return to their old malice, and declare that they are but vile hypocrites.
† Heb the face of the LORD.

7 And the king ſaid unto the man of God, Come home with me, and refreſh thy ſelf, and I will give thee a reward.

8 And the man of God ſaid unto the king, If thou wilt give me half thine houſe, I will not go in with thee, neither will I eat bread, nor drink water in this place:

9 For ſo was it charged me by the word of the LORD, ſaying, [f] Eat no bread, nor drink water, nor turn again by the ſame way that thou cameſt.

f Seeing he had the expreſs word of God, he ought not to have declined therefrom, neither for the perſwaſion of man nor angel.

10 So he went another way, and returned not by the way that he came to Beth-el.

11 ¶ Now there dwelt an old prophet in Beth-el, and his ſons came and told him all the works that the man of God had done that day in Beth-el: the words which he had ſpoken unto the king, them they told alſo to their father.

12 And their father ſaid unto them, What way went he? for his ſons had ſeen what way the man of God went, which came from Judah.

13 And he ſaid unto his ſons, Saddle me the aſs. So they ſaddled him the aſs, and he rode h ereon, 14 And went after the man of God, and found him ſitting under an oak; and he ſaid unto him, Art thou the man of God that cameſt from Judah? And he ſaid, I am.

15 Then he ſaid unto him, [g] Come home with me, and eat bread.

g This he did of a ſimple mind thinking it his duty to declare friendſhip to a prophet.

16 And he ſaid, I may not return with thee, nor go in with thee: neither will I eat bread, nor drink water with thee in this place.

17 For † it was ſaid to me by the word of the LORD, Thou ſhalt eat no bread, nor drink water there, nor turn again to go by the way that thou cameſt.

† Heb. a word was.

18 He ſaid unto him, I am a prophet alſo as thou art, and an [h] angel ſpake unto me by the word of the LORD, ſaying, Bring him back with thee into thine houſe, that he may eat bread, and drink water. But he lied unto him.

h His fault is here double: firſt, in that that he ſuſpecteth not the prophet to obey Gods expreſs commandment: and next, that he faineth to have a revelation to the contrary.

19 So he went back with him, and did eat bread in his houſe, and drank water.

20 ¶ And it came to paſs as they ſat at the table, that the word of the LORD came unto the prophet that brought him back:

21 And he cried unto the man of God that came from Judah, ſaying, Thus ſaith the LORD, [i] Foraſmuch as thou haſt diſobeyed the mouth of the LORD, and haſt not kept the commandment which the LORD thy God commanded thee, i God would reprove his folly by him, who was the occaſion to bring him into error.

22 But cameſt back, and haſt eaten bread, and drunk water in the place of the which the LORD did ſay to thee, Eat no bread, and drink no water; thy carcaſe ſhall not come unto the ſepulchre of thy fathers.

23 ¶ And it came to paſs after he had eaten bread, and after he had drunk, that he ſaddled for him the aſs, to wit, for the prophet whom he had brought back.

24 And when he was gone, [k] a lion met him by the way, and ſlew him: and his carcaſe was caſt in the way, and the aſs ſtood by it, the lion alſo ſtood by the carcaſe.

k By this fearful example God, leteth forth how dangerous a thing it is for men to behave themſelves coldly, or deceitfully in their charge, whereunto God hath called them.

25 And behold, men paſſed by, and ſaw the carcaſe caſt in the way, and the lion ſtanding by the carcaſe: and they came and told it in the city where the old prophet dwelt.

26 And

26 And when the prophet that brought him back from the way, heard thereof, he ſaid, It is the man of God, who was diſobedient unto the word of the LORD: therefore the LORD hath delivered him unto the lion, which hath † torn him, and ſlain him according to the word of the LORD, which he ſpake unto him.

† Heb. broken.

27 And he ſpake to his ſons, ſaying, Saddle me the aſs. And they ſaddled him.

28 And he went and found his carcaſe caſt in the way, and the aſs and the lion ſtanding by the carcaſe: the lion had [1] not eaten the carcaſe, nor † torn the aſs.

[1] To declare that this was only the judgment of God: for if the lion had done it for hunger, he would alſo have devoured the body.
† Heb. broken.

29 And the prophet took up the carcaſe of the man of God, and laid it upon the aſs, and brought it back: and the old prophet came to the city, to mourn, and to bury him.

30 And he laid his carcaſe in his own [m] grave, and they mourned over him, ſaying, Alas my brother.

[m] which he had prepared for himſelf.

31 And it came to paſs after he had buried him, that he ſpake to his ſons, ſaying, When I am dead, then bury me in the ſepulchre wherein the man of God is buried, lay my bones beſide his bones.

32 For the ſaying which he cried by the word of the LORD againſt the altar in Beth-el, and againſt all the houſes of the high places which are in the cities of Samaria, ſhall ſurely come to paſs.

33 ¶ After this thing, Jeroboam [n] returned not from his evil way, but † made again of the loweſt of the people, prieſts of the high places: whoſoever would, he † conſecrated him, and he became one of the prieſts of the high places.

[n] So the wicked profit not by Gods threatnings, but go backward, and become worſe and worſe, 2 Tim. 3.13.
† Heb. returned and made.
† Heb. filled his hand.

34 And this thing became ſin unto the houſe of Jeroboam, even to cut it off, and to deſtroy it from off the face of the earth.

12 Ariſe thou therefore, get thee to thine own houſe: and when thy feet enter into the city, the child ſhall die.

13 And all Iſrael ſhall mourn for him, and bury him: for he onely of Jeroboam ſhall come to the grave, becauſe in him there is found [k] ſome good thing toward the LORD God of Iſrael, in the houſe of Jeroboam.

14 Moreover, the LORD ſhall raiſe him up a king over Iſrael, who ſhall cut off the houſe of Jeroboam that day: but what? [l] even now.

[l] The Lord will begin to deſtroy it out of hand.

15 For the LORD ſhall ſmite Iſrael, as a reed is ſhaken in the water, and he ſhall root up Iſrael out of this good land, which he gave to their fathers, and ſhall ſcatter them beyond the [m] river, becauſe they have made their groves, provoking the LORD to anger.

e For in that, that he suffered them to worship God in other places, then he had appointed, it came of ignorance, and not of malice.

18 Then Asa took all the silver and the gold that were left in the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the kings house, and delivered them into the hand of his servants: and king Asa sent them to * Ben-hadad the son of Tabrimon, the son of Hezion king of Syria, that dwelt at Damascus, saying,

31 ¶ Now the reſt of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Iſrael?

32 And there was war between Aſa and Baaſha king of Iſrael all their days.

33 In the third year of Aſa king of Judah, began Baaſha the ſon of Ahijah to reign over all Iſrael in [m] Tirzah, twenty and four years.

m which was the place where the king of Iſrael remained.

34 And he did evil in the ſight of the LORD, and walked in the way of Jeroboam, and in his ſin wherewith he made Iſrael to ſin.

CHAP. XVI.

1, 7 Jehu's prophecy againſt Baaſha. 5 Elah ſucceedeth him. 8 Zimri conſpiring againſt Elah, ſucceedeth him. 11 Zimri executeth Jehu's prophecy. 15 Omri made king by the ſouldiers, forceth Zimri deſperately to burn himſelf. 21 The kingdom being divided, Omri prevaileth againſt Tibni. 23 Omri buildeth Samaria. 25 His wicked reign. 27 Ahab ſucceedeth him. 29 Ahabs moſt wicked reign. 34 Joſhua's curſe upon Hiel the builder of Jericho.

THen the word of the LORD came to Jehu the ſon of Hanani, againſt Baaſha, ſaying, Thus ſpake Jehu to Baaſha in the name of the Lord.

2 [a] Foraſmuch as I exalted thee out of the duſt, and made thee prince over my people Iſrael, and thou haſt walked in the way of Jeroboam, and haſt made my people Iſrael to ſin, to provoke me to anger with their ſins:

293

3 Behold, I will take away the poſterity of Baaſha, and the poſterity of his houſe: and will make thy [b] houſe like * the houſe of Jeroboam the ſon of Nebat.

b Meaning, The houſe of Baaſha. * Chap. 15.29.

4 * Him that dieth of Baaſha in the city, ſhall the dogs eat: and him that dieth of his in the fields, ſhall the fowls of the air eat.

* Chap. 14.11.

5 Now the reſt of the acts of Baaſha, and what he died, and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Iſrael?

6 So Baaſha ſlept with his fathers, and was buried in Tirzah, and Elah his ſon reigned in his ſtead.

7 And [c] alſo by the hand of the prophet Jehu the ſon of Hanani, came the word of the LORD againſt Baaſha, and againſt his houſe, even for all the evil that he did in the ſight of the LORD, in provoking him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the houſe of Jeroboam, and becauſe he killed [d] him.

c That is, The prophet did his meſſage.

d Meaning, Nadab Jeroboams ſon.

8 ¶ In the twenty and ſixth year of Aſa king of Judah, began Elah the ſon of Baaſha to reign over Iſrael in Tirzah, two years.

9 And his ſervant Zimri (captain of half his chariots) conſpired againſt him as he was in Tirzah, [e] drinking himſelf drunk in the houſe of Arza, † ſteward of his houſe in Tirzah.

e The Chaldee text hath thus, Drinking till he was drunken, in the temple of Arza the idol, by his houſe in Tirza. † Heb. which was over.

10 And Zimri went in and ſmote him, and killed him, in the twenty and ſeventh year of Aſa king of Judah, and reigned in his ſtead.

11 ¶ And it came to paſs when he began to reign, aſſoon as he ſat on his throne, that he ſlew all the houſe of Baaſha: he left him not one that piſſeth againſt a wall, ‡ neither of his kinſfolks, nor of his friends.

‡ Or, hath his kinſmen and his friends.

12 Thus did Zimri deſtroy all the houſe of Baaſha, according to the word of the LORD, which he ſpake againſt Baaſha † by Jehu the [f] prophet;

† Heb. by the hand of. f Both Hanani his father, and he were prophets.

13 For all the ſins of Baaſha, and the ſins of Elah his ſon, by which they ſinned, and by which they made Iſrael to ſin, in provoking the LORD God of Iſrael to anger with their vanities.

14 Now the reſt of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Iſrael?

15 ¶ In the twenty and ſeventh year of Aſa king of Judah, did Zimri reign ſeven days in Tirzah: and the people were encamped againſt [g] Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philiſtines.

g The ſiege had continued from the time of Nadab, Jeroboams ſon.

16 And the people that were encamped heard ſay, Zimri hath conſpired, and hath alſo ſlain the king: wherefore all Iſrael made Omri the captain of the hoſt, king over Iſrael that day in the camp.

17 And Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Iſrael with him, and they beſieged [h] Tirzah.

h where Zimri kept himſelf in hold.

18 And it came to paſs when Zimri ſaw that the city was taken, that he went into the palace of the kings houſe, and burnt the kings houſe over him with fire, and died;

19 For his ſins which he ſinned in doing

294 evil in the ſight of the LORD, in walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his ſin which he did, to make Iſrael ſin.

20 Now the reſt of the acts of Zimri, and his treaſon that he wrought, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Iſrael?

21 ¶ Then were the people of Iſrael divided into two parts: [i] half of the people followed Tibni the ſon of Ginath, to make him king; and half followed Omri.

i That is, The people which were not at the ſiege of Gibbethon: for there they had choſen Omri.

22 But the people that followed Omri, prevailed againſt the people that followed Tibni the ſon of Ginath: ſo Tibni died, and Omri reigned.

23 ¶ In the thirty and one year of Aſa king of Judah, began Omri to reign over Iſrael twelve years: ſix years reigned he in Tirzah.

24 And he bought the hill Samaria of Shemer, for two talents of ſilver, and built on the hill, and called the name of the city which he built, after the name of Shemer, owner of the hill † Samaria.

† Heb. Shomeron.

25 ¶ But Omri wrought evil in the eyes of the LORD, and did [k] worſe then all that were before him.

k For ſuch is the nature of idolatry, that the ſuperſtition thereof doth daily increaſe, and the elder it is, the more abominable it is before God and his church.

26 For he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the ſon of Nebat, and in his ſin wherewith he made Iſrael to ſin, to provoke the LORD God of Iſrael to anger with their vanities.

27 Now the reſt of the acts of Omri, which he did, and his might that he ſhewed, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Iſrael?

28 So Omri ſlept with his fathers, and was buried in [l] Samaria, and Ahab his ſon reigned in his ſtead.

l He was the firſt king that was buried in Samaria, after that the kings houſe was burnt in Tirzah.

29 ¶ And in the thirty and eighth year of Aſa king of Judah, began Ahab the ſon of Omri to reign over Iſrael; and Ahab the ſon of Omri reigned over Iſrael in Samaria, twenty and two years.

30 And Ahab the ſon of Omri did evil in the ſight of the LORD, above all that were before him.

† Heb. was it a light thing, &c.

31 And it came to paſs, † as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the ſins of Jeroboam the ſon of Nebat; that he took to [m] wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Zidonians, and went and ſerved Baal, and worſhipped him.

m By whoſe means he fell to all wicked and ſtrange idolatry, and cruel perſecution.

32 And he reared up an altar for Baal, in the houſe of Baal, which he had built in Samaria.

33 And Ahab made a grove; and Ahab did more to provoke the LORD God of Iſrael to anger, then all the kings of Iſrael that were before him.

34 ¶ In his days did Hiel the Beth-elite build [n] Jericho: he laid the foundation thereof in Abiram his firſt-born, and ſet up the gates thereof in his youngeſt ſon Segub, according to the word of the LORD, which he ſpake by Joſhua the ſon of Nun.

AND † Elijah the Tiſhbite, who was of the inhabitants of Gilead, ſaid unto Ahab, As* the LORD God of Iſrael liveth, before whom I [a] ſtand, there ſhall not be dew nor rain theſe years, but [b] according to my word.

3 Get thee hence, and turn thee eaſt-ward, and hide thy ſelf by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan.

4 And it ſhall be, that thou ſhalt drink of the brook, and I have commanded the [c] ravens to feed thee there.

c To ſtrengthen his faith againſt perſecution, God promiſeth to feed him miraculouſly.

5 So he went, and did according unto the word of the LORD: for he went and dwelt by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan.

6 And the ravens brought him bread and fleſh in the morning, and bread and fleſh in the evening: and he drank of the brook.

7 And it came to paſs † after a while, that the brook dried up, becauſe there had been no rain in the land.

† Heb. at the end of days.

8 ¶ And the [d] word of the LORD came unto him, ſaying, d As the troubles of the ſaints of God are many, ſo his mercy is ever at hand to deliver them.

9 Ariſe, get thee to *Zarephat, which belongeth to Zidon, and dwell there: behold, I have commanded a widow woman there to ſuſtain thee.

* Luk.4.26, called, Sarepta.

10 So he aroſe, and went to Zarephath: and when he came to the gate of the city, behold, the widow woman was there [e] gathering of ſticks: and he called to her, and ſaid, Fetch me, I pray thee, a little water in a veſſel, that I may drink.

e All this was to ſtrengthen the faith of Elijah, to the intent that he ſhould look upon nothing worldly, but onely truſt on God providence.

11 And as ſhe was going to fetch it, he called to her, and ſaid, Bring me, I pray thee, a morſel of bread in thine hand.

12 And ſhe ſaid, As the LORD thy God liveth, I have not a cake, but an handful of meal in a barrel, and a little oil in a cruſe: and behold, I am gathering two ſticks, that I may go in, and dreſs it for me and my ſon, that we may eat it, and [f] die.

f For there is no hope of any more ſuſtenance.

13 And Elijah ſaid unto her, Fear not; go, and do as thou haſt ſaid: but make me thereof a little cake firſt, and bring it unto me, and after make for thee and for thy ſon.

14 For thus ſaith the LORD God of Iſrael, The [g] barrel of meal ſhall not waſte, neither ſhall the cruſe of oil fail, until the day that the LORD † ſendeth rain upon the earth.

g God receiveth no benefit for the uſe of his, but he promiſeth a moſt ample recompence for the ſame.

† Heb. giveth.

15 And ſhe went, and did according to the ſaying of Elijah: and ſhe, and he, and her houſe did eat ‡ [h] many days.

16 And the barrel of meal waſted not, neither did the cruſe of oil fail, according to the word of the LORD, which he ſpake † by Elijah.

17 And it came to paſs after theſe things, that the ſon of the woman, the miſtreſs of the the house, fell sick, and his sickness was so sore, that there was no [i] breath left in him.

18 And she said unto Elijah, What have I to do with thee, O thou man of God? art thou come unto me to call my sin to remembrance, and to slay my son?

19 And he said unto her, Give me thy son. And he took him out of hir bosom, and carried him up into a loft, where he abode, and laid him upon his own bed.

20 And he cried unto the LORD, and said, O LORD my God, hast [k] thou also brought evil upon the widow, with whom I sojourn, by slaying her son?

21 And he † stretched himself upon the child three times, and cried unto the LORD, and said, O LORD my God, I pray thee, let this childs soul come † into him again.

22 And the LORD heard the voice of Elijah, and the soul of the child came into him again, and he revived.

23 And Elijah took the child, and brought him down out of the chamber into the house, and delivered him unto his mother: and Elijah said, See, thy son liveth.

24 ¶ And the woman said to Elijah, Now by this [l] I know that thou art a man of God, and that the word of the LORD in thy mouth, is truth.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 In the extremity of famine Elijah sent to Ahab, meeteth good Obadiah. 9 Obadiah bringeth Ahab to Elijah. 17 Elijah reproving Ahab, by fire from heaven convinceth Baals prophets. 41 Elijah by prayer obtaining rain, followeth Ahab to Jezreel.

AND it came to pass after many days, that the word of the LORD came to Elijah in the [a] third year, saying, Go shew thy self unto Ahab; and I will send rain upon the earth.

2 And Elijah went to shew himself unto Ahab: and there was a sore famine in Samaria.

3 And Ahab called † Obadiah which was † the governour of his house: (now Obadiah [b] feared the LORD greatly:

4 For it was so, when † Jezebel cut off the prophets of the LORD, that Obadiah took an hundred prophets, and hid them by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water)

5 And Ahab said unto Obadiah, Go into the land, unto all fountains of water, and unto all brooks: peradventure we may find grass to save the horses and mules alive, † that we lese not all the beasts.

6 So they divided the land between them to pass throughout it: Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself.

7 ¶ And as Obadiah was in the way, behold, Elijah [e] met him: and he knew him, and fell on his face, and said, Art thou that my lord Elijah?

8 ¶ And he answered him, I am: go tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here.

9 And he said, What have I sinned, that thou wouldest deliver thy servant into the hand of Ahab, to slay me?

10 As the LORD thy God liveth, there is no nation or kingdom, whither my lord hath not sent to seek thee: and when they said, He is not there; he took an oath of the kingdom and nation, that they found thee not.

11 And now thou sayest, Go tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here.

12 And it shall come to pass, as soon as I am gone from thee, that the spirit of the LORD shall carry thee whither I know not; and so when I come and tell Ahab, and he cannot find thee, he shall slay me: but I thy servant [d] fear the LORD from my youth.

13 Was it not told my lord, what I did when Jezebel slew the prophets of the LORD? how I hid an hundred men of the LORDS prophets, by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water?

14 And now thou sayest, Go tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here: and he shall slay me.

15 And Elijah said, As the LORD of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, [e] I will surely shew my self unto him to day.

16 So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him: and Ahab went to meet Elijah.

17 ¶ And it came to pass when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said unto him, Art thou he that troubleth Israel?

18 And he answered, I have not troubled Israel, but [f] thou and thy fathers house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the LORD, and thou hast followed Baalim.

19 Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israel unto mount Carmel, and the prophets of Baal four hundred and fifty, and the prophets of the groves four hundred which eat at Jezebels table.

20 So Ahab sent unto all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together unto mount Carmel.

21 And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long [g] halt ye between two ‡ opinions? if the LORD be God, follow him: but if Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word.

22 Then said Elijah unto the people, I, even I only remain a prophet of the LORD; but Baals prophets are four hundred and fifty men.

23 Let them therefore give us two bullocks, and let them choose one bullock for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under: and I will dress the other bullock, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under:

24 And call ye on the name of your gods, and I will call on the name of the LORD: and the God that answereth by [h] fire, let him be God. And all the people answered and said, † It is well spoken.

25 And Elijah said unto the prophets of Baal, Choose you one bullock for your selves, and dress it first; for ye are many: and call on the name of your gods, but put no fire under.

26 And they took the bullock which was

CHAP. XIX.

1 Elijah threatned by Jezebel, fleeth to Beer-ſheba. 4 In the wilderneſs being weary of his life, he is comforted by an angel. 9 At Horeb God appeareth unto him, ſending him to anoint Hazael, Jehu, & Eliſha. 19 Eliſha taking leave of his friends, followeth Elijah.

AND Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and withall, how he had ſlain all the [a] prophets with the ſword.

a To wit, of Baal.

2 Then Jezebel ſent a meſſenger unto Elijah, ſaying, So let the [b] gods do to me, and more alſo, if I make not thy life as the life of one of them, by to morrow about this time.

b Though the wicked rage againſt Gods children, yet he holdeth them back that they cannot execute their malice.

3 And when he ſaw that, he aroſe, and went for his life, and came to Beer-ſheba, which belongeth to Judah, and left his ſervant there.

4 ¶ But he himſelf went a days journy into the wilderneſs, and came and ſat down under a juniper-tree: and he requeſted † for himſelf that he might die, and ſaid, It is enough, now O LORD [c] take away my life: for I am not better then my fathers.

6 And he looked, and behold, there was a cake baken on the coals, and a cruſe of water at his † head: and he did eat and drink, and laid him down again.

9 ¶ And he came thither unto a cave, and lodged there; and behold, the word of the LORD came to him, and he ſaid unto him, What doſt thou here, Elijah?

10 And he ſaid, I have been very [e] jealous for the LORD God of hoſts: for the children of Iſrael have forſaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and ſlain thy prophets with the ſword; and * I, even I onely am left, and they ſeek my life, to take it away.

And behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind rent the mountains, and brake in pieces the rocks before the LORD, but the LORD was not in the [f] wind: and after the wind an earthquake; but the LORD was not in the earthquake:

12 And after the earthquake a fire; but the LORD was not in the fire: and after the fire a still small voice.

13 And it was so, when Elijah heard it, that he wrapped his face in his mantle, and went out, and stood in the entring in of the cave: and behold, there came a voice unto him, and said, What dost thou here, Elijah?

14 And he said, I have been very jealous for the LORD God of hosts: because the [g] children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword; and I, even I only am left, and they seek my life, to take it away.

CHAP. XX.

1 Ben-hadad not content with Ahabs homage, besiegeth Samaria. 13 By the direction of a prophet, the Syrians are slain. 22 As the prophet forewarned Ahab, the Syrians trusting in the valleys, come against him in Aphek. 28 By the word of the prophet, and Gods judgment, the Syrians are smitten again. 31 The Syrians submitting themselves, Ahab sendeth Benhadad away with a covenant. 35 The prophet under the parable of a prisoner, making Ahab to judge himself, denounceth Gods judgment against him.

AND Ben-hadad the king of Syria gathered all his host together, and there were thirty and two [a] kings with him, and horses, and chariots: and he went up and besieged Samaria, and warred against it.

a That is, Governours, and rulers of provinces.

2 And he sent messengers to Ahab king of Israel into the city, and said unto him, Thus saith Ben-hadad,

3 Thy silver and thy gold is mine, thy wives also and thy children, even the goodliest, are mine.

4 And the king of Israel answered and said, My lord O king, according to thy saying, [b] I am thine, and all that I have.

b I am content to obey, and pay tribute.

5 And the messengers came again, and said, Thus speaketh Ben-hadad, saying, Although I have sent unto thee, saying, Thou shalt deliver me thy silver and thy gold, and thy wives and thy children:

6 [c] Yet I will send my servants unto thee to morrow about this time, and they shall search thine house, and the houses of thy servants; and it shall be, that whatsoever is † pleasant in thine eyes, they shall put it in their hand, and take it away.

c He would not accept, his answer, except he did out of hand deliver whatsoever he should ask, for he sought an occasion, how to make war against him.
† Heb. desireable.

7 Then the king of Israel called all the elders of the land, and said, Mark, I pray you, and see how this man seeketh mischief; for he sent unto me for my wives, and for my children, and for my silver, and for my gold, and † I denied him not.

† Heb. I kept not back from him.

8 And all the elders, and all the people said unto him, Hearken [d] not unto him, nor consent.

d They thought it their duties rather to venture their lives, then to grant to that thing which was not lawful, onely to satisfy the lust of a tyrant.

9 Wherefore he said unto the messengers of Ben-hadad, Tell my lord the king, All that thou didst send for to thy servant at the first, I will do: but this thing I may not do. And the messengers departed, & brought him word again.

10 And Ben-hadad sent unto him, and said, The gods do so unto me and more also, if the [e] dust of Samaria shall suffice for handfulls for all the people that † follow me.

e Much less shall there be found any prey, that is worth any thing, when they shall be so many.
† Heb. are at my feet.

11 And the king of Israel answered and said, Tell him, Let not him that girdeth on his harness, [f] boast himself, as he that putteth it off.

f Boast not before the victory be gotten 12 And it came to pass, when Ben-hadad heard this † message (as he was drinking, he and the kings in the ‡ pavilions) that he said unto his servants, ‡ Set your selves in aray: And they set themselves in aray against the city.

† Heb. word.
‡ Or, place the engines: And they placed engines.

13 ¶ And behold, there † came a prophet unto Ahab king of Israel, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Hast thou seen all this great multitude? behold, I will deliver it into thine hand this day, and [g] thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

g Before God went about with signs and miracles to pull Ahab from his impiety, and now again with wonderful victories.

14 And Ahab said, By whom? And he said, Thus saith the LORD, Even by the ‡ young men of the princes of the provinces. Then he said, who shall † order the battel? And he answered, Thou.

‡ Or, servants.
† Heb. bind, or, ty.

15 Then he numbred the young men of the princes of the provinces, and they were two hundred and thirty two: and after them he numbred all the people, even all the children of Israel, being seven thousand.

16 And they went out at noon: but Benhadad was drinking himself drunk in the pavilions, lions, he and the kings, the thirty and two kings that helped him.

17 And the [h] young men of the princes of the provinces, went out firſt, and Ben-hadad ſent out, and they told him, ſaying, There are men come out of Samaria.

18 And he ſaid, Whether they be come out for peace, take them alive; or whether they be come out for war, take them alive.

19 So theſe young men of the princes of the provinces, came out of the city, and the army which followed them.

20 And they ſlew every one his man: and the Syrians fled, and Iſrael purſued them: and Ben-hadad the king of Syria eſcaped on an horſe, with the [i] hors-men.

21 And the king of Iſrael went out, and ſmote the horſes and chariots, and ſlew the Syrians with a great ſlaughter.

22 ¶ And the prophet came to the king of Iſrael, and ſaid unto him, Go ſtrengthen thy ſelf, and mark and ſee what thou doſt: for at the return of the year, the king of Syria will come up againſt thee.

23 And the ſervants of the king of Syria ſaid unto him, [k] Their gods are gods of the hills, therefore they were ſtronger then we: but let us fight againſt them in the plain, and ſurely we ſhall be ſtronger then they.

24 And do this thing, Take the kings away, every man out of his place, and put captains in their rooms.

25 And number thee an army, like the army † that thou haſt loſt, horſe for horſe, and chariot for chariot: and we will fight againſt them in the plain, and ſurely we ſhall be ſtronger then they. And he hearkned unto their voice, and did ſo.

26 And it came to paſs at the return of the year, that Ben-hadad numbred the Syrians, and went up to Aphek, † to fight againſt Iſrael.

27 And the children of Iſrael were [l] numbred, and ‡ were all preſent, and went againſt them: and the children of Iſrael pitched before them, like two little flocks of kids; but the Syrians filled the country.

28 ¶ And there came a man of God, and ſpake unto the king of Iſrael, and ſaid, Thus ſaith the LORD, becauſe the Syrians have ſaid, The LORD is God of the hills, but he is not God of the valleys: therefore will I deliver all this great multitude into thine hand, and ye ſhall [m] know that I am the LORD.

29 And they pitched one over againſt the other ſeven days; and ſo it was', that in the ſeventh day the battel was joyned: and the children of Iſrael ſlew of the Syrians an hundred thouſand foot-men in one day.

30 But the reſt fled to Aphek, into the city; and there a wall fell upon twenty and ſeven thouſand of the men that were left: and Ben-hadad fled, and came into the city, ‡ † into an inner chamber.

31 ¶ And his ſervants ſaid unto him, Behold now, we have heard that the kings of the houſe of Iſrael are merciful kings: let us, I pray thee, put ſackcloth on our [n] loyns, and ropes upon our heads, and go out to the king of Iſrael; peradventure he will ſave thy life.

32 So they girded ſackcloth on their loyns, and put ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Iſrael, and ſaid, thy ſervant Ben-hadad ſaith, I pray thee, let me live. And he ſaid, Is he yet alive? he is my brother.

33 Now the men did diligently obſerve whether any thing would come from him, and did haſtily catch it: and they ſaid, [o] Thy brother Ben-hadad. Then he ſaid, Go ye, bring him. Then Ben-hadad came forth to him; and he cauſed him to come up into the chariot.

34 And Ben-hadad ſaid unto him, the cities which my father took from thy father, I will reſtore, and thou ſhalt make ſtreets for thee in [p] Damaſcus, as my father made in Samaria. Then ſaid Ahab, I will ſend thee away with this covenant. So he made a covenant with him, and ſent him away.

35 ¶ And a certain man of the ſons of the prophets, ſaid unto his neighbour in the word of the LORD, [q] Smite me, I pray thee. And the man refuſed to ſmite him.

36 Then ſaid he unto him, Becauſe thou haſt not obeyed the voice of the LORD, behold, aſſoon as thou art departed from me, a lion ſhall [r] ſlay thee. And aſſoon as he was departed from him, a lion found him, and ſlew him.

37 Then he found another man, and ſaid, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man ſmote him, † ſo that in ſmiting he wounded him.

38 So the prophet departed, and waited for the king by the way, and diſguiſed himſelf with aſhes upon his face.

39 And as the king paſſed by, he cried unto the king: and he ſaid, [s] Thy ſervant went our into the midſt of the battel, and behold, a man turned aſide, and brought a man unto me, and ſaid, Keep this man: if by any means he be miſſing, then ſhall thy life be for his life, or elſe thou ſhalt † pay a talent of ſilver.

40 And as thy ſervant was buſy here and there, † he was gone. And the king of Iſrael ſaid unto him, So ſhall thy judgment be, thy ſelf haſt decided it.

41 And he haſted, and took the aſhes away from his face, and the king of Iſrael diſcerned him that he was of the prophets.

42 And he ſaid unto him, Thus ſaith the LORD, * Becauſe thou haſt let go out of thy hand, a man whom I appointed to utter deſtruction, therefore thy life ſhall go for his life, and thy people for his people.

43 And the king of Iſrael went to his houſe, heavy and diſpleaſed, and came to Samaria.

5 ¶ But Jezebel his wife came to him, and ſaid unto him, Why is thy ſpirit ſo ſad, that thou eateſt no bread?

6 And he ſaid unto her, Becauſe I ſpake unto Naboth the Jezreelite, and ſaid unto him, Give me thy vineyard for mony; or elſe if it pleaſe thee, I will give thee another vineyard for it: and he anſwered, I will not give thee my vineyard.

c The kings of Syria kept Ramoth before this league was made by Ben-hadad: therefore he thought not himſelf bound thereby to reſtore it.

4 And he ſaid unto Jehoſhaphat, Wilt thou go with me to battel to Ramoth-gilead? And Jehoſhaphat ſaid to the king of Iſrael, *[d] I am as thou art, my people as thy people, my horſes as thy horſes.

d I am ready to joyn and go with thee, and all mine is at thy commandment.

5 And Jehoſhaphat ſaid unto the king of Iſrael, [e] Enquire, I pray thee, at the word of the LORD to day.

e He ſeemed that he would not go to the war, except God approved it, yet when Micaiah counſelled the contrary, he would not obey.

6 Then the king of Iſrael gathered the [f] prophets together about four hundred men, and ſaid unto them, Shall I go againſt Ramoth-gilead to battel, or ſhall I forbear? And they ſaid, Go up; for the LORD ſhall deliver it into the hand of the king.

f Meaning, The falſe prophets, which were flatterers and ſerved for lucre, whom Jezebel had aſſembled and kept after the death of thoſe whom Elias ſlew.

7 And Jehoſhaphat ſaid, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD [g] beſides, that we might enquire of him?

g Jehoſhaphat did not acknowledge the falſe prophets to be Gods miniſters, but did contemn them.

8 And the king of Iſrael ſaid unto Jehoſhaphat, There is yet one man (Micaiah the ſon of Imlah) by whom we may enquire of the LORD; but [h] I hate him, for he doth not propheſie good concerning me, but evil. And Jehoſhaphat ſaid, Let not the king ſay ſo.

12 And all the prophets propheſied ſo, ſaying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and proſper: for the LORD ſhall deliver it into the kings hand.

13 And the meſſenger that was gone to call Micaiah, ſpake unto him, ſaying, Behold now, the words of the prophets declare good unto the king with [m] one mouth: let thy word, I pray thee, be like the word of one of them, and ſpeak that which is good.

m This is the common argument of the wicked [n] who think that none ſhould ſpeak againſt a king, if the greater part approve it, be they never ſo ungodly

14 And Micaiah ſaid, As the LORD liveth, what the LORD ſaith unto me, that will I ſpeak.

15 ¶ So he came to the king, and the king ſaid unto him, Micaiah, ſhall we go againſt Ramoth-gilead to battel, or ſhall we forbear? And he anſwered him, [n] Go, and proſper: for the LORD ſhall deliver it into the hand of the king.

n He ſpeaketh this in deriſion, becauſe the king attributed ſo much to the falſe prophets, meaning, That by experience he ſhould try that they were but flatterers.

16 And the king ſaid unto him, How many times ſhall I adjure thee, that thou tell me nothing but that which is true in the name of the LORD?

o It is better they return home, than to be puniſhed and ſcattered, becauſe they take war in hand without Gods counſel and approbation.

17 And he ſaid, I ſaw all Iſrael ſcattered upon the hills, as ſheep that have not a ſhepherd: and the LORD ſaid, [o] Theſe have no maſter, let them return every man to his houſe in peace.

18 And the king of Iſrael ſaid unto Jehoſhaphat, Did I not tell thee, that he would propheſy no good concerning me, but evil?

19 And he ſaid, Hear thou therefore the word of the LORD: I ſaw the LORD ſitting on his throne, & all the [p] hoſt of heaven ſtanding by him, on his right hand and on his left.

p Meaning, His angels.

20 And the LORD ſaid, Who ſhall ‡ perſwade Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one ſaid on this manner, and another ſaid on that manner.

‡ Or, deceive.

21 And there came forth a ſpirit, and [q] ſtood before the LORD, and ſaid, I will perſwade him.

q Here we ſee that though the devil be ever ready to bring us to deſtruction, yet he hath no further power then God giveth him.

22 And the LORD ſaid unto him, Wherewith? And he ſaid, I will go forth, and I will be [r] a lying ſpirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And he ſaid, Thou ſhalt perſwade him, and prevail alſo: go forth, and do ſo.

r I will cauſe all his prophets to tell lies.

23 Now therefore behold, the LORD hath put a lying ſpirit in the mouth of all theſe thy prophets, and the LORD hath ſpoken evil concerning thee.

24 But Zedekiah the ſon of Chenaanah went near, and ſmote Micaiah on the cheek, and ſaid, *[f] Which way went the ſpirit of the LORD from me to ſpeak unto thee?

t Let him be pined away with hunger, and be fed with a ſmall portion of bread and water.

28 And Micaiah ſaid, If thou return at all in peace, the LORD hath not ſpoken by me. And he ſaid, [u] Hearken, O people, every one of you.

u That when ye ſhall ſee theſe things come to paſs, ye may give God the glory, and know that I am his true prophet.

29 Lo the king of Iſrael, and Jehoſhaphat the king of Judah, went up to Ramoth-gilead.

39 Now the rest of the acts of Ahab, and all that he did, and the ivory house which he made, and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

41 ¶ And * Jehoshaphat the son of Asa began to reign over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel.

42 Jehoshaphat was thirty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem: and his mothers name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

a Meaning, That he was led with an errour, thinking that they might still sacrifice to the Lord in those places, as well as they did before the temple was built.

43 And he walked in all the way of Asa his father, he turned not aside from it, doing that which was right in the eyes of the LORD: nevertheless, [a] the high places were not taken away; for the people offered and burnt incense yet in the high places.

44 And Jehoshaphat made peace with the king of Israel.

45 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, and his might that he shewed, and how he warred, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

46 And the remnant of the sodomites which remained in the days of his father Asa, he took out of the land.

47 There was then no king in Edom: [b] a deputy was king.

b In the time of this king, Idumea was subject to Judah, and was governed by whom they of Judah appointed.

48 Jehoshaphat ‡ made ships of [c] Tharshish to go to [d] Ophir for gold: but they went not; for the ships were broken at Ezion-geber.

‡ Or, had ten ships.

c By Tharshish the scripture meaneth Cilicia; and all the Sea; called Mediterraneum.

d Josephus writeth, That Ophir is in India, where the Egyptians and Arabians traffick for gold.

49 Then said Ahaziah the son of Ahab unto Jehoshaphat, Let my servants go with thy servants in the ships: but Jehoshaphat would not.

50 ¶ And Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: and Jehoram his son reigned in his stead.

51 ¶ Ahaziah the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned two years over Israel.

32 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

53 For he served Baal, and worshipped him, and provoked to anger the LORD God of Israel, according to all that his father had done.

THE SECOND BOOK OF THE KINGS,

Commonly called,

The fourth book of the KINGS.

THE ARGUMENT.

THis second book containeth the acts of the kings of Judah and Israel: to wit, of Israel from the death of Ahab unto the last king Hoshea, who was imprisoned by the king of Assyria, and his city Samaria taken, and the ten tribes by the just plague of God for their idolatry and disobedience to God led into captivity. And also of Judah, from the reign of Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat unto Zedekiah, who for contemning the Lords commandment by his prophets, and neglecting his sundry admonitions, by famin and other means, was taken by enemies, saw his sons most cruelly slain before his face, and his own eyes put out, as the Lord had declared to him before by his prophet Jeremy: and also by the just vengeance of God for contempt of his word, Jerusalem was destroyed, the temple burnt, and he and all his people were led away captives into Babylon. In this book are notable examples of Gods favour towards those rulers and people which obey his prophets, and imbrace his word: and contrariwise, of his plagues toward those common-weals which neglect his ministers, and do not obey his commandments.

CHAP. I.

1 Moab rebelleth. 2 Ahaziah sending to Baal-zebub, hath his judgment by Elijah. 5 Elijah twice bringeth fire from heaven upon them whom Ahaziah sent to apprehend him. 13 He pitieth the third captain, and encouraged by an angel, telleth the king of his death. 17 Jehoram succeedeth Ahaziah.

THen Moab rebelled against Israel, *after the death of Ahab.

2 And [a] Ahaziah fell down through a latteſs in his upper chamber that was in Samaria. and was ſick: and he ſent meſſengers, and ſaid unto them, Go, enquire of [b] Baal-zebub the god of Ekron, whether I ſhall recover of this diſeaſe.

3 But the angel of the LORD ſaid to Elijah the Tiſhbite, Ariſe, go up to meet the meſſengers of the king of Samaria, and ſay unto them, [c] Is it not becauſe there is not a God in Israel, that ye go to enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron?

4 Now therefore thus ſaith the LORD, † Thou ſhalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but ſhalt ſurely die. And Elijah departed.

5 ¶ And when the meſſengers turned back unto him, he ſaid unto them, Why are ye now turned back?

6 And they ſaid unto him, There came a man up to meet us, and ſaid unto us, Go, turn again unto the king that ſent you, and ſay unto him, Thus ſaith the LORD, [d] Is it not becauſe there is not a God in Israel, that thou ſendeſt to enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron? therefore thou ſhalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but ſhalt ſurely die.

7 And he ſaid unto them, † What manner of man was he which came up to meet you, and told you theſe words?

8 And they anſwered him, He was an [e] hairy man, and girt with a girdle of leather about his loyns. And he ſaid, It is Elijah the Tiſhbite.

9 Then the king ſent unto him a captain of fifty, with his fifty: and he went up to him, (and behold, he ſat on the top of an [f] hill) and he ſpake unto him, Thou man of God, the king hath ſaid, Come down,

10 And Elijah anſwered and ſaid to the captain of fifty, If I be a man of God, then let fire come down from heaven, and conſume thee and thy fifty. And there came down [g] fire from heaven, and conſumed him and his fifty.

11 Again alſo he ſent unto him another captain of fifty, with his fifty: and he anſwered and ſaid unto him, [h] O man of God, thus hath the king ſaid, Come down quickly.

12 And Elijah anſwered and ſaid unto them, [i] If I be a man of God, let fire come down from heaven, and conſume thee and thy fifty. And the fire of God came down from heaven, and conſumed him and his fifty.

13 ¶ And he ſent again a captain of the third fifty, with his fifty: and the third captain of fifty went up, and came and † fell on his knees before Elijah, and [k] beſought him, and ſaid unto him, O man of God, I pray thee, let my life, and the life of theſe fifty thy ſervants be [l] precious in thy ſight.

14 Behold, there came fire down from heaven, and burnt up the two captains of the former fifties, with their fifties: therefore let my life now be precious in thy ſight.

15 And the angel of the LORD ſaid unto Elijah, [m] Go down with him, be not afraid of him. And he aroſe, and went down with him unto the king.

16 And he ſaid unto him, Thus ſaith the LORD, Foraſmuch as thou haſt ſent meſſengers to enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron (is it not becauſe there is no God in Israel to enquire of his word?) therefore thou ſhalt not come down off that bed on which thou art gone up, but ſhalt ſurely die.

17 ¶ So he died, according to the word of the LORD which Elijah had ſpoken: and Jehoram reigned in his ſtead, in the ſecond year of [n] Jehoram the ſon of Jehoſhaphat king of Judah; becauſe he had no ſon.

18 Now the reſt of the acts of Ahaziah which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

CHAP. II.

1 Elijah, taking his leave of Eliſha, with his mantle divideth Jordan, 9 and granting Eliſha his requeſt, is taken up by a fiery chariot into heaven. 12 Eliſha dividing Jordan with Elijahs mantle, is acknowledged his ſucceſſour. 16 The young prophets, hardly obtaining leave to ſeek Elijah, could not find him. 19 Eliſha with ſalt healeth the unwholeſom waters. 23 Bears deſtroy the children that mocked Eliſha.

AND it came to paſs when the LORD would take up Elijah into heaven by a whirlwind, that Elijah went with Eliſha from [a] Gilgal.

2 And Elijah ſaid unto Eliſha, Tarry here, I pray thee: for the LORD hath ſent me to Beth-el. And Eliſha ſaid unto him, As the LORD liveth, and as thy ſoul liveth, I will not leave thee. So they went down to Beth-el.

3 And the [b] ſons of the prophets that were at Beth-el, came forth to Eliſha, and ſaid unto him, knoweſt thou that the LORD will take away thy maſter from thy [c] head to day? And he ſaid, Yea, I [d] know it, hold you your peace.

4 And Elijah ſaid unto him, Eliſha, tarry here, I pray thee: for the LORD hath ſent me to Jericho. And he ſaid, As the LORD liveth, and as thy ſoul liveth, I will not leave thee. So they came to Jericho.

5 And the ſons of the prophets that were at [e] Jericho, came to Eliſha, and ſaid unto him, Knoweſt thou that the LORD will take away thy maſter from thy head to day? And he anſwered, Yea, I know it, hold you your peace.

6 And Elijah ſaid unto him, Tarry, I pray thee, here: for the LORD hath ſent me to Jordan. And he ſaid, As the LORD liveth, and as thy ſoul liveth, I will not leave thee. And they two went on.

7 And fifty men of the ſons of the prophets went, and ſtood † to view afar off: and they two ſtood by Jordan.

n Jehoſhaphat going to battel againſt the Syrians, made his ſon Jehoram king in the 17 year of his reign, and in the 18 year, which was the 2 year of his ſon, Jehoram the ſon of Ahab reigned in Iſrael: and in the 5 year of this Jehoram, Jehoſhaphat died, and the kingdom of Judah was confirmed to his ſon.

c That is, From being any more thine head: for to be at the head, is to be the maſter, as to be at the feet, is to be a ſcholar.

d For the Lord had revealed it unto him.

e Not onely at Beth-el, but at Jericho and other places were there prophets, which had ſcholars, whom they inſtructed, and brought up in the true fear of God.

† Heb. in ſight, or, over againſt.

8 And Elijah took his mantle, and wrapt it together, and smote the [f] waters, and they were divided hither and thither, so that they two went over on dry ground.

[f] To wit, of Jordan.

9 ¶ And it came to pass when they were gone over, that Elijah said unto Elisha, Ask what I shall do for thee, before I be taken away from thee. And Elisha said, I pray thee, let a [g] double portion of thy spirit be upon me.

[g] Let thy spirit have double force in me, because of these dangerous times: or let me have twice so much as the rest of the prophets: or thy spirit being divided into three parts, let me have two.

10 And he said, † Thou hast asked a hard thing: nevertheless, if thou see me when I am taken from thee, it shall be so unto thee; but if not, it shall not be so.

† Heb. thou hast dun hard in asking.

11 And it came to pass as they still went on, and talked, that behold, there appeared a chariot of fire, and horses of fire, and parted them both asunder, and * Elijah went up by a whirlwind into [h] heaven.

* Ecc. 48. 9.

[h] Thus God hath left a testimony in all ages (both before the law, in the law, and in the time of the Gospel) of our resurrection.

12 ¶ And Elisha saw it, and he cried, * My father, my father, the chariot of Israel, and the horsmen thereof. And he saw him no more: and he took hold of his own clothes, and rent them in two pieces.

* Chap. 13. 14.

13 He took up also the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and went back, and stood by the † bank of Jordan;

† Heb. lip.

14 And he took the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and smote the waters, and said, Where is the LORD God of Elijah? and when he also had smitten the waters, they parted hither and thither: and Elisha went over.

15 And when the sons of the prophets which were * to view at Jericho, saw him, they said, The spirit of [i] Elijah doth rest on Elisha. And they came to meet him, and bowed themselves to the ground before him:

* Vers. 7.

[i] The spirit of prophecy is given to him, as it was to Elijah.

16 ¶ And they said unto him, Behold now, there be with thy servants fifty † strong men, let them go, we pray thee, and seek thy [k] master: lest peradventure the spirit of the LORD hath taken him up, and cast him upon † some mountain, or into some valley. And he said, [l] Ye shall not send.

† Heb. sons of strength.

[k] Meaning, Elijah: for they thought his body had been cast in some mountain.

[l] Because the fact was extraordinary, they doubted where he was become, but Elisha was assured that he was taken up to God.

17 And when they urged him till he was ashamed, he said, Send. They sent therefore fifty men; and they sought three days, but found him not.

18 And when they came again to him, (for he tarried at Jericho) he said unto them, Did I not say unto you, Go not?

19 ¶ And the men of the city said unto Elisha, Behold, I pray thee, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my lord seeth: but the water is naught, and the ground † barren.

† Heb. causing to miscarry.

20 And he said, Bring me a new cruse, and put salt therein. And they brought it to him.

21 And he went forth unto the spring of the waters, and cast the [m] salt in there, and said, Thus saith the LORD, I have healed these waters; there shall not be from thence any more death, or barren land.

[m] Thus God gave him power even contrary to nature, to make that water profitable for mans use, which before was hurtful.

22 So the waters were healed unto this day, according to the saying of Elisha which he spake.

23 ¶ And he went up from thence unto Beth-el: and as he was going up by the way, there came forth little children out of the city, and mocked him, and said unto him, Go up thou bald-head, go up thou bald-head.

24 And he turned back, and looked on them, and [n] cursed them in the name of the LORD: and there came forth two she-bears out of the wood, and tare fourty & two children of them.

[n] Perceiving their malicious heart against the Lord, and his word, he desireth God to take vengeance of that injury done unto him.

25 And he went from thence to mount Carmel, and from thence he returned to Samaria.

CHAP. III.

1 Jehorams reign. 4 Mesha rebelleth. 6 Jehoram, with Jehoshaphat, and the king of Edom, being distressed for want of water, by Elisha obtaineth water, and promise of victory. 21 The Moabites deceived by the colour of the water, coming to spoil, are overcome. 26 The king of Moab, by sacrificing the king of Edoms son, raiseth the siege.

NOw Jehoram the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria, the [a] eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned twelve years.

[a] Read the annotation on the first chapter and seventeenth vers.

2 And he wrought evil in the sight of the LORD, but not like his father, and like his mother; for he put away the † image of Baal that his father had made.

† Heb. statue.

3 Nevertheless, he cleaved unto the [b] sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which made Israel to sin; he departed not therefrom.

[b] He sacrificed to the golden calves, that Jeroboam had made.

4 ¶ And [c] Mesha king of Moab was a sheepmaster, and rendred unto the king of Israel an hundred thousand lambs, and an hundred thousand rams, with the wooll.

[c] This was done after that David had made the Moabites tributaries to his successours.

5 But it came to pass when * Ahab was dead, that the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.

* Chap. 1. 1.

6 ¶ And king Jehoram went out of Samaria the same time, and numbred all Israel.

7 And he went and sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, The king of Moab hath rebelled against me: wilt thou go with me against Moab to battel? And he said, I will go up: [d] I am as thou art, my people as thy people, and my horses as thy horses.

[d] Read. 1 King. 22. 4.

8 And he said, Which way shall we go up? And he answered, The way through the wilderness of Edom.

9 So the king of Israel went, and the king of Judah, and the [e] king of Edom: and they fetcht a compass of seven days journy: and there was no water for the host, and for the cattel † that followed them.

[e] Meaning, The viceroy, or lieutenant of the king of Judah, Read. 1 King. 22. 47.

† Heb. at their feet.

10 And the king of Israel said, Alas, that the LORD hath called these three kings together, to deliver them into the hand of Moab.

11 But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD, that we may enquire of the LORD by him? And one of the king of Israel servants answered and said, Here is Elisha the son of Shaphat, which [f] poured water on the hands of Elijah.

[f] That is, who was his servant.

12 And Jehoshaphat said, the [g] word of the LORD is with him. So the king of Israel, and Jehoshaphat, and the king of Edom went down to him.

[g] He is able to instruct us what is Gods will in this point.

13 And Elisha said unto the king of Israel, h What have I to do with thee? get thee to the prophets of thy father, and to the prophets of thy mother. And the king of Israel said unto him, i Nay: for the LORD hath called these three kings together, to deliver them into the hand of Moab.

h He knew that this wicked king would have but used his counsel to serve his turn, and therefore he disdained to answer him

i The wicked esteem not the servants of God, but when they are driven by very necessity and fear of the present danger

14 And Elisha said, As the LORD of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, surely, were it not that I regard the presence of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, k I would not look toward thee, nor see thee.

k God suffereth his word to be declared to the wicked, because of the godly, that are among them.

15 But now bring me a minstrel. And it came to pass when the l minstrel played, that the hand of the LORD came upon him.

l He sang songs to Gods glory, and so stirred up the prophets heart to prophesy.

16 And he said, Thus saith the LORD, Make this valley full of ditches.

17 For thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not see wind, neither shall ye see rain; yet that valley shall be filled with water, that ye may drink, both ye, and your cattel, and your beasts.

18 And this is but a m light thing in the sight of the LORD: he will deliver the Moabites also into your hand.

m He will not onely miraculously give you waters but your enemies also into your hand.

19 And ye shall smite every fenced city, and every choice city, and shall fell every good tree, and stop all wells of water, and † n mar every good piece of land with stones.

n Though God bestow his benefits for a time upon his enemies, yet he hath his seasons, when he will take them away, to the intent they might see his vengeance which is prepared against them.

20 And it came to pass in the morning when the meat-offering was offered, that behold, there came water by the way of Edom, and the country was filled with water.

21 ¶ And when all the Moabites heard that the kings were come up to fight against them, they † gathered all that were able to † put on armour, and upward, and stood in the border.

† Heb. were cried together.

† Heb. gird himself with a girdle.

22 And they rose up early in the morning, and the sun shone upon the water, and the Moabites saw the water on the other side as red as blood:

23 And they said, ° This is blood: the kings are surely † slain, and they have smitten one another: now therefore, Moab, to the spoil.

o The sudden joy of the wicked is but a preparation t their destruction, which is at hand.

† Heb. destroyed.

24 And when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and smote the Moabites, so that they fled before them: but ‡ they p went forward smiting the Moabites, even in their country.

‡ Or, they smote in it even smiting.

p Meaning, They followed them into the towns.

25 And they beat down the cities, and on every good piece of land cast every man his stone, and filled it, and they stopped all the wells of water, and felled all the good trees: † onely in q Kir-haraseth left they the stones thereof: howbeit the slingers went about it, and smote it.

q which was one of the principal cities of the Moabites, wherein they left nothing but the walls.

26 ¶ And when the king of Moab saw that the battel was too sore for him, he took with him seven hundred men that drew swords, to break through even unto the king of Edom: but they could not.

r Some refer it to the king of Edoms son, whom they say he had taken in that skirmish: but rather it seemed to be his own son, whom he offered to his gods to pacify them, which barbarous cruelty moved the Israelites hearts of pity to depart.

27 Then he took his r eldest son that should have reigned in his stead, and offered him for a burnt-offering upon the wall: and there was great indignation against Israel: and they departed from him, and returned to their own land.

CHAP. IV.

1 Elisha multiplieth the widows oil. 8 He giveth a son to the good Shunammite. 18 He raiseth again her dead son. 38 At Gilgal he healeth the deadly pottage. 42 He satisfieth an hundred men with twenty loaves.

NOw there cried a s certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets unto Elisha, saying, Thy servant my husband is dead, and thou knowest that thy servant did t fear the LORD: and the creditour is come to take unto him my two sons to be u bond-men.

s Read Chap. 2. 3.

t And therefore fell not into debt by unthriftiness, or prodigality, but by the hand of the Lord.

u Because I am poor and not able to pay.

2 And Elisha said unto her, What shall I do for thee? tell me, what hast thou in the house? And she said, Thine hand-maid hath not any thing in the house, save a x pot of oil.

x Thus God sufereth his many times to be brought to extream necessity, before he succour them, that afterward they may the more praise his mercy.

3 Then he said, Go, borrow thee vessels abroad of all thy neighbours, even empty vessels, ‡ borrow not a few.

‡ Or, scant not.

4 And when thou art come in, thou shalt shut the door upon thee, and upon thy sons, and shalt pour out into y all those vessels, and thou shalt set aside that which is full.

y The prophet declareth hereby unto her, that God never faileth to provide for his servants, their wives and children, if they trust in him.

5 So she went from him, and shut the door upon her, and upon her sons, who brought the vessels to her, and she poured out.

6 And it came to pass when the vessels were full, that she said unto her son, Bring me yet a vessel. And he said unto her, There is not a vessel more. And the oil z stayed.

z To augment and increase in the vessels.

7 Then she came and told the man of God: and he said, Go, sell the oil, and pay thy ‡ debt, and live thou and thy children of the a rest.

a God here did not onely provide for his servant, that his debts should be payed, and so keep his doctrine and profession without slander, but also for his wife and children.

8 ¶ And † it fell on a day, that Elisha passed to Shunem, where was a great woman; and she † constrained him to eat bread. And so it was, that as oft as he passed by, he turned in thither to eat bread.

† Heb. there was a day.

† Heb. laid hold on him.

9 And she said unto her husband, Behold now, I perceive that this is an holy man of God, which passeth by us continually.

10 Let us make a little b chamber, I pray thee, on the wall, and let us set for him there a bed, and a table, and a stool, and a candlestick: and it shall be when he cometh to us, that he shall turn in thither.

b which should be separate from the rest of the house, that he might more commodiously give himself to study and prayers.

11 And it fell on a day that he came thither, and he turned into the chamber, and lay there.

12 And he said to Gehazi his servant, Call this Shunammite. And when he had called her, she stood before him.

13 And he said unto him, Say now unto her, Behold, thou hast been careful for us with all this care; c what is to be done for thee? wouldest thou be spoken for to the king, or to the captain of the host? And she answered, I dwell among d mine own people.

c Thus the servants of God are not unthankful for the benefits they receive.

d I am content with that God hath sent me, and can want nothing that one can do for another.

14 And he said, What then is to be done for her? And Gehazi answered, Verily she hath e no child, and her husband is old.

e which then was a reproach, and therefore he would that his master should pray to God for her, that she might be fruitful.

15 And he said, Call her. And when he had called her, she stood in the door.

16 And he said, * About this † season, according

* Gen. 18. 10

cording to the time of life, thou shalt embrace a son. And she said, Nay, my lord, thou man of God, do not lie unto thine hand-maid.

17 And the woman conceived, and bare a son at that season that Elisha had said unto her, according to the time of life.

18 ¶ And when the child was grown, it fell on a day, that he went out to his father to the reapers.

19 And he said unto his father, [m] My head, my head. And he said to a lad, Carry him to his mother.

m His head aked sore, and therefore he cryed thus.

20 And when he had taken him, and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees till noon, and then died.

21 And she went up, and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut the door upon him, and went out.

22 And she called unto her husband, and said, Send me, I pray thee, one of the young men, and one of the asses, that I may run to the man of God, and come again.

23 And he said, Wherefore wilt thou go to him to day? it is neither [n] new-moon, nor sabbath. And she said, It shall be † well.

n For at such times the people were wont to resort to the prophets for doctrine and consolation.
† Heb peace.

24 Then she saddled an ass, and said to her servant, Drive, and go forward; † slack not thy riding for me, except I bid thee.

† Heb. restrain not for me to ride.

25 So she went, and came unto the man of God to mount Carmel: and it came to pass when the man of God saw her afar off, that he said to Gehazi his servant, Behold, yonder is that Shunammite:

26 Run now, I pray thee, to meet her, and say unto her, Is it well with thee? is it well with thy husband? is it well with the child? and she answered, It is well.

27 And when she came to the man of God to the hill, she caught † him by the [o] feet: but Gehazi came near to thrust her away. And the man of God said, Let her alone, for her soul is † vexed within her: and the LORD hath hid it from me, and hath not told me.

o In token of humility and joy that she had met with him.
† Heb. bitter.

28 Then she said, Did I desire a son of my lord? did I not say, Do not deceive me?

29 Then he said to Gehazi, Gird up thy loyns, and take my staff in thine hand, and go thy way: if thou meet any man, [p] salute him not; and if any salute thee, answer him not again: and lay my staff upon the face of the child.

p Make such speed that nothing may let thee in the way, Luk. 10.4.

30 And the mother of the child said, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And he arose, and followed her.

31 And Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staff upon the face of the child, but there was neither voice, nor † hearing: wherefore he went again to meet him, and told him, saying, The child is not awaked.

32 And when Elisha was come into the house, behold, the child was dead, and laid upon his bed.

33 He went in therefore, and shut the door upon them twain, and prayed unto the LORD

34 And he went up, and [q] lay upon the child, and put his mouth upon his mouth, and his eyes upon his eyes, and his hands upon his hands, and he stretched himself upon the child, and the flesh of the child waxed warm.

q The like did Elijah to the widows son at Sarephta, 1 Kyng. 17.21, & S. Paul Act 20.10, signifying, The care that ought to be in them that preach the word of God, and are distributers of the spiritual life.

35 Then he returned, and walked in the house † to and fro, and went up, and stretched himself upon him: and the child neesed [r] seven times, and the child opened his eyes.

† Heb. once hither and once thither.
r Meaning, Often-times.

36 And he called Gehazi, and said, Call this Shunammite, So he called her: and when she was come in unto him, he said, Take up thy son.

37 Then she went in', and fell at his feet, and bowed her self to the ground, and took up her son, and went out.

38 ¶ And Elisha came again to Gilgal, and there was a dearth in the [s] land, and the sons of the prophets were sitting before him: and he said unto his servant, Set on the great pot, and seeth pottage for the sons of the prophets.

s That is, In the land of Israel.

39 And one went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine, and gathered thereof [t] wild gourds his lap-ful, and came and shred them into the pot of pottage: for they knew them not.

t which the apothecaries call Coloquintida, and is most vehement and dangerous in purging.

40 So they poured out for the men to eat: and it came to pass as they were eating of the pottage, that they cried out, and said, O thou man of God, there is [u] death in the pot: and they could not eat thereof.

u They feared that they were poysoned, because of the bitterness.

41 But he said, Then bring meal: and he cast it into the pot; and he said, Pour out for the people, that they may eat: and there was no † harm in the pot.

† Heb. evil thing.

42 ¶ And there came a man from Baal-shalisha, and brought the man of God bread of the first-fruits, twenty loavs of barley, and full ears of corn ‡ in the husk thereof: and he said, Give unto the people, that they may eat.

‡ Or, in his scrip, or, garment.

43 And his servitour said, What, should I set this before an hundred men? He said again, Give the people, that they may eat: for thus saith the LORD, * they shall eat, and shall leave thereof.

* John. 6.11.

44 So he set it before them, and they did eat, and [x] left thereof, according to the word of the LORD.

x It is not the quantity of bread that satisfieth, but the blessing that God giveth.

CHAP. V.

1 Naaman, by the report of a captive maid, is sent to Samaria to be cured of his leprosy. 8 Elisha sending him to Jordan, cureth him. 15 He refusing Naamans gifts, granteth him some of the earth. 20 Gehazi, abusing his masters name unto Naaman, is smitten with leprosy.

NOw Naaman captain of the host of the king of Syria, was a great man † with his master, and ‡ ‡ honourable, because by him the LORD had given ‡ [a] deliverance unto Syria: he was also a mighty man in valour, but he was a leper.

‡ Or, gracious.
† Heb. lifted up, or, accepted, in countenance.
‡ Or, victory.
a Here appeareth that among the infidels God hath his, and also that the infidels have them in estimation, which do good to their country.

2 And the Syrians had gone out by companies, and had brought away captive out of the land of Israel a little maid, and she † waited on Naamans wife.

† Heb. was before,

3 And ſhe ſaid unto her miſtreſs, would God my lord were † with the [b] prophet that is in Samaria: for he would † recover him of his leproſy.

† Heb. before.
b Meaning, Eliſha.
‡ Heb. gather in.

4 And [c] one went in, and told his lord, ſaying, Thus and thus ſaid the maid that is of the land of Iſrael.

c That is, Naaman told it to the king of Syria.

5 And the king of Syria ſaid, Go to, go, and I will ſend a letter unto the king of Iſrael. And he departed, and [d] took † with him ten talents of ſilver, and ſix thouſand pieces of gold, and ten changes of raiment.

d To give this as a preſent to the prophet.
† Heb. in his hand.

6 And he brought the letter to the king of Iſrael, ſaying, Now when this letter is come unto thee, behold, I have therewith ſent Naaman my ſervant to thee, that thou mayeſt recover him of his leproſy.

7 And it came to paſs when the king of Iſrael had read the letter, that he rent his clothes, and ſaid, Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man doth ſend unto me to recover a man of his leproſy? wherefore conſider, I pray you, and ſee how he ſeeketh a quarrel againſt me.

8 ¶ And it was ſo, when Eliſha the man of God had heard that the king of Iſrael had rent his clothes, that he ſent to the king, ſaying, [e] Wherefore haſt thou rent thy clothes? let him come now to me, and he ſhall know that there is a prophet in Iſrael.

e The prophet rebuketh the king, becauſe he did not conſider that God was true in his promiſe, and therefore would not leave his church deſtitute of a prophet, whoſe prayers he would hear, and to whom others ſhould have recourſe for comfort.

9 So Naaman came with his horſes, and with his chariot, and ſtood at the door of the houſe of Eliſha.

10 And Eliſha ſent a meſſenger unto him, ſaying, Go and waſh in Jordan ſeven times, and thy fleſh ſhall come again unto thee, and thou ſhalt be clean.

11 But Naaman was [f] wroth, and went away, and ſaid, Behold, †‡ I thought, He will ſurely come out to me, and ſtand, and call on the name of the LORD his God, and † ſtrike his hand over the place, and recover the leper.

f Mans reaſon murmureth, when it conſidereth onely the ſigns and outward things, & hath not regard to the word of God, which is there contained.
† Heb. I ſaid.
‡ Or, I ſaid with my ſelf, He will ſurely come out, &c.
† Heb. move up and down.

12 Are not ‡ Abana and Pharpar, rivers of Damaſcus, better then all the waters of Iſrael? may I not waſh in them and be clean? So he turned, and went away in a rage.

‡ Or, Amana.

13 And his ſervants came near, and ſpake unto him, and ſaid, My [g] father, if the prophet had bid thee do ſome great thing, wouldeſt thou not have done it? how much rather then, when he ſaith to thee, Waſh and be clean?

g This declareth that ſervants ought to reverence and love their maſters, as children their fathers, and likewiſe maſters toward their ſervants, muſt be affectioned as toward their children.

14 Then went he down, and dipped himſelf ſeven times in Jordan, according to the ſaying of the man of God: and his fleſh came again like unto the fleſh of a little child, and * he was clean.

* Luk. 4.27.

15 ¶ And he returned to the man of God, he and all his company, and came, and ſtood before him: and he ſaid, Behold, now I know that there is no God in all the earth, but in Iſrael: now therefore, I pray thee, take a bleſſing of thy ſervant.

16 But he ſaid, As the LORD liveth, before whom I ſtand, I will receive none. And he urged him to take it, but [h] he refuſed.

h So the Lord commandeth that they that receive freely, ſhould give alſo freely.

17 And Naaman ſaid, Shall there not then, I pray thee, be given to thy ſervant two mules burden of earth? for thy ſervant will henceforth offer neither burnt-offering, nor ſacrifice unto other gods, but unto the LORD.

18 In this thing the LORD [i] pardon thy ſervant, that when my maſter goeth into the houſe of Rimmon to worſhip there, and he leaneth on my hand, and I bow my ſelf in the houſe of Rimmon: when I bow down my ſelf in the houſe of Rimmon, the LORD pardon thy ſervant in this thing.

i He feeleth his conſcience wounded in being preſent at idol ſervice, and therefore deſireth God to forgive him, leaſt others, by his example might fall to idolatry: for as for his own part he confeſſeth, that he will never ſerve any but the true God.

19 And he ſaid unto him, [k] Go in peace. So he departed from him † a little way.

k The prophet did not approve his act, but after the common manner of ſpeech he biddeth him farewell.
† Heb. a little piece of ground.

20 ¶ But Gehazi the ſervant of Eliſha the man of God ſaid, Behold, my maſter hath ſpared Naaman this Syrian, in not receiving at his hands that which he brought: but as the LORD liveth, I will run after him, and take ſomewhat of him.

21 So Gehazi followed after Naaman: and when Naaman ſaw him, running after him, he [l] lighted down from the chariot to meet him, and ſaid, † Is all well?

l Declaring thereby what honour and affection he bare to the prophet his maſter.
† Heb. is there peace?

22 And he ſaid, All is well: my maſter hath ſent me, ſaying, Behold, even now there be come to me from mount Ephraim two young men of the ſons of the prophets: give them, I pray thee, a talent of ſilver, and two changes of garments.

23 And Naaman ſaid, Be content, take two talents. And he urged him, and bound two talents of ſilver in two bags, with two changes of garments, and laid them upon two of his ſervants, and they bare them before him.

24 And when he came to the ‡ towr, he took them from their hand, and beſtowed them in the houſe; and he let the men go, and [m] they departed.

‡ Or, ſecret place.
m Naamans ſervants.

25 But he went in, and ſtood before his maſter: and Eliſha ſaid unto him, Whence comeſt thou Gehazi? And he ſaid, Thy ſervant went † no whither.

† Heb. nor hither or thither.

26 And he ſaid unto him, [n] Went not mine heart with thee, when the man turned again from his chariot to meet thee? is it a time to receive [o] mony, and to receive garments, and olive-yards, and vineyards, and ſheep, and oxen, and men-ſervants, and maid-ſervants?

n was not I preſent with thee in ſpirit?
o That is, Mony to buy poſſeſſions with, meaning, that it is deteſtable in the ſervants of God to have covetous minds.

27 The leproſy therefore of Naaman ſhall cleave unto thee, and unto thy [p] ſeed for ever. And he went out from his preſence a leper as white as ſnow.

p To be an example to all ſuch, as by whoſe covetouſneſs Gods word might be ſlandred.

CHAP. VI.

1 Eliſha giving leave to the young prophets to enlarge their dwellings, cauſeth iron to ſwim. 8 He diſcloſeth the king of Syria his counſel. 13 The army which was ſent to Dothan to apprehend Eliſha, is ſmitten with blindneſs. 19 Being brought into Samaria, they are diſmiſſed in peace. 24 The famine in Samaria cauſeth women to eat their own children. 30 The king ſendeth to ſlay Eliſha.

AND the ſons of the prophets ſaid unto Eliſha, Behold now, the place where we dwell with thee is to ſtrait for us.

2 Let

2 Let us go, we pray thee, unto Jordan, and take thence every man a [a] beam, and let us make us a place there where we may dwell. And he anſwered, Go ye.

3 And one ſaid, Be content, I pray thee, and go with thy ſervants. And he anſwered, I will go.

4 So he went with them. And when they came to Jordan, they cut down wood.

5 But as one was felling a beam, the † axhead fell into the water: and he cried, and ſaid, Alas maſter, for it was borrowed.

6 And the man of God ſaid, Where fell it? & he ſhewed him the place. And he cut down a ſtick, and caſt it in thither, and the iron did [b] ſwim.

7 Therefore ſaid he, Take it up to thee. And he put out his hand, and took it.

8 ¶ Then the king of Syria warred againſt Iſrael, and took counſel with his ſervants, ſaying, In [c] ſuch and ſuch a place ſhall be my ‡ camp.

9 And the man of God ſent unto the king of Iſrael, ſaying. Beware that thou paſs not ſuch a place; for thither the Syrians are come down.

10 And the king of Iſrael ſent to the place which the man of God told him, and warned him of, and [d] ſaved himſelf there, not once nor twice.

11 Therefore the heart of the king of Syria was ſore troubled for this thing, and he called his ſervants, and ſaid unto them, Will ye not ſhew me which of us is for the king of Iſrael?

12 And one of his ſervants ſaid, †None, my lord O king: but Eliſha the prophet, that is in Iſrael, telleth the king of Iſrael the words that thou ſpeakeſt in thy [e] bedchamber.

13 ¶ And he ſaid, Go, and ſpy where he is, that I may ſend and fetch him. And it was told him, ſaying, Behold, he is in Dothan.

14 Therefore ſent he thither horſes, and chariots, and a †[f] great hoſt: and they came by night, and compaſſed the city about.

15 And when the † ſervant of the man of God was riſen early and gone forth, behold, an hoſt compaſſed the city, both with horſes and chariots: and his ſervant ſaid unto him, Alas my maſter, how ſhall we do?

16 And he anſwered, [g] Fear not: for * they that be with us, are mo then they that be with them.

17 And Eliſha prayed, and ſaid, LORD, I pray thee, open his eyes that he may [h] ſee. And the LORD opened the eyes of the young man, and he ſaw: and behold, the mountain was full of horſes, and chariots of fire round about Eliſha.

18 And when [i] they came down to him, Eliſha prayed unto the LORD, and ſaid, Smite this people, I pray thee, with blindneſs. And he ſmote them with blindneſs, according to the word of Eliſha.

19 ¶ And Eliſha ſaid unto them, This is not the way, neither is this the city: † follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom ye ſeek. [k] But he led them to Samaria.

20 And it came to paſs when they were come into Samaria, that Eliſha ſaid, LORD open the eyes of thoſe men that they may ſee. And the LORD opened their eyes, and they ſaw, and behold, they were in the midſt of Samaria.

21 And the king of Iſrael ſaid unto Eliſha, when he ſaw them, [l] My father, ſhall I ſmite them? ſhall I ſmite them?

22 And he anſwered, Thou ſhalt not ſmite them: wouldeſt thou ſmite thoſe whom thou haſt taken captive with thy ſword, and with thy bow? ſet bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink, and go to their maſter.

23 And he prepared great proviſion for them: and when they had eaten and drunk, he ſent them away, and they went to their maſter. So the bands of Syria came [m] no more into the land of Iſrael.

24 ¶ And it came to paſs after this, that Ben-hadad king of Syria gathered all his hoſt, and went up, and beſieged Samaria.

25 And there was a great famine in Samaria: and behold, they beſieged it, until an aſſes head was ſold for foureſcore pieces of ſilver, and the fourth part of a [n] cab of doves dung for five pieces of ſilver.

26 And as the king of Iſrael was paſſing by upon the wall, there cried a woman unto him, ſaying, Help, my lord O king.

27 And he ſaid, ‡ If the LORD do not help thee, whence ſhall I help thee? out of the [o] barn-floor, or out of the wine-preſs?

28 And the king ſaid unto her, What aileth thee? And ſhe anſwered, This woman ſaid unto me, Give thy ſon, that we may eat him to day, and we will eat my ſon to morrow.

29 So * we boiled my ſon, and did eat him: and I ſaid unto her on the † next day, Give thy ſon, that we may eat him: and ſhe hath hid her ſon.

30 ¶ And it came to paſs when the king heard the words of the woman, that he rent his clothes, and he paſſed by upon the wall, and the people looked, and behold, he had [p] ſackcloth within, upon his fleſh.

31 Then he ſaid, God do ſo and more alſo to me, if the head of Eliſha the ſon of Shaphat, ſhall ſtand on him this day.

32 But Eliſha ſat in his houſe, (and the elders ſat with him) and the king ſent a man from before him: but ere the meſſenger came to him, he ſaid to the elders, See ye how this [q] ſon of a murderer hath ſent to take away mine head? look when the meſſenger cometh, ſhut the door, and hold him faſt at the door: is not the ſound of his maſters feet behind him?

33 And while he yet talked with them, behold, the meſſenger came down unto him: and he ſaid, Behold, this evil is of the LORD, [r] what ſhould I wait for the LORD any longer?

a Or, a piece of wood fit to build with.

b God wrought this miraculouſly to confirm the authority of Eliſha, to whom he had given ſuch abundance of his ſpirit.

c Meaning, That he would lie in ambuſha, and take the Iſraelites at unwares.

‡ Or, encamping.

d The wicked conſpire nothing ſo craftily, but God can reveil it to his ſervants, and cauſe their counſel to be diſcloſed.

† Heb. no.

e There is nothing ſo ſecret that thou canſt go about, but he knoweth it and diſcovereth it unto his king.

f Though it had been nothing in mans judgment to have taken Eliſha, yet the wicked ever doubt and think, they are never able to prepare power enough, though it be but againſt one, or a few.

g For he was aſſured of Gods help, and that millions of angels camped about the godly to deliver them

* 2 Chron. 32. 7.

h That he may behold how thou haſt prepared an army to reſcue us.

i Meaning, The Syrians his enemies, which came down, thinking themſelves ſure of him.

† Heb. come ye after me.

† Come ye after me.

k Thus he did being led by the ſpirit of God, and not becauſe he ſought his own revengment, but only to ſet forth the glory of God.

l The wicked uſe reverent and grave words towards the ſervants of God, when they think to have any commodity by them, though in their heart they cannot abide them.

m For this gentle intreaty and the miracle wrought by the prophet, did more prevail for common quietneſs, then if they had been overcome in battel: for they returned no more at that time to fight againſt Iſrael, or in that kings days.

n The Hebrews write, that they burned it in the ſiege for lack of wood.

‡ Or, let not the LORD ſave thee.

o Meaning, Any kind of victuals, as corn and wine, &c.

† Heb. other.

p Thus hypocrites, when they feel Gods judgments, think to pleaſe him with outward ceremonies, whom in proſperity they will not know.

q Meaning, Jehoram Ahabs ſon, who killed the prophets, and cauſed Naboth to be ſtoned.

r So the wicked fall into a rage and deſperation, if they find not ſudden remedy againſt their afflictions.

CHAP. VII.

1 Eliſha propheſieth incredible plenty in Samaria. 3 Four lepers venturing on the hoſt of the Syrians, bring tidings of their flight. 12 The king finding by ſpies the news to be true, ſpoileth the tents of the Syrians. 17 The lord who would not believe the prophecy of plenty, having the charge of the gate, is troden to death in the preſs.

THen Eliſha ſaid, Hear ye the word of the LORD, Thus ſaith the LORD, [a] To morrow about this time ſhall a meaſure of fine flour be ſold for a ſhekel, and two meaſures of barley for a ſhekel, in the gate of Samaria.

a The godly are ever aſſured of Gods help in their neceſſities, but the times and hours are onely revealed by Gods ſpirit.

2 Then † a lord on whoſe hand the king [b] leaned, anſwered the man of God and ſaid, behold, if the LORD would make [c] windows in heaven, might this thing be? And he ſaid, Behold, thou ſhalt ſee it with thine eyes, but ſhalt [d] not eat thereof.

b To whom the king gave the charge and overſight of things, as vers. 17.

c He mocketh at the prophets word, ſaying, That if God rained down corn from heaven, yet this could not come to paſs.

d Thy infidelity ſhall be puniſhed herein when thou ſhalt ſee this miracle, and yet not be partaker thereof.

3 ¶ And there were four leprous men at the [e] entring in of the gate: and they ſaid one to another, Why ſit we here until we die?

e For it was commanded in the law, that they ſhould dwell apart, and not among their brethren, Levit. 13. 46.

4 If we ſay we will enter into the city, then the famin is in the city, and we ſhall die there: and if we ſit ſtill here, we die alſo. Now therefore come, and let us fall unto the hoſt of the Syrians: if they ſave us alive, we ſhall live; and if they kill us, we ſhall but die.

5 And they roſe up in the twilight, to go unto the camp of the Syrians: and when they were come to the uttermoſt part of the camp of Syria, behold, there was no man there.

6 For the LORD had made the hoſt of the Syrians to hear a [f] noiſe of chariots, and a noiſe of horſes, even the noiſe of a great hoſt: and they ſaid one to another, Lo, the king of Iſrael hath hired againſt us the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come upon us.

f Thus God needeth no great preparation to deſtroy the wicked, though they be never ſo many: for he can ſcatter them with a ſmall noiſe, or ſhaking of a leaf.

7 Wherefore they aroſe and fled in the twilight, and left their tents, and their horſes, and their aſſes, even the camp as it was, and [g] fled for their life.

g The wicked need no greater enemy, then their own conſcience to purſue them.

8 And when theſe lepers came to the uttermoſt part of the camp, they went into one tent, & did eat and drink, & carried thence ſilver and gold, and raiment, and went & hid it; and came again, and entred into another tent, and carried thence alſo, and went and hid it.

9 Then they ſaid one to another, We do not well: this day is a day of good tidings, and we hold our peace: if we tarry till the morning light, † ſome miſchief will come upon us: now therefore come, that we may go and tell the kings houſhold.

† Heb. we ſhall find puniſhment.

10 So they came, and called unto the porter of the city: and they told them, ſaying, We came to the camp of the Syrians, and behold, there was no man there, neither voice of man, but horſes tied, and aſſes tied, and the tents as they were.

h He miſtrufted the prophets words, and therefore could believe nothing, as they which are more politick then godly, ever caſt more perils then needeth.

11 And he called the porters, and they told it to the kings houſe within.

12 ¶ And the king aroſe in the night, and ſaid unto his ſervants, [h] I will now ſhew you what the Syrians have done to us: they know that we be hungry, therefore are they gone out of the camp, to hid themſelves in the field, ſaying, When they come out of the city, we ſhall cateh them alive, and get into the city.

13 And one of his ſervants anſwered and ſaid, Let ſome take, I pray thee, five of the horſes that remain, which are left † in the city, (behold, they are as all the [i] multitude of Iſrael that are left in it: behold, I ſay, they are even as all the multitude of the Iſraelites that are conſumed) and let us ſend and ſee.

† Heb. in it.

i There are no more left but they, or the reſt are conſumed with the famine, as the reſt of the people.

14 They took therefore two chariot-horſes, and the king ſent after the hoſt of the Syrians, ſaying, Go and ſee.

15 And they went after them unto Jordan, & lo, all the way was full of garments & veſſels, which the Syrians had caſt away in their haſte: and the meſſengers returned & told the king.

16 And the people went out, and ſpoiled the tents of the Syrians. So a meaſure of fine flour was ſold for a ſhekel, and two meaſures of barley for a [k] ſhekel, according to the word of the LOOD.

k which he ſpake by the mouth of Eliſha, vers. 1.

17 ¶ And the king appointed the lord on whoſe hand he leaned, to have the charge of the gate: and the people [l] trode upon him in the gate, and he died, as the man of God had ſaid, who ſpake when the king came down to him.

l As the people preſſed out of the gate to run to the Syrians tents, where they had heard was meat, and great ſpoil left.

18 And it came to paſs as the man of God had ſpoken to the king, ſaying, Two meaſures of barley for a ſhekel, and a meaſure of fine flour for a ſhekel, ſhall be to morrow about this time in the gate of Samaria.

19 And that lord anſwered the man of God and ſaid, Now behold, if the LORD ſhould make windows in heaven, might ſuch a thing be? And he ſaid, Behold, thou ſhalt ſee it with thine eyes, but ſhalt not eat thereof.

20 And ſo it fell out unto him: for the people trode upon him in the gate, and he died.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The Shunammite, having left her country ſeven years, to avoid the fore-warned famine, for Eliſha's miracles ſake hath her land reſtored by the king. 7 Hazael being ſent with a preſent by Ben-hadad to Eliſha at Damaſcus, after he had heard the prophecy, killeth his maſter, and ſucceedeth him. 16 Jehorams wicked reign in Judah. 20 Edom & Libnah revolt. 23 Ahaziah ſucceedeth Jehoram. 25 Ahaziahs wicked reign. 28 He viſiteth Jehoram wounded at Jezreel.

THen ſpake Eliſha unto the woman, (*whoſe ſon he had reſtored to life) ſaying, Ariſe, & go thou and thine houſhold, and ſojourn whereſoever thou [a] canſt ſojourn: for the LORD hath called for a famine, and it ſhall alſo come upon the land ſeven years.

* Chap. 4 35.

a where thou canſt find a commodious place to dwell, where as is plenty.

2 And the woman aroſe, and did after the ſaying of the man of God: and ſhe went with her houſhold, and ſojourned in the land of the Philiſtines ſeven years.

3 And it came to paſs at the ſeven years end, that the woman returned out of the land of the Philiſtines: and ſhe went forth to [b] cry unto the king for her houſe, and for her land.

b That is, To complain on them which had taken her poſſeſſions, whiles ſhe was abſent.

4 And the king talked with Gehazi the ſervant vant of the man of God, ſaying, Tell me, I pray thee, all the great things that Eliſha hath done.

5 And it came to paſs as he was telling the [c] king how he had reſtored a dead body to life, that behold, the woman whoſe ſon he had reſtored to life, cried to the king for her houſe, and for her land. And Gehazi ſaid, My lord O king, this is the woman, and this is her ſon, whom Eliſha reſtored to life.

c Gods wonderfull providence appeareth in this, that he cauſeth the king to be deſirous to hear of him, whom before he contemned, and alſo hereby prepared an entrance to the poor widows ſuit.

6 And when the king asked the woman, ſhe told him. So the king appointed unto her a certain ‡ officer, ſaying, Reſtore all that was hers, and all the [d] fruits of the field, ſince the day that ſhe left the land, even till now.

‡ Or, eunuch.

d The king cauſed that to be juſtly reſtored which was wrongfully holden from her.

7 ¶ And Eliſha came to Damaſcus; and Ben-hadad the king of Syria was ſick, & it was told him, ſaying, The man of God is come hither.

8 And the king ſaid unto Hazael, Take a preſent in thine hand, and go meet the man of God, and enquire of the LORD by him, ſaying, Shall I recover of this diſeaſe?

9 So Hazael went to meet him, and took a preſent † with him, even of every [e] good thing of Damaſcus, fourty camels burden, and came and ſtood before him, and ſaid, Thy ſon Ben-hadad king of Syria hath ſent me to thee, ſaying, Shall I recover of this diſeaſe?

† Heb. in his hand.
e Of all the chiefeſt and precious things of the country.

10 And Eliſha ſaid unto him, Go, ſay unto him, Thou mayeſt certainly [f] recover: howbeit, the LORD hath ſhewed me, that he ſhall ſurely die.

f Meaning, That he ſhould recover of this diſeaſe: but he knew that this meſſenger Hazael ſhould ſlay him to obtain the kingdom.

11 And he ſetled his countenance † ſtedfaſtly, until he was aſhamed: and the man of God wept.

† Heb. and ſet it, ſtedfaſtly.

12 And Hazael ſaid, Why weepeth my lord? And he anſwered, becauſe I know the evil rhat thou wilt do unto the children of Iſrael: their ſtrong holds wilt thou ſet on fire, and their young men wilt thou ſlay with the ſword, and wilt daſh their children, and rip up their women with child.

13 And Hazael ſaid, But what, is thy ſervant a [g] dog that he ſhould do this great thing? And Eliſha anſwered, The LORD hath ſhewed me that thou ſhalt be king over Syria.

g That I ſhould be without all humanity and pity.

14 So he departed from Eliſha, and came to his maſter, who ſaid to him, What ſaid Eliſha to thee? And he anſwered, He told me that thou ſhouldeſt ſurely recover.

15 And it came to paſs on the morrow, that he took a thick cloth, and dipt it in water, and ſpread it on his [h] face, ſo that he died: and Hazael reigned in his ſtead.

h Under pretenee to refreſh or eaſe him, he ſtifled him with this cloth.

16 ¶ And in the fifth year of Joram the ſon of Ahab king of Iſrael, Jehoſhophat being then king of Judah, *[i] Jehoram the ſon of Jehoſhaphat king of Judah † began to [k] reign.

* 2 Chron. 21. 4.

k He was confirmed in his kingdom after his fathers death.

17 Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jeruſalem.

18 And he walked in the way of the kings of Iſrael, as did the houſe of Ahab: for the [l] daughter of Ahab was his wife; and he did evil in the ſight of the LORD.

l The holy Ghoſt ſheweth hereby what danger it is to joyn with infidels.

19 Yet the LORD would not deſtroy Judah, for David his ſervants ſake, *as he promiſed him to give him alway a † light, and to his children.

† Heb. candle, or lamp.

20 ¶ In his days Edom [m] revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over themſelves.

m which had been ſubject from Davids time until this time of Jehoram.

21 So Joram went over to Zair, and all the chariots with him, and he roſe by night and ſmote the Edomites which compaſſed him about: and the captains of the chariots, and the people fled into their tents.

22 Yet Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. Then [n] Libnah revolted at the ſame time.

n This was a city in Judah given to the Levites, Joſh. 21. 13, and after turned from king Jehoram, becauſe of his idolatry.

23 And the reſt of the acts of Joram, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah, 24 And Joram ſlept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and *Ahaziah his ſon reigned in his ſtead.

* 2 Chron. 22. 1.

25 ¶ In the twelfth year of Joram the ſon of Ahab king of Iſrael, did Ahaziah the ſon of Jehoram king of Judah begin to reign.

26 ° Two and twenty years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jeruſalem; and his mothers name was Athaliah, the daughter of Omri king of Iſrael.

o which is to be underſtood, that he was made king when his father reigned, but after his fathers death he was confirmed king, when he was fourty two years old, as 2 Chron. 22. 2.

27 And he walked in the way of the houſe of Ahab, and did evil in the ſight of the LORD, as did the houſe of Ahab; for he was the ſon in law of the houſe of Ahab.

28 ¶ And he went with Joram the ſon of Ahab, to the war againſt Hazael king of Syria in [p] Ramoth-gilead, and the Syrians wounded Joram.

p which was a city in the tribe of Gad beyond Jordan.

29 And king Joram went back to be healed in [q] Jezreel, of the wounds † which the Syrians had given him at Ramah, when he fought againſt Hazael king of Syria: and Ahaziah the ſon of Jehoram king of Judah, went down to ſee Joram the ſon of Ahab in Jezreel, becauſe he was ſick.

q This is a city belonging to the tribe of Iſſachar.

CHAP. IX.

1 Eliſha ſendeth a young prophet with inſtructions to anoint Jehu at Ramoth-gilead 4 The prophet having done his meſſage, fleeth. 11 Jehu being made king by the ſouldiers, killeth Joram in the field of Naboth. 27 Ahaziah is ſlain at Gur, and buried at Jeruſalem. 30 Proud Jezebel is thrown down out of a window, and eaten by dogs.

AND Eliſha the prophet called one of the children of the prophets, and ſaid unto him, [a] Gird up thy loyns, and take this box of oyl in thine hand, and go to Ramoth-gilead.

a Prepare thy ſelf to go diligently about thy buſineſs: for in thoſe countrys they uſed long garments which they tucked up, when they went about earneſt buſineſs.

2 And when thou comeſt thither, look out there Jehu the ſon of Jehoſhaphat, the ſon of Nimſhi, and go in, and make him ariſe up from among his brethren, and carry him to an † inner chamber.

† Heb. chamber in a chamber.

3 Then * take the box of oyl, and pour it on his head, and ſay, Thus ſaith the LORD, I have anointed thee king over Iſrael: then open the door, and flee, and tarry not.

* 1 King 19. 16.

4 ¶ So

4 ¶ So the young man, even the young man the prophet, went to Ramoth-gilead.

5 And when he came, behold, the captains of the hoſt were ſitting; and he ſaid, I have an errand to thee, O captain. And Jehu ſaid, Unto which of all us? And he ſaid, To thee, O captain.

6 And he aroſe, and went into the houſe, and he poured the oyl on his head. and ſaid unto him, Thus ſaith the LORD God of Iſrael, I have [b] anointed thee king over the people of the LORD, even over Iſrael.

b This anointing was for kings, prieſts, and prophets, which were all figures of Meſſiah, in whom theſe three offices were accompliſhed.

7 And thou ſhalt ſmite the houſe of Ahab thy maſter, that I may avenge the blood of my ſervants the prophets, and the blood of all the ſervants of the LORD, * at the hand of Jezebel.

* 1 King. 21. 15.

8 For the whole houſe of Ahab ſhall periſh, and * I will cut off from Ahab, him that piſſeth againſt the wall, and him that is ſhut up and left in Iſrael.

* 1 King. 14. 10. & 21. 21.

9 And I will make the houſe of Ahab, like the houſe of * Jeroboam the ſon of Nebat, and like the houſe of * Baaſha the ſon of Ahijah.

* 1 King. 14. 10. & 21 22.
* 1 King. 16. 3.

10 And the dogs ſhall eat Jezebel in the portion of Jezreel, and there ſhall be none to bury her. And he opened the door, and fled.

11 ¶ Then Jehu came forth to the [c] ſervants of his lord, and one ſaid unto him, Is all well? wherefore came this [d] mad fellow to thee? And he ſaid unto them, Ye know the man, and his communication.

c That is, The reſt of the army, whom he called before his brethren, verſ. 2. d In this eſtimation the world hath the miniſters of God: notwithſtanding foraſmuch as the world hath ever ſlandered the children of God, (yea, they called the ſon of God a deceiver, and ſaid He had a devil:) therefore they ought not to be diſcouraged.

12 And they ſaid, It is falſe, tell us now. And he ſaid, Thus and thus ſpake he to me, ſaying, Thus ſaith the LORD, I have anointed thee king over Iſrael.

13 Then they haſted, and took every man his garment, and put it under him on the top of the ſtairs, and blew with trumpets, ſaying, Jehu † is king.

† Heb. reigneth.

14 So Jehu the ſon of Jehoſhaphat, the ſon of Nimſhi, conſpired againſt Joram: (now Joram had kept Ramoth-gilead, he and all Iſrael, becauſe of Hazael king of Syria:

15 But * king † Joram was returned to be healed in Jezreel, of the wounds which the Syrians † had given him, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria) And Jehu ſaid, if it be your minds, then † let none go forth nor eſcape out of the city, to go to tell it in Jezreel.

* Chap. 8. 29.
† Heb. Jehoram.

† Heb. let no eſcaper go, &c.

16 So Jehu rode in a chariot, and went to Jezreel, (for Joram lay there) and [e] Ahaziah king of Judah was come down to ſee Joram.

e God had thus ordained As is read, 2 Chron. 22. 7, That this wicked and idolatrous king, who was more ready to gratify wicked Joram, then to obey the will of God, ſhould periſh with him, by whoſe means he thought to have been ſtronger.

17 And there ſtood a watchman on the towr in Jezreel, and he ſpied the company of Jehu as he came, and ſaid, I ſee a company. And Joram ſaid, take an hors-man, and ſend to meet them, and let him ſay, Is it peace?

18 So there went one on hors-back to meet him, and ſaid, Thus ſaith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu ſaid, What haſt thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me. And the watchman told, ſaying, The meſſenger came to them, but he cometh not again.

19 Then he ſent out a ſecond on hors-back, which came to them, and ſaid, Thus ſaith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu anſwered, What haſt thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me.

20 And the watchman told, ſaying, He came even unto them, and cometh not again: and the ‡ driving is like the driving of Jehu the ſon of Nimſhi; for he driveth † [f] furiouſly.

‡ Or, marching.
f As one that went earneſtly about his enterprize.

21 And Joram ſaid, † Make ready. And his chariot was made ready. And Joram king of Iſrael, and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot, and they went out againſt Jehu, and † met him in the portion of Naboth the Jezreelite.

† Heb. found.

22 And it came to paſs when Joram ſaw Jehu, that he ſaid, Is it peace, Jehu? And he anſwered, [g] What peace, ſo long as the whoredoms of thy mother Jezebel, and her witchcrafts are ſo many?

g Meaning, That foraſmuch as God is their enemy becauſe of their ſins, that he will ever ſtir up ſome to revenge his cauſe.

23 And Joram turned his hands, and fled, and ſaid to Ahaziah, There is treachery, O Ahaziah.

24 And Jehu † drew a bow with his full ſtrength, and ſmote Jehoram between his arms, and the arrow went out at his heart, and he † ſunk down in his chariot.

25 Then ſaid Jehu to Bidkar his captain, Take up, and caſt him in the portion of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite: for remember, how that when I and thou rode together after Ahab his father, * the LORD laid this burden upon him.

* 2 King. 21. 29.
‡ Heb. blood.
h By this place it is evident, that Jezebel cauſed both Naboth and his ſons to be put to death, that Ahab might enjoy his vineyard more quietly: for elſe his children might have claimed poſſeſſion.
‡ Or, portion.

26 Surely, I have ſeen yeſterday the † blood of Naboth, and the blood of his [h] ſons, ſaid the LORD, and I will requite thee in this ‡ plat, ſaith the LORD. Now therefore take and caſt him into the plat of ground, according to the word of the LORD.

27 ¶ But when Ahaziah the king of Judah ſaw this, he fled by the way of the garden-houſe: and Jehu followed after him, and ſaid, Smite him alſo in the chariot: and they did ſo, at the going up to Gur, which is by Ibleam: and he fled to [i] Megiddo, and died there.

i After that he was wounded in Samaria, he fled to Megiddo, which was a city of Judah.

28 And his ſervants carried him in a chariot to Jeruſalem, and buried him in his ſepulchre with his fathers in the city of David.

29 And in the [k] eleventh year of Joram the ſon of Ahab, began Ahaziah to reign over Judah.

k That is, Eleven whole years: for chap. 8. 25, before when he ſaid, that he began to reign the twelfth year of Joram, he taketh part of the year for the whole.

30 ¶ And when Jehu was come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it, and ſhe † painted her face, and tired her head, and [l] looked out at a window.

† Heb. put her eyes in painting.
l Being of an haughty and cruel nature ſhe would ſtill retain her princely ſtate and dignity.

31 And as Jehu entred in at the gate, ſhe ſaid, Had [m] Zimri peace, who ſlew his maſter?

m As though ſhe would ſay, Can any traitour, or any that riſeth againſt his ſuperiour, have good ſucceſs? Read, 1 King. 16. 13.

32 And he lift up his face to the window and ſaid, Who is on my ſide, who? And there looked out to him two or three ‡ eunuchs.

‡ Or, chamberlains

33 And he ſaid, Throw her down. So they threw her down; and ſome of her blood was [n] ſprinkled on the wall, and on the horſes: and he trode her under foot.

n This he did by the motion of the Spirit of God, that her blood ſhould be ſhed, that had ſhed the blood of innocents, to be a ſpectacle and example of Gods judgments to all tyrants.

34 And when he was come in, he did eat and and drink, and ſaid, Go ſee now this curſed woman, and bury her: for ſhe is [o] a kings daughter.

o To wit, Of the king of Zidon, 1 King. 16. 31.

35 And they went to bury her, but they found no more of her than the ſcull, and the feet, and the palms of her hands.

36 Wherefore they came again, and told him: and he ſaid, This is the word of the LORD, which he ſpake † by his ſervant Elijah the Tiſhbite, ſaying, * In the portion of Jezreel ſhall dogs eat the fleſh of Jezebel:

† Heb. by the hand of.
* 1 King. 21. 23.

37 And the carcaſe of Jezebel ſhall be as dung upon the face of the field, in the portion of Jezreel, ſo that they ſhall not ſay, This is [p] Jezebel.

p Thus Gods judgments appear even in this world, againſt them that ſuppreſs his word and perſecute his ſervants.

CHAP. X.

1 Jehu by his letters cauſeth ſeventy of Ahabs children to be beheaded. 8 He excuſeth the fact by the prophecy of Elijah. 12 At the ſhearing-houſe he ſlayeth two and fourty of Ahaziahs brethren. 15 He taketh Jehonadab into his company. 18 By ſubtilty he deſtroyeth all the worſhippers of Baal. 29 Jehu followeth Jeroboams ſins. 32 Hazael oppreſſeth Iſrael. 34 Jehoahaz ſucceedeth Jehu.

AND Ahab had ſeventy [a] ſons in Samaria: and Jehu wrote letters, and ſent to Samaria, unto the rulers of Jezreel, to the elders, and to † them that brought up Ahabs children, ſaying, a The ſcripture uſeth to call them ſons, which are either children, or nephews.

† Heb. nouriſhers.

2 Now aſſoon as this letter cometh to you, ſeeing your maſters ſons are with you, and there are with you chariots & horſes, a fenced city alſo, and armour:

3 Look even out the beſt and meeteſt of your maſters ſons, and [b] ſet him on his fathers throne, and fight for your maſters houſe.

b He wrote this, to prove them, whether they would take his part or no.

4 But they were exceedingly afraid, and ſaid, Behold, two kings ſtood not before him: how then ſhall we ſtand?

5 And he that was over the houſe, and he that was over the city, the elders alſo, and the bringers up of the children, ſent to Jehu, ſaying, We are thy ſervants, and will do all that thou ſhalt bid us; we will not make any king: do thou that which is good in thine eyes.

6 Then he wrote a letter the ſecond time to them, ſaying, If ye be † mine, and if ye will hearken unto my voice, take ye the [c] heads of the men your maſters ſons, and come to me to Jezreel by to morrow this time: (now the kings ſons being ſeventy perſons, were with the great men of the city, which brought them up.)

c God as a juſt judge, puniſheth the wicked children of wicked parents, unto the third and fourth generation.

7 And it came to paſs when the letter came to them, that they took the kings ſons, and ſlew ſeventy perſons, and put their heads in baskets, and ſent him them to Jezreel.

8 ¶ And there came a meſſenger, and told him, ſaying, They have brought the heads of the kings ſons. And he ſaid, Lay ye them in two heaps at the entring in of the gate, until the morning.

d The cannot juſtly condemn me for the kings death, ſeeing ye have done the like to his poſterity: for the Lord commanded me, and moved you to execute this his judgment.

9 And it came to paſs in the morning, that he went out, and ſtood, and ſaid to all the people, [d] Ye be righteous: behold, I conſpired againſt my maſter, and ſlew him: but who ſlew all theſe?

10 Know now, that there ſhall fall unto the earth nothing of the word of the LORD, which the LORD ſpake concerning the houſe of Ahab: for the LORD hath done that which he ſpake * † by his ſervant Elijah.

* 1 King 21. 29.
† Heb. by the hand of.

11 So Jehu ſlew all that remained of the houſe of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his great men, and his ‡ kinſfolks, and his [e] prieſts, until he left him none remaining.

‡ Or, acquaintance.
e Meaning, which were the idolatrous prieſts.

12 ¶ And he aroſe and departed, and came to Samaria. And as he was at the † ſhearing-houſe in the way.

† Heb. houſe of ſhepherds binding ſheep.

13 Jehu † met with the brethren of Ahaziah king of Judah, and ſaid, Who are ye? And they anſwered, We are the brethren of Ahaziah, and we go down † to ſalute the children of the king, and the children of the queen.

† Heb. found.
† Heb. to the peace of, &c.

14 And he ſaid, Take them alive. And they took them alive, and ſlew them at the pit of the ſhearing-houſe, even two and fourty men; neither [f] left he any of them.

f Thus Gods vengeance is upon them that have any part of familiarity with the wicked.

15 ¶ And when he was departed thence, he † lighted on Jehonadab the ſon of Rechab, coming to meet him, and he † [g] ſaluted him, and ſaid to him, Is thine heart right, as my heart is with thy heart? And Jehonadab anſwered, It is. If it be, give me thine hand: and he gave him his hand, and he took him up to him into the chariot.

g For he feared God, and lamented the wickedneſs of thoſe times: therefore Jehu was glad to joyn with him of Rechab read Jer 35. 2.

16 And he ſaid, Come with me, and ſee my zeal for the LORD: ſo they made him ride in his chariot.

17 And when he came to Samaria, he ſlew all that remained unto Ahab in Samaria, till he had deſtroyed him, according to the ſaying of the LORD, which he ſpake to Elijah.

18 ¶ And Jehu gathered all the people together, and ſaid unto them, Ahab ſerved [h] Baal a little, but Jehu ſhall ſerve him much.

h Here Baal is taken for Aſtaroth the idol of the Zidonians, which Jezebel cauſed to be worſhipped, as is alſo uſed, 1 King. 16. 32. & 22. 53.

19 Now therefore call unto me all the prophets of Baal, all his ſervants, and all his prieſts, let none be wanting: for I have a great ſacrifice to do to Baal; whoſoever ſhall be wanting, he ſhall not live. But Jehu did it in ſubtilty, to the intent that he might deſtroy the worſhippers of Baal.

20 And Jehu ſaid, † Proclaim a ſolemn aſſembly for Baal. And they proclaimed it.

† Heb. ſanctify.

21 And Jehu ſent through all Iſrael, and all the worſhippers of Baal came, ſo that there was not a man left that came not: and they came into the houſe of Baal; and the houſe of Baal was ‡ full from one end to another.

‡ Or, ſo full that they ſtood mouth to mouth.

22 And he ſaid unto him that was over the veſtry, Bring forth veſtments for all the worſhippers of Baal. And he brought them forth veſtments.

23 And Jehu went, and Jehonadab the ſon of Rechab into the houſe of Baal, and ſaid unto the worſhippers of Baal, Search, and look that there be here with you none of the [i] ſervants of the LORD, but the worſhippers of Baal onely.

i Thus God would have his ſervants preſerved, and idolaters deſtroyed: as in his law he giveth expreſs commandment, Deut. 13.

24 And when they went in to offer ſacrifices, and burnt-offerings, Jehu appointed fourſcore

312 ſcore men without, and ſaid, If any of the men whom I have brought into your hands, eſcape, he that letteth him go, his life ſhall be for the life of him.

25 And it came to paſs aſſoon as he had made an end of offering the burnt-offering, that Jehu ſaid to the guard, and to the captains, Go in, and ſlay them, let none come forth. And they ſmote them with † the edge of the ſword, and the guard and the captains caſt them out, and went to the [k] city of the houſe of Baal.

† Heb. the mouth.

k which city was near to Samaria.

† Heb. ſtatues.

26 And they brought forth the † images out of the houſe of Baal, and burnt them.

27 And they brake down the image of Baal, and brake down the houſe of Baal, and made it a draught-houſe unto this day.

28 Thus Jehu deſtroyed Baal out of Iſrael.

29 ¶ Howbeit from the ſins of Jeroboam the ſon of Nebat, who made Iſrael to ſin, Jehu departed not from after them, to wit, the golden calves that were in Beth-el, and that were in Dan.

30 And the LORD ſaid unto Jehu, Becauſe thou haſt done well in executing that which is right in mine eyes, and haſt done unto the houſe of Ahab according to all that was in mine heart, thy children of the fourth generation ſhall [l] ſit on the throne of Iſrael.

l Thus God approveth and rewardeth his zeal, in executing Gods judgment, albeit his wickedneſs was afterward puniſhed.

31 But Jehu † took no heed to walk in the law of the LORD God of Iſrael, with all his heart: for he departed not from the ſins of Jeroboam, which made Iſrael to ſin.

† Heb. obſerved not.

32 ¶ In thoſe days the LORD began † to cut Iſrael ſhort: and Hazael ſmote them in all the coaſts of Iſrael;

† Heb. to cut off the ends.

† Heb. toward the riſing of the ſun.

33 From Jordan † eaſt-ward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manaſſites, from Aroer, (which is by the river Arnon) ‡ even Gilead and Baſhan.

‡ Or, even to Gilead and Baſhan.

34 Now the reſt of the acts of Jehu, and all that he did, and all his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Iſrael?

35 And Jehu ſlept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria, and Jehoahaz his ſon reigned in his ſtead.

e Of the Levites which had charge of the keeping of the temple, and kept watch by courſe.

1 Jehoash reigned well all the days of Jehoiada. 4 He giveth order for the repair of the temple. 17 Hazael is diverted from Jerusalem by a present of the hallowed treasures. 19 Jehoash being slain by his servants, Amaziah succeedeth him.

IN* the seventh year of Jehu, Jehoash began to reign; and fourtie years reigned he in Jerusalem: and his mothers name was Zibiah of Beer-sheba.

2 And Jehoash did that which was right in the sight of the LORD all his days, wherein [a] Jehoiada the priest instructed him.

3 [b] But the high places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed, and burnt incense in the high places.

4 ¶ And Jehoash said to the priests, All the money of the ‡ † dedicated things that is brought into the house of the LORD, even the money of every one that passeth the account, † [c] the money that every one is set at, and all the money that † cometh into any mans heart to bring into the house of the LORD,

5 Let the priests take it to them, every man of his acquaintance, and let them repair the [d] breaches of the house, wheresoever any breach shall be found.

6 But it was so, that † in the three and twentieth year of king Jehoash, the priests had not repaired the breaches of the house.

7 Then king Jehoash called for Jehoiada the priest and the other priests, and said unto them, Why repair ye not the breaches of the house? now therefore [e] receive no more money of your acquaintance, but deliver it for the breaches of the house.

8 And the priests consented to receive no more money of the people, neither to repair the breaches of the house.

9 But Jehoiada the priest took a chest, and bored a hole in the lid of it, and set it beside the altar, on the [f] right side, as one cometh into the house of the LORD: and the priests that kept the † door, put therein all that money that was brought into the house of the LORD.

10 And it was so, when they saw that there was much money in the chest, that the kings ‡ scribe, and the high priest came up, and they † put up in bags, and told the money that was found in the house of the LORD.

11 And they gave the money, being told, into the hands of them that [g] did the work, that had the oversight of the house of the LORD: & they † laid it out to the carpenters and builders, that wrought upon the house of the LORD,

12 And to masons, and hewers of stone, and to buy timber, and hewed stone, to repair the breaches of the house of the LORD, and for all that † was laid out for the house to repair it.

13 Howbeit, there were [h] not made for the house of the LORD, bowls of silver, snuffers, basons, trumpets, any vessels of gold, or vessels of silver, of the money that was brought into the house of the LORD:

14 But they gave that to the workmen, and repaired therewith the house of the LORD.

15 Moreover, they reckoned not with the men, into whose hand they delivered the money to be bestowed on workmen: for they dealt faithfully.

16 The trespass-money, and sin-money was not brought into the house of the LORD; it was the priests.

17 ¶ Then Hazael king of Syria went up, and fought against Gath, and took it: and Hazael set his face to go up to Jerusalem.

18 And Jehoash king of Judah took all the [i] hallowed things that Jehoshaphat, and Jehoram, and Ahaziah his fathers, kings of Judah, had dedicated, and his own hallowed things, and all the gold that was found in the treasures of the house of the LORD, and in the kings house, and sent it to Hazael king of Syria, and he † went away from Jerusalem.

9 And Jehoahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria, and Joash his son reigned in his stead.

10 ¶ In the thirty and seventh year of Joash king of [g] Judah, began Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned sixteen years.

g His chief purpose is to describe the kingdom of Judah, and how God performed his promise made to the house of David: but by the way, he sheweth how Israel was afflicted and punished for their great idolatry, who though they had now degenerated, yet God both by sending them sundry prophets and divers punishments, did call them unto him again.

11 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD; he departed not from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin: but he walked therein.

12 And the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, and his might wherewith he fought against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

13 And Joash slept with his fathers, and Jeroboam sat upon his throne: and Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

14 ¶ Now Elisha was fallen sick of his sickness whereof he died, and Joash the king of Israel came down unto him, and wept over his face, and said, O my [h] father, my father, the chariot of Israel, and the horsmen thereof.

h Thus they used to call the prophets and servants of God, by whom God blessed his people, as chap. 2. 12. Meaning, that by their prayers they did more prosper in their countrey, than by force of arms.

15 And Elisha said unto him, Take bow and arrows: and he took unto him bow and arrows.

16 And he said to the king of Israel, † Put thine hand upon the bow: and he put his hand upon it: and Elisha put his hands upon the kings hands.

† Heb. make thine hand to ride

17 And he said, Open the window [i] eastward: and he opened it. Then Elisha said, Shoot: and he shot. And he said, the arrow of the LORDS deliverance, and the arrow of deliverance from Syria: for thou shalt smite the Syrians in Aphek, till thou hast consumed them.

i That is, toward Syria, so that he did not onely propheste with words, but also confirmed him by these signs that he should have the victory.

18 And he said, Take the arrows: and he took them. And he said unto the king of Israel, Smite upon the ground: and he smote thrice, and stayed.

19 And the man of God was [k] wroth with him, and said, Thou shouldest have smitten five or six times, then hadst thou smitten Syria till thou hadst consumed it: whereas now thou shalt smite Syria but thrice.

k Because he seemed content to have victory against the enemies of God for twice or thrice, and had not a zeal to overcome them continually, and to destroy them utterly.

20 ¶ And Elisha died, and they buried him: and the bands of the Moabites invaded the land at the coming in of the year.

21 And it came to pass as they were burying a man, that behold, they spied a band of men, and they cast the man into the sepulchre of Elisha: and when the man † was let down, and touched the bones of Elisha, * he [l] revived, and stood upon his feet.

8 ¶ Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz, son of Jehu king of Israel, saying, Come, [d] let us look one another in the face.

9 And Jehoash the king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The thistle that was in Lebanon, sent to the [e] cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trod down the thistle.

10 Thou hast indeed smitten Edom, and thine heart hath lifted thee up: [f] glory of this, and tarrie † at home: for why shouldest thou meddle to thy hurt, that thou shouldest fall, even thou, and Judah with thee?

11 But Amaziah would not hear: therefore Jehoash king of Israel went up, and he and Amaziah king of Judah looked one another in the face at Beth-shemesh, which belongeth to Judah.

12 And Judah † was put to the worse before Israel, and they fled every man to their tents.

13 And Jehoash king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Jehoash the son of Ahaziah at Beth-shemesh, and came to Jerusalem, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem, from the gate of Ephraim, unto the corner-gate, four hundred cubits.

14 And he took all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the kings house, and [g] hostages, and returned to Samaria.

15 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Jehoash which he did, and his might, and how he fought with Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

16 And Jehoash slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel, and Jeroboam his son reigned in his stead.

17 ¶ And Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah, lived after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel, fifteen years.

18 And the rest of the acts of Amaziah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

19 Now * they made a conspiracie against him in Jerusalem: and he fled to [h] Lachish, but they sent after him to Lachish, and slew him there.

20 And they brought him on horses; and he was buried at Jerusalem with his fathers in the citie of David.

21 ¶ And all the people of Judah took [i] Azariah, (which was sixteen years old) and made him king in stead of his father Amaziah.

22 He built [k] Elath, and restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers.

23 ¶ In the fifteenth year of Amaziah, the son of Joash king of Judah, Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel began to reign in Samaria, and reigned fourtie and one years.

24 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not from all the [l] sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

25 He restored the coast of Israel from the entring of Hamath, unto the sea of the plain, according to the word of the LORD God of Israel, which he spake by the hand of his servant * Jonah, the son of Amittai, the prophet, which was of Gath-hepher.

26 For the LORD saw the affliction of Israel, that it was very bitter: for there was not any [m] shut up, nor any left, nor any helper for Israel.

27 And the LORD said not that he would blot out the name of Israel from under heaven: but he saved them by the hand of Jeroboam the son of Joash.

28 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, and all that he did, and his might, how he warred, and how he recovered Damascus, and [n] Hamath, which belonged to Judah, for Israel, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

29 And Jeroboam slept with his fathers, even with the kings of Israel; and Zachariah his son reigned in his stead.

IN the twenty and seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel, began Azariah son of Amaziah king of Judah to reign.

2 Sixteen years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned two and fiftie years in Jerusalem, and his mothers name was Jecholiah of Jerusalem.

3 And he did that which was [a] right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah had done;

4 Save that the high places were not removed: the people sacrificed, and burnt incense still on the high places.

5 ¶ And the LORD [b] smote the king, so that he was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a several house, and Jotham the kings son was over the house, [c] judging the people of the land.

6 And the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

7 So Azariah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the citie of David; and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

29 In the days of Pekah king of Iſrael, came [k] Tiglath-pileſer king of Aſſyria, and took Ijon, and Abel-beth-maachach, and Janoah, and Kedeſh, and Hazor, and Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali, and carried them captive to Aſſyria.

k For God ſtirred up Pul, and Tiglath-pileſer againſt Iſrael for their ſin. 1 Chron. 5. 26.

30 And Hoſhea the ſon of Elah made a conſpiracie againſt Pekah the ſon of Remaliah, and ſmote him, and ſlew him, and reigned in his ſtead, in the twentieth year of Jotham the ſon of Uzziah.

31 And the reſt of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Iſrael.

32 ¶ In the ſecond year of Pekah the ſon of Remaliah king of Iſrael, began * Jotham the ſon of Uzziah king of Judah to reign.

* 2 Chron. 27. 1.

33 Five and twenty years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned ſixteen years in Jeruſalem: and his mothers name was Jeruſha, the daughter of Zadok.

34 And he did that which was [l] right in the ſight of the LORD: he did according to all that his father Uzziah had don.

l He ſheweth that his uprightneſs was not ſuch, but that he had many and great faults.

35 ¶ Howbeit, the high places were not removed: the people ſacrificed and burnt incenſe ſtill in the high places: he built the higher gate of the houſe of the LORD.

36 ¶ Now the reſt of the acts of Jotham, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

1 Ahaz his wicked reign. 5 Ahaz aſſailed by Rezin and Pekah, hireth Tiglath-pileſer againſt them, 10 Ahaz ſending a patern of an altar from Damaſcus to Urijah, diverteth the braſen altar to his own devotion. 17 He ſpoileth the temple. 19 Hezekiah ſucceedeth him.

* 2 Chro. 28. 1.

IN * the ſeventeenth year of Pekah the ſon of Remaliah, [a] Ahaz the ſon of Jotham king of Judah began to reign.

a This was a wicked ſon of a godly father, as of him again came Godly Hezekiah, and of him wicked Manaſſeh, ſave that God in the end ſhewed him mercie. Thus we ſee how uncertain it is to depend on the dignity of our fathers.

2 Twenty years old was Ahaz when he began to reign, and reigned ſixteen years in Jeruſalem, and did not that which was right in the

the sight of the LORD his God, like David his father.

3 But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, yea, and made his son to [b] pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel.

[b] That is, offred him to Molech, or made him to pass between two fires, as the manner of the Gentiles was. Levit. 18.21. Deut. 18.10.

4 And he sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.

[a] Isa. 7.1.

5 ¶ * Then Rezin king of Syria, and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel, came up to Jerusalem to war: and they besieged Ahaz: but could [c] not overcome him.

[c] For the Lord preserved the citie, and his people for his promise sake made to David.

6 At that time Rezin king of Syria recovered [d] Elath to Syria, and drave the Jews from Elath: and the Syrians came to Elath, and dwelt there unto this day.

[d] which citie Amariah had taken from the Amorites, and fortified it. Chap 14.22.

7 So Ahaz sent [e] messengers to Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, saying, I am thy servant and thy son: come up, and save me out of the hand of the king of Syria, and out of the hand of the king of Israel, which rise up against me.

[e] Contrary to the admonition of the prophet. Isa 7.4.

8 And Ahaz took the silver and gold that was found in the [f] house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the kings house, and sent it for a present to the king of Assyria.

[f] Thus he spared not to spoil the temple of God to have succour of men, and would not once lift up his heart toward God to desire his help, nor yet hear his prophets counsel.

9 And the king of Assyria hearkened unto him: for the king of Assyria went up against † Damascus, and took it, and carried the people of it captive to Kir, and slew Rezin.

† Heb. Dammesek,

10 ¶ And king Ahaz went to Damascus, to meet Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and saw an altar that was at Damascus: and king Ahaz sent to Urijah the priest the fashion of the altar, and the patern of it, according to all the workmanship thereof.

11 And Urijah the priest built an altar according to [g] all that king Ahaz had sent from Damascus: so Urijah the priest made it, against king Ahaz came from Damascus.

[g] we see that there is no prince so wicked, but he shall find flatterers, and false ministers to serve his turn.

12 And when the king was come from Damascus, the king saw the altar: and the king approached to the altar, and offered [h] thereon.

[h] Either offerings for peace or prosperitie, or of thanksgiving, as Levit. 3.1. or els meaning the morning and evening-offering, Exod. 29.38. Num 28.3. and thus he contemned the means and the altar which God had commanded by Solomon, to serve God after his own fantasie.

13 And he burnt his burnt-offering, and his meat-offering, and poured his drink-offering, and sprinkled the blood of † his peace-offerings upon the altar.

† Heb. which were his

14 And he brought also the brasen altar which was before the LORD, from the forefront of the house, from between the altar and the house of the LORD, and put it on the [i] north-side of the altar.

[i] That is, at the right hand, as men went into the temple.

15 And king Ahaz commanded Urijah the priest, saying, Upon the great altar burn the morning burnt-offering, and the evening meat-offering, and the kings burnt-sacrifice, and his meat-offering, with the burnt-offering of all the people of the land, and their meat-offering, and their drink-offerings, and sprinkle upon it all the blood of the burnt-offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice: and the [k] brasen altar shall be for me to enquire by.

[k] Here he establisheth by commandment his own wicked proceedings, and doth abolish the commandment and ordinance of God.

16 Thus did Urijah the priest, according to all that king Ahaz commanded.

17 ¶ And king Ahaz cut off the borders of the bases, and removed the laver from off them, and took down the sea from off the brasen oxen that were under it, and put it upon a pavement of stones.

18 And the [l] covert for the sabbath that they had built in the house, and the kings entry without, turned he from the house of the LORD, [m] from the king of Assyria.

[l] Or, tent, wherein they laid on the sabbath, which had served their week in the temple, and so departed home.

[m] Either to flatter the king of Assyria, when he should thus see him change the ordinance of God, or els that the temple might be a refuge for him, if the king should suddenly assail his house.

19 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz, which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

20 And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David, and Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Hoshea his wicked reign. 3 Being subdued by Shalmaneser, he conspireth against him with So king of Egypt. 5 Samaria, for their sins, is captivated. 24 The strange nations which were transplanted in Samaria, being plagued with lions, make a mixture of religions.

IN the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah, began Hoshea the son of Elah to reign in Samaria over Israel nine years.

2 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: [a] but not as the kings of Israel that were before him.

[a] Though he invented no new idolatry or impiety, as others did; yet he sought for help at the Egyptians, which God had forbidden.

3 ¶ Against him came up Shalmaneser king of Assyria, and Hoshea became his servant, and † gave him ‡ presents.

† Heb. rendred
‡ Or, tribute.

4 And the king of Assyria found conspiracie in Hoshea: for he had sent messengers to So king of Egypt, and brought no present to the king of Assyria, [b] as he had don year by year: therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in prison.

[b] For he had paid tribute for the space of eight years.

5 ¶ Then the king of Assyria came up throughout all the land, and went up to Samaria, and besieged it three years.

6 ¶ * In the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Assyria took Samaria, and carried Israel away into Assyria, and placed them in Halah and in Habor by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the [c] Medes.

* Chap. 18.10.

[c] For at this time the Medes and Persians were subject to the Assyrians.

7 For so it was, that the children of Israel had [d] sinned against the LORD their God, which had brought them up out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and had feared others gods,

[d] He setteth forth at length the cause of this great plague and perpetual captivity: to admonish all people and nations to cleave to the Lord God, and onely worship him for fear of like judgements.

8 And walked in the statutes of the heathen, (whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel) and of the kings of Israel, which they had made.

9 And the children of Israel did secretly those things that were not right, against the LORD their God, and they built them high places in all their cities, [e] from the tower of the watchmen, to the fenced city.

[e] Meaning, Throughout all their borders.

10 And they set them up † images and groves in every high hill, and under every green tree:

† Heb. statues

11 And there they burnt incense in all the high places, as did the heathen whom the LORD carried away before them; and wrought wicked things to provoke the LORD to anger.

318

12 For they ſerved idols, whereof the LORD had ſaid unto them, * Ye ſhall not do this thing.

* Deut. 4. 19.

13 Yet the LORD teſtified againſt Iſrael, and againſt Judah, ‡ by all the prophets, and by all the ſeers, ſaying, * Turn ye from your evil ways, and keep my commandments and my ſtatutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I ſent to you by my ſervants the prophets.

‡ Heb. by the hand of all
* Jer. 18. 11. & 52. 5. & 35. 15.

14 Notwithſtanding, they would not hear, but * hardened their necks, like to the neck of their [f] fathers, that did not beleeve in the LORD their God.

Deut. 31. 27.

15 And they rejected his ſtatutes, and his covenant that he made with their fathers, and his teſtimonies which he teſtified againſt them, and they followed vanity, and became vain, and went after the heathen that were round about them, concerning whom the LORD had charged them, that they ſhould not do like them.

16 And they left all the commandments of the LORD their God, and * made them molten images, even two calvs, and made a grove, and worſhipped all the [g] hoſt of heaven, and ſerved Baal.

* Exod. 32. 8. 1 King. 12. 21.

[g] That is, The ſun, the moon and ſtars, Deut. 4. 19.

17 And they cauſed their ſons and their daughters to [h] paſs through the fire, and uſed divination and inchantments, and [i] ſold themſelvs to do evil in the ſight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

[h] Read Chap. 16. 3.
[i] Read of this phraſe, 1 King. 21. 20, and 25.

18 Therefore the LORD was very angry with Iſrael, and removed them out of his ſight, there was none left but the tribe of Judah [k] onely.

[k] No whole tribe was left but Judah: and they of Benjamin and Levi, which remained, were counted with Judah.

19 Alſo Judah kept not the commandments of the LORD their God, but walked in the ſtatutes of Iſrael which they made.

20 And the LORD rejected all the ſeed of Iſrael, and afflicted them, and delivered them into the hand of ſpoilers, until he had caſt them out of his [l] ſight.

[l] Out of the land where he ſhewed the greateſt tokens of his preſence and favour.

21 [m] For he rent Iſrael from the houſe of David, and they made Jeroboam the ſon of Nebat king, and Jeroboam drave Iſrael from following the LORD, and made them ſin a great ſin.

[m] That is, God cut off the ten tribes. 1 King. 12. 16, 20.

22 For the children of Iſrael walked in all the ſins of Jeroboam which he did, they departed not from them:

23 Until the LORD removed Iſrael out of his ſight, as he had ſaid by all his ſervants the prophets: ſo was Iſrael carried away out of their own land to Aſſyria, unto this day.

24 ¶ And the king of Aſſyria brought men from Babylon, and from [n] Cuthah, and from Ava, and from Hamath, and from Sepharviam, and placed them in the cities of Samaria, in ſtead of the children of Iſrael; and they poſſeſſed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof.

[n] Of theſe people came the Samaritans, whereof mention is ſo much made in the Goſpel, and with whom the Jews would have nothing to do: John. 4. 9.

25 And ſo it was at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they feared [o] not the LORD: therefore the LORD ſent lions among them, which ſlew ſome of them.

[o] That is, They ſerved him not therefore, leaſt they ſhould blaſpheme him, as though there were no God, becauſe he chaſtiſed the Iſraelites, he ſheweth his mighty power among them by this ſtrange puniſhment.

26 Wherefore they ſpake to the king of Aſſyria, ſaying, The nations which thou haſt removed, and placed in the cities of Samaria, know not the manner of the God of the land: therefore he hath ſent lions among them, and behold, they ſlay them, becauſe they know not the manner of the God of the land.

27 Then the king of Aſſyria commanded, ſaying, Carry thither one of the prieſts whom ye brought from thence, and let them go and dwell there, and let him teach them the manner of the God of the [p] land.

[p] That is, how to worſhip him: thus the wicked rather than to loſe their commodities, will change to all religions.

28 Then one of the prieſts whom they had carried away from Samaria, came and dwelt in Beth-el, and taught them how they ſhould fear the LORD.

29 Howbeit, every nation made gods of their own, and put them in the houſes of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities wherein they dwelt.

30 And the men of Babylon made [q] Succothbenoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Aſhima, [q] Meaning, That every country ſerved that idol, which was moſt eſteemed in that place whence they came.

31 And the Avites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites burnt their children in fire to Adrammelech, and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim.

32 So they feared the LORD, and made unto themſelvs of the loweſt of them prieſts of the high places, which ſacrificed for them in the houſes of the high places.

33 * They [r] feared the LORD, and ſerved their own gods, after the manner of the nations, ‡ whom they carried away from thence.

* Zeph. 1. 5.
[r] That is, They had a certain knowledge of God and feared him becauſe of the puniſhment, but they continued ſtill idolaters, as do the Papiſts which worſhip both God and idols: but this is] not to fear God, as appeareth verſ. 34.
‡ Or, who carried them away from thence.

34 Unto this day they do after the former manners: they fear not the LORD, neither do they after [ſ] their ſtatutes, or after their ordinances, or after the law and commandment which the LORD commanded the children of Jacob, * whom he named Iſrael;

[ſ] He meaneth this by the Iſraelites, to whom god had his commandments.
* Gen. 32. 28. 1 King. 18. 31. * Judg. 6. 10.

35 With whom the LORD had made a covenant, and charged them, ſaying, * Ye ſhall not fear other gods, nor bow your ſelvs to them, not ſerve them, nor ſacrifice to them:

36 But the LORD, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt, with great power, and a ſtretched-out arm, him ſhall ye fear, and him ſhall ye worſhip, and to him ſhall ye do ſacrifice.

37 And the ſtatutes, and the ordinances, and the law, and the commandment which he wrote for you ye ſhall obſerve to do for evermore, and ye ſhall not fear other gods.

38 And the covenant that I have made with you, ye ſhall not forget, neither ſhall ye fear other gods.

39 But the LORD your God ye ſhall fear, and he ſhall deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies.

40 Howbeit, they did not hearken, but they did after their former manner.

41 So [t] theſe nations feared the LORD, and ſerved their graven images, both their children, dren, and their childrens children: as did their fathers, so do they unto this day.

NOw it came to pass in the third year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that * Hezekiah the son of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign.

* 2 Chron. 28. 27. & 29. 1. He is called Ezekias, Mat. 1. 9.

2 Twenty and five years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem: his mothers name also was Abi, the daughter of Zechariah.

3 And he did that which was [a] right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that David his father did.

a Although they of Judah were given to idolatry and impiety, as they of Israel were, yet God for his promise sake was mercifull unto the throne of David: and yet by his judgement toward the other, provoked them to repentance.

4 ¶ He removed the high places, and brake the ‡ images, and cut down the groves, and brake in pieces the * brasen serpent that Moses had made: for unto those days the children of Israel did burn incense to it: and he called it [b] Nehushtan.

‡ Heb. statues, * Num. 21. 9.

b That is, A piece of brass, thus he calleth the serpent by contempt, which notwithstanding was set up by the word of God, and miracles were wrought by it: yet when it was abused to idolatry, this good king destroyed it, not thinking it worthy to be called a serpent, but a piece of brass.

5 He trusted in the LORD God of Israel, so that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor any that were before him.

6 For he clave to the LORD, and departed not † from following him, but kept his commandments, which the LORD commanded Moses.

† Heb from after him,

7 And the LORD was with him, and he prospered whithersoever he went forth: and he rebelled against the king of Assyria, and served him not.

9 ¶ And * it came to pass in the fourth year of king Hezekiah, (which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel) that Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria, and besieged it.

* Chap. 17. 3.

10 And at the end of three years they took it, even in the sixth year of Hezekiah (that is * the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel) Samaria was taken.

* Chap. 17. 6.

11 And the king of Assyria did carry away Israel unto Assyria, and put them in Halah and in Habor by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes:

12 Because they obeyed not the voice of the LORD their God, but transgressed his covenant and all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded, and would not hear them, nor do them.

13 ¶ Now * in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, did † Sennacherib king of Assyria come up against all the fenced cities of Judah, and took them.

* 2 Chron. 32. 1. Isa. 36. 1. Eccles. 48. 11.
† Heb. Sancherib.

14 And Hezekiah king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria to Lachish, saying, [d] I have offended, return from me: that which thou puttest on me, I will bear. And the king of Assyria appointed unto Hezekiah king of Judah, three hundred talents of silver, and thirty talents of gold.

d As his zeal was before praised, so his weakness is here set forth, that none should glory in himself.

15 And Hezekiah gave him all the silver that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the kings house.

16 At that time did Hezekiah cut off the gold from the doors of the temple of the LORD, and from the pillars which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid, and gave † it to the king of Assyria.

† Heb. them.

17 And the king of Assyria sent [e] Tartan, and Rab-saris, and Rab-shakeh from Lachish, to king Hezekiah with a ‡ great host against Jerusalem: and they went up and came to Jerusalem: & when they were come up, they came and stood by the conduit of the upper pool, which is in the high-way of the fullers field.

e After certain years when Hezekiah ceased to send the tribute appointed by the king of the Assyrians, he sent his captains and army against him.
‡ Heb. heavy.

18 And when they had called to the king, there came out to them Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, which was over the household, and Shebna the ‡ scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder.

‡ Or, secretary,

19 And Rab-shakeh said unto them, Speak ye now to Hezekiah, thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria, What confidence is this wherein thou trustest?

20 Thou ‡ sayest, (but they are but † vain words) ‡ I have [f] counsel and strength for the war: now on whom dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me?

‡ Or, † talkest, † Heb. words of the lips.
‡ Or, but counsel and strength are for the war:
f Thou thinkest that words will serve to perswade thy people, or to move my master.

21 Now behold, thou † trustest upon the staff of this bruised reed, even upon Egypt, on which if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and [g] pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt unto all that trust on him.

g Egypt shall not onely not be able to succour thee, but shall be an hurt unto thee.

22 But if ye say unto me, We trust in the LORD our God: is [h] not that he whose high places, and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and hath said to Judah and Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem?

h Thus the idolaters think that Gods religion is destroyed, when superstition and idolatry are reformed.

23 Now therefore, I pray thee, give ‡ [i] pledges to my lord the king of Assyria, And I will deliver thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.

i Meaning, That it was best for him to yield to the King of Assyria, because his power was so small that he had not men to furnish two thousand horses.

24 How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my masters servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsmen?

25 Am I now come up without the [k] LORD against this place to destroy it? the LORD said to me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

k The wicked always in their prosperity flatter themselvs, that God doth favour them Thus he speaketh to feat Hezekiah, that by resisting him he should resist God.

26 Then said Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and Shebna, and Joah, unto Rab-shakeh, Speak, I pray thee, to thy servants in the Syrian language, (for we understand it) and talk not with us in the Jews language in the ears of the people that are on the wall.

27 But Rab-shakeh said unto them, Hath my master sent me to thy master, and to thee, to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men which sit on the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink † their own pisse with you?

† Heb. the water of their feet?

28 Then Rabſhakeh ſtood and cried with a loud voice in the Jews language, and ſpake, ſaying, Hear the word of the great king, the king of Aſſyria.

29 Thus ſaith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you, for he ſhall not be able to deliver you out of his hand:

30 Neither let Hezekiah make you truſt in the LORD, ſaying, The LORD will ſurely deliver us, and this citie ſhall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Aſſyria.

‡ Or, ſeek my favour, † Heb. make with me a bleſſing,

31 Hearken not unto Hezekiah: for thus ſaith the king of Aſſyria, ‡† Make an agreement with me by a preſent, and come out to me, and then eat ye every man of his own vine, and every one of his fig-tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his ‡ ciſtern:

‡ Or, pit.

1 He maketh himſelf ſo ſure, that he will not grant them truce, except they render themſelvs to him to be led away captivs.

32 [1] Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of oyl-olive, and of honey, that ye may live and not die: and hearken not unto Hezekiah, when he ‡ perſwadeth you, ſaying, The LORD will deliver us.

‡ Or, deceiveth

33 Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered at all his land out of the hand of the king of Aſſyria?

34 Where are the gods of Hamath, and of Arpad? where are the gods of Sepharvain, Hena, and Ivah? have they delivered Samaria out of mine hand?

35 Who are they among all the gods of the countreys, that have delivered their countrey out of mine hand, that the [m] LORD ſhould deliver Jeruſalem out of mine hand?

m This is an execrable blaſphemy againſt the true God, to make him equall with the idols of other nations; therefore God did moſt ſharply punish it.

36 But the people held their peace, and anſwered him not a word: for the kings commandment was, ſaying, Anſwer him not.

37 Then came Eliakim the ſon of Hilkiah, which was over the houſhold, and Shebna the ſcribe, and Joah the ſon of Aſaph the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rab-ſhakeh.

‡ Or, provocation: b The dangers are ſo great that we can neither avenge this blaſphemie, nor help our ſelvs, no more than a woman in her travail.

4 It may be the LORD thy God will hear all the words of Rab-ſhakeh, whom the king of Aſſyria his maſter hath ſent to reproach the living God; and will reprove the words which the LORD thy God hath heard: wherefore lift up thy prayer for the [c] remnant that are ‡ left.

c Meaning, For Jeruſalem, which onely remained of all the cities of Judah

‡ Heb. found.

5 So the ſervants of king Hezekiah came to Iſaiah.

6 ¶ And Iſaiah ſaid unto them, Thus ſhall ye ſay to your maſter, Thus ſaith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words which thou haſt heard, with which the ſervants of the king of Aſſyria have blaſphemed me.

7 Behold, I will ſend a [d] blaſt upon him, and he ſhall hear a rumour, and ſhall return to his own land, and I will cauſe him to fall by the ſword in his own land.

d The Lord eith with one blaſt blow away all the ſtrength of man, and turn it into duſt.

8 ¶ So Rab-ſhakeh returned, and found the king of Aſſyria warring againſt Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from Lachiſh.

9 And when [e] he heard ſay of Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, [f] Behold, he is come out to fight againſt thee: he ſent meſſengers again unto Hezekiah, ſaying, e That is, Sennacherib.

f For the kings of Ethiopia, and Egypt joyned together againſt the king of Aſſyria, becauſe of his oppreſſion of other countries.

10 Thus ſhall ye ſpeak to Hezekiah king of Judah, ſaying, Let not [g] thy God, in whom thou truſteſt, decive thee, ſaying, Jeruſalem ſhall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Aſſyria.

g The more neer that the wicked are to their deſtruction, the more they blaſpheme.

11 Behold, thou haſt heard what the kings of Aſſyria have done to all lands, by deſtroying them utterly: and ſhalt thou be delivered?

12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have deſtroyed; as Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden which were in Thelaſar?

13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the citie of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivah?

14 ¶ And Hezekiah received the letter of the hand of the meſſengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up into the houſe of the LORD, and ſpread it before the [h] LORD.

h Before the ark of the covenant.

15 And Hezekiah [i] prayed before the LORD, and ſaid, O LORD God of Iſrael, which dwelleſt between the cherubims, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth, thou haſt made heaven and earth.

i He ſheweth what is the true refuge and ſuccour in all dangers, to wit, To flee to the Lord by earneſt prayer.

16 LORD, [k] bow down thine ear, and hear: open, LORD, thine eyes, and ſee: and hear the words of Sennacherib, which hath ſent him to reproach the [l] living God.

k Shew by effect that thou wilt not ſuffer thy name to be blaſphemed.

l By this little he diſcerneth God from all idols and falſe gods.

17 Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Aſſyria have deſtroyed the nations and their lands, 18 And have † caſt their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but the work of mens hands, wood and ſtone: therefore they have deſtroyed them.

† Heb. given.

19 Now therefore, O LORD our God, I beſeech thee, ſave thou us out of his hand, that all the [m] kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the LORD God, even thou onely.

m He ſheweth for what end the faithfull deſire of God to be delivered: to wit, That he may be glorified by their deliverance.

20 ¶ Then Iſaiah the ſon of Amoz ſent to Hezekiah, ſaying, Thus ſaith the LORD God of Iſrael, That which thou haſt prayed to me againſt Sennacherib king of Aſſyria, I have heard.

21 This

21 This is the word that the LORD hath spoken concerning him, The [n] virgin, the daughter of Zion hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn, the daughter of Jerusalem hath shaken her head at thee.

n Because as yet Jerusalem had not been taken by the enemie, therefore he calleth her, virgin.

22 Whom hast thou reproached, and blasphemed? and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lift up thine eyes on high? even [o] against the holy one of Israel.

o God counteth that injury don to him, and will revenge it, which is don to any of his saints.

23 † By the messengers thou hast reproached the LORD, and hast said, With the multitude of my chariots I am come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon, and will cut down † the tall cedar-trees thereof, and the choice fir-trees thereof: and I will enter into the [p] lodgings of his borders, and into ‡ the forrest of his Carmel.

‡ Or, hast thou not heard how I have made it long ago, and formed it of ancient times? should I now bring it to be laid waste, and fenced cities to be ruinous heaps.

26 [r] Therefore their inhabitants were † of small power, they were dismayed & confounded, they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the house tops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up.

p He declareth that forasmuch as he is the author and beginning of his church, he will never suffer it utterly to be destroyed, as other cities and kingdoms.

27 But I know thy ‡ abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy rage against me.

‡ Or, sitting,

28 Because thy rage against me, and thy tumult is come up into mine ears, therefore I will put my [f] hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest.

t God did not onely promise him the victory; but giveth him a sign toc onfirm his faith.

30 And † the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah, shall yet again take [u] root downward, and bear fruit upward.

32 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this citie, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shield, nor cast a bank against it.

33 By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and shall not come into this city, saith the LORD.

34 For I will defend this city to save it, for mine own sake, and for my servant Davids sake.

35 ¶ And * it came to pass that night, that the angel of the LORD went out, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians, an hundred fourscore and five thousand: and when they arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses.

d Because of his unfained repentance and prayer, God turned away his wrath.

6 And I will add unto thy days fifteen years, and I will deliver thee, and this city, out of the hand of the king of Assyria, and I will defend this city for mine own sake, and for my servant Davids sake.

7 And Isaiah said, Take a [f] lump of figs. And they took and laid it on the boyl, and he recovered.

f He declareth that albeit God can heal without other medicins; yet he sheweth that he will not have these inferiour means contemned.

8 ¶ And Hezekiah said unto Isaiah, What shall be the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up into the house of the LORD the third day?

9 And Isaiah said, This sign shalt thou have of the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing that he hath spoken: shall the shadow go forward ten degrees, or go back ten degees?

10 And Hezekiah answered, It is a light thing for the shadow to go down ten degrees: nay, but [g] let the shadow return backward ten degrees.

14 ¶ Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, they are come from a far countrey, even from Babylon.

15 And he said, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All the things that are in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures, that I have not shewed them.

16 And Isaiah said unto Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD.

17 Behold, the days come, that all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store unto this day, * shall be carried into Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the LORD.

18 And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away, and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

19 Then said Hezekiah unto Isaiah, [l] Good is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken. And he said, ‡ Is it not good, if [m] peace and truth be in my days?

8 Neither will I make the feet of Israel move any more out of the land which I gave their fathers; onely if they will [b] observe to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that my servant Moses commanded them.

b Therefore seeing they obeyed not the commandment of God, they were justly cast forth of that land which they had but on condition.

9 But they hearkened not: and Manasseh seduced them to do more evil than did the nations, whom the LORD destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 ¶ And the LORD spake by this servants the prophets, saying,

15 Because they have done that which was evil in my sight, and have provoked me to anger since the day their fathers came forth out of Egypt, even unto this day.

16 Moreover, Manasseh shed [f] innocent bloud very much, till he had filled Jerusalem † from one end to another, beside his sin wherewith he made Judah to sin, in doing that which was evil in the sight of the LORD.

8 ¶ And Hilkiah the high prieſt ſaid unto Shaphan the ſcribe, I have found the [e] book of the law in the houſe of the LORD: and Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it.

[e] This was the copie that Moſes left them, as appeareth, 2 Chron. 34. 14. which either by the negligence of the prieſts had been loſt, or els by the wickedneſs of idolatrous kings had been abolished.

9 And Shaphan the ſcribe came to the king, and brought the king word again, and ſaid, Thy ſervants have † gathered the money that was found in the houſe, and have delivered it into the hand of them that do the work, that have the overſight of the houſe of the LORD.

12 And the king commanded Hilkiah the prieſt, & Ahikam the ſon of Shaphan, & Achbor the ſon of Michajah, and Shaphan the ſcribe, And Aſahiah a ſervant of the kings, ſaying, 13 Go ye, [f] enquire of the LORD for me, and for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book that is found: for great is the wrath of the LORD that is kindled againſt us, becauſe our fathers have not hearkened unto the words of this book, to do according unto all that which is written concerning us.

4 And also for the innocent bloud that he shed, (for he filled Jerusalem with innocent bloud) which the LORD would not pardon.

5 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

16 And all the men of might, even seven thousand, and craftsmen, and smiths a thousand, all that were strong and apt for war, even them the King of Babylon brought captive to Babylon.

17 ¶ And * the King of Babylon made Mattaniah his fathers brother King in his stead, and changed his name to Zedekiah.

20 For through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his [f] presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the King of Babylon.

1 Jerusalem is besieged. 4 Zedekiah taken, his sons slain, his eyes put out. 8 Nebuzar-adan defaceth the city, carrieth the remnant, except a few poor labourers, into captivity, 13 spoileth and carrieth away the treasures. 18 The nobles are slain at Riblah. 22 Gedaliah, who was set over them that remained, being slain, the rest flee into Egypt. 27 Evil-merodach advanceth Jehoiachin in his court.

AND it came to pass * in the [a] ninth year of his reign, in the [b] tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar King of Babylon came, he, and all his host, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it, and they built forts against it round about.

2 And the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.

3 And on the ninth day of the * fourth month, the famine [c] prevailed in the city, and there was no bread for the people of the land.

4 ¶ And the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled by night, by the way of the [d] gate, between two walls, which is by the King's garden, (now the Caldees were against the city round about) and the King went the way toward the plain.

5 And the army of the Caldees pursued after the King, & overtook him in the plains of Jericho: & all his army were scattered from him.

7 And they slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and † put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him with fetters of brass, and carried him to Babylon.

8 ¶ And in the fifth month, on the [f] seventh day of the month (which is the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar King of Babylon) came Nebuzar-adan ‡ captain of the guard, a servant of the King of Babylon, unto Jerusalem:

21 And the King of Babylon smote them, and slew them at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried away out of their land.

22 ¶ * And as for the people that remained in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar King of Babylon had left, even over them he made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, ruler.

¶ THE FIRST BOOK OF THE CHRONICLES.

THE ARGUMENT.

THe Jews comprehend both theſe Books in one, which the Grecians becauſe of the length, divide into two: and they are called Chronicles, becauſe they note briefly the hiſtories from Adam to the return from their captivity in Babylon. But theſe are not thoſe Books of Chronicles, which are ſo oft mentioned in the Books of the Kings of Judah & Iſrael, which did at large ſet forth the ſtory of both the Kingdoms, and afterward periſhed in the captivity: but an abridgment of the ſame, and were gathered by Ezra, as the Jews write, after their return from Babylon. This firſt Book containeth a brief rehearſal of the children of Adam unto Abraham, Iſaac, Jacob, and the twelve Patriarches, chiefly of Judah, and of the reign of David, becauſe Chriſt came of him according to the fleſh. And therefore it ſetteth forth more amply his acts, both concerning civil Government, and alſo the adminiſtration, and care of things concerning Religion, for the good ſucceſs whereof he rejoyceth, and giveth thanks to the Lord.

‡ Or, mock me.

5 And when his armour-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise on the sword, and died.

6 So Saul died, and his three sons, and all his house died together.

7 And when all the men of Israel that were in the valley, saw that they fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead; then they forsook their cities, and fled: and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

8 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, when the Philistins came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his sons fallen in mount Gilboa.

17 And David longed and ſaid, Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Beth-lehem, that is at the gate!

18 And the three brake through the hoſt of the Philiſtines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the gate, and took it and brought it to David: but David would not drink of it, but poured it out to the LORD,

19 And ſaid, My God forbid it me, that I ſhould do this thing: ſhall I drink the [e] bloud of theſe men † that have put their lives in jeopardy? for with the jeopardy of their lives they brought it: therefore he would not drink it. Theſe things did theſe three mightieſt.

31 And of the half-tribe of Manasseh, eighteen thousand which were expressed by name, to come and make David King.

32 And of the children of Issachar, which were men that had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do: the heads of them were two hundred, and all their brethren were at their commandment.

33 Of Zebulun, such as went forth to battel, ‡ expert in war, with all instruments of war, fifty thousand, which could ‡ keep rank: they were † not of double heart.

34 And of Naphtali a thousand captains, and with them, with shield and spear, thirty and seven thousand.

39 And there they were with David three days, eating and drinking: for their [n] brethren had prepared for them.

40 Moreover, they that were nigh them, even unto Issachar, and Zebulun; and Naphtali, brought bread on asses, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen, and ‡ meat, meal, cakes of figs, and bunches of raisins, and wine, and oyl, and oxen, and sheep abundantly, for there was joy in Israel.

CHAP. XIII.

1 David fetcheth the Ark with great solemnity from Kirjath-jearim. 9 Uzza being smitten, the Ark is left at the house of Obed-edom.

AND David consulted with the captains of thousands, and hundreds, and with every leader.

2 And David said unto all the congregation of Israel, If it seem good unto you, and that it be of the LORD our God, † let us send abroad unto our brethren every where, that are left in all the land of Israel, and with them also to the Priests and Levites which are † in their cities and suburbs, that they may gather themselves unto us.

† Heb. let us break forth and send.

† Heb. in the cities of their suburbs.

3 And let us † bring again the [a] Ark of our God to us: for we enquired not at it in the days of Saul.

4 And all the congregation said, that they would do so: for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.

† Heb. bring about.
a His first care was to restore religion, which had in Saul's days been corrupted and neglected.

5 So * David gathered all Israel together, from Shihor of Egypt, even unto the entring of Hemath, to bring the Ark of God from [b] Kirjath-jearim.

* 1 Sam. 7. 1. 2 Sam. 6. 2.

b That is, From Gibeah, where the inhabitants of Kirjath-jearim had placed it in the house of Abinadab, 2 Sam 6 3.

6 And David went up, and all Israel to * Baalah, that is, to Kirjath-jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up thence the Ark of God the LORD, that dwelleth between the cherubims, whose name is called on it.

* Josh. 15. 9.

7 And they † carried the Ark of God in a new cart, out of the house of Abinadab: and [c] Uzza and Ahio drave the cart.

† Heb. made the ark to ride.

c Both the sons of Abinadab.

8 And David and all Israel played [d] before God with all their might, and with † singing, and with harps, and with psalteries, and with timbrels, and with cymbals, and with trumpets.

d That is, Before the ark, where God shewed himself: so that the sign is taken for the thing signified, which is common to all sacraments both in the old and new Testament.

9 ¶ And when they came unto the threshing-floor of * Chidon, Uzza put forth his hand to hold the Ark, for the oxen ‡ stumbled.

† Heb. songs.
e Called also Nachon, 2 Sam. 6. 6.
‡ Or, shook it.

10 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzza, and he smote him * because he put his hand to the Ark: and there he died [f] before God.

* Num. 4. 15.

f Before the Ark, for usurping that which did not appertain to his vocation: for this charge was given to the Priests, Num. 4. 15, so that here all good intentions are condemned, except they be commanded by the word of God.

11 And David was displeased, because the LORD had made a breach upon Uzza; wherefore that place is called ‡ Perez-uzza to this day.

‡ That is, The breach of Uzza.

12 And David was afraid of God that day, saying, How shall I bring the Ark of God home to me?

† Heb. removed.

13 So David † brought not the Ark home to himself to the city of David, but carried it aside into the house of [g] Obed-edom the Gittite.

g Who was a Levite, and called Gittite, because he had dwelt at Gath.

14 And the Ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edom in his house three months. And the LORD blessed * the house of Obed-edom, and all that he had.

2 ¶ And David perceived that the LORD had confirmed him King over Israel, for his kingdom was lift up on high, because of his people [a] Israel.

a Because of God's promise made to the people of Israel.

3 And David took † more wives at Jerusalem: and David begat more sons and daughters.

† Heb. yet.

4 Now these are the names of his children which he had in Jerusalem; Shammua, and Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon,

5 And Ibhar, and Elishua, and [b] Elpalet,

6 And Noga, and Nepheg, and Japhia,

7 And Elishama, and ‡ Beeliada, and Eliphalet.

8 ¶ And when the Philistines heard that * David was anointed King over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek David: and David heard of it, and went out against them.

9 And the Philistines came and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim.

10 And David enquired of God, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines? and wilt thou deliver them into mine hand? And the LORD said unto him, Go up, for I will deliver them into thine hand.

11 So they came up to Baal-perazim, and David smote them there. Then David said, God hath broken in upon mine enemies by mine hand, like the breaking forth of waters: therefore they called the name of that place, ‡ [c] Baal-perazim.

12 And when they had left their Gods there, David gave a commandment, and they were burnt with fire.

13 And the Philistines yet again spread themselves abroad in the valley.

14 Therefore David enquired again of God; and God said unto him, Go not up after them, turn away from them, * and come upon them over against the mulberry-trees.

15 And it shall be, when thou shalt hear a sound of going in the tops of the mulberry-trees, that then thou shalt go out to battel: for God is gone forth before thee, to smite the host of the Philistines.

16 David therefore did as God commanded him: and they smote the host of the Philistines from Gibeon even to Gazer.

17 And the fame of David went out into all lands, and the LORD brought the fear of him upon all nations.

CHAP. XV.

1 David having prepared a place for the Ark, ordereth the Priests and Levites to bring it from Obed-edom. 25 He performeth the solemnity thereof with great joy. 29 Michael despiseth him.

AND David made him houses in the [a] city of David, and prepared a place for the Ark of God, and pitched for it a tent.

2 Then David said, † None ought to carry the * Ark of God, but the Levites: for them hath the LORD chosen to carry the Ark of God, and to minister unto him for ever.

3 And David gathered all Israel together to Jerusalem, to bring up the [b] Ark of the LORD unto his place, which he had prepared for it.

4 And David assembled the children of Aaron, and the Levites.

5 Of the sons of Kohath: Uriel the chief, and his ‡ brethren an hundred and twenty.

6 Of the sons of Merari: Asaiah the chief, and his brethren two hundred and twenty.

7 Of the sons of Gershom: Joel the chief, and his brethren an hundred and thirty.

8 Of the sons of [c] Elizaphan: Shemajah the chief, and his brethren two hundred.

9 Of the sons of [d] Hebron: Eliel the chief, and his brethen fourscore.

10 Of the sons of Uzziel: Amminadab the chief, and his brethren an hundred and twelve.

11 And David called for Zadok and Abiathar the Priests, and for the Levites, for Uriel, Asajah, and Joel, Shemajah, and Eliel, and Amminadab, 12 And said unto them, Ye are the chief of the fathers of the Levites: [e] sanctify your selves both ye & your brethren, that you may bring up the Ark of the LORD God of Israel, unto the place that I have prepared for it.

13 For because ye did it not at the first, the LORD our God made a breach upon us: for that we sought him not after the due [f] order.

14 So the Priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the Ark of the LORD God of Israel.

15 And the children of the Levites bare the Ark of God upon their shoulders, with the staves thereon, as * Moses commanded, according to the word of the LORD.

16 And David spake to the chief of the Levites, to appoint their brethren to be the singers with [g] instruments of musick, psalteries, and harps, and cymbals, sounding, by lifting up the voice with joy.

17 So the Levites appointed * Heman the son of Joel: and of his brethren, * Asaph the son of Berechiah: and of the sons of Merari their brethren, * Ethan the son of Kushajah.

18 And with them their brethren of the [h] second degree, Zechariah, Ben, and Jaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, Eliab, and Benajah, and Maasiah, and Mattithiah, and Eliphaleh, and Mikniah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, the porters.

19 So the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were appointed to sound with cymbals of brass;

20 And Zechariah, and Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, and Eliab, and Maasiah, and Benajah, with psalteries on [i] Alamoth;

21 And Mattithiah, and Eliphaleh, and Mikniah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, & Azzaziah, with harps ‡ on the [k] Sheminith to excel.

22 And Chenaniah [l] chief of the Levites ‡ was for † song: he instructed about the song, because he was skilful.

23 And Berechiah, and Elkanah were door-keepers for the Ark.

24 And Shebaniah, and Jehoshaphat, and Nethaneel, and Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benajah, and Eliezer the Priests, did blow with the trumpets before the Ark of God: and [m] Obed-edom, and Jehiah were door-keepers for the Ark.

* 2 Sam. 6. 12, 13, &c.

26 And it came to pass when God [n] helped the Levites that bare the Ark of the covenant of the LORD, that they offered [o] seven bullocks, and seven rams.

28 Thus all Israel brought up the Ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting, and with sound of the cornet, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, making a noise with psalteries and harps.

29 ¶ And it came to pass as the Ark of the [q] covenant of the LORD came to the city of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looking out at a window, saw King David dancing and playing: and she despised him in her heart.

q It was so called, because it put the Israelites in remembrance of the Lord's covenant made with them.

* 2 Sam. 6. 17.

SO * they brought the Ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it: and they offered burnt-sacrifices, and peace-offerings before God.

2 And when David had made an end of offering the burnt-offerings, and the peace-offerings, he [a] blessed the people in the name of the LORD.

a He called upon the name of God, desiring him to prosper the people, and give good success to their beginnings.

3 And he dealt to every one of Israel, both man and woman, to every one a loaf of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine.

4 ¶ And he appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the Ark of the LORD, and to [b] record, and to thank and praise the LORD God of Israel:

b To wit, God's benefits toward his people.

5 Asaph the chief, and next to him Zechariah, Jeiel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Mittithiah, and Eliab, and Benajah, and Obed-edom: and Jeiel † with psalteries, and with harps: but Asaph made a sound with cymbals.

† Heb. with instruments of psalteries and harps.

7 ¶ Then on that day, David [e] delivered first this Psalm to thank the LORD, into the hand of Asaph and his brethren.

e David gave them this Psalm to praise the Lord, signifying, That in all our enterprises the name of God ought to be praised and called upon.

28 Give unto the LORD, ye kindreds of the people, give unto the LORD glory & strength.

29 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name: bring an offering and come before him, worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Nathan firſt approving the purpoſe of David, to build God an houſe, 3 after by the word of God forbiddeth him. 11 He promiſeth him bleſſings and benefits in his ſeed. 16 David's prayer and thanksgiving.

NOw * it came to paſs, as David ſat in his houſe, that David ſaid to Nathan the prophet; Lo, I dwell in an houſe of [a] cedars, but the Ark of the covenant of the LORD remaineth under [b] curtains.

a Well built and fair.

b That is, In tents covered with skins.

2 Then Nathan ſaid unto David, [c] Do all that is in thine heart, for God is with thee.

c As yet God had not revealed to the Prophet, what he purpoſed concerning David: therefore ſeeing God favoured David, he ſpake what he thought.

3 ¶ And it came to paſs the [d] ſame night, that the word of God came to Nathan, ſaying, d After that Nathan had ſpoken to David.

4 Go and tell David my ſervant, Thus ſaith the LORD, Thou ſhalt not build me an houſe to dwell in.

5 For I have not dwelt in a houſe ſince the day that I brought up Iſrael, unto this day, but † have gone from [e] tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to another.

f Meaning, whereſoever his Ark went, which was a ſign of his preſence.

7 Now therefore thus ſhalt thou ſay unto my ſervant David, Thus ſaith the LORD of hoſts, I took thee from the ſheep-cote, even † from following the [g] ſheep, that thou ſhouldeſt be ruler over my people Iſrael:

† Heb. from after.
g Of a ſhepherd of ſheep, I made thee a ſhepherd of men, ſo that thou cameſt not to this dignity through thine own merits, but by my pure grace.

8 And I have been with thee whitherſoever thou haſt walked, and have cut off all thine enemies from before thee, and have made thee a name like the name of the great men that are in the earth.

9 Alſo I will ordain a place for my people Iſrael, and will [h] plant them, and they ſhall dwell in their place, and ſhall be moved no more; neither ſhall the children of wickedneſs waſte them any more: (as at the beginning, h Make them ſure that they ſhall not remove.

10 And ſince that time that I commanded Judges to be over my people Iſrael) moreover, I will ſubdue all thine enemies. Furthermore, I tell thee, that the LORD will [i] build thee an houſe.

i Will give thee great poſterity.

11 ¶ And it ſhall come to paſs, when thy days be expired, that thou muſt go to be with thy fathers, that I will raiſe up thy ſeed after thee, which ſhall be of thy ſons, and I will eſtabliſh his kingdom.

12 He ſhall build me an houſe, and I will ſtabliſh his throne for [k] ever.

k That is, Unto the coming of Chriſt, for then theſe figures ſhould ceaſe.

14 But I will ſettle him in mine houſe, and in my kingdom for ever, and his throne ſhall be eſtabliſhed for evermore.

15 According to all theſe words, and according to all this viſion, ſo did Nathan ſpeak unto David.

16 ¶ And David the King [m] came, and ſat before the LORD, and ſaid, Who am I, O LORD God, and what is mine houſe, that thou haſt brought me [n] hitherto?

m He went into the tent where the Ark was, ſhewing what we ought to do when we receive any benefits of the Lord.
n Meaning, To this kingly eſtate.

17 And yet this was a ſmall thing in thine eyes, O God, for thou haſt alſo ſpoken of thy ſervant's houſe for a great while to come, and haſt regarded me according to the eſtate of a man of [o] high degree, O LORD God.

o Thou haſt promiſed a kingdom that ſhall continue to me and my poſterity, and that Chriſt ſhall proceed of me.

18 What can David ſpeak more to thee for the honour of thy ſervant? for thou knoweſt thy ſervant.

19 O LORD, for thy ſervant's ſake, and according to thine [p] own heart haſt thou done all this greatneſs, in making known all theſe † great things.

p Freely, and according to the purpoſe of thy will without any deſerving.
† Heb. greatneſs.

20 O LORD, there is none like thee, neither is there any God beſides thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

21 And what one nation in the earth is like thy people Iſrael, whom God went to redeem to be his own people, to make thee a name of greatneſs and terribleneſs, by driving out nations from before thy people whom thou haſt redeemed out of Egypt?

22 For thy people Iſrael didſt thou make thine own people for ever, and thou LORD, becameſt their God.

23 Therefore now LORD, let the thing that thou haſt ſpoken concerning thy ſervant, and concerning his houſe, be eſtabliſhed for ever, and do as thou haſt ſaid.

24 Let it even be eſtabliſhed, that thy name may be magnified for ever, ſaying, The LORD of hoſts is the God of [q] Iſrael, even a God to Iſrael: and let the houſe of David thy ſervant be eſtabliſhed before thee.

q That is, He ſheweth himſelf indeed to be their God, by delivering them from dangers, and preſerving them.

25 For thou, O my God, † [r] haſt told thy ſervant, that thou wilt build him an houſe: therefore thy ſervant hath found in his heart to pray before thee.

† Heb. haſt revealed the ear of thy ſervant.
r Thou haſt declared unto me by Nathan the Prophet.

26 And now, LORD, (thou art [s] God, and haſt promiſed this goodneſs unto thy ſervant)

s And canſt not break promiſe.

27 Now therefore ‡ let it pleaſe thee to bleſs the houſe of thy ſervant, that it may be before thee for ever: for thou bleſſeſt, O LORD, and it ſhall be bleſſed for ever.

‡ Or, it hath pleaſed thee.

CHAP.

Chap. XVIII.

1 David ſubdueth the Philiſtines and the Moabites. 3 He ſmiteth Hadarezer and the Syrians. 9 Tou ſendeth Hadoram with preſents to bleſs David. 11 The preſents and the ſpoil David dedicateth to God. 13 He putteth gariſons in Edom. 14 David's Officers.

NOw after this, it came to paſs, that David ſmote the Philiſtines, and ſubdued them, and took [a] Gath and her towns out of the hand of the Philiſtines.

[a] Which 2 Sam. 8. 1, is called the bridle of bondage, becauſe it was a ſtrong town, and kept the country round about in ſubjection.

2 And he ſmote Moab; and the Moabites became David's ſervants, and brought gifts.

3 ¶ And David ſmote ‡ Hadarezer King of Zobah unto Hamath, as he went to ſtabliſh his dominion by the river Euphrates.

‡ Or, Hadadezer, in 2 Sam. 8. 3.

4 And David took from him a thouſand chariots, and ſeven thouſand horſ-men, and twenty thouſand foot-men: David alſo houghed all the chariot-horſes, but reſerved of them an hundred chariots.

5 And when the Syrians of † Damaſcus came to help Hadarezer King of Zobah, David ſlew of the Syrians two and twenty thouſand men.

† Heb. Darmeſek.

6 Then David put gariſons in Syria-Damaſcus, and the Syrians became David's ſervants, and brought gifts. Thus the Lord [b] preſerved David whitherſoever he went.

[b] That is, In all things that he enterpriſed.

7 And David took the ſhields of gold that were on the ſervants of Hadarezer, and brought them to Jeruſalem.

8 Likewiſe from [c] Tibbath, and from Chun, cities of Hadarezer, brought David very much braſs, wherewith * Solomon made the braſen ſea, and the pillars, and the veſſels of braſs.

[c] Which, 2 Sam. 8. 8, are called Beta and Berothai.

* 1 King. 7. 23. 2 Chron. 4. 15.

9 ¶ Now when ‡ Tou King of Hamath heard how David had ſmitten all the hoſt of Hadarezer King of Zobah:

‡ Or, Toi. 2 Sam. 8. 9.

10 He ſent [d] Hadoram his ſon to King David, ‡ to enquire of his welfare, and † to congratulate him, becauſe he had fought againſt Hadarezer, and ſmitten him, (for Hadarezer † had warred with Tou) and with him all manner of veſſels of gold, and ſilver, and braſs.

[d] Called alſo Joram, 2 Sam. 8. 10.
‡ Or, to ſalute.
† Heb. to bleſs.

† Heb. was the man of wars.

11 ¶ Them alſo King David dedicated unto the Lord, with the ſilver and the gold that he brought from all theſe nations; from [e] Edom, and from Moab, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Philiſtines, & from Amalek.

[e] Becauſe the Edomites and the Syrians joyned their power together, it is ſaid, 2 Sam 8. 12, that the Aramites were ſpoiled.

12 Moreover, Abiſhai the ſon of Zerujah ſlew of the Edomites in the valley of ſalt, [f] eighteen thouſand.

[f] Which is underſtood that Joab ſlew twelve thouſand, as in the title of the 60 Pſalm, and Abiſhai the reſt.

13 ¶ And he put gariſons in Edom; and all the Edomites became David's ſervants. Thus the Lord preſerved David whitherſoever he went.

14 ¶ So David reigned over all Iſrael, and executed judgment and juſtice among all his people.

15 And Joab the ſon of Zerujah was over the hoſt, and Jehoſhaphat the ſon of Ahilud, ‡ recorder.

‡ Or, remembrancer.

16 And Zadok the ſon of Ahitub, and ‡ Abimelech the ſon of Abiathar, were the Prieſts, and ‡ Shauſha was ſcribe.

‡ Called Abimelech in 2 Sam. 8. 17.
‡ Called Seraiah in 2 Sam. 8. 17. & Shiſha, 1 King. 4. 3.

17 And Benajah the ſon of Jehojada was over the [g] Cherethites, and the Pelethites: and the ſons of David were chief † about the King.

[g] 2 Sam. 8. 18.
† Heb. at the hand of the King.

Chap. XIX.

1 David's meſſengers ſent to comfort Hanun the ſon of Nahaſh, are villanouſly entreated. 6 The Ammonites ſtrengthned by the Syrians, are overcome by Joab and Abiſhai. 16 Shophach making a new ſupply of the Syrians, is ſlain by David.

NOw * it came to paſs after this, that Nahaſh the king of the children of Ammon died, and his ſon reigned in his ſtead.

* 2 Sam. 10. 1, &c.

2 And David ſaid, I will ſhew kindneſs unto Hanun the ſon of Nahaſh, becauſe his [a] father ſhewed kindneſs to me. And David ſent meſſengers to comfort him concerning his father: ſo the ſervants of David came into the land of the children of Ammon, to Hanun, to comfort him.

[a] Becauſe Nahaſh received David and his company, when Saul perſecuted him, he would now ſhew pleaſure to his ſon for the ſame.

3 But the Princes of the children of Ammon ſaid to Hanun, † Thinkeſt thou that David doth honour thy father that he hath ſent comforters unto thee? are not his ſervants come unto thee for to [b] ſearch, and to overthrow, and to ſpy out the land?

† Heb. In thine eyes doth David, &c.

[b] Thus the malicious ever interpret the purpoſe of the godly in the worſt ſenſe.

4 Wherefore Hanun took David's ſervants, and [c] ſhaved them, and cut [d] off their garments in the midſt hard by their buttoks, and ſent them away.

[c] They ſhaved off the half of their beards, 2 Sam. 10. 4.
[d] To put them to ſhame and villany, whereas the ambaſſadors ought to have been honoured: and becauſe the Jews uſed to wear ſide garments and beards, they thus diſfigured them, to make them odious to others.

5 Then there went certain, and told David how the men were ſerved; and he ſent to meet them (for the men were greatly aſhamed) and the King ſaid, Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.

6 ¶ And when the children of Ammon ſaw that they had made themſelves † odious to David, Hanun and the children of Ammon ſent a thouſand talents of ſilver to hire them chariots and horſ-men out of Meſopotamia, and out of Syria-maachah, and out of [e] Zobah.

† Heb. to ſtink.

[e] Which were five in all.

7 So they hired thirty and two thouſand chariots, and the King of Maachah and his people, who came and pitched before [f] Medeba. And the children of Ammon gathered themſelves together from their cities, and came to battel.

[f] Which was a city of the tribe of Reuben beyond Jordan.

8 And when David heard of it, he ſent Joab, and all the hoſt of the mighty men.

9 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battel in aray before the gate of the city: and the Kings that were come, were by themſelves in the field.

10 Now when Joab ſaw that † the battel was ſet againſt him, before and behind, he choſe out of all the ‡ choiſe of Iſrael, and put them in aray againſt the Syrians.

† Heb. the face of the battel was.
‡ Or, young men.

11 And the reſt of the people he delivered unto the hand of † Abiſhai his brother, and they ſet themſelves in aray againſt the children of Ammon.

† Heb. Abiſhai.

12 And he ſaid, If the Syrians be too ſtrong for me, then thou ſhalt help me: but if the children of Ammon be too ſtrong for thee, then I will help thee.

13 Be of good courage, and let us behave our selves valiantly for our [s] people, and for the cities of our God: and let the LORD do that which is good in his sight.

g He declareth that where the cause is evil, the courage cannot be valiant, and that in good causes, men ought to be couragious, and commit the success to God.

14 So Joab and the people that were with him, drew nigh before the Syrians, unto the battel; and they fled before him.

15 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, they likewise fled before Abishai his brother, and entred into the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem.

16 ¶ And when the Syrians saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they sent messengers, and drew forth the Syrians that were beyond the [h] river: and ‡ Shophach the captain of the host of Hadarezer, went before them.

h That is, Euphrates.
‡ Or, Shobach, 2 Sam. 10. 16.

17 And it was told David, and he gathered all Israel, and passed over Jordan, and came upon them, and set the battel in aray against them: so when David had put the battel in aray against the Syrians, they fought with him.

18 But the Syrians fled before Israel, and David slew of the Syrians [i] seven thousand men, which fought in chariots, and fourty thousand foot-men, and killed Shophach the captain of the host.

i For this place, 2 Sam. 10. 18.

19 And when the servants of Hadarezer saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they made peace with David, and became his servants: neither would the Syrians help the children of Ammon any more.

CHAP. XX.

1 Rabbah is besieged by Joab, spoiled by David, and the people thereof tortured. 4 Three giants are slain in three several overthrows of the Philistines.

* 2 Sam. 11. 1.
† Heb. at the return of the year.

AND * it came to pass, that † after the year was expired, at the time that Kings go out to battel, Joab led forth the power of the army, and wasted the country of the children of Ammon, and came and besieged [a] Rabbah (but David tarried at Jerusalem) and Joab smote Rabbah, and destroyed it.

a Which was the chief city of the Ammonites.

* 2 Sam. 12. 30.
† Heb. the weight of.
b Which mounteth about the value of seven thousand and seventy crowns, which is about threescore pound weight.

2 And David * took the crown of their King from off his head, and found it † to weigh a [b] talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it, and it was set upon David's head; and he brought also exceeding much spoil out of the city.

3 And he brought out the people that were in it, and cut them with saws and with harrows of iron, and with axes: even so dealt David with all the cities of the children of Ammon. And David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

* 2 Sam. 21. 18.
‖ Or, continued.
† Heb. stood.
‡ Or, Gob.
⧫ Or, Rapha.

4 ¶ And it came to pass after this, * that there †‡ arose war at ‡ Gezer with the Philistines, at which time Sibbechai the Hushathite, slew Sippai that was of the children of ‡ the giant, and they were subdued.

‡ Called also Jaare-oregim.
c 2 Sam. 21. 19.

5 And there was war again with the Philistines, and Elhanan the son of ‡ Jair, slew [c] Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, whose spear-staff was like a weaver's beam.

* 2 Sam. 21. 20.
† Heb. a man of measure.

6 And yet again * there was war at Gath, where was † a man of great stature, whose fingers and toes were four and twenty, six on each hand, and six on each foot: and he also was † the son of the giant.

† Heb. born to the giant, or, Rapha.

7 But when he ‡ defied Israel, Jonathan the son of ‡ Shimea, David's brother, slew him.

‡ Or, reproached.
‡ Called Shammah. 1 Sam. 16. 9.

8 These were born unto the giant in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

CHAP. XXI.

1 David tempted by Satan, forceth Joab to number the people. 5 The number of the people being brought, David repenteth of it. 9 David having three plagues propounded by Gad, chooseth the pestilence. 14 After the death of seventy thousand, David by repentance preventeth the destruction of Jerusalem. 18 David, by Gad's direction, purchaseth Ornan's threshing-floor: where having built an Altar, God giveth a sign of his favour by fire, and stayeth the plague. 28 David sacrificeth there, being restrained from Gibeon by fear of the Angel.

* 2 Sam. 24. 1, &c. a He tempted David in setting before his eyes his excellency and glory, his power and victories.

AND *[a] Satan stood up against Israel, and provoked David to number Israel.

2 And David said to Joab, and to the rulers of the people, Go, number Israel from [b] Beer-sheba even to Dan; and bring the number of them to me, that I may know it.

b That is, From south to north.

3 And Joab answered, The LORD make his people an hundred times so many more as they be: but my Lord the King, are they not all my Lords servants? why then doth my Lord require this thing? why will he be a cause of [c] trespass to Israel?

c It was a thing indifferent and usual to number the people, but because he did it of an ambitious mind, as though his strength stood in his people, God punished him.

4 Nevertheless, the King's word prevailed against Joab: wherefore Joab departed, and went throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem.

5 ¶ And Joab gave the sum of the number of the people unto David. And all they of Israel were a thousand thousand and an [d] hundred thousand men that drew sword: and Judah was [e] four hundred threescore and ten thousand men that drew sword.

d Joab partly for grief, and partly through negligence gathered not the whole sum, as it is here declared.
e In Samuel is mention of thirty thousand more: which was either by joyning to them some of the Benjamites, which were mixed with Judah, or as the Hebrews write, here the chief and princes are left out.

6 But Levi and Benjamin counted he not among them: for the King's word was abominable to Joab.

7 † And God was displeased with this thing, therefore he smote Israel.

† Heb. And it was evil in the eyes of the LORD concerning this thing.

8 And David said unto God, * I have sinned greatly, because I have done this thing: but now, I beseech thee, do away the iniquity of thy servant, for I have done very foolishly.

* 2 Sam. 24. 10.

9 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Gad, David's seer, saying,

10 Go and tell David, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I † offer thee three things, choose thee one of them that I may do it unto thee.

† Heb. stretch out.

11 So Gad came to David, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, † Choose thee, † Heb. take to thee.

12 Either three years famine, or three months to be destroyed before thy foes, (while that the sword of thine enemies overtaketh thee) or else three days the sword of the LORD, even the pestilence in the land, and the Angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the coasts of Israel: now therefore advise thy self, what word I shall bring again to him that sent me.

13 And

13 And David said unto Gad, I am in a great strait: let me fall now into the hand of the LORD, (for very ‡ great are his mercies) but let me not fall into the hand of man.

‡ Or, many.

14 ¶ So the LORD sent pestilence upon Israel: and there fell of Israel seventy thousand men.

15 And God sent an * Angel unto Jerusalem to destroy it: and [f] as he was destroying, the LORD beheld, and he [g] repented him of the evil, and said to the Angel that destroyed, It is enough, stay now thine hand. And the Angel of the LORD stood by the threshing-floor of ‡ Ornan the Jebusite.

* 2 Sam. 24. 16.

f 2 Sam. 24. 16.

g When God draweth back his plagues, he seemeth to repent, Read Gen. 6. 6.

‡ Or, Araunah, 2 Sam. 24. 18.

16 And David lift up his eyes, and saw the Angel of the LORD stand between the earth and the heaven, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem: then David and the elders of Israel, who were clothed in sackcloth, fell upon their faces.

17 And David said unto God, Is it not I that commanded the people to be numbred? even I it is that have sinned and done evil indeed; but as for these sheep, what have they done? let thine hand, I pray thee, O LORD my God, be on me, and on my father's house, but not on [h] thy people, that they should be plagued.

h Thus he both sheweth a true repentance, and a fatherly care toward his people, which desireth God to spare them and to punish him and his.

18 ¶ Then the * Angel of the LORD commanded Gad to say to David, that David should go up and set up an Altar unto the LORD, in the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

* 2 Chron. 3. 1.

19 And David went up at the saying of Gad, which he spake in the name of the LORD.

‡ Or, When Ornan turned back and saw the Angel, then he and his four sons with him hid themselves.

20 ‡ And Ornan turned back, and saw the Angel; and his four sons with him [i] hid themselves. Now Ornan was threshing wheat.

i If a man hide himself at the sight of an Angel which is a creature, howmuch lesse is a sinner able to appear before the face of God.

21 And as David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David, and went out of the threshing-floor, and bowed himself to David with his face to the ground.

22 Then David said to Ornan, † Grant me the place of this threshing-floor, that I may build an [k] Altar therein unto the LORD: thou shalt grant it me for the full price, that the plague may be stayed from the people.

† Heb. Give.

k Thus he did by the commandment of God, as vers. 18, for else it had been abominable, except he had either Gods word, or revelation.

23 And Ornan said unto David, Take it to thee, and let my lord the king do that which is good in his eyes: lo, I give thee the oxen also for burnt-offerings, and the threshing-instruments for wood, and the wheat for the meat-offering, I give it all.

24 And King David said to Ornan, Nay, but I will verily buy it for the full price: for I will not take that which is thine for the LORD, nor offer burnt-offerings without [l] cost.

l That is, As much as it is worth: for having enough of his own, and yet to have taken of another man's goods to offer unto the Lord, it had been theft, and not acceptable to God.

25 So David gave to Ornan for the place, [m] six hundred shekels of gold by weight.

m 2 Sam. 24. 24.

26 And David built there an Altar unto the LORD, and offered burnt-offerings and peace-offerings, and called upon the LORD and he [n] answered him from heaven by fire upon the Altar of burnt-offering.

n God declared that he heard his request, in that he sent down fire from heaven, for else they might use no fire in sacrifice, but of that which was reserved still upon the altar, Levit. 6. 13. and came down from heaven, Levit. 9. 24, as appeared by the punishment of Nadab and Abihu. Levit. 10. 1.

27 And the LORD commanded the angel, and he put up his sword again into the sheath thereof.

28 ¶ At that time, when David saw that the LORD had answered him in the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite, then he sacrificed there.

29 For the tabernacle of the LORD which Moses made in the wilderness, and the altar of the burnt-offering were at that season in the high place at * Gibeon.

* 1 King. 3. 4. Chap. 16. 39. 2 Chron. 1. 3.

30 But David could not go before it to enquire of God; for he was afraid, because of the sword of the Angel of the LORD.

CHAP. XXII.

1 David fore-knowing the place of the Temple, prepareth abundance for the building of it. 6 He instructeth Solomon in God's promises, and his duty in building the Temple. 17 He chargeth the Princes to assist his son.

THen David said, This is the [a] house of the LORD God, and this is the Altar of the burnt-offering for Israel.

a That is, The place wherein he will be worshipped

2 And David commanded to gather together the [b] strangers that were in the land of Israel, and he set masons to hew wrought stones to build the house of God.

b Meaning, Cunning men of other nations, which dwelt among the Jews.

3 And David prepared iron in [c] abundance for the nails for the doors of the gates, and for the joynings; and brass in abundance without weight;

c To wit, which weighed fifty shekels of gold, 2 Chron. 3. 9.

4 Also cedar-trees in abundance: for the Zidonians, and they of Tyre, brought much cedar-wood to David.

5 And David said, * Solomon my son is young and tender, and the house that is to be builded for the LORD, must be exceeding magnifical, of fame and of glory throughout all countrys: I will therefore now make preparation for it. So David prepared abundantly before his death.

* Chap. 29. 1.

6 ¶ Then he called for Solomon his son, and charged him to build an house for the LORD God of Israel.

7 And David said to Solomon, My son, as for me, it was in my mind to build an house unto the name of the LORD my God:

8 But the word of the LORD came to me, saying, * [d] Thou hast shed bloud abundantly, and hast made great wars: thou shalt not build an house unto my name, because thou hast shed much bloud upon the earth in my sight.

* Chap. 28. 3.

d This declareth how greatly God detesteth the shedding of bloud, seeing David for this cause is stayed to build the Temple of the Lord, albeit he enterprised no war, but by God's commandment, and against his enemies.

9 Behold, a son shall be born to thee, who shall be a man of rest, and I will give him rest from all his enemies round about: for his name shall be ‡ Solomon, and I will give peace and quietness unto Israel in his days.

‡ That is, peaceable.

10 * He shall build an house for my name, and he shall be my son, and I will be his father, and I will establish the throne of his Kingdom over Israel for ever.

* 2 Sam. 7. 13.

11 Now my son, the LORD be with thee, and [e] prosper thou, and build the house of the LORD thy God, as he hath said of thee.

e He sheweth that there can be no prosperity but when the Lord is with us.

12 Onely the LORD give thee [f] wisdom and understanding, and give thee charge concerning Israel, that thou mayest keep the law of the LORD thy God.

f These are only the means whereby Kings govern their subjects aright, and whereby the Realms do prosper and flourish.

13 Then shalt thou prosper, if thou takest heed heed to fulfil the ſtatutes and judgments which the LORD charged Moſes with, concerning Iſrael: be ſtrong, and of good courage, dread not, nor be diſmayed.

‡ Or, in my poverty. g For David was poor in reſpect of Solomon.

14 Now behold, ‡ g in my trouble I have prepared for the houſe of the LORD an hundred thouſand talents of gold, and a thouſand thouſand talents of ſilver; and of braſs, and iron, without * weight (for it is in abundance) timber alſo and ſtone have I prepared, and thou mayſt add thereto.

* As ver. 3.

‡ That is, maſons and carpenters.

15 Moreover, there are workmen with thee in abundance, hewers, and ‡ workers of ſtone and timber, and all manner of cunning men for every manner of work.

16 Of the gold, the ſilver, and the braſs, and the iron, there is no number. h Ariſe therefore, and be doing, and the LORD be with thee.

h That is, Go about it quickly.

17 ¶ David alſo commanded all the princes of Iſrael to help Solomon his ſon, ſaying, 18 Is not the LORD your God with you? and hath he not given you reſt on every ſide? for he hath given the † inhabitants of the land into mine hand, and the land is ſubdued before the LORD, and before his people.

† The nations round about.

k For eth he knew that God would plague them, and not proſper their labours, except they ſought with all their hearts to ſet forth his glory.

19 Now k ſet your heart and your ſoul to ſeek the LORD your God, ariſe therefore, and build ye the ſanctuary of the LORD God, to bring the Ark of the covenant of the LORD, and the holy veſſels of God, into the houſe that is to be built to the name of the LORD.

* Num. 4. 3.

4 Of which, twenty and four thouſand were ‡ to ſet forward the work of the houſe of the LORD: and ſix thouſand were officers and judges.

b They were but of the order of the Levites, and not of the Prieſts, as Aaron's ſons.

15 * The ſons of Moſes were, Gerſhom and Eliezer.

* Exod. 2. 22. & 18. 3, 4.

16 Of the ſons of Gerſhom, Shebuel was the chief.

3 And David distributed them, both Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, according to their offices in their service.

5 Thus were they divided by lot, one sort with another; for the governours of the sanctuary, and Governours of the house of God, were of the sons of Eleazar, and of the sons of Ithamar.

6 And Shemajah the son of Nethanael the scribe, one of the Levites, wrote them before the King and the Princes, & Zadok the Priest, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and before the chief of the fathers of the Priests and Levites: one † principal household being taken for Eleazar, and one taken for Ithamar.

11 ¶ Then David gave to Solomon his ſon the pattern of the porch, and of the houſes thereof, and of the treaſuries thereof, and of the upper chambers thereof, and of the inner parlours thereof, and of the place of the mercy-ſeat,

18 And for the altar of incenſe, refined gold by weight; and gold for the pattern of the [i] chariot of the * cherubims, that ſpread out their wings, and covered the Ark of the covenant of the LORD.

19 All this, ſaid David, the LORD made me underſtand in writing by his [k] hand upon me, even all the works of this pattern.

20 And David ſaid to Solomon his ſon, Be ſtrong and of good courage, and do it: fear not, nor be diſmayed, for the LORD God, even my God, will be with thee, he will not fail thee, nor forſake thee, until thou haſt finiſhed all the work for the ſervice of the houſe of the LORD.

21 And behold, the courſes of the Prieſts and the Levites, even they ſhall be with thee for all the ſervice of the houſe of God, and there ſhall be with thee for all manner of workmanſhip, every [l] willing skilful man, for any manner of ſervice: alſo the princes and all the people will be wholly at thy commandment.

CHAP. XXIX.

FUrthermore, David the King ſaid unto all the congregation, Solomon my ſon, whom alone God hath choſen, is yet * young and tender, and the work is great: for the palace is not for man, but for the [a] LORD God

2 Now I have prepared with all my might for the houſe of my God, the gold for things to be made of gold, and the ſilver for things of ſilver, and the braſs for things of braſs, the iron for things of iron, & wood for things of wood; onyx-ſtones, & ſtones to be ſet, gliſtring ſtones, and of divers colours, and all manner of precious ſtones, and marble-ſtones in abundance.

3 Moreover, becauſe I have ſet my [b] affection to the houſe of my God, I have of mine own proper good, of gold and ſilver, which I have given to the houſe of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy houſe,

4 Even [c] three thouſand talents of gold, of the gold of * Ophir, and ſeven thouſand talents of refined ſilver, to overlay the walls of the houſe withal:

5 The gold for things of gold, and the ſilver for things of ſilver, and for all manner of work to be made by the hands of artificers. And who then is [d] willing † to conſecrate his ſervice this day unto the LORD?

6 ¶ Then the chief of the fathers and princes of the tribes of Iſrael, and the captains of thouſands and of hundreds, with the rulers over the King's work, offered willingly,

7 And gave for the ſervice of the houſe of God, of gold, five thouſand talents, and ten thouſand drams; and of ſilver, ten thouſand talents; and of braſs, eighteen thouſand talents; and one hundred thouſand talents of iron.

8 And they with whom precious ſtones were [e] found, gave them to the treaſure of the houſe of the LORD, by the hand of Jehiel the Gerſhonite.

9 Then the people rejoyced, for that they offered willingly, becauſe with [f] perfect heart they offered willingly to the LORD: and David the King alſo rejoyced with great joy.

10 ¶ Wherefore David bleſſed the LORD before all the congregation: and David ſaid, Bleſſed be thou, LORD God of [g] Iſrael our father, for ever and ever.

11 *Thine, O LORD, is the greatneſs, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majeſty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth, is thine; thine is the kingdom, O LORD, and thou art exalted as head above all.

12 Both riches and honour come of thee, and thou reigneſt over all, and in thine hand is power and might, and in thine hand it is to make great, and to give ſtrength unto all.

13 Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praiſe thy glorious name.

15 For * we are [i] ſtrangers before thee, and ſojourners, as were all our fathers: * our days on the earth are as a ſhadow, and there is none † abiding.

16 O LORD our God, all this ſtore that we have prepared to build thee an houſe for thine holy name, cometh of thine hand, and is all thine own.

17 I know alſo, my God, that thou * trieſt the heart, and haſt pleaſure in uprightneſs. As for me, in the uprightneſs of mine heart I have willingly offered all theſe things: & now have I ſeen with joy, thy people which are † preſent here, to offer willingly unto thee.

18 O LORD God of Abraham, Iſaac, and of Iſrael our fathers, keep this for ever in the [k] imagination of the thoughts of the heart of thy people, and ‡ prepare their heart unto thee.

19 And give unto Solomon my ſon a perfect heart to keep thy commandments, thy teſtimonies and thy ſtatutes, and to do all theſe things, and to build the palace, for the which I have made proviſion.

20 ¶ And David ſaid to all the congregation, Now bleſs the LORD your God. And all the congregation bleſſed the LORD God of their fathers, and bowed down their heads, and worſhipped the LORD and the [l] King.

21 And they ſacrificed ſacrifices unto the LORD, and offered burnt-offerings unto the LORD on the morrow after that day, even a thouſand bullocks, a thouſand rams, and a thouſand lambs, with their [m] drink-offerings, and ſacrifices in abundance for all Iſrael:

THE SECOND BOOK OF THE CHRONICLES.

THE ARGUMENT.

THis ſecond Book containeth briefly in effect, That which is comprehended in the two Books of the Kings: that is, From the reign of Solomon to the deſtruction of Jeruſalem, and the carrying away of the people captive into Babylon. In this ſtory are certain things declared and ſet forth more copiouſly than in the Books of the Kings, and therefore ſerve greatly to the underſtanding of the Prophets. But three things are here chiefly to be conſidered. Firſt, That the godly Kings, when they ſaw the plagues of God prepared againſt their country for ſin, had recourſe to the Lord; and by earneſt prayer were heard, and the plagues removed. The ſecond, How it is a thing that greatly offendeth God, that ſuch as fear him and profeſs his Religion, ſhould joyn in amity with the wicked. And thirdly, How the good rulers ever loved the Prophets of God, and were very zealous to ſet forth his Religion throughout all their dominions, and contrariwiſe the wicked hated his miniſters, depoſed them, and for the true religion and word of God, ſet up idolatry, and ſerved God according to the fantaſie of men. Thus have we hitherto the chief acts from the beginning of the World to the building again of Jeruſalem, which was the two and thirtieth year of Darius, and contain in the whole, three thouſand five hundred threeſcore and eighteen years and ſix months.

CHAP. I.

1 The ſolemn offering of Solomon at Gibeon. 7 Solomon's choice of wiſdom is bleſſed by God. 13 Solomon's ſtrength and wealth.

* 1 King. 2. 46. AND * Solomon the ſon of David was ſtrengthned in his kingdom, and the LORD his God was with him, and magnified him exceedingly.

2 Then Solomon [a] ſpake unto all Iſrael, to the captains of thouſands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every governour in all Iſrael, the chief of the fathers.

3 So Solomon and all the congregation with him, went to the high place that was at [b] * Gibeon, for there was the tabernacle of the [c] congregation of God, which Moſes the ſervant of the LORD had made in the wilderneſs.

4 * But the Ark of God had David brought up from Kirjath-jearim, to the place which David had prepared for it: for he had pitched a tent for it at Jeruſalem.

5 Moreover, * [d] the braſen altar that Bezaleel the ſon of Uri, the ſon of Hur, had made, ‡ he put before the tabernacle of the LORD: and Solomon and the congregation ſought unto it.

6 And Solomon went up thither to the braſen altar before the LORD, which was at the tabernacle of the congregation, and offered a thouſand burnt-offerings upon it.

7 ¶ In that night did God appear unto Solomon, and ſaid unto him, Ask what I ſhall give thee.

8 And Solomon ſaid unto God, Thou haſt ſhewed great mercy unto David my father, and haſt made me * to reign in his ſtead.

9 Now, O LORD God, let thy promiſe unto David my father be [e] eſtabliſhed: * for thou haſt made me King over a people, † like the duſt of the earth in multitude.

10 * Give me now wisdom and knowledge, that I may *[f] go out and come in before this people: for who can judge this thy people, that is so great?

11 And God said to Solomon, Because this was in thine heart, and thou hast not asked riches, wealth, or honour, nor the [g] life of thine enemies, neither yet hast asked long life; but hast asked wisdom and knowledge for thy self, that thou mayest judge my people, over whom I have made thee King:

12 Wisdom and knowledge is granted unto thee, and I will give thee riches, and wealth, and honour, such as * none of the Kings have had, that have been before thee, neither shall there any after thee have the like.

13 ¶ Then Solomon came from his journy to the high place that was at Gibeon, to Jerusalem, from before the tabernacle of the congregation, and reigned over Israel.

14 * And Solomon gathered chariots and hors-men: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsmen, which he placed in the [h] chariot-cities, and with the King at Jerusalem.

15 * And the King † made silver and gold at Jerusalem as plenteous as [i] stones, and cedar-trees made he as the sycomore-trees that are in the vale for abundance.

16 And † Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and linen yarn: the King's [k] merchants received the linen yarn at a price.

17 And they fetcht up, and brought forth out of Egypt a chariot for six hundred shekels of silver, and an horse for an hundred and fifty: and so brought they out horses for all the Kings of the Hittites, and for the Kings of Syria, † by their means.

Chap. II.

1, 17 Solomon's labourers for the building of the Temple.
3 His embassage to Huram for workmen and provision of stuff. 11 Huram sendeth him a kind answer.

AND Solomon determined to build an house for the name of the LORD, and an house for his kingdom.

2 And Solomon told out threescore and ten thousand men to bear burdens, and fourscore thousand to hew in the mountain, and three thousand and [a] six hundred to oversee them.

3 ¶ And Solomon sent to ‡ Huram the King of Tyre, saying, As thou didst deal with David my father, and didst send him cedars to build him an house to dwell therein, even so deal with me.

4 Behold, I build an house to the name of the LORD my God, to dedicate it to him, and to burn before him † sweet incense, and for the continual shew-bread, and for the burnt-offerings morning and evening, on the sabbaths, and on the new-moons, and on the solemn feasts of the LORD our God. This is an ordinance for ever to Israel.

5 And the house which I build is great: for great is our God above all Gods.

6 * But who † is able to build him an house, seeing the heaven, and heaven of heavens cannot contain him? who am I then that I should build him an house, save only to [b] burn sacrifice before him?

7 Send me now therefore a man, cunning to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in iron, and purple, and crimson, and blue, and that can skill † to grave with the cunning men that are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, whom David my father did provide.

8 Send me also cedar-trees, fir-trees, and ‡ [c] algum-trees out of Lebanon: (for I know that thy servant can skill to cut timber in Lebanon) and behold, my servants shall be with thy servants, 9 Even to prepare me timber in abundance: for the house which I am about to build, shall be † wonderful great.

10 And behold, I will give to thy servants, the hewers that cut timber, twenty thousand measures of beaten wheat, and twenty thousand measures of barley, and twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty [d] thousand baths oyl.

11 ¶ Then Huram the King of Tyre answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon, Because the LORD hath loved his people, he hath made thee King over them.

12 Huram said moreover, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel that made heaven and earth, who hath given to David the King a [e] wise son, † endued with prudence and understanding, that might build an house for the LORD, and an house for his kingdom.

13 And now I have sent a cunning man (endued with understanding) of Huram my fathers;

14 The son of a woman of the [f] daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre, skilful to work in gold and in silver, in brass, in iron, in stone and in timber, in purple, in blue, and in fine linen, and in crimson: also to grave any manner of graving, and to find out every device which shall be put to him, with thy cunning men, and with the cunning men of my Lord David thy father.

15 Now therefore the wheat, and the barley, the oyl, and the wine which my Lord hath spoken of, let him send unto his servants:

16 And we will cut wood out of Lebanon, † as much as thou shalt need, and we will bring it to thee in flotes by sea to † Joppa, and thou shalt carry it up to Jerusalem.

17 ¶ * And Solomon numbred all † the strangers that were in the land of Israel, after the numbring wherewith David his father had numbred them; and they were found an hundred and fifty thousand and three thousand and six hundred.

18 And he set * threescore and ten thousand of them to be bearers of burdens, and fourscore thousand to be hewers in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred overseers to set the people a work.

4 And the * porch that was in the front of the house, the length of it was according to the [c] breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the height was an [d] hundred and twenty: and he overlaid it within with pure gold.

7 He overlaid also the house, the beams, the posts, and the walls thereof, and the doors thereof with gold, and graved cherubims on the walls.

8 And he made the most holy house, the length whereof was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits: and he overlaid it with fine gold amounting to six hundred talents.

9 And the weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold: and he overlaid the upper chambers with gold.

3 * And [b] under it was the similitude of oxen, which did compass it round about: [c] ten in a cubit compassing the sea round about. Two rows of oxen were cast, when it was cast.

4 It stood upon twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea was set above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward.

d In the first Book of Kings, Chap. 7. 26, mention is only made of two thousand: but the less number was taken there, and here according as the measures proved afterward as declared.

6 ¶ He made also ten lavers, and put five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them: † such things as they offered for the burnt-offering, they washed in them; but the sea was for the Priests to wash in.

CHAP. V.

1 The dedicated treaſures. 2 The ſolemn induction of the Ark into the oracle. 11 God being praiſed, giveth a viſible ſign of his favour.

THus all the work that Solomon made for the houſe of the LORD, was finiſhed: * and Solomon brought in all the things that David his father had dedicated; and the ſilver, and the gold, and all the inſtruments, put he among the treaſures of the houſe of God.

* 1 King. 7. 51.

2 ¶ * Then Solomon aſſembled the elders of Iſrael, and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the children of Iſrael unto Jeruſalem, to bring up the Ark of the covenant of the LORD, out of the [a] city of David, which is Zion.

* 1 King. 8. 2, &c. a 2 Sam. 6. 12.

3 Wherefore all the men of Iſrael aſſembled themſelves unto the King in the [b] feaſt, which was in the ſeventh [c] month.

b When the things were dedicated, and brought into the Temple.
c Called in Hebrew Ethanim, containing part of October, 1 King. 8. 2. which month the Jews called the firſt month, becauſe they ſay, that the world was created in that month, and after they came from Egypt, they began at March: but becauſe this opinion is uncertain, we make March ever the firſt, as beſt writers do.

4 And all the elders of Iſrael came, and the Levites took up the Ark.

5 And they brought up the Ark, and the Tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy veſſels that were in the tabernacle, theſe did the Prieſts and the Levites bring up.

6 Alſo King Solomon and all the congregation of Iſrael that were aſſembled unto him before the Ark, ſacrificed ſheep and oxen, which could not be told nor numbred for multitude.

7 And the Prieſts brought in the Ark of the covenant of the LORD unto his place, to the oracle of the houſe into the moſt holy place, even under the wings of the cherubims.

8 For the cherubims ſpread forth their wings over the place of the Ark, and the cherubims covered the Ark and the ſtaves thereof, above.

9 And they drew out the ſtaves of the Ark, that the ends of the ſtaves were ſeen from the Ark before the oracle, but they were not ſeen without. And ‡ there it is unto this day.

‡ Or, they are there, as 1 King. 8. 8.

10 There was nothing in the Ark [d] ſave the two Tables which Moſes * put therein at Horeb, ‡ when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Iſrael, when they came out of Egypt.

d For Aaron's rod and Manna were taken thence before it was brought to this place.
* Deut. 10. 2, 5.
‡ Or, where.

11 ¶ And it came to paſs when the Prieſts were come out of the holy place: (for all the Prieſts that were † preſent were [e] ſanctified, and did not then wait by courſe.

12 * Alſo the Levites which were the ſingers, all of them of Aſaph, of Heman, of Jeduthun, with their ſons, and their brethren, being arayed in white linen, having cymbals, and pſalteries, and harps, ſtood at the eaſt-end of the altar, and with them an hundred and twenty Prieſts, ſounding with trumpets)

* 1 Chron. 25. 1.

13 It came even to paſs, as the trumpeters and ſingers were as [f] one, to make one ſound to be heard in praiſing and thanking the LORD; and when they lift up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals, and inſtruments of muſick, and praiſed the LORD, ſaying, [g] For he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever: that then the houſe was filled with a cloud, even the houſe of the LORD;

f They agreed all in one tune.
g This was the effect of their ſongs, as Pſal. 118. 1. & 136. 1.

14 So that the Prieſts could not ſtand to miniſter by reaſon of the cloud: for the glory of the LORD had filled the houſe of God.

CHAP. VI.

1 Solomon having bleſſed the people, bleſſeth God. 12 Solomon's prayer in the conſecration of the Temple, upon the braſen ſcaffold.

THen * [a] ſaid Solomon, the LORD hath ſaid that he would dwell in the * thick darkneſs.

* 1 King. 8. 12, &c. a After that he had ſeen the glory of the Lord in the cloud.
* Levit. 16. 2.

2 But I have built an houſe of habitation for thee, and a place for thy dwelling for ever.

3 And the King turned his face, and bleſſed the whole congregation of Iſrael, (and all the congregation of Iſrael ſtood)

4 And he ſaid, Bleſſed be the LORD God of Iſrael, who hath with his hands fulfilled that which he ſpake with his mouth to my father David, ſaying,

5 Since the day that I brought forth my people out of the land of Egypt, I choſe no city among all the tribes of Iſrael to build an houſe in, that my name might be there, neither choſe I any man to be a ruler over my people Iſrael:

6 But I haven choſen Jeruſalem, that my name might be there, and have choſen David to be over my people Iſrael.

7 Now * it was in the heart of David my father to build an houſe for the name of the LORD God of Iſrael.

* 2 Sam. 7. 2. 1 Chron. 28. 2.

8 But the LORD ſaid to David my father, Foraſmuch as it was in thine heart to build an houſe for my name, thou didſt well in that it was in thine heart:

9 Notwithſtanding, thou ſhalt not build the houſe, but thy ſon which ſhall come forth out of thy loyns, he ſhall build the houſe for my name.

10 The LORD therefore hath performed his word that he hath ſpoken: for I am riſen up in the room of David my father, and am ſet on the throne of Iſrael, as the LORD promiſed, and have built the houſe for the name of the LORD God of Iſrael.

11 And in it have I put the Ark, wherein is the [b] covenant of the LORD, that he made with the children of Iſrael.

12 ¶ And he [c] ſtood before the altar of the LORD, in the preſence of all the congregation of Iſrael, and ſpread forth his hands;

13 (For Solomon had made a braſen ſcaffold, of five cubits † long, and five cubits broad, and three cubits high, and had ſet it in the midſt of the court, and upon it he ſtood, and kneeled down upon his knees before all the congregation of Iſrael, and [d] ſpread forth his hands towards heaven)

14 And ſaid, O LORD God of Iſrael, * there is no God like thee in the heaven, nor in the earth; which keepeſt covenant, and ſheweſt mercy unto thy ſervants, that walk before thee with all their hearts:

15 Thou which haſt kept with thy ſervant David my father, that which thou haſt promiſed him; and ſpakeſt with thy mouth, and haſt fulfilled it with thine hand, as it is this day.

16 Now therefore, O LORD God of Iſrael, keep with thy ſervant David my father, that which thou haſt promiſed him, ſaying, * † There ſhall not fail thee a man in my ſight to ſit upon the throne of Iſrael; * yet ſo, that thy children take heed to their way to walk in my law, as thou haſt walked before me.

17 Now then, O LORD God of Iſrael, let thy word be verified, which thou haſt ſpoken unto thy ſervant David.

18 (But will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth? * behold, heaven, and the heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much leſs this houſe which I have built?)

19 Have reſpect therefore to the prayer of thy ſervant, and to his ſupplication, O LORD my God, to hearken unto the cry and the prayer which thy ſervant prayeth before thee:

20 That thine [e] eyes may be open upon this houſe day and night, upon the place whereof thou haſt ſaid, that thou wouldeſt put thy name there; to hearken unto the prayer, which thy ſervant prayeth ‡ toward this place.

21 Hearken therefore unto the ſupplications of thy ſervant, and of thy people Iſrael, which they ſhall † make towards this place: hear thou from thy dwelling-place, even from heaven; and when thou heareſt, forgive.

22 ¶ If a man ſin againſt his [f] neighbour, † and an oath be laid upon him, to make him ſwear, and the oath come before thine altar in this houſe:

23 Then hear thou from heaven, and do and judge thy ſervants by requiting the wicked, by recompenſing his way upon his [g] own head, and by juſtifying the righteous, by giving him according to his righteouſneſs.

24 ¶ And if thy people Iſrael ‡ be put to the worſe before the enemy, becauſe they have ſinned againſt thee; and ſhall return and confeſs thy name, and pray and make ſupplication before thee ‡ in this houſe:

25 Then hear thou from the heavens, and forgive the ſin of thy people Iſrael, and bring them again unto the land which thou gaveſt to them, and to their fathers.

26 ¶ When the * heaven is ſhut up, and there is no rain, becauſe they have ſinned againſt thee; yet if they pray towards this place, and confeſs thy name, and turn from their ſin when thou doſt afflict them:

27 Then hear thou from heaven, and forgive the ſin of thy ſervants, and of thy people Iſrael, when thou haſt taught them the good way, wherein they ſhould walk; and ſend rain upon thy land which thou haſt given unto thy people for an inheritance.

28 ¶ If there * be dearth in the land, if there be peſtilence, if there be blaſting, or mildew, locuſts, or caterpillers; if their enemies beſiege them † in the cities of their land; whatſoever ſore, or whatſoever ſickneſs there be:

29 Then what prayer, or what ſupplication ſoever ſhall be made of any man, or of all thy people Iſrael, when every one ſhall know his own ſore, and his own grief, and ſhall ſpread forth his hands ‡ in this houſe:

30 Then hear thou from heaven thy dwelling-place, and forgive, and render unto every man according unto all his ways, whoſe heart [h] thou knoweſt: (for thou only * knoweſt the hearts of the children of men)

31 That they may fear thee, to walk in thy ways † ſo long as they live † in the land which thou gaveſt unto our fathers.

32 ¶ Moreover, concerning the ſtranger, * which is not of thy people Iſrael, but is come from a far country for thy great name's ſake, and thy mighty hand, and thy ſtretched-out arm; if they come and [i] pray in this houſe:

33 Then hear thou from the heavens, even from thy dwelling-place, and do according to all that the ſtranger calleth to thee for; that all people of the earth may know thy name, and fear thee, as doth thy people Iſrael, and may know that † this houſe which I have built, is called by thy name.

34 If thy people go out to war againſt their enemies by the way that [k] thou ſhalt ſend them, and they pray unto thee toward this city which thou haſt choſen, and the houſe which I have built for thy name:

35 Then hear thou from the heavens their prayer and their ſupplication, and maintain their ‡ cauſe.

36 If they ſin againſt thee, (for there is * no man which ſinneth not) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them over before their enemies, and † they carry them away captives unto a land far off or near;

CHAP. VII.

1 God having given teſtimony to Solomon's prayer by fire from heaven, and glory in the Temple, the people worſhip him. 4 Solomon's ſolemn ſacrifice. 8 Solomon having kept the feaſt of tabernacles, and the feaſt of the dedication of the altar, diſmiſſeth the people. 12 God appearing to Solomon, giveth him promiſes upon condition.

* 1 King. 8. 54.

NOw * when Solomon had made an end of praying, the *[a] fire came down from heaven and conſumed the burnt-offering, and the ſacrifices; and the glory of the LORD filled the houſe.

* Levit. 9. 24.
[a] Hereby God declared that he was pleaſed with Solomon's prayer.

2 And the Prieſts could not enter into the houſe of the LORD, becauſe the glory of the LORD had filled the LORD's houſe.

3 And when all the children of Iſrael ſaw how the fire came down, and the glory of the LORD upon the houſe, they bowed themſelves with their faces to the ground upon the pavement, and worſhipped, and praiſed the LORD, ſaying, For he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever.

4 ¶ Then the King and all the people offered ſacrifices before the LORD.

5 And King Solomon offered a ſacrifice of twenty and two thouſand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thouſand ſheep: ſo the King and all the people dedicated the houſe of God.

* 1 Chron. 15. 16.

6 * And the Prieſts waited on their offices: the Levites alſo with inſtruments of muſick of the LORD, which David the King had made to praiſe the LORD, becauſe his mercy endureth for ever, when David praiſed † by their miniſtry: and the Prieſts ſounded trumpets before them, and all Iſrael ſtood.

† Heb. by their hand.

7 Moreover, Solomon hallowed the middle of the court that was before the houſe of the LORD: for there he offered burnt-offerings, and the fat of the peace-offerings, becauſe the braſen altar which Solomon had made, was not able to receive the burnt-offerings, and the meat-offerings, and the fat.

8 ¶ Alſo at the ſame time Solomon kept the [b] feaſt ſeven days, and all Iſrael with him, a very great congregation, from the entring in of Hamath, unto * the river of Egypt.

[b] The feaſt of the Tabernacles which was kept in the ſeventh month.
* Joſh. 13. 3.

9 And in the eighth day they made † [c] a ſolemn aſſembly: for they kept the dedication of the altar ſeven days, and the feaſt ſeven days.

† Heb. a reſtraint.
[c] They aſſembled to hear the word of God, after that they had remained ſeven days in the boothes or Tabernacles.

10 And on the [d] three and twentieth day of the ſeventh month, he ſent the people away into their tents, glad and merry in heart for the goodneſs that the LORD had ſhewed unto David, and to Solomon, and to Iſrael his people.

[d] They had leave to depart the two and twentieth day, 1 King. 8. 66. but they went not away till the next day.

11 Thus * Solomon finiſhed the houſe of the LORD, and the King's houſe: and all that came into Solomon's heart to make in the houſe of the LORD, and in his own houſe, he proſperouſly effected.

* 1 King. 9. 1, &c.

12 ¶ And the LORD appeared to Solomon by night, and ſaid unto him, I have heard thy prayer, * and have choſen this place to my ſelf for an houſe of ſacrifice.

† Heb. upon whom my name is called.
[e] I will cauſe the peſtilence to ceaſe, and deſtroy the beaſts that hurt the fruits of the earth, and ſend rain in due ſeaſon.

15 Now * mine eyes ſhall be open, and mine ears attent † unto the prayer that is made in this place.

18 Then will I ſtabliſh the throne of thy kingdom, according as I have covenanted with David, thy father, ſaying, * † There ſhall not fail thee a man to be ruler in Iſrael.

* Chap. 6. 16.

20 Then will I pluck them up by the roots out of my land which I have given them; and this houſe which I have [f] ſanctified for my name, will I caſt out of my ſight, and will make it to be a proverb, and a by-word among all nations.

[f] Which thing declareth that God had more reſpect to their ſalvation, than to the advancement of his own glory: and whereas men abuſe thoſe things, which God hath appointed to ſet forth his praiſe, he doth withdraw his graces thence.

AND * when the Queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, ſhe came to [a] prove Solomon with hard queſtions at Jeruſalem, with a very great company, and camels that bare ſpices, and gold in abundance, and precious ſtones: and when ſhe was come to Solomon, ſhe communed with him of all that was in her heart.

8 Bleſſed be the LORD thy God, which delighted in thee to ſet thee on his [c] throne, to be King for the LORD thy God: becauſe thy God loved Iſrael, to eſtabliſh them for ever, therefore made he thee King over them, to do judgment and juſtice.

c Meaning, That the Iſraelites were God's peculiar people, and that Kings are the lieutenants of God, which ought to grant unto him the ſuperiority, and miniſter juſtice to all.

9 And ſhe gave the King an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of ſpices great abundance, and precious ſtones: neither was there there any such spice as the Queen of Sheba gave King Solomon.

10 And the servants also of Huram, and the servants of Solomon, which brought gold from Ophir, brought [d] Algum-trees, and precious stones.

d Chap. 2. 8. 1 King. 10. 11.

11 And the King made of the Algum-trees, ‡†[e] terrises to the house of the LORD, and to the King's palace, and harps and psalteries for singers: and there were none such seen before in the land of Judah.

13 ¶ Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year, was six hundred and threescore and six talents of gold;

24 And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and raiment, harness, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year.

25 ¶ And Solomon [m] had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsmen, whom he bestowed in the chariot-cities, and with the King at Jerusalem.

29 ¶ Now the rest of the * acts of Solomon first and last, are they not written in the † book of Nathan the Prophet, and in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of * Iddo the seer, [o] against Jeroboam the son of Nebat?

30 And Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel, fourty years.

CHAP. X.

1 The Israelites assembled at Shechem to crown Rehoboam, by Jeroboam make a suit of relaxation unto him. 6 Rehoboam refusing the old mens counsel, by the advice of young men, answered them roughly. 16 Ten tribes revolting, kill Hadoram, and make Rehoboham to flee.

AND * Rehoboam [a] went to Shechem: for to Shechem were all Israel come to make him King.

* 1 King. 12. 1, &c. a After the death of Solomon.

2 And it came to pass when Jeroboam the son of Nebat (who was in Egypt, whither he had fled from the presence of Solomon the King) heard it, that Jeroboam returned out of Egypt.

3 And they sent and called him: so Jeroboam and all Israel came, and spake to Rehoboam, saying,

4 Thy father [b] made our yoke grievous, now therefore ease thou somewhat the grievous servitude of thy father, and his heavy yoke that he put upon us, & we will serve thee.

b That is, handled us rudely, It seemeth that God hardned their hearts, so that they thus murmured without cause: which declareth also the inconstancy of the people.

5 And he said unto them, Come again unto me after three days. And the people departed.

6 ¶ And King Rehoboam took counsel with the old men that had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, What counsel give ye me, to return answer to this people?

7 And they spake unto him, saying, If thou be kind to this people, and please them, and speak good words to them, they will be thy servants for ever.

8 But he forsook the counsel which the old men gave him, and took counsel with the young men that were brought up with him, that [c] stood before him.

c That is, which were of his counsel and secrets.

9 And he said unto them, What advice give ye, that we may return answer to this people, which have spoken to me, saying, Ease somewhat the yoke that thy father did put upon us?

10 And the young men that were brought up with him, spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou answer the people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it somewhat lighter for us: thus thus shalt thou say unto them,[d] My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loyns.

d Meaning, That he was of far greater power than was his father.

11 For whereas my father † put a heavy yoke upon you, I will put more to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

† Heb. laded.

12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the King bade, saying, Come again to me on the third day.

13 And the King answered them roughly; and King Rehoboam forsook the counsel of the old men, 14 And answered them after the advice of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add thereto: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

15 So the king hearkned not unto the people, for the [e] cause was of God, that the LORD might perform his word, which he spake by the *hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

e God's will imposeth such a necessity to the second causes, that nothing can be done but according to the same, and yet man's will worketh as of it self, so that it cannot be excused in doing evil, by alledging that it is God's ordinance.

* 1 King. 11. 29.

16 ¶ And when all Israel saw that the King would not hearken unto them, the people answered the King, saying, What portion have we in David? and we have none inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to your tents, O Israel: and now David see to thine own house. So all Israel went to their tents.

17 But as for the children of Israel that dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

18 Then King Rehoboam sent Hadoram that was over the tribute, and the children of Israel stoned him with stones, that he died: but King Rehoboam † made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.

† Heb. strengthned himself.

19 And Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day.

CHAP. XI.

1 Rehoboam raising an army to subdue Israel, is forbidden by Shemajah. 5 He strengthneth his kingdom with forts and provision. 13 The Priests and Levites, and such as feared God, forsaken by Jeroboam, strengthen the kingdom of Judah. 18 The wives and children of Rehoboam.

* 1 King. 12. 21, &c.

AND * when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he gathered of the house of Judah and [a] Benjamin, an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men which were warriours, to fight against [b] Israel, that he might bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam.

a That is, The half tribe of Benjamin: for the other half was gone after Jeroboam.

b Meaning, The ten tribes which rebelled.

2 But the word of the LORD came to Shemajah the man of God, saying,

3 Speak unto Rehoboam the son of Solomon King of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying,

4 Thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren: return every man to his house, for this thing is done of me. And they obeyed the words of the LORD, and returned from going against Jeroboam.

5 ¶ And Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusalem, and [c] built cities for defence in Judah.

c Or, Repaired them and made them strong, to be more able to resist Jeroboam.

6 He built even Beth-lehem, and Etam, and Tekoa,

7 And Beth-zur, and Shoco, and Adullam,

8 And Gath, and Mareshа, and Ziph,

9 And Adoraim, and Lachish, and Azekah,

10 And Zoreh, and Aijalon, and Hebron, which are in Judah, and in Benjamin, fenced cities.

11 And he fortified the strong holds, and put captains in them, and store of victual, and of oyl and wine.

12 And in every several city he put shields and spears, and made them exceeding strong, having Judah and Benjamin on his side.

13 ¶ And the Priests and the Levites that were in all Israel, † resorted to him out of all their coasts, † Heb. presented themselves to him.

14 (For the Levites left their suburbs, and their possession, and came to Judah and Jerusalem: for * Jeroboam and his sons had cast them off from executing the Priests office unto the LORD.

d Meaning, Idols Isa. 44. 15.

16 And after them out of all the tribes of Israel, such as [e] set their hearts to seek the LORD God of Israel, came to Jerusalem, to sacrifice unto the LORD God of their fathers.

e Which were zealous of true Religion, and feared God.

17 So they strengthned the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon strong, three years: for three years they [f] walked in the way of David and Solomon.

f So long as they feared God, and set forth his word, they prospered.

18 ¶ And Rehoboam took him Mahalath the daughter of Jeremoth the son of David to wife, and Abihail the daughter of Eliab, the son of Jesse:

19 Which bare him children; Jerush, and Shamariah, and Zaham.

20 And after her, he took * Maachah the daughter of Absalom, which bare him Abijah, and Attai, and Ziza, and Shelomith.

* 1 King. 15. 2.

21 And Rehoboam loved Maachah the daughter of Absalom, above all his wives and his concubines: (for he took eighteen wives, and threescore concubines, and begat twenty and eight sons, and threescore daughters)

22 And Rehoboam made [g] Abijah the son of Maachah the chief, to be ruler among his brethren: for he thought to make him King.

g Called also Abijam, who reigned three years, 1 King. 15. 2.

23 And he dealt wisely, and dispersed of all his children throughout all the countrys of Judah and Benjamin, unto every fenced city: and he gave them victual in abundance: [h] and he desired † many wives.

h He gave himself to have many wives.

CHAP. XII.

1 Rehoboam forsaking the LORD, is punished by Shishak. 5 He and the Princes repenting at the preaching of Shemajah, are delivered from destruction, but not from spoil. 13 The reign and death of Rehoboam.

AND it came to pass when Rehoboam had established the Kingdom, and had strengthned himself, he forsook the law of the LORD, and [a] all Israel with him, a For such is the inconstancy of the people, that for the most part they follow the vices of their governours.

2 And it came to pass, that in the fifth year of King Rehoboam, Shishak King of Egypt came up against Jerusalem (* because they had transgressed against the LORD)

* 1 King. 14. 24, 25.

3 With twelve hundred chariots, and three-score thousand horse-men: and the people were without number that came with him out of Egypt; the Lubims, the [b] Sukkiims, and the Ethiopians.

[b] Which were a people of Africa called the Troglodites, because they dwelt in holes.

4 And he took the fenced cities which pertained to Judah, and came to Jerusalem.

5 ¶ Then came Shemajah the prophet to Rehoboam, and to the princes of Judah, that were gathered together to Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said unto them, Thus saith the LORD, Ye have forsaken me, and [c] therefore have I also left you in the hand of Shishak.

[c] Signifying, That no calamity can come unto us, except we forsake God, and that he never leaveth us until we have cast him off.

6 Whereupon the princes of Israel, and the King humbled themselves, and they said, The LORD is [d] righteous.

[d] And therefore doth justly punish us for our sins.

7 And when the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, the word of the LORD came to Shemajah, saying, They have humbled themselves, therefore I will not destroy them, but I will grant them ‡ some deliverance, and my wrath shall not be poured out upon Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak.

‡ Or, a little while.

8 Nevertheless, they shall be his servants; that they may know my [e] service, and the service of the kingdoms of the countrys.

[e] Hebraeth, That Gods punishments are not to destroy his utterly, but to chastise them, to the knowledge of themselves, and to know how much better it is to serve God than tyrants.

9 So Shishak King of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the King's house, he took all: he carried away also the shields of gold which Solomon had * made.

* Chap. 9. 15.

10 In stead of which, King Rehoboam made shields of brass, and committed them to the hands of the chief of the guard, that kept the entrance of the King's house.

11 And when the King entred into the house of the LORD, the guard came and fet them, and brought them again into the guard-chamber.

12 And when he [f] humbled himself, the wrath of the LORD turned from him, that he would not destroy him altogether: ‡ and also in Judah things went well.

[f] Which declareth that God seeketh not the death of a sinner, but his conversion, Ezek. 18. 32. & 33. 11.

‡ Or, and yet in Judah there were good things.

13 ¶ So King Rehoboam strengthned himself in Jerusalem, and reigned: for * Rehoboam was one and fourty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned [g] seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there: and his mother's name was Naamah an Ammonitess.

* 1 King. 14. 21.

[g] That is, Twelve years after that he had been overcome by Shishak, vers 2.

14 And he did evil, because he ‡ prepared not his heart to seek the LORD.

‡ Or, fixed.

15 Now the acts of Rehoboam, first and last, are they not written in the † Book of Shemajah the prophet, and of Iddo the seer, concerning genealogies? And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.

5 Ought you not to know, that the LORD God of Israel gave the kingdom over Israel to [e] David for ever, even to him and to his sons by a covenant of [f] salt?

[e] And therefore whosoever doth usurp it or take it from that stock transgresseth the ordinance of the Lord: Thus like an hypocrite he alledged the word of God for his advantage.

[f] That is, Perpetual, because the thing which is salted, is preserved from corruption: he meaneth also that it was made solemnly, & confirmed by offering of sacrifices wherein they used salt according as was ordained, Num. 18. 19.

6 Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon the son of David, is risen up, and hath * rebelled against his Lord.

* 1 King. 11. 26.

7 And there are gathered unto him [g] vain men the children of Belial, and have strengthned themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was [h] young and tender-hearted, and could not withstand them.

* 1 King. 12. 28.

9 * Have ye not cast out the Priests of the LORD the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and have made you Priests after the manner of the nations of other lands? so that whosoever cometh † to consecrate himself with a [i] young bullock and seven rams, the same may be a Priest of them that are no Gods.

11 * And they burn unto the LORD every [k] morning and every evening, burnt-sacrifices and sweet incense: the * shew-bread also set they in order upon the pure table, and the candlestick of gold with the lamps thereof, to burn every evening: for we keep the charge of the LORD our God; but ye have forsaken him.

[l] Because their cause was good, and approved by the Lord, they doubted not of the success and victory.

13 ¶ But Jeroboam caused an [m] ambushment to come about behind them: so they were before Judah, and the ambushment was behind them.

[m] Condemning the good counsel which came of the spirit of God, he thought to have overcome by deceit.

14 And wen Judah looked back, behold, the battel was before and behind: and they cried unto the LORD, and the Prieſts ſounded with the trumpets.

15 Then the men of Judah gave a ſhout: and as the men of Judah ſhouted, it came to paſs, that God ſmote Jeroboam and all Iſrael before Abijah and Judah.

16 And the children of Iſrael fled before Judah: and God delivered them into their hand.

17 And Abijah and his people ſlew them with a great ſlaughter: ſo there fell down ſlain of Iſrael, five hundred thouſand choſen men.

18 Thus the children of Iſrael were brought under at that time, and the children of Judah prevailed, [n] becauſe they relied upon the LORD God of their fathers.

19 And Abijah purſued after Jeroboam, and took cities from him, Beth-el with the towns thereof, and Jeſhanah with the towns thereof, and Ephrain with the towns thereof.

20 Neither did Jeroboam recover ſtrength again in the days of Abijah: and the LORD ſtrook him, and he died.

11 And Aſa cried unto the LORD his God, and ſaid, LORD, it is * nothing with thee to help, whether with many, or with them that have no power: help us, O LORD our God; for we reſt on thee, and in thy name we go againſt this multitude: O LORD, thou art our God, [f] let not ‡ man prevail againſt thee.

* 1 Sam. 14. 6.
f Thus the children of God neither truſt in their own power or policy, neither fear the ſtrength and ſubtility of their enemies, but conſider the cauſe, and ſee whether their enterprise tend to God's glory, and thereupon aſſure themſelves of the victory by him, which is onely almighty, and can turn all fleſh into duſt with the breath of his mouth.
‡ Or, mortal man.

12 So the LORD ſmote the Ethiopians before Aſa, and before Judah, and the Ethiopians fled.

13 And Aſa and the people that were with him purſued them unto Gerar: and the Ethiopians were overthrown, that they could not recover themſelves, for they were † deſtroyed before the LORD and before his hoſt; and they carried away very much ſpoil.

† Heb. broken.

14 And they ſmote all the cities round about Gerar, for the [g] fear of the LORD came upon them: and they ſpoiled all the cities, for there was exceeding much ſpoil in them.

g The Lord had ſtriken them with fear.

15 They ſmote alſo the tents of cattel, and carried away ſheep and camels in abundance, and returned to Jeruſalem.

CHAP. XV.

1 Aſa with Judah and many of Iſrael moved by the prophecy of Azariah the ſon of Oded, make a ſolemn covenant with God. 16 He putteth down Maachah his mother for her idolatry. 18 He bringeth dedicate things into the houſe of God, and enjoyeth a long peace.

AND the ſpirit of God came upon [a] Azariah the ſon of Oded.

a Who was called Oded, as his father was, verſ. 1, 8.

2 And he went out † to meet Aſa, and ſaid unto him, Hear ye me, Aſa, and all Judah and Benjamin, The LORD is with you, while ye be with him; and if ye ſeek him, he will be found of you; but if ye forſake him, he will forſake you.

† Heb. before Aſa.

3 Now for a long ſeaſon Iſrael hath been without the [b] true God, and without a teaching Prieſt, and without law.

b For the ſpace of twelve years under Rehoboam, and three years under Abijah, Religion was neglected and idolatry planted.

4 But when they in their trouble did turn unto the LORD God of Iſrael, and ſought him, he was [c] found of them.

c He ſheweth, That notwithſtanding the wickedneſs of tyrants and their rage, yet God hath his, whom he heareth in their tribulation, as he delivered his from Zerah King of the Ethiopians, chap. 14. 9, 12. and out of all other dangers, when they called upon the Lord.

5 And in thoſe times there was no peace to him that went out, nor to him that came in, but great vexations were upon all the inhabitants of the countrys.

6 And nation was † deſtroyed of nation, and city of city: for God did vex them with all adverſity.

† Heb. beaten in pieces.

7 Be ye ſtrong therefore, and let not your hands be weak: for your work ſhall be [d] rewarded.

d Your confidence and truſt in God ſhall not be fruſtrate.

8 And when Aſa heard theſe words, and the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he took courage, and put away the † abominable idols out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the cities which he had taken from mount Ephraim, and renewed the altar of the LORD that was before the porch of the LORD.

9 And he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and the strangers with them out of Ephraim and Manasseh, and out of Simeon: (for they fell to him out of Israel in abundance, when they saw that the LORD his God was with him)

10 So they gathered themselves together at Jerusalem in the [e] third moneth, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa.

[e] Called Shivan, containing part of May and part of June.

11 And they offered unto the LORD † the same time, of the [f] spoil which they had brought, seven hundred oxen, and seven thousand sheep.

† Heb. in that day.
[f] Which they had taken of the Ethiopians.

12 And they entred into a covenant to seek the LORD God of their fathers, with all their heart and with all their soul;

13 That [g] whosoever would not seek the LORD God of Israel, should be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman.

[g] These were the words of their covenant, which commanded all idolaters to be put to death according to the law of God, Deut. 13. 5, 9, 15.

14 And they sware unto the LORD with a loud voice, and with shouting, and with trumpets, and with cornets.

15 And all Judah rejoyced at the oath: for they had sworn with all their heart, and sought him with their whole desire, and he was [h] found of them: and the LORD gave them rest round about.

[h] So long as they served him aright, so long did he preserve and prosper them.

16 ¶ And also concerning * Maachah the [i] mother of Asa the King, he removed her from being Queen, because she had made an † idol in a grove: and Asa cut down her idol, and stamped it, and burnt it at the brook Kidron.

* 1 King. 15. 13.
[i] Or, grandmother: and herein he shewed that he lacked zeal, for she ought to have died both by the covenant, as vers. 13. and by the law of God: but he gave place to foolish pity, and would also seem after a sort to satisfy the law.
† Heb. horrour.

17 But the high places were [k] not taken away out of [l] Israel: nevertheless, the heart of Asa was [m] perfect all his days.

[k] Which partly came through lack of zeal in him, partly through the negligence of his officers, and partly by the superstition of the people, that all were not taken away.
[l] Because that God was called the God of Israel, by reason of his promise to Jacob: therefore Israel is sometime taken for Judah, because Judah was his chief people.
[m] In respect of his predecessours.

18 ¶ And he brought into the house of God the things that his father had dedicated, and that he himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels.

19 And there was no more war unto the five and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Asa, by the aid of the Syrians, diverteth Baasha from building of Ramah. 7 Being reproved thereof by Hanani, he putteth him in prison. 11 Among his other acts, in his disease he seeketh not to God, but to the Physicians. 13 His death and burial.

IN the six and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa, * [a] Baasha King of Israel came up against Judah, and built [b] Ramah, to the intent that he might let none go out or come in to Asa King of Judah.

* 1 King. 15. 17.
[a] Who reigned after Nadab the son of Jeroboam.
[b] He fortified it with walls and ditches: it was a city in Benjamin, near to Gibeon.

2 Then Asa brought out silver and gold out of the treasures of the house of the LORD, and of the Kings house, and sent to Ben-hadad King of Syria that dwelt at † Damascus, saying, † Heb. Darmesek.

3 There is a league between me and thee, as there was between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent thee silver and gold; go [c] break thy league with Baasha King of Israel, that he may depart from me.

[c] He thought to repuls his adversary by an unlawful means, that is, by seeking help of infidels, as they that seek the Turks amity, thinking thereby to make themselves more strong.

4 And Ben-hadad hearkned unto King Asa, and sent the captains of † his armies against the cities of Israel; and they smote Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-maim, and all the store-cities of Naphtali.

† Heb. which were his.

5 And it came to pass, when Baasha heard it, that he left off building of Ramah, and let his work cease.

6 Then Asa the King took all Judah, and they carried away the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha was a building, and he built therewith Geba and Mizpah.

7 ¶ And at that time Hanani the seer came to Asa King of Judah, and said unto him, Because thou hast relied on the King of Syria, and not relied on the LORD thy God, therefore is the host of the King of Syria escaped out of thine hand.

8 Were not * the Ethiopians and the Lubims † a huge host, with very many chariots and horsmen? yet, because thou didst rely on the LORD he delivered them into thine hand.

* Chap. 14. 9.
† Heb. in abundance.

9 For the eyes of the LORD run to and fro throughout the whole earth, ‡ to shew himself strong in the behalf of them, whose heart is perfect towards him. Herein thou hast done foolishly; therefore from henceforth thou shalt have wars.

‡ Or, strongly to hold with them &c.

10 Then Asa was [d] wroth with the seer, and put him in a prison-house; for he was in a rage with him, because of this thing. And Asa † oppressed some of the people the same time.

[d] Thus in stead of turning to God by repentance, he disdained the admonition of the prophet, and punished him, as the wicked do when they be told of their faults.
† Heb. crushed.

11 ¶ And behold, the acts of Asa, first and last, lo, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

12 And Asa, in the thirty and ninth year of his reign, was diseased in his feet, until his disease was [e] exceeding great: yet in his disease he sought not to the LORD, but to the [f] Physicians.

[e] God plagued his rebellion, and hereby declareth that it is nothing to begin well, except we so continue to the end, that is, zealous of God's glory, and put our whole trust in him.
[f] He sheweth, That it is in vain to seek to the Physicians, except first we seek to God to purge our sins, which are the chief cause of all our diseases, and after use the help of the Physicians, as a mean by whom God worketh.

13 ¶ And Asa slept with his fathers, and died in the one and fourtieth year of his reign.

14 And they buried him in his own sepulchres which he had † made for himself in the city of David, and laid him in the bed, which was filled with sweet odours and divers kinds of spices prepared by the apothecaries art: and they made a very great burning for him.

† Heb. digged.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Jehoshaphat succeeding Asa, reigneth well, and prospereth. 7 He sendeth Levites with the princes to teach Judah. 10 His enemies being terrified by God, some of them bring him presents and tribute. 12 His greatness, captains, and armies.

AND * Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead, and strengthned himself against Israel.

* 1 King. 15. 24.

2 And he placed forces in all the fenced cities of Judah, and set garisons in the land of Judah, and in the cities of Ephraim, which Asa his father had taken.

3 And the LORD was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the [a] first ways of his father David, and sought not unto [b] Baalim;

4 But sought to the LORD God of his father, and walked in his commandments, and not after the doings of Israel:

5 Therefore the LORD stablished the kingdom in his hand, and all Judah † brought to Jehoshaphat presents, and he had riches and honour in abundance.

6 And his heart ‡ [c] was lift up in the ways of the LORD: moreover, he took away the high places and groves out of Judah.

7 ¶ Also in the third year of his reign, he sent to his princes, even to Ben-hail, and to Obadiah, and to Zechariah, and to Nethaneel, and to Michajah, to [d] teach in the cities of Judah.

8 And with them he sent Levites, even Shemajah, and Nethaniah, and Zebadiah, and Asahel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehonathan, and Adonijah, and Tobijah, and Tob-adonijah, Levites; and with them Elishama, and Jehoram, Priests.

9 And they taught in Judah, and had the Book of the law of the LORD with them, and went about throughout all the cities of Judah, and taught the people.

10 ¶ And the fear of the LORD † fell upon all the kingdoms of the lands that were round about Judah, so that they made no [e] war against Jehoshaphat.

11 Also some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents, and tribute-silver; and the Arabians brought him flocks, seven thousand and seven hundred rams, and seven thousand and seven hundred he-goats.

12 ¶ And Jehoshaphat waxed great exceedingly; and he built in Judah, ‡ castles, and cities of store.

13 And he had much business in the cities of Judah: and the men of war, mighty men of valour, were in Jerusalem.

14 And these are the numbers of them according to the house of their fathers: Of Judah, the captains of thousands; Adnah the chief, and with him mighty men of valour, three hundred thousand.

15 And † next to him was Jehohanan the captain, and with him two hundred and fourscore thousand.

16 And next him was Amasiah the son of Zichri, who [f] willingly offered himself unto the LORD; and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of valour.

17 And of Benjamin; Eliada a mighty man of valour, and with him, armed men with bow and shield, two hundred thousand.

18 And next him was Jehozabad, and with him an hundred and fourscore thousand, ready prepared for the war.

19 These [g] waited on the King, besides those whom the King put in the fenced cities, throughout all Judah.

a That is, His virtues, meaning, before he had committed sin with Bathsheba and against Uriah.
b Sought not help at strange Gods.

c Or, He gave himself wholly to serve the Lord.
d He knew it was in vain to profess Religion, except such were appointed which could instruct the people in the same, and had authority to put away all idolatry.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 Jehoshaphat joyned in affinity with Ahab, is perswaded to go with him against Ramoth-gilead. 4 Ahab seduced by false Prophets, according to the word of Micajah, is slain there.

NOw Jehoshaphat had riches and honour in abundance, and joyned [a] affinity with Ahab.

2 * And † after certain [b] years, he went down to Ahab to Samaria: and Ahab killed sheep and oxen for him in abundance, and for the people that he had with him, and perswaded him to go up with him to [c] Ramoth-gilead.

3 And Ahab King of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat King of Judah, Wilt thou go with me to Ramoth-gilead? And he answered him, I am as thou art, and my people as thy people, and we will be with thee in the war.

4 ¶ And Jehoshaphat said unto the King of Israel, Enquire, I pray thee, at the [d] word of the LORD to day.

5 Therefore the King of Israel gathered together of [e] Prophets four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battel, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; for God will deliver it into the King's hand.

6 But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a Prophet of the LORD † besides, that we might enquire of him?

7 And the King of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man, by whom we may enquire of the LORD: but I [f] hate him, for he never prophesieth good unto me, but always evil: the same is Micajah the son of Imla. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the King say [g] so.

8 And the King of Israel called for one of his ‡ officers, and said, † Fetch quickly Micajah the son of Imla.

9 And the King of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah, sat either of them on his throne, clothed in their [h] robes, and they sat in a ‡ void place at the entring in of the gate of Samaria, and all the Prophets prophesied before them.

10 And Zedediah the son of Chenaanah, had made him [i] horns of iron, and said, Thus saith the LORD, With these thou shalt push Syria, until † they be consumed.

11 And all the Prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the King.

12 And the messenger that went to call Micajah, spake to him, saying, Behold, the words of the Prophets declare good to the King † with one [k] assent: let thy word therefore, I pray thee, be like one of theirs, and speak thou good.

13 And Micajah said, As the LORD liveth, even what my God saith, that will I speak.

14 And when he was come to the King, the King said unto him, Micajah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battel, or shall I forbear? And he said, [l] Go ye up, and prosper, and they shall be delivered into your hand.

k Thinking, that whereas four hundred Prophets had agreed in one thing, that he being but one man, and in least estimation, durst not gainsay it.
l He spake this by derision of the false Prophets, as the King well perceived.

15 And the King ſaid to him, How many times ſhall I adjure thee that thou ſay nothing but the truth to me, in the name of the LORD?

16 Then he ſaid, I did ſee all Iſrael ſcattered upon the mountains, as ſheep that have no ſhepherd: and the LORD ſaid, [m] Theſe have no maſter; let them return therefore every man to his houſe in peace.

m He propheſieth how the people ſhould be diſperſed, and Ahab ſlain.

17 (And the King of Iſrael ſaid to Jehoſhaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would not propheſy good unto me, ‡ but evil?)

‡ Or, but for evil.

18 Again he ſaid, Therefore hear the word of the LORD, I ſaw the LORD ſitting upon his throne, and all the [n] hoſt of heaven ſtanding on his right hand, and on his left.

n Meaning, His Angels.

19 And the LORD ſaid, Who ſhall entice Ahab King of Iſrael, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one ſpake, ſaying after this manner, and another ſaying after that manner.

20 Then there came out a * Spirit, and ſtood before the LORD, and ſaid, I will entice him. And the LORD ſaid unto him, Wherewith?

* Job 1. 6.

21 And he ſaid, I will go out, and be a lying Spirit in the mouth of all his Prophets. And the [o] LORD ſaid, Thou ſhalt entice him, and thou ſhalt alſo prevail: go out, and do even ſo.

o For without the Lord's permiſſion he could not do it.

22 Now therefore behold, the LORD hath put a [p] lying Spirit in the mouth of theſe thy Prophets, and the LORD hath ſpoken evil againſt thee.

p To them that will not believe the truth, God ſendeth ſtrong deluſions that they ſhould believe lies, 2 Theſ. 2. 10.

23 Then Zedekiah the ſon of Chenaanah, came near, and ſmote Micajah upon the cheek, and ſaid, Which way went the Spirit of the LORD from me, to ſpeak unto thee?

q By this cruelty, his ambition and hypocriſy was diſcovered: thus the hypocrites boaſt of the Spirit which they have not, and declare their malice againſt them in whom the true Spirit is.

24 And Micajah ſaid, Behold, thou ſhalt ſee on that day, when thou ſhalt go ‡ into † an inner chamber to hide thy ſelf.

‡ Or, from chamber to chamber.
† Heb. a chamber in a chamber.

25 Then the King of Iſrael ſaid, Take ye Micajah, and carry him back to Amon the governour of the city, and to Joaſh the King's ſon:

26 And ſay, Thus ſaith the King, Put this fellow in the priſon, and feed him with bread of [r] affliction, and with water of affliction, until I return in peace.

r Keep him ſtraightly in priſon and let him feel hunger and thirſt.

27 And Micajah ſaid, If thou certainly return in peace, then hath not the LORD ſpoken by me. And he ſaid, Hearken all ye people.

28 So the King of Iſrael, and Jehoſhaphat the King of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead.

29 And the King of Iſrael ſaid unto Jehoſhaphat, I will [s] diſguiſe my ſelf, and will go to the battel, but put thou on thy robes. So the King of Iſrael diſguiſed himſelf, and they went to the battel.

s Thus the wicked think by their own ſubtility to eſcape God's judgments which he threateneth by his word.

30 Now the King of Syria had commanded the captains of the chariots that were with him, ſaying, Fight ye not with ſmall or great, ſave onely with the King of Iſrael.

31 And it came to paſs when the captains of the chariots ſaw Jehoſhaphat, that they ſaid, It is the King of Iſrael, therefore they compaſſed about him to fight: but Jehoſhaphat [t] cried out, and the LORD helped him, and God moved them to depart from him.

t He cried to the Lord by acknowledging his fault, in going with this wicked King to war, againſt the word of the Lord by his prophet, and alſo by deſiring mercy for the ſame.

32 For it came to paſs, that when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the King of Iſrael, they turned back again † from purſuing him.

† Heb. from after him.

33 And a certain man drew a bow † at a venture, and ſmote the King of Iſrael † between the joynts of the harneſs: therefore he ſaid to his chariot-man, Turn thine hand, that thou mayſt carry me out of the hoſt, for I am † wounded.

† Heb. in his ſimplicity.
† Heb. between the joynts, and between the breaſt-plate.

34 And the battel increaſed that day: howbeit the King of Iſrael [u] ſtayed himſelf up in his chariot againſt the Syrians, until the even: and about the time of the Sun going down, he died.

u He diſſembled his hurt, that his ſouldiers might fight more courageouſly.

10 And now behold, the children of Ammon, and Moab, and mount Seir, whom thou * wouldeſt not let Iſrael invade, when they came out of the land of Egypt, but they turned from them, and deſtroyed them not:

* Deut. 2. 9.

11 Behold, I ſay, how they reward us, to come to caſt us out of thy poſſeſſion, which thou haſt given us to inherit.

12 O our God, wilt thou not judge them? for we have no might againſt this great company that cometh againſt us: neither know we what to do, [g] but our eyes are upon thee.

g We only put our truſt in thee, and wait for our deliverance from heaven.

13 And all Judah ſtood before the [h] LORD, with their little ones, their wives and their children.

h That is, Before the Ark of the covenant.

14 ¶ Then upon Jahaziel the ſon of Zechariah, the ſon of Benajah, the ſon of Jehiel, the ſon of Mattaniah, a Levite of the ſons of Aſaph, came [i] the Spirit of the LORD in the midſt of the congregation:

i Which was moved by the Spirit of God to prophecy.

15 And he ſaid, Hearken ye, all Judah, and ye inhabitans of Jeruſalem, and thou King Jehoſhaphat, Thus ſaith the LORD unto you, Be not afraid, nor diſmayed by reaſon of this great multitude; for the [k] battel is not yours, but God's.

k They fight againſt God and not againſt you: therefore he will fight for you.

16 To morrow go ye down againſt them: behold, they come up by the † cliff off Ziz, and ye ſhall find them at the end of the ‡ brook, before the wilderneſs of Jeruel.

† Heb. aſcent.
‡ Or, valley.

17 Ye ſhall not need to fight in this battel; ſet your ſelves, ſtand ye ſtill, and ſee the ſalvation of the LORD with you, O Judah and Jeruſalem: fear not, nor be diſmayed; to morrow go out againſt them, for the LORD will be with you.

18 And Jehoſhaphat [l] bowed his head, with his face to the ground: and all Judah, and the inhabitants of Jeruſalem fell before the LORD, worſhipping the LORD.

l Declaring his faith and obedience to the word of the Lord, and giving thanks for the deliverance promiſed.

19 And the Levites, of the children of the Kohathites, and of the children of the Korhites, ſtood up to praiſe the LORD God of Iſrael with a loud voice on high.

20 ¶ And they roſe early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderneſs of Tekoa: and as they went forth, Jehoſhaphat ſtood and ſaid, Hear me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jeruſalem, * Believe in the LORD your God, ſo ſhall you be eſtabliſhed; [m] believe his Prophets, ſo ſhall ye proſper.

21 And when he had conſulted with the people, he appointed ſingers unto the LORD, and † that ſhould praiſe the beauty of holineſs, as they went out before the army, and to ſay, [n] Praiſe the LORD, for his mercy endureth for ever.

n This was a Pſalm of thanksgiving, which they uſed commonly to ſing when they praiſed the Lord for his benefits, and was made by David, Pſal. 136.

22 ¶ † And when they began † to ſing and to praiſe, the LORD ſet ambuſhments againſt the children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come againſt Judah, and ‡ they were ſmitten.

‡ Or, they ſmote one another.

23 For the children of Ammon and Moab, ſtood up againſt the inhabitants of [o] mount Seir, utterly to ſlay and deſtroy them: and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, every one helped † to deſtroy [p] another.

o Meaning, The Idumeans, which dwelt in mount Seir.
† Heb. for the deſtruction.

24 And when Judah came toward the watch-towre in the wilderneſs, they looked unto the multitude, and behold, they were dead bodies fallen to the earth, and † none eſcaped.

p Thus the Lord according to Jehoſhaphat's prayer declared his power when he delivered his, by cauſing their enemies to kill one another.
† Heb. there was not an eſcaping.

25 And when Jehoſhaphat and his people came to take away the ſpoil of them, they found among them in abundance, both riches with the dead bodies, and precious jewels (which they ſtript off for themſelves) more than they could carry away: and they were three days in gathering of the ſpoil, it was ſo much.

26 ¶ And on the fourth day they [q] aſſembled themſelves in the valley of ‡ Berachah; for there they bleſſed the LORD: therefore the name of the ſame place was called, The valley of Berachah, unto this day.

q To give thanks to the Lord for the victory: and therefore the valley was called Berachah, that is, Bleſſing, or, Thankſgiving, which was alſo called the valley of Jehoſhaphat, Joel 3. 2, 12. becauſe the Lord judged the enemies according to Jehoſhaphat's prayer.
‡ That is, bleſſing.

front of them, to go again to Jeruſalem with joy: for the LORD had made them to rejoyce over their enemies.

28 And they came to Jeruſalem with pſalteries, and harps, and trumpets, unto the houſe of the LORD.

29 And the [r] fear of God was on all the kingdoms of thoſe countrys, when they had heard that the LORD fought againſt the enemies of Iſrael.

30 So the realm of Jehoſhapht was quiet; for his God gave him reſt round about.

31 ¶ * And Jehoſhaphat reigned over Judah: he was thirty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and five years in Jeruſalem: and his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

32 And he walked in the [f] way of Aſa his father, and departed not from it, doing that which was right in the ſight of the LORD:

33 Howbeit, the high places were [t] not taken away; for as yet the people had not prepared their hearts unto the God of their fathers.

34 Now the reſt of the acts of Jehoſhaphat, firſt and laſt, behold, they are written in the † Book of Jehu the ſon of Hanani, * who † is mentioned in the Book of the Kings of Iſrael.

35 ¶ And after this did Jehoſhaphat King of Judah joyn himſelf with Ahaſiah King of Iſrael, who did very wickedly:

36 And he joyned himſelf with him to make ſhips to go to Tarſhiſh: and they made the ſhips in Ezion-geber.

37 Then Eliezer the ſon of Dodavah of Mareſhah, propheſied againſt Jehoſhaphat, ſaying, [u] Becauſe thou haſt joyned thy ſelf with Ahaziah, the LORD hath broken thy works. And the ſhips were broken, that they were not able to go to Tarſhiſh.

5 His wicked reign. 8 Edom and Libnah revolt.
12 The prophecy of Elijah againſt him in writing.
16 Philiſtines and Arabians oppreſs him. 18 His incurable diſeaſe, infamous death, and burial.

NOw * Jehoſhaphat ſlept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and Jehoram his ſon reigned in his ſtead.

2 And he had brethren the ſons of Jehoſhaphat, Azariah, and Jehiel, and Zechariah, and Azariah, and Michael, and Shephatiah: all theſe were the ſons of Jehoſhaphat King of [a] Iſrael.

3 And their father gave them great gifts of ſilver and of gold, and of precious things, with fenced cities in Judah: but the kingdom gave he to Jehoram, becauſe he was the firſtborn.

4 Now * when Jehoram was riſen up to the kingdom of his father, he ſtrengthned himſelf, and ſlew all his [b] brethren with the ſword, and divers alſo of the Princes [c] of Iſrael.

5 ¶ Jehoram was thirty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jeruſalem.

6 And he walked in the way of the Kings of Iſrael, like as did the houſe of Ahab: for he had the daughter of * Ahab to [d] wife: and he wrought that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD.

7 Howbeit the LORD would not deſtroy the houſe of David, becauſe of the covenant that he had made with David, and as he promiſed to give a † light to him, and to his * ſons for ever.

8 ¶ In his days the Edomites revolted from under the † dominion of Judah, and made themſelves a King.

9 Then Jehoram * went forth with his princes, and all his chariots with him: and he roſe up by night, and ſmote the Edomites which compaſſed him in, and the captains of the chariots.

10 So the Edomites revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. The ſame time alſo did [e] Libnah revolt from under his hand; becauſe he had forſaken the LORD God of his fathers.

11 Moreover, he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and cauſed the inhabitants of Jeruſalem to commit [f] fornication, and compelled Judah thereto.

12 ¶ And there came a writing to him from [g] Elijah the Prophet, ſaying, Thus ſaith the LORD God of David thy father, Becauſe thou haſt not walked in the ways of Jehoſhaphat thy father, nor in the ways of Aſa King of Judah,

13 But haſt walked in the way of the Kings of Iſrael, and haſt made Judah, and the inhabitants of Jeruſalem to go a whoring, like to the whoredoms of the houſe of Ahab, and alſo haſt ſlain thy brethren of thy father's houſe, which were better than thy ſelf:

14 Behold, with † a great plague will the LORD ſmite thy people, and thy children, and thy wives, and all thy goods.

15 And thou ſhalt have great ſickneſs by diſeaſe of thy bowels, until thy [h] bowels fall out, by reaſon of the ſickneſs day by day.

16 ¶ Moreover, the LORD ſtirred up againſt Jehoram the ſpirit of the Philiſtines, and of the Arabians, that were near the [i] Ethiopians.

17 And they came up into Judah, and brake into it, and † carried away all the ſubſtance that was found in the King's houſe, and his ſons alſo and his wives; ſo that there was never a ſon left him, ſave [k] Jehoahaz the youngeſt of his ſons.

18 ¶ And after all this the LORD ſmote him in his bowels with an incurable diſeaſe.

19 And it came to paſs that in proceſs of time, after the end of two years, his bowels fell out by reaſon of his ſickneſs: ſo he died of ſore diſeaſes: And his people made no burning for him, like the burning of his fathers.

20 Thirty and two years old was he when e He ſheweth, that it muſt needs follow that the rulers are ſuch as their counſellers be, and that there cannot be a good King, that ſuffereth wicked counſellers.

5 ¶ He walked alſo after their counſel, and went with Jehoram the ſon of Ahab King of Iſrael, to war againſt Hazael King of Syria at Ramoth-gilead: and the Syrians ſmote Joram.

6 And he returned to be healed in Jezreel, becauſe of the wounds ‡ which were given him at Ramah, when he fought with Hazael King of Syria. And ‡ Azariah the ſon of Jehoram King of Judah, went down to ſee Jehoram the ſon of Ahab at Jezreel, becauſe he was ſick.

8 And it came to paſs that when Jehu was executing judgment upon the houſe of Ahab, and found the princes of Judah, and the ſons of the brethren of Ahaziah, that miniſtred to Ahaziah, he ſlew them.

* 2 King. 9. 27.

9 * And he ſought Ahaziah: and they caught him, (for he was hid in Samaria) and brought him to Jehu: and when they had ſlain him, they buried him, becauſe (ſaid they) he is the ſon of [g] Jehoſhaphat, who ſought the LORD with all his heart. So the houſe of Ahaziah had no power to keep ſtill the kingdom.

g This was the juſt plague of God, becauſe he joyned himſelf with Gods enemies: yet God to declare the worthineſs of Jehoſhaphat his grand-father, moved them to give him the honour of burial.

10 ¶ * But when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah, ſaw that her ſon was dead, ſhe aroſe, and [h] deſtroyed all the ſeed royal of the houſe of Judah.

11 But Jehoſhabeath the daughter of the King, took Joaſh the ſon of Ahaziah, and ſtole him from among the King's ſons that were ſlain, and put him and his nurſe in a bed-chamber. So Jehoſhabeath the daughter of King Jehoram, the wife of Jehojada the Prieſt (for ſhe was the ſiſter of Ahaziah) hid him from Athaliah, ſo that ſhe ſlew him not.

i Meaning, In the chamber, where the Prieſts and Levites ſlept, which kept their courſes weekly in the Temple.

6 But let none come into the houſe of the LORD, ſave the Prieſts, and they that miniſter of the Levites, they ſhall go in, for they are holy: but all the people ſhall keep the watch of the LORD.

d Meaning, To make any tumult or to hinder their enterpriſe.

8 So the Levites and all Judah did according to all things that Jehojada the Prieſt had commanded, and took every man his men that were to come in on the ſabbath, with [e] them that were to go out on the ſabbath: for Jehojada the Prieſt diſmiſſed not the courſes.

e Which had finiſhed their courſe on the ſabbath, and ſo the other part entred to keep their turn.

9 Moreover, Jehojada the Prieſt delivered to the captains of hundreds, ſpears, and bucklers, and ſhields, that had been King David's, which were in the houſe of God.

Then Athaliah rent her clothes, and said, † [h] Treason, treason.

† Heb. Conspiracy.
h Declaring her vile impudency, which having unjustly, and by murder usurped the crown, would still have defeated the true possessour, and therefore called true obedience, treason.

14 Then Jehojada the Priest brought out the captains of hundreds that were set over the host, and said unto them, Have her forth of the ranges: and [i] whoso followeth her, let him be slain with the sword. For the Priest said, Slay her not in the house of the LORD.

i To joyn with her party, and to maintain her authority.

15 So they laid hands on her; and when she was come to the entring of the hors-gate, by the King's house, they slew her there.

16 ¶ And Jehojada made a [k] covenant between him, and between all the people, and between the King, that they should be the LORD's people.

k That they would onely serve him, and renounce all idolatry.

n Which was the principal gate, that the King might be seen of all the people.

21 And all the people of the land rejoyced: and the city was quiet, [o] after that they had slain Athaliah with the sword.

o For where a tyrant and an idolater reigneth, there can be no quietness: for the plagues of God are ever among such people.

CHAP. XXIV.

1 Joash reigneth well all the days of Jehojada. 4 He giveth order for the repair of the Temple. 15 Jehojada his death and honourable burial. 17 Joash falling to idolatry, slayeth Zechariah the son of Jehojada. 23 Joash is spoiled by the Syrians, and slain by Zabad and Jehozabad. 27 Amaziah succeedeth him.

* 2 King. 12. 1, &c.

JOash * was seven years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fourty years in Jerusalem: his mother's name also was Zibeah of Beer-sheba.

2 And Joash did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, all the days of [a] Jehojada the Priest.

a Who was a faithful counseller, and governed him by the word of God.

3 And Jehojada took for him two wives, and he begat sons and daughters.

4 ¶ And it came to pass after this, that Joash was minded † to repair the house of the LORD.

† Heb. to renew.

5 And he gathered together the Priests and and the Levites, and said to them, Go out unto the cities of Judah, and gather of [b] all Israel mony to repair the house of your God from year to year, and see that ye haste the matter: howbeit the Levites hastned it not.

b He meaneth not the ten tribes, but onely the two tribes of Judah and Benjamin.

6 And the King called for Jehojada the [c] chief, and said unto him, Why hast thou not required of the Levites to bring in out of Judah and out of Jerusalem, the collection, according to the commandment of * Moses the servant of the LORD, and of the congregation of Israel, for the tabernacle of witness?

c For he was the high Priest.

* Exod. 30. 12, 13, 14.

7 For the sons of Athaliah that [d] wicked woman, had broken up the house of God, and also all the dedicate things of the house of the LORD did they bestow upon Baalim.

d The Scripture doth term her thus, because she was a cruel murderess, and a blasphemous idolatress.

8 And at the King's commandment they made a chest, and set it without at the gate of the house of the LORD.

9 And they made † a proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem, to bring in to the LORD, the collection that Moses the servant of God laid upon Israel in the wilderness.

† Heb. a voice.

10 And all the princes, and all the people rejoyced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, until they had made an end.

11 Now it came to pass, that at what time the chest was [e] brought unto the King's office, by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much mony: the King's scribe, and the high Priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to his place again. Thus they did day by day, and gathered mony in abundance.

e Such as were faithful men, whom the King had appointed for that matter.

12 And the King and [f] Jehojada gave it to such as did the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and hired masons and carpenters to repair the house of the LORD, and also such as wrought iron and brass to mend the house of the LORD.

f Signifying, That this thing was done by advice and counsel, and not by any one man's affection.

13 So the workmen wrought, and † the work was perfected by them, and they set the house of God in his state, and strengthned it.

† Heb. the healing went up upon the work.

14 And when they had finished it, they brought the rest of the mony before the King and Jehojada, whereof were made [g] vessels for the house of the LORD, even vessels to minister, and ‡ to offer withal, and spoons, and vessels of gold and silver: and they offered burnt-offerings in the house of the LORD continually, all the days of Jehojada.

g For the wicked Kings his predecessours, and Athaliah had destroyed the vessels of the Temple, or turned them to the use of their idols.
‡ Or, pestils.

15 ¶ But Jehojada waxed old, and was full of days when he died; an hundred and thirty years old was he when he died.

16 And they buried him in the city of David among the [h] Kings, because he had done good in Israel, both towards God, and towards his house.

h Signifying, That they could not honour him too much, who had so excellently served in the work of the Lord, and in the affairs of the commonwealth.

17 Now after the death of Jehojada, came the [i] Princes of Judah, and made obeisance to the King: then the King hearkned unto them.

i Which were flatterers, and knew now that the King was destitute of him who did watch over him as a father, and therefore brought him to most vile idolatry.

18 And they left the house of the LORD God of their fathers, and served groves and idols:

idols: and wrath came upon Judah and Jeruſalem for this their treſpaſs.

19 Yet he ſent Prophets to them, to bring them again unto the LORD, and they [k] teſtified againſt them: but they would not give ear.

20 And the ſpirit of God † came upon Zechariah the ſon of Jehojada the Prieſt, which ſtood [l] above the people, and ſaid unto them, Thus ſaith God, Why tranſgreſs ye the commandments of the LORD, that ye cannot proſper? becauſe ye have forſaken the LORD, he hath alſo forſaken you.

21 And they conſpired againſt him, and ſtoned him with ſtones at the [m] commandment of the King, in the court of the houſe of the LORD.

22 Thus Joaſh the King remembred not the kindneſs which Jehojada his father had done to him, but ſlew his ſon: and when he died, he ſaid, The LORD [n] look upon it, and require it.

23 ¶ And it came to paſs † at the end of the year, that the hoſt of Syria came up againſt him: and they came to Judah and Jeruſalem, and deſtroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and ſent all the ſpoil of them unto the King of † Damaſcus.

24 For the army of the Syrians came with a ſmall company of men, and the LORD delivered a very great hoſt into their hand, becauſe they had forſaken the LORD God of their fathers: ſo they [o] executed judgment againſt Joaſh.

25 And when they were departed from him, (for thy left him in great diſeaſes) his own ſervants conſpired againſt him, for the bloud of the [p] ſons of Jehojada the Prieſt, and ſlew him on his bed, and he died: and they buried him in the city of David, but they buried him not in the ſepulchres of the Kings.

26 And theſe are they that conſpired againſt him; ‡ Zabad the ſon of Shimeath an Ammoniteſs, and Jehozabad the ſon of ‡ Shimrith a Moabiteſs.

27 ¶ Now concerning his ſons, and the greatneſs of the burdens laid upon him, and the † repairing of the houſe of God, behold, they are written in the ‡ ſtory of the book of the Kings. And Amaziah his ſon reigned in his ſtead.

CHAP. XXV.

1 Amaziah beginneth to reign well. 3 He executeth juſtice on the traitours. 5 Having hired an army of Iſraelites againſt the Edomites, at the word of a Prophet he loſeth the hundred talents, and diſmiſſeth them. 11 He overthroweth the Edomites. 10, 13 The Iſraelites diſcontented with their diſmiſſion, ſpoil as they return home. 14 Amaziah proud of his victory, ſerveth the Gods of Edom, and deſpiſeth the admonitions of the Prophet. 17 He provoketh Joaſh to his overthrow. 25 His reign. 27 He is ſlain by conſpiracy.

AMaziah * was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jeruſalem: and his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jeruſalem.

2 And he did that which was [a] right in the ſight of the LORD, but not with a perfect heart.

2 ¶ Now it came to paſs, when the Kingdom was † eſtabliſhed to him, that he ſlew his ſervants that had killed the King his father.

4 But he ſlew not their children, but did as it is written in the Law in the Book of Moſes, where the LORD commanded, ſaying, * The fathers ſhall not die for the [b] children, neither ſhall the children die for the fathers, but every man ſhall die for his own ſin.

5 ¶ Moreover, Amaziah gathered Judah together, and made them captains over thouſands, and captains over hundreds, according to the houſes of their fathers, throughout all Judah and Benjamin: and he numbred them from [c] twenty years old and above, and found them three hundred thouſand choice men, able to go forth to war, that could handle ſpear and ſhield.

7 He hired alſo an hundred thouſand mighty men of valour out of [d] Iſrael, for an hundred talents of ſilver.

7 But there came a man of God to him, ſaying, O King, let not the army of Iſrael go with thee; for the LORD is [e] not with Iſrael, to wit, with all the children of Ephraim.

8 But if thou wilt [f] go, do it, be ſtrong for the battel: God ſhall make thee fall before the enemy: for God hath power to help, and to caſt down.

9 And Amaziah ſaid to the man of God, But what ſhall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the † army of Iſrael? And the man of God anſwered, The LORD is [g] able to give thee much more than this.

10 Then Amaziah ſeparated them, to wit, the army that was come to him out of Ephraim, to go † home again: wherefore their anger was greatly kindled againſt Judah, and they returned home † in great anger.

11 ¶ And Amaziah ſtrengthned himſelf, and led forth his people, and went to the valley of ſalt, and ſmote of the children of [h] Seir, ten thouſand.

12 And other ten thouſand left alive, did the children of Judah carry away captive, and brought them unto the top of the [i] rock, and caſt them down from the top of the rock, that they were broken all in pieces.

13 ¶ But † the ſouldiers of the [k] army which Amaziah ſent back, that they ſhould not go with him to battel, fell upon the cities of Judah, from Samaria even unto Beth-horon, and ſmote three thouſand of them, and took much ſpoil.

14 ¶ Now it came to paſs, after that Amaziah was come from the ſlaughter of the Edomites, that he brought the Gods of the children of Seir, and ſet them up to be his Gods, and [l] bowed down himſelf before them, and burned incenſe unto them.

15 Wherefore the anger of the LORD was kindled againſt Amaziah, and he ſent unto him

16 And it came to pass as he talked with him, that the [n] King said unto him, Art thou made of the King's counsel? forbear; why shouldest thou be [o] smitten? Then the prophet forbare, and said, I know that God hath † determined to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast not hearkned unto my counsel.

17 ¶ Then * Amaziah King of Judah took advice, and sent to Joash the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu King of Israel, saying, Come, let us [p] see one another in the face.

18 And Joash King of Israel sent to Amaziah King of Judah, saying, The ‡ thistle that was in Lebanon, sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by † a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle.

20 But Amaziah would not hear, for it came of [q] God, that he might deliver them into the hand of their enemies, because they sought after the Gods of Edom.

21 So Joash the King of Israel went up, and they saw one another in the face, both he and Amaziah King of Judah, at Beth-shemesh, which belongeth to Judah.

22 And Judah was † put to the worse before Israel, and they fled every man to his tent.

23 And Joash the King of Israel took Amaziah King of Judah the son of Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, at Beth-shemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem, from the gate of Ephraim to † the corner-gate, four hundred cubits.

24 And he took all the gold and the silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with [r] Obed-edom, and the treasures of the King's house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria.

25 ¶ And Amaziah the son of Joash King of Judah, lived after the death of Joash son of Jehoahaz King of Israel, fifteen years.

26 Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, first and last, behold, are they not written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel?

27 ¶ Now after the time that Amaziah did turn away † from following the LORD, they † made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish: but they sent to Lachish after him, and slew him there.

1 Uzziah succeeding, and reigning well in the days of Zechariah, prospereth. 16 Waxing proud, he invadeth the Priests office, and is smitten with leprosy. 22 He dieth, and Jotham succeedeth him.

THen all the people of Judah took * [a] Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him King in the room of his father Amaziah.

2 He built [b] Eloth, and restored it to Judah, after that the King slept with his fathers.

3 Sixteen years old was Uzziah, when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and two years in Jerusalem: his mother's name also was Jecoliah of Jerusalem.

4 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah did.

5 And he sought God in the days of [c] Zechariah, who had understanding † in the visions of God: and as long as he [d] sought the LORD, God made him to prosper,

6 And he went forth and warred against the Philistines, and brake down the wall of Gath, and the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod, and built cities ‡ about Ashdod, and among the Philistines.

7 And God helped him against the Philistines, and against the Arabians that dwelt in Gur-baal, and the Mehunims.

8 And the Ammonites gave [e] gifts to Uzziah, and his name † spread abroad even to the entring in of Egypt, for he strengthned himself exceedingly.

9 Moreover, Uzziah built towrs in Jerusalem, at the [f] corner-gate, and at the valley-gate, and at the turning of the wall, and ‡ fortified them.

10 Also he built towrs in the desert, and ‡ digged many wells, for he had much cattel, both in the low-country, and in the plains: husband-men also, and vine-dressers in the mountains, and in [g] Carmel: for he loved † husbandry.

11 Moreover, Uzziah had an host of fighting men, that went out to war by bands, according to the number of their account, by the hand of Jeiel the scribe, and Maasejah the ruler, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the King's captains.

12 The whole [h] number of the chief of the fathers of the mighty men of valour, were two thousand and six hundred.

16 ¶ But when he was ſtrong, his heart was [i] lifted up to his deſtruction: for he tranſgreſſed againſt the LORD his God, and went into the Temple of the LORD, to burn incenſe upon the Altar of incenſe.

i Thus proſperity cauſeth men to truſt in themſelves, and by forgetting him, which is the author thereof, procure their own perdition.

17 And Azariah the Prieſt went in after him, and with him fourſcore Prieſts of the LORD, that were valiant men:

18 And they withſtood Uzziah the King, and ſaid unto him, It * apparteineth not unto thee, Uzziah, to burn incenſe unto the LORD, but to the * Prieſts the ſons of Aaron, that are conſecrated to burn incenſe: [k] go out of the ſanctuary, for thou haſt treſpaſſed, neither ſhall it be for thine honour from the LORD God.

2 For he walked in the ways of the [a] Kings of Iſrael, and made alſo molten images for [b] Baalim.

a He was an idolater like them.

b As the idolaters have certain chief idols, who are as patrons: (as were theſe Baalim) ſo have they others which are inferior, and do repreſent the greater idols

3 Moreover, he ‡ burnt incenſe in the valley of the ſon of Hinnom, and burnt ‡ his children in the fire, after the abominations of the heathen whom the LORD had caſt out before the children of Iſrael.

8 And the children of Iſrael carried away captive of their brethren, [d] two hundred thouſand women, ſons and daughters, and took alſo away much ſpoil from them, and brought the ſpoil to Samaria.

d Thus by the juſt judgements of God, Iſrael deſtroyed Judah.

9 But a Prophet of the LORD was there, whoſe name was Oded: & he went out before the hoſt that came to Samaria, and ſaid unto them, Behold, [e] becauſe the LORD God of your fathers was wroth with Judah, he hath delivered e For they thought they had overcome them by their own valiantneſs, and did not conſider that God had delivered them into their hands, becauſe Judah had offended him.

vered them into your hand, and ye have ſlain them in a rage that reacheth up unto heaven.

10 And now ye purpoſe to keep under the children of Judah and Jeruſalem for bond-men, and bond-women unto you: [f] but are there not with you, even with you, ſins againſt the LORD your God?

f May not God as well puniſh you for your ſins, as he hath done theſe men for theirs, ſeeing yours are greater?

11 Now hear me therefore, and deliver the captives again, which ye have taken captive of your brethren: for the fierce wrath of the LORD is upon you.

12 Then certain of the heads of the children of [g] Ephraim, Azariah the ſon of Johanan, Berechiah the ſon of Meſhillemoth, and Jehizkiah the ſon of Shallum, and Amaſa the ſon of Hadlai, ſtood up againſt them that came from the war, g Which tribe was now greateſt, and had moſt authority.

13 And ſaid unto them, Ye ſhall not bring in the captives hither: [h] for whereas we have offended againſt the LORD already, ye intend to add more to our ſins and to our treſpaſs: for our treſpaſs is great, and there is fierce wrath againſt Iſrael.

h God will not ſuffer this ſin which we commit againſt him, to be unpuniſhed.

14 So the armed men left the captives and the ſpoil, before the princes and all the congregation.

20 And Tilgath-pilnezer King of Aſſyria came unto him, and diſtreſſed him, but ſtrengthned him not.

22 ¶ And in the time of his diſtreſs did he treſpaſs yet more againſt the LORD: this is that King Ahaz.

23 For he ſacrificed unto the Gods of † Damaſcus, which [o] ſmote him: and he ſaid, Becauſe the Gods of the kings of Syria help them, therefore will I ſacrifice to them, that they may [p] help me: but they were the ruine of him and of all Iſrael.

24 And Ahaz gathered together the veſſels of the houſe of God, and cut in pieces the veſſels of the houſe of God, and ſhut up the doors of the houſe of the LORD, and he made him altars in every corner of Jeruſalem.

4 And he brought in the Prieſts, and the Levites, and gathered them together into the eaſt-ſtreet,

5 And ſaid unto them, Hear me, ye Levites, ſanctify now your ſelves, and ſanctify the houſe of the LORD God of your fathers, and carry forth the [c] filthineſs out of the holy place.

c Idolatry, All the idols, altars, groves, and whatſoever was occupied in their ſervice, and wherewith the Temple was polluted.

6 For our fathers have treſpaſſed, and done that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD our God, and have forſaken him, and have turned away their faces from the habitation of the LORD, and † turned their backs.

† Heb. give the neck.

7 Alſo they have ſhut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burnt incenſe, nor offered burnt-offerings in the holy place, unto the God of Iſrael.

8 [d] Wherefore the wrath of the LORD was upon Judah and Jeruſalem, and he hath delivered them to † trouble, to aſtoniſhment, and to hiſſing, as ye ſee with your eyes.

d He ſheweth, that the contempt of Religion is the cauſe of all God's plagues.

† Heb. commotion.

9 For lo, our fathers have fallen by the ſword, and our ſons, and our daughters, and our wives are in captivity for this.

10 Now it is in mine heart to make a covenant with the LORD God of Iſrael, that his [e] fierce wrath may turn away from us.

e He proveth by the judgments of God upon thoſe that have contemned his word, that there is no way to avoid his plagues, but by conforming themſelves to his will.

11 My ſons ‡ be not now negligent: for the LORD hath * choſen you to ſtand before him, to ſerve him, and that you ſhould miniſter unto him, and ‡ burn incenſe.

‡ Or, be not now deceived.

riah, of the sons of the Kohathites: and of the sons of Merari; Kish the son of Abdi, and Azariah the son of Jahallelel: and of the Gershonites; Joah the son of Zimmah, and Eden the son of Joah:

13 And of the sons of Elizaphan; Shimri, and Jehiel: and of the sons of Asaph; Zechariah, and Mattaniah:

14 And of the sons of Heman; Jehiel, and Shimei: and of the sons of Jeduthun; Shemajah, and Uzziel.

15 And they gathered their brethren, and sanctified themselves, and came, according to the commandment of the King, ‡by the words of the LORD, to cleanse the house of the LORD.

‡ Or, in the business of the LORD.

16 And the Priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD, to [f] cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the Temple of the LORD, into the court of the house of the LORD. And the Levites took it, to carry it out abroad into the brook Kidron.

f From the pollutions and filth that Ahaz had brought in.

17 Now they began on the first day of the [g] first month to sanctify, and on the eighth day of the month came they to the porch of the LORD: so they sanctified the house of the LORD in eight days, and in the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end.

g Which contained part of March and part of April.

18 Then they went in to Hezekiah the King, and said, We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, and the altar of burnt-offering, with all the vessels thereof, and the shew-bread table, with all the vessels thereof.

19 Moreover, all the vessels which King Ahaz in his reign did cast away in his transgression, have we prepared and sanctified, and behold, they are before the altar of the LORD.

20 ¶ Then Hezekiah the King rose [h] early, and gathered the rulers of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD.

h By this manner of speech the Hebrews mean a certain diligence and speed to do a thing, and when there is no delay.

21 And they brought seven bullocks, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven he-goats, for a * sin-offering for the kingdom, and for the sanctuary, and for Judah: and he commanded the Priests the sons of Aaron to offer them on the altar of the LORD.

* Levit. 4. 14.

22 So they killed the bullocks, and the Priests received the bloud, and [i] sprinkled it on the altar: likewise when they had killed the rams, they sprinkled the bloud upon the altar: they killed also the lambs, and they sprinkled the bloud upon the altar.

i For without sprinkling of bloud nothing could be sanctified, Heb. 9. 21. Exod. 24. 8. Levit. 8. 14, 15.

23 And they brought † forth the he-goats for the sin-offering, before the King and the congregation, and [k] they laid their * hands upon them:

† Heb. near.

24 And the Priests killed them, and they made reconciliation with their bloud upon the altar, to make an atonement for all Israel: for the King commanded that the burnt-offering and the sin-offering should be made for all Israel.

k That is, The King and the elders, as Levit. 4. 15. for they that offered a sin-offering must lay their hands upon it, to signify, That they had deserved that death, and also that they did consecrate it to God to be thereby sanctified. Exod. 29. 10.
* Levit. 4. 15.
* 1 Chron. 16. 4. & 25. 6.

25 *And he set the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with psalteries, and with harps, according to the [l] commandment of David, and of Gad the King's seer, and Nathan the prophet: for so was the commandment † of the LORD † by his Prophets.

l This thing was not appointed of man, but it was the commandment of God.
† Heb. by the hand of the LORD.

26 And the Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the Priests with the trumpets.

† Heb. by the hand of.

27 And Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt-offering upon the altar: and † when the burnt-offering began, the song of the [m] LORD began also with the trumpets, and with the † instruments ordained by [n] David King of Israel.

† Heb. in the time.
m The Psalm which David had appointed to be sung for thanksgiving.

28 And all the congregation worshipped, and the † singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded: and all this continued until the burnt-offering was finished.

† Heb hands of instruments.
n Which David had appointed to praise the Lord with.
† Heb. sang.

† Heb. found.

30 Moreover, Hezekiah the King, and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praise unto the LORD, with the [o] words of David, and of Asaph the seer: and they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped.

o With that Psalm whereof mention is made 1 Chron. 16. 8.

31 Then Hezekiah answered and said, Now ye have ‡ consecrated your selves unto the LORD, come near and bring sacrifices, and thank-offerings into the house of the LORD. And the congregation brought in sacrifices, and thank-offerings, and as many as were of a free heart, burnt-offerings.

‡ Or, filled your hand.

32 And the number of the burnt-offerings which the congregation brought, was three-score and ten bullocks, an hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt-offering to the LORD.

33 And the [p] consecrated things were six hundred oxen, and three thousand sheep.

p That is, For the holy offerings.

34 But the Priests were too few, so that they could not flay all the burnt-offerings: wherefore their brethren the Levites † did help them till the work was ended, and until the other Priests had sanctified themselves: for the Levites were [q] more upright in heart, to sanctify themselves, than the Priests.

† Heb. strengthened them.
q Meaning, were more zealous to set forward the true Religion.

35 And also the burnt-offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace-offerings, and the drink-offerings for every burnt-offering. So the service of the house of the LORD was set in order.

36 And Hezekiah rejoyced, and all the people, that [r] God had prepared the people: for the thing was done suddenly.

r He meaneth, That Religion cannot proceed, except God touch the heart of the people.

CHAP. XXX.

1 Hezekiah proclaimeth a solemn pass-over on the second month for Judah and Israel. 13 The assembly having destroyed the altars of idolatry, keep the feast fourteen days. 27 The Priests and Levites bless the people.

AND Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to [a] Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, to keep the pass-over unto the LORD God of Israel.

a Meaning, All Israel, whom Tiglath-pilnezer had not taken away into the captivity. 2 King. 15. 29.

2 For the King had taken counsel, and his princes, and all the congregation in Jerusalem, to keep the pass-over in the [b] second month.

b Though they ought to have done it in the first month, as Exod. 12. 18. Num. 9. 3. yet if any were not clean, or else had a long journy they might defer it unto the second month, as Num. 9. 10, 11.

3 For

3 For they could not keep it at that time, becauſe the Prieſts had not ſanctified themſelves ſufficiently, neither had the people gathered themſelves together to Jeruſalem.

† Heb. was right in the eyes of the King.

4 And the thing † pleaſed the King, and all the congregation.

5 So they eſtabliſhed a decree, to make proclamation throughout all Iſrael, from [c] Beerſheba even to Dan, that they ſhould come to keep the paſs-over unto the LORD God of Iſrael at Jeruſalem: for they had not done it of a long time in ſuch ſort [d] as it was written.

c From one end of the land to the other, North and South.

d In ſuch ſort and perfection, as God had appointed.

6 So the poſts went with the letters † from the King and his princes throughout all Iſrael and Judah, and according to the commandment of the King, ſaying, Ye children of Iſrael, turn again unto the LORD God of Abraham, Iſaac, and Iſrael, and [e] he will return to the remnant of you, that are eſcaped out of the hand of the Kings of Aſſyria.

† Heb. from the hand.

e He will have compaſſion on them, and preſerve them.

7 And be not ye like your fathers, and like your brethren, which treſpaſſed againſt the LORD God of their fathers, who therefore gave them up to deſolation, as ye ſee.

8 Now † be ye not ſtiff-necked as your fathers were, but † [f] yeild your ſelves unto the LORD, and enter into his ſanctuary, which he hath ſanctified for ever: and ſerve the LORD your God, that the fierceneſs of his wrath may turn away from you.

† Heb. harden not your necks.

† Heb. give the hand.

f Submit your ſelves to the Lord, and rebel no more.

9 For if ye turn again unto the LORD, your brethren and your children ſhall find compaſſion before them that led them captive, ſo that they ſhall [g] come again into this land: for the LORD your God is * gracious and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, if ye return unto him.

g God will not onely preſerve you, but through your repentance reſtore your brethren, which for their ſins he gave into the hands of the enemies.

* Exod. 34. 6.

10 So the poſts paſſed from city to city, through the country of Ephraim and Manaſſeh, even unto Zebulun: but they [h] laughed them to ſcorn, and mocked them.

h Though the wicked mock at the ſervants of God by whom he calleth them to repentance, as Gen. 19. 14. yet the word ceaſeth not to fructify in the hearts of God's elect.

11 Neverthleſs, divers of Aſher and Manaſſeh, and of Zebulun humbled themſelves, and came to Jeruſalem.

12 Alſo in Judah, the hand of God was to give them [i] one heart to do the commandment of the King and of the princes, by the word of the LORD.

i He sheweth, The cauſe why ſome obey, and ſome mock at God's calling, to wit, becauſe his Spirit is with the one ſort, and moveth their heart, and the other are left to themſelves.

13 ¶ And there aſſembled at Jeruſalem much people, to keep the feaſt of unleavened bread in the ſecond month, a very great congregation.

14 And they aroſe, and took away the * [k] altars that were in Jeruſalem, and all the altars for incenſe took they away, and caſt them into the brook Kidron.

* Chap. 28. 24.

k Which declareth that we muſt put away thoſe things wherewith God is offended, before we can ſerve him aright.

15 Then they killed the paſs-over on the fourteenth day of the ſecond month: and the Prieſts and the Levites were [l] aſhamed, and ſanctified themſelves, and brought in the burnt-offerings into the houſe of the LORD.

l Seeing their own negligence (who ſhould have been moſt prompt) and the readineſs of the people, Chap. 29. 36.

16 And they ſtood in † their place after their manner, according to the law of Moſes the man of God: the Prieſts ſprinkled the [m] bloud, which they received of the hand of the Levites.

m To wit, Of the lamb of the paſs-over.

17 For there were many in the congregation that were not ſanctified: therefore the Levites had the charge of the killing of the paſs-overs, for every one that was not clean, to ſanctify them unto the LORD.

18 For a multitude of the people, even many of Ephraim and Manaſſeh, Iſſachar, and Zebulun, had not cleanſed themſelves, yet did they eat the paſs-over otherwiſe than it was written: but Hezekiah prayed for them, ſaying, [n] The good LORD pardon every one n He knew, that faith and ſincerity of heart was more agreable to God, than the obſervation of theſe ceremonies, and therefore he prayed unto God to pardon this fault unto the people which did not offend of malice, but of ignorance.

19 That prepareth his heart to ſeek God, the LORD God of his fathers, though he be not cleanſed according to the purification of the ſanctuary.

20 And the LORD hearkned to Hezekiah, and [o] healed the people.

o That is, Did accept them as puritied.

21 And the children of Iſrael that were † preſent at Jeruſalem, kept the feaſt of unleavened bread ſeven days with great gladneſs: and the Levites, and the Prieſts praiſed the LORD day by day, ſinging with † loud inſtruments unto the LORD.

† Heb. found.

† Heb. inſtruments of ſtrength.

22 And Hezekiah ſpake † comfortably unto all the Levites, that taught the good knowledge of the LORD: and they did eat throughout the feaſt ſeven days, offering peace-offerings, and making confeſſion to the LORD God of their fathers.

† Heb. to the heart of all, &c.

23 And the whole aſſembly took counſel to keep other ſeven days: and they kept other ſeven days with gladneſs.

24 For Hezekiah King of Judah † did give to the congregation a thouſand bullocks, and ſeven thouſand ſheep; and the princes gave to the congregation a [p] thouſand bullocks, and ten thouſand ſheep: and a great number of Prieſts ſanctified themſelves.

† Heb. lifted up, or, offered.

p This great liberality declareth how kings, Princes, and all they to whom God hath given wherewith, ought to be moſt ready to beſtow it in ſetting forth of God's glory.

25 And all the congregation of Judah, with the Prieſts and the Levites, and all the congregation that came out of Iſrael, and the ſtrangers that came out of the land of Iſrael, and that dwelt in Judah, rejoyced.

26 So there was great joy in Jeruſalem: for ſince the time of Solomon the ſon of David King of Iſrael, there was not the like in Jeruſalem.

27 ¶ Then the Prieſts the Levites aroſe, and [q] bleſſed the people: and their voice was heard, and their prayer came up to † his holy dwelling-place, even unto heaven.

q According to that which is written, Num. 6. 23. when they ſhould diſmiſs the people.

2 ¶ And Hezekiah appointed the courses of the Priests and the Levites after their courses, every man according to his service, the Priests and Levites for burnt-offerings, and for peace-offerings, to minister and to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the tents [c] of the LORD.

c That is, In the temple where they assembled as in a tent.

3 He appointed also the King's portion of his substance, for the burnt-offerings, to wit, for the morning and evening burnt-offerings, and the burnt-offerings for the sabbaths, and for the new-moons, and for the set feasts, as it is written in the *law of the LORD.

* Num. 28. 3, 9.

4 Moreover, he commanded the people that dwelt in Jerusalem, to give the [d] portion of the Priests, and the Levites, that they might be [e] encouraged in the law of the LORD.

d The tithes and first-fruits for the maintenance of the Priests and Levites e That their minds might not be entangled with provision of worldly things, but that they might wholly and cheerfully serve the Lord.

5 ¶ And assoon as the commandment † came abroad, the children of Israel brought in abundance the first-fruits of corn, wine, and oyl, and ‡ hony, and of all the increase of the field, and the tithe of all things brought they in abundantly.

† Heb. brake forth.

6 And concerning the children of Israel and Judah, that dwelt in the cities of Judah, they also brought in the [f] tithes of oxen and sheep, and the* tithe of holy things, which were consecrated unto the LORD their God, and laid them †[g] by heaps.

f Which they had dedicated to the Lord by a vow.

† Heb. heaps heaps.

g For the relief of the Priests, Levites, widows, pupils, fatherless, strangers, and such as were in necessity.

7 In the third month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished them in the seventh month.

8 And when Hezekiah and the princes came and saw the heaps, they [h] blessed the LORD and his people Israel.

h They praised the Lord, and prayed for all prosperity to his people.

9 Then Hezekiah questioned with the Priests and the Levites concerning the heaps.

10 And Azariah the chief Priest of the house of Zadok, answered him, and said, Since the people began to bring the offerings into the house of the LORD, we have had enough to eat, and have [i] left plenty: for the LORD hath blessed his people; and that which is left, is this great store.

i He sheweth, That this plenteous liberality is expedient for the maintenance of the ministers, and that God therefore prospereth his people, and increaseth by his blessing that which is given

11 ¶ Then Hezekiah commanded to prepare ‡ chambers in the house of the LORD; and they prepared them;

‡ Or, store-houses.

12 And brought in the offerings and the tithes, and the dedicate things faithfully: over which Cononiah the Levite was ruler, and Shimei his brother was the next.

13 And Jehiel, and Azaziah, and Nahath, and Asahel, and Jerimoth, and Jozabad, and Eliel, and Ismachiah, and Mahath, and Benajah, were overseers † under the hand of Cononiah and Shimei his brother, at the commandment of Hezekiah the King, and Azariah the ruler of the house of God.

† Heb. at the hand.

14 And Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the porter toward the east, was over the free-will-offerings of God, to distribute the oblations of the LORD, and the most holy things.

15 And † next him were Eden, and Minjamin, and Jeshua, and Shemajah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, in the cities of the Priests, in their ‡ set office, to give to their brethren by courses, as well to the great as to the small.

17 Both to the genealogy of the Priests by the house of their fathers, and the Levites from twenty years old and upward, in their charges by their courses:

18 And to the genealogy of all their little ones, their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, through all the congregation: [l] for in their ‡ set office they sanctified themselves in holiness.

l Meaning, That either by the faithful distributions of the officers, every one had their part in the things that were offered, or else that their wives and children were relieved, because the Levites were faithful in their office, and so depended on them.

20 ¶ And thus did Hezekiah throughout all Judah, and wrought that which was good and right and truth before the LORD his God.

21 And in every work that he began in the service of the house of God, and in the law and in the commandments to seek his God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.

CHAP. XXXII.

1 Sennacherib invading Judah, Hezekiah fortifieth himself, and encourageth his people. 9 Against the blasphemies of Sennacherib by message and letters, Hezekiah and Isaiah pray. 21 An Angel destroyeth the host of the Assyrians, to the glory of Hezekiah. 24 Hezekiah praying in his sickness, God giveth him a sign of recovery. 25 He waxing proud, is humbled by God. 27 His wealth and works. 31 His errour in the embassage of Babylon. 32 He dying, Manasseh succeedeth him.

AFter these things and the establishment thereof, Sennacherib King of Assyria came, and entred into Judah, and encamped against the fenced cities, and thought † to win them for himself.

3 He took counsel with his princes, and his mighty men, to stop the waters of the fountains, which were without the city: and they did help him.

7 Be

7 Be ſtrong and couragious, be not afraid nor diſmayed for the King of Aſſyria, nor for all the multitude that is with him: for there be more with us, than with him.

8 With him is an *[d] arm of fleſh, but with us is the [e] LORD our God, to help us, and to fight our battels. And the people † reſted themſelves upon the words of Hezekiah King of Judah.

9 ¶ * After this did Sennacherib King of Aſſyria ſend his ſervants to Jeruſalem (but he himſelf laid ſiege againſt [f] Lachiſh, and all his †power with him) unto Hezekiah King of Judah, and unto all Judah, that were at Jeruſalem, ſaying, 10 Thus ſaith Sennacherib King of Aſſyria, Whereon do ye truſt, that ye abide ‡ in the ſiege in Jeruſalem?

11 Doth not Hezekiah perſwade you to give over your ſelves to die by famine and by thirſt, ſaying, The LORD our God ſhall deliver us out of the hand of the King of Aſſyria?

12 Hath not the ſame Hezekiah taken away his high places, and his [g] altars, and commanded Judah and Jeruſalem, ſaying, Ye ſhall worſhip before one altar, and burn incenſe upon it?

13 Know ye not what I and my fathers have done unto all the people of other lands? were the Gods of the nations of thoſe lands any ways able to deliver their lands out of mine hand?

14 Who was there among all the [h] Gods of thoſe nations, that my fathers utterly deſtroyed, that could deliver his people out of mine hand, that your God ſhould be able to deliver you out of mine hand?

15 Now therefore let not Hezekiah deceive you, nor perſwade you on this manner, neither yet believe him: for no God of any nation or kingdom was able to [i] deliver his people out of mine hand, and out of the hand of my fathers: how much leſs ſhall your God deliver you out of mine hand?

16 And his ſervants ſpake yet more againſt the LORD God, and againſt his ſervant [k] Hezekiah.

17 He wrote alſo letters to rail on the LORD God of Iſrael, and to ſpeak againſt him, ſaying, As the Gods of the nations of other lands have not delivered their people out of mine hand, ſo ſhall not the God of Hezekiah deliver his people out of mine hand.

18 Then they [l] cried with a loud voice in the Jews ſpeech unto the people of Jeruſalem that were on the wall, to affright them, and to trouble them, that they might take the city.

19 And they ſpake againſt the God of Jeruſalem, as againſt the Gods of the people of the earth which were the [m] work of the hands of man.

20 And for this cauſe Hezekiah the King, and the Prophet Iſaiah the ſon of Amoz, [n] prayed and cried to heaven.

21 ¶ And the LORD ſent an Angel which cut off all the mighty men of valour, and the leaders and [o] captains in the camp of the King of Aſſyria: ſo he returned with ſhame of face to his own land. And when he was come into the houſe of his God, they that came forth of his own [p] bowels, † ſlew him there with the ſword.

22 Thus the LORD ſaved Hezekiah, and the inhabitants of Jeruſalem from the hand of Sennacherib the King of Aſſyria, and from the hand of all other, and guided them on every ſide.

23 And many brought gifts unto the LORD to Jeruſalem, and † preſents to Hezekiah king of Judah: ſo that he was [q] magnified in the ſight of all nations, from thenceforth.

24 ¶ * In thoſe days Hezekiah was ſick to the death, and prayed unto the LORD: and he ſpake unto him, and he ‡ gave him a [r] ſign.

25 But Hezekiah rendred not again, according to the benefit done unto him: for his heart was [s] lifted up; therefore there was wrath upon him, and upon Judah and Jeruſalem.

26 Notwithſtanding, Hezekiah humbled himſelf for † the pride of his heart (both he and the inhabitants of Jeruſalem) ſo that the wrath of the LORD came not upon them in the days of Hezekiah.

27 ¶ And Hezekiah had exceeding much riches and honour: and he made himſelf treaſures for ſilver, and for gold, and for precious ſtones, and for ſpices, and for ſhields, and for all manner of † pleaſant jewels;

28 Store-houſes alſo for the increaſe of corn, and wine, and oyl; and ſtalls for all manner of beaſts, and cotes for flocks.

29 Moreover, he provided him cities, and poſſeſſions of flocks, and herds in abundance: for God had given him ſubſtance very much.

30 This ſame Hezekiah alſo ſtopped the upper water-courſe of [t] Gihon, and brought it ſtraight down to the weſt-ſide of the city of David. And Hezekiah proſpered in all his works.

31 ¶ Howbeit, in the buſineſs of the † Embaſſadours of the Princes of Babylon, who * ſent unto him to enquire of the wonder that was done in the land, God left him to [u] try him, that he might know all that was in his heart.

32 ¶ Now the reſt of the acts of Hezekiah, and his †goodneſs, behold, they are written in the viſion of Iſaiah the Prophet, the ſon of Amoz, and in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Iſrael.

1 Manaſſeh his wicked reign. 3 He ſetteth up idolatry, and would not be admoniſhed. 11 He is carried into Babylon. 12 Upon his prayer to God he is releaſed, and putteth down idolatry. 18 His acts. 20 He dying, Amon ſucceedeth him. 21 Amon reigning wickedly, is ſlain by his ſervants. 25 The murderers being ſlain, Joſiah ſucceedeth him.

* 2 King. 21. 1, &c.

MAnaſſeh was* twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and five years in Jeruſalem:

2 But did that which was evil in the ſight of the LORD, like unto the * abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD had caſt out before the children of Iſrael.

* Deut. 18. 9.

† Heb. he returned and built.

3 ¶ For † he built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had *broken down, and he reared up altars for Baalim, and made groves, and worſhipped all the hoſt of heaven, and ſerved them.

* 2 King. 18. 4.

4 Alſo he built altars in the houſe of the LORD, whereof the LORD had ſaid, * In Jeruſalem ſhall my name be for ever.

* Deut. 12. 11. 1 King. 8. 29. & 9. 3. Chap. 6. 6. & 7. 16.

5 And he built altars for all the hoſt of heaven, in the two courts of the houſe of the LORD.

6 * 2 King. 16. 3.

6 * And he cauſed his children to paſs through the fire in the valley of the ſon of Hinnom: alſo he obſerved times, and uſed enchantments, and uſed witchcraft, and dealt with a familiar Spirit, and with Wizards: he wrought much evil in the ſight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

7 And he ſet a carved image (the idol which he had made) in the houſe of God, of which God had ſaid to David, and to Solomon his ſon, In * this houſe, and in Jeruſalem, which I have choſen before all the tribes of Iſrael, will I put my name for ever.

* Pſal. 132. 14.

8 * Neither will I any more remove the foot of Iſrael from out of the land which I have appointed for your fathers; ſo that they will take heed to do all that I have commanded them, according to the whole law, and the ſtatutes and the ordinances by the [b] hand of Moſes.

9 So Manaſſeh made Judah and the inhabitants of Jeruſalem to err, and to do worſe than the heathen, whom the LORD had deſtroyed before the children of Iſrael.

c Meaning, By his Prophets, but their hearts were not touched to believe and repent, without the which the preaching of the word taketh no place.

11 ¶ Wherefore the LORD brought upon them the captains of the hoſt † of the King of Aſſyria, which took Manaſſeh among the thorns, and bound him with ‡ fetters, and carried him to Babylon.

d Thus affliction giveth underſtanding, for he that hated God in his proſperity, now in his miſery he ſeeketh unto him.

12 And when he was in affliction, he beſought the LORD his God, and humbled himſelf greatly before the God of his fathers, 13 And prayed unto him, and he was [d] entreated of him, and heard his ſupplication, and brought him again to Jeruſalem into his Kingdom. Then Manaſſeh knew that the LORD he was God.

14 Now after this, he built a wall without the city of David, on the weſt-ſide of * Gihon, in the valley, even to the entring in at the fiſh-gate, and compaſſed about ‡ [f] Ophel, and raiſed it up a very great height, and put captains of war in all the fenced cities of Judah.

15 And he took away the ſtrange Gods, and the idol out of the houſe of the LORD, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the houſe of the LORD, and in Jeruſalem, and caſt them out of the city.

16 And he [g] repaired the altar of the LORD, and ſacrificed thereon peace-offerings, and thank-offerings, and commanded Judah to ſerve the LORD God of Iſrael.

g Which Solomon had cauſed to be made.

17 Nevertheleſs, the people did ſacrifice ſtill in the high places, yet unto the LORD their God [h] onely, h Thus by ignorance they were deceived, thinking it nothing to keep the altar, ſo that they worſhipped God: but it is idolatry to worſhip God any otherwiſe than he hath appointed.

18 ¶ Now the reſt of the acts of Manaſſeh, and his [i] prayer unto his God, and the words of the ſeers that ſpake to him in the name of the LORD God of Iſrael, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Iſrael.

i Which albeit that it is not contained in the Hebrew, yet it is mentioned in the Greek.

21 ¶ * Amon was two and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned two years in Jeruſalem.

* 2 King. 21. 19, &c.

22 But he did that which was evil in the ſight of the LORD, as did Manaſſeh his father: for Amon ſacrificed unto all the carved images, which Manaſſeh his father had made, and ſerved them;

23 And humbled not himſelf before the LORD, as Manaſſeh his father had humbled himſelf; but Amon † treſpaſſed more and more.

† Heb. multiplied treſpaſs.

* 2 King. 21 1, &c.

JOſiah * was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jeruſalem one and thirty years.

a He followed David in all points that he followed the Lord.

2 And he did that which was right in the ſight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of [a] David his father, and declined neither to the right hand nor to the left.

b When he was but ſixteen years old, he ſhewed himſelf zealous of God's glory, and at twenty years old he aboliſhed idolatry, and reſtored the true Religion.

3 ¶ For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet [b] young, he began to ſeek after the God of David his father: and in the twelfth year year he began * to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images.

4 * And they brake down the altars of Baalim in his [c] presence; and the ‡ images that were on high above them, he cut down, and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images he brake in pieces, and made dust of them, and strowed it upon the † graves of them that had sacrificed unto them.

5 And he burnt the [d] bones of the Priests upon their altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem.

6 And so did he in the cities of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and Simeon, even unto Naphtali, with their ‡ mattocks, round about.

7 And when he had * broken down the altars and the groves, and had beaten the graven images † into powder, and cut down all the idols throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem.

8 ¶ Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land, and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maasejah the governour of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his God.

9 And when they came to Hilkiah the high Priest, they delivered the mony that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites that kept the doors, had gathered of the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and of all the remnant of Israel, and of all Judah, and Benjamin, and they returned to Jerusalem.

10 And they put it in the hand of the workmen, that had the oversight of the house of the LORD, and they gave it to the workmen that wrought in the house of the LORD, to repair and mend the house:

11 Even to the artificers and builders gave they it, to buy hewn stone, and timber for couplings, and ‡ to floor the [f] houses, which the Kings of Judah had destroyed.

12 And the men did the work [g] faithfully: and the overseers of them were Jahath, and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of Merari; and Zechariah, and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to set it forward; and other of the Levites, all that could skill of instruments of musick.

13 Also they were over the bearers of burdens, and were overseers of all that wrought the work in any manner of service: and of the Levites there were scribes, and officers, and porters.

14 ¶ And when they brought out the mony that was brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiah the Priest * found a [h] Book of the Law of the LORD, given † by Moses.

15 And Hilkiah answered and said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the Book of the Law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiah delivered the Book to Shaphan:

16 And Shaphan carried the Book to the King, and brought the King word back again, [i] saying, All that was committed † to thy servants, they do it.

17 And they have † gathered together the mony that was found in the house of the LORD, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers, and to the hand of the workmen.

18 Then Shaphan the scribe told the King, saying, Hilkiah the Priest hath given me a Book. And Shaphan read † it before the King.

19 And it came to pass when the King had heard the words of the Law, that he [k] rent his clothes.

20 And the King commanded Hilhiah, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and ‡ Abdon the son of Micah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asajah a servant of the King's, saying,

21 Go, enquire of the LORD for me, and for them that are left in Israel, and in Judah, concerning the words of the Book that is found: for great is the wrath of the LORD that is poured out upon us, because our [l] fathers have not kept the word of the LORD, to do after all that is written in this Book.

22 And Hilkiah, and they that the King had appointed, went to Huldah the Prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvath, the son of ‡ Hasrah, keeper of the † [m] wardrobe; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem ‡ in the [n] colledge) and they spake to her to that effect.

23 ¶ And she answered them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Tell ye the [o] man that sent you to me,

24 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the curses that are written in the Book which they have read before the King of Judah:

25 Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their [p] hands; therefore my wrath shall be poured out upon this place, and shall not be quenched.

26 And as for the King of Judah, who sent you to enquire of the LORD, so shall ye say unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel concerning the words which thou hast heard, 27 Because thine heart was [q] tender, and thou didst humble thy self before God, when thou heardst his words against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, and humbledst thy self before me, and didst rend thy clothes, and weep before me; I have even heard thee also, saith the LORD.

28 Behold, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered to thy grave in peace, neither shall thine eyes see all the evil that I will bring upon this [r] place, and upon the inhabitants of the same. So they brought the King word again.

29 ¶ * Then the King sent, and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

1 Josiah keepeth a most solemn pass-over. 20 He provoking Pharaoh-necho, is slain at Megiddo. 25 Lamentations for Josiah.

MOreover,* Josiah kept a pass-over unto the LORD in Jerusalem: and they killed the [a] pass-over on the * fourteenth day of the first month.

* 2 King. 23. 21, 22.

2 And he set the Priests in their charges, and encouraged them to the service of the house of the LORD,

3 And said unto the Levites that [b] taught all Israel, which were holy unto the LORD, Put the holy Ark in the house, which Solomon the son of David King of Israel did build; it shall not be a [c] burden upon your shoulders: serve now the LORD your God, and his people Israel, a The Scripture useth in sundry places to call the lamb, the pass-over, which was but the sign of the pass-over, because in all Sacraments the signs of the things have the names which are signified.

* Exod. 12. 6.

b So that the Levites charge was not onely to minister in the Temple, but also to instruct the people in the word of God.

c As it was before the Temple was built: therefore your office onely is now to teach the people, and to praise God.

4 And prepare your selves by the * houses of your fathers, after your courses, according to the * writing of David King of Israel, and according to the * writing of Solomon his son.

* 1 Chron. 9. 10.

* 1 Chron 23. & 24. & 25. & 26.

* Chap. 8. 14.

5 And stand in the holy place according to the divisions of † the families of the fathers of your brethren † the people, and after the division of the families of the Levites.

† Heb. the house of the fathers.

† The sons of the people.

6 So kill the pass-over, and sanctify your selves, and [d] prepare your brethren, that they may do according to the word of the LORD, by the hand of Moses.

d Exhort every one to examine themselves, that they be not unmeet to eat of the pass-over.

7 And Josiah † gave to the people of the flock, lambs and kids, all for the pass-over-offerings, for all that were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bullocks: these were of the King's substance.

† Heb. offered.

8 And his Princes † gave willingly unto the people, to the Priests and to the Levites: Hilkiah, and Zechariah, and Jehiel, rulers of the house of God, gave unto the Priests for the pass-over-offerings, two thousand & six hundred small cattel, and three hundred oxen.

9 [e] Conaniah also, and Shemajah, and Nethaneel, his brethren, and Hashabiah, and Jehiel, and Jozabad chief of the Levites, † gave unto the Levites for pass-over-offerings, five thousand small cattel, and five hundred oxen.

e So that every one, and of all sorts have of that they had, a liberal portion to the service of God.

† Heb. offered.

10 So the service was prepared, and the Priests stood in their place, and the Levites in their courses, according to the King's commandment.

11 And they killed the pass-over, and the Priests [f] sprinkled the bloud from their hands, and the Levites * flayed them.

f Meaning, Of the lamb, which was called the pass-over: for onely the Priests might sprinkle, and in necessity the Levites might kill the sacrifice.

* Chap. 29. 34.

12 And they removed the [g] burnt-offerings, that they might give according to the divisions of the families of the people, to offer unto the LORD, as it is written in the Book of Moses: and so did they with the oxen.

g They reserved for the people that which was not expedient to be offered, that every man might offer peace-offerings and so have his portion.

13 And they * rosted the pass-over with fire, according to the ordinance: but the other holy offerings sod they in pots, and in caldrons, and in pans, and † divided them speedily among all the people.

* Exod. 12. 8, 9.

† Heb. made them run.

14 And afterward they made ready for themselves, and for the Priests: because the Priests the sons of Aaron were busied in offering of burnt-offerings and the fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared for themselves and for the Priests the sons of Aaron.

15 And the singers the sons of Asaph were in their † place, according to the * commandment of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the King's [h] seer; and the porters * waited at every gate; they might not depart from their service; for their brethren the Levites prepared for them.

16 So all the service of the LORD was prepared the same day, to keep the pass-over, and to offer burnt-offerings upon the altar of the LORD, according to the commandment of King Josiah.

17 And the children of Israel that were † present, kept the pass-over at that time, and the feast of unleavened bread seven days.

† Heb. found.

18 And there was no pass-over like to that kept in Israel, from the days of Samuel the Prophet, neither did all the Kings of Israel keep such a pass-over as Josiah kept, and the Priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel that were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

19 In the [i] eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah, was this pass-over kept.

14 ¶ Moreover, all the chief of the Prieſts, and the people tranſgreſſed very much, after all the abominations of the heathen, and polluted the houſe of the LORD which he had hallowed in Jeruſalem.

15 * And the LORD God of their fathers ſent to them † by his meſſengers, [f] riſing up ‡ betimes, and ſending, becauſe he had compaſſion on his people, and on his dwelling-place:

18 And all the veſſels of the houſe of God, great and ſmall, and the treaſures of the houſe of the LORD, and the treaſures of the King, and of his Princes; all theſe he brought to Babylon.

n God had ſo forewarned by his Prophet above an hundred years before Cyrus was born, Iſa. 44. 28. that Jeruſalem and the Temple ſhould be built again by Cyrus his anointed: ſo called, becauſe God uſed his ſervice for a time to deliver his church.

EZRA.

THE ARGUMENT.

AS the Lord is ever merciful unto his church, and doth not punish them, but to the intent they should see their own miseries, and be exercised under the cross, that they may contemn the world and aspire unto the heavens: so after that he had visited the Jews and kept them now in bondage seventy years in a strange country among infidels and idolaters; he remembred his tender mercies and their infirmities, and therefore for his own sake raised them up a deliverer, and moved both the heart of the chief Ruler to pity them, and also by him punished such, which had kept them in servitude. Notwithstanding, lest they should grow into a contempt of God's great benefits, he keepeth them still in exercise, and raiseth domestical enemies, which endeavour as much as they can to hinder their most worthy enterprises: yet by the exhortation of the Prophets they went forward by little and little till their work was finished. The Authour of this Book was Ezra, who was Priest, and Scribe of the Law, as Chap. 7. 6. He returned to Jerusalem the sixth year of Darius, who succeeded Cyrus, that is, about fifty years after the return of the first under Zerubbabel, when the Temple was built. He brought with him a great company, and much treasures, with letters to the King's officers for all such things as should be necessary for the Temple: and at his coming he redressed that which was amiss, and set things in good order.

CHAP. I.

1 The proclamation of Cyrus for the building of the Temple. 5 The people provide for the return. 7 Cyrus restoreth the vessels of the Temple to Sheshbazzar.

a After that he and Darius had won Babylon.

NOw in the [a] first year of Cyrus King of Persia, (that the word of the LORD * by the [b] mouth of Jeremiah, might be fulfilled) the LORD stirred up the [c] spirit of Cyrus King of Persia, that he † made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying,

* 2 Chron. 36. 22. Jer 25. 12. & 29. 10.

b who promised them deliverance after that 70 years were past.

c That is, Moved him, and gave him a heart.

† Heb. caused a voice to pass.

2 Thus said Cyrus King of Persia, The LORD God of heaven hath given me [d] all the kingdoms of the earth, and he hath * charged me to build him an house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah.

d For he was chief Monarch, and had many nations under his dominion, which this heathen King confesseth to have received of the living God.

* Isa. 44. 28. & 45. 13.

3 Who is there among you of all his people? his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of the LORD God of Israel (he is the God) which is in Jerusalem.

† Heb. lift him up.

e If any through poverty were not able to return, the King's commission was, that he should be furnished with necessaries.

4 And whosoever remaineth in any place where he sojourneth, let the men of his place †[e] help him with silver, and with gold, and with goods, and with beasts, besides the free-will-offering [f] for the house of God that is in Jerusalem.

f Which they themselves should send toward the reparation of the Temple.

5 ¶ Then rose up the chief of the fathers of Judah and Benjamin, and the Priests and the Levites, with all them whose spirit God had raised to go up, to build the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem.

6 And all [g] they that were about them, ‡strengthned their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with beasts, and with precious things, besides all that was willingly offered.

g The Babylonians and Chaldeans gave them these presents: thus rather than the children of God should want for their necessities, he would stir up the heart of the very infidels to help them.

‡ That is, helped them.

7 ¶ Also Cyrus the King brought forth the vessels of the house of the LORD, * which Nebuchadnezzar had brought forth out of Jerusalem, & had put them in the house of his Gods:

* 2 King. 24. 13. 2 Chron. 36. 7.

8 Even those did Cyrus King of Persia bring forth by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and numbred them unto *[h] Sheshbazzar the Prince of Judah.

* Chap. 5. 14.

h So ths Chaldeans called Zerubbabel, who was the chief governour, so that the preeminence still remained in the house of David.

9 And this is the number of them: thirty chargers of gold, a thousand chargers of silver, nine and twenty [i] knives, i Which served to kill the beasts that were offered in sacrifice.

10 Thirty basons of gold, silver basons of a second sort four hundred and ten, and other vessels a thousand.

11 All the vessels of gold and of silver, were five thousand and four hundred. All these did Sheshbazzar bring up with [k] them of † the captivity, that were brought up from Babylon unto Jerusalem.

k With the Jews that had been kept captives in Babylon.

† Heb. the transportation.

Chap. III.

1 The Altar is set up. 4 Offerings frequented. 7 Workmen prepared. 8 The foundations of the Temple are laid in great joy and mourning.

AND when the [a] seventh month was come, and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered themselves together, as one man, to Jerusalem.

2 Then stood up ‡ Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren the Priests, & ‡ [b] Zerubbabel the son of * Shealtiel, and his brethren, and builded the Altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt-offerings thereon, as it is * written in the Law of Moses the man of God.

3 And they set the Altar upon his [c] bases (for fear was upon them, because of the people of those countrys) and they offered burnt-offerings thereon unto the Lord, even burnt-offerings morning and evening;

4 They kept also the feast of tabernacles, * as it is written, and * offered the daily burnt-offerings by number, according to the custom, † as the duty of every day required;

5 And afterward offered the [d] continual burnt-offering, both of the new-moons, and of all the set feasts of the Lord, that were consecrated, and of every one that willingly offered a free-will-offering unto the Lord.

6 From the first day of the seventh month began they to offer burnt-offerings unto the Lord: but † the foundation of the Temple of the Lord was not yet laid.

7 They gave mony also unto the masons, and to the ‡ carpenters; and meat, and drink, and oyl, unto them of Zidon, and to them of Tyre, to bring cedar-trees from Lebanon to the sea of * Joppa: according to the grant that they had of Cyrus King of Persia.

8 ¶ Now in the second year of their coming unto the house of God at Jerusalem, in the [e] second month, began Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the remnant of their brethren the Priests and the Levites, and all they what were come out of the captivity unto Jerusalem; and appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to set foward the work of the house of the Lord.

9 Then [f] stood Jeshua, with his sons and his brethren, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of ‡ Judah † together, to set forward the workmen in the house of God: the sons of Henadad, with their sons and their brethren the Levites.

10 And when the builders laid the foundation of the Temple of the Lord, they set the Priests in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaph, with cymbals to praise the Lord, after the * ordinance of David King of Israel.

11 And they sung together by course, in praising and giving thanks unto the Lord; because he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever towards Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised the Lord, because the foundation of the house of the Lord was laid.

12 But many of the Priests and Levites, and chief of the fathers, who were ancient men that had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, [g] wept with a loud voice, and many shouted aloud for joy:

13 So that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy, from the noise of the weeping of the people: for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard afar off.

Chap. IV.

1 The adversaries being not accepted in the building of the Temple with the Jews, endeavour to hinder it. 7 Their letter to Artaxerxes. 17 The decree of Artaxerxes. 23 The building is hindred.

NOW when the [a] adversaries of Judah and Benjamin, heard that † the children of the captivity builded the Temple unto the Lord God of Israel:

2 Then they came to Zerubbabel, and to the chief of the fathers, and said unto them, Let us build with you; for we seek your God, as ye do, and we do sacrifice unto him, since the days of Esar-haddon King of Assur, which brought up us hither.

3 But Zerubbabel and Jeshua, and the rest of the chief of the fathers of Israel, said unto them, [b] You have nothing to do with us, to build an house unto our God, but we our selves together will build unto the Lord God of Israel, as King Cyrus the King of Persia hath commanded us.

4 Then the people of the land weakned the hands of the people of Judah, and troubled them in building,

5 And [c] hired counsellers against them, to frustrate their purpose, all the days of Cyrus King of Persia, even until the reign of Darius King of Persia.

6 And in the reign of † [d] Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, wrote they unto him an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

10 And the rest of the nations whom the great and noble [g] Asnappar brought over, and set in the cities of Samaria, and the rest that are on this side the [h] river, and [i] at such a time.

11 ¶ This is the copy of the letters that they sent unto him, even unto Artaxerxes the king, Thy servants the men on this side the river, and at such a time.

12 Be it known unto the King, that the Jews which came up from thee to us, are come unto Jerusalem, building the rebellious and the bad city, and have ‡ set up the walls thereof, and † joyned the foundations.

13 Be it known now unto the King, that if this city be builded, and the walls set up again, then will they not † pay toll, tribute, and [k] custom, and so thou shalt endamage the ‡ revenue of the Kings.

14 Now because † we have maintenance from the King's palace, and it was not meet for us to see the Kings dishonour: therefore have we sent and certified the King,

15 That search may be made in the Book of the records of thy fathers: so shalt thou find in the Book of the records, and know, that this city is a rebellious city, and hurtful unto Kings and provinces, and that they have † moved sedition † within the same of old time: for which cause was this city destroyed.

16 We certify the King, that if this city be builded again, and the walls thereof set up, by this means thou shalt have no portion on this side the river.

17 ¶ Then sent the King an answer unto Rehum the chancellour, and to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their † companions that dwell in Samaria, and unto the rest beyond the river, [l] Peace, [m] and at such a time.

18 The letter which ye sent unto us, hath been plainly read before me.

19 And † I command, and search hath been made, and it is found, that this city of old time hath † made insurrection against Kings, and that rebellion and sedition have been made therein.

20 There have been mighty Kings also over Jerusalem, which have ruled over all countrys beyond the river; and toll, tribute, and custom was paid unto them.

21 † Give ye now commandment, to cause these men to cease, and that this city be not builded, until another commandment shall be given from me.

22 Take heed now that ye fail not to do this: why should damage grow to the hurt of the Kings?

23 ¶ Now when the copy of King Artaxerxes letter was read before Rehum and Shimshai the scribe, & their companions, they went up in hast to Jerusalem, unto the Jews, and made them to cease † by force and power.

24 Then [n] ceased the work of the house of God, which is at Jerusalem. So it ceased unto the second year of the reign of Darius King of Persia.

1 Zerubbabel and Jeshua, incited by Haggai and Zechariah, set forward the building of the Temple. 3 Tatnai and Shethar-boznai could not hinder the Jews. 6 Their letter to Darius against the Jews.

THen the prophets, *Haggai the prophet, and * Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied unto the Jews that were in Judah and Jerusalem, in the name of the God of Israel, even unto them.

2 Then rose up Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and began to build the house of God, which is at Jerusalem: and with them were the Prophets of God [a] helping them.

3 ¶ At the same time came to them Tatnai, governour on this side the river, and Shethar-boznai, and their companions, and said thus unto them, Who hath commanded you to build this house, and to make up this wall?

4 [b] Then said we unto them after this manner, What are the names of the men † that make this building?

8 Be it known unto the King, that we went into the province of Judea, to the house of the great God, which is builded with † great stones, and timber is laid in the walls, and this work goeth fast on, and prospereth in their hands.

9 Then asked we those elders, and said unto them thus, Who commanded you to build this house, and to make up these walls?

10 We asked their names also, to certify thee, that we might write the names of the men that were the chief of them.

11 And thus they returned us answer, saying, We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and build the house that was builded these many years ago, which a [d] great King of Israel builded, * and set up.

12 But after that our fathers had provoked the God of heaven unto wrath, he gave them into the hand of * Nebuchadnezzar the King of Babylon the Chaldean, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Babylon.

of Babylon, and they were delivered unto one, whose name was [f] Sheshbazzar, whom he had made ‡governour:

15 And said unto him, Take these vessels, go, carry them into the Temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be builded in his place.

16 Then came the same Sheshbazzar, and laid the foundation of the house of God which is in Jerusalem. And since that time even until now, hath it been in building, and yet it is not finished.

17 Now therefore, if it seem good to the King, let there be search made in the Kings [g] treasure-house, which is there at Babylon, whether it be so that a decree was made of Cyrus the King, to build this house of God at Jerusalem, and let the King send his pleasure to us concerning this matter.

Chap. VI.

1 Darius finding the decree of Cyrus, maketh a new decree for the advancement of the building. 13 By the help of the enemies, and the directions of the Prophets, the Temple is finished. 16 The feast of the dedication is kept, 19 and the pass-over.

THen Darius the King made a decree, and search was made in the house of the †rolls, where the treasures were † laid up in Babylon.

2 And there was found at ‡ [a] Achmetha, in the palace that is in the province of the Medes, a roll, and therein was a record thus written:

3 In the first year of Cyrus the King, the same Cyrus the king made a decree concerning the house of God at Jerusalem, Let the house be builded, the place where they offered sacrifices, and let the foundations thereof be strongly laid, the height thereof threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof threescore cubits:

4 With three rows of great stones, and a row of new timber: and let the expenses be given out of the King's house.

5 And also let the golden and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took forth out of the Temple which is at Jerusalem, and brought unto Babylon, be restored, and † [b] brought again unto the Temple which is at Jerusalem, every one to his place, and place them in the house of God.

6 Now therefore Tatnai, governour beyond the river, Shethar-boznai, and † your companions the Apharsachites, which are beyond the river, [c] be ye far from thence:

7 Let the work of this house of God alone, let the governour of the Jews, and the elders of the Jews, build this house of God in his place.

8 Moreover, † I make a decree, what ye shall to do the elders of these Jews, for the building of this house of God: that of the kings goods, even of the tribute beyond the river, forthwith expences be given unto these men, that they be not † [d] hindred.

9 And that which they have need of, both young bullocks, and rams, and lambs, for the burnt-offerings of the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, and oyl, according to the appointment of the Priests which are at Jerusalem, let it be given them day by day without fail;

10 That they may offer sacrifices † of sweet savour unto the God of heaven, and pray for the life of the King, and of his sons.

11 Also I have made a decree, that whosoever shall alter this word, let timber be pulled down from his house, and being set up, † let him be hanged thereon, and let his house be made a dunghil for this.

12 And the God that hath caused his name to [e] dwell there, destroy all Kings and people that shall put to their hand, to alter and to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem: I Darius have made a decree, let it be done with speed.

13 ¶ Then Tatnai, governour of this side the river, Shethar-boznai, and their companions, according to that which Darius the king had sent, so they did speedily.

14 And the elders of the Jews builded, and they prospered through the prophesying of [f] Haggai the Prophet, and Zechariah the son of Iddo; and they builded, and finished it, according to the commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the † commandment of Cyrus and Darius, and Artaxerxes King of Persia.

15 And this house was finished on the third day of the month [g] Adar, which was in the [h] sixth year of the reign of Darius the King.

16 ¶ And the children of Israel, the Priests and the Levites, and the rest of † the children of the captivity, kept the dedication of this house of God with joy, 17 And offered at the dedication of this house of God, an hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; and for a sin-offering for all Israel, twelve he-goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel.

18 And they set the Priests in their divisions, and the Levites in their courses, for the service of God, which is at Jerusalem; † * as it it written in the Book of Moses.

19 And the children of the captivity kept the pass-over, upon the fourteenth day of the first month.

20 For the Priests and the Levites were purified together, all of them were pure, and killed the pass-over for all the children of the captivity, and for their brethren the Priests, and for themselves.

21 And the children of Israel, which were come again out of captivity, and all such as had [i] separated themselves unto them from the filthiness of the heathen of the land, to seek the Lord God of Israel, did eat, 22 And kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with joy: for the Lord had made them joyful, and turned the heart of the King of [k] Assyria unto them, to strengthen their hands in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.

1 Ezra goeth up to Jeruſalem. 11 The gracious commiſſion of Artaxerxes to Ezra. 27 Ezra bleſſeth God for his favour.

NOw after theſe things, in the reign of [a] Artaxerxes King of Perſia, Ezra the ſon of Serajah, the ſon of Azariah, the ſon of Hilkiah,

2 The ſon of Shallum, the ſon of Zadok, the ſon of Ahitub,

3 The ſon of Amariah, the ſon of Azariah, the ſon of Merajoth,

4 The ſon of Zerahiah, the ſon of Uzzi, the ſon of Bukki,

5 The ſon of Abiſhua, the ſon of Phinehas, the ſon of Eleazar, the ſon of [b] Aaron the chief Prieſt:

6 This Ezra went up from Babylon, and he was a ready [c] Scribe in the law of Moſes, which the LORD God of Iſrael had given: and the King granted him all his requeſt, according to the hand of the LORD his God upon him.

7 And there went up ſome of the children of Iſrael, and of the Prieſts, and the Levites, and the ſingers, and the porters, and the Nethinims, unto Jeruſalem, in the ſeventh year of Artaxerxes the King.

8 And he came to Jeruſalem in the [d] fifth month, which was in the ſeventh year of the [e] King.

9 For upon the firſt day of the firſt month † began he to go up from Babylon, and on the firſt day of the fifth month, came he to Jeruſalem, according to the good hand of his God upon him.

10 For Ezra had prepared his heart to ſeek the law of the LORD, and to do it, and to teach in Iſrael ſtatutes and judgments.

11 ¶ Now this is the copy of the letter that the king Artaxerxes gave unto Ezra the prieſt, the Scribe, even a Scribe of the words of the commandments of the LORD, and of his ſtatutes to Iſrael.

12 Artaxerxes King of Kings, † Unto Ezra the Prieſt, a Scribe of the law of the God of heaven, perfect peace, and at [f] ſuch a time.

13 I make a decree, that all they of the people of Iſrael, and of his Prieſts, and [g] Levites in my realm, which are minded of their own free will to go up to Jeruſalem, go with thee.

14 Foraſmuch as thou art ſent † of the king, and of his * ſeven counſellers, to [h] enquire concerning Judah and Jeruſalem, according to the law of thy God which is in thine [i] hand:

15 And to carry the ſilver and gold, which the king and his counſellers have freely offered unto the God of Iſrael, whoſe habitation is in Jeruſalem,

16 * And all the ſilver and gold that thou canſt find in all the province of Babylon, with the free-will-offering of the people, and of the Prieſts, offering willingly for the houſe of their God, which is in Jeruſalem:

17 That thou mayeſt buy ſpeedily with this mony, bullocks, rams, lambs, with their meat-offerings, and their drink-offerings, and offer them upon the Altar of the houſe of your [k] God which is in Jeruſalem.

18 And whatſoever ſhall ſeem good to thee and to thy brethren, to do with the reſt of the ſilver and gold, that do after the will of your God.

19 The veſſels alſo that are given thee, for the ſervice of the houſe of thy God, thoſe deliver thou before the God of Jeruſalem.

20 And whatſoever more ſhall be needful for the houſe of thy God, which thou ſhalt have occaſion to beſtow, beſtow it out of the King's treaſure-houſe.

21 And I, even I Artaxerxes the King, do make a decree to all the treaſurers which are beyond the [l] river, that whatſoever Ezra the Prieſt, the Scribe of the Law of the God of heaven, ſhall require of you, it be done ſpeedily;

22 Unto an hundred talents of ſilver, and to an hundred † meaſures of wheat, and to an hundred baths of wine, and to an hundred [m] baths of oyl, and ſalt without preſcribing how much.

23 † Whatſoever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be diligently done, for the houſe of the God of heaven: for why ſhould there be wrath againſt the [n] realm of the King and his ſons?

24 Alſo we certify you, that touching any of the Prieſts and Levites, ſingers, porters, Nethinims, or miniſters of this houſe of God, it ſhall not be lawful to impoſe toll, tribute, or cuſtom upon them.

25 And thou, Ezra, after the wiſdom of thy God, that is in thine hand, [o] ſet Magiſtrates and Judges, which may judge all the people that are beyond the river, all ſuch as know the Laws of thy God; and teach ye them that know them not.

26 And whoſoever will not do the Law of thy God, and the Law of the King, let judgment be executed ſpeedily upon him, whether it be unto death, or † to baniſhment, or to confiſcation of goods, or to impriſonment.

27 ¶ [p] Bleſſed be the LORD God of our fathers, which hath put ſuch a thing as this in the King's heart, to beautify the houſe of the LORD which is in Jeruſalem:

28 And hath extended mercy unto me, before the King, and his counſellers, and before all the Kings mighty princes: & I was ſtrengthned as the hand of the LORD my God was upon me, and I gathered together out of Iſrael, chief men to go up with me.

17 And I sent them with commandment unto Iddo the [d] chief, at the place Casiphia, & † I told them what they should say unto Iddo, and to his brethren the Nethinims, at the place Casiphia, that they should bring unto us ministers for the house of our God.

19 And Hashabiah, and with him Jeshajah of the sons of Merari, his brethren and their sons, twenty;

20 Also of the [e] Nethinims, whom David and the princes had appointed for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinims: all of them were expressed by name.

e Chap. 2. 43.

21 ¶ Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river Ahava, that we might [f] afflict our selves before our God, to seek of him a right way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance.

f He shewed, that the end of fasting is to humble the body to the spirit, which must proceed of the heart lively touched, or else it is but hypocrisy.

22 For I was [g] ashamed to require of the King a band of souldiers and horse-men, to help us against the enemy in the way: because we had spoken unto the King, saying, The hand of our God is upon all them for good, that seek him, but his power and his wrath is against all them that forsake him.

g He thought it better to commit himself to the protection of God, than by seeking these ordinary means, to give an occasion to others to think that he did doubt of God's power.

23 So we fasted and besought our God for this, and he was entreated of us.

24 ¶ Then I separated twelve of the chief of the Priests; Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brethren with them,

25 And weighed unto them the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, even the offering of the house of our God, which the King, and his counsellers, and his lords, and all Israel there present, had offered.

26 I even weighed unto their hand, six hundred and fifty [h] talents of silver, and silver vessels an hundred talents, and of gold an hundred talents:

h 1 King. 9. 14.

28 And I said unto them, Ye are holy unto the LORD, the vessels are holy also, and the silver, and the gold are a free-will-offering unto the LORD God of your fathers.

29 Watch ye, and keep them, until ye weigh them before the chief of the Priests, and the Levites, and chief of the fathers of Israel at Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of the LORD.

30 So took the Priests and the Levites, the weight of the silver and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem unto the house of our God.

31 ¶ Then we departed from the river of Ahava, on the twelfth day of the first month, to go unto Jerusalem; and the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy, and of such as lay in [k] wait by the way.

k This declared that their journy was full of danger, and yet God delivered them according to their prayer.

32 And we came to Jerusalem, and abode there three days.

33 ¶ Now on the fourth day was the silver and the gold, and the vessels weighed in the house of our God, by the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the Priest, and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas, and with them was Jozabad the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah the son of Binnui, [l] Levites:

l This was a token of a good conscience, and of his integrity, that he would have witnesses of his fidelity.

34 By number and by weight of every one: and all the weight was written at that time.

5 ¶ And at the evening ſacrifice, I aroſe up from my ‡ heavineſs, and having rent my garment and my mantle, I fell upon my knees, and ſpread out my hands unto the LORD my God,

‡ Or, affliction.

6 And ſaid, O my God, I am aſhamed and bluſh to lift up my face to thee, my God: for our iniquities are increaſed over our [d] head, and our ‡ treſpaſs is grown up unto the [e] heavens.

d That is, we are drowned in ſin.
‡ Or, guiltineſs.
e They ſo exceed that they cannot grow greater.

7 Since the days of our fathers, have we been in a great treſpaſs unto this day, and for our iniquities have we, our Kings, and our Prieſts, been delivered into the hand of the Kings of the lands, to the ſword, to captivity, and to a ſpoil, and to confuſion of face, as it is this day.

† Heb. moment.

8 And now for a † little ſpace grace hath been ſhewed from the LORD our God, to leave us a remnant to eſcape, and to give us ‡ a [f] nail in his holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage.

‡ Or, a pin. That is, ſtedfaſt and ſure abode.
f In giving us a reſting place, It is a ſimilitude taken of them that remain ſtill in a place, which ſmite nails to hang things upon, Iſai. 22. 23.

9 For we were bond-men, yet our God hath not forſaken us in our bondage, but hath extended mercy unto us in the ſight of the Kings of Perſia, to give us a reviving to ſet up the houſe of our God, and † to repair the deſolations thereof, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Jeruſalem.

† Heb. to ſet up.

10 And now, O our God, what ſhall we ſay after this? for we have forſaken thy commandments, 389

11 Which thou haſt commanded † by thy ſervants the Prophets, ſaying, The land unto which ye go to poſſeſs it, is an unclean land with the filthineſs of the people of the lands, with their abominations, which have filled it † from one end to another, with their uncleanneſs.

† Heb. by the hand of thy ſervants.

† Heb from mouth to mouth.

12 Now therefore * give not your daughters unto their ſons, neither take their daughters unto your ſons, nor ſeek their peace, or their wealth for ever: that ye may be ſtrong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inherirance to your children for ever.

* Exod. 23. 32. Deut. 7. 3.

13 And after all that is come upon us for our evil deeds, and for our great treſpaſs, ſeeing that thou our God † haſt puniſhed us leſs than our [g] iniquities deſerve, and haſt given us ſuch deliverance as this:

† Heb. haſt withheld beneath our iniquities.
g Haſt not utterly caſt us down and deſtroyed us for our ſins, Deut. 28. 13.

14 Should we again break thy commandments, and joyn in affinity with the people of theſe abominations? wouldeſt not thou be angry with us till thou hadſt conſumed us, ſo that there ſhould be no remnant nor eſcaping?

15 O LORD God of Iſrael, thou art righteous, for we [h] remain yet eſcaped, as it is this day: behold, we are before thee in our treſpaſſes: for we cannot ſtand before thee, becauſe of this.

h He ſaweth, that God is juſt in puniſhing his people, and yet merciful in reſerving a reſidue to whom he ſheweth favour.

CHAP. X.

1 Shechaniah encourageth Ezra to reform the ſtrange marriages. 6 Ezra mourning, aſſembleth the people. 9 The people at the exhortation of Ezra, repent and promiſe amendment. 15 The care to perform it. 18 The names of them which had married ſtrange wives.

NOw when Ezra had prayed, and when he had [a] confeſſed, weeping and caſting himſelf down before the houſe of God, there aſſembled unto him out of Iſrael, a very great congregation of men, and women, and children: for the people † wept very ſore.

a He confeſſed his ſins, and the ſins of the people.

† Heb. wept a great weeping.

2 And Shechaniah the ſon of Jehiel, one of the ſons of Elam, anſwered and ſaid unto Ezra, We have treſpaſſed againſt our God, and have taken ſtrange wives, of the people of the land: yet now there is [b] hope in Iſrael concerning this thing.

b Meaning, That God would receive them to mercy.

3 Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God, † to put away all the [c] wives, and ſuch as are born of them according to the counſel of my Lord, and of thoſe that tremble at the commandment of our God, and let it be done according to the Law.

† Heb. to bring forth.
c Which are ſtrangers and married contrary to the Law of God.

4 Ariſe: for this matter belongeth unto [d] thee; we alſo will be with thee: be of good courage, and do it.

d Becauſe God hath given thee authority, and learning to perſwade the people therein, and to command them.

5 Then aroſe Ezra, and made the chief Prieſts, the Levites, and all Iſrael to ſwear, that they ſhould do according to this word: And they ſware.

6 ¶ Then Ezra roſe up from before the houſe of God, and went into the chamber of Johanan the ſon of Eliaſhib: and when he came thither, he did eat no bread, nor drink water: for he mourned becauſe of the tranſ-

390 greſſion of them that had been carried away.

7 And they made proclamation throughout Judah and Jeruſalem, unto all the children of the captivity, that they ſhould gather themſelves together unto Jeruſalem;

8 And that whoſoever would not come within three days, according to the counſel of the princes and the elders, all his ſubſtance ſhould be † forfeited, and himſelf ſeparated from the congregation of thoſe that had been carried away.

† Heb. devoted.

9 ¶ Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin, gathered themſelves together unto Jeruſalem, within three days: it was the [e] ninth month, and the twentieth day of the month, and all the people ſat in the ſtreet of the houſe of God, trembling becauſe of this matter, and for † the great [f] rain.

e Which contained part of November and part of December.

f For the ſeaſon was given to rain, and ſo the weather was more ſharp and cold and alſo their conſcience touched them.

10 And Ezra the Prieſt ſtood up, and ſaid unto them, Ye have tranſgreſſed, and † have taken ſtrange wives to [g] increaſe the treſpaſs of Iſrael.

† Heb. have cauſed to dwell, or, have brought back.
g Ye have laid one ſin upon another.

11 Now therefore make [h] confeſſion unto the LORD God of your fathers, and do his pleaſure: and ſeparate your ſelves from the people of the land, and from the ſtrange wives.

h Joſh. 7. 19.

12 Then all the congregation anſwered, and ſaid with a loud voice, As thou haſt ſaid, ſo muſt we do.

13 But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to ſtand without, neither is this a work of one day or two: for † we are many that have tranſgreſſed in this thing.

‡ Or, we have greatly offended in this thing.

14 Let now our rulers of all the congregation [i] ſtand, and let all them which have taken ſtrange wives in our cities, come at appointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and the judges thereof, until the fierce wrath of our God ‡ for this matter, be turned from us.

i Let them be appointed to examine this matter.

‡ Or, till this matter be diſpatched.

15 ¶ Onely Jonathan the ſon of Aſahel, and Jahaziah the ſon of Tikvah, † were employed about this matter: and Meſhullam, and Shabbethai the Levite helped them.

† Heb. ſtood.

16 And the children of the captivity did [k] ſo: and Ezra the Prieſt, with certain chief of the fathers, after the houſe of their fathers, and all of them by their names were ſeparated, and ſat down in the firſt day of the tenth month to examine the matter.

k They went to the chief cities to ſit on this matter, which was three months in finiſhing.

17 And they made an end with all the men that had taken ſtrange wives, by the firſt day of the firſt month.

18 ¶ And among the ſons of the Prieſts, there were found that had taken ſtrange wives: namely, of the ſons of Jeſhua the ſon of Jozadak, and his brethren; Maaſejah, and Eliezer, and Jarib, and Gedaliah.

19 And they gave their [l] hands, that they would put away their wives; and being guilty, they offered a ram of the flock for their treſpaſs.

l As a token that they would keep promiſe and do it.

20 And of the ſons of Immer; Hanani, and Zebadiah.

21 And of the ſons of Harim; Maaſejah, and Elijah, and Shemajah, and Jehiel, and Uzziah.

¶ THE

¶ THE BOOK OF NEHEMIAH.

THE ARGUMENT.

GOd doth in all ages and at all times ſet up worthy perſons for the commodity and profit of his church; as now within the compaſs of ſeventy years he raiſed up divers excellent men for the preſervation of his people, after their return from Babylon, as Zerubbabel, Ezra, and Nehemiah; Whereof the Firſt was their Captain to bring them home, and provided that the Temple was builded: The Second reformed their manners and planted Religion: And the Third builded up the walls, delivered the people from oppreſſion, and provided that the Law of God was put in execution among them. He was a godly man, and in great authority with the King, ſo that the King favoured him greatly, and gave him moſt ample letters for the accompliſhment of all things which he could deſire. This Book is alſo called of the Latines the ſecond Book of Ezra, becauſe he was the writer thereof.

CHAP. I.

1 Nehemiah underſtanding by Hanani, the miſery of Jeruſalem, mourneth, faſteth and prayeth. 5 His prayer.

THE words of Nehemiah the ſon of Hachaliah. And it came to paſs in the month [a] Chiſleu, in the twentieth year, as I was in Shuſhan the palace,

2 That Hanani, one of my [b] brethren, came, he and certain men of Judah, and I asked them concerning the Jews thad had eſcaped, which were left of the captivity, and concerning Jeruſalem.

3 And they ſaid unto me, The remnant that are left of the captivity there in the [c] province, are in great affliction and reproach: the wall of Jeruſalem alſo * is broken down, and the gates thereof are burnt with fire.

4 ¶ And it came to paſs when I heard theſe words, that I ſat down and wept, and mourned certain days, and faſted, and prayed before the God of heaven,

5 And ſaid, I beſeech thee, * O LORD God of heaven, the great and terrible God; that keepeth covenant and mercy for them that love him and obſerve his commandments:

6 Let thine ear now be attentive, and thine eyes open, that thou mayeſt hear the prayer of thy ſervant, which I pray before thee now, day and night, for the children of Iſrael thy ſervants; and confeſs the ſins of the children of Iſrael, which we have ſinned againſt thee: both I, and my father's houſe have ſinned.

7 We have dealt very corruptly againſt thee, and have not kept the commandments nor the ſtatutes nor the judgments which thou commandedſt thy ſervant Moſes.

8 Remember, I beſeech thee, the word that thou commandedſt thy ſervant Moſes, ſaying, * If ye tranſgreſs, I will ſcatter you abroad among the nations:

9 But if ye turn unto me, and keep my commandments, and do them; * though there were of you caſt out unto the uttermoſt part of the heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them unto the place that I have choſen to ſet my name there.

10 Now theſe are thy ſervants, and thy people, whom thou haſt redeemed by thy great power, and by thy ſtrong hand.

11 O LORD, I beſeech thee, let now thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy ſervant, and to the prayer of thy ſervants, who deſire to [d] fear thy name: and proſper, I pray thee, thy ſervant this day, and grant him mercy in the ſight of [e] this man. For I was the King's cup-bearer.

CHAP. II.

1 Artaxerxes underſtanding the cauſe of Nehemiah's ſadneſs, ſendeth him with letters and commiſſion to Jeruſalem. 9 Nehemiah, to the grief of the enemies, cometh to Jeruſalem. 12 He viewеth ſecretly the ruines of the walls. 17 He inciteth the Jews to build in deſpite of the enemies.

AND it came to paſs in the month [a] Niſan, in the twentieth year of [b] Artaxerxes the King, that wine was before him: and I took up the wine, and gave it unto the King. Now I had not been before-time ſad in his preſence.

2 Wherefore the King ſaid unto me, Why is thy countenance ſad, ſeeing thou art not ſick? this is nothing elſe but ſorrow of heart. Then I was very ſore afraid,

3 And ſaid unto the King, Let the King live for ever: why ſhould not my countenance be ſad, when the city, the place of my fathers ſepulchres, lieth waſte, and the gates thereof are conſumed with fire?

4 Then the King ſaid unto me, For what doſt thou make requeſt? So I [c] prayed to the God of heaven.

5 And I ſaid unto the King, If it pleaſe the King, and if thy ſervant have found favour in thy ſight, that thou wouldeſt ſend me unto Judah unto the city of my fathers ſepulchres, that I may build it.

6 And the King ſaid unto me, (the † Queen alſo ſitting by him) For how long ſhall thy journy be? and when wilt thou return? So it pleaſed the King to ſend me, and I ſet him a time.

a Which was the firſt month of the year, and containeth part of March, and part of April.

b Who is alſo called Darius. Ezra 7. 1. and was the ſon of Hyſtaſpis.

c I deſired God in mine heart to proſper mine enterpriſe.

† Heb. wife.

7 Moreover, I ſaid unto the King, If it pleaſe the King, let letters be given me to the governours beyond the river, that they may convey me over till I come into Judah;

8 And a letter unto Aſaph the keeper of the King's foreſt, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the palace which appertained to the houſe, and for the wall of the city, and for the houſe that I ſhall enter into. And the king granted me, according to the [d] good hand of my God upon me.

d As God moved me to ask, and as he gave me good ſucceſs therein.

9 ¶ Then I came to the governours beyond the river, and gave them the King's letters. (Now the King had ſent captains of the army, and hors-men with me)

10 When [e] Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the ſervant the Ammonite, heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly that there was come a man to ſeek the welfare of the children of Iſrael.

e Theſe were great enemies to the Jews, and laboured always both by force and ſubtility to overcome them, and Tobiah, becauſe his wife was a Jeweſs, had advertiſement ever of their affairs, and ſo wrought them great trouble.

11 So I came to Jeruſalem, and was there three days.

12 ¶ And I aroſe in the night, I and ſome few men with me, neither told I any man what my God had put in my heart to do at Jeruſalem: neither was there any beaſt with me, ſave the beaſt that I rode upon.

13 And I went out by night, by the gate of the valley, even before the dragon-well, and to the dung-port, and viewed the walls of Jeruſalem, which were broken down, and the gates thereof were conſumed with fire.

14 Then I went on to the gate of the fountain, and to the King's pool: but there was no place for the beaſt that was under me to paſs.

15 Then went I up in the night by the brook, and viewed the wall, and turned back, and entred by the gate of the valley, and ſo returned.

16 And the rulers knew not whither I went, or what I did, neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the Prieſts, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the reſt that did the work.

17 ¶ Then ſaid I unto them, Ye ſee the diſtreſs that we are in, how Jeruſalem lieth waſte, and the gates thereof are burnt with fire: come and let us build up the wall of Jeruſalem, that we be no more a [f] reproach.

f That is, Contemned of other nations, as though God had forſaken us.

18 Then I told them of the hand of my God which was good upon me; as alſo the King's words that he had ſpoken unto me. And they ſaid, Let us riſe up & build. So they [g] ſtrengthned their hands for this good work.

g They were incouraged, & gave themſelves to do well, and to travail in this worthy enterpriſe.

19 But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the ſervant the Ammonite, and [h] Geſhem the Arabian heard it, they laughed us to ſcorn, and deſpiſed us, and ſaid, What is this thing that ye do? will ye [i] rebel againſt the King?

h Theſe were three chief governours under the Kings of Perſia beyond Euphrates.

i Thus the wicked when they will burden the children of God, ever lay treaſon unto their charge, both becauſe it maketh them moſt odious to the world, and alſo ſtirreth the hatred of Princes moſt againſt them.

20 Then anſwered I them, and ſaid unto them, The God of heaven, he will proſper us; therefore we his ſervants will ariſe and build: but you have no portion, nor right, nor [k] memorial in Jeruſalem.

k Neither are ye of the number of the children of God (to whom he hath appointed this city onely) neither did any of your predeceſſours ever fear God.

CHAP. III.

11 Malchijah the ſon of Harim, and Haſhub the ſon of Pahath-moab, repaired the † other piece, and the tower of the furnaces.

† Heb. ſecond meaſure.

12 And next unto him repaired Shallum the ſon of Haloheſh, the ruler of the half part of Jeruſalem, he and his daughters.

13 The valley-gate repaired Hanun, and the inhabitants of Zanoah; they built it, and ſet up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and a thouſand cubits on the wall unto the dung-gate.

14 But the dung-gate repaired Malchiah the ſon of Rechab, the ruler of part of Beth-haccerem: he built it, and ſet up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

15 But the gate of the fountain repaired Shallun the ſon of Col-hozeh, the ruler of part of Mizpah: he built it, and covered it, and ſet up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and the wall of the pool of

CHAP. IV. 393

1 While the enemies ſcoff, Nehemiah prayeth and continueth the work. 7 Underſtanding the wrath and ſecrets of the enemy, he ſetteth a watch. 13 He armeth the labourers, 19 and giveth military precepts.

BUt it came to paſs, that when Sanballat heard that we builded the wall, he was wroth, and took great indignation, and mocked the Jews.

2 And he ſpake before his [a] brethren and the army of Samaria, and ſaid, What do theſe [b] feeble Jews? will they † fortify themſelves? will they ſacrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they revive the ſtones out of the heaps of the rubbiſh, which are burnt?

3 Now Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he ſaid, Even that which they build, if a fox go up, he ſhall even break down their ſtone-wall.

4 [c] Hear, O our God, for we are † deſpiſed: and turn their reproach upon their own head, and give them for a [d] prey in the land of captivity:

5 And cover not their [e] iniquity, and let not their ſin be blotted out from before thee: for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders.

6 So built we the wall; and all the wall was joyned together unto the half thereof: for the people had a mind to work.

7 ¶ But it came to paſs that when Sanballat and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Aſhdodites, heard that the walls of Jeruſalem † were made up, and that the breaches began to be ſtopped, then they were very wroth,

8 And conſpired all of them together, to come and to fight againſt Jeruſalem, and † to hinder it.

9 Nevertheleſs, we made our prayer unto our God, and ſet a watch againſt them day and night, becauſe of them.

10 And Judah ſaid, The ſtrength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there is much rubbiſh, ſo that we are not able to build the wall.

11 And our adverſaries ſaid, They ſhall not know, neither ſee, till we come in the midſt among them, and ſlay them, and cauſe the work to ceaſe.

12 And it came to paſs that when the Jews which dwelt by them, came, they ſaid unto us [f] ten times, ‡[g] From all places, whence ye ſhall return unto us, they will be upon you.

13 ¶ Therefore ſet I † in the lower places behind the wall, and on the higher places, I even ſet the people after their families with their ſwords, their ſpears, and their bows.

14 And I looked, and roſe up and ſaid unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the reſt of the people, Be not ye afraid of them: [h] remember the LORD which is great and terrible, and fight for your brethren, your ſons and your daughters, your wives and your houſes.

15 And it came to paſs when our enemies heard that is was known unto us, and God had brought a Of his companions that dwelt in Samaria.

b Thus the wicked, that conſider not that God's power is ever in a readineſs for the defence of his, mock them, as though they were weak and feeble.
† Heb. leave to themſelves.

c This is the remedy that the children of God have againſt the deriſion & threatnings of their enemies, to flee to God by prayer.
† Heb. deſpiſe.
d Let them be ſpoiled and led away captive.
e Let thy plagues declare to the world that they ſet themſelves againſt thee, and againſt thy church: thus he prayeth onely having reſpect to God's glory, and not for any private affection or grudge.
† Heb. aſcended.

† Heb. to make an errour to it.

f That is, oftentimes.
‡ Or, That from all places ye muſt return to us.
g They which brought the tidings, ſaid thus, when you leave your work, and go either to eat or to reſt, your enemies will aſſail you † Heb. from the lower parts of the place, &c. h Who is ever at hand to deliver his out of danger, and therefore ſeeing they ſhould fight for the maintenance of God's glory, and for the preſervation of their own lives, and of others, he encourageth them to play the valiant men.

394 brought their counsel to nought, that we returned all of us to the wall, every one unto his work.

16 And it came to pass from that time forth, that the half of my servants wrought in the work, and the other half of them held both the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the habergeons; and the rulers were [i] behind all the house of Judah.

i To oversee them, and to encourage them to their work.

17 They which builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, with those that laded, every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon.

18 For the builders, every one had his sword girded † by his side, and so builded: and he that sounded the trumpet was by me.

† Heb. on his loyns.

19 ¶ And I said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, one far from another.

20 In what place therefore ye hear the sound of the trumpet, [k] resort ye thither unto us: our God shall fight for us.

k Meaning, To resist their enemies, if need required.

21 So we laboured in the work: and half of them held the spears, from the rising of the morning, till the stars appeared.

22 Likewise at the same time said I unto the people, Let every one with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and labour on the day.

23 So neither I, nor my brethren, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard which followed me, none of us put off our clothes, ‡ saving that every one put them off for [l] washing.

‡ Or, every one went with his weapon for water. l That is, when they purified themselves, or else when they washed their clothes.

Chap. V.

1 Jews complain of their debt, morgage, and bondage. 6 Nehemiah rebuketh the usurers, and causeth them to make a covenant of restitution. 14 He forbeareth his own allowance, and keepeth hospitality.

AND there was a great cry of the people, and of their wives, [a] against their brethren the Jews.

a Against the rich, which oppressed them.

2 For there were that said, We, our sons, and our daughters are many: therefore we take up [b] corn for them, that we may eat, and live.

b This is the complaint of the people, shewing to what extremity they were brought unto.

3 Some also there were that said, We have morgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses, that we might buy corn, because of the dearth.

4 There were also thad said, We have borrowed money for the Kings [c] tribute, and that upon our lands and vineyards.

c To pay our tribute to the King of the Persians, which was exacted yearly of us.

5 Yet now our flesh is as the [d] flesh of our brethren, our children as their children: and lo, we bring into bondage our sons and our daughters, to be servants, and some of our daughters are brought unto bondage already, neither is it in our [e] power to redeem them: for other men have our lands and vineyards.

d By nature the rich is no better than the poor.

e We are not able to redeem them, but for poverty are constrained to hire them to others.

6 ¶ And I was very angry when I heard their cry, and these words.

7 Then † I consulted with my self, and I rebuked the nobles, and the rulers, and said unto them, You exact [f] usury, every one of his brother. And I set a great [g] assembly against them.

† Heb. my heart consulted in me.

f You press them with usury, and seek how to bring all things into your hands.

g Both because they should be moved with pity, seeing how many were by them oppressed, and also hear the judgment of others, which should be as it were witnesses of their dealing toward their brethren.

8 And I said unto them, We, after our ability, have * redeemed our brethren the Jews, which were sold unto the heathen; and will you even sell your brethren? or shall they be [h] sold unto us? Then held they their peace, and found nothing to answer.

* Levit. 25. 48.

h Seeing God hath once delivered them from the bondage of the heathen, shall we make them our slaves?

9 Also [i] I said, It is not good that ye do: ought ye not to walk in the fear of our God, because of the [k] reproach of the heathen our enemies?

i Meaning, Nehemiah.

k Who by this occasion will blaspheme the name of God, seeing that our acts are no better than theirs.

10 I likewise, and my brethren, and my servants, might exact of them mony and corn: I pray you let us leave off this usury.

11 Restore, I pray you, to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their oliveyards, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the mony, and of the corn, the wine, and the oyl; that ye [l] exact of them.

l Which ye take of them for the lone.

12 Then said they, We will restore them, and will require nothing of them; so will we do as thou sayest. Then I called the Priests, and took an oath of them, that they should do according to this promise.

13 Also I shook my lap, and said, So God shake out every man from his house, and from his labour, that performeth not this promise, even thus be he shaken out, and † emptied. And all the congregation said, Amen, and praised the LORD. And the people did according to this promise.

† Hebr. empty, or, void.

14 ¶ Moreover, from the time that I was appointed to be their governour in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year, even unto the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes the King, that is, twelve years, I and my brethren have not eaten the [m] bread of the governour.

m I received not that portion, and diet, which the governours that were before me, exacted: wherein he declareth that he rather sought the wealth of the people, than his own commodity.

15 But the former governours that had been before me, were chargeable unto the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, beside fourty shekels of silver, yea even their servants bare rule over the people: but so did not I, because of the fear of God.

16 Yea, also I continued in the work of this wall, neither bought we any land: and all my servants were gathered thither unto the work.

17 Moreover, there were at my table an hundred and fifty of the Jews and rulers, besides those that came unto us from among the heathen that are about us.

18 Now that which was prepared for me daily, was one ox, and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days, [n] store of all sorts of wine: yet for all this required not I the bread of the governour, because the bondage was heavy upon this people.

n Whereas at other times they had by measure, at this time they had most liberally.

19 * Think upon me, my God, for good, according to all that I have done for this people.

* Chap. 13. 22.

Chap. VI.

1 Sanballat practiseth by craft, by rumours, by hired prophecies, to terrify Nehemiah. 15 The work is finished to the terrour of the enemies. 17 Secret intelligence passeth between the enemies and the nobles of Judah.

NOw it came to pass, when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and Geshem the Arabian, and the the reſt of our enemies heard that I had builded the wall, and that there was no [a] breach left therein; (though at that time I had not ſet up the doors upon the gates)

2 That Sanballat, and Geſhem ſent unto me, ſaying, Come, let us meet together in ſome one of the villages in the plain of Ono: but they thought to do me miſchief.

3 And I ſent meſſengers unto them, ſaying, I am doing a great work, ſo that I cannot come down: [b] why ſhould the work ceaſe, whileſt I leave it and come down to you?

4 Yet they ſent unto me four times after this ſort; and I anſwered them after the ſame manner.

5 Then ſent Sanballat his ſervant unto me, in like manner, the fifth time; with an open letter in his hand:

6 Wherein was written; It is reported among the heathen, and ‡Gaſhmu ſaith it, that thou and the Jews think to rebel: for which cauſe thou buildeſt the wall, that thou mayſt be their King, according to theſe [c] words.

7 And thou haſt alſo appointed [d] Prophets to preach of thee at Jeruſalem, ſaying, There is a King in Judah: and now ſhall it be reported to the King, according to theſe words. Come now therefore, and let us take counſel together.

8 Then I ſent unto him, ſaying, There are no ſuch things done as thou ſayeſt, but thou feigneſt them out of thine own heart.

9 For they all made us afraid, ſaying, Their hands ſhall be weakned from the work, that it be not done. Now therefore, O God, ſtrengthen my hands.

10 Afterward I came unto the houſe of Shemajah the ſon of Delajah, the ſon of Mehetabeel, who was [e] ſhut up; and he ſaid, Let us meet together in the houſe of God, within the Temple, and let us ſhut the doors of the Temple; for they will come to ſlay thee, yea in the night will they come to ſlay thee.

11 And I ſaid, [f] Should ſuch a man as I flee? and who is there that being as I am, would go into the temple to ſave his life? I will not go in.

12 And lo, I perceived that God had not ſent him, but that he pronounced this prophecy againſt me: for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.

13 Therefore was he hired, that I ſhould be afraid, and do ſo, and ſin, and that they might have matter for an evil report, that they might reproach me.

14 My God, think thou upon Tobiah and Sanballat, according to theſe their works, and on the [g] Propheteſs Noadiah, and the reſt of the Prophets, that would have put me in fear.

15 ¶ So the wall was finiſhed, in the twenty and fifth day of the month [h] Elul, in [i] fifty and two days.

16 And it came to paſs that when all our enemies heard thereof, and all the heathen that were about us ſaw theſe things, they were much caſt down in their own eyes: for they perceived that this work was wrought of our God.

17 ¶ Moreover, in thoſe days the nobles of Judah † ſent many [k] letters unto Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came unto them.

18 For there were many in Judah ſworn unto him, becauſe he was the ſon in law of Shechaniah the ſon of Arah; and his ſon Johanan had taken the daughter of Meſhullam, the ſon of Berechiah.

19 Alſo they reported his good deeds before me, and uttered my ‡ words to him: and Tobiah ſent letters to put me in fear.

CHAP. VII.

1 Nehemiah committeth the charge of Jeruſalem to Hanani and Hananiah. 5 A regiſter of the genealogy of them which came at the firſt out of Babylon, 9 of the people, 39 of the Prieſts, 43 of the Levites, 46 of the Nethinims, 57 of Solomon's ſervants, 63 and of the Prieſts which could not find their pedegree. 66 The whole number of them with their ſubſtance. 70 Their oblations.

NOw it came to paſs when the wall was built, and I had ſet up the doors, and the porters, and the ſingers, and the Levites were appointed,

2 That I gave my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the ruler of the palace, charge over Jeruſalem: (for he was a faithful man, and feared God above many)

3 And I ſaid unto them, Let not the gates of Jeruſalem be opened, until the Sun be hot; and while they [a] ſtand by, let them ſhut the doors, and bar them: and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jeruſalem, every one in his watch, and every one to be over againſt his houſe.

4 Now the city was † large and great: but the people were few therein, and the houſes were not builded.

5 ¶ And my God put into mine heart, to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogy: and I found a regiſter of the genealogy of them which came up at the firſt, and found written therein,

6 * Theſe are the [b] children of the province, that went up out of the captivity, of thoſe that had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the King of Babylon had carried away, and came again to Jeruſalem, and to Judah, every one unto his city;

7 Who came with Zerubbabel: Jeſhua, Nehemiah, [c] Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilſhan, Miſpereth, Bigvai, Nehum, Baanah; the number, I ſay, of the men of the people of Iſrael, was this;

8 The children of Paroſh, two thouſand an hundred ſeventy and two.

9 The children of Shephatiah, three hundred ſeventy and two.

10 The children of Arah, ſix hundred fifty and two.

11 The children of Pahath-moab, of the children of Jeſhua and Joab, two thouſand and eight hundred and eighteen.

d Thou haſt bribed, and ſet up falſe Prophets to make thy ſelf King, and ſo to defraud the King of Perſia of that ſubjection, which you owe unto him.

e As though he would be ſecret, to the intent that he might pray unto God with greater liberty, and receive ſome revelation, which in him was but hypocriſy.

f He doubted not but God was able to preſerve him, and knew that if he had obeyed this counſel, he ſhould have diſcouraged all the people: thus God giveth power to his to reſiſt falſe prophecies, though they ſeem to have never ſo great prtbability.

g Very grief cauſed him to pray againſt ſuch, which under the pretence of beind the miniſters of God, were adverſaries to his glory, and went about to overthrow his church, declaring alſo hereby that where there is one true miniſter of God, the devil hath a great fort of hirelings.

fourty and two thousand three hundred and threescore,

67 Beside their man-servants and their maid-servants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and they had two hundred fourty and five singing-men and singing-women.

71 And some of the chief of the fathers gave to the treasure of the work, twenty thousand drams of gold: and two thousand and two hundred pound of silver.

72 And that which the rest of the people gave, was twenty thousand drams of gold, and two thousand pound of silver, and threescore and seven Priests garments.

73 So the Priests, and the Levites, and the porters, and the singers, and some of the people, and the Nethinims, and all Israel, dwelt in their cities; and when the [i] seventh month came, the children of Israel were in their cities.

i Which containeth part of September, and part of October.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The religious manner of reading and hearing the Law. 9 They comfort the people. 13 The forwardness of them to hear, and be instructed. 16 They keep the feast of tabernacles.

* Ezra 3. 1.

AND all * the people gathered themselves together as one man, into the [l] street that was before the water-gate, and they spake unto Ezra the [a] Scribe, to bring the Book of the Law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded to Israel.

l Ezra 7. 6.

2 And Ezra the Priest brought the law before the congregation, both of men and women, and all † [b] that could hear with understanding, upon the first day of the seventh month.

† Heb. that understand in hearing.

b Which had age and discretion to understand.

3 And he read therein before the street that was before the water-gate, † from the morning until [c] mid-day, before the men and the women, and those that could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive unto the book of the Law.

† Heb. from the light.

c This declareth the great zeal that the people had to hear the word of God.

4 And Ezra the Scribe stood upon a † pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose, and beside him stood Mattithiah, and Shemah, and Anajah, and Urijah, and Hilkiah, and Maasejah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pedajah, and Mishael, and Malchiah, and Hashum, and Hashbadana, Zechariah and Meshullam.

† Heb. tower of wood.

5 And Ezra opened the Book in the † sight of all the people, (for he was [d] above all the people) and when he opened it, all the people stood up:

† Heb. eyes.

d To the intent that his voice might be the better heard.

6 And Ezra blessed the LORD the great God: and all the people answered, Amen, amen, with lifting up their hands: and they bowed their heads, and worshipped the LORD with their faces to the ground.

7 Also Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maasejah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelajah, and the Levites caused the people to understand the Law: and the people stood in their place.

8 So they read in the Book, in the Law of God distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading.

‡ Or, the governour.

9 ¶ And Nehemiah which is ‡ the Tirshatha, and Ezra the Priest the Scribe, and the Levites that taught the people, said unto all the people, This day is holy unto the LORD your God, mourn not, nor weep: for all the people [e] wept, when they heard the words of the Law.

e In considering their offences against the Law, therefore the Levites do not reprove them for mourning, but assure them of God's mercies, forasmuch as they are repentant.

10 Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions unto them for whom nothing is [f] prepared: for this day is holy unto our Lord: neither be you sorry, for the [g] joy of the LORD is your strength.

f That is, Remember the poor.

g Rejoyce in the Lord, and he will give you strength.

11 So the Levites stilled all the people, saying, Hold your peace, for the day is holy, neither be ye grieved.

12 And all the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great mirth, because they had understood the words that were declared unto them.

13 ¶ And on the second day were gathered together the chief of the fathers of all the people, the Priests and the Levites, unto Ezra the Scribe, even ‡ to understand the words of the Law.

‡ Or, that they might instruct in the words of the Law.

14 And they found written in the Law which the LORD had commanded † by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in * booths, in the feast of the seventh month:

† Heb. by the hand of.

* Levit. 23. 34. Deut. 16. 13.

15 And that they should publish and proclaim in all their cities, and in Jerusalem, saying, Go forth unto the mount, and fetch olive-branches, and pine-branches, and myrtle-branches, and palm-branches, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written.

16 ¶ So the people went forth, and brought them, and made themselves booths, every one upon the [h] roof of his house, and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of God, and in the street of the water-gate, and in the street of the gate of Ephraim.

h For their houses were made flat above, Deut. 22. 8.

17 And all the congregation of them that were come again out of the captivity, made booths, and sat under the booths: for since the days of [i] Jeshua the son of Nun, unto that day, had not the children of Israel done so: and there was very great gladness.

26 These were in the days of Jojakim the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governour, and of Ezra the Priest, the Scribe.

27 ¶ And at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem, they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication with gladness, both with thanksgivings, and with singing with cymbals, psalteries, and with harps.

28 And the sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the plain country round about Jerusalem, and from the villages of [h] Netophathi, h Which were a certain family and had their possessions in the fields. 1 Chron. 2. 54.

29 Also from the house of Gilgal, and out of the fields of Geba, and Azmaveth: for the singers had builded them villages round about Jerusalem.

30 And the Priests and the Levites purified themselves, and purified the people, and the gates, and the wall.

31 Then [i] I brought up the princes of Judah upon the wall, and appointed two great companies of them that gave thanks, whereof one went on the right hand upon the wall toward the dung-gate:

i Meaning, Nehemiah.

32 And after them went Hoshajah, and half of the princes of Judah,

33 And Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam,

34 Judah, and Benjamin, and Shemajah, and Jeremiah,

35 And certain of the Priests sons with trumpets: namely, Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemajah, the son of Matta-

402

Mattaniah, the ſon of Michajah, the ſon of Zaccur, the ſon of Aſaph:

k That is, The brethren of Zaccur.

36 And his k brethren, Shemajah, and Azarael, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethaneel, and Judah, Hanani, with the muſical inſtruments of David the man of God, and Ezra the Scribe before them.

37 And at the fountain-gate, which was over againſt them, they went up by the l ſtairs of the city of David, at the going up of the wall, above the houſe of David, even unto the water-gate eaſt-ward.

l Which was the going up to the mount Zion, which is called the city of David.

38 And the other company of them that gave thanks, went over againſt them, and I after them, and the half of the people upon the wall, from beyond the tower of the furnaces, even unto the broad wall:

39 And from above the gate of Ephraim, and above the old gate, and above the fiſh-gate, and the tower of Hananeel, and the tower of Meah, even unto the ſheep-gate; and they ſtood ſtill in the priſon-gate.

40 So ſtood the two companies of them that gave thanks in the houſe of God, and I, and the half of the rulers with me:

41 And the Prieſts; Eliakim, Maaſejah, Minjamin, Michajah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah with trumpets:

42 And Maaſejah, and Shemajah, and Eleazar, and Uzzi, and Jehohanan, and Malchijah, and Elam, and Ezer: and the ſingers † ſang loud, with Jezrahiah their overſeer.

† Heb made their voice to be heard.

43 Alſo that day they offered great ſacrifices, and rejoyced; for God had made them rejoyce with great joy; the wives alſo and the children rejoyced: ſo that the joy of Jeruſalem was heard even afar off.

44 ¶ And at that time were ſome appointed over the m chambers for the treaſures, for the offerings, for the firſt-fruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them out of the fields of the cities the portions ‡ of the Law for the Prieſts and Levites: † for Judah rejoyced for the Prieſts and for the Levites † that waited.

m Which were chambers appointed by Hezekiah to put in the tithes, and ſuch things, 2 Chron. 31. 11. and now were repaired again for the ſame uſe.
‡ That is, appointed by the law.
† Heb. for the joy of Judah.
† Heb. that ſtood.

45 And both the ſingers and the porters kept the ward of their God, and the ward of the purification, * according to the commandment of David, and of Solomon his ſon.

* 1 Chron. 25, & 26.

46 For in the days of David * and Aſaph, of old, there were chief of the ſingers, and ſongs of praiſe and thankſgiving unto God.

* 1 Chron. 25. 1, &c.

47 And all Iſrael in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the ſingers, and the porters, every day his portion, & they ‡ ſanctified holy things unto the Levites, * and the Levites ſanctified n them unto the children of Aaron.

‡ That is, ſet apart.
* Num. 18. 26.
n That is, The tenth part of the tithes.

Chap. XIII.

1 Upon the reading of the Law, ſeparation is made from the mixed multitude. 4 Nehemiah at his return cauſeth the chambers to be cleanſed. 10 He reformeth the offices in the houſe of God. 15 the violation of the ſabbath, 23 and the marriages with ſtrange wives.

ON that day † they read in the Book of Moſes in the † audience of the people; and therein was found written, * that the Ammonite and the Moabite ſhould not come into the congregation of God for ever;

† Heb. there was read.
† Heb. ears.
* Deut. 23. 3.

2 Becauſe they met not the children of Iſrael with bread and with water, but * hired Balaam againſt them, that he ſhould curſe them: howbeit our God turned the curſe into a bleſſing.

* Num. 22. 5. Joſh. 24. 9.

3 Now it came to paſs when they had heard the Law, that they ſeparated from Iſrael a all the mixed multitude.

a That is, All ſuch which had joyned in unlawful marriage, and alſo thoſe with whom God had forbidden them to have ſociety.

4 ¶ And before b this, Eliaſhib the Prieſt, † having the overſight of the chamber of the houſe of our God, was c allied unto Tobiah:

b That the ſeparation was made.
† Heb. being ſet over.
c He was joyned in affinity with Tobiah the Ammonite, and enemy of the Jews.

5 And he had prepared for him a great chamber, where afore-time they laid the meat-offerings, the frankincenſe, and the veſſels, and the tithes of the corn, the new wine, and the oyl († which was commanded to be given to the Levites, and the ſingers, and the porters) and the offerings of the Prieſts.

† Heb. the commandment of the Levites.

6 But in all this time was not I at Jeruſalem: for in the two and thirtieth year of d Artaxerxes King of Babylon, came I unto the King, and † after certain days ‡ obtained I leave of the King:

d Called alſo Darius, Ezra 7. 1.
† Heb. at the end of days.
‡ Or, I earneſtly requeſted.

7 And I came to Jeruſalem, and underſtood of the e evil that Eliaſhib did for Tobiah, in preparing him a chamber in the courts of the houſe of God.

e Thus we ſee what inconveniences the people fall into, when they are deſtitute of one that hath the fear of God, ſeeing that their chief governour was but a while abſent, and yet they fell into ſuch great abſurdities: as appeareth alſo, Exod. 32. 1.

8 And it grieved me ſore, therefore I caſt forth all the houſhold-ſtuff of Tobiah out of the chamber.

9 Then I commanded, and they cleanſed the chambers; and thither brought I again the veſſels of the houſe of God, with the meat-offering and the frankincenſe.

10 ¶ And I perceived that the portions of the Levites had not been given them: for the Levites and the ſingers that did the work, were fled every one to his field.

11 Then contended I with the rulers, and ſaid, Why is the houſe of God forſaken? And I gathered them together, and ſet them in their † place.

† Heb. ſtanding.

12 Then brought all Judah the tithe of the corn, and the new wine, and the oyl, unto the ‡ treaſuries.

‡ Or, ſtore-houſes.

13 And I made treaſurers over the treaſuries, Shelemiah the Prieſt, and Zadok the Scribe, and of the Levites, Pedajah: and † next to them was Hanan the ſon of Zaccur, the ſon of Mattaniah: for they were counted faithful, and † their office was to diſtribute unto their brethren.

† Heb. at their hand.
† Heb. it was upon them.

14 * Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe not out my † f good deeds that I have done for the houſe of my God, and for the ‡ offices thereof.

* Verſ. 22.
f He proteſteth that he did his duty with a good conſcience, yet he doth not juſtify himſelf herein, but deſireth God to favour him, and to be merciful unto him for his own goodneſs ſake, as verſ. 22, & 31.
‡ Or, obſervations.

15 ¶ In thoſe days ſaw I in Judah ſome treading wine-preſſes on the ſabbath, and bringing in ſheaves, and lading aſſes; as alſo wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, which they brought into Jeruſalem on the ſabbath-day: and I g teſtified againſt them in the day wherein they ſold victuals.

g I declared unto them, that God would not ſuffer ſuch tranſgreſſours of his Law to be unpuniſhed.

16 There

16 There dwelt men of Tyre alſo therein, which brought fiſh, and all manner of ware, and ſold on the ſabbath unto the children of Judah, and in Jeruſalem.

17 Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and ſaid unto them, What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the ſabbath-day?

h Was not this a great cauſe, why God plagued us in times paſt? meaning, that if they tranſgreſſed now in the ſame again, their plague ſhould be greater.

18 Did not your fathers [h] thus, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? yet ye bring more wrath upon Iſrael by profaning the ſabbath.

i About the time that the Sun went down: for the ſabbath laſted from the Sun going down of the one day, to the Sun ſetting of the other.

19 And it came to paſs, that when the gates of Jeruſalem began to be [i] dark before the ſabbath, I commanded that the gates ſhould be ſhut, and charged that they ſhould not be opened till after the ſabbath: and ſome of my ſervants ſet I at the gates, that there ſhould no burden be brought in on the ſabbath-day.

20 So the merchants, and ſellers of all kind of ware, lodged without Jeruſalem once or twice.

† Heb. before the wall?

21 Then I teſtified againſt them, and ſaid unto them, Why lodge ye † about the wall? If ye do ſo again, I will lay hands on you. From that time forth came they no more on the ſabbath.

22 And I commanded the Levites, that they ſhould cleanſe themſelves, and that they ſhould come and keep the [k] gates, to ſanctify the ſabbath-day. Remember me, O my God, concerning this alſo, and ſpare me according to the ‡ greatneſs of thy mercy.

k Meaning, of the Temple, that none that was unclean, ſhould enter.

‡ Or, multitude.

23 ¶ In thoſe days alſo ſaw I Jews that † had married wives of [l] Aſhdod, of Ammon, and of Moab:

† Heb had made to dwell with them.

l Which was a city of the Philiſtines, and they had married wives thereof, and ſo had corrupted their ſpeech and religion.

24 And their children ſpake half in the ſpeech of Aſhdod, and † could not ſpeak in the Jews language, but according to the language † of each people.

† Heb. they diſcerned not to ſpeak.

† Heb. of people and people

25 And I contended with them, and ‡ [m] curſed them, and ſmote certain of them, and pluckt off their hair, and made them ſwear by God, ſaying, Ye ſhall not give your daughters unto their ſons, nor take their daughters unto your ſons, or for your ſelves.

‡ Or, reviled them

m That is, I did excommunicate them, and drive them out of the congregation.

26 Did not Solomon King of Iſrael ſin by theſe things? yet among many nations was there no King like him, who was beloved of his God, and God made him King over all Iſrael: * nevertheleſs, even him did outlandiſh women cauſe to ſin.

* 1 King. 11. 1, &c

27 Shall we then hearken unto you to do all this great evil, to tranſgreſs againſt our God, in marrying ſtrange wives?

28 And one of the ſons of Jojada, the ſon of Eliaſhib the high Prieſt, was ſon in Law to Sanballat the Horonite: therefore I chaſed him from me.

† Heb. for the defilings.

29 Remember them, O my God, † becauſe they have [n] defiled the Prieſthood, and the covenant of the Prieſthood, and of the Levites.

n Puniſh them according to their fault and evil example, which they have given to the reſt of thy people, contrary to their vocation.

30 Thus cleanſed I them from all ſtrangers, and appointed the wards of the Prieſts and the Levites, every one in his buſineſs:

31 And for the wood-offering, at times appointed, and for the firſt-fruits. Remember me, O my God, [o] for good.

o That is, To ſhew mercy unto me.

¶ THE BOOK OF ESTHER.

THE ARGUMENT.

BEcauſe of the diverſity of names, whereby they uſed to name their Kings, and the ſupputation of years wherein the Hebrews, and the Grecians doe vary, divers Authors write diverſly as touching this Ahaſuerus, but it ſeemeth, Dan. 6. 1. & 9. 1. that he was Darius King of the Medes, and ſon of Aſtyages, called alſo Ahaſuerus, which was a name of honour, and ſignified great and chief, as chief head. Herein is declared the great mercies of God toward his church, who never faileth them in their greateſt dangers; but when all hope of worldly help faileth, he ever ſtirreth up ſome, by whom he ſendeth comfort, and deliverance. Herein alſo is deſcribed the ambition, pride and cruelty of the wicked, when they come to honour; and their ſudden fall when they are at the higheſt: and how God preſerveth, and preferreth them which are zealous of his glory, and have a care and love toward their brethren.

CHAP. I.

1 Ahaſuerus maketh royal feaſts. 10 Vaſhti ſent for, refuſeth to come. 13 Ahaſuerus by the counſel of Memucan, maketh the decree of mens ſovereignty.

a Called alſo Darius, who was now the ſovereign Monarch, and had the government of the Medes, Perſians and Chaldeans: ſome think he was Darius Hyſtaſpis ſon, called alſo Artaxerxes.

NOw it came to paſs in the days of [a] Ahaſuerus (this is Ahaſuerus which reigned from India even unto Ethiopia, over an [b] hundred and ſeven and twenty provinces)

b Daniel 6. 1. maketh mention but of ſixſcore, leaving out the number that is unperfect, as the Scripture in divers places uſeth.

2 That in thoſe days, when the King Ahaſuerus [c] ſat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in Shuſhan the palace, c That is, Had reſt and quietneſs.

3 In the third year of his reign, he made a feaſt unto all his Princes, and his ſervants; the power of Perſia and Media, the nobles and Princes of the Provinces being before him.

4 When he ſhewed the riches of his glorious Kingdom, and the honour of his excellent majeſty, many days, even an hundred and fourſcore days.

5 And when these days were expired, the King made a feast unto all the people that were † present in Shushan the palace, both unto great and small, seven days, in the court of the garden of the King's palace,

† Heb. found.

6 Where were white, green, and ‡ blue hangings, fastned with cords of fine linen and purple, to silver rings, and pillars of marble: the [d] beds were of gold, and silver, upon a pavement ‡ of red, and blue, and white, and black marble.

‡ Or, violet.

d Which they used in those countrys in stead of tables.

‡ Or, of porphyre, and marble, and alabaster, and stone of blue colour.

7 And they gave them drink in vessels of gold, (the vessels being diverse one from another) and † royal wine in abundance, † according to the [e] state of the King.

† Heb. wine of the kingdom.

† Heb. according to the hand of the King.

e As was beseeming for so magnifical a King.

8 And the drinking was according to the Law, none did [f] compel: for so the King had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every man's pleasure.

f None might be compelled to drink more then it pleased him.

9 Also Vashti the Queen made a feast for the women, in the royal house which belonged to King Ahasuerus.

10 ¶ On the [g] seventh day, when the heart of the King was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven ‡ chamberlains that served in the presence of Ahasuerus the King, g Which was the last day of the feast that the King made for the people, as verf. 5.

‡ Or, eunuchs.

11 To bring Vashti the Queen before the King, with the crown royal, to shew the people and the Princes her beauty: for she was † fair to look on.

† Heb. good of countenance.

12 But the Queen Vashti refused to come at the King's commandment † by his chamberlains: therefore was the King very wroth, and his anger burned in him.

† Heb. which was by the hand of his eunuchs.

13 ¶ Then the King said to the wise men which knew the [h] times, (for so was the King's manner towards all that knew Law and judgment:

h That had experience of things as they had learned by diligent marking in continuance of time.

14 And the next unto him was Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the * seven Princes of Persia and Media, which saw the King's [i] face, and which sat the first in the kingdom)

* Ezra 7. 14.

i Which were his chief counsellers, that might have alwayes access to him.

15 † What shall we do unto the Queen Vashti according to Law, because she hath not performed the commandment of the King Ahasuerus, by the chamberlains?

† Heb. What to do.

16 And Memucan answered before the King and the Princes, Vashti the Queen hath not done [k] wrong to the King onely, but also to all the Princes, and to all the people that are in all the provinces of the King Ahasuerus.

k By her disobedience she hath given an example to all women to do the like to their husbands.

17 For this [l] deed of the Queen shall come abroad unto all women, so that they shall despise their husbands in their eyes, when it shall be reported, The King Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the Queen to be brought in before him, but she came not.

l That is, Her disobedience.

18 Likewise shall the [m] ladies of Persia & Media say this day unto all the King's Princes, which have heard of the deed of the Queen. Thus shall there arise too much contempt & wrath.

m Meaning, That they would take first occasion hereof to do the like, and that the rest of women would by continuance do the same.

19 † If it please the King, let there go a royal commandment † from him, and let it be written among the Laws of the Persians and the Medes, † that it be not altered, that Vashti [n] come no more before King Ahasuerus, and let the King give her royal estate † unto another that is better then she.

† Heb. If it be good with the King.

† Heb. from before him.

† Heb. that it pass not away.

n Let her be divorced, and another made Queen.

† Heb unto her companion.

20 And when the King's decree which he shall make, shall be published throughout all his empire, (for it is [o] great) all the wives shall give to their husbands honour, both to great and small.

o For he had under him an hundred twenty and seven countrys.

21 And the saying † pleased the King and the Princes, and the King did according to the word of Memucan:

† Heb. was good in the eyes of the King.

22 For he sent letters into all the Kings provinces, into every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language, that every man should [p] bear rule in his own house, and † that it should be published according to the language of every people.

p That is, that the wife should be subject to the husband, and at his commandment.

† Heb. that one should publish it according to the language of his people.

Chap. II.

1 Out of the choise of virgins, a Queen is to be chosen. 5 Mordecai the nursing father of Esther. 8 Esther is preferred by Hegai before the rest. 12 The manner of purification, and going in to the King. 15 Esther best pleasing the King, is made Queen. 21 Mordecai discovering a treason, is recorded in the Chronicles.

AFter these things, when the wrath of King Ahasuerus was appeased, he [a] remembred Vashti, and what she had done, and what was [b] decreed against her.

a That is, He called the matter again into communication.

b By the seven wise men of his counsel.

2 Then said the King's servants, that ministred unto him, Let there be fair young virgins sought for the King.

3 And let the King appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the fair young virgins unto Shushan the palace, to the house of the women, † unto the custody of ‡ Hege the King's chamberlain, [c] keeper of the women, and let their things for [d] purification be given them:

† Heb. unto the hand.

‡ Or, Hegai, verf. 8.

c The abuse of these countrys was so great, that they invented many means to serve the lusts of Princes, and therefore, as they ordained wicked laws that the King might have whose daughters he would, so they had divers houses appointed; as one for them whiles they were virgins, another when they were concubines, and for the Queens another.

d Read what this purification was, verf. 12.

4 And let the maiden which pleaseth the King, be Queen in stead of Vashti. And the thing pleased the King, and he did so.

5 ¶ Now in Shushan the palace, there was a certain Jew, whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite:

6 * Who had been carried away from Jerusalem, with the captivity which had been carried away with Jeconiah King of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the King of Babylon had carried away.

* 2 King. 24. 15. 2 Chron. 36. 10. Jer. 24. 1.

7 And he † brought up Hadassah (that is Esther) his uncle's daughter, for she had neither father nor mother, and the maid was † fair and beautiful, whom Mordecai (when her father and mother were dead) took for his own daughter.

† Heb. fair of form and good of countenance.

8 ¶ So it came to pass, when the King's commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together unto Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was brought also unto the

King's

King's houſe, to the cuſtody of Hegai, keeper of the women.

9 And the maiden pleaſed him, and ſhe obtained kindneſs of him, & he ſpeedily gave her her things for purification, with † ſuch things as belonged to her, and ſeven maidens, which were meet to be given her, out of the King's houſe, and † he preferred her and her maids, unto the beſt place of the houſe of the women.

† Heb. her portions.

† Heb. he changed her.

10 Eſther had not ſhewed her people, nor her kindred: for Mordecai had charged her, that ſhe ſhould not ſhew it.

11 And Mordecai walked [e] every day before the court of the womens houſe, † to know how Eſther did, and what ſhould become of her.

e For though ſhe was taken away by a cruel law, yet he ceaſed not to have a fatherly care over her, and therefore did reſort oft times to hear of her.

† Heb. to know the peace.

12 ¶ Now when every maid's turn was come, to go in to King Ahaſuerus, after that ſhe had been twelve months, according to the manner of the women, (for ſo were the days of their purifications accompliſhed, to wit, ſix months with oyl of myrrh, and ſix months with ſweet odours, and with other things for the purifying of the women)

13 Then thus came every maiden unto the King; whatſoever ſhe [f] deſired was given her, to go with her out of the houſe of the women, unto the King's houſe.

f What apparel ſhe asked of the eunuch, that was he bound to give her.

14 In the evening ſhe went, and on the morrow ſhe returned into the ſecond houſe of the women, to the cuſtody of Shaaſhgaz, the Kings chamberlain, which kept the concubines: ſhe came in unto the King no more, except the King delighted in her, and that ſhe were called by name.

15 ¶ Now when the turn of Eſther, the daughter of Abihail, the uncle of Mordecai (who had taken her for his daughter) was come to go in unto the King, ſhe required [g] nothing, but what Hegai the King's chamberlain, the keeper of the women appointed: and Eſther obtained favour in the ſight of all them that looked upon her.

g Wherein her modeſty appeared, becauſe ſhe ſought not apparel to commend her beauty, but ſtood to the eunuch's appointment.

16 So Eſther was taken unto King Ahaſuerus, into his houſe royal, in the tenth month (which is the month [h] Tebeth) in the ſeventh year of his reign.

h Which contained part of December, and part of January.

17 And the King loved Eſther above all the women, and ſhe obtained grace and ‡ favour † in his ſight, more then all the virgins; ſo that he ſet the royal crown upon her head, and made her Queen in ſtead of Vaſhti.

‡ Or, kindneſs.

† Heb. before him.

18 Then the King made a great feaſt unto all his princes and his ſervants, even Eſther's [i] feaſt, and he made a † [k] releaſe to the provinces, and gave gifts, according to the [l] ſtate of the King.

i That is, made for her ſake.

† Heb. reſt.

k He releaſed their tribute.

l That is, great and magnifical.

19 And when the virgins were gathered together the [m] ſecond time, then Mordecai ſat in the King's gate.

m That is, at the marriage of Eſther, which was the ſecond marriage of the King.

20 Eſther had not yet ſhewed her kindred, nor her people; as Mordecai had charged her: for Eſther did the commandment of Mordecai, like as when ſhe was brought up with him.

21 ¶ In thoſe days (while Mordecai ſat in the Kings gate) two of the Kings chamberlains, ‡ Bigthan and Tereſh, of thoſe which kept † the door, were wroth, and ſought to lay [n] hand on the King Ahaſuerus.

‡ Or, Bigthana, Chap. 6. 2.

† Heb. the threſhold.

n Meaning, To kill him.

22 And the thing was known to Mordecai, who told it unto Eſther the Queen, and Eſther certified the King thereof, in Mordecai's name.

23 And when inquiſition was made of the matter, it was found out; therefore they were both hanged on a tree: and it was written in the Book of the [o] Chronicles before the King.

o In the Chronicles of the Medes and Perſians as Chap. 10. 2.

CHAP. III.

1 Haman advanced by the King, and deſpiſed by Mordecai, ſeeketh revenge upon all the Jews. 7 He caſteth lots. 8 He obtaineth by calumniation, a decree of the King to put the Jews to death.

AFter theſe things did king Ahaſuerus promote Haman the ſon of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him, and ſet his ſeat above all the princes that were with him.

2 And all the King's ſervants that were in the King's gate, bowed, and reverenced Haman; for the King had ſo commanded concerning him: but Mordecai [a] bowed not, nor did him reverence.

a The Perſians manner was to kneel down and reverence their Kings, and ſuch as he appointed in chief authority, which Mordecai would not do to this ambitious and proud man.

3 Then the Kings ſervants, which were in the Kings gate, ſaid unto Mordecai, Why tranſgreſſeſt thou the King's commandment?

4 Now it came to paſs, when they ſpake daily unto him, and he hearkned not unto them, that they [b] told Haman, to ſee whether Mordecai his matters would ſtand; for he had told them that he was a Jew.

b Thus we ſee that there is none ſo wicked, but they have their flatterers to accuſe the godly.

5 And when Haman ſaw that Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence, then was Haman full of wrath.

6 And he thought ſcorn to lay hands on Mordecai alone; for they had ſhewed him the people of Mordecai: wherefore Haman ſought to deſtroy all the Jews, that were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahaſuerus, even the people of Mordecai.

7 ¶ In the firſt month (that is the month [c] Niſan) in the twelfth year of King Ahaſuerus, they caſt Pur, that is, the lot, [d] before Haman, from day to day, and from month to month, to the twelfth month, that is the month [e] Adar.

c Which anſwereth to part of March and part of April.

d To know what month and day ſhould be good to enterpriſe this thing, that it might have good ſucceſs: but God diſappointed their lots and expectation.

e Containing part of February, and part of March.

8 ¶ And Haman ſaid unto King Ahaſuerus, There is a certain people ſcattered abroad, and diſperſed among the people, in all the provinces of thy kingdom, and their Laws are diverſe from all people, neither keep they the King's [f] Laws; therefore it is not † for the King's profit to ſuffer them.

f Theſe be the two arguments which commonly the worldlings and the wicked uſe toward Princes againſt the godly, that is, The contempt of their Laws, and diminiſhing of their profit: without reſpect how God is either pleaſed or diſpleaſed.

† Heb. meet, or, equal.

9 If it pleaſe the King, let it be written † that they may be deſtroyed: and I will † pay ten thouſand talents of ſilver to the hands of thoſe that have the charge of the buſineſs, to bring it into the King's treaſuries.

† Heb. to deſtroy them.

† Heb. weigh.

10 And the King took his ring from his hand, and gave it unto Haman the ſon of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews ‡ enemy.

‡ Or, oppreſſour.

11 And the King ſaid unto Haman, The ſilver is given to thee, the people alſo, to do with them as it ſeemeth good to thee.

12 Then

12 Then were the King's ‡ scribes called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and there was written according to all that Haman had commanded unto the King's lieutenants, and to the governours that were over every province, and to the rulers of every people of every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language; in the name of King Ahasuerus was it written, and sealed with the King's ring.

‡ Or, secretaries.

13 And the letters were sent by posts into all the King's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, even upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, (which is the month Adar) and to take the spoil of them for a prey.

14 The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province, was published unto all people, that they should be ready against that day.

15 The posts went out, being hastned by the King's commandment, and the decree was given in Shushan the palace: and the King and Haman sat down to drink, but the [g] city Shushan was perplexed.

[g] To wit, The Jews that were in Shushan.

CHAP. IV.

1 The great mourning of Mordecai and the Jews. 4 Esther understanding it, sendeth to Mordecai, who sheweth the cause, and adviseth her to undertake the suit. 10 She excusing her self, is threatned by Mordecai. 15 She appointing a fast, undertaketh the suit.

WHen Mordecai perceived all that was done, Mordecai rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and cried with a loud and a bitter cry:

2 And came even before the King's [a] gate: for none might enter into the King's gate clothed with sackcloth.

[a] Because he would advertise Esther of this cruel proclamation.

3 And in every province whithersoever the King's commandment, and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping and wailing, and † many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

† Heb. sackcloth and ashes were laid under many.

4 ¶ So Esther's maids, and her † chamberlains came and told it her: then was the Queen exceedingly grieved, and she sent raiment to clothe Mordecai, and to take away his sackcloth from him: but he received it not.

† Heb. eunuchs.

5 Then called Esther for Hatach, one of the Kings chamberlains, † whom he had appointed to attend upon her, and gave him a commandment to Mordecai, to know what it was, and why it was.

† Heb. whom he had set before her.

6 So Hatach went forth to Mordecai, unto the street of the city, which was before the King's gate.

7 And Mordecai told him of all that had hapned unto him, and of the sum of the mony that Haman had promised to pay to the King's treasuries for the Jews, to destroy them.

8 Also he gave him the copy of the writing of the decree, that was given at Shushan to destroy them, to shew it unto Esther, and to declare it unto her, and to charge her that she should go in unto the King, to make supplication unto him, and to make request before him for the people.

9 And Hatach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai.

10 ¶ Again Esther spake unto Hatach, and gave him commandment unto Mordecai;

11 All the King's servants and the people of the King's provinces do know, that whosoever, whether man or woman, shall come unto the King into the inner court, who is not called, there is one law of his to put him to death, except such to whom the King shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in unto the King, these thirty days.

12 And they told to Mordecai Esther's words.

13 Then Mordecai commanded to answer Esther, Think not with thy self that thou shalt escape in the King's house, more then all the Jews.

14 For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then shall there † [b] enlargment and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place, but thou and thy father's house shall be destroyed: and who knoweth, [c] whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?

b Thus Mordecai spake in the confidence of that faith, which all God's children ought to have: which is, That God will deliver them, though all wordly means fail.
c For to deliver God's church out of these present dangers.

15 ¶ Then Esther bade them return Mordecai this answer,

16 Go, gather together all the Jews that are † present in Shushan, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day: I also and my maidens will fast likewise, and so will I go in unto the King, which is not according to the Law; and if I perish, [d] I perish.

† Heb. found.
d I will put my life in danger, and refer the success to God, seeing it is for his glory, & the deliverance of his church.

17 So Mordecai † went his way, and did according to all that Esther had commanded him.

† Heb. passed.

CHAP. V.

1 Esther adventuring on the King's favour, obtaineth the grace of the golden sceptre, and inviteth the King and Haman to a banquet. 6 She being encouraged by the King in her suit, inviteth them to another banquet the next day. 9 Haman proud of his advancement, repineth at the contempt of Mordecai. 14 By the counsel of Zeresh, he buildeth for him a pair of gallows.

NOw it came to pass on the [a] third day, that Esther put on her royal apparel, and stood in the inner court of the King's house, over against the King's house: and the King sat upon his royal throne in the royal house, over against the gate of the house.

a To wit, After that the Jews had begun to fast.

2 And it was so when the King saw Esther the Queen standing in the court, that she obtained favour in his sight: and the King [b] held out to Esther the golden sceptre that was in his hand: so Esther drew near and touched the top of the sceptre.

b Which was a sign that the coming was agreable unto him, as Chap. 4. 11.

3 Then said the King unto her, What wilt thou, Queen Esther? and what is thy request? it shall be even given thee, to the [c] half of the kingdom.

c Meaning hereby, That whatsoever she asked, should be granted, as Mar. 6. 13.

4 And

4 And Eſther anſwered, If it ſeem good unto the King, let the King and Haman come this day unto the banquet that I have prepared for him.

5 Then the King ſaid, Cauſe Haman to make haſte, that he may do as Eſther hath ſaid. So the King and Haman came to the banquet that Eſther had prepared.

6 ¶ And the King ſaid unto Eſther at the [d] banquet of wine, What is thy petition? and it ſhall be granted thee: and what is thy requeſt? even to the half of the kingdom it ſhall be performed.

d Becauſe they uſed to drink exceſſively in their banquets, they called the banquet by the name of that which was moſt in uſe or eſteem.

7 Then anſwered Eſther, and ſaid, My petition, and my requeſt is;

8 If I have found favour in the ſight of the King, and if it pleaſe the King to grant my petition, and † to perform my requeſt, let the King and Haman come to the banquet that I ſhall prepare for them, and I will do to morrow as the King hath [e] ſaid.

† Heb. to do.

e I will declare what things I demand.

9 ¶ Then went Haman forth that day, joyful, and with a glad heart: but when Haman ſaw Mordecai in the King's gate, that he ſtood not up, nor moved for him, he was full of indignation againſt Mordecai.

10 Nevertheleſs, Haman refrained himſelf, and when he came home, he ſent and † called for his friends, and Zereſh his wife.

† Heb. cauſed to come.

11 And Haman told them of the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and all the things wherein the King had [f] promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the Princes and ſervants of the King.

f Thus the wicked when they are promoted, in ſtead of acknowledging their change and humbling themſelves, wax ambitious, diſdainful, and cruel.

12 Haman ſaid moreover, Yea, Eſther the Queen did let no man come in with the King unto the banquet that ſhe had prepared, but my ſelf; and to morrow am I invited unto her alſo with the King.

13 Yet all this availeth me nothing, ſo long as I ſee Mordecai the Jew ſitting at the King's gate.

14 ¶ Then ſaid Zereſh his wife, and all his friends unto him, Let a † gallows be made of [g] fifty cubits high, and to morrow ſpeak thou unto the King, that Mordecai may be hanged thereon: then go thou in merrily with the King unto the banquet. And the thing pleaſed Haman, and he cauſed the gallows to be made.

† Heb. tree.

g Meaning, The higheſt, that could be found.

Chap. VI.

1 Ahaſuerus reading in the Chronicles of the good ſervice done by Mordecai, taketh care for his reward. 4 Haman coming to ſue that Mordecai might be hanged, unawares giveth counſel that he might do him honour. 12 Complaining of his misfortune, his friends tell him of his final deſtiny.

ON that night † could not the King ſleep, and he commanded to bring the Book of records of the Chronicles; and they were read before the King.

† Heb. the King's ſleep fled away.

2 And it was found written, that Mordecai had told of ‡ Bigthana and Tereſh, two of the Kings chamberlains, the keepers of the † door, who ſought to lay hand on the king Ahaſuerus.

‡ Or, Bigthan, Chap. 2. 21.
† Heb. threſhold.

3 And the King ſaid, What honour and dignity hath been done to Mordecai [a] for this? Then ſaid the King's ſervants that miniſtred unto him, There is nothing done for him.

a For he thought it unworthy his eſtate to receive a benefit, and not reward it.

4 ¶ And the King ſaid, Who is in the court? (now Haman was come into the outward court of the King's houſe, to ſpeak unto the King, to [b] hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him)

b Thus while the wicked imagine the deſtruction of others, they themſelves fall into the ſame pit.

5 And the King's ſervants ſaid unto him, Behold, Haman ſtandeth in the court. And the King ſaid, Let him come in.

6 So Haman came in: and the King ſaid unto him, What ſhall be done unto the man † whom the King delighteth to honour? (now Haman thought in his heart, To whom would the king delight to do honour more then to my ſelf?)

† Heb. in whoſe honour the King delighteth.

7 And Haman anſwered the King, For the man † whom the King delighteth to honour, † Heb. in whoſe honour the King delighteth.

8 † Let the royal apparel be brought † which the King uſeth to wear, and the [c] horſe that the King rideth upon, and the crown royal which is ſet upon his head:

† Heb. let them bring the royal apparel.
† Heb. wherewith the King clotheth himſelf.

9 And let this apparel and horſe be delivered to the hand of one of the King's moſt noble Princes, that they may aray the man withal whom the King delighteth to honour, and † bring him on hors-back through the ſtreet of the city, and proclaim before him, Thus ſhall it be done to the man whom the King delighteth to honour.

c Meaning hereby, That the King ſhould make him next unto himſelf, as Joſeph hereby was known to be next to Pharaoh, Gen 41. 42.
† Heb. cauſe him to ride.

10 Then the King ſaid to Haman, Make haſte, and take the apparel, and the horſe, as thou haſt ſaid, and do even ſo to Mordecai the Jew, that ſitteth at the King's gate: † let nothing fail of all that thou haſt ſpoken.

† Heb. ſuffer not a whit to fall.

11 Then took Haman the apparel and the horſe, and arayed Mordecai, and brought him on hors-back through the ſtreet of the city, and proclaimed before him, Thus ſhall it be done unto the man whom the King delighteth to honour.

12 ¶ And Mordecai came again to the King's gate: but Haman haſted to his houſe, mourning, and having his head covered.

13 And Haman told Zereſh his wife and all his friends, every thing that had befallen him. Then ſaid his wiſe men, and Zereſh his wife unto him, If Mordecai be of the ſeed of the Jews, before whom thou haſt begun to fall, thou ſhalt not prevail againſt him, but ſhalt ſurely [d] fall before him.

d Thus God ſometime putteth in the mouth of the very wicked to ſpeak that thing which he hath decreed ſhall come to paſs.

14 And while they were yet talking with him, came the Kings charmberlains, and haſted to bring Haman unto the banquet that Eſther had prepared.

Chap. VII.

1 Eſther entertaining the King and Haman, maketh ſuit for her own life and her people's. 5 She accuſeth Haman. 7 The King in his anger underſtanding of the gallows, which Haman had made for Mordecai, cauſeth him to be hanged thereon.

SO the King and Haman came † to banquet with Eſther the Queen.

† Heb. to drink.

2 And the King ſaid again to Eſther, on the ſecond day, at the [a] banquet of wine, What is thy petition, Queen Eſther? and it ſhall be granted thee: and what is thy requeſt? and it ſhall a Chap. 5. 6.

ſhall be performed even to the half of the kingdom.

3 Then Eſther the Queen anſwered and ſaid, If I have found favour in thy ſight, O King, and if it pleaſe the King, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my requeſt.

4 For we are ſold, I and my people, † to be deſtroyed, to be ſlain, and to periſh: but if we had been ſold for bond-men & bond-women, I had held my tongue, although the enemy could [b] not countervail the King's damage.

5 ¶ Then the King Ahaſuerus anſwered and ſaid unto Eſther the Queen, Who is he? and where is he † that durſt preſume in his heart to do ſo?

6 And Eſther ſaid, † The adverſary and enemy, is this wicked Haman. Then Haman was afraid ‡ before the King and the Queen.

7 ¶ And the King ariſing from the banquet of wine in his wrath, went into the palace-garden; and Haman ſtood up to make requeſt for his life to Eſther the Queen: for he ſaw that there was [c] evil determined againſt him by the King.

8 Then the King returned out of the palace-garden, into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman was [d] fallen upon the bed whereon Eſther was. Then ſaid the King, Will he force the Queen alſo † before me in the houſe? As the word went out of the King's mouth, they [e] covered Haman's face.

9 And Harbonah, one of the chamberlains, ſaid before the King, Behold alſo the † gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman had made for Mordecai, who had ſpoken [f] good for the King, ſtandeth in the houſe of Haman. Then the King ſaid, Hang him thereon.

10 So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the King's wrath pacified.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Mordecai is advanced. Eſther maketh ſuit to reverſe Haman's letters. 7 Ahaſuerus grameth to the Jews to defend themſelves. 15 Mordecai's honour, and the Jews joy.

ON that day did the King Ahaſuerus give the houſe of Haman the Jews enemy, unto Eſther the Queen: and Mordecai [a] came before the King; for Eſther had told what he was [b] unto her.

2 And the King took off his ring which he had taken from Haman, and gave it unto Mordecai. And Eſther ſet Mordecai over the houſe of Haman.

3 ¶ And Eſther ſpake yet again before the King, and fell down at his feet † and beſought him with tears, to put away the [c] miſchief of Haman the Agagite, and his device that he had deviſed againſt the Jews.

4 Then the King [d] held out the golden ſceptre toward Eſther. So Eſther aroſe, and ſtood before the King,

5 And ſaid, If it pleaſe the King, and if I have found favour in his ſight, and the thing ſeem right before the King, and I be pleaſing in his eyes; let it be written to reverſe † the letters deviſed by Haman the ſon of Hammedatha the Agagite, ‡ which he wrote to deſtroy the Jews which are in all the King's provinces:

6 For how can I † endure to ſee the evil that ſhall come unto my people? or how can I endure to ſee the deſtruction of my kindred?

7 ¶ Then the King Ahaſuerus ſaid unto Eſther the Queen, and to Mordecai the Jew, Behold, I have given Eſther the houſe of Haman, and him they have hanged upon the gallows, becauſe he laid his hand upon the Jews.

8 Write ye alſo for the Jews, as it liketh you, in the King's name, and ſeal it with the King's ring: for the writing which is written in the King's name, and ſealed with the King's ring, * may no man [e] reverſe.

9 Then were the King's ſcribes called at that time in the third month (that is the month [f] Sivan) on the three and twentieth day thereof, and it was written (according to all that Mordecai commanded) unto the Jews, and to the lieutenants, and the deputies and rulers of the provinces which are from India unto Ethiopia, an hundred twenty and ſeven provinces, unto every province according to the [g] writing thereof, and unto every people after their language, and to the Jews according to their writing, and according to their language.

10 And he wrote in the [h] King Ahaſuerus name, and ſealed it with the King's ring, and ſent letters by poſts on hors-back, and riders on mules, camels, and young dromedaries:

11 Wherein the King granted the Jews, which were in every city, to gather themſelves together, and to [i] ſtand for their life, to deſtroy, to ſlay, and to cauſe to periſh all the power of the people and province, that would aſſault them, both little ones, and women, and to take the ſpoil of them for a prey:

12 Upon one day, in all the provinces of King Ahaſuerus, namely upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month [k] Adar.

13 The copy of the writing, for a commandment to be given in every province, was † publiſhed unto all people, and that the Jews ſhould be ready againſt that day, to [l] avenge themſelves on their enemies.

14 So the poſts that rode upon mules and camels went out, being haſtned, and preſſed on by the King's commandment; and the decree was given at Shuſhan the palace.

15 ¶ And Mordecai went out from the preſence of the King, in royal apparel of ‡ blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a garment of fine linen, and purple; and the city of Shuſhan rejoyced and was glad:

CHAP. IX.

1 The Jews (the rulers, for fear of Mordecai, helping them) ſlay their enemies, with the ten ſons of Haman.
12 Ahaſuerus at the requeſt of Eſther, granteth another day of ſlaughter, and Haman's ſons to be hanged.
20 The two days of Purim are made feſtival.

NOw in the twelfth month (that is, the month Adar) on the thirteenth day of the ſame, when the King's commandment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have power over them, (though it was [a] turned to the contrary, that the Jews had rule over them that hated them) a This was by God's great providence, who turneth the joy of the wicked into ſorrow, and the tears of the godly into gladneſs.

2 The Jews gathered themſelves together in their cities, throughout all the provinces of the King Ahaſuerus, to lay hand on ſuch as ſought their hurt; and no man could withſtand them: for the fear of them fell upon all people.

3 And all the rulers of the provinces, and the lieutenants, and the deputies, and †officers of the King, [b] helped the Jews: becauſe the fear of Mordecai fell upon them.

† Heb. thoſe which did the buſineſs that belonged to the King.
b Did them honour, and ſhewed them friendſhip.

4 For Mordecai was great in the King's houſe, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces: for this man Mordecai waxed greater and greater.

5 Thus the Jews ſmote all their [c] enemies with the ſtroke of the ſword, and ſlaughter and deſtruction, and did † what they would unto thoſe that hated them.

c Which had conſpired their death, by the permiſſion of wicked Haman.
† Heb. according to their will.

6 And in Shuſhan the palace the Jews ſlew and deſtroyed [d] five hundred men.

d Beſides thoſe three hundred, that they ſlew the ſecond day, as verſe 15.

7 And Parſhandatha, and Dalphon, and Aſpatha,

8 And Portha, and Adalia, and Aridatha,

9 And Parmaſhta, and Ariſai, and Aridai, and Vajezatha,

10 The ten ſons of Haman the ſon of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews, ſlew they; but on the ſpoil laid they not their [e] hand.

e Whereby they declared that this was God's juſt judgment upon the enemies of his church, ſo farſmuch as they ſought not their own gain, but to execute his vengeance.
† Heb. came.

11 On that day, the number of thoſe that were ſlain in Shuſhan the palace, † was brought before the King.

12 ¶ And the King ſaid unto Eſther the Queen, The Jews have ſlain and deſtroyed five hundred men in Shuſhan the palace, and the ten ſons of Haman; what have they done in the reſt of the King's provinces? now what is thy petition? and it ſhall be granted thee: or what is thy requeſt further? and it ſhall be done.

13 Then ſaid Eſther, If it pleaſe the King, let it be granted to the Jews which are in Shuſhan, to do to [f] morrow alſo according unto this days decree, and † let Haman's ten ſons be hanged upon the gallows.

f This ſhe requireth not for deſire of vengeance, but with zeal to ſee God's judgments executed againſt his enemies.
† Heb. let men hang.

14 And the King commanded it ſo to be done; and the decree was given at Shuſhan, and they hanged Haman's ten ſons.

15 For the Jews that were in Shuſhan, gathered themſelves together on the fourteenth day alſo of the month Adar, and ſlew three hundred men at Shuſhan; but on the prey they laid not their hand.

16 But the other Jews that were in the King's provinces, gathered themſelves together, and [g] ſtood for their lives, and had reſt from their enemies, and ſlew of their [h] foes ſeventy and five thouſand; but they laid not their hands on the prey.

g Read Ch. 8. 11.
h Meaning, that they laid hands on none that were not the enemies of God.

17 On the [i] thirteenth day of the month Adar, and on the fourteenth day † of the ſame, reſted they, and made it a day of feaſting and gladneſs.

i Meaning, in all places ſaving in Shuſhan.
† Heb. in it.

18 But the Jews that were at Shuſhan, aſſembled together on the thirteenth day thereof, and on the fourteenth thereof; and on the fifteenth day of the ſame they reſted, and made it a day of feaſting and gladneſs.

19 Therefore the Jews of the villages, that dwelt in the unwalled towns, made the [k] fourteenth day of the month Adar, a day of gladneſs and feaſting, and a good day, and of ſending portions one to another.

k As the Jews do even to this day, calling it in the Perſians language Purim, that is, the days of lots.

20 ¶ And Mordecai [l] wrote theſe things, and ſent letters unto all the Jews that were in all the provinces of the King Ahaſuerus, both nigh and far, l The Jews gather hereof, that Mordecai wrote this ſtory, but it ſeemeth that he wrote but onely theſe letters, and decrees that follow.

21 To eſtabliſh this among them, that they ſhould keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the ſame yearly:

22 As the days wherein the Jews reſted from their enemies, and the month which was turned unto them from ſorrow to joy, and from mourning into a good day: that they ſhould make them days of feaſting and joy, and of [m] ſending portions one to another, and gifts to the poor.

m He ſetteth before our eyes the uſe of this feaſt, which was for the remembrance of God's deliverance, the maintenance of mutual friendſhip, and relief of the poor.

23 And the Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written unto them.

24 Becauſe Haman the ſon of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had deviſed againſt the Jews to deſtroy them, and had [n] caſt Pur (that is, the lot) to † conſume them, and to deſtroy them:

n Read Ch. 3. 7.
† Heb. cruſh.

25 But [o] when Eſther came before the King, he commanded by letters, that his [p] wicked device which he deviſed againſt the Jews, ſhould return upon his own head, and that he and his ſons ſhould be hanged on the gallows.

o To intreat for her people.
p Theſe are the words of the Kings commandment to diſannul Haman's wicked enterpriſe.

26 Wherefore they called theſe days Purim, after the name of [q] Pur: therefore for all the words of this letter, and of that which they had ſeen concerning this matter, and which had come unto them, q That is, lot.

27 The Jews ordained, and took upon them, and upon their ſeed, and upon all ſuch as joyned themſelves unto them, ſo as it ſhould not † fail, that they would keep theſe [q] two days, according to their writing, and according to their appointed time every year:

q Meaning, the fourteenth and the fifteenth day of the month Adar.

28 And that theſe days ſhould be remembred, and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city, † Heb. paſs. and that theſe days of Purim ſhould not † fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them † periſh from their ſeed.

29 Then Eſther the Queen the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with † all authority, to confirm this ſecond letter of Purim.

† Heb. all ſtrength.

30 And he ſent the letters unto all the Jews to the hundred twenty and ſeven provinces of the kingdom of Ahaſuerus, with [r] words of peace and truth:

THE BOOK OF JOB.

THE ARGUMENT.

IN this hiſtory is ſet before our eyes the example of a ſingular patience: for this holy man Job was not onely extreamly afflicted in outward things, and in his body; but alſo in his mind and conſcience by the ſharp temptations of his wife, and chief friends: which by their vehement words, and ſubtil diſputations brought him almoſt to deſpair: for they ſet forth God as a ſevere Judge, and mortal enemy unto him, which had caſt him off; therefore in vain he ſhould ſeek unto him for ſuccour. Theſe friends came unto him under pretence of conſolation, and yet they tormented him more then did all his affliction. Notwithſtanding he did conſtantly reſiſt them, and at length had good ſucceſs. In this ſtory we have to mark, That Job maintaineth a good cauſe, but handleth it evil: againſt his adverſaries have an evil matter, but they defend it craftily: for Job held that God did not alway puniſh men according to their ſins, but that he hath ſecret judgments, whereof man knew not the cauſe; and therefore man could not reaſon againſt God therein, but he ſhould be convicted. Moreover, he was aſſured that God had not rejected him, yet through his great torments and affliction he burſteth forth into many inconveniences both of words and ſentences; and ſheweth himſelf as a deſperate man in many things, and as one that would reſiſt God: and this is his good cauſe which he doth not handle well. Again, the adverſaries maintain with many goodly arguments, that God puniſheth continually according to the treſpaſs, grounding upon God's providence, his juſtice, and man's ſins, yet their intention is evil: for they laboured to bring Job into deſpair, and ſo they maintain an evil cauſe. Ezekiel commendeth Job as a juſt man, Ezek. 14. 14. And James ſetteth out his patience for an example James 5. 11.

5 And it was ſo, when the days of their feaſting were gone about, that Job ſent and [f] ſanctified them, and roſe up early in the morning, [g] & offered burnt-offerings according to the number of them all: for Job ſaid, It may be that my ſons have ſinned, and [h] curſed God in their hearts. 1 Satan appearing again before God, obtaineth further leave to tempt Job. 7 He ſmiteth him with ſore boyls. 9 Job reproveth his wife, moving him to curſe God. 11 His three friends condole with him in ſilence.

AGain there was a day, when the [a] ſons of God came to preſent themſelves before the LORD, and [b] Satan came alſo among them to preſent himſelf before the LORD.

2 And the LORD ſaid unto Satan, From whence comeſt thou? And *Satan anſwered the LORD, and ſaid, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

3 And the LORD ſaid unto Satan, Haſt thou conſidered my ſervant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, *a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and eſcheweth evil? [c] and ſtill he holdeth faſt his integrity, although thou movedſt me againſt him, † to deſtroy him [d] without cauſe.

4 And Satan anſwered the LORD, and ſaid, [e] Skin for skin, yea all that a man hath will he give for his life.

5 But put forth thine hand now, and touch his [f] bone and his fleſh, and he will curſe thee to thy face.

6 And the LORD ſaid unto Satan, Behold, he is in thine hand, ‡ but [g] ſave his life.

7 ¶ So went Satan forth from the preſence of the LORD, and ſmote Job with ſore [h] boyls, from the ſole of his foot unto his crown.

8 And he took him a [i] potſherd to ſcrape himſelf withal; and he ſat down among the aſhes.

9 ¶ Then ſaid his [k] wife unto him, Doſt thou ſtill [l] retain thine integrity? [m] curſe God, and die.

10 But he ſaid unto her, Thou ſpeakeſt as one of the fooliſh women ſpeaketh: what? ſhall we receive good at the hand of God, and ſhall we not [n] receive evil? In all this did not Job ſin with his [o] lips.

11 ¶ Now when Job's three [p] friends heard of all this evil that was come upon him, they came every one from his own place; Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite: for they had made an appointment together to come to mourn with him, and to comfort him.

12 And when they lift up their eyes afar off, and knew him not, they lifted up their voice, and wept, and they rent every one his mantle, and ſprinkled [q] duſt upon their heads toward heaven.

13 So they ſat down with him upon the ground ſeven days and ſeven nights, and none ſpake a word unto him: for they ſaw that his grief was very [r] great.

1 Because our infirmity cannot comprehend God in his Majeſty, he is ſet forth unto us as a King, that our capacity may be able to underſtand that which is ſpoken of him.
† Heb. the adverſary.

g Thus Satan can go no further in puniſhing, then God hath limited him.
h This ſore was moſt vehement, wherewith alſo God plagued the Egyptians, Exod. 9. 9. & threatneth to puniſh the rebellious people, Deut. 28. 27. So that this temptation was moſt grievous: for if Job had meaſured God's favour by the vehemency of his diſeaſe, he might have thought that God had caſt him off.
i As deſtitute of all other help and means, and wonderfully afflicted with the ſorrow of his diſeaſe.
k Satan uſeth the ſame inſtrument againſt Job, as he did againſt Adam.
l Meaning, what gaineſt thou to ſerve God, ſeeing he thus plagueth thee, as though he were thine enemy? This is the moſt grievous temptation of the faithful, when their faith is aſſailed, and when Satan goeth about to perſwade them, that they truſt in God in vain.
m For death was appointed to the blaſphemer, and ſo ſhe meant, that he ſhould be ſoon rid out of his pain.

15 And the [x] Sabeans fell upon them, and took them away, yea, they have ſlain the ſervants with the edge of the ſword, and I onely am eſcaped alone to tell thee.

16 While he was yet ſpeaking, there came alſo another, and ſaid, ‡ The [y] fire of God is fallen from heaven, and hath burnt up the ſheep, and the ſervants, and conſumed them, and I onely am eſcaped alone to tell thee.

17 While he was yet ſpeaking, there came alſo another, and ſaid, The Chaldeans made out three bands, and † fell upon the camels, and have carried them away, yea, and ſlain the ſervants with the edge of the ſword, and I onely am eſcaped alone to tell thee.

18 While he was yet ſpeaking, there came alſo another, and ſaid, [z] Thy ſons and thy daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldeſt brother's houſe:

19 And behold, there came a great wind † from the wilderneſs, and ſmote the four corners of the houſe, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead, and I onely am eſcaped alone to tell thee.

20 Then Job aroſe, and [a] rent his ‡ mantle, and ſhaved his head, and fell down upon the ground, and worſhipped, 21 And ſaid, *Naked came I out of my mother's womb, and naked ſhall I return [b] thither: the LORD gave, and the LORD hath taken away; bleſſed be the name of the LORD.

22 In all this Job ſinned not, nor ‡ [c] charged God [d] fooliſhly.

n Herein he confeſſeth that God is juſt and good, although his hand be ſore upon him. d But declareth that God did all things according to juſtice and equity.

o He ſo bridled his affections, that his tongue through impatiency did not murmur againſt God. p Which were men of authority, wiſe and learned, and as the Septuagint write, Kings, and came to comfort him, but when they ſaw how he was viſited, they conceived an evil opinion of him, as though he had been but an hypocrite, and ſo juſtly plagued of God for his ſins. q This was alſo a ceremony, which they uſed in thoſe countreys, as the renting of their clothes in ſign of ſorrow, &c. r And therefore thought that he would not have hearkned to their counſel.

z We have learned these points by experience, that God punisheth not the innocent, that man cannot compare in justice with him, that the hypocrites shall not long prosper, and that the affliction which man sustaineth cometh for his own sin.

Chap. VI.

1 Job sheweth that his complaints are not causeless. 8 He wisheth for death, wherein he is assured of comfort. 14 He reproveth his friends of unkindness.

BUt Job answered and said,

2 Oh that my grief were throughly weighed, and my calamity † laid in the [a] balances together?

3 For now it would be heavier then the sand of the sea: therefore ‡ my words are [b] swallowed up.

4 * For the arrows of the Almighty are within me, the poison whereof drinketh up my spirit: the terrours of God do [c] set themselves in aray against me.

5 Doth the [d] wild ass bray † when he hath grass? or loweth the ox over his fodder?

6 Can that which is [e] unsavory be eaten without salt? or is there any taste in the white of an egg?

7 The things that my soul refused to touch, are as my sorrowful meat.

8 O that I might have my [f] request! and that God would grant me † the thing that I long for!

9 Even that it would please God to destroy me; that he would let loose his hand, and cut me off.

10 Then should I yet have comfort, yea, I would harden my self in sorrow; let him not spare, [g] for I have not concealed the words of the holy One.

11 What is my strength, that I should hope? and what is mine [h] end, that I should prolong my life?

12 Is my strength the strength of stones? or is my flesh † of brass?

13 Is not my [i] help in me? and is wisdom driven quite from me?

14 † To him that is afflicted pity should be shewed from his friend; but he forsaketh the fear of the Almighty.

15 My brethren have dealt deceitfully as a [k] brook, and as the stream of brooks they pass away:

16 Which are blackish by reason of the ice, and wherein the snow is hid:

† Heb. lifted up a To know whether I complain without just cause ‡ That is, I want words to express my grief.
b My grief is so great, that I lack words to express it.
* Psal. 38. 2.
c Which declareth that he was not onely afflicted in body, but wounded in conscience, which is the greatest battel that the faithful can have.
d Think you that I cry without cause, seeing the bruit beasts do not complain when they have what they would?
† Heb at grass.
e Can a man's taste delight in that that hath no savour? meaning, that none take pleasure in affliction, seeing they cannot away with things that are unsavory to the mouth.
f Herein he sinneth double, both in wishing through impatiency to die, and also in desiring of God a thing which was not agreeable to his will.
† Heb. my expectation.
g That is, let me die at once, before I come to distrust in God's promise through mine impatiency.
h He feared least he should be brought to inconvenience, if his sorrows should continue.
† Heb brasen.
i Have I not sought to help my self as much as was possible?
† Heb. to him that melteth.
k He compareth those friends which comfort us not in misery, to a brook, which in summer when we need water is dry; in winter is hard frozen; and in the time of rain, when we have no need, overfloweth with water.

414

† Heb. in the heat thereof.
† Heb. extinguished.

17 What time they wax warm, † they vanish: † when it is hot, they are † consumed out of their place.

18 The paths of their way are turned aside; they go to nothing, and perish.

19 The troops of [l] Tema looked, the companies of Sheba waited for them.

20 They were confounded because they had hoped; they came thither, and were ashamed.

21 ‡† For now ye are †[m] nothing; ye see my casting down, and are afraid.

22 Did I say, Bring unto me? Or give a reward for me of your [n] substance?

23 Or deliver me from the enemies hand? or redeem me from the hand of the mighty?

24 Teach me, and I will [o] hold my tongue: and cause me to understand wherein I have erred.

25 How [p] forcible are right words! but what doth your arguing reprove?

26 Do ye imagine to [q] reprove words, and the speeches of one that is desperate, which are as wind?

27 Yea, † ye overwhelm the fatherless, and you dig a pit for your friend.

28 Now therefore be content, [r] look upon me, for it is † evident unto you, if I lie.

29 Return I pray you, let it not be iniquity; yea, return again, my righteousness is [s] in it.

30 Is there iniquity in my tongue? cannot † my taste discern perverse things?

l They that pass thereby to go into the hot countries of Arabia, think to find water there to quench their thirst, but they are deceived.
‡ Or, for now ye are like to them.
† Heb. to it.
† Heb. not.
m That is, like to this brook, which deceiveth them that think to have water there in their need, as I looked for consolation at your hands.
n He toucheth the worldlings, which for no necessity will give part of their goods, and much more these men, which would not give him comfortable words.
o Shew me wherein I have erred, and I will confess my fault.
p He that hath a good conscience doth not shrink at the sharp words or reasonings of others, except they be able to persuade him by reason.
q Do you cavil at my words because I should be thought to speak foolishly, which am now in misery.

† Heb. ye cause it fall upon. r Consider whether I speak as one that is driven to this impatiency through very sorrow, or as an hypocrite, as you condemn me. † Heb. before your face. [s] That is, in this matter. † Heb. my palate.

Chap. VII.

1 Job excuseth his desire of death. 12 He complaineth of his own restlessness, and God's watchfulness.

‡ Or, a warfare.

IS there not ‡ an appointed time to man upon earth? are not his days also like the days of an [a] hireling?

a Hath not an hired servant some rest and ease? then in this my continual torment I am worse then an hireling.

2 As a servant † earnestly desireth the shadow, and as an hireling looketh for the reward of his work:

† Heb gapeth after.

3 So am I made to possess [b] months of vanity, and wearisom nights are appointed to me.

b My sorrow hath continued from month to month, and I have looked for hope in vain.

4 When I lie down, I say, When shall I arise, and † the night be gone? and I am full of tossings to and fro unto the dawning of the day.

† Heb. the evening be measured.

5 My flesh is [c] clothed with worms and clods of dust, my skin is broken, and become loathsom.

c This signifieth, that his disease was rare and most horrible.

6 *My days are swifter then a [d] weaver's shuttle, and are spent without hope.

* Chap. 16. 22. Psal. 90. 6. & 102. 11. & 103. 15. & 144. 4. Isai. 40. 6. Jam. 4. 14.

d Thus he speaketh in respect of the brevity of man's life, which passeth without hope of returning, in consideration whereof he desireth God to have compassion on him.

7 O remember that my life is wind: mine eye † shall no more ‡ see good.

† Heb. shall not return.
‡ Or, To see, that is, to enjoy.

8 The eye of him that hath seen me shall see me no more: thine eyes are upon me and [e] I am not.

[e] That is, I can live no longer.

9 [f] As the cloud is consumed, and vanisheth away: so he that goeth down to the grave, shall come up [f] no more.

10 He shall return no more to his house, neither shall his place know him any more.

11 Therefore I will not [g] refrain my mouth, I will speak in the anguish of my spirit, I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.

e If thou behold me in thine anger, I shall not be able to stand in thy presence. f Shall no more enjoy this mortal life. g Seeing I can by no other means comfort my self, I will declare my grief by words: and thus he speaketh as one overcome with grief of mind.

12 Am I a sea, or a [h] whale, that thou settest a watch over me?

h Am not I a poor wretch? what needeth thou then to lay so much pain on me?

13 When I say, My bed shall comfort me, my couch shall ease my complaint:

i So that I can have no rest, night nor day.

14 Then thou [i] scarest me with dreams, and terrifiest me through visions.

k He speaketh as one overcome with sorrow, and not of judgment, or, of the examination of his faith.

15 So that my soul [k] chooseth strangling, and death rather † then my life.

† Heb. then my bones.

16 I loath it, I would not live alway: let me [l] alone, for my days are vanity.

l Seeing my term of life is so short, let me have some rest and ease.

17 *What is man, that thou shouldest [m] magnify him? and that thou shouldest set thine heart upon him?

* Psal. 8. 4. & 144. 3. Heb. 2. 6.

m Seing that man of himself is so vile, why dost thou give him that honour to contend against him? Job useth all kinds of persuasion with God, that he might stay his hand.

18 And that thou shouldest visit him every morning, and try him every moment?

19 How long wilt thou not depart from me, nor let me alone till I swallow down my spittle?

20 I have [n] sinned, what shall I do unto thee, O thou preserver of men? why hast thou set me as a mark against thee, so that I am a burden to my self?

n After all temptations, faith bursteth forth, and leadeth Job to repentance; yet it was not in such perfection, that he could bridle himself from reasoning with God, because that he still tried his faith.

21 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? for now shall I sleep in the dust, and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall [o] not be.

o That is, I shall be dead.

Chap. VIII.

1 Bildad sheweth God's justice, in dealing with men according to their works. 8 He alledgeth antiquity to prove the certain destruction of the hypocrite. 20 He applieth God's just dealing to Job.

THen answered Bildad the Shuhite, & said,

2 How long wilt thou speak these things? and how long shall the words of thy mouth be like a [a] strong wind?

a He declareth that their words which would diminish any thing from the justice of God, is but as a puff of wind that vanisheth away.

3 *Doth God pervert judgment? or doth the Almighty pervert justice?

* Deut. 32. 4. 2 Chron. 19. 7. Dan. 9. 14.

CHAP. IX.

1 Job acknowledging God's juſtice, ſheweth there is no contending with him. 22 Man's innocency is not to be condemned by afflictions.

THen Job anſwered and ſaid,

2 I know it is ſo of a truth: but how ſhould * man be [a] juſt ‡ with God?

3 If he will contend with him, he cannot anſwer him one of a [b] thouſand.

4 He is wiſe in heart, and mighty in ſtrength: who hath hardned himſelf againſt him, and hath proſpered?

5 Which removeth the mountains, and they know not: which overturneth them in his anger.

6 Which [c] ſhaketh the earth out of her place, and the pillars thereof tremble.

10 * Which doth great things paſt finding out, yea, and wonders without number.

11 Lo, he [e] goeth by me, and I ſee him not: he paſſeth on alſo, but I perceive him not.

12 * Behold, he taketh away, † [f] who can hinder him? who will ſay unto him, What doſt thou?

13 If God [g] will not withdraw his anger, the † proud helpers do [h] ſtoop under him.

14 How much leſs ſhall I anſwer him, and chooſe out my [i] words to reaſon with him?

15 Whom, though I were righteous, yet would I [k] not anſwer, but I would make ſupplication to my judge.

16 If I had [l] called, and he had anſwered me; yet would I not believe that he had hearkned unto my voice.

17 For he breaketh me with a tempeſt, and multiplieth my wounds [m] without cauſe.

* Pſal 143. 2.
a Joo here anſwereth to that point of Eliphaz and Bildad's oration, touching the juſtice of God, and his innocency; confeſſing God to be infinite in juſtice, and man to be nothing in reſpect.
‡ Or, before God.

18 He will not ſuffer me to take my breath, but filleth me with bitterneſs.

19 If I ſpeak of ſtrength, lo he is [n] ſtrong: and if of judgment, who ſhall ſet me a time to plead?

20 If I juſtify my ſelf, mine own mouth ſhall condemn me: if I ſay, I am [o] perfect, it ſhall alſo prove me perverſe.

21 Though I were perfect, yet would I not know my ſoul: I would deſpiſe my life.

22 This is one thing, therefore I ſaid it, he deſtroyeth the [p] perfect and the wicked.

23 If the ſcourge [q] ſlay ſuddenly, he will [r] laugh at the trial of the innocent.

24 The earth is given into the hand of the wicked: he [s] covereth the faces of the judges thereof; if not, [t] where, and who is he?

25 Now my days are ſwifter then a poſt: they flee away, they ſee no good.

26 They are paſſed away as the † ‡ ſwift ſhips: as the eagle that haſteth to the prey.

27 [u] If I ſay, I will forget my complaint, I will leave off my heavineſs, and comfort my ſelf:

28 I am afraid of all my ſorrows, I know that thou wilt not hold me innocent.

29 If I be wicked, why then [x] labour I in vain?

30 [y] If I waſh my ſelf with ſnow-water, and make my hands never ſo clean;

31 Yet ſhalt thou plunge me in the ditch, and mine own [z] clothes ſhall ‡ abhor me.

32 For he is not a man as I am, that I ſhould anſwer him, and we ſhould come together in judgment.

33 Neither is there † any ‡ [a] days-man betwixt us, that might lay his hand upon us both.

34 Let him take his rod away from me, and let not his fear terrify me.

35 Then would I ſpeak, and not fear him; † [b] but it is not ſo with me.

n After he hath accuſed his own weakneſs, he continueth to juſtify God and his power.
o If I would ſtand in mine own defence, yet God hath juſt cauſe to condemn me, if he examin mine heart and conſcience.
p If God puniſh according to his juſtice, he will deſtroy as well them that are counted perfect, as them that are wicked.
q To wit, the wicked.
r This is ſpoken accotding to our apprehenſion, as though he would ſay, If God deſtroy but the wicked, as Chap. 5. 2. why ſhould he ſuffer the innocents to be ſo long tormented by them?
ſ That they cannot ſee to do juſtice.
t That can ſhew the contrary.
† Heb. ſhips of deſire.
‡ Or, ſhips of Eheb.
u I think not to fall into theſe affections, but my ſorrows bring me to theſe manifold infirmities, and my conſcience condemneth me.
x Why doth not God deſtroy me at once, thus he ſpeaketh according to the infirmity of the fleſh.
y Though I ſeem never ſo pure in mine own eyes, yet all is but corruption before God.
z Whatſoever I would uſe to cover my filthineſs with, ſhall diſcloſe me ſo much more.
‡ Or, make me to be abhorred. † Heb. me that ſhould argue. ‡ Or, umpire. a Which might make an accord between God and me, ſpeaking of impatiency, and yet confeſſing God to be juſt in puniſhing him. † Heb. but I am not ſo with my ſelf. b Signifying, that God's judgments keep him in awe.

CHAP. X.

1 Job, taking liberty of complaint, expoſtulateth with God about his afflictions. 18 He complaineth of life, and craveth a little eaſe before death.

MY ſoul is ‡ [c] weary of my life, I will leave my [b] complaint upon my ſelf; I will ſpeak in the bitterneſs of my ſoul.

2 I will ſay unto God, Do not [c] condemn me; ſhew me wherefore thou contendeſt with me.

3 Is it good unto thee, that thou ſhouldeſt [d] oppreſs? that thou ſhouldeſt deſpiſe † the work of [e] thine hands? and [f] ſhine upon the counſel of the wicked?

4 Haſt thou eyes of [g] fleſh? or ſeeſt thou as man ſeeth?

5 Are thy days as the [h] days of man? are thy years as man's days,

6 That thou enquireſt after mine iniquity, and ſearcheſt after my ſin?

‡ Or, cut off while I live.
a I am more like to a dead man then to one that liveth.
b I will make an ample declaration of my torments accuſing my ſelf and not God.
c He would not that God ſhould proceed againſt him by his ſecret juſtice, but by the ordinary means that he puniſheth others.
d Is it agreeable to thy juſtice to do me wrong?
† Heb. the labour of thine hands.
e Wilt thou be without compaſſion? f Wilt thou gratify the wicked and condemn me? g Doſt thou this of ignorance? h Art thou inconſtant and changeable as the times; to day a friend, to morrow an enemy?

7 † Thou knowest that I am not [i] wicked, and there is none that can deliver out of thine hand.

8 [k] Thine hands † have made me and fashioned me together round about; yet thou dost destroy me.

9 Remember, I beseech thee, that thou hast made me as the [l] clay, and wilt thou bring me into dust again?

10 * Hast thou not poured me out as milk, and crudled me like cheese?

11 Thou hast clothed me with skin and flesh, and hast † fenced me with bones and sinews.

12 Thou hast granted me life and [m] favour, and thy [n] visitation hath preserved my spirit.

13 And these things hast thou hid in thine heart: I [o] know that this is with thee.

14 If I sin, then thou markest me, and thou wilt not acquit me from mine iniquity.

15 If I be wicked, wo unto me; and if I be righteous, yet will I [p] not lift up my head: I am full of confusion, therefore see thou mine affliction:

16 For it increaseth: thou huntest me as a fierce lion; and again thou shewest thy self [q] marvellous upon me.

17 Thou renewest ‡ thy witnesses against me, and increasest thine indignation upon me; [r] changes and war are against me.

18 * Wherefore then hast thou brought me forth out of the womb? O that I had given up the ghost, and no eye had seen me!

19 I should have been as though I had not been, I should have been carried from the womb to the grave.

20 * Are not my days few? [s] cease then, and let me alone that I may take comfort a little:

21 Before I go whence I shall [t] not return, even to the land of darkness, and the shadow of death;

22 A land of darkness, as darkness it self, and of the shadow of death, without any [u] order, and where the light is as darkness.

i By affliction thou keepest me as in a prison, and restrainest me from doing evil, neither can any set me at liberty.

o Though I be not fully able to comprehend these things, yet I must needs confess that it is so.
p I will alway walk in fear and humility, knowing that none is just before thee.
q Job being sore assaulted in this battel between the flesh and the spirit, bursteth out into these affections, wishing rather short days then long pain.

s He wisheth that God would leave off his affliction, considering his great misery, and the brevity of his life.

u No distinction between light and darkness, but where all is very darkness it self.

Chap. XI.

1 Zophar reproveth Job for justifying himself. 5 God's wisdom is unsearchable. 13 The assured blessing of repentance.

THen answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,

2 Should not the multitude of words be answered? and should † a man full of talk be [a] justified?

3 Should thy ‡ lies make men hold their peace? and when thou mockest, shall no man make thee ashamed?

‡ Or, devices.
b He chargeth Job with this, that he should say, that the thing which he spake was true, and that he was without sin in the sight of God.

6 And that he would shew thee the [c] secrets of wisdom, that they are double to that which is! know therefore that God exacteth of thee less then thine iniquity deserveth.

7 Canst thou by searching find out God? canst thou find out the Almighty unto perfection?

8 It is † as high as heaven, what canst thou do? [d] deeper then hell, what canst thou know?

9 The measure thereof is longer then the earth, and broader then the sea.

10 If he ‡ cut off, and [e] shut up, or gather together, then † who can hinder him?

11 For he knoweth vain men: he seeth wickedness also; will he not then consider it?

12 For † vain man would be wise, though man be born like a [f] wild asse's colt.

13 If thou [g] prepare thine heart, and stretch out thine hands towards him;

14 If iniquity be in thine hand, [h] put it far away, and let not wickedness dwell in thy tabernacles.

15 For then shalt thou lift up thy [i] face without spot, yea, thou shalt be stedfast, and shalt not fear:

16 Because thou shalt forget thy misery, and remember it as waters that pass away:

17 And thine age † shall be clearer then the noon-day; thou shalt shine forth, thou shalt be as the morning.

18 And thou shalt be secure because there is hope; yea, thou shalt dig about thee, and * thou shalt take thy rest in safety.

19 Also thou shalt lie down, and none shall make thee afraid; yea, many shall † make suit unto thee.

20 But the eyes of the wicked shall [k] fail, and † they shall not escape, and * their hope shall be as ‡ the giving up the ghost.

c Which is not to stand in justifying of thy self: he signifieth that man will never be overcome, whiles he reasoneth with another, and therefore God must break off the controversy, and stop man's mouth.
† Heb. the heights of heaven.
d That is, this perfection of God, and if man be not able to comprehend the height of the heaven, the depth of hell, the length of the earth, the breadth of the sea, which are but creatures: how can he attain to the perfection of the Creatour?
‡ Or, make no change.
e If God should turn the state of things, and establish a new order in nature, who could control him?
† Heb. who can turn him away?
† Heb. empty.
f That is, without understanding: so that whatsoever gifts he hath afterward, come of God and not of nature.

Chap. XII.

1 Job maintaineth himself against his friends that reprove him. 7 He acknowledgeth the general doctrine of God's omnipotency.

ANd Job answered and said,

2 No doubt but ye are the people, and [a] wisdom shall die with you.

3 But I have † understanding as well as you; † I am not inferiour to you: yea, † who knoweth not such things as these?

4 [b] I am as one mocked of his neighbour, who calleth upon God, & [c] he answereth him: the just upright man is laughed to scorn.

5 [d] He that is ready to slip with his feet is as a lamp despised in the thought of him that is at ease.

6 The tabernacles of robbers prosper, and they that provoke God are secure; into whose hand God bringeth abundantly.

7 But ask now the [e] beasts, and they shall a Because you feel not that which you speak, you think the whole standeth in words, and so flatter your selves, as though none knew any thing, or could know but you.

† Heb. an heart.
† Heb. I fall not lower then you.
† Heb. with whom are not such as these?
b He reproveth these his friends of two faults: the one that they thought they had better knowledge then indeed they had: and the other that in stead of true consolation, they did deride, and despise their friend in his adversity.
c The which neighbour being a mocker and a wicked man thinketh that no man is in God's favour but he, because he hath all things that he desireth.
d As the rich esteem not a light, or torch that goeth out, so is he despised that falleth from prosperity, to adversity.
e He declareth to them that did dispute against him, that their wisdom is common to all, and such as the very brute beasts do daily teach.

teach

teach thee; and the fowls of the air, and they shall tell thee:

8 Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach thee; and the fishes of the sea shall declare unto thee.

9 Who knoweth not in all these, that the hand of the LORD hath wrought this?

10 In whose hand is the ‡ soul of every living thing, and the breath of † all mankind.

11 * Doth not the ear [f] try words? and the † mouth taste his meat?

12 With the [g] ancient is wisdom; and in length of days, understanding.

13 ‡ With him is wisdom and strength, he hath counsel and understanding.

14 Behold, he breaketh down, and it cannot be built again: he * shutteth † up a man, and there can be no opening.

15 Behold, he withholdeth the waters, and they dry up: also he sendeth them out, and they overturn the earth.

16 With him is strength and wisdom: the deceived and the [h] deceiver are his.

17 He leadeth counsellers away spoiled, and maketh the judges fools.

18 [i] He looseth the [k] bond of Kings, and girdeth their loyns with a girdle.

19 He leadeth Princes away spoiled, and overthroweth the mighty.

20 * He removeth away † the speech of the [l] trusty, and taketh away the understanding of the aged.

21 He poureth contempt upon Princes, and ‡ weakneth the strength of the mighty.

22 He discovereth deep things out of darkness, and bringeth out to light the shadow of death.

23 He [m] increaseth the nations, and destroyeth them: he enlargeth the nations, and † straitneth them again.

24 He taketh away the heart of the chief of the people of the earth, and causeth them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way.

25 They grope in the dark without light, and he maketh them to † stagger like a drunken man.

* Chap. 32. 9.
† Heb. the lip of the faithful.
l He causeth that their words have no credit, which is when he will punish sin.
‡ Or, looseth the girdle of the strong.
m In this discourse of God's wonderful works Job sheweth that whatsoever is done in this world both in the order and change of things, is by God's will and appointment: wherein he declareth that he thinketh well of God, and is as able to set forth his power in words as they that reasoned against him were.
† Heb. leadeth in. † Heb. wander.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Job reproveth his friends of partiality. 14 He professeth his confidence in God, 20 and intreateth to know his own sins, and God's purpose in afflicting him.

LO, mine eye hath seen all this, mine ear hath heard and understood it.

2 What ye know, the same do I know also: I am not inferiour unto you.

3 Surely I would speak to the Almighty, and I desire to [a] reason with God.

4 But ye are forgers of lies, ye are all [b] physicians of no value.

5 O that you would altogether hold your peace, and it should be your wisdom.

6 Hear now my reasoning, and hearken to the pleadings of my lips.

7 Will you speak [c] wickedly for God? and talk deceitfully for him?

8 Will ye accept his person? will ye contend for God?

9 Is it good that he should search you out? or as one man mocketh another, do ye so mock him?

10 He will surely reprove you, if ye do secretly accept persons.

11 Shal not his excellency make you afraid? and his dread fall upon you?

12 Your [d] remembrances are like unto ashes, your bodies to bodies of clay.

13 † Hold your peace, let me alone that I may speak, and let come on me what will.

14 Wherefore do I [e] take my flesh in my teeth, and put my life in mine hand?

15 Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will † maintain mine own ways before him.

16 He also shall be my salvation: for an [f] hypocrite shall not come before him.

17 Hear diligently my speech, and my declaration with your ears.

18 Behold now, I have ordered my cause; I know that I shall be [g] justified.

19 Who is he that will [h] plead with me? for now if I hold my tongue, I shall give up the [i] ghost.

20 Onely do not two things unto me: then will I not hide my self from thee.

21 [k] Withdraw thine hand far from me: and let not thy dread make me afraid.

22 Then call thou, and I will answer: or let me speak, and answer thou me.

23 How many are mine [l] iniquities and sins? make me to know my transgression and my sin.

24 Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and holdest me for thine enemy?

25 Wilt thou break a leaf driven to and fro? and wilt thou pursue the dry stubble?

26 For thou writest bitter things against me, and * makest me to possess the iniquities of my [m] youth.

27 Thou puttest my feet also in the [n] stocks, and † lookest narrowly unto all my paths: thou settest a print upon the † heels of my feet.

28 And he, as a rotten thing, consumeth, as a garment that is moth-eaten.

c He condemneth their zeal, which had not knowledge, neither regarded they to comfort him, but alway grated on God's justise, as though it was not evidently seen in Job, except they had undertaken the probation thereof.
d Your fame shall come to nothing.
† Heb. be silent from me.
e Is not this a maniest sign of mine affliction, and that I do not complain without cause, seeing that I am thus tormented, as though I should tear mine own flesh, and put my life in danger.
† Heb. prove, or, argue.
f Whereby he declareth that he is not an hypocrite, as they charged him.
g That is, cleared and not cast off for my sins as you reason.
h To prove that God doth thus punish me for my sins.
i If I defend not my cause, every man will condemn me.
k He sheweth what these two things are.
l His pangs thus move him to reason with God, not denying but that he had sinned, but he desired to understand what were is great sins that had deserved such rigour, wherein he offended, that he would know a cause of God why he did punish him.
* Psal. 25. 7.
m Thou punishest me now for the faults that I committed in my youth.
n Thou makest me thy prisoner, and dost so press me, that I cannot stir hand nor foot.

CHAP. XIV.

1 Job intreateth God for favour, by the shortness of life, and certainty of death. 7 Though life once lost be irrecoverable, yet he waiteth for his change. 16 By sin the creature is subject to corruption.

MAN [a] that is born of a woman, is † of few days, and full of trouble.

2 * He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down: he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not.

3 And dost thou open thine eyes upon such an [b] one, and bringest me unto judgment with thee?

a Taking occasion of his adversaries words, he describeth the state of man's life from his birth to his death.
† Heb. short of days.
* Chap. 8. 9. Psal. 102. 11. & 103. 15. & 144. 4. b His meaning is, that seeing that man is so frail a creature, God should not handle him so extreamly: wherein Job sheweth the wickedness of the flesh, when it is not subject to the Spirit.

a For although he knew that God had a justice, which was manifest in his ordinary working, and another in his secret counsel, yet he would utter his affection to God, because he was not able to understand the cause why he did thus punish him. b You do not well apply your medicine to the disease.

c Until the time that thou haſt appointed for him to die which he deſireth as the hireling waiteth for the end of his labour to receive his wages.

6 Turn from him that he may † reſt, till he ſhall accompliſh, as an [c] hireling, his day.

7 For there is hope of a tree, if it be cut down, that it will ſprout again, and that the tender branch thereof will not ceaſe.

8 Though the root thereof wax old in the earth, and the ſtock thereof die in the ground:

9 Yet through the ſent of water it will bud, and bring forth boughs like a plant.

d He ſpeaketh not here as though he had not hope of the immortality, but as a man in extream pain, when reaſon is overcome by affections and torments.
† Heb. is weakned, or, cut off.

10 [d] But man dieth, and † waſteth away: yea, man giveth up the ghoſt, and where is he?

11 As the waters fail from the ſea, and the floud decayeth and dryeth up:

12 So man lieth down, and riſeth not till the heavens be no more, they ſhall not awake, nor be raiſed out of their ſleep.

e Hereby he declareth that the fear of God's judgment was the cauſe why he deſired to die.
f That is, releaſe my pains, and take me to mercy
g Meaning, unto the day of the reſurrection, when he ſhould be changed and renewed.
h Though I be afflicted in this life, yet in the reſurrection I ſhall feel thy mercies, and anſwer when thou calleſt me.
* Pſal. 139. 2, 3.

13 O that thou wouldeſt hide me in the grave, that thou wouldeſt keep me ſecret, until thy [e] wrath be paſt, that thou wouldeſt appoint me a ſet time, and [f] remember me.

14 If a man die, ſhall he live again? all the days of my appointed time will I wait, till my [g] change come.

15 Thou ſhalt call, and I will [h] anſwer thee: thou wilt have a deſire to the work of thine hands.

16 * For now thou numbreſt my ſteps, doſt thou not watch over my ſin?

i Thou layeſt them all together, and ſuffereſt none of my ſins unpuniſhed.
† Heb. fadeth.
k He murmureth through the impatiency of the fleſh againſt God, as though he uſed as great ſeverity againſt him, as againſt the hard rocks, or waters that overflow, ſo that hereby all the occaſion of his hope is taken away.
† Heb overfloweſt.
l Yet whiles he liveth, he ſhall be in pain and miſery.

17 My tranſgreſſion is ſealed up in a [i] bag, and thou ſeweſt up mine iniquity.

18 And ſurely the mountain falling † cometh to nought: and the [k] rock is removed out of his place.

19 The waters wear the ſtones: thou † waſheſt away the things which grow out of the duſt of the earth, and thou deſtroyeſt the hope of man.

20 Thou prevaileſt for ever againſt him, and he paſſeth: thou changeſt his countenance, and ſendeſt him away.

21 His ſons come to honour, and he knoweth it not; and they are brought low, but he perceiveth it not of them.

22 But his [l] fleſh upon him ſhall have pain, and his ſoul within him ſhall mourn.

Chap. XV.

1 Eliphaz reproveth Job of impiety in juſtifying himſelf. 17 He proveth by tradition the unquietneſs of wicked men.

THen anſwered Eliphaz the Temanite, and ſaid, † Heb. knowledge of wind.

a That is, vain words and without conſolation?
b Meaning with matters that are of none importance, which are forgotten as ſoon as they are uttered, as the eaſt-wind dryeth up the moiſture aſſoon as it falleth.
† Heb. thou makeſt void.

2 Should a wiſe man utter † [a] vain knowledge, and fill his belly with the [b] eaſt-wind?

3 Should he reaſon with unprofitable talk? or with ſpeeches wherewith he can do no good?

4 Yea, † thou caſteſt off [c] fear, and reſtraineſt ‡ prayer before God.

5 For thy mouth † uttereth thine iniquity, and thou chooſeſt the [d] tongue of the crafty.

c He chargeth Job as though his talk cauſed men to caſt off the fear of God and prayer.
‡ Or, ſpeech. † Heb. teacheth.

6 Thine own mouth condemneth thee, and not I: yea, thine own lips teſtify againſt thee.

d Thou ſpeakeſt as do the mockers and contemners of God.

7 Art thou the [e] firſt man that was born? or waſt thou made before the hills?

* Rom. 11. 34.

8 * Haſt thou heard the ſecret of God? and doſt thou reſtrain wiſdom to [f] thy ſelf?

f Art thou onely wiſe?

9 What knoweſt thou that we know not? what underſtandeſt thou, which is not in us?

10 With us are both the gray-headed, and very aged men, much elder then thy father.

11 Are the conſolations of God [g] ſmall with thee? is there any ſecret thing with thee?

g He accuſeth Job's pride and ingratitude, that will not be comforted by God, nor by their counſel.

12 Why doth thine heart [h] carry thee away? and what do thine eyes wink at, h Why doſt thou ſtand in thine own conceit?

* 1 Kings 8. 46. 2 Chron. 6. 36. Chap. 14. 4. Pſal. 14. 3. Prov. 20. 9. 1 Joh. 1. 8.

13 That thou turneſt thy ſpirit againſt God, and letteſt ſuch words go out of thy mouth?

14 * What is man, that he ſhould be clean? and he which is born of a woman, that he ſhould be [i] righteous?

i His purpoſe is to prove that Job as an unjuſt man and an hypocrite is puniſhed for his ſins, like as he did before, Chap. 4. 18.
* Chap. 4. 18.

15 * Behold, he putteth no truſt in his ſaints; yea, the heavens are not clean in his ſight.

16 How much more abominable and filthy is man, which [k] drinketh iniquity like water?

k Which hath a deſire to ſin, as he that is thirſty to drink.

17 I will ſhew thee, hear me, and that which I have ſeen, I will declare,

18 Which wiſe men have told from their fathers, and have not hid it:

19 Unto whom alone the earth was [l] given, and no ſtranger paſſed among them.

l Who by their wiſdom ſo governed, that no ſtranger invaded them, and ſo the land ſeemed to be given to them alone.

20 The wicked man travelleth with pain all his days, and the number of [m] years is hidden to the oppreſſour.

m The cruel man is ever in danger of death, and never quiet in conſcience.

21 † A dreadful ſound is in his ears; in proſperity the deſtroyer ſhall come upon him.

† Heb. a ſound of fears.

n Out of that miſery wherein he once falleth.

23 He [o] wandereth abroad for bread, ſaying, Where is it? he knoweth that the day of darkneſs is ready at his hand.

o God doth not onely impoveriſh the wicked oftimes: but even in their proſperity he puniſheth them with a greedineſs evermore to gather: which is as a beggery

24 [p] Trouble and anguiſh ſhall make him afraid; they ſhall prevail againſt him, as a King ready to the battel.

p He ſheweth what weapons God uſeth againſt the wicked, which lift up themſelves againſt him, to wit, terrour of conſcience, and outward afflictions.

25 For he ſtretcheth out his hand againſt God, and ſtrengthneth himſelf againſt the Almighty.

26 He runneth upon him, even on his neck, upon the thick boſſes of his bucklers:

27 Becauſe he covereth his face with his [q] fatneſs, and maketh collops of fat on his flanks.

q That is, he was ſo puft up with great proſperity and abundance of all things, that he forgot God: meaning, that Job in his felicity, had not the true fear of God.

28 And he dwelleth in [r] deſolate cities, and in houſes which no man inhabiteth, which are ready to become heaps.

r Though he build and repair ruinous places to get him fame, yet God ſhall bring all to nought, and turn his great proſperity into extream miſery.

29 He ſhall not be rich, neither ſhall his ſubſtance continue, neither ſhall he prolong [s] the perfection thereof upon the earth.

s Meaning, that his ſumptuous buildings ſhould never come to perfection.

30 He ſhall not depart out of darkneſs, the flame ſhall dry up his branches, and by the breath of his mouth ſhall he go away.

31 Let not him that is deceived, truſt in vanity: for vanity ſhall be his [t] recompence.

t He ſtandeth ſo in his own conceit, that he will give no place to good counſel, therefore his own pride ſhall bring him to deſtruction.

32 It ſhall be ‡ accompliſhed before his time, and his branch ſhall not be green.

‡ Or, cut off.

33 He shall shake off his unripe grape [u] as the vine, and shall cast off his flower as the olive.

34 For the congregation of hypocrites shall be desolate, and fire shall consume the tabernacles of [x] bribery.

35 * They [y] conceive mischief, and bring forth ‡ vanity, and their belly prepareth deceit.

Chap. XVI.

1 Job reproveth his friends of unmercifulness. 7 He sheweth the pitifulness of his case. 17 He maintaineth his innocency.

THen Job answered and said,

2 I have heard many such things: ‡ * miserable comforters are ye all.

3 Shall † [a] vain words have an end? or what emboldneth thee that thou [b] answerest?

4 I also could speak as ye do: [c] if your soul were in my soul's stead, I could heap up words against you, and [d] shake mine head at you.

5 But I would [e] strengthen you with my mouth, and the moving of my lips should assuage your grief.

6 Though I speak, my grief is not [f] assuaged: and though I forbear, † what am I eased?

7 But now [g] he hath made me weary: thou hast made desolate all my [h] company.

8 And thou hast filled me with [i] wrinkles, which is a witness against me: and my leanness rising up in me, beareth witness to my face.

9 He [k] teareth me in his wrath, who hateth me: he gnasheth upon me with his teeth; mine enemy sharpneth his eyes upon me.

10 They have gaped upon me with their mouth, they have smitten me upon the [l] cheek reproachfully, they have gathered themselves together against me.

11 God † hath delivered me to the ungodly, and turned me over into the [m] hands of the wicked.

12 I was at ease, but he hath broken me asunder: he hath also taken me by my neck, and shaken me to pieces, and set me up for his mark.

13 His [n] archers compass me round about, he cleaveth my reins asunder, and doth not spare; he poureth out my [o] gall upon the ground.

14 He breaketh me with breach upon breach, he runneth upon me like a giant.

15 I have sowed sackcloth upon my skin, and defiled my [p] horn in the dust.

16 My face is foul with weeping, and on my eye-lids is the shadow of death:

17 Not for any injustice in [q] mine hands: also my prayer is [r] pure.

18 O earth, cover not thou my [s] bloud, and let my cry have no place.

19 Also now, behold, my [t] witness is in heaven, and my record is † on high.

20 My friends † [u] scorn me: but mine eye poureth out tears unto God.

21 O that one might [x] plead for a man with God, as a man pleadeth for his ‡ neighbour.

22 When † a few years are come, then I shall go the way whence I shall not return.

Chap. XVII.

1 Job appealeth from men to God. 6 The unmerciful dealing of men with the afflicted, may astonish, but not discourage the righteous. 11 His hope is not in life, but in death.

MY ‡ breath is corrupt, my days are extinct, the graves are ready for me.

2 Are there not [a] mockers with me? and doth not mine eye † continue in their [b] provocation?

3 [c] Lay down now, put me in a surety with thee; who is he that will [d] strike hands with me?

4 For thou hast hid their heart from [e] understanding: therefore shalt thou not exalt them.

5 [f] He that speaketh flattery to his friends, even the eyes of his children shall fail.

6 He hath made me also a [g] by-word of the people, and ‡ afore-time I was as a [h] tabret.

7 Mine eye also is dim by reason of sorrow, and all ‡ my members are as a shadow.

8 Upright men shall be [i] astonied at this, and the innocent shall stir up himself against the hypocrite.

9 The righteous also shall [k] hold on his way, and he that hath clean hands † shall be stronger and stronger.

10 But as for you [l] all, do you return, and come now: for I cannot find one wise man among you.

11 My days are past, my purposes are broken off, even † the thoughts of my heart.

12 They change the [m] night into day: the light is † short, because of darkness.

13 If I wait, the [n] grave is mine house: I have made my bed in the darkness.

14 I have † said to corruption, Thou art my [o] father: to the worm, Thou art my mother, and my sister.

15 And where is now my hope? as for my hope, who shall see it?

16 [p] They shall go down to the bars of the pit, when our rest together is in the dust.

n His manifold afflictions.

o I am wounded to the heart.

p Meaning, his glory was brought low.

q Signifying, that he is not able to comprehend the cause of this his grievous punishment.

r That is, unfeigned, and without hypocrisy.

s Let my sin be known if I be such a sinner, as mine adversaries accuse me, and let me find no favour.

t Though man condemn me, yet God is witness of my case. † Heb. in the high places. † Heb. are my formers. u Use painted words in stead of true consolation. x Thus by his great torments he is carried away, and bursteth out into passions, and speaketh unadvisedly, as though God should intreat man more gently, seeing he hath but a short time here to live.

c He reasoneth with God as a man beside himself, to the intent that his cause might be brought to light.

d And answer for thee.

e That these mine afflictions are thy just judgments, though man know not the cause.

f He that flattereth a man, and only judgeth him happy in his prosperity, shall not himself only, but in his posterity be punished.

g God hath made all the world to speak of me, because of mine afflictions.

‡ Or, before them.

h That is, as a continual sound in their ears.

‡ Or, my thoughts.

i To wit, when they see the godly punished, but in the end they shall come to understanding, and know what shall be the reward of the hypocrite.

k That is, will not be discouraged, considering that the godly are punished, as well as the wicked.

† Heb. shall add strength.

l Job speaketh to them three, that came to comfort him.

a Which count your selves just, as Chap. 12. 4.

b As Chap. 12. 7.

c That is, like a mad man.

† Heb. his soul.

d Shall God change the order of nature for thy sake by dealing with thee otherwise then he doth with all men.

† Heb. hidden.

l Though all the world would favour him, yet God would destroy him and his.
* Prov. 2. 22.

‡ Or, harden your selves against me.

b That is, I my self shall be punished for it, or you have not yet confuted it.
c He burseth out again into his passions, and declareth still that his affliction cometh of God, though he be not able to feel the cause in himself.
‡ Or, violence.
d Meaning, out of his afflictions.

e Meaning, his children, and whatsoever was dear unto him in this world.

7 The steps of his strength shall be straitned, and his own counsel shall cast him down.
8 For he is cast into a net by his own feet, and he walketh upon a f snare.
9 The grin shall take him by the heel, and the robber shall prevail against him.
10 The snare is † laid for him in the ground, and a trap for him in the way.
11 Terrours shall make him afraid on every side, and shall † drive him to his feet.
12 His strength shall be g hunger-bitten, and destruction shall be ready at his side.
13 It shall devour the † strength of his skin: even the h first-born of death shall devour his strength.
14 * His confidence shall be rooted out of his tabernacle, and it shall bring him to the i King of terrours.
15 It shall dwell in his tabernacle, because it is k none of his: l brimstone shall be scattered upon his habitation.
16 His roots shall be dried up beneath, and above shall his branch be cut off.
17 * His remembrance shall perish from the earth, and he shall have no name in the street.
18 † He shall be driven from m light into darkness, and chased out of the world.
19 He shall neither have son nor nephew among his people, nor any remaining in his dwellings.
20 They that come after him shall be astonied at his n day, as they that ‡ went before † were affrighted.
21 Surely such are the dwellings of the wicked, and this is the place of him that knoweth not God.

Chap. XIX.

1 Job complaining of his friends cruelty, sheweth there is misery enough in him to feed their cruelty. 21, 28 He craveth pity. 23 He believeth the resurrection.

THen Job answered and said,
2 How long will ye vex my soul, and break me in pieces with words?
3 These a ten times have ye reproached me: you are not ashamed that you ‡ make your selves strange to me.
4 And be it indeed that I have erred, mine errour b remaineth with my self.
5 If indeed ye will magnify your selves against me, and plead against me my reproach:
6 Know now that God hath c overthrown me, and hath compassed me with his net.
7 Behold, I cry out of ‡ wrong, but I am not heard: I cry aloud, but there is no judgment.
8 He hath fenced up my way that I d cannot pass, and he hath set darkness in my paths.
9 He hath stript me of my glory, and taken the e crown from my head.
10 He hath destroyed me on every side, and I am gone: and mine hope hath he removed like a f tree.
11 He hath also kindled his wrath against me, and he counteth me unto him, as one of his enemies.
12 His g troops come together, and raise up their way against me, and encamp round about my tabernacle.
13 He hath put my brethren far from me, and mine acquaintance are verily estranged from me.
14 My kinsfolk have failed, and my familiar friends have forgotten me.
15 h They that dwell in mine house, and my maids, count me for a stranger: I am an aliant in their sight, 16 I called my servant, and he gave me no answer: I entreated him with my mouth.
17 My breath is strange to my wife, though I entreated for the childrens sake of † i mine own body.
18 Yea, ‡ young children despised me; I arose, and they spake against me.
19 * All † my inward friends abhorred me: and they whom I loved, are turned against me.
20 My bone k cleaveth to my skin, ‡ and to my flesh, and I am escaped with the l skin of my teeth.
21 Have pity upon me, have m pity upon me, O ye my friends, for the hand of God hath touched me.
22 Why do ye persecute me as n God, and are not satisfied with my o flesh?
23 † O that my words were now written, oh that they were printed in a book!
24 That they were graven with an p iron pen and lead, in the rock for ever!
25 For I know that my q redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth.
26 ‡ And though after my skin, worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I r see God:
27 Whom I shall see for my self, and mine eyes shall behold, and not † another; though my reins be consumed † within me.
28 But ye should say, Why persecute we him, ‡ seeing the f root of the matter is found in me?
29 Be ye afraid of the sword: for wrath bringeth the punishments of the sword, that ye may know there is a t judgment.

g His manifold affliction.

h Mine household servants: by all these losses Job sheweth that touching the flesh he had great occasion to be moved.

† Heb. my belly.
i Which were hers and mine.

‡ Or, the wicked.

* Psal. 41. 9. & 55. 13, 14, 20.
† Heb. the men of my secret.

k Besides these great losses and most cruel unkindness, he was touched in his own person as followeth.
‡ Or, as.
l All my flesh was consumed.

m Seeing I have these just causes to complain, condemn me not as an hypocrite, specially ye which should comfort me n Is it not enough that God doth punish me, except you by reproaches increase my sorrow?
o To see my body punished, except ye trouble my mind.

† Heb. who will give, &c. p He protesteth, that notwithstanding his sore passions, his religion is perfect, and that he is not a blasphemer, as they judged him.
q I do not so justify my self before the world, but I know that I shall come before the great Judge, who shall be my Deliverer and Saviour.
‡ Or, after I shall awake though this body be destroyed, yet out of my flesh shall I see God. r Herein Job declareth plainly that he had a full hope, that both the soul and body should enjoy the presence of God in the last resurrection. † Heb. a stranger. † Heb. in my bosom. ‡ Or, and what root of matter is found in me?
f Though his friends thought that he was but persecuted of God for his sins, yet he declareth that there was a deeper consideration: to wit, the trial of his faith and patience, and so to be an example for others. t God will be avenged of this hasty judgment, whereby you condemn me.

Chap. XX.

Zophar sheweth the state and portion of the wicked.

THen answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,
2 Therefore do my thoughts cause me to answer, and for this † I make haste.
3 I have heard a the check of my reproach, and the spirit of my understanding causeth me to answer.
4 Knowest thou not this of old, since man was placed upon earth, † Heb. my haste is in me.

a He declareth that two things moved him to speak, to wit, because Job seemed to touch him, and because he thought he had knowledge sufficient to confute him.

5 * That

5 * That the triumphing of the wicked is † short, and the joy of the hypocrite but for a moment?

6 Though his [b] excellency mount up to the heavens, and his head reach unto the † clouds:

7 Yet he shall perish for ever, like his own dung: they which have seen him shall say, Where is he?

8 He shall flie away as a dream, and shall not be found: yea, he shall be chased away as a vision of the night

9 The eye also which saw him, shall see him no more; neither shall his place any more behold him.

10 ‡ His children shall seek to [c] please the poor, and his hands shall [d] restore their goods.

11 His bones are full of the sin of his youth, which shall [e] lie down with him in the dust.

12 Though wickedness be [f] sweet in his mouth, though he hide it under his tongue;

14 Though he spare it, and forsake it not; but keep it still † within his mouth.

14 Yet his meat in his bowels is turned, it is the gall of asps within him.

15 He hath swallowed down riches, and he shall vomit them up again: God shall cast them out of his belly.

16 He shall suck the [g] poyson of asps: the vipers tongue shall slay him.

17 He shall not see the [h] rivers, ‡ the flouds, the brooks of hony and butter.

18 That which he laboured for, shall he restore, and shall not swallow it down: † according to his substance shall the restitution be, and he shall not [i] rejoyce therein.

19 Because he hath † oppressed, and hath forsaken the poor; because he hath violently taken away an house which he builded not:

20 * Surely he shall not † feel quietness in his belly, he shall not save of that which he desired.

21 ‡ There shall none of his [k] meat be left; therefore shall no man look for his goods.

22 In the fulness of his sufficiency he shall be in straits: [l] every hand of the ‡ wicked shall come upon him.

23 When he is about to fill his belly, God shall cast the fury of his wrath upon him, and shall [m] rain it upon him while he is eating.

24 He shall flee from the iron weapon, and the bow of steel shall strike him through.

25 It is drawn and cometh out of the [n] body; yea, the glistring sword cometh out of his gall; terrours are upon him.

26 [o] All darkness shall be hid in his secret places: [p] a fire not blown shall consume him; it shall go ill with him that is left in his tabernacle.

27 The heaven shall reveal his iniquity: and the earth shall rise up against him.

28 The [q] increase of his house shall depart, and his goods shall flow away in the day of his wrath.

29 This is the portion of a wicked man from [r] God, and the heritage † appointed unto him by God.

* Psal. 37. 35, 36.
† Heb. from near.
b His purpose is to prove Job to be a wicked man, and an hypocrite, because God punished him, and changed his prosperity into adversity.
† Heb. cloud.
c Whereas the father, through ambition and tyranny, oppressed the poor, the children, through poverty and misery, shall seek favour at the poor.
d So that the thing, which he hath taken away by violence, shall be restored again by force.
e Meaning, that he shall carry nothing away with him, but his sin.
f As poison that is sweet in the mouth bringeth destruction when it cometh into the body: so all vice at the first is pleasant, but afterward God turneth it to destruction.
† Heb. in the midst of his palate.
g He compareth evil gotten goods to the venome of asps, which serpent is most dangerous: noting that Job's great riches were not truely come by, and therefore God did plague him justly for the same.
h Though God give to all other abundance of his blessings, yet he shall have no part thereof.
‡ Or, streaming brooks.
† Heb. according to the substance of his exchange.
i That is, these raveners and spoilers of the poor shall enjoy their theft but for a time: for after God will take it from them, and cause them to make restitution, so that it is but an exchange.
† Heb. crushed.
* Eccles. 5. 13, 14.
† Heb. know.
‡ Or, there shall be none left for his meat.
k He shall leave nothing to his posterity.
l The wicked shall never be in rest: for one wicked man shall seek to destroy another.
‡ Or, troublesom.
m Some read, upon his flesh, alluding to Job, whose flesh was smitten with a scab.
n Some read, of the quiver.
o All fear and sorrow shall light upon him, when he thinketh to escape.
p That is, fire from heaven, or the fire of God's wrath.
q Meaning, the children of the wicked shall flow away like rivers, and be dispersed in divers places.
r Thus God will plague the wicked.
† Heb. of his decree from God.

Job sheweth that even in the judgment of man he hath reason to be grieved. 7 Sometimes the wicked do so prosper, as they despise God. 16 Sometime their destruction is manifest. 22 The happy and unhappy are alike in death. 27 The judgment of the wicked is in another world.

BUt Job answered and said,

2 Hear diligently my speech, and let [a] this be your consolations.

3 Suffer me that I may speak, and after that I have spoken, mock on.

4 As for me, [b] is my complaint to man? and if it were so, why should not my spirit be † troubled?

5 † Mark me, and be astonished, and lay your hand upon your [c] mouth.

6 Even when I remember, I am afraid, and trembling taketh hold on my flesh.

7 * Wherefore do the wicked [d] live, become old, yea, are mighty in power?

8 Their seed is established in their sight with them, and their offspring before their eyes.

9 Their houses † are safe from fear, neither is the rod of God upon them.

10 Their bull gendreth and faileth not, their cow calveth and casteth not her calf.

11 They send forth their little ones like a [e] flock, and their children dance.

12 They take the timbrel and harp, and rejoyce at the sound of the organ.

13 They spend their days ‡ in wealth, and in a [f] moment go down to the grave.

14 * Therefore they say unto God, Depart from us; for we desire not the [g] knowledge of thy ways.

15 What is the Almighty, that we should serve him? and what profit should we have if we pray unto him?

16 Lo, their good is not in their [h] hand: the [i] counsel of the wicked is far from me.

17 How oft is the ‡ candle of the wicked put out? and how oft cometh their destruction upon them? God destributeth sorrows in his anger.

18 They are as stubble before the wind, and as chaff that the storm † carrieth away.

19 God layeth up his [k] iniquity for his children: he rewardeth him, and he shall know it.

20 [l] His eyes shall see his destruction, and he shall drink of the wrath of the Almighty

21 For what pleasure hath he in his house after him, when the number of his months is cut off in the midst?

22 Shall any teach [l] God knowledge? seeing he judgeth those that are high.

23 [m] One dieth † in his full strength, being wholly at ease and quiet.

24 His ‡ breasts are full of milk, and his bones are moistned with marrow.

25 And [n] another dieth in the bitterness of his soul, and never eateth with pleasure.

26 They shall lie down alike in the [o] dust, and the worms shall cover them.

27 Behold, I know your thoughts, and the devices which ye wrongfully imagine against me.

a Your diligent marking of my words shall be to me a great consolation.
b As though he would say, I do not talk with man, but with God, who will not answer me, and therefore my mind must needs be troubled.
† Heb. shortned?
† Heb. look sorrowful.
c He chargeth them, as though they were not able to comprehend this his feeling of God's judgment, and exhorteth them therefore to silence.
* Psal. 17. 10. & 73. 3, 12. Jer. 12. 1. Hab. 1. 16.
d Job proveth against his adversaries, that God punisheth not straightways the wicked, but oftimes giveth them long life and prosperity: so that we must not judge God just or unjust by the things that appear to our eye.
† Heb. are peace from fear.
e They have store of children, lusty and healthful and in these points he answereth to that which Zophar alledged before.
‡ Or, in mirth.
f Not being tormented with long sickness.
* Chap. 22. 17.
g They desire nothing more then to be exempt from all subjection that they should bear to God: thus Job sheweth his adversaries, that if they reason onely by that which is seen by common experience, the wicked that hate God, are better dealt withal, then they that love him.
h It is nor their own, but God onely lendeth it unto them i God keep me from their prosperity ‡ Or, lamp.
† Heb. stealeth away.
k That is, the punishment of his iniquity.
k When God recompenseth his wickedness, he shall know that his prosperity was but vanity.
l Who sendeth to the wicked prosperity, and punisheth the godly.
m Meaning, the wicked.
† Heb. in his very perfection, or, in the strength of his perfection.
‡ Or, milk-pails.
n To wit, the godly.
o As concerning their bodies: and this he speaketh according to the common judgment.

28 For ye say, Where is the [p] house of the prince? and where are † the dwelling-places of the wicked?

29 Have ye not [q] asked them that go by the way? and do ye not know their tokens?

30 * That the wicked is [r] reserved to the day of destruction; they shall be brought forth to † the day of wrath.

31 Who shall declare his [s] way to his face? and who shall repay him what he hath done?

32 Yet shall he be brought to the † grave, and shall † remain in the tomb.

33 The [t] clods of the valley shall be sweet unto him, and every man shall draw after him, as there are innumerable before him.

34 [u] How then comfort ye me in vain, seeing in your answers there remaineth † falsehood?

p Thus they called Job's house in derision, concluding that it was destroyed because he was wicked. † Heb. the tent of the tabernacles of the wicked.

q Which through long travelling have experience and tokens thereof, to wit, that the wicked do prosper, and the godly live in affliction. * Prov. 16. 4.

r Though the wicked flourish here, yet God will punish him in the last day. † Heb. the day of wraths.

s Though men do flatter him, and none dare reprove him in this world, yet death is a token that God will bring him to an account. † Heb graves. † Heb. watch in the heap.

t He shall be glad to lie in a slimy pit, which before could not be content with a royal palace.

u Saying, that the just in this world have prosperity, and the wicked adversity. † Heb. transgression.

CHAP. XXII.

1 Eliphaz sheweth that man's goodness profiteth not God. 5 He accuseth Job of divers sins. 21 He exhorteth him to repentance, with promises of mercy.

THen Eliphaz the Temanite answered & said,

2 [a] Can a man be profitable unto God, ‡ as he that is wise may be profitable unto himself?

3 Is it any pleasure to the Almighty, that thou art righteous? or is it gain to him, that thou makest thy ways perfect?

4 Will he reprove thee for [b] fear of thee? will he enter with thee into judgment?

5 Is not thy wickedness great? and thine iniquities infinite?

6 For thou hast taken a [c] pledge from thy brother for nought, and † stripped the naked of their clothing.

7 Thou hast not given water to the weary to drink, and thou hast withholden bread from the hungry.

8 But as for † the mighty man, he had the [d] earth, and the † honourable man dwelt in it.

9 Thou hast sent widows away empty, and the arms of the fatherless have been [e] broken.

10 Therefore snares are round about thee, and sudden fear troubleth thee;

11 Or darkness that thou canst not see, and abundance of [f] waters cover thee.

12 Is not God in the [g] height of heaven? & behold † the height of the [h] stars, how high they are 13 And thou sayest, ‡ How doth God [i] know? can he judge through the dark cloud?

14 Thick clouds are a covering to him that he seeth not, and he walketh in the circuit of heaven.

15 Hast thou marked the old way which wicked men have [k] troden?

16 Which were [l] cut down out of time, † whose foundation was overflown with a flood.

17 * Which said unto God, Depart from us: and what can the Almighty do ‡ for them?

18 Yet he [m] filled their houses with good things: but * the counsel of the wicked is far from me.

a Though man were just, yet God could have no profit of this his justice: and therefore when he punisheth him, he hath no regard to his justice, but to his sin.

‡ Or, if he may be profitable, doth his good success depend thereon?

b Lest thou should reprove, or, hurt him.

c Thou hast been cruel, and without charity, and wouldest do nothing for the poor, but for thine own advantage. † Heb stripped the clothes of the naked.

† Heb. the man of arm.

d When thou wast in power and authority, thou didst not justice, but wrong. † Heb. eminent, or, accepted for countenance.

e Thou hast not onely not shewed pity, but oppressed them.

f That is, manifold afflictions.

g He accuseth Job of impiety and contempt of God, as though he would say, if thou pass not for men, yet consider the height of God's majesty. † Heb. the head of the stars.

h That so much the more by that excellent work, thou mayest fear God, and reverence him.

‡ Or, what.

i He reproveth Job as though he denied God's providence, and that he could not see the things that were done in this world.

k How God hath punished them from the beginning.

l He proveth God's providences by the punishment of the wicked, whom he taketh away before they can bring their wicked purposes to pass. † Heb. a flood was poured upon their foundation. * Chap. 21. 14. ‡ Or, to them.

m He answereth to that, which Job had said, Ch. 1. 7. that the wicked have prosperity in this world: desiring that he might not be partaker of the like.

* Chap. 21. 16.

19 * The righteous see it, and are glad: and the innocent [n] laugh them to scorn.

20 Whereas our ‡ substance is [o] not cut down, but ‡ the [p] remnant of them the fire consumeth.

21 [q] Acquaint now thy self [“] with him, and be at peace; thereby good shall come unto thee.

22 Receive, I pray thee, the Law from his mouth, and lay up his words in thine heart.

23 * If thou return to the Almighty, thou shalt be [r] built up, thou shalt put away iniquity far from thy tabernacles.

24 Then shalt thou lay up gold ‡ as [s] dust, & the gold of Ophir as the stones of the brooks.

25 Yea, the Almighty shall be thy ‡ defence and thou shalt have † plenty of silver.

26 For then shalt thou have thy delight in the Almighty, and shalt lift up thy face unto God.

27 Thou shalt make thy prayer unto him, and he shall hear thee, and thou shalt pay thy vows.

28 Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall be established unto thee: and the [t] light shall shine upon thy ways.

29 [u] When men are cast down, then thou shalt say, There is lifting up: and he shall save † the humble person.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 Job longeth to appear before God, 6 in confidence of his mercy. 8 God who is invisible, observeth our ways. 11 Job's innocency. 13 God's decree is immutable.

THen Job answered and said,

2 Even to day is my complaint [a] bitter: † my stroke is heavier then my groaning.

3 O that I knew where I might find him! that I might come even to his seat!

4 I would order my cause before him, and fill my mouth with arguments.

5 I would know the words which he would answer me, and understand what he would say unto me.

6 Will he [b] plead against me with his great power? No, but he would [c] put strength in me.

7 [d] There the righteous might dispute with him; so should I be delivered for ever from my judge.

8 [e] Behold, I go forward, but he is not there; and backward, but I cannot perceive him:

10 But he knoweth † [f] the way that I take: when he hath tried me, I shall come forth as gold.

Chap. XXIV.

1 Wickedneſs goeth often unpuniſhed. 17 There is a ſecret judgment for the wicked.

a The times of God's judgments are ſo known to himſelf, as that he doth not ordinarily reveal the knowledge thereof, unto his deareſt children: therefore it is not poſſible that any certain rules can be preſcribed by any man touching it.
b Know his judgments which either here or hereafter the wicked ſhall ſuffer.

† Heb. mingled corn, or, dredge.
† Heb. the wicked gather the vintage.
g Signifying, that one wicked man will not ſpoil another, but for neceſſity.
h The poor are driven by the wicked into rocks and holes, where they cannot lie dry for the rain.
i That is, they ſo powl and peel the poor widow, that ſhe cannot have to ſuſtain her ſelf, that ſhe may be able to give her child ſuck.
k That is, his garment wherewith he ſhould be covered or clad.
l In ſuch places which are appointed for that purpoſe: meaning, that thoſe that labour for the wicked, are pined for hunger.
m For the great oppreſſion and extortion.
n Cry out and call for vengeance.
o God doth not condemn the wicked, but ſeemeth to paſs over it by his long ſilence.

WHy, ſeeing times are [a] not hidden from the Almighty, do they that know him, not ſee his [b] days?

2 Some remove the * land-marks; they violently take away flocks, and ‡ feed thereof.

3 They drive away the aſs of the fatherleſs, they take the widow's ox for a pledge.

4 They turn the needy out of the way: the poor of the earth [c] hide themſelves together.

5 Behold, as wild aſſes in the deſert, go they forth to their work, [d] riſing betimes for a prey: the wilderneſs [e] yeildeth food for them and for their children.

6 They reap every one [f] his † corn in the field; and † they gather the [g] vintage of the wicked.

7 They cauſe the naked to lodge without clothing, that they have no covering in the cold.

8 They are wet with the ſhowrs of the mountains, and embrace the [h] rock for want of a ſhelter.

9 They pluck the fatherleſs from the [i] breaſt, and take a [k] pledge of the poor.

10 They cauſe him to go naked without clothing, and they take away the ſheaf from the hungry, 12 Men [m] groan from out of the city, and the ſoul of the [n] wounded crieth out: yet God layeth [o] not folly to them.

13 They are of thoſe that rebell againſt the [p] light, they know not the ways thereof, nor abide in the paths thereof.

16 In the dark they dig through houſes, which they had marked for themſelves in the day-time: they know not the light.

p That is, God's word, becauſe they are reproved thereby. q By theſe particular vices and the licence thereunto, he would prove that God puniſheth not the wicked, nor rewardeth the juſt. † Heb ſetteth his face in ſecret.

17 For the morning is to them even as the ſhadow of death: if one know them, they are in the terrours of the ſhadow of death.

r He fleeth to the waters for his ſuccour.
ſ They think that all the world is bent againſt them, and dare not go by the high-way.
† Heb. violently take.
t As the dry ground is never full with waters, ſo will they never ceaſe ſinning, till they come to the grave.
u Though God ſuffer the wicked for a time, yet their end ſhall be moſt vile deſtruction, and in this point Job cometh to himſelf, and ſheweth his confidence.
x He ſheweth why the wicked ſhall not be lamented, becauſe he did not pity others.
y He declareth that after that the wicked have deſtroyed the weakeſt, they will do the like to the ſtronger, & therefore are juſtly prevented by God's judgments.

Chap. XXV.

Bildad ſheweth that man cannot be juſtified before God.

THen anſwered Bildad the Shuhite, and ſaid,

2 [a] Dominion and fear are with him, he maketh peace in his high places.

3 Is there any number of his armies? and upon whom doth not his [b] light ariſe?

4 * How then can man be [c] juſtified with God? or how can he be clean that is born of a woman?

5 Behold even to the moon, and it ſhineth not; yea the [d] ſtars are not pure in his ſight.

6 How much leſs man that is * a worm: and the ſon of man which is a worm?

Chap. XXVI.

1 Job reproving the uncharitable ſpirit of Bildad, 5 acknowledgeth the power of God to be infinite and unſearchable.

BUt Job anſwered and ſaid,

2 [a] How haſt thou helped him that is without power? how ſaveſt thou the arm that hath no ſtrength?

3 How haſt thou counſelled him that hath no wiſdom? and how haſt thou plentifully declared the thing, [b] as it is?

4 To whom haſt thou uttered words? and whoſe [c] ſpirit came from thee?

5 Dead [d] things are formed from under the waters, ‡ and the inhabitants thereof.

6 * Hell is [e] naked before him, and [f] deſtruction hath no covering.

7 He ſtretcheth out the [g] north over the empty place, and hangeth the earth upon nothing.

a Thou concludeſt nothing: for neither thou helpeſt me, which am deſtitute of all help, neither yet ſpeakeſt ſufficiently in God's behalf, who hath no need of thy defence.
b But thou doſt not apply it to the purpoſe.
c That is, moveth thee to ſpeak this.
d Job beginneth to declare the force of God's power and providence in the mines and mettals in the deep places of the earth.

Chap. XXVII.

1 Job protesteth his sincerity. 8 The hypocrite is without hope. 11 The blessings which the wicked have, are turned into curses.

† Heb. added to take up.

MOreover, Job †continued his parable, and said,

4 My lips shall [b] not speak wickedness, nor my tongue utter deceit.

5 God forbid that I should [c] justify you: till I die, I will not remove my [d] integrity from me.

6 My righteousness I hold fast, and will not let it go: my heart shall not reproach me †so long as I [e] live.

7 Let mine enemy be as the wicked, and he that riseth up against me, as the unrighteous.

8 * For what is the [f] hope of the hypocrite, though he hath gained, when God taketh away his soul?

9 * Will God hear his cry when trouble cometh upon him?

10 Will he delight himself in the Almighty? will he always call upon God?

11 I will teach you ‡ [g] by the hand of God: that which is with the Almighty, will I not conceal.

12 Behold, all ye your selves have [h] seen it, why then are ye thus altogether [i] vain?

13 This is the [k] portion of a wicked man with God, and the heritage of oppressours, which they shall receive of the Almighty.

14 If his children be multiplied, it is for the sword: and his offspring shall not be satisfied with bread.

15 Those that remain of him shall be buried in death: and * his widows [l] shall not weep.

16 Though he heap up silver as the dust, and prepare raiment as the clay;

5 As for the earth, out of it cometh [e] bread: and under it is turned up as it were fire.

10 He cutteth out rivers among the rocks, and his eye seeth every precious thing.

11 He bindeth the floods †from overflowing, and the thing that is hid, bringeth he forth to light.

12 But where shall wisdom be found? and [h] where is the place of understanding?

18 No mention shall be made of ‡ coral, or of [l] pearls: for the price of wisdom is above rubies.

19 The topaz of Ethiopia shall not equal it, neither shall it be valued with pure gold.

20 * Whence then cometh wisdom? and where is the place of understanding?

21 Seeing it is hid from the eyes of all living, a His purpose is to declare that man may attain in this world to divers secrets of nature, but man is never able to comprehend the wisdom of God.

1 Job bemoaneth himself of his former prosperity and honour.

MOreover, Job † continued his parable, and said, a When I felt his favour.

b I was free from affliction.

4 As I was in the days of my youth, when the [c] secret of God was upon my tabernacle:

c That is, seemed by evident tokens to be more present with me.

12 Because I delivered the [i] poor that cried, and the fatherless, and him that had none to help him.

i Because his adversaries did so much charge him with wickedness, he is compelled to render account of his life.

13 The [k] blessing of him that was ready to perish, came upon me: and I caused the widows heart to sing for joy.

k That is, I did succour him that was in distress, and so he had cause to praise me.

14 I [l] put on righteousness, and it clothed me: my judgment was as a robe and a diadem.

15 I was eyes to the blind, and feet was I to the lame.

o That is, was pleasant unto them.

23 And they waited for me, as for the rain, and they opened their mouth wide as [p] for the latter rain.

p As the dry ground thirsteth for the rain.

24 If I [q] laughed on them, they believed it not, and the light of my countenance they [r] cast not down.

q That is, They thought it not to be a jest, or they thought not that I would condescend unto them.
r They were afraid to offend me, and cause me to be angry.

25 I chose out [r] their way, and sat chief, and dwelt as a King in the army, as one that comforteth the mourners.

CHAP. XXXI.

1 Job maketh a ſolemn proteſtation of his integrity in ſeveral duties.

I Made a covenant with mine ᵃ eyes; why then ſhould I think upon a ᵇ maid?

2 For what portion of God is there from above? and what inheritance of the Almighty from on high?

3 Is not deſtruction to the wicked? and a ſtrange puniſhment to the workers of iniquity?

4 *Doth not he ᶜ ſee my ways, and count all my ſteps?

5 If I have walked with vanity, or if my foot hath haſted to deceit;

6 † Let me be weighed in an even ballance, that God may know mine ᵈ integrity.

7 If my ſtep hath turned out of the way, and mine heart ᵉ walked after mine eyes, and if any blot hath cleaved to my hands:

8 Then let me ſow, and let another ᶠ eat; yea, let my offſpring be rooted out.

9 If mine heart have been deceived by a woman, or if I have laid wait at my neighbours door:

10 Then let my wife ᵍ grind unto another, and let others bowe down upon her.

11 For this is an heinous crime, yea it is an iniquity to be puniſhed by the judges.

12 For it is a fire that conſumeth to ʰ deſtruction, and would root out all mine increaſe.

13 If I did deſpiſe the cauſe of my man-ſervant, or of my maid-ſervant, when they ⁱ contended with me:

14 What then ſhall I do when God ᵏ riſeth up? and when he viſiteth, what ſhall I anſwer him?

15 Did not he that made me in the womb, ˡ make him? and ‡ did not one faſhion us in the womb?

16 If I have withheld the poor from their deſire, or have cauſed the eyes of the widow to ᵐ fail:

17 Or have eaten my morſel my ſelf alone, and the fatherleſs hath not eaten thereof:

18 (For from my youth he was brought up with me, as with ⁿ a father, and I have guided ‡ her from my mother's womb)

19 If I have ſeen any periſh for want of clothing, or any poor without covering:

20 If his loyns have not bleſſed me, and if he were not warmed with the fleece of my ſheep;

21 If I have ° lift up my hand againſt the fatherleſs, when I ſaw my help in the gate:

22 Then let ᵖ mine arm fall from my ſhoulder-blade, and mine arm be broken from ‡ the bone.

23 For deſtruction from ᵠ God was a terrour to me, and by reaſon of his highneſs I could not endure.

24 If I have made gold my hope, or have ſaid to fine gold, Thou art my confidence:

25 If I rejoyced becauſe my wealth was great, and becauſe mine hand had † gotten much:

26 If I beheld † the ʳ Sun when it ſhined, or the Moon walking † in brightneſs:

27 And my heart hath been ſecretly enticed, or † my mouth hath ˢ kiſſed my hand:

28 This alſo were an iniquity to be puniſhed by the judge: for I ſhould have ᵗ denied the God that is above.

29 If I rejoyced at the deſtruction of him that hated me, or lift up my ſelf when evil found him:

30 (Neither have I ſuffered † my mouth to ſin, by wiſhing a curſe to his ſoul)

31 If the men of my ᵘ tabernacle ſaid not, Oh that we had of his fleſh! we cannot be ſatisfied.

32 The ſtranger did not lodge in the ſtreet: but I opened my doors ‡ to the traveller.

33 If I ˣ covered my tranſgreſſions, ‡ as Adam: by hiding mine iniquity in my boſom:

34 Did I fear a great multitude, or did the contempt of families ʸ terrify me: that I ᶻ kept ſilence, and went not out of the door?

35 O that one would hear me! ‡ behold, my ᵃ deſire is, that the Almighty would anſwer me, and that mine adverſary had written a book.

36 Surely I would take it upon my ſhoulder, and bind it as a ᵇ crown to me.

37 I would declare unto him the number of my ſteps, as a ᶜ prince would I go near unto him.

CHAP. XXXII.

1 Elihu is angry with Job, and his three friends. 6 Because wisdom cometh not from age, he excuseth the boldness of his youth. 11 He reproveth them for not satisfying of Job. 16 His zeal to speak.

SO these three men ceased † to answer Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes.

2 Then was kindled the wrath of Elihu the son of Barachel the [a] Buzite, of the kindred of [b] Ram: against Job was his wrath kindled, because he justified † himself [c] rather then God.

3 Also against his three friends was his wrath kindled, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job.

4 Now Elihu had † waited till Job had spoken, because [d] they were † elder then he.

5 When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, then his wrath was kindled.

6 And Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered and said, I am † young, and ye are very old; wherefore I was afraid, and † durst not shew you mine opinion.

7 I said, [e] Days should speak, and multitude of years should teach wisdom.

8 But there is a spirit in man: and * the [f] inspiration of the Almighty giveth them understanding.

9 Great men are not always wise: neither do the aged understand judgment.

10 Therefore I said, Hearken to me, I also will shew mine opinion.

11 Behold, I waited for your words, I gave ear to your † [g] reasons, whilst you searched out † what to say.

12 Yea, I attended unto you: and behold, there was none of you that convinced Job, or that answered his words:

13 Lest ye should say, We have [h] found out wisdom: God thrusteth him down, not man.

14 Now [i] he hath not ‡ directed his words against me: neither will I answer him with [k] your speeches.

15 They were amazed, they answered no more: † they left off speaking.

16 When I had waited, (for they spake not, but stood still and answered no more)

17 I said, I will answer also my part, I also will shew mine opinion.

18 For I am [l] full of † matter, † the spirit within me constraineth me.

19 Behold, my belly is as wine which † hath no vent, it is ready to burst like new bottles.

20 I will speak † that I may be refreshed: I will open my lips, and answer.

21 Let me not, I pray you, accept any man's person, neither let me [m] give flattering titles unto man.

22 For I know not to give [n] flattering titles, in so doing my maker would soon take me away.

CHAP. XXXIII.

1 Elihu offereth himself in stead of God, with sincerity and meekness to reason with Job. 8 He excuseth God from giving man an account of his ways, by his greatness. 14 God calleth man to repentance by visions, 19 by afflictions, 23 and by his ministery. 31 He inciteth Job to attention.

WHerefore Job, I pray thee, hear my speches, and hearken to all my words.

2 Behold, now I have opened my mouth, my tongue hath spoken † in my mouth.

3 My words shall be of the uprightness of my heart: and my lips shall utter knowledge clearly.

4 The [a] spirit of God hath made me, and the breath of the Almighty hath given me life.

5 If thou canst answer me, set thy words in order before me, stand up.

6 * Behold, I am † according to thy wish in [b] God's stead: I also am † formed out of the clay.

7 Behold, my terrour shall not make thee afraid, neither shall my hand be [c] heavy upon thee.

8 Surely thou hast spoken † in mine hearing, and I have heard the voice of thy words, saying,

9 I am [d] clean without transgression, I am innocent; neither is there iniquity in me.

10 Behold, he findeth occasions against me, he counteth me for his enemy.

11 He putteth my feet in the stocks, he marketh all my paths.

12 Behold, in this thou art not just: I will answer thee, that God is greater then man.

13 Why dost thou strive against him? for † he giveth [e] not account of any of his matters.

14 For God speaketh once, yea [f] twice, yet man perceiveth it not.

15 In a dream, in a [g] vision of the night, when deep sleep falleth upon men, in slumbrings upon the bed:

16 Then † he openeth the ears of men, and [h] sealeth their instruction, 17 That he may withdraw man from his † purpose, and hide [i] pride from man.

18 He keepeth back his soul from the pit, and his life † from perishing by the sword.

19 He is chastned also with pain upon his bed, and the multitude of his bones with strong pain:

20 * So that his [k] life abhorreth bread, and his soul † dainty meat.

21 His flesh is consumed away that it cannot be seen, and his bones that were not seen, stick out.

22 Yea, his soul draweth near unto the grave, and his life to the [l] destroyers.

Chap. XXXIV.

1 Elihu accuſeth Job for charging God with injuſtice. 10 God omnipotent cannot be unjuſt. 31 Man muſt humble himſelf unto God. 34 Elihu reproveth Job.

FUrthermore Elihu anſwered and ſaid,

2 Hear my words, O ye a wiſe men, and give ear unto me, ye that have knowledge.

3 * For the ear trieth words, as the † mouth taſteth meat.

4 Let us b chooſe to us judgment: let us know among our ſelves what is good.

5 For Job hath ſaid, I am righteous: and God hath c taken away my judgment.

6 Should d I lie againſt my right? † my wound is incurable e without tranſgreſſion.

7 What man is like Job, who drinketh up f ſcorning like water?

10 Therefore hearken unto me, ye † men of underſtanding: * far be it from God, that he ſhould do wickedneſs, and from the Almighty, that he ſhould commit iniquity.

12 Yea, ſurely God will not do wickedly, neither will the Almighty pervert judgment.

23 For he will not lay upon man more then right; that he ſhould † q enter into judgment with God.

* Chap. 21. 13.

3 For thou saidst, What advantage will it be unto thee, and, What profit shall I have ‡ if I be cleansed from my sin.

4 † I will answer thee, and thy [b] companions with thee.

5 Look unto the heavens, and see and behold the [c] clouds which are higher then thou.

6 If thou sinnest, [d] what dost thou against him? or if thy transgressions be multiplied, what dost thou unto him?

7 * If thou be righteous, what givest thou him? or what receiveth he of thine hand?

8 Thy wickedness may hurt a man as thou art, and thy righteousness may profit the son of man.

9 By reason of the multitude of oppressions, they make the oppressed to [e] cry: they cry out by reason of the arm of the mighty.

10 But none saith, Where is God my maker, who giveth songs in the night?

11 Who teacheth us more then the beasts of the earth, and maketh us wiser then the fowls of heaven.

12 There they cry, ([f] but none giveth answer) because of the pride of evil men.

13 * Surely God will not hear vanity, neither will the Almighty regard it.

14 Although thou sayst thou shalt not see him, yet judgment is [g] before him, therefore trust thou in him.

15 But now because it is not so, ‡ he hath visited in his anger, yet ‡ he knoweth it not in great extremity:

16 Therefore doth Job [h] open his mouth in vain: he multiplieth words without knowledge.

Chap. XXXVI.

1 Elihu sheweth how God is just in his ways, 16 how Job's sins hinder God's blessings. 24 God's works are to be magnified.

ELihu also proceeded, and said,

2 Suffer me a little, and I will shew thee, † that I have yet to speak on God's behalf.

3 I will [a] fetch my knowledge from afar, and will ascribe righteousness to my maker.

4 For truly, my words shall not be false: he that is [b] perfect in knowledge is with thee.

5 Behold, God is mighty, and despiseth not any: he is [c] mighty in strength and † wisdom.

6 [d] He preserveth not the life of the wicked: but giveth right to the ‡ poor.

7 * He withdraweth not his eyes from the righteous: but with [e] Kings are they on the throne, yea, he doth establish them for ever, and they are exalted.

8 And if they be bound in fetters, and be holden in cords of affliction:

9 Then he sheweth them their [f] work, and their transgressions that they have exceeded.

10 He openeth also their ear to discipline, and commandeth that they return from iniquity.

11 If they obey and serve him, they shall * spend their days in prosperity, and their years in pleasures.

12 But if they obey not, † they shall perish by the sword, & they shall die [g] without knowledge.

13 But the hypocrites in [h] heart heap up wrath: they [i] cry not when he bindeth them.

14 † They die in [k] youth, and their life is among the ‡ unclean.

15 He delivereth the ‡ poor in his affliction, and openeth their ears in oppression.

16 Even so would he have removed thee out of the strait into a broad place, where there is no straitness, and † that which should be set on thy [l] table, should be full of fatness.

17 But thou hast [m] fulfilled the judgment of the wicked: ‡ judgment and justice take hold on thee.

18 Because there is wrath, [n] beware lest he take thee away with his stroke: then a great ransome cannot † deliver thee.

19 Will he esteem thy riches? no not gold, nor all the forces of strength.

20 Desire not the [o] night, when people are cut off in their place.

21 Take heed, regard not [p] iniquity: for this hast thou chosen rather then affliction.

22 Behold, God exalteth by his power: who teacheth like him?

23 Who hath enjoyned him his way? or who can say, Thou hast wrought iniquity?

24 Remember that thou magnify his work, which men behold.

25 Every man may see it, man may behold it [q] afar off.

26 Behold, God is great, and we know him [r] not, neither can the number of his years be searched out.

27 For he maketh small the drops of water: they pour down rain [s] according to the vapour thereof:

28 Which the clouds do drop, and distil upon man abundantly.

29 Also can any understand the spreadings of the clouds, or the noise of his [t] tabernacle?

30 Behold, he spreadeth his light upon [u] it, and covereth † [x] the bottom of the sea.

31 For by them judgeth he the [y] people, he giveth meat in abundance.

32 With clouds he covereth the light; and commandeth it not to shine, by the cloud that cometh [z] betwixt.

33 The [a] noise thereof sheweth concerning it, the cattel also concerning † the vapour.

1 God is to be feared because of his great works. 15 His wisdom is unsearchable in them.

AT [a] this also my heart trembleth, and is moved out of his place.

2 † Hear attentively the [b] noise of his voice, and the sound that goeth out of his mouth.

3 He directeth it under the whole heaven, and his † lightning unto the † ends of the earth.

13 He cauſeth it to come, [k] whether for † correction, or for his land, or for mercy.

14 Hearken unto this, O Job: ſtand ſtill, and conſider the wondrous works of God.

15 Doſt thou know when God diſpoſed them, & cauſed the [l] light of his cloud to ſhine?

16 Doſt thou know the [m] balancings of the clouds, the wondrous works of him which is perfect in knowledge?

20 Shall it be [q] told him that I ſpeak? if a man [r] ſpeak, ſurely he ſhall be ſwallowed up.

21 And now men ſee not the [s] bright light which is in the clouds: but the wind paſſeth and cleanſeth them.

22 [t] Fair weather cometh out of the north: with God is terrible majeſty.

23 Touching the Almighty, we cannot find him out: he is excellent in power, and in judgment, and in plenty of juſtice: he will [u] not afflict.

1 Job humbleth himself to God. 6 God stirreth him up to shew his righteousness, power, and wisdom. 15 Of the Behemoth.

MOreover, the LORD answered Job, and said,

2 Shall he that [a] contendeth with the Almighty, instruct him? he that reproveth God, let him answer it.

3 ¶ Then Job answered the LORD, and said,

4 Behold, I am [b] vile, what shall I answer thee? I will lay mine hand upon my mouth.

5 Once have I spoken, but I will not answer: yea, twice, but I will proceed no further.

6 ¶ Then answered the LORD unto Job out of the whirlwind, and said,

7 *Gird up thy loyns now like a man: I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.

8 *Wilt thou also disanul my [c] judgment? wilt thou condemn me that thou mayest be righteous?

13 Hide them in the [e] dust together, and bind their faces in secret.

14 Then will I also confess unto thee, that thine own right hand can [f] save thee.

23 Behold, † he drinketh up a river, and [m] hasteth not: he trusteth that he can draw up Jordan into his mouth.

7 Canst thou fill his skin with barbed irons? or his head with fish-spears?

6 Wherefore I abhor my ſelf, and repent in duſt and aſhes.

l God made him twice ſo rich in cattel as he was before, and gave him as many children, as he had taken from him.

15 And in all the land were no women found ſo fair as the daughters of Job: and their father gave them inheritance among their brethren.

16 After this lived Job an hundred and fourty years, and ſaw his ſons, and his ſons ſons, even four generations.

17 So Job died being old, and full of days.

THE BOOK OF PSALMS.

‡ Or, Praiſes, according to the Hebrew, And were chiefly inſtituted to praiſe and give thanks to God for his benefits. They are called, the Pſalms, or Songs of David, becauſe the moſt part were made by him.

THE ARGUMENT.

THis Book of Pſalms is ſet forth unto us by the Holy Ghoſt, to be eſteemed as a moſt precious treaſure; wherein all things are contained that appertain to true felicity, as well in this life preſent, as in the life to come: for the riches of true knowledge and heavenly wiſdom are ſet open for us, to take thereof moſt abundantly. If we would know the great and high Majeſty of God, here we may ſee the brightneſs thereof ſhine moſt clearly: If we would ſeek his incomprehenſible wiſdom? here is the ſchool of the ſame profeſſion: If we would comprehend his ineſtimable bonnty, and approach near thereunto, and fill our hands with that treaſure? here we may have a moſt lively and moſt comfortable taſt thereof: If we would know wherein ſtandeth our ſalvation, and how to attain to life everlaſting; here is Chriſt our onely Redeemer, and Mediatour moſt evidently deſcribed. The rich man may learn the true uſe of riches: The poor man may find full contentation: He that will rejoyce, ſhall know the true joy, and how to keep meaſure therein: They that are afflicted and oppreſſed, ſhall ſee wherein ſtandeth their comfort, and how they ought to praiſe God when he ſendeth them deliverance: The wicked and the perſecuters of the children of God ſhall ſee how the hand of God is ever againſt them, and though he ſuffer them to proſper for a while; yet he bridleth them, in ſomuch as they cannot touch an hair of ones head, except he permit them; and how in the end their deſtruction is moſt miſerable. Briefly, here we may have preſent remedies againſt all tentations, and troubles of mind and conſcience; ſo that, being well practiſed herein, we may be aſſured againſt all dangers in this life, live in the true fear and love of God, and at length attain to that incorruptible crown of glory, which is laid up for all them that love the coming of our Lord JESUS CHRIST.

PSAL. I.

1 The happineſs of the godly. 4 The unhappineſs of the ungodly.

2 The Kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his anointed, saying,

4 * He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision.

5 [c] Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, and ‡ vex them in his sore displeasure.

6 Yet have I † set my King † upon my holy hill of Zion.

7 I will declare ‡ the [d] decree: the LORD hath said unto me, * Thou art my son, [e] this day have I begotten thee.

8 * Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost [f] parts of the earth for thy possession.

9 * Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron, thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

10 [g] Be wise now therefore, O ye Kings: be instructed, ye judges of the earth.

11 Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoyce with trembling.

12 [h] Kiss the son lest he be angry, and ye [i] perish from the way, when his wrath is kindled but a little: * blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

¶ A Psalm of David, * when he fled from Absalom his son.

2 Many there be which say of my soul, There is no help for him in God. [b] Selah.

17 The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God.

18 For the needy shall not alway be forgotten: the [i] expectation of the poor shall not perish for ever.

III Day. Evening prayer.

¶ To the chief musician, A Psalm of David, the servant of the LORD, who spake unto the LORD the words of * this song in the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul: And he said.

* 2 Sam. 22.

I Will love thee, O LORD my strength.

2 [a] The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer: my God, † my strength in whom I will trust, my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower.

3 I will call upon the LORD who is worthy to be [b] praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies.

4 *The [c] sorrows of death compassed me, and the floods of † ungodly men made me afraid.

5 The ‡ sorrows of hell compassed me about: the snares of death prevented me.

6 In my distress I called upon the LORD, and cried unto my God: he heard my voice out of his temple, and my cry came before him, even into his ears.

7 [d] Then the earth shook and trembled; the foundations also of the hills moved and were shaken, because he was wroth.

8 There went up a smoke † out of his nostrils, and [e] fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it.

9 He bowed the heavens also and came down: and [f] darkness was under his feet.

10 And he rode upon a [g] cherub, and did fly: yea, he did fly upon the wings of the wind.

11 He made darkness his [h] secret place: his pavilion round about him, were dark waters, and thick clouds of the skies.

12 At the brightness that was before him his thick clouds passed, hail-stones, and coals of fire.

13 The LORD also thundred in the heavens, and the Highest gave [i] his voice; hail-stones and coals of fire.

14 Yea, he sent out his [k] arrows, and scattered them; and he shot out lightnings, and discomfited them.

15 Then the chanels of waters were seen, and the [l] foundations of the world were discovered: at thy rebuke, O LORD, at the blast of the breath of thy nostrils.

16 He sent from above, he took me, he drew me out of ‡ [m] many waters.

17 He delivered me from my [n] strong enemy, and from them which hated me: for they were [o] too strong for me.

18 They prevented me in the day of my calamity: but the LORD was my stay.

19 He brought me forth also into a large place: [p] he delivered me, because he delighted in me.

20 The LORD rewarded me according to [q] my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me.

33 He maketh my feet like hinds feet, and setteth me upon my [a] high places.

34 He teacheth my hands to war, so that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms.

35 Thou hast also given me the [b] shield of thy salvation: and thy right hand hath holden me up, and ‡ [c] thy gentleness hath made me great.

36 Thou hast enlarged my steps under me; that † my feet did not slip.

40 Thou hast also given me the [e] necks of mine enemies: that I might destroy them that hate me.

41 [f] They cried, but there was none to save them: even unto the LORD, but he answered them not.

42 Then did I beat them small as the dust before the wind: I did cast them out as the dirt in the streets.

43 Thou hast delivered me from the strivings of the people: and thou hast made me the head of the [g] heathen: a people whom I have [h] not known shall serve me.

44 † As soon as they hear of me, they shall obey me: † the strangers shall ‡ [i] submit themselves unto me.

45 The strangers shall [k] fade away, and be afraid out of their close places.

46 The LORD liveth, and blessed be my rock: and let the God of my salvation be exalted.

9 Have mercy upon me, O LORD, for I am in trouble; mine [f] eye is consumed with grief, yea, my soul and my belly.

10 For my life is spent with grief, and my years with sighing: my strength faileth because of mine iniquity, and my bones are consumed.

1 The grievous estate of the wicked. 5 The excellency of God's mercy. 10 David prayeth for favour to God's children.

¶ To the chief musician, A Psalm of David, the servant of the LORD.

a I see evidently by his deeds, that sin pusheth forward the reprobate from wickedness to wickedness, albeit he go about to cover his impiety,

THE transgression of the wicked saith within a my heart, that there is no fear of God before his eyes.

446

2 For he [b] flattereth himself in his own eyes, † until his iniquity be found to be hateful.

3 The words of his mouth are iniquity and [c] deceit: he hath left off to be wise, and to do good.

4 He [d] deviseth ‡ mischief upon his bed, he setteth himself in a way that is not good; he abhorreth not evil.

5 * Thy [e] mercy, O LORD, is in the heavens; and thy faithfulness reacheth unto the clouds.

6 Thy righteousness is like † the great mountains; thy judgments are a great [f] deep: O LORD, thou preservest man and beast.

7 How † excellent is thy loving kindness, O God! therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings.

8 They shall be † [g] abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house: and thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures.

9 For with thee is the fountain of life: in thy light shall we see light.

10 O † continue thy loving kindness unto them that [h] know thee; and thy righteousness to the upright in heart.

11 Let not the [i] foot of pride come against me, and let not the hand of the wicked remove me.

12 [k] There are the workers of iniquity fallen: they are cast down, and shall not be able to rise.

b Though all other detest his vile sin, yet he himself seeth it not.
† Heb. to find his iniquity to hate.
c The reprobates mock at wholesom doctrine, and put no difference between good and evil.
d By describing at large the nature of the reprobate, he admonisheth the godly to beware of these vices.

* Psal. 57. 10. & 108. 4.
e Though wickedness seemeth to overflow all the world, yet by thine heavenly providence thou governest heaven and earth † Heb. the mountains of God.
f The depth of thy providence governeth all things, and disposeth them, albeit the wicked seem to overwhelm the world.
† Heb. precious.
‡ Heb. watered.
g Onely God's children have enough of all things both concerning this life, and the life to come.
† Heb. draw out at length.
h He sheweth, who are God's children, to wit, They that know him, and lead their lives uprightly.
i Let not the proud advance himself against me, neither the power of the wicked drive me away. k That is, In their pride wherein they flatter themselves.

PSAL. XXXVII.

David perswadeth to patience, and confidence in God, by the different estate of the godly and the wicked.

VII Day. Evening prayer.

¶ A Psalm of David.

FRet * not [a] thy self because of evil doers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity.

2 For they shall soon be [b] cut down like the grass, and wither as the green herb.

3 [c] Trust in the LORD, and do good, so shalt thou dwell in the land, and † verily thou shalt be fed.

4 Delight thy self also in the LORD; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.

5 [d] † * Commit thy way unto the LORD: trust also in him, and he shall bring it to pass.

6 And he shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light, and thy [e] judgment as the noon-day.

7 † Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently for him: fret not thy self because of him who [f] prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass.

8 Cease from anger, and forsake wrath: fret not thy self in [g] any wise to do evil.

9 For evil doers shall be cut off: but those that wait upon the LORD, they shall inherit the earth.

10 [h] For yet a little while and the wicked shall not be: yea, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be.

11 * But the meek shall inherit the earth: and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

12 [i] The wicked ‡ plotteth against the just, and gnasheth upon him with his teeth.

13 * The LORD shall laugh at him, for he seeth that his day is coming.

14 The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow to cast down the poor and needy, and to slay † such as be of upright conversation.

15 Their sword shall enter into their own heart, and their bows shall be broken.

16 [k] A little that a righteous man hath, is better then the riches of many wicked.

17 For the arms of the wicked shall be broken: but the LORD upholdeth the righteous.

18 The LORD [l] knoweth the days of the upright: and their inheritance shall be for ever.

19 They shall not be ashamed in the evil time: and in the days of famine they shall [m] be satisfied.

20 But the wicked shall perish, and the enemies of the LORD shall be as † the [n] fat of lambs, they shall consume: into smoke shall they consume away.

21 The wicked borroweth, and payeth not again: but the righteous sheweth mercy, and [o] giveth.

22 For such as be blessed of him, shall inherit the earth; and they that be cursed of him, shall be cut off.

23 [p] The steps of a good man are ‡ ordered by the LORD: and he delighteth in his way.

24 Though he [q] fall, he shall not be utterly cast down: for the LORD upholdeth him with his hand.

25 I have been young and now am old: yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his [r] seed begging bread.

26 He is † ever merciful, and lendeth: and his seed is blessed.

27 Depart from evil, and do good: and dwell for evermore.

28 For the LORD loveth judgment, and forsaketh not his saints, they are preserved for ever: but the seed of the wicked shall be cut off.

29 The righteous shall inherit the land, and dwell therein [s] for ever.

30 The [t] mouth of the righteous speaketh wisdom, and his tongue talketh of judgment.

31 The Law of his God is in his heart, none of his ‡ steps shall slide.

32 The wicked watcheth the righteous, and seeketh to slay him.

33 The LORD will not leave him in his hand, nor condemn him when he is [u] judged.

34 Wait on the LORD, and keep his way, and he shall exalt thee to inherit the land: when the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it.

35 I have seen the wicked in great power: and

* Mat. 5. 5.
i The godly are assured that the power and craft of the wicked shall not prevail against them, but fall on their own necks, and therefore ought patiently to abide God's time, and in the mean while bewail their sins, and offer up their tears as a sacrifice of their obedience.

† Heb. the precionsness of lambs.
n They shall vanish away suddenly: for they are fed for the day of slaughter.
o God so furnisheth him with his blessing, that he is able to help others.
p God prospereth the faithful, because they walk in his ways with an upright conscience.
‡ Or established.
q when God doth exercise his faith with divers temptations.
r Though the just man die, yet God's blessings are extended to his posterity, and though God suffer some just man to lack temporal benefits, yet he recompenseth him with spiritual treasures.
† Heb. all the day s They shall continually be preserved under God's wings, and have at least inward rest.
t These three points are required of the faithful, That their talk be godly, That God's Law be in their heart, And that their life be upright.
‡ Or, goings.
u For though it be sometime so expedient, both for God's glory and their salvation, yet he will approve their cause, and revenge their wrong.

† Heb. Be silent to the LORD. f When God suffereth the wicked to prosper, it seemeth to the flesh that he favoureth their doings, Job 2. 7. g Heb. also Meaning, Except he moderate his affection, he shall be lead to do as they do. h He correcteth the impatiency of our nature, which cannot abide till the fulness of God's time be come.

‡ Or, a green tree that groweth in his own soil.

36 Yet he [x] passed away, and lo, he was not: yea, I sought him, but he could not be found.
37 [y] Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for the end of that man is peace.
38 But the transgressours shall be destroyed together, the end of the wicked shall be cut off.
39 But the [z] salvation of the righteous is of the LORD, he is their strength in the time of trouble.
40 And the LORD shall help them, and deliver them: he shall deliver them from the wicked, and save them because they trust in him.

David moveth God to take compassion of his pitiful case.

¶ A Psalm of David to bring to [a] remembrance.

O LORD, rebuke me not in thy [b] wrath: neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.
2 For thine [c] arrows stick fast in me, and thy hand presseth me sore.
3 There is no soundness in my flesh, because of thine anger: neither is there any † rest in my bones, because of my [d] sin.
4 For [e] mine iniquities are gone over mine head: as an heavy burden they are too heavy for me.
5 My wounds stink, and are corrupt: because of my [f] foolishness.
6 I am † troubled, I am bowed down greatly; I go mourning all the day long.
7 For my loyns are filled with a loathsom disease: and there is no soundness in my flesh.

12 They also that seek after my life, lay snares for me: and they that seek my hurt, speak mischievous things, and imagine deceits all the day long.
13 But I, as a [k] deaf man heard not; and I was as a dumb man that openeth not his mouth.
14 Thus I was as a man that heareth not, and in whose mouth are no reproofs.
15 For ‡ in thee, O LORD, do I hope: thou wilt ‡ hear, O LORD my God.
16 For I said, Hear me, lest otherwise they should rejoyce over me: [l] when my foot slippeth, they magnify themselves against me.
17 For I am ready † to [m] halt, and my sorrow is continually before me.
18 For I will declare mine iniquity; I will be sorry for my sin.
19 But mine [n] enemies † are lively, and they are strong: and they that hate me wrongfully are multiplied.
20 They also that render evil for good, are mine adversaries: because I follow the thing that [o] good is.
21 Forsake me not, O LORD: O my God, be not far from me.
22 Make haste † to help me, O Lord my [p] salvation.

IX Day. Morning prayer.

1 The church in memory of former favour, 7 complaineth of her present evils. 17 Professing her integrity, 24 she fervently prayeth for succour.

¶ To the chief musician for the sons of Korah, Maschil.

WE have heard with our [a] ears, O God, our fathers have told us, what work thou didst in their days, in the times of old.

2 How thou didst drive out the [b] heathen with thy hand, and planted [c] them; how thou didst afflict the [d] people, and cast them out.

3 For [e] they got not the land in possession by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them: but thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance, because thou hadst a [f] favour unto them.

4 Thou art my King, O God, command deliverances for [g] Jacob.

5 [h] Through thee will we push down our enemies; through thy name will we tread them under that rise up against us.

6 For I will not trust in my bow, neither shall my sword save me.

7 But thou hast saved us from our enemies, and hast put them to shame that hated us.

8 In God we boast all the day long: and praise thy name for ever. Selah.

9 But thou hast cast off, and put us to [i] shame; and goest not forth with our armies.

10 Thou makest us to turn back from the enemy: and they which hate us spoil for themselves.

i As they confessed before, that their strength came of God, so now they acknowledge that this affliction came by his just judgment.

11 Thou hast given us † [k] like sheep appointed for meat: and hast scattered us among the heathen.

12 Thou sellest thy people † [l] for nought, and dost not increase thy wealth by their price.

13 * Thou makest us a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and a derision to them that are round about us.

14 * Thou makest us a by-word among the heathen: a shaking of the head among the people.

15 [m] My confusion is continually before me, and the shame of my face hath covered me:

16 For the voice of him that reproacheth and blasphemeth; by reason of the enemy and [n] avenger.

17 All this is come upon us; yet have we not [o] forgotten thee, neither have we dealt falsely in thy covenant.

18 Our heart is not turned back, neither have our ‡ steps declined from thy way.

22 * Yea, for [r] thy sake are we killed all the day long; we are counted as sheep for the slaughter.

23 Awake, why sleepest thou, O Lord? arise, cast us not off for ever.

24 Wherefore hidest thou thy face? and forgettest our affliction, and our oppression?

25 For our soul is [s] bowed down to the dust; our belly cleaveth unto the earth.

26 Arise † for our help, and redeem us for thy [t] mercies sake.

¶ To the chief musician upon Neginah, A Psalm of David.

HEar my cry, O God, attend unto my prayer.

2 From [a] the end of the earth will I cry unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed: lead me to the rock that is [b] higher then I.

3 For thou hast been a shelter for me, and a strong tower from the enemy.

4 I will abide in thy tabernacle for ever: I will ‡ trust in the covert of thy wings. Selah.

5 For thou, O God, [c] hast heard my vows: thou hast given me the heritage of those that fear thy name.

6 † Thou wilt [d] prolong the King's life: and his years † as many generations.

7 He shall abide before God for ever. O prepare [e] mercy and truth which may preserve him.

¶ To the chief musician, to Jeduthun, A Psalm of David.

‡ TRuly [a] my soul † waiteth upon God: from him cometh my salvation.

2 He onely is my rock and my salvation: he is my † defence; [b] I shall not be greatly moved.

1 David's thirst for God. 4 His manner of blessing God. 9 His confidence of his enemies destruction, and his own safety.

¶ A Psalm of David, when he was in the [a] wilderness of Judah.

O God, thou art my God, early will I seek thee: my soul [b] thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and † thirsty land, † where no water is:

2 To [c] see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary.

3 Because thy loving kindness is better then life: my lips shall praise thee.

4 Thus will I bless thee, while I live: I will lift up my hands in thy name.

5 My soul shall be satisfied as with † [d] marrow and fatness; and my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips:

6 When I remember thee upon my bed, and meditate on thee in the night-watches.

7 Because thou hast been my help; therefore in the shadow of thy wings will I rejoyce.

8 My soul [e] followeth hard after thee: thy right hand upholdeth me.

9 But those that seek my soul to destroy it, shall go into the lower parts of the earth.

10 † [f] They shall fall by the sword, they shall be a portion for foxes.

11 But the King shall rejoyce in God, every one that [g] sweareth by him shall glory: but the mouth of them that speak lies, shall be stopped.

PSAL. LXIV.

1 David prayeth for deliverance, complaining of his enemies. 7 He promiseth himself to see such an evident destruction of his enemies, as the righteous shall rejoyce at it.

¶ To the chief musician, A Psalm of David.

HEar [a] my voice, O God, in my prayer; preserve my life from fear of the enemy.

2 Hide me from the [b] secret counsel of the wicked; from the [c] insurrection of the workers of iniquity:

3 * Who whet their tongue like a sword, and bend their bows to shoot their arrows, even [d] bitter words:

4 That they may shoot in secret at the perfect: suddenly do they shoot at him, and [e] fear not.

5 They [f] encourage themselves in an evil ‡ matter: they commune † of laying snares privily, they say, Who shall see them?

6 They search out iniquities, ‡ they accomplish † a diligent search: both the inward thought of every one of them, and the heart is [g] deep.

7 But God shall shoot at them with an arrow, suddenly † shall they be wounded.

8 So they shall make their own tongue to fall upon themselves: all that see them, shall [h] flee away.

9 And all men shall fear, and shall declare the work of God: for they shall wisely consider of his doing.

10 The righteous [i] shall be glad in the LORD, and shall trust in him; and all the upright in heart shall glory.

PSAL. LXV.

4 Blessed is the man whom thou choosest and causest to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy courts: we shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, even of thy holy Temple.

5 By terrible things in righteousness, wilt thou [d] answer us, O God of our salvation: who art the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off upon the [e] Sea.

6 Which by his strength setteth fast the mountains; being girded with power.

7 Which stilleth the [f] noise of the Seas, the noise of their waves, and the tumult of the people.

8 They also that dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid at thy tokens: thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening ‡ to rejoyce.

9 Thou [g] visitest the earth and ‡ waterest it: thou greatly enrichest it with the [h] river of God which is full of water: thou preparest them corn, when thou hast so [i] provided for it.

10 [k] Thou waterest the ridges thereof abundantly: ‡ thou settlest the furrows thereof: † thou makest it soft with showers, thou blessest the springing thereof.

11 Thou crownest † the year with thy goodness, and thy paths drop fatness.

13 The pastures are clothed with flocks; the valleys also are covered over with corn; they shout for joy, [l] they also sing.

20 Reproach hath broken my heart, and I am full of heavineſs: and I [q] looked for ſome † to take pity, but there was none; and for comforters, but I found none.

21 They gave me alſo gall for my meat, * and in my thirſt they gave me vineger to drink.

22 Let their [r] table become a ſnare before them: and that which ſhould have been for their welfare, let it become a trap.

23 Let their eyes be darkned that they ſee not; and make their [ſ] loyns continually to ſhake.

24 Pour out thine indignation upon them, and let thy wrathful anger take hold of them.

25 Let † their [t] habitation be deſolate, and † let none dwell in their tents.

26 For they perſecute him whom thou haſt ſmitten, and they talk to the grief of † thoſe whom thou haſt wounded.

27 Add ‡ iniquity to their [u] iniquity: and let them not come into thy righteouſneſs.

28 Let them be blotted out of the [x] Book of the living, and not be written with the righteous.

29 But I am poor, and ſorrowful: let thy ſalvation, O God, ſet me up on high.

30 I will praiſe the name of God with a ſong, and will magnify him with thankſgiving.

31 This alſo ſhall pleaſe the LORD [y] better then an ox or bullock that hath horns and hoofs.

32 The ‡ humble ſhall ſee this, and be glad: and your heart ſhall live that ſeek God.

33 For the LORD heareth the poor, and deſpiſeth not his [z] priſoners.

34 Let the heaven and earth praiſe him, the ſeas, and every thing that † moveth therein.

35 For God will ſave Zion, and will build the cities of Judah: that they may dwell there, and have it in poſſeſſion.

36 [a] The ſeed alſo of his ſervants ſhall inherit it. and they that love his name ſhall dwell therein.

Psal. LXX.

David soliciteth God to the speedy destruction of the wicked, and preservation of the godly.

¶ To the chief musician, A Psalm of David, to bring to [a] remembrance.

MAke [b] haste, *O God, to deliver me; make haste † to help me, O Lord.

2 *Let them be ashamed and [c] confounded that seek after my soul: let them be turned backward, and put to confusion, that desire my hurt.

3 Let them be turned back for a reward of their [d] shame, that say, Aha, aha.

4 Let all those that seek thee, rejoyce, and be glad in thee: and let such as love thy salvation say continually, Let God be magnified.

5 But I am [e] poor and needy, make haste unto me, O God: thou art my help and my deliverer, O Lord, make no tarrying.

a Which might put him in remembrance of his deliverance.
b He teacheth us to be earnest in prayer, though God seem to stay: for at his time, he will hear us.
* Psal. 40. 13, &c.
† Heb. to my help.
* Psal. 35. 4. & 71. 13.
c He was assured that the more they raged, the nearer they were to destruction, and he the nearer to his deliverance.
d Hereby we are taught not to mock at others in their misery, lest the same fall on our own necks.
e Because he had felt God's help before, he groundeth on experience, and boldly seeketh unto him for succour.

Psal. LXXI.

XIV Day. Morning prayer.

1 David in confidence of faith and experience of God's favour, prayeth both for himself, and against the enemies of his soul. 14 He promiseth constancy. 17 He prayeth for perseverance. 19 He praiseth God, and promiseth to do it cheerfully.

* Psal. 31. 1.
a He prayeth to God with full assurance of faith, that he will deliver him from his adversaries.
b By declaring thy self true of promise.
† Heb. be thou to me for a rock of habitation.
c Thou hast infinite means, and all creatures are at thy commandment: therefore shew some sign, whereby I shall be delivered.
d That is, From Absolom, Ahitophel, and that conspiracy.
e He strengtheneth his faith by the experience of Gods benefits, who did not onely preserve him in his mother's belly, but took him thence, and ever since hath preserved him.
f All the world wondreth at me because of my miseries, as well they in authority, as the common people, yet being assured of thy favour, I remained stedfast.
g Thou that didst help me in my youth, when I had more strength, help me now so much the more in mine old age and weakness.
† Heb. watch, or, observe.
h Thus the wicked both blaspheme God, and triumph against his saints, as though he had forsaken them, if he suffer them to fall into their hands.
i In calling him his God, he putteth back the false reports of the adversaries that said, God hath forsaken him.

IN * [a] thee, O Lord, do I put my trust, let me never be put to confusion.

2 Deliver me in thy [b] righteousness, and cause me to escape: incline thine ear unto me, and save me.

3 † Be thou my strong habitation, whereunto I may continually resort: * thou hast given commandment to save me, for thou art my rock and my fortress.

4 Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the [d] wicked, out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.

5 For thou art my hope, O Lord God: thou art my [e] trust from my youth.

6 By thee have I been holden up from the womb: thou art he that took me out of my mother's bowels, my praise shall be continually of thee.

7 I am as a [f] wonder unto many? but thou art my strong refuge.

8 Let my mouth be filled with thy praise, and with thy honour all the day.

9 Cast me not off in the time of [g] old age, forsake me not when my strength faileth.

10 For mine enemies speak against me: and they that † lay wait for my soul, take counsel together, 11 Saying, [h] God hath forsaken him: persecute and take him, for there is none to deliver him.

12 O God, be not far from me: O [i] my God, make haste for my help.

13 Let them be confounded and consumed, that are adversaries to my soul: let them be covered with reproach and dishonour, that seek my hurt.

14 But I will hope continually, and will yet praise thee more and more.

15 My mouth shall shew forth thy righteousness, and thy salvation all the day: [k] for I know not the numbers thereof.

16 I will [l] go in the strength of the Lord God: I will make mention of thy righteousness, even of thine onely.

17 O God, thou hast taught me from my youth: and hitherto have I declared thy wondrous works.

18 [m] Now also † when I am old and grayheaded, O God, forsake me not: until I have shewed † thy strength unto this generation, and thy power to every one that is to come.

19 [n] Thy righteousness also, O God, is very high, who hast done great things: [o] O God, who is like unto thee?

20 Thou which hast [p] shewed me great and sore troubles, shalt quicken me again, and shalt bring me up again from the depths of the earth.

21 Thou shalt increase my greatness, and comfort me on every side.

22 I will also praise thee † with the psaltery, even thy [q] truth, O my God: unto thee will I sing with the harp, O thou holy One of Israel.

23 My lips shall greatly rejoyce when I sing unto thee: and my [r] soul which thou hast redeemed.

24 My tongue also shall talk of thy righteousness all the day long: for they are confounded, for they are brought unto shame, that seek my hurt.

k Because thy benefits toward me are innumerable, I cannot but continually meditate & rehearse them.
l I will remain stedfast, being upholden with the power of God.
m He desireth that as he hath begun, he would so continue his benefits, that his liberality may have perfect praise.
† Heb. unto old age, and gray hairs.
† Heb. thine arm.
n The just performance of thy promise.
o His faith breaketh through all temptations, & by this exclamation he praiseth the power of God.
p As he confesseth that God is the only authour of his deliverance: so he acknowledgeth that these evils were sent unto him by God's providence.
† Heb. with the instrument of psaltery.
q He confesseth that his long tarriance was well recompensed, when God performed his promise.
r For there is no true praising of God, except it come from the heart: & therefore he promiseth to delight in nothing but wherein God may be glorified.

Psal. LXXII.

1 David praying for Solomon, sheweth the goodness and glory of his in type, and in truth of Christ's kingdom. 18 He blesseth God.

¶ A Psalm ‡ [a] for Solomon.

GIve the King thy [b] judgments, O God, and thy righteousness unto the King's [c] son.

2 He shall judge thy people with righteousness, and thy poor with judgment.

3 The [d] mountains shall bring peace to the people, and the little hills, by righteousness.

4 He shall * judge the poor of the people, he shall save the children of the needy, and shall break in pieces the oppressour.

5 They shall [f] fear thee as long as the Sun and Moon endure, throughout all generations.

6 He shall [g] come down like rain upon the mown grass: as showrs that water the earth.

7 In his days shall the righteous flourish: and abundance of peace † so long as the Moon endureth.

8 He shall have dominion also [h] from Sea to Sea, and from the river unto the ends of the earth.

9 They that dwell in the wilderness shall bowe before him: and his enemies shall lick the dust.

10 The Kings of [i] Tarshish and of the Isles shall bring presents: the Kings of [k] Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.

11 Yea, all Kings shall fall down before him: all nations shall serve him.

‡ Or, of.
a Composed by David, as touching the reign of his son Solomon.
b Endue the King with the spirit of wisdom and justice, that he reign not as do the worldly tyrants.
c To wit, To his posterity d When justice reigneth, even the places most barren, shall be enriched with thy blessings.
e He sheweth wherefore the sword is committed to Kings: to wit, To defend the innocent, and suppress the wicked.
f The people shall embrace thy true Religion, when thou giveest a King that ruleth according to thy word.
g As this is true in all godly Kings, so is it chiefly verified in Christ, who with his heavenly dew maketh his church ever to flourish.
† Heb. till there be no Moon.
h That is, From the red-Sea to the Sea called Striacum, & from Euphrates forward: meaning, That Christ's kingdom should be large and universal. i Of Cilicia, and of all other countries beyond the Sea, which he meaneth by the Isles. k That is, Of Arabia that rich country, whereof Sheba was a part bordering upon Ethiopia.

460

12 For he shall deliver the needy when he crieth: the poor also, and him that hath no helper.

13 He shall spare the poor and needy, and shall save the souls of the needy.

14 He shall redeem their soul from deceit and violence: and [l] precious shall their blood be in his sight.

15 And he shall live, and to him † shall be given of the [m] gold of Sheba; prayer also shall be made for him continually, and daily shall he be praised.

16 There shall be an handful of corn in the earth upon the top of the mountains; the [n] fruit thereof shall shake like Lebanon, and they of the city shall flourish like grass of the earth.

17 His name † shall endure for ever: † his name shall be continued as long as the Sun: and men shall be blessed in him; all nations shall call him [o] blessed.

18 Blessed be the LORD God, the God of Israel, who onely doth [p] wondrous things.

18 And blessed be his glorious name for ever, and let the whole earth be filled with his glory; Amen, and amen.

20 The prayers of David the son of Jesse [q] are ended.

l Though tyrants pass not to shed blood, yet this godly King shall preserve his subjects from all kind of wrong.
† Heb. one shall give.
m God will both prosper his life, and also make the people most willing to obey him.
n Under such a King shall be most great plenty, both of fruits, and also of the increase of mankind.
† Heb. shall be.
† Heb. shall be as a son to continue his father's name for ever.
o They shall pray to God for his continuance, and know that God doth prosper them for his sake.
p He confesseth that except God miraculously preserve his people, that neither the King, nor the kingdom can continue.
q Concerning his son Solomon.

PSAL. LXXIII.

XIV Day. Evening prayer.

1 The Prophet prevailing in a temptation, 2 sheweth the occasion thereof, the prosperity of the wicked; 13 The wound given thereby, diffidence; 15 The victory over it, knowledge of God's purpose, in destroying of the wicked, and sustaining the righteous.

¶ ‡ A Psalm of Asaph.

‡ Or, A Psalm for Asaph.
‡ Or, yet.

TRuly [a] God is good to Israel, even to such as are † of a clean heart.

a As it were between hope and despair he bursteth forth into this affection, being assured that God would continue his favour toward such as were godly indeed, and not hypocrites.
† Heb. clean of heart.

2 But as for me, my feet were almost gone: my steps had well-nigh slipt.

3 * For I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

* Job 21. 7. Psal. 37. 1. Jer. 12. 1.

4 For there are [b] no bands in their death: but their strength is † firm.

b The wicked in this life live at pleasure, and are not drawn to death like prisoners: that is, By sickness, which is death's messenger.
† Heb fat.

5 They are not † in trouble as other men: neither are they plagued † like other men.

† Heb in the trouble of other men.
† Heb. with.

6 [c] Therefore pride compasseth them about as a chain: violence covereth them as a garment.

c They glory in their pride as some do in their chains: and in cruelty, as some do in apparel.

7 Their eyes stand out with fatness: † they have more then heart could wish.

† Heb they pass the thoughts of the heart.

8 They are corrupt, and speak wickedly concerning oppression: they speak loftily.

9 [d] They set their mouth against the heavens; and their tongue walketh through the earth.

d They blaspheme God, and fear not his power, and rail upon men because they esteem themselves above all others.

10 Therefore [e] his people return hither: and waters of a full cup are wrung out to them.
